County Board Annexes Sandhill School District To Floydada

The County School Board, in a session Monday of this week, voted to consolidate the Sandhill school district with the Floydada district by annexation. The action came following a meeting of the board with some five people from the Sandhill district. The Beacon was informed.

Milton C. Evans, trustee from Precinct 1, made the motion to consolidate the district by annexation and it was seconded by Bill Beedy of Precinct 3. The two voted in favor while Ewald Quebe of Precinct 2 and F. M. Covington of Precinct 4 voted against the motion. County trustee-at-large Tom Porter of Starkey broke the tie, voting in favor of the motion.

Mr. Quebe told The Beacon Wednesday that he understood the motion was to "consolidate the Sandhill district with adjoining districts" not mentioning any specific district but Clarence Guffee, county school superintendent, said that his minutes specifically named the Floydada district and this was substantiated by Tom Porter, chairman of the board.

James W. Becker, a farmer living two miles south of Sandhill, told The Beacon Wednesday that he was one of the five from the Sandhill community who attended the meeting with county trustee Bud Pope. He said that Trustee Bud Pope of the Sandhill District told the County Board that the majority of the people of the Sandhill community wanted the school to remain open at Sandhill and the members of the County Board told them at that time that they would leave it up to the people of the Sandhill community. "Then as soon as we left they voted to annex us to Floydada," he said.

Mr. Becker said that most of the members of the Floydada School District board were also present at the meeting and members of that board expressed the opinion that the people of the district wanted to consolidate with Floydada.

"If the majority of the people wanted to consolidate with Floydada, I would sure be willing to go along," Becker told The Beacon "but only a small number wanted that. We didn't expect the County Board to take any such action and we feel that we are at least entitled to a vote on the matter. A lot of things have been going on behind our backs that we didn't know about."

There has been considerable unrest in the Sandhill district in recent weeks due primarily to the large number of Latin-Americans in the school. The Beacon was informed by a reliable source. The school's average daily attendance for the school year just ended was 33.61 but at least 12 applications for transfer out of the district had been made for the coming year, it was said. Because of this situation the county board decided to annex the district to Floydada. Mr. Porter said.

When The Beacon questioned Mr. Porter as to whether or not the board considered consolidating a part of the district with Lockney he said that they did not consider that matter but that if any students wanted to transfer to the Lockney district that would be allowed.

A mass meeting was held in the Sandhill district some two weeks ago to discuss the school situation. Trustees of that district were Bud Pope and R. L. Bullock. Hollis McClain was recently elected trustee but failed to qualify for the office.

Pony League Teams Named

Commissioner R. H. Ford, team managers and Edgar R. Hays, representing the Lockney Rotary Club, met Tuesday evening and divided the boys who have registered for the Pony League into four teams. The managers drew for their teams and selected names for them.

Commissioner Ford said that it would probably be June 17 before the League play can get underway. Some work must be done on the field, a few lights are to be moved from the football field to the baseball field since additional lighting is needed for baseball, and some $300 worth of equipment is to be purchased. Some of the equipment purchased by the Rotary Club last year is missing and must be replaced. Also many of the jerseys worn by the players last year have not been returned. These should be returned to The Beacon Office, Brown's Cleaners & Clothiers or Teece's Master Cleaners.

Although the Rotary Club is to furnish a part of the finances for the League and a few parents of the boys have donated money, quite a bit more money is needed to get the League underway. It was pointed out that those wishing to contribute toward the operation of the League may leave the money at The Beacon Office, or with Ford or any team manager.

The names of the team, managers and members are as follows:

Red Sox, Cap Carthel and Bobby Carthel, managers. Dan Smith, Keith Carthel, Wayne Cooper, Bill Mangold, Marcio Ortega, Tommy Skelton, Joe Torrez, Kenny Clark, Jerry Johnson, Doyle Thurman, Clarence Ansley.

FW&D Bridge Is Out Near S. P.

A Fort Worth & Denver railway bridge, 6 miles east of South Plains washed out some time Saturday night and a bridge crew is now working to replace it, according to information from C. W. Bond, agent at Sterley.

No train has come over the South Plains line from Childress since last Friday. However a work train came around by Amarillo on the Santa Fe bringing an extra switch engine, arriving at Sterley Tuesday and is serving this end of the road until repairs can be made.

Mr. Bond said that 80 feet of the east end of the track over Quitaque Creek and 50 feet of the west end is swinging free with supports all washed out. A center span is still standing.

A work train out of Childress arrived at the wash out Tuesday and a bridge gang from Lubbock went out to start work Tuesday night. Another work train was due to go to the scene of the wash out from Childress Wednesday morning.

Mr. Bond said that the railway company plans to build the bridge longer on each end since some of the bridge approaches were washed out.

At Estelline debris covered some of the side tracks and one workman was killed in an attempt to save a concrete telephone booth belonging to the company. The foundation of the booth sloughed off into the stream allowing the structure to fall on the man.

