Hutchins Tells Rotary Of A And B Cotton Plans

Tom Hutchins, County ASC office manager, explained the difference in A and B cotton plans in 1959 planting to members of the Lockney Rotary Club at the regular luncheon meeting last Friday.

Hutchins said that farmers must make their choice between the two plans by March 16 and if they do not make a choice by that time, they are automatically assigned Plan A. Farmers have already been given their cotton allotments under both plans, the B plan allotment being 40% higher than A.

If a man buys a place after the deadline of March 16, then the place he buys automatically goes into the plan he had already chosen for land he owned before the deadline. The regulations also say that if bad weather or some other unavoidable event causes the operator to lose part of his cotton acreage after planting time so that he complies with Plan A acreage allotment then he may switch to A.

Mr. Hutchins said that parity support prices on cotton would probably be announced about January 31 and any event well before the March 16 deadline for choosing. Other support prices, including the one on grain sorghums, will also be announced before that deadline. He said that there is a possibility of $1.25 supports on grain sorghum, although he had no information thus far.

A farmer or operator cannot operate two places under separate plans for cotton allotments, Mr. Hutchins said. Yet if he owns a place and it is operated by someone else, that place may be operated differently from what the owner chooses for the places he operates.

Under A plan the cotton is purchased outright by the government and the owner has no equity in it, Hutchins said. If the operator chooses B plan, the additional acres are not counted in history of the place and will not serve to increase the allotment in future years.

Mr. Hutchins said that under the present plans the staff of the ASC office would have to be increased considerably in order to handle all the paper work created by the optional plans.

In discussing other phases of ASC work, Hutchins said that this county now has a part or all of 231 farms in the soil bank with acreage totaling $2,254. The soil bank payments total $408,000 per year and the contracts run either 5 or 10 years. This amounts to eight per cent of the total cropland in the county. Payments run from $11 to $18 per year per acre.

Sign For Practices

He said that his office began last Friday, Jan. 2 to sign up for soil and water conservation practices with most signers seeking help in laying underground pipe. Several farmers arrived at the office in the night Thursday in order to be first in line for these payments. Mr. Hutchins said that he believed this year his office would be able to take care of all those asking help on underground pipe since other counties do not use all their allotment and it reallocated to counties using it. The present county allocation is $167,300 for 1959.

A farmer may receive payments up to $1,000 in the laying of pipe with the government paying 35 cents per foot on 12 inch pipe and 45 cents per foot on 15 inch pipe.

Mondell Mills was in charge of the program for the day. President Wilson Kermickel presided.

Williams Baby Dies Thursday

Ann, the infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Pat Williams, died last Thursday afternoon in the Plainview Hospital after becoming ill Thursday at noon. The baby was born Tuesday afternoon in Lockney General Hospital. When the infant's condition became serious Dr. Williams started to Lubbock with her where a specialist was to treat the baby but was forced to stop at Plainview.

Graveside services were held at Spur Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Bro. Robert Bankhead, Church of Christ minister. Burial was in Spur cemetery. Carter Funeral Home and Campbell Funeral Home of Spur handled the services.

Survivors include the parents, brothers, Gregory, Ray and David; one sister, the grandmothers, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. O. C. both of Spur.

44 BOYS JOIN LOCAL BOXING CLUB; SOME TO FIGHT FRIDAY

Forty-four boys had joined the Lockney Boxing Club sponsored by the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department up to Tuesday night and more are coming in every week, members of the Department said Wednesday. The boys are working out in the old American Legion building on North Main Street where the Fire Department has erected a sturdy boxing ring.

Several local boys, probably five or six, will go to Plainview Friday night of this week where they will enter the Kiwanis Fight Night event. Fire Chief Audvie Barnett said that those who will enter the Plainview event will not be selected until Thursday night. "We won't take a boy unless he shows that he is in shape and can give a good account of himself," he said. "We haven't been working the boys long enough for many of them to be ready to enter an event such as this."

The Plainview fight night is in preparation for the annual Golden Gloves boxing matches to be held in Plainview January 20, 21, 22 and 23. The fight night this Friday night begins at 8 p. m. and will be held at the city auditorium in Plainview. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for youngsters. Boys from a number of towns in this area will enter. Bob Hilburn is tournament director.

Several local boys are showing up well and are real boxing material, local trainers say. Adults who are helping to train the local boys are Claude Brown, R. V. Webster, Byron Ford, Donald Reece, Dan Teuton, Donnie Bybee, Audvie Barnett and possibly others.

