PROCLAMATION Seventh Observance Of Public Schools Week

To the Citizens of Lockney School District:
The struggle of men for freedom and the dignity that adorns freedom is an old story, but one that has attained increasing importance in these years of uncertainties. Perhaps never before has man lived in a world of such opportunities, where he has to take his stand for freedom as against slavery, integrity as against degradation, Christian brotherhood as opposed to primitive brutality, intelligence against superstition.

Sometimes we see as through a glass, darkly, but the image is becoming more and more clearly revealed. The struggle now is for the minds of men. Certainly we need bodies, spiritual growth and stout courage, but we also need clean-cut concepts of the way of life of free men. Our forefathers in their prophetic wisdom provided the instrumentality for all of this in the public school, which today assumes increasing importance as we look to our youth to take up the burden of the struggle which we must soon pass on to them.

Lockney can well take pride in its devotion to the principle of free schools—free from bigotry and falsehood, as we prepare our own Seventh Annual Public School observance.

I, therefore, Proclaim and Direct That all citizens of Lockney School District should observe Public School Week March 4th through March 8th, 1957, and urge every citizen to visit one of our schools during this period and to become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational system.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 25th day of February, 1957.

J. E. COX
Mayor of Lockney.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK TO BE OBSERVED HERE MARCH 4-8

Texas Public Schools Week will be observed by Lockney Schools March 4th through the 8th. High School Principal F. M. Smith has announced. An appropriate program including visitation, open house, and an invitation to citizens to eat at the school cafeterias has been worked out.

Everyone is invited to visit the schools some time during the week, Mr. Smith said. Also the public is invited to attend the various programs planned during the week.

On Tuesday evening, March 5th, open house will be held at the grade school building from 7:30 to 8:30. Mrs. Alma Dutton, grade school principal invites everyone to attend this open house.

On Wednesday, March 6th, Henry Tuebel, prominent speaker of Tulla, will address the student body of Lockney High School at 1:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

On Thursday, March 7th, the Junior High School students will present a program in the high school auditorium at 2:30 p. m.

A schedule has been worked out for various clubs and organizations wishing to eat at the cafeterias. Mr. Smith said that a special invitation is being extended to these organizations to have lunch at the school cafeterias on the following schedule:

Monday, March 4 — Rebekah Lodge at high school cafeteria, B & P. W. at grade school cafeteria.

Anyone who is not a member of any of the above organizations will be welcome to take lunch any day that is convenient for them, Mr. Smith said. Everyone, including members of the above organizations, should call the school and make a reservation on the day they plan to eat lunch not later than 9:30 a. m.

There will be no school on Friday, March 8th, since there will be a district meeting of teachers in District IV, Texas State Teachers Association, in Lubbock on that day. All teachers of the Lockney school system will attend this meeting.

The same dates, March 4-8 have been set aside as Teacher Appreciation Week by proclamation of Governor Price Daniel. The Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers sponsored this special week in appreciation of school teachers.

On Tuesday at 7:30 a. m. the Student Council will honor the teachers of grade school, junior high and high school with a breakfast in the high school cafeteria.

CHARLIE SMITH DIES IN TRACTOR ACCIDENT WED.

Charlie Smith, local dirt contractor and former county commissioner, died instantly just before 11 a. m. Wednesday when a heavy tractor rolled over his chest. The accident happened on the Reed Lawson farm, a mile east and 3 1/2 miles north of Lone Star.

Mr. Smith was alone at the time of the accident but his body was discovered soon afterward by Rev. H. H. Sego, pastor of the Lone Star Baptist Church, who passed along a road nearby. Rev. Sego and his wife noticed him lying under the tractor very near the road and after driving some distance down the road decided that something was wrong and went back to investigate. According to those who visited the scene appearance indicated that Mr. Smith had jammed up the left rear wheel of the big WD9 International tractor because the wheel was leaking grease. Apparently he had put the machine in reverse with the wheel jacked up and was down on the ground inspecting it when the jack gradually sunk into the soft ground until the tire caught on the ground. When that happened the machine went backward off the jack and rolled over his body. It stopped when a big dirt carryall attached to the tractor jack-knifed. He was lying between the left front and rear wheels when found.

When Rev. Sego investigated he stayed with the body and sent his wife to the Lowell Jarrett farm nearby. Having no telephone there Mrs. Seago and Mrs. Jarrett went on to the Reed Lawson residence where they called Carter's for an ambulance. The body was first carried to Lockney General Hospital but apparently death had been instantly. Ben Wood and Deputy Sheriff Cap Carthel took the ambulance out after the body.

Mr. Smith was last seen alive by W. C. Mercer Jr., driver of a butane truck for Keystone Fleming Co. Mercer reported that he passed the field about 10:30 and saw Mr. Smith apparently filling his tractor. Rev. Sego discovered the body at 10:50 a. m. Smith was filling a lake on the Lawson farm and had been working at the job for several days.

Smith's glasses were still on and his hat was lying beside his head. He had one glove on and one off, apparently having been working on the tractor.

Definite arrangements for funeral services had not been made late Wednesday but members of the family said that services would probably be held Friday afternoon at the Lockney Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Floydada cemetery where a brother and his mother are buried.

Charles Henry Smith was born January 29, 1906 at Blue Ridge, Texas. The family moved to Lockney in 1914. He was married to Effie Lee Brooks on July 11, 1933 at Olton, Texas. The couple had made their home here most of the time since but lived for a short while at Odessa and Brady.