The FW&D track had been previously damaged two miles east of Quitaque but that damage had been repaired when the bridge washout was discovered.

A bridge wash out on the Quanah, Acme & Pacific in Motley County has also stopped train service from the east into Floydada. Repairs are underway on that road also.

MOISTURE FOR YEAR TOTALS MORE THAN 20 INCHES

Many Graves Damaged By Recent Rains

One tragic result of the recent heavy rains is occurring in the Lockney cemetery where some 65 graves have sunk in, many of them left with only a little dirt covering the box. It was reported to The Beacon office this week. Much concern has been expressed over the condition and plans are to haul dirt in to fill in the graves just as soon as dry dirt can be found.

Some graves have sunk in so much that head stones have fallen into the grave also, it was said while other stones are leaning badly.

Among those calling The Beacon were Mrs. Tom Nance, Buck Sams and John Belt. Mr. Sams quoted the number 65 in telling of the graves that have been damaged. Mr. Belt favors securing volunteer labor to fill the graves just as soon as possible.

The extremely dry weather of recent years followed by the heavy rains of this spring is believed to be the cause of the graves sinking in.

Little League Teams Are Set

In a meeting of team managers with Commissioner Tom Moore last Friday evening and Saturday morning, the boys who have registered for the Little League were divided into teams, managers chosen and names assigned. The group of managers first divided the boys into six equal teams as nearly as possible. Then the managers drew for the teams and then drew for team names.

Commissioner Moore said Wednesday that work outs would start right away but that actual league play probably would not start before June 17 due to wet grounds and the need of the teams to work out together. Uniforms will be issued to the boys just a few days before the league play starts.

Following are the teams, their managers and members as decided at the meeting:

HOME FOR SUMMER

Mr. and Mrs. Dicky Smith returned this week from College Station where he has just completed his sophomore year at Texas A & M College. They will return there in the fall. She is the former Clara Lee Smith, daughter of Mrs. Charlie Smith.

With 7.05 inches of rain added the past week end, total moisture for the year in this part of Floyd County now stands at 20.15 inches. This is four times as much moisture as fell during the entire year last year.

The past week end brought the heaviest rain fall of the year in this section, flooded roads, filled lakes, washed out bridges and generally hampered travel. Starting Friday evening about 8:30 the rainfall measured 4.40 inches Friday night and Saturday, according to the gauge kept by Jim Bob Reynolds of The Beacon staff. On Saturday afternoon late and Saturday night an additional 1.10 inches fell, another 1.5 fell Sunday night and on Monday 1.40 inches fell bringing the week end total to 7.05 inches.

According to The Beacon files 2.40 inches of rain fell in February, and the present rainy spell set in the week before Easter. This spell brought 10.70 inches up until the past week end when the additional 7.05 fell.

The heavy rains flooded highways in this vicinity and stopped travel over Highway 70 between Plainview and Lockney and also between Lockney and Floydada for a time. The highway between Floydada and Ralls has been flooded for some time. In addition a number of highway bridges were washed out in the Matador area and travelers have been forced to do considerable detouring. Matador was completely shut off by highway for a time.

Some flooding of homes has taken place at Floydada and Lubbock. Also one or two homes in the Cedar Hill area was reported to be flooded. In the negro section of Floydada numbers of families have been evacuated.

The water flooded the Lockney sewer system, overloading the sewer lift in south Lockney one day but the danger of overflowing soon subsided. It was thought for a time that a fire truck may be needed to assist the sewer lift in taking care of the surplus water and several firemen stood by for a time.

Farmers Worried

Farmers of the area are beginning to worry about getting crops planted and up. Especially is it getting late for cotton. In the immediate Lockney area the estimate is that 90 percent of the cotton acreage is planted but probably only one-third of it is up. Other cotton is coming up but some, freshly planted before the heavy week end rains, will probably not make it. Jack Billington has 200 acres up to a good stand, he said Wednesday. Several other farmers have good stands of cotton up on what is planted.

In the Lone Star community V. B. Cassel estimated that only about half the cotton acreage is planted with maybe half of that up to a stand.

The excessive rains is hurting irrigated wheat and some is beginning to fall down, reports here say, probably because of rust. Dry land wheat is benefitting from the rains.

School Employs Music Teacher

Miss Barbara Carruth will serve as public school music teacher in the Lockney School System next term, Supt. H. H. Nicholas said Wednesday. She was employed recently by the school board after filing an application for the position.

Miss Carruth spent last summer here working in the music program at the Lockney Methodist Church. At that time she decided that she would like to come back to Lockney to live and this brought about her application to the local school board.

DWIGHT COX IMPROVING

Dwight Cox, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Cox of the Lone Star community, returned to his home Sunday from Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, where he has been under treatment for a bad injury to his foot. The foot was crushed when he fell in front of a school bus some weeks ago. His mother said that the boy had undergone a skin graft on the foot last week and is doing fine. He will return to the hospital next Sunday for further treatment. The foot is still in a cast and will probably remain there for some time.