Boys who have signed up for the local club include Tim Reeves, Melvin Sissney, Bobby Webster, Joe Dean Robinson, David Workman, Joe Robert Amaya, Ronnie Reeves, Wayne Workman, Billy Dan Rolling, Rosalie Sanchez, Johnny Willis, Russell Davis, David Roberson, Joe Allard, Lewis Eiland, Johnny Belt, Ronnie Belt, Bobby Holt, Bill Dodson, Dan Smith, Alvin Pyle, Alton Ledger, Neil Mitchell, Warren Mitchell, Robert Book, David Cook, Kenneth Calloway, Raymond Davis, Gary Graham, Shannon Eiland, Billy Eiland, Ronnie Jefferson, Russell Smith, Dale Gallaway, Vernon Vincent, Charles Smith, Robert Moody, Thomas Sherman, Craig Stansell, Steve Stansell, Elbert Cook, Tommy Strickland, Bobby Leach, Pat Gonzales.

No Bond Set For Branum

No bond has been set for Robert "Cotton" Branum, charged with murder in the death of a woman near Lockney Sunday afternoon, Dec. 28. The charge will be presented to the Floyd County Grand Jury in its meeting Monday of next week, January 12, District Attorney John Stapleton said Wednesday. Branum is in jail at Floydada where he has been since being returned to Floyd County Wednesday of last week by Sheriff Walter Hollums and Stapleton.

The murdered woman was not the wife of Branum, according to information revealed last week end, although they had been living together for two years. She was Mrs. Mary Ellen Bryson of Hollis, Okla. Her husband, General J. "Pete" Bryson of Hollis, claimed her body at a Hugo, Okla., funeral home and she was buried in the Hollis cemetery some time last week.

Branum has a wife who is living in San Bernardino, Calif., officers said. They have been separated since 1952. The couple has a 14-year-old son who makes his home with Branum's mother at Roxton, Texas. Mrs. Bryson was shot with a 12 gauge shotgun on a rural road near Lockney and her body carried to a point near Hugo, Okla., by Branum who threw the body into Red River. It was recovered soon afterward by Oklahoma officers who had been notified of the crime by one of Branum's relatives. Local officers were on Branum's trail also having been told of the shooting by Horton Kenady of Lockney. Branum was arrested at the home of the relative.

Temperature At Low Of 4 Below Here Sunday

The lowest temperature recorded in this area in some 12 years was Sunday morning when the weather bureau's official low was four degrees below zero. Last time such a low temperature was recorded here was in 1947 when five below was the low.

The cold wave moved in Friday night and by sunup Saturday the mercury had dropped to zero. The Sunday reading was four degrees lower and early Monday the low was one degree below. The weather started moderating Monday and by Tuesday had risen to a comfortable 54 degrees. Wednesday was fair and warm.

Disappointing to farmers was that the cold wave brought no moisture to this area. Farm lands are very dry, having had no moisture of any consequence since last summer.

The cold wave resulted in a flurry of broken water lines and plumbers have been rushed to keep up with the calls for repairs. No serious damage to auto radiators or blocks has been reported but some motorists had trouble when circulation was stopped in their radiators due to freezing conditions.

Gas company employees, Dillion Patterson and Audvie Barnett were kept busy for a couple of days and nights, cleaning regulators on lines at rural homes. A small amount of moisture would condense in the regulator, then freeze with the result that the gas flow stopped. They answered 15 or 20 calls because of this trouble, Patterson said.

Pioneer Natural Gas Co. system was put to a severe test in supplying gas during the cold wave but there was no curtailment to users in this area, gas company officials said. New sources of supply enabled the gas company to meet the demands without difficulty.

Fair Directors Will Meet At Floydada Mon.

Officers and directors of the Floyd County Fair Association will meet at the Colonial Room in Floydada Monday evening at 7:30. It was announced this week by Raymond Rucker, president. The meeting place is a half block west of the Taystee Freeze on Highway 70 at the northwest edge of Floydada.

Mr. Rucker said that this is an important meeting since new members of the board would be elected, new officers are to be elected and the time and place for the 1959 fair will be set.