Mr. Smith had been a contractor and dirt moving contractor here for a number of years. He served Floyd County as Commissioner from Precinct 2 from 1944 to 1948. In recent years he had done some farming also. He was a member of the Lockney Lions Club.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Lockney Methodist Church and had been active in church work. Survivors include his wife, two sons, Alfred, now a student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, and Charles Jr. of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Clara Lee Smith of Bryan, Texas; his father, Al Smith of Lockney; two brothers, Woodrow and Joe Smith of Amarillo; three sisters, Mrs. A. C. Galloway of Lockney, Mrs. Elmer Swaffar of Floydada and Mrs. Arthur Folsom Jr. of Amarillo. Two grandchildren also survive. His mother died in 1936 and a brother, Tom, died in 1953.

Three incumbents have filed for re-election to city offices, City Secretary Juanita Thompson said Wednesday. They are J. E. Cox, for mayor; Kelton Shaw and Jimmie Hodiel for city aldermen.

No other names had been filed for any of the offices late Wednesday. Deadline for filing for a place on the city ballot is Saturday of this week, March 2nd. The election will be held Tuesday, April 2nd.

Lockney has retained its 20% good fire record credit for the coming year on insurance premiums, according to word this week from Mark Wentz, State Commissioner and Fire Marshal.

Despite the fact that losses during the calendar year 1956 were twice as high as premiums, still the city retained its credit. Premiums were quoted by Mr. Wentz at $31,962 and losses at $63,147. These included the grade school fire and one at the post office which damaged adjoining businesses.

The fire record is figured over a period of several years and Lockney's record in previous years kept the past year's losses from affecting the rate. The city had a 20% good credit last year.

you must provide housing that will meet with that department's approval — which probably includes hot and cold running water, floral designs
on the wall paper, a bath tub
for each individual and central heating. The poor National will probably never understand what half of the things are for but that is of no consequence
to the Labor Department.

NOW THE DEPARTMENT
comes out with a letter to Governor Price Daniel, and probably one to all other governors,
urging that the state governments pass laws providing for unemployment insurance and minimum wages, among other things. The national government already has a minimum wage law and if we can get one or two more passed and the minimum wage raised just a little more a lot of employed people are going to be "minimum waged" right out of a job. Then they can start drawing unemployment insurance provided they were employed by a firm which had four or more employees for a total of 20
weeks in any one calendar
year — if you are still with us.

CREeping SOCIALISM is no longer creeping. It is rushing upon us and it appears to make little difference which party is in power. How long will people allow the national and state governments to continue their inroads into their private affairs we do not propose to say. Perhaps the trend will never stop until all things are handled by the governments and the nation collapses
from internal decay, which will be a direct result of socialism. We're afraid "rugged individualism," one of the characteristics which made this a great nation, is a thing of the past for most people.

THOSE WHO advocate "legal control" of liquor use as one of their arguments that legalized
liquor does away with law violations and brings more respect for law than does outright prohibition. The recent monthly report of the State Liquor Control Board does not seem to bear out this contention. According to the report for December, 1956, in dry areas there were 106 cases filed resulting in 221 convictions, with fines and costs running $40,815.50. In wet areas during the same month there were 149 cases filed resulting in 178 convictions with fines and costs totalling $12,909.45. As anyone can see there is little difference in the number of cases filed and the number of convictions.

There is considerable difference in the amount of money collected which apparently means that convictions in dry areas bring much heavier fines than those in wet areas.

INTERESTING is the fact that of the 149 cases filed in wet areas, the largest number for any single violation was possession of alcoholic beverages in a public place by a minor. In other words those who legally sell liquor have as little respect for the law as do bootleggers in dry territories. The next highest number of cases was for sale of liquor without a permit, which is the same as bootlegging. In dry areas, of course, the most cases were filed for possession of liquor for sale. The boys who claim that legalized sale of liquor will cure the ills of the liquor traffic and bring respect for law need to study the reports of the Liquor Control Board. We think it is very apparent that those who sell liquor, on the average, have no respect for law in either the wet or dry territory.

THE SERIOUSNESS of the act depends upon where it happens. Just last week a Negro man was knocked down and kicked to death in Boston; when he talked back to two white men who had insulted his wife.
A very small beating and a two inch story was all there was in the daily newspapers concerning it. But what would have been the results had it happened in the South? The cry of "lynch law" would have been heard all over the North.
The case would have been publicized to high heaven by the NAACP and pointed to as an example of the cruelty of the South toward the Negro.
Colored people need to wake up to the fact that their best friends are people of the South.

SUCCESS nowadays is making more money to pay the taxes which you would not be paying if you had not made so much money already.

NO TIME TO LOSE!

With Our EXCHANGES

WOMEN'S HATS

While devoting thought to national problems, I have, with pardonable pride, arrived at the solution of a delicate expensive and confused condition. Many men with greater talents than mine must have thought about women's hats,
but instead of attempting to bring order out of the seasonal chaos, they have returned to the more peaceful word of masculine thinking. I suggest that women's hats be nationalized in style, material and color, something like hats worn
by branches of the military.
Every woman would have exactly the same style and color hat as her neighbor. A government price support arrangement would compel each shop to sell for the same amount of money. All the strife, bitterness and uncomfortable moments

would cease. Fixed regulations would determine when hats are to be worn and when they are to be left at home and the savings should pay the interest on the national debt. Where is my hat? I must be going — Trail Dust in Matador Tribune.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

A lot of people do not agree with proposals to discontinue common school districts, the office of county superintendents and county school boards, and annex smaller school districts to larger ones. But, so long as the state and federal governments are footing the bills to such a large percent the citizens of the district are going to have little to say about the matter. In the old days school districts were self supporting and therefore the patrons had full control of operations through their elected boards of trustees. Today most of the money required to run the Saint Jo
district comes from Austin.