And without faith it is impossible to please Him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that He exists, and that He rewards those who seek Him. — Hebrews 11:6

FOR SHAME! Last Thursday was Memorial Day and there were only three flags on display in the business section of Lockney. One of these was at the Post Office and another at the Legion Home. Surely we can take time to honor the war dead by displaying Old Glory on that day. Most every business house here has a suitable flag and pole as well as the place to stand it in their front sidewalk. It doesn't take much effort to bring the flag out and put it up. There is a proper way to display the flag on Memorial Day and this is it: Fly the flag at half-mast until noon in memory of the war day and then fly it at full-mast in the afternoon as dedication to a glorious future for our country.

JUNE 14 is Flag Day. Let's see how many American Flags we can have on display that day. Patriotism is not made up of flag waving alone but displaying Old Glory is a mark of patriotism.

STUPENDOUS is the word to describe the damage by water to roads, bridges, business buildings, residences, not to mention crops. As we remember it, even the rains of 1941 didn't do the damage that they have done this year. We on the High Plains are fortunate in that we don't have rivers and streams to overflow and flood areas but these high plain lakes are causing some concern. We're ready for the rain to stop.

ONE COMFORT we have on the high plains is that if the Russians do explode their giant H-bomb on the ice cap at the North Pole and melt all the ice, causing the oceans to overflow upon the land, surely the sea rock will be high enough to stop the tidal wave and we'll remain high and dry.

THE RAINS of the past few weeks have not only hindered crop planting and other commercial activity but they have thus far played havoc with Little League and Pony League ball playing. Things are getting serious.

FIREWORKS are probably in the offing in the U. S. Senate. Senator Harry F. Byrd is chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and that committee is soon to start an investigation into the financial matters of the government including the national debt, the present budget and the government's "tight money policy." We're thinking that what the committee digs up may not be pleasing to the present administration.

SPEAKING of rains, we haven't had much compared to some other areas. As we figure it the Lockney community has had about 18 inches of rain this year while Dallas has had 36 inches, and Greenville 44 inches.

EVERY ANGLE is being considered to make cotton competitive with synthetic fibers. We note one Farm Bureau organization is organizing a drive to eliminate the use of asphalt covered cotton sacks. These asphalt covered sacks are a major source of tar spots in cotton yarn and fabrics which bring a downgrade of 10 to 20 percent. In the long run, the mills hesitate to buy cotton from an area which has a reputation for tar spots in cotton.

THE LEGISLATURE has decided to standardize the way we vote. No more can you check a box to indicate your choice. You must scratch out the name of the person you want to vote against if your ballot is to be counted.

WHO CAN WE BLAME FOR WRONG NUMBERS?

As science and progress march onward, people are continually faced with the problem of changing the manner in which they live. Such will once again be the case in Hereford when, within a few months, the community shifts from a near-obsolete operation to one of the most modern telephone systems in the nation.

Hereford people who have watched Bovina, Friona and Canyon install dial telephones will, following the cut-over, be able to pick up their phones and dial long distance calls across the country. The Hereford system, according to telephone officials, will be superior to that of Amarillo, where several types of dial operations exist.

The new system will have some advantages and some disadvantages, so far as the average person is concerned. Dials are made of cold, hard steel — and definitely will not take a call to awaken you at 6:30 in the morning, a special service once offered by "accommodating" local operators. Neither will the new system call you back when a busy line conversation is completed. Worst of all, though, will be the fact that you cannot blame the operator when you dial a wrong number.

The new system could be compared with the "helpy-seers, which moved up approximately one per cent. Using the Dept. of Agriculture's index, and appraising conditions now in comparison with those of a year ago it will be found that the increase in farm product prices has failed to keep pace with the rise in prices of commodities and services sought by farmers in the last twelve months.

Therefore, the April 15th parity ratio was 81, and although this is 20 percent better than the March ratio, it is two percent lower than the ratio of April 15th, 1936. It is hard to tell what the two per cent rise in farm prices means, and farmers will have to wait until later in May to see if this is a trend which will continue.

The only mildly encouraging part of the story is the fact that prices have moved up rather well since mid-February — a little faster than prices paid though prices paid continued to move up also. As a whole, the outlook is still depressing for the farmer — Lamb County Leader.

Dear Editor: I see where a bunch of Hungarian refugees went on a hunger strike the other day to show how they are irritated at the U. S. for not taking better care of them.

That is one trouble with going into the Good Samaritan business. You just can't hardly ever keep the customers pleased.

This incident and other results we have been getting from our foreign charity work just proves the old Crossroads proverb which says it takes talent to be a successful sucker.

They started to Tulsa by way of Silverton, and were unable to go any farther than the Kinslow farm where water was across the road; they then started to go by the Lone Star cut-off, and were again turned back by water across the road. They finally were able to make the trip by way of Plainview. Her sister, Mrs. Elvin Hutson and family, and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. John McCain and family, were also visiting Mrs. McCain in Tulsa Sunday.