Five retiring directors will each bring a replacement to the meeting. Those retiring are Rucker, Willis Reynolds, Doyle Mount, Shirley Irwin and Fred Cardinal. Holdover directors are R. L. Knox, Joe Parrish, Mrs. Joe Foster, Mrs. I. H. Parks, Mrs. Alma Holmes, Chloma Williams, Louis Anderson, Mrs. R. H. Tinsley, Sam Puckett and Mrs. Burt Hoyt.

Basketball Tournament Begins Here Today

TROPHIES to be given at the 1st annual Longhorn Basketball Tournament this week end are pictured here along with some players on the Lockney High teams. The first place trophies, one for the boys division and one for the girls division, are at top center. They are flanked on either side by the second place trophies. At the bottom front are the consolation trophies. In the picture, standing left to right, are Pat Buchanan and Janice Boedeker, stars on the Longhornettes team, and kneeling left to right, Jimmy Minter and Milton "Moe" Mickey, stars on the Longhorn team.

Six Boys Teams, Five Girls Teams In Competition

Lockney High Gymnasium will be the site of the First Annual Longhorn Basketball Tournament this week end.

The first game, between the Post and Tulia "B" boys, is scheduled for 6:30 Thursday night. Floydada girls and boys will battle Muleshoe squads in Thursday's final two contests.

Lockney Longhornettes play their first game Friday at 5 p.m. against Tulia girls. McAdoo's boys clash with the Post-Tulia "B" winner in the second tilt Friday night. The Floydada - Muleshoe winner engages the McAdoo girls and the host Longhorns tangle with the Muleshoe-Floydada winner in the Friday night final.

The boys consolation and girls third place titles will be decided Saturday afternoon starting at 2:30.

The tournament's final session will begin with the battle for boys third place at 6:30 Saturday night. The girls and boys championship games will follow.

Post's girls will not enter the meet due to a mixup in their schedule. No replacement could be secured, so only five squads will compete. No girls consolation bracket will be held.

Local merchants will sponsor trophies which will be awarded to first, second, third place winners in both divisions and consolation winner in the boys division. Sponsoring the trophies will be Brown's Cleaners & Clothiers, Brown's Department Store, "Whitey" Baccus Motor Company, Knox Grocery and Market, Handley Shop & Pump Co., Lockney Drug Co., First National Bank, Minor Insurance Agency, Lockney General Hospital, Byrd Pharmacy.

The McAdoo boys—coached by Fabian Lemley, brother of Lockney coach Troy Lemley — is a heavy favorite to take home the championship trophy. The McAdoo cagers have won 16 contests without a loss this season. Muleshoe has probably the strongest team in the girls division.

Several of the finest basketballers in this area will perform in the Longhorn meet. Some of the outstanding boys, cited by Coach Lemley, are Milton "Moe" Mickey and Jimmy Minter of Lockney, Bill Patterson of Floydada, Don Teague, George Scott, Norman Hardy of McAdoo, Jimmy Short of Post, Darrell Oliver of Muleshoe.

No all-tournament team will be selected, according to Coach Lemley, meet director.

Mrs. Glenda Rhoten will be official scorekeeper. Referees are scheduled to be Charlie White, G. C. Graves, and Bobby Greer, all of Plainview.

Admission to each session will be 25c for students and 50c for adults. Everyone is urged to attend all the games and help make the meet a success and an annual affair.

The Longhorn athletic department will operate a concession stand during the tourney. In connection with the tournament, Lockney High School Senior Class will sponsor a fiesta supper Friday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 in the cafeteria.

District Chase Begins

The District 2-AA title race starts for the Longhorns and Longhornettes next Tuesday night when Olton squads invade the local gym.

The 2-AA boys division promises a good race with every representative being fairly strong. Morton and Abernathy are the probaby favorites, but the Longhorns have a good chance to cop their first basketball title in several years. Olton and Muleshoe are darkhorses and may make it rough on the favorites.

Abernathy's girls, Class AA state champions last season, will probably have enough returning strength to grab the district championship. Muleshoe will be a tough opponent.

And He said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith? — Mark 4:41.

"IT DOESN'T get as cold out in this country as it used to." Many an old timer has been heard to make that statement. The Beacon man is not an old timer and he wouldn't for the world hurt an old timer's feelings, but we're wondering if maybe some of the old timers are a little forgetful. We hardly see how the early settlers existed if the temperature was much lower than the past week. We're thinking maybe the modern, warm houses, closed cars and other modern conveniences may make it seem warmer now than in the early days on the plains. After all a half-dugout and a cow chip fire were not conducive to the best in comforts. No doubt but that early settlers on the plains endured many hardships that would curl the hair of the modern man but we're still wondering if the temperature was any lower.