With the setup completely directed from the state level, local boards are without much of their power. Another unpopular proposal would require a 12 grade accredited school with average attendance of at least 500 to qualify as an active state aid district. Those failing to meet that standard would have to annex with an existing active district. — Bits
of Nothing in Saint Jo Tribune.

MISNOMER

Maxwell Anderson, in his book, "The greatest enemies of democracy are those violent reactionaries," are those who have lost faith in the capacity of a free people to manage their own affairs and wish to set up the government as a political and social guardian, running their business and making their decisions for them. This is statism or statism,
no matter who advocates it,
and its plain treason to freedom.

It is an unhappy irony that the fine old word "liberal" has been appropriated by people who want the government to run everything, decide everything and boss every one. This is as far from classical and traditional liberalism as a man can get. The advocates of the super state are, as Mr. Anderson pointed out, the real reactionaries. — This and That in Kress News.

Dear Editor:

I see where a government
statistic says that 1,660,000 fewer people were working at jobs in January, but the number of unemployed only went up 409,000.

It was kind of a mystery to me, what happened to the 3 out of 4 who seem to have disappeared somewhere in between losing their jobs and getting on the unemployment list.

But my forward-looking neighbor cleared it up at coffee this morning. Says these figures show that when one working man loses his job, three installment collectors starve to death.

FORD IS AMERICA'S WINNINGEST CAR!

For 1957, Ford's off to a flying start on the NASCAR Short Track, Convertible and Grand National Race Circuit—with more points than all other cars combined!

And now—just in from Daytona—seven more Ford firsts!

- A 300-hp 1957 Ford V-8 out-accelerated all other low-priced cars in the standing mile competition.
- A 1957 Ford Sunliner outclassed all other low-priced cars in the 160-mile National Convertible Championship Race.
- A modified Ford Thunderbird, running in the Experimental Class, out-accelerated every other car in NASCAR history.
- A modified Thunderbird topped every American Sports Car, finished first in its class and placed second to Europe's fastest sports car at the National Amateur Sports Car Race.
- A standard production Thunderbird took first place in the flying mile—outperforming all sports cars made in America.
- A modified Thunderbird won the flying mile in the fastest time made by any car at Daytona this year.
- And a Ford Thunderbird topped the field in acceleration from a standing start in Modified Sports Car Class B.

It was Ford Thunderbird power that set a new stock car record at Indianapolis, too... and powered the '57 Ford to 458 world endurance records at Bonneville, Utah.

Cub Scouts Get Pins At Blue-Gold Banquet

Eighteen members of Cub Scout Pack No. 59 received pins and awards at the annual Cub Scout Blue and Gold banquet last Thursday evening in the Lockney High School cafeteria. Parents of the Scouts pinned the awards on their sons.

Cubmaster Thurman Davis presided over the program which followed a sumptuous meal. R. C. Mitchell gave the invocation and Den 5 presented the flag ceremony. Cubmaster Davis extended a welcome to the some 130 Cub Scouts and parents and then introduced the various Den Mothers, who in turn introduced the Cub Scouts in their dens.

Each of the five dens presented a stunt or a skit for the nights program ending with a quiz show by Den 2 with Clar Schacht as quiz master.