There were no church services in South Plains Sunday due to rain and bad roads. Other cancellations were WMU and GA meetings Monday of this week. Our community has had about eight or more inches of rain since Friday night in the W. M. Steenforth vicinity, and about six and a half inches around the John Smitherman and Tom Respondek farms. It is still raining at this time on Monday, with many roads under water. Hail on the Stanforth farm levelled the cotton patch and much of the wheat is down there and at near-by farms.

(Delayed)

Turbulent weather cancelled plans for the last of school picnic for the school children Friday, May 24. Tornadoes were reported for Plainview, and everyone was glad the decision to stay home was made. Rain-fall varied on Friday from a slight shower in the eastern part to half inch in the South Plains area. Some farmers here have fields that are dry, and they have their cotton planted, while others have fields that are full wet, and cotton still to get in the ground. Wheat prospects look very good, and vegetables, such as potatoes and onions here look extremely flourishing.

Through a gate festooned with red roses, seven boys and girls stepped forth to accept their diplomas from South Plains Principal, J. M. Williams Thursday night, May 23. He spoke to them of their right to walk through the gate to open fields of higher education, and in the new competition they should put out all their efforts to make a success of their lives. Eddie Parks was valedictorian, and Bary Kinslow, salutatorian of the class. Jo Ann Newton and Eulalia Sanders gave piano selections, and using gates as their themes, Eddie Parks, Bary Kinslow, Eulalia Sanders, David Taylor, and Sherlene Teepie gave the class history, predictions for their futures and after the ceremony Mr. Williams presented perfect attendance certificates to Barbara Sue Milton, Sue Wilson, Yvonne Karr, Eulalia Sanders and Jimmy Pritchett for the school year 1956-57.

Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Fortenberry had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry here, and Monday guests in the Fortenberry home were The Rev. and Mrs. James J. Futeh and children, formerly of Sterley, now of Hermleigh, where he is pastor at the Methodist Church. They were on their way to the Methodist Conference at Amarillo, and Mrs. A. F. Sanders from the Sterley Church is going to attend the Conference in Amarillo this week.

Lewis Bradford Randolph, 59, passed away Sunday afternoon, May 26, at 5:30, enroute to Pitts Hospital following a heart attack. He had been in ill health for a number of years, and was living the past few months with a sister, Mrs. W. B. Wilson, in the Fairview Community. With Mr. Randolph, Mrs. Wilson had been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy, and was on the way home when he became ill. Funeral services were held Monday at 3 p. m. with The Rev. Joe Wilson, a retired Baptist minister, and The Rev. Mr. Hinkley, of the Fairview Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in the Lockney cemetery. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Beedy and family.

Friday night, May 24 in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Calahan, Beth Calahan celebrated her tenth birthday with a slumber party.

Guests spending the night were Barbara Sue Milton, Sharon Taylor, and Marilyn Kinnibrugh. They all attended the eighth grade graduation which was held at the school house at eight o'clock.

Those from here who went to Canyon Sunday for the commencement address and exercises for WT State College at 5 o'clock were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jarrett and Eddie, Mrs. Jack Yeary and Jacqueline, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian and Bruce who heard Dr. Willis Tate of SMU give the commencement address. At 2:30 in the blue room of the student building, at a special ceremony, Terry Julian accepted his second lieutenant bars, along with several other graduates, and will go into the regular army at the end of this week.

South Plains Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday afternoon at the school house with hostesses Mrs. Horace Marble and Mrs. Harry Hartman. Guest speaker was Mrs. Harriette Brummett, with Mrs. J. B. Smitherman presiding and Mrs. Fortenberry calling the roll. Did You Know? Mrs. Wood then told of the first Mothers Day being proclaimed by President Wilson in 1914. Council news was given and Mrs. R. G. Dunlap was a nominee for the club for the THA convention to Houston. 4-H girl, June Marble will go with Mrs. Loyd Deavenport, 4-H leader, to the 4-H Round-up at College Station on June 11, 12, and 13. Mrs. Morckel will give a frozen food demonstration to the 4-H girls and leaders at the RA kitchen May 31, at 2:30. Mrs. Brummett gave an enlightening demonstration on "Planning Your Wardrobe," with special emphasis on needs, such as kinds of clothes, where you will need to wear them, and a basic color scheme. Refreshments of sandwiches, lemonade, and angel food cake were served to members. Mmes. John Smitherman, Loyd Deavenport, Noel Deavenport, L. T. Wood, Murray Julian, Sylvan Kinnibrugh, Fred Fortenberry, E. W. Newton, Grigsby Milton, Hamilton, Harry Hartman and H. L. Marble, with guest, Mrs. Brummett. At the next meeting Mrs. R. G. Dunlap and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry will be hostesses for the 4-H girls program with meeting place the school house. Joan Harris And Dane Clark Are United Saturday Evening

Miss Joan Harris became the bride of Robert Dane Clark Jr., Saturday evening, June 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Lockney.

Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harris, Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark, Floydada.

Rev. N. S. Daniel of Andrews, uncle of the bridegroom, and former local pastor, read the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms and tall baskets of yellow roses, white gladioli and white mums. A prie dieu placed at the center of the altar was decorated with yellow roses and turquoise lace. Palm greenery filled the background and tall cathedral candelabra lighted the scene. The aisle was marked with tall white tapers, and arrangements of yellow roses accented with turquoise lace and tied with white satin.

While the candles were being lighted and the guests seated, Mrs. Charles L. Record, organist, played a medley of wedding selections. Soloist was Miss Dorothy King of Throckmorton, college club sister of the bride at McMurry College. She sang "Because" and "Oh Perfect Love," as pre-nuptial numbers, and "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction.

The Bridal Attendants
The candlelighters were Cheryl Rucker, cousin of the bride, of Lockney, and Kent Clark, Floydada, brother of the bridegroom.

Attendants of the bride included college classmates, Miss Letha Scott, of Stamford, her roommate for two years, maid of honor; Miss Hollis Haynes, Stamford, Miss Sandra Myers, Lockney, Mrs. J. E. Waller, sister of the bridegroom of Floydada, and Miss Gayle Rucker, Lockney, bridesmaids. Miss Carolyn Harris, the bride's sister, was junior bridesmaid.

Flower girls were Jan Wofford and Susan Simmons, Lockney, and ring bearer was Charles Neil Harris, cousin of the bride, of Kress.

L. L. Clark, Jr., served as best man for his son. Groomsmen were Brooks Chapman, Waco, Bert Grimes, Lubbock, Hershel Roach, Killeen, J. E. Waller, Floydada, Ronnie Harris, the bride's brother, and Orland Gilbert, Lockney, and Donnie Campbell of Tulsa.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical dresses of turquoise silk organza over taffeta, styled with long line bodices extending into voluminous skirts. The scoop necklines were accented with soft drapes which depended into floating panels to the hemline in the back. Their large picture hats of the same material as the dresses, were accented at the back of the crown with sprays of yellow sweet-heart roses. They wore yellow lace gloves and carried small white baskets from which cascaded beautiful arrangements of yellow roses.

The candlelighter's dress was of pale yellow silk organza, styled similarly to the other attendants. She wore a pale yellow ruffled wristlet with yellow roses, and a bandeau of yellow sweetheart roses outlined with ruffling.

The small flower girls wore dresses of pale yellow organza, with full gathered skirts, accented with lace medallions down the front and sashes tied in large bows at the back. They wore matching picture hats, white lace gloves and carried white baskets decorated with yellow net ruffles and tiny satin bows, from which they scattered yellow rose petals on the bridal aisle.

The bride's mother wore a dress of mauve French lace over silk, with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress of linen and silk, matching accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Traditional Wedding Gown
Mr. Harris escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown of finest white imported French lace, enhanced with ruffles of pleated tulle over net and taffeta, was an original model. The portrait neckline was framed with appliques of lace, elaborately embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls, and the long sleeves of lace ended in points over the hands.

The magnificent skirt of lace, cut on circular lines, with shaped bouffant hips, was accented with appliques of lace holding a wide ruffle of pleated tulle at the bottom edge. The immense fullness of lace and pleated tulle over layers of net and taffeta swept into a long and graceful train. Hoops and crinolines were worn underneath to emphasize the fullness.

The bride's veil of silk illusion was joined to a crown shaped double pointed tiara outlined with seed pearls and embroidered with sequins to match the dress. Her only jewelry was a strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

MRS. ROBERT DANE CLARK

She carried a yellow throated white orchid on the bridal Bible of her college social club, Gamma Sigma, which was covered with French scalloped lace embroidered with sequins and seed pearls and showered with white satin and pale yellow sweetheart roses. The Bible cover was made by the bride's mother, as was the ring bearer's pillow.

In the bridal tradition, the bride had a penny of the date of her birth in her slipper, and wore two blue garters, one of her social club, Gamma Sigma, and the other a gift of her cousin, Mrs. A. C. Keith, Jr.

Reception in the Church
Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding reception was held in the church parlor.

Mrs. A. C. Keith, Jr., of Amarillo and Mrs. Don Bennett alternated at the silver punch service. Mrs. Jimmy Myers of Midland and Mrs. Fred Merrill of Lubbock served the beautiful tiered heart-shaped cake.

Centering the table was a large compote of cutglass and silver, hung with prisms, set in a base formed of cherubs. It was filled with yellow roses and flanked by crystal prisms holders with pale yellow candles. The table cloth was of white net over white satin, with drapes of the net caught by satin lace-trimmed hearts. The lovely cloth also was made by the bride's mother.