THE RAILROADS are in trouble. Despite being the backbone of the nation's transportation system, they are having troubles. Many passenger trains are being discontinued and more stoppages are coming. "Don't ship by rail" is a common expression from buyers in less than carload lots, because of slow delivery. The reasons are varied. Too many government restrictions is one of the things hurting the railroads. Another is unreasonable labor contracts in some cases which require an excess number of employees. "Featherbedding" they call it. Apparently the management itself is careless and indifferent in some instances and doesn't care whether they please the public or not. Is there no remedy to the situation? Seems to us that it would be helpful if some government restrictions were removed, to allow the railroads to operate more freely. Wouldn't the union profit in the long run if they would relax some of their requirements so that more lines could continue to operate rather than kill the goose that lays the golden egg with "featherbedding" practices. Does the railroad have no "efficiency experts" who could take over and speed up operations and provide more efficient service? The railroads are an important part of the economy of this great country. Something needs to be done and quickly.

HENRY HAZLITT writes, in Newsweek: "Instead of adding further to our foreign-aid and intergovernment lending institutions, which subsidize foreign socialism, inflation, and exchange control, we should be thinking of how to taper off and terminate such programs; how to stop confusing political with economic goals, and how to return the business of foreign investment to private hands. Not until we have done this will the world get back to stable, hard, and convertible currencies, to private enterprise, and to real economic progress."

McDonnell of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, "The first order of business in the next session of Congress should be the passage of labor reform legislation with enough teeth in it to run the goons, gangsters and racketeers out of the labor movement." He described the defeated Kennedy-Ives bill as "merely a slap on the wrist for union labor racketeers and goons when it should have been a punch on the jaw..."

With Our EXCHANGES

HARD TO CLASSIFY

Writing of his political beliefs in The Texas Quarterly, University of Texas literary magazine, U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson expressed scorn of political labels. "I am a free man, an American, a United States Senator, and a Democrat in that order," he wrote. "I am also a liberal, a conservative, a rancher, a businessman, a consumer, a parent, a voter, and not as young as I used to be, nor as old as I expect to be — and I am all these things in no fixed order."

The Senator said he is completely disinterested in trying to define his political philosophy by the choice of a one-word or two-word label. "At the heart of my own beliefs," he said, "is a rebellion against this very process of classifying, labeling and filing Americans under headings."

It's high time someone spoke out against this practice. For the past several years, it has become customary to label a man a conservative or liberal, or whatnot, without giving too much consideration to the meaning of those terms. It is possible, as Senator Johnson points out, for a man to be both, depending upon the issue at stake.

Too many political analysts attempt to classify all Americans by an arbitrary rule of thumb, forgetting that, under a democratic form of government, there must be considerable political flexibility. In refusing to be thus classified and labeled, Senator Johnson is showing good sense. — Lubbock Avalanche.

INFLUENCE OF PRINTING

It is significant that Benjamin Franklin considered printing to rank at the top of his abilities. He saw the potential influence of printing on the world of the future, and was proud of his profession. It is interesting to speculate what life might be like if the printer and his process of transmitting thought had never existed. It is doubtful if our form of government could have been achieved, and religions of the world, especially the Christian religion surely would have suffered. Hand-written Bibles would have been so expensive that hundreds of millions would never have had an opportunity to read the word of God. Destiny and the printer have worked together at the same case. — Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

Dear Editor:
Pretty near every paper you pick up has got some more writing on the subject of under-fed school teachers.

My square neighbor says he is in favor of fair pay for everybody, even teachers, but seems like the payers and the getters are always disagreeing about what is fair.

Says he doubts the claim that better pay would get better teachers. Recalls that this argument was used to up Congressional pay, but none of the old regular grade congressmen quit running for office when the wages went up.

Home Making Hints

by Phyllis Roggendorff
County Home
Demonstration Agent

The time for "buying bargains" is here and many will be taking advantage of the sales this month. If you are planning to purchase garments take note.

With the increasing number of different fibers having similar properties plus blends and finishes, even experts are often unable to identify today's textile products unless they are adequately labeled. Wise shoppers look for information about the goods they buy. One of the best ways to get this is from the information label a manufacturer attaches to his product.