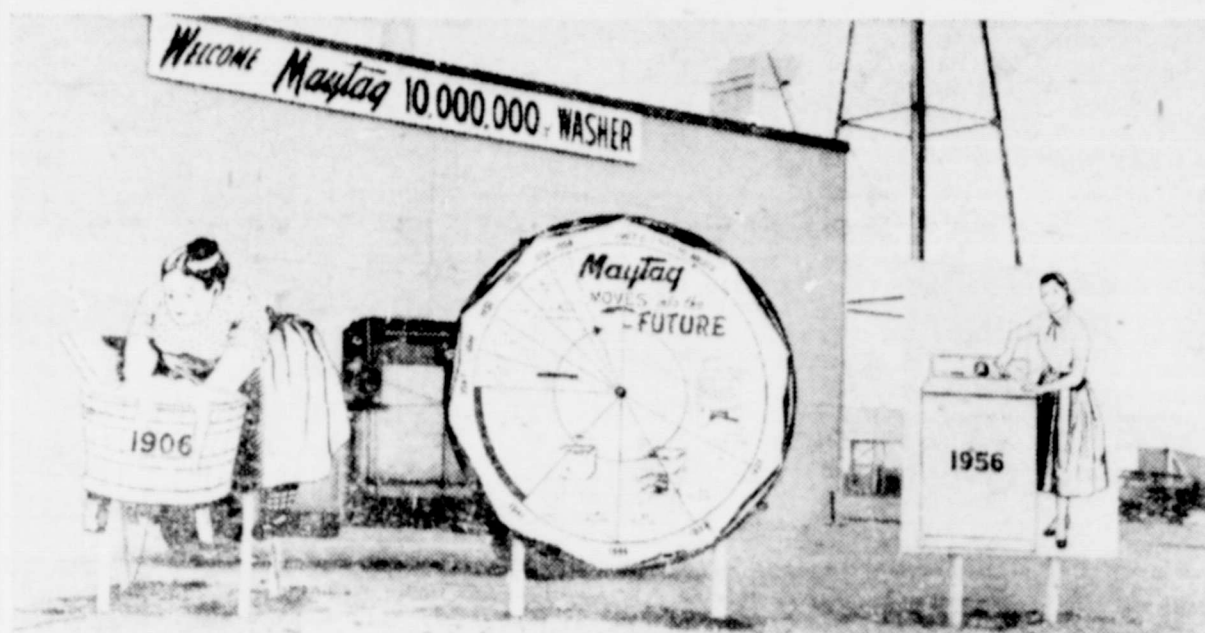

Bobcat pins were awarded to Derrel Phillips, Dale Galloway, Bryon Schacht and Ricky Kellison. Wolf pins were awarded to Bryon Schacht, Ricky Kellison, Dale Brown, Donald Henderson, Bob Kropp, Eric Bayley, Milton Adams, Mark Wade Merrell, Tim Hartman, Phil Lemons, Tommy Joe Sherman. A Lion pin was awarded to Clar Schacht and Arrow Points earned by Paul Barker and Bobby Miller.

The cafeteria was appropriately decorated for the occasion with members of each of the five dens, their parents and leaders sitting at separate tables. Each table had its own decorative theme, cleverly arranged in blue and gold. The programs were gold stamped with cub scout emblem in blue. Center of attraction was a separate table covered with a gold colored cloth and accented with a three tiered cake iced in gold and lettered in blue with the names of the cub packs.

Closing the program the boys sang "This Little Cub Light of Mine" and "Good Night Cub Scouts."

The Marine Corps insignia, substantially the same as that now in use, was adopted in 1858.

Maytag Produces 10-Millionth Washer

The 10-Millionth Maytag washer truly came off the production line with a "plash" as this independent home laundry appliance manufacturer set a production record unequalled in the industry. Aerial bombs signaled completion of the historic machine, christened with a flagon of cold water, symbolizing Maytag's pioneering in cold water washing for synthetic fabrics. Christening (upper right) was done by Mary Margaret Christianson, Maytag home service director, as Maytag Queen Jerry Reiveldt looks on. The ceremony was held at the Newton, Iowa, automatic washer and dryer plant of the 63-year-old firm. Besides production line ceremonies, the 10-millionth celebration included an open house and plant tours for the community and an all-employee party and dance in an adjoining warehouse. Tour visitors passed through a giant replica of the Maytag All-Fabric automatic washer (upper left). Chronology of Maytag's 10 million washers was shown on a large sign (above). At a 10-millionth day luncheon, B. J. Hank, president of the American Home Laundry Manufacturers association, said, "This is a production milestone reached by no other company in the industry. One of the oldest companies in the home laundry appliance industry, Maytag is not only the leader today in the total number of washing machines produced, but also in the total number in use."

150 Attend Soil Day Meeting

Despite rain and sleet some 150 attended the ninth annual Soil Fertility Day meeting here last Friday. The meeting was held at the Plains Theatre and the free barbecue at noon served by the Chamber of Commerce at the Legion Hall.

Speakers included M. K. Orman of the Fort Worth & Denver, For Worth; Jack King, associate county agent, Lubbock County; Jack Boston, A. & M. College, College Station; J. D. Prewitt, associate director, Texas Extension Service, A. & M.; M. K. Thornton, A. & M. College, College Station and Dr. Kenneth Porter of the Experiment Station, Amarillo.

Most interest by the farmers appeared to be in hybrid grain sorghums and fertilizers.

The Lockney High School Orchestra, under the direction of Clyde Seaman, opened the morning program. Mayor J. E. Cox gave the address of welcome.

Ned J. Bradley of Floydada was the morning chairman and Robert Lee Smith of Sterley the afternoon chairman.

A panel composed of Jerry Cooper, M. D. Lacy and Claud Holley concluded the day's program.

Mr. Orman and representatives of the Burlington Lines were hosts to members of the program committee at a breakfast on the railway dining car Friday morning, to a group of local women at noon Friday and to a number of business men at a dinner Friday evening.

Simple One-Nozzle Spray Unit Best For Insect Control

College Station — Simple one-nozzle spray attachments will control cotton insects as effectively as the more complex arrangements and often tend to produce higher yields, according to Agriculture Engineering Professors at Texas A. & M. College. Tests conducted at the Brazos River Valley Laboratory with nozzles producing hollow cone patterns and others producing flat fan-shaped patterns favor the one-nozzle-per-row treatment over a five-year period. No spray arrangement has shown a consistent advantage other than the simple operation and low initial cost of the one-nozzle-per-row system.

Tests were conducted with a six-row rear-mounted tractor sprayer using detachable drops and arrangements varying from one to four nozzles per row. Spray solution was applied at the rate of 4.5 gallons

Legion Sponsors Subscription Drive

The Lockney Post of the American Legion is sponsoring a magazine subscription drive here by Capper Publications, Inc. Post Commander Curtis Williams said this week. The Post's share of the commissions will be used to buy a hospital bed and possibly a walker for polio patients, it was explained.

The local post has sponsored the subscription drive two previous years and have secured three wheel chairs and six pair of crutches which are loaned free of charge on a temporary basis to anyone in the county needing them. The hospital bed will be loaned in the same way.

No donations are accepted in the drive, Williams said but the bed and chairs are purchased solely from commissions made on the sale of the magazine subscriptions.

Marines raised the flag over the customs house at Monterey, California on July 7, 1846, and took possession from the Mexican commandant.

Aiken Y. W. A. Sells Plates

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Aiken Baptist Church has selected as a money raising project the selling of decorative plates. The plates feature a picture of the Aiken Baptist Church on the front and a brief history of it on the back. These plates sell at three dollars each, with twenty-nine cents extra for a hanger.