Background music during the reception hours was furnished by Miss Eldora Boone and Mrs. Warren Mathis of Lockney. Miss Bettie Johnson and Mrs. Eddie Foster of Lubbock were in charge of the register.

Others assisting in the reception were Mrs. Raymond Rucker, Mrs. J. C. Harris, Kress, Mrs. Eugene Harris, Amarillo, Mrs. Jessie Harris, Plainview, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. L. C. Nichols, Stratford, Okla., Mrs. L. E. McNutt, Amarillo, Mrs. Chester Mitchell, Mrs. Jo Taylor, Mrs. Ike Johnson, Mrs. Hershel Carthel, Mrs. Clyde Hill, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. J. R. Belt, Mrs. Joe Foster, Mrs. Jerry Reynolds of Abilene, Mrs. Kenneth Wofford, Mrs. E. A. Simmons, Mrs. Delton Jack, Mrs. Edgar Hays, Mrs. Marvin Gilbert, and Misses Patty Adams and Mary Myers.

Colorado Honeymoon
For a wedding trip to Denver and Estes Park, Colo., the bride selected a beige silk sheath dress with silk ribbonette duster to match, beige and yellow accessories and a white orchid corsage. The newlyweds will be at home after June 10 at 1841 North 6th Street, Abilene.

The bride, a graduate of Lockney High School, is a junior at McMurry College where she is a member of Gamma Sigma social club. Mr. Clark graduated from Floydada High School and is a senior at McMurry College.

Change Over In Phone Numbers Due July 7th

Lockney's telephone system will go on the "metropolitan numbering plan" July 7th according to J. C. Oakley, Manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

"By 'metropolitan telephone numbers,' we mean numbers consisting of a central office name and five numerals, like the ones in use today in cities like Fort Worth, San Antonio, and Los Angeles," he pointed out.

The new Lockney numbers will have a central office prefix, Oldfield 4, followed by four more numerals. Most Lockney numbers will have the same four numerals they have now and will be preceded by two letters of the central office name Oldfield. However, some numbers probably will change completely because of technical reasons.

"This number change is being made so we can join Lockney to the nationwide operator long distance dialing network," Oakley said. "This new system will permit long distance operators to dial directly to about 30,000,000 telephones throughout the United States and Canada. Your long distance calls over the dialing network usually will be completed in 45 seconds or less."

Changing telephone numbers in Lockney to two letters and five numerals is part of a nationwide plan. Long distance dialing by operators is simplified by the new numbers. Direct long distance dialing by customers — although still in the future — depends on the "2-5" system.

Oakley suggested that customers keep the change in mind when ordering stationery, advertising matter, and other material that lists the telephone number.

"In addition to informing each customer of his new telephone number as far in advance as possible, we also will publish the new numbers in a telephone directory which will be delivered before the change is made," he added.

Go forth, young man

... we can't use you here

Is this the word to our young people — able and beloved — when they've finished school and are ready to start making their own living?

COPYRIGHT 1956 D. E. SCOTT

Too often it is, in the smaller communities like ours.

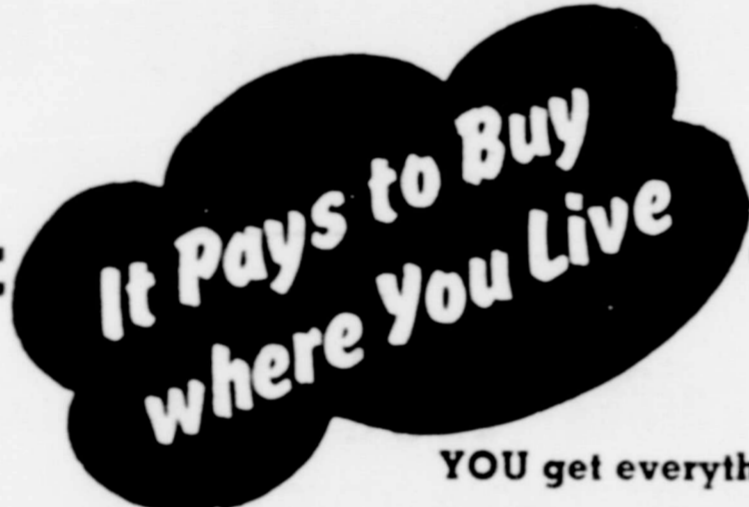

Why don't we have more job opportunities and more business opportunities right here, so that more of our sons and daughters can establish their homes and be happy and prosperous here at home?

It's partly circumstance. Partly the natural limitations of the economy of our area. Partly because we haven't been quite aggressive or enterprising enough to build and grow more.

But it's also partly because many of us have let ourselves get into the habit of spending too much of our money somewhere else.

Every dollar that we spend away from home is a dollar less to circulate among us and to account for 2 or 3 or more dollars of added trade volume as it moves from hand to hand.

Keeping more of this easily available trade volume at home is one way by which we could create and sustain more local opportunities for our young people. And for ourselves.