To be of greatest help to the consumer when selecting textile merchandise, there are several questions that an informative label should answer:

- What is the product made of?
- How is it made?
- How will it perform?
- How should it be cared for?
- The first and last questions are very important. You have to know whether to dry clean, hand wash, or wash in machine if the garment is to be satisfactory.

GUARD AGAINST COLDS

Fatigue, too much food or not the right kind, tension, and excitement, are all factors in lowering body resistance to the common cold.

Food makes a difference. Start your family with a good wholesome breakfast and follow through with balanced meals at noon and at night. Eat at regular times as much as possible. Reserve the sweet or rich foods for mealtime dessert. Keep in between meal refreshment snacks light and nutritious. Fruits, fruit juice, or crisp colorful vegetables can be just as tasty and appealing as rich or sweet foods. Keep resistance up so a cold won't get you down.

Present were Messrs. and Mmes. Bruce Davis, Randy and Debbie, Sherwood Ramsey and Don Ray, Chloma Williams and Sue, William Smithy, Martha, Beverly and Iwana, Bob Hopper, Norman and Ronnie, Wesley Carr and Bill, Walter Hanna, John Hoffman, Charlie Reid, Mather Carr and Horace, Riley

South Plains

By Mrs. Chester Hidalgo

Most people wished they had gone south with the birds this year as cold weather arrived in our vicinity Friday and Saturday nights. The sub-zero readings were no doubt similar to the weather that made the early settlers adopt such phrases as "The only thing between here and the North Pole is a barbed-wire fence" and "Someone left the back gate open." At any rate, almost everyone was glad to hear of a most-welcomed warming trend.

Cold weather was directly responsible for the fire which resulted in the loss of a windmill and overhead tank at the E. W. Newton farm. The water pipes were frozen, and when Mr. Newton lit a fire to thaw them, the windmill caught fire as did the supports of the overhead tank. The tank was crushed when the supports gave way. For a time the Newton home was threatened but neighbors brought all the water they could carry so the fire was confined to the windmill and the overhead tank.

The sub-zero temperatures kept Sunday school attendance down this week. Thirty-six were present and the one visitor was James Teague of Floydada. The Study Course that was to have been held this week was cancelled because of the cold weather. Rev. Gillispie and family have returned from Lamesa where they spent the holidays.

With Christmas vacations drawing to a close, college students are returning to their campuses. Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Upton and daughter returned to Canyon Saturday where Ronnie is enrolled at West Texas State College. Also are James Alton Higginbotham enrolled at West Texas State, Eugene Beedy, and Kendis Julian. They returned to Canyon Sunday. Donita Milton also left Sunday for Lubbock where she is enrolled in Draughtons Business College.

Jack Reeves who teaches in the Denver School system, and Larry Smitherman who is enrolled in the Art Institute at Denver attempted to drive to Denver Saturday morning. When they reached Amarillo the road conditions were too hazardous to continue so they returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reeves and Ma and Mrs. Phillip Smitherman drove to Clarendon Saturday night where they took the train to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Childress returned to Plainview Sunday. Mrs. Childress is a fourth grade teacher in College Hill Elementary School which is located in the west part of Plainview.

Mrs. O. T. Hewitt has resigned her teaching position with the South Plains School. She has been primary teacher for several years. Her resignation will be effective January 16th at the end of the first semester. Mrs. Joyce Sandberg of Floydada has been hired to replace Mrs. Hewitt. Mrs. Sandberg and her husband moved to Floydada in September 1958 from Kilgore. Mr. Sandberg works with the Highway Department in Floydada. Mrs. Sandberg is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College in Nacogdoches.

Because of the illness of Mr. Foster, Jeff Hart has been hired to drive the Floydada School bus. Mr. Hart has been driving the bus while Mr. Foster has been in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenton Lanham were recent visitors in the Bryant Higginbotham home. The Lanhams were former residents of South Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Adams and sons returned from their vacation to El Paso, Texas and Piegres Niegres, Mexico. They reported that they had a good time but the weather was the coldest that it had ever been there.

Donita Milton was confined to Floydada Hospital for four days during Christmas vacation with all the symptoms of encephalitis but had no fever. The doctor decided that it was a bad virus. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doodle Milton and her sisters, Barbara and Darla, were visiting relatives in California. They arrived home Friday afternoon.

The Julian family arrived home safely around noon Saturday. They had been vacationing near Miami, Florida, and left for home New Years Day.