The money from the sales will go into the fund for a trip to camp at Glorieta, New Mexico.

It is hoped that everyone who is connected with the Church at present or has been in the past will want one of these beautiful plates. Anyone interested should contact a member of the Aiken Y. W. A.

Dear Editor:
I note that you newspapers are always harping on the matter of how some school boards, legislative committees, and other public-business runners are inclined to meet too often cut behind the barn.

Seems this is what they call "executive" meetings, which means meetings where they are fixing to do something which the public will be happier not knowing about.

Evidently you editors just don't appreciate the pains that these fellows are taking to shield you from worry about everything except paying taxes.

Insecticides Are Dangerous, Warns Extension Expert

College Station. — Failure to observe manufacturer's directions when handling highly toxic insecticides and pesticides is risky business, warn Extension Entomologists C. F. Garner and F. M. Fuller. Certain solvents used in preparing insecticides solutions or emulsions, they add, are inflammable and most of them poisonous to humans.

The specialists say insecticide injury to man is most common through oral and respiratory intake or by skin absorption. Continued exposure even to lower insecticide concentrations, with no regard to safety measures, can result in an accumulation of chemicals in the body and may cause eventual tissue or organic injury.

Many phosphorous compounds, such as parathion, methyl parathion, EPN, TEPP, demeton, Diazinon, Phosdrin, Thimet and Guthion, are extremely poisonous and must be handled with care at all times, assert the specialists. They add that phosphorous insecticides are much more poisonous to warm-blooded animals than most other chemicals used for insect control.

Since phosphorous insecticides tend to reduce the cholinesterase enzyme tests, entomologists advise regular handlers of such chemicals to have cholinesterase tests at 10-day intervals while working with the material. Your local doctor can tell you about these tests.

It's a good idea to bathe and change clothing immediately following a highly toxic job and not enter a field for two or three days after it has been treated, the specialists point out. Always wear gloves and freshly laundered protective clothing during handling and stop working if a toxic insecticide is spilled on skin or clothing for a thorough bath and a change of clothes, they advise.

Other pointers to remember include the use of approved respirators; protection of all persons and livestock from drifts, sprays, or dusts; and the storage of sprays and dusts away from children, irresponsible people, and all forms of food and feed.

ENTERTAIN WITH EASE

If you plan to have a few in for a supper party have grilled chicken livers with curried rice and a touch of broiled bacon, a chafing dish of creamed oysters with hot buttered garlic bread on the side. And deep-dish apple pie served with cream for dessert.

The ricksha used in the Orient today was invented by Jonathan Goble, a Marine who visited Japan with Perry in 1854.

DESPERATE FOR SPACE?

Home owners really desperate for storage space may be able to borrow this idea from some of the newer dwellings: Overhead shelves in the garage.

ORY NO. 10—in a series of articles on Duval County by Frederick Hodgson and Franz Rosenwald. New York newspaper and magazine writers who visited Duval County and wrote the series exclusively for Texas readers.

People Take Over in Duval County; County Government Has New Look

By--FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, Tex.—Things are different in Duval County. No matter how brightly the lust for liberty burns, it takes a little now-how to jump in and operate government according to the constitution. Before the "clean-up," Duval County leaders had had their government run for them since before World War I, and unashamedly admitted they were rusty as the nails in the Ark. They obtained and circulated elementary textbooks on county government and read them dime novels.

As a result, Duval County became a textbook on democracy. It would have made any county in the United States ashamed of itself to see Duval citizens religiously attending every meeting of the school boards and the commissioners court in such numbers that crowds had to stand out on the courthouse lawn.

This is the courthouse, here in San Diego, Texas, where Parr's on-supporters say they were never allowed to enter unless they were summoned. They never saw inside of the district courtroom, they say, "unless we were tried for something we did not do." The meetings of the commissioner court and school boards were always held in secret, at all.

After "Operation Clean-up" an invisible line developed down the middle of the courtroom, dividing the Parr people from the non-Parr people. Many of the Parr people had relatives under indictment. Every day was a big day in court, with overflow crowds. One day the Duke himself appeared to answer an indictment. Another day a handful of school trustees arrived, with a motion to quash an indictment. The next day half a dozen lawyers tangled with District Attorney Sam Burris and the State men. Now and then a stranger stood up or shuffled his feet to remind the participants that "It's peaceful here, and we mean to keep it peaceful."

The courthouse is the Sanctum sanctorum from which all but Parr's "Old Party" members were excluded. There are other places besides the courthouse that used to be rigidly off limits to Parr's opposition, but not any more. The San Diego Community Center, a public building, now is accessible to any group of citizens, no matter how they vote. And that's new in Duval County.

No, sir, you wouldn't know the Duke with his new look. People stand around in the drug stores and talk about whatever they please without whispering, without looking over their shoulders to see who is near. This is maybe the biggest, the most striking change.

Business has picked up in the Duke's domain. Manuel Marroquin, whose tortilla bakery was out of business by Parr, started over again before he began publishing his newspaper, the Jew Duval. He had to set up his safe across the line in Jim Wells county, just outside San Diego, until all the old customers who had quit trading with him on the Duke's orders came back. They bought his tortillas and his milk, and now they read his newspaper. A lot of Duval residents are coming back home to work from the surrounding counties where they say Parr drove them by forcing their employment in Duval. Some have been traveling 20 to 60 miles to their jobs in Oilton and Palfurrias and Alice because nobody would hire them in George Parr's county. There are many in this category—exiles from sunup to sundown, six days a week. Now they're coming home.