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade-invigorated community live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Miss Nelda Rhea became the bride of Allen Ray Pinner Sunday afternoon, June 2, at 2:30 in the First Methodist Church of Willitsville, Arkansas.

Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rhea, Waldo, Arkansas, formerly of Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pinner, Lockney.

Rev. Harvey Pinner, Abilene, uncle of the groom, read the double ring vows before a wrought iron arch entwined with fern and flanked with baskets of pink and white gladioli and tiers of candelabra. Candles were lighter by Arley Pinner, and Don Dunn.

Mrs. Gloria Dunn served her cousin as maid of honor. She was attired in a pink lace sheath and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Flower girl was Miss Dinah Rhea. She wore a dress of pale green net and taffeta. Andy Rhea was ring bearer.

Best man was Clifton Williams, Lockney. Serving as ushers were Bobby Pinner, Eddie Rhea, and Harvey Lee Pinner, Jr.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractively attired in traditional white satin and lace. The strapless, fitted bodice was topped with a brief bolero jacket accented with three quarter sleeves and a high small collar. The full gathered skirt was ballerina length. She carried a white carnation bouquet accented with pink and white streamers. A reception was held immediately following in the home of the bride's parents.

The bridegroom's mother Mrs. Cecil Pinner and his two brothers, Arley and Bobby, attended the wedding from Lockney.

Mrs. Pinner attended Lockney schools until the end of her junior year at which time the family moved to Waldo, Arkansas, where she received her high school diploma last month. Mr. Pinner was graduated from Lockney High School in 1954. He has been employed the past year by Hugh Counts, commissioner.

The couple will make their home in Lockney upon their return from a honeymoon to the northern part of Arkansas.

Local People Attend Dallas Fashion Show

Mrs. Floyd W. Jackson and Mrs. Cleon Wylie of Jack & June Shop here attended the Greater Dallas Fashion Market's Fall and Back to School market week in Dallas, May 26-31st. Exhibits were shown in the Adolphus, Baker and Dallas Hotels, and in the Merchandise Mart.

The Greater Dallas Fashion Market is composed of four market associations, American Fashion, National Fashion, Southwest Children's Wear, and the Dallas Fashion Center, with a combined membership of more than 1000 salesmen showing 3000 lines of women's and children's apparel.

Featured events of the week were the Sales Merchandising Clinic fashion shows on Monday and Thursday nights, May 27 and 28, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel, and a giant bingo game in the recently completed Dallas Memorial Auditorium on Wednesday night, May 29th. Theme of the two identical fashion shows, "Fashion's Theme and Variations," depicted leading colors and latest styles in fall apparel with emphasis on school wear from kindergarten through college. Mrs. Evelyn Lambert, formerly director of sales and promotions for Neiman-Marcus, Dallas, directed and commented the shows.

Dear Editor:
I note that funeral homes in some places are now giving green stamps to attract business and before long I guess some over-eager undertaker will be running Dollar Day Specials and holding annual clearance sales.

My mortuary neighbor has been after me like a car salesman here lately, wishing to sell me my funeral now while he can give me a wholesale price, include many luxury accessories and give me a good trade in on my old insurance policy.

Have'n figured out yet whether he is just needing the business or maybe thinks my funeral would be a civic improvement.

ELECTRIC LIVING IS FUN!

Here are 4 BIG REASONS I LIKE ELECTRIC COOKING!"
says, MRS. GEORGE C. KUHNER, of ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO.

Four small black and white photographs of children, each with a testimonial about electric cooking.

- "Christy likes the push buttons. I like them, too, because they are out of reach of the smaller children... besides electric is the cleanest kind of cooking."
- "Shelley likes the big oven and I agree. The automatic timer is very handy. Also, it is nice to be gone for an afternoon and have your dinner all cooked and ready to serve when you get home."
- "Kathy likes cooking with her fudge set and the fast surface units are certainly our answer when working on a tight schedule."
- "Laurie likes it because it cooks good chicken and when we cook chicken, or anything else, it doesn't heat the kitchen — just the food."

in July

all telephone numbers here will change on July 7

Lockney will join the nation-wide telephone numbering system on July 7.

On that day, telephone numbers here will be changed to include the first two letters of a central office name, followed by five numerals.

In general, the four numerals of present telephone numbers will remain the same. Only the first two letters of a central office name and a numeral will precede the four numerals of your present number.

The name and number will be OL dfield 4. Thus, telephone number 2202 will become OL dfield 4-2202, and you'll dial O-L-4-2-2-0-2.

For technical reasons, a few telephone numbers may have to be changed entirely. If yours is one of these, you will be notified as far in advance of the new change as possible.

The new central office names are needed so that telephone numbers here will conform with the needs of the nationwide long distance dialing network, designed to increase the speed and efficiency of your long distance telephone service.

A new edition of the telephone directory—listing all the new numbers — will be delivered just before the new numbering system goes into effect.