Life, business, government, even love—they've all been haywire in this haywire county, and are getting back to normal. Boys and girls who couldn't date each other and fall in love because one family had Parr's blessing and another his curse, now can give Cupid a free rein. The invisible barriers of hatred are falling down. Romeo and Juliet have come into their own.

In the schoolrooms—the distinction—the discrimination—between the kids of "Parr people" and others has pretty well vanished. You don't have to be the child of an "Old Party" family to go to the fair now and sell your 4-H Club calves and lambs. If you're poor, you don't have to be a Parr follower in order for your kids to get free milk at the school cafeteria. Giving milk to one child and withholding it from another for reasons of politics is just one of the many quaint practices condemned by Duval County grand juries that have been looking into things since the State of Texas moved in on the stronghold of the Duke.

The changes in Duval County don't mean that Parr isn't still fighting. Those who know him best say he'll be fighting when the iron doors clang behind him. The men who hang around the courthouse, the ones who couldn't hang around there before, will tell you that George Parr's ghost will walk those dim halls fifty years after he has fought his last fight.

You don't get rid of 40 years of Parrism quickly. A whole generation of men and women in one Texas county have been born and brought up in a climate of fear, hatred and distrust. There are those who have always eaten at the public trough, always had the protection of a Big Boss, and always helped him elect his candidates, spy on his enemies, destroy his opposition. In Duval County there are still many of these, and they have children. Their Golden Age has passed away, and they will mourn for it because they, like the Duke of Duval, have been born in the wrong century. They are a part of feudalism, part of a day when little kings dominated a few hundred square miles of earth, overtaxed their impoverished serfs, and amused themselves with senseless wars.

But the rest of the people in Duval County have just come into their Golden Age. They have a new dignity. They have a new hope. They have a County Auditor, an impartial grand jury, supervised elections, and police protection. As one Duval rancher put it, the clouds have parted and the sun has broken through.

To be sure, the sharp crack of legal conflict is still heard. There is still tumult and shouting in Judge Woodrow Laughlin's district courtroom. But the roar of the big legal artillery that has rattled the whole State of Texas for three years, while George Parr and his friends fought their way to hold their fortress intact, has died out. The final score has yet to be tallied, but the trend is clear. The watchers in the grandstand are picking up their pennants and going home, and the boys in the press box already have written their copy for the morning edition.

What does the Duval story mean to the State of Texas?

My colleague, Franz Rosenwald, has seen more than one dictatorship rise, flourish, fizzle and die. He says there are two things to remember about dictatorships.

First, they don't just fizzle by themselves. They have to be helped along by people who are fed up with them. Second, there's not much hope for people who get rid of one dictator and fail to lock the door against the next one. And there is always a next one.

Under the Texas Constitution there's not likely to be a dictatorial governor, nor even a Legislature that gets too far out of line. The old state charter was written in 1875, when carpet-baggers were crawling all over the capital, and the men who wrote it made provisions against abuses of power on the state level. They made Texas counties relatively autonomous, letting them retain much authority which ordinarily belongs to a state. This is especially true of the criminal law.

This local autonomy is a good thing, provided you have safeguards against its misuse. But once a county boss learns enough law to take advantage of the loopholes, you've got a dictator on your hands. This is the way former Attorney General John Ben Shepperd explains it: "By controlling elections through threats, bribery or the miscounting of the ballots, you control the sheriff, the county and district judges, and the county and district attorneys. Your puppet district judge appoints the grand jury commissions, and they appoint the judges. Since you control the offices, you can lock up or destroy the records, thus removing the evidence. You cannot be arrested, indicted, tried, convicted or sentenced. You are the law in your county."

If you steal or misapply the county funds, nobody will know it because you can just refuse to let them see the records. There are few penalties for such secretiveness. Besides, whether you are accused of hiding records or stealing money, or both, you have to be indicted in the county of the offense. And, remember, the grand jury is in your own pocket along with the judge and the prosecuting attorney.

In most cases you can't even be sued for the money you have scooped out of the till, because recovery suits can only be started with the permission of the governing body of the agency you have stolen from. When Shepperd's office and District Attorney Sam Burris filed a suit to recover money misappropriated by the Duval County Commissioners Court, the Commissioners effectively stalled it by refusing to go along with it. It took a couple of dozen court hassles in three different counties and several changes in county commissioners to straighten the mess out.

Back to those secret records. There is no adequate law under which you can be removed from office for refusing to show them. And you can always do as the county auditor of Duval County did. He stood on the Fifth Amendment and refused to say where his records were kept on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate him. There's no law against that, either.

Texas needs many new laws to protect its citizens against another "Duval County." Fifteen corrective measures have been introduced in the Legislature, by the Texas Press Association. Each of these "Better Government Bills" merits public support.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Handley returned home Sunday after spending ten days visiting relatives in Wellington.

Mrs. Marvin Cox and Ruth accompanied Mrs. Arthur Cox and Keith of Amarillo to Alpine Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kelley and Cheryl. Arthur Cox who is working in the area also was a visitor in the Kelley home. The local people returned home Sunday afternoon.

The denomination is expected to give $75,000,000 through its churches this year. The goal for 1958 is $80,000,000.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

Shortening The Miles

It used to be that we could keep in touch with our families and friends with a chat over the backyard fence or a wave and friendly greeting from the front porch.