Starting in July, you will dial a new way. But the change is simple, and it paves the way for telephone progress.

Just as easy... only different

Starting July 7, you'll dial the first two letters of the central office name, then the five numerals. For example, to call OL dfield 4-2202, you'll dial O-L-4-2-2-0-2.

When you give a telephone number to the operator, or repeat it to a friend, the easy way to say it is to break it up like this:

"OL dfield four... two-two... oh-two."

This is the best way to say it—to understand it—to remember it.

HERE'S THE NEW LOOK IN TELEPHONE NUMBERS

New system means telephone progress

The new numbering system will bring even better service for you and all other telephone users in Lockney. The OL dfield central office name comes from a tested list of central office names which are being adopted all over the United States and Canada.

If you order stationery, cards or other printed matter listing telephone numbers, please remember the coming change so you may avoid overstocking before next month.

Court Rules Against Plaintiffs In Floyd Co. Cotton Acreage Suit

Judge Joseph B. Davison, judge of the United States District Court at Lubbock, has ruled against all plaintiffs with the exception of the suit brought by a number of Floyd County cotton farmers against the acreage review committee in last year's suit. The committee is now reviewing the acreage in the county of the Liberty community.

The suit was based upon the contention that the Floyd County A.C.R. committee did not take into consideration the unusual crop year of 1935, and thus did not allow cotton acreage in the proper way according to regulations. The judgment granted this to be true in the case of Mr. Feary but denied the petition of all other plaintiffs in the matter.

The judgment said in part: "As to the plaintiff, Ewe Feary, the Court is of the opinion that the acreage review committee in 1935, in its review of the acreage for 1936, the wheat acreage should have been only 82 acres instead of 149 acres, and the resulting final allotment would be 30 acres plus."

Since the suit was based upon the contention that the 1935 wheat crop was a failure in Floyd County and therefore the wheat acreage should not have been counted against 1936 cotton allotments, an regulations say attorney for the plaintiffs, G. H. Nelson of Lubbock could not explain to those involved in the suit why the Court would allow the contention in one case and deny it in the others, but advised them that he did not think it would be profitable to appeal the case further. No further appeal is planned, according to Burton Rowell, secretary of the committee.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas Jr. recently were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Turner, Shawport, La. Mr. Turner is a brother to Mrs. Rodgers.

Don Jones Will Retire July 1

The superintendent of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Don L. Jones, one of the most widely recognized men in Texas agriculture, will retire July 1 as superintendent.

Jones, looked to by many on the South Plains as "Mr. Agriculture," will remain on modified service to continue his research with cotton breeding and improvement.

Experiment Station Director E. D. Lewis said a successor to Jones will be named in the near future.

Jones' name has been linked with progress of agriculture on the High Plains — primarily the growing of crops under irrigation, steamplow type cotton production and mechanized harvesting — since 1917 when he came from Wisconsin to become a member of the research staff.

He served as superintendent of the experiment station at Childress during 1923-25, then returned to the Lubbock station to become superintendent, a post he has held continuously the past 12 years.

The Lubbock station superintendent has been the author of numerous publications based on research in cotton varieties, grain sorghum, mechanical harvesting and other research projects at the Lubbock station. He is a member of the American Society of Agronomists.

Farmers Vote On June 20

Farmers will decide by June 20 whether to want marketing of 1938 wheat crop. To R. G. Shrauner, Texas Agriculture and Conservation Commission, the recent proclamation setting quotas for wheat conforms with the new marketing legislation. Under the new marketing law, the supply of wheat available for the normal supply is 20 percent above the normal supply of 1,170 million bushels available for domestic and exports plus carryover.

Do not become confused by the chairmen of the National Union of Agricultural Producers, who are voting in the referendum on the level of the price support for wheat as well as whether penalties on "excess" are used for the wheat acreage allotment.

Only received an increase of 5,000 acres of wheat for the year of 5,000 acres to Buck Sams, chairman of the ASC committee. Allotments have been nearly three acres per 100 acres, he said.

The referendum was announced by B. L. Breed, chairman of the County Agriculture and Conservation Commission, Lockney, Dougherty County, Texas, Monday. All eligible voters may vote at these locations between the hours of 8 a. m. and 7 p. m. June 20.

The Bank program has a slight change in the rule for voting. Breed said, "In past referendums, the general eligibility was that all voters were eligible to vote on a quota referendum. Now, only those who have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest on a farm are eligible to vote on the 1938 wheat quota referendum."

As it now stands is that only those who have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest on a farm will share in the crop from a farm commercial wheat area. The wheat acreage to be put in the wheat Reserve will be more than 15 acres.

More of the eligible voters must approve in order to put them in the 1938 wheat acreage.

If approved, farmers will be subject to a penalty of 10 percent of the price for their excess wheat. Support price for the wheat crop will be available to farmers who comply with wheat allotments at an average of $1.78 per bushel, which represents 75 percent parity.