But it seems like people are moving around more these days — from city to city and out-of-state. Some of them settle close enough around Lockney that you can get together frequently on weekends. But others pack up and leave for places hundreds or even a thousand miles away.

Today, however, you can forget the miles that separate you — because of the telephone. A Long Distance call can cover the distance in seconds. You can reach friends or relatives in distant cities just as fast as you can set up an over-the-fence talk.

Calling Long Distance is fast, it's personal, and the cost is low. You can call from Lockney to any place in the United States for less than $2.00. That's the station-to-station rate, every night after 6 p. m. and all day Sunday.

So when you make your next Long Distance call remember to call station-to-station — the cost is about 1-3 less than for person-to-person. And always call by number... it's twice as fast.

Just Reach When It Rings

People tell me from time to time that whenever their telephone rings, it seems they're off in another room, and have to make a dash to answer.

When this happens, they usually reach the telephone out of breath, or maybe with a bruised shin.

There's a remedy to this situation — an easy low-cost remedy that more and more people are discovering. You guessed it — additional telephones that are handy wherever you might be when you hear the familiar ring.

To have telephones so handy you can just reach instead of running, call the telephone company.

The cost for a home extension telephone is low; only $1.00 a month, plus tax and a small one-time installation charge.

Ready To Help

If you're like most people I know, you'll have no trouble remembering the many pleasures you've gotten from making or receiving telephone calls.

On the other hand, you can probably recall times of emergency, too, when the telephone has played its part.

To me, the important thing is that people rely on the telephone. That's what makes telephone service of real value to you. No matter what happens, your telephone is always right at hand, ready to help.

And nowhere is the telephone more valuable than beside you in your home — helping to protect the security of your family, or to pass on glad news to friends and relatives.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

The Hilburn Caseys Have Narrow Escape

Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn Casey narrowly escaped death by apoplexy at their home Friday night.

Mrs. Casey awakened about 3:00 a. m. and when she smelled butane, went to check a heater in the living room. She passed out before reaching the stove and was found lying on the floor by her husband some time later. He opened doors and windows and Mrs. Casey revived but fainted again. By this time Mr. Casey was ill himself. His efforts to awaken his daughter who lives near by were unsuccessful for some time but he managed to arouse E. A. McLeod by phone and he and his wife helped them get to Lockney General Hospital for treatment.

They received treatment until noon Saturday when they were released. The Caseys' son, Donice was spending the night in town and was not at home because of muddy roads. His room is much nearer the faulty heater than is his parents' bedroom and he might have been more affected than they, had he been there.

THE 2nd ARMORED DIVISION—"HELL ON WHEELS"

December 23-25, 1944 The Battle of the Bulge

After a long retreat the Germans were sent forward in an attempted breakthrough which was intended to sweep them into Belgium and then into France. The lightly-held Ardennes Forest line was selected as the point to be assaulted.

High water mark of this desperate attack was about five miles from Dinant, a Belgian town on the Meuse River. There the 2nd Armored Division blocked the advance of the Panzers and engaged them in a three day battle. The Germans were overwhelmingly defeated. Eighty-one enemy tanks, 405 trucks and 81 artillery pieces were destroyed as the deepest German penetration during the Bulge fighting was crushed.

Sterley News

By Mrs. Virgil Adams

The Sterley Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, Feb. 21 in the home of Mrs. Guy Sams. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Bryan Smith, the president who read the T. H. D. A. Prayer and Creed.

We had two demonstrations. They were "Principals of Work Simplifications," and "A Job Simplified." Mrs. Herman Huffman and Mrs. R. H. Tinsley were demonstrators. Mrs. Huffman read some ways of making motions count while doing house work and ways to simplify some jobs. Mrs. Tinsley showed making a bed completely with both sheets, blanket, spread and pillows and only walked around the bed one time.

Mrs. Tinsley also demonstrated hanging out the wash to make it easier to fold and iron. The flat pieces such as towels should be hung with one-third over the line to avoid dog-eared corners. Sheets should be doubled with hems together and then hang one-third over the line. Hang shirts by their tails placed over the line and fasten with a clothes pin at the center and both sides with fronts pulled together.

We were very glad to have Mrs. Brummett, the Demonstrator to visit our club. The hostess served cherry pie and coffee. Mmes. Harriett Brummett, Bryan Smith, E. A. McLeod, Joe Reeves, A. D. Schaffner, R. H. Tinsley, Herman Huffman, Bruce Whitlock, Elmo Schaffner and Virgil Adams and three children.

We were very glad to have Mrs. Elmo Schaffner as a new member. They have just moved in the community. Next meeting will be March seventh in the home of Mrs. Tinsley. The program will be on care of fruit trees and flowers and notes on Civil Defense.

Mrs. Marie Henderson was hostess February 21 for a bridge party. Those present were: Mrs. Betta Wofford, Claudia Belt, Lucille Smith, Gladys Bobbitt, Ruth Smith, Sally Patterson and Mary Louise McClelland. Betta Wofford won high score with Claudia Belt winning consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Adams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Red Archer went to Canyon Sunday afternoon and went through the museum.

Donna Newkirk had tonsillectomy Friday morning at Lockney General Hospital. She is at home now and is feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim McMahon, south of Aiken Sunday afternoon. The McMahan's moved from our community the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dallas and son, Jimmy and Mrs. C. M. Williams of Lubbock visited in the Bryan Smith home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Evans and children of Amarillo visited in the Robert Lee Smith home

Dear Editor:

I see where there is considerable crying out in Washington about the "enormous" $2.9 billion loss which the government has taken in four years of farm price supporting.

Hasn't been near that much commotion about the $12 billion or so foreign aid which also went down the drain the same four years.

Seems that lots of people have the type of astigmatism which makes outgoing dollars look different in size, depending on what errand they're on. Like a nickel in a church plate looks much bigger than one going into a juke box slot.

Gives Scholarship To Wayland College

Plainview — Wayland College is the recipient of a $250 scholarship from the Featherlite Corporation of Austin through Cloyce Harrison, general manager of Texas Concrete Block Company, which has offices in Lubbock.

Instead of giving Christmas gifts to customers, E. G. Kingsberry, president of Featherlite, conceived the idea of making scholarship grants to colleges in the areas served by his corporation. As a result, Wayland Baptist College, Texas Technological College, Lubbock; Sul Ross State College, Alpine; Hardin Simmons University, Abilene Christian College and McMurry College, Abilene, have new scholarships.

In his statement to President A. Hope Owen, Mr. Kingsberry said, "We want to make an investment in the college youth of West Texas. We feel that much more can be accomplished than through customary Christmas gifts to customers."

Saturday and Sunday, Mrs. Evans is a sister of Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Mary Simmons and daughter are staying in the Bob Jarrett home this week while Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett are gone to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Boone visited in the home of Mrs. Bessie Arney of Amarillo Sunday. Mrs. Elmer Mitchell from California was also visiting in the home of Mrs. Arney. She is the mother of Mrs. Arney.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crader visited in Amarillo Sunday in the home of Everett Rivers.

I hope everyone in the Sterley community will call me and help me get the news for our community each week.

Thanks Mrs. Adams.

Anti-Duval Bills Filed By Rogers

Austin — Senate Bill 223, designed to prevent future "Duval Counties" and to bring prompt justice in crimes involving misuse of public funds, has been introduced in the Texas Senate by Senator Andy Rogers, District 30 of Childress.

A second measure, Senate Bill 224, would give aid in recovering misused or embezzled public funds.

"Every person of civic responsibility in our state is aware by now of what happened in Duval County," Senator Rogers said. "And we are all aware that our laws have to be changed and beefed up in certain places in order, first, that a Duval County won't happen again and, second, so that when crimes are committed by persons in public office, the people of Texas can depend on swift justice."

Senate Bill 223 provides for the indictment and prosecution of persons accused of misusing or embezzling public funds, either in the county where the violation occurs or in any adjoining county, or in Travis County. The second bill, Senate Bill 224, would require county attorneys, criminal district attorneys and district attorneys to institute suits in behalf of the county school district or any other political subdivision within their jurisdiction for the recovery of such misused public funds.

"The misuse of funds of the Veterans Land Board and the embezzlements which arose out of the Duval County political mess merely serve as cases in point, terrible examples of what these proposed laws are designed to prevent and punish," Senator Rogers has seen instances in which justice was to gain because local officers, judges and attorneys were engaged in a powerful web of politics and intrigue.

Grain Sorghum Assn. Hears Peeler Report

Officers and directors of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association of the High Plains heard a report from R. G. Peeler, president, on his recent trip to Washington in a meeting held at Hereford Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Peeler reported that the outlook for better price supports on grain sorghums is not bright. The price will be supported at 70 percent of parity or less this year and there may not be a support price next year at all unless considerable work is done.

The best plan presented thus far for this year is in H. R. 4901 which is a soil bank program similar to wheat and cotton with price supports at 70 percent of parity.

During the meeting officers were elected for the coming year. Mr. Peeler was re-elected president and Elbert Harp of Abernathy was named secretary-treasurer. The meeting was held at the Hereford State Bank. Nine counties were represented with Ewald Quebe representing Floyd County. Another directors meeting will be held at Hereford on March 26th.

If the general decor of your home is Provincial for example, continue the theme right into the kitchen. Match the period atmosphere of the other rooms here too, modern to modern, traditional to traditional. You can get the theme easily with accessories and incidental furnishings keyed to a definite period.

SPRING
MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

As you gaze at this scene of snow, ice, and leafless trees, your mind may skip ahead and picture green grass, abundant foliage, and a rippling stream. The very thought brings happiness. Spring makes the difference.

As grass, trees, and streams are fettered by winter, so some lives are bound by doubt, unbelief, lack of faith, and false ideas. When they come in contact with the Church, the love of God sets them free. They see new beauty in everything about them, and others see new beauty in their lives. As spring brings all nature to new life, so God's love makes human beings happier, gives them life more abundant.

No matter how strong the fetters which bind you, freedom can be yours through the Church and the message it brings to all. Why not accept that freedom today?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

To Enter Spelling Contest At Floydada

Junior High School held an elimination contest this week to determine the team to represent Lockney in the County Spelling Bee March 11 at 7:30. Winner of the county test will be the Floyd County representative when the Lubbock Spelling Bee takes place in the near future.

Winning team is Bill Mangold, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Mangold, and Verna Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Anderson. Alternates are Howard Mangold and James Ray Wofford.

Moisture Ranges Up To 1.25 Inches

Moisture from the mist, sleet and drizzle of last week ranged from an inch to 1.25 inches in this area. In Lockney proper the measurement was reported at 1.15. The rain fell slowly during the week and all soaked into the ground.

Wheat will be especially benefitted by the rains. Some wheat acreage, dry-sowed last fall, is expected to come up now and can still make good wheat if all conditions are favorable, old timers say. Irrigated wheat, for the most part, is looking very good after the sun came out bright and clear Sunday morning and has been shining since.