Nathan and Kathryn Mulder celebrated New Years Eve with a party in their home. Friends attending were: Jimmy Respondak, J. Ronald Taylor, Kay Taylor, Bill Bledsoe, Gary Morrison, Frankie D. Jones, Dennis Davenport, Yvonne Karr and Jo Ann Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Yeary and Mr. and Mrs. Early Pritchett celebrated New Years Eve in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pearson. Games of 84 were enjoyed during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pearson had Lowell Bond and her son, Victor as dinner guests in their home Saturday night. Mrs. Bond and Victor returned to Plainview Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smitherman spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Edwards in White Flat. The Edwards family formerly lived near South Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wood had Mr. and Mrs. Red Rogers and Mike from Goree, Texas, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Bowers of Plainview as guests in their home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bledsoe and Bill went to Lubbock last Wednesday on business.

The first meeting of the year of the South Plains Sr. Home Demonstration Club will be held January 14th at 2:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Doodle Milton with Mrs. Frank McClure acting as co-hostess. In event of bad weather, the meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. McClure. The president, Mrs. Milton, has asked that as many members as possible be at the meeting as the 1959 Yearbooks will be distributed and each member will be asked to choose some country of the world. The members will then tell something about their chosen country for each roll call during the year. Members will be asked to give programs on the topics in which they are most interested.

Mr. and Mrs. George West spent New Years in Roswell, N. M. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Goldston. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Thornton accompanied the Wests to Roswell. Mr. and Mrs. West ate supper and enjoyed Saturday evening in the home of their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure. Sunday they spent the day at Silvertown with the D. H. Davis family.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Parks and family went to Georgia during the Christmas holidays. They went to San Antonio and along

I see where the Courts say it is the public duty of employers to collect federal taxes from their employees without getting any pay for the work.

My foxy neighbor says the Internal Revenueurs could save lots of money if they would get all of their help from among people subject to this public duty, and not have to pay out wages at all for getting the tax crop harvested.

The E. F. Kinslow family returned home Friday after an extended vacation to South Texas. They went to San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Brownsville, across the Rio Grande River to Mexico, and came home by way of Laredo and San Angelo. They arrived home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beedy and daughter, Arlene McClure and children visited in the L. N. Johnson home Sunday afternoon.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — As a news-making year, 1958 lacked the lid-blowing scandals and sensational headlines that erupted from the Capitol in '56 and '57. But it was a momentous year in many ways. Elections. Recession. State treasury bankrupt. Much talk of new taxes.

Many research reports were made—by the State Tax Study Commission, The Texas Research League, the Hale-Aikin Committee. Required reports came from the Board of Water Engineers, Higher Education Commission and Legislative Council.

All in all, 1958 was a year of surveys, a time of critical self-examination. All the research reports made lengthy stories, little headlines. Few are complete stories. Most will be continued into the turbulent Legislative year of 1959.

A month by month review of 1958, including top news events, both good and bad, depending on your viewpoint, follows:

JANUARY — Gov. Price Daniel refused to be gloomy about state finances. He said he wasn't convinced the State Treasury would be in the red by 1959, as some said, nor of the need for new taxes.

New State Water Planning Board set up shop with the aim of doubling Texas' water storage capacity. . . . Land Commissioner Earl Rudder resigned to become A&M Vice President. Bill Allcorn of Brownwood succeeded Rudder. . . . Rival groups of optometrists squared off in a court battle to decide legality of price advertising.

Early-day satellites swirled overhead and a lot of people were worrying whether our schools were as good as Russia's. . . . Hale-Aikin Committee asked for grass-roots suggestions for school improvement.

FEBRUARY — Gov. Daniel proposed that precinct convention be abolished and that delegates to the county convention be named by direct primary vote. It was a surprise counter-move to the "code of ethics" campaign being conducted by the DOT as part of its drive to wrest party control from the governor.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert predicted a $12,000,000 state revenue deficit and need for $100,000,000 in new taxes by 1959. . . . Economists announced bluntly that there was a recession.

MARCH — Texas oil allowable dwindled to nine producing days. Oil Imports Study Commission blamed excess stocks on over-producing during Suez crisis, competition since from foreign oil.

Unemployment payments hit a figure double that of a year ago. . . . And many Texas farmers reported it was "too wet to plow."

APRIL — Oil allowable tumbled to an all-time low, eight producing days. . . . But TEC, for the first time in 1958, announced a significant drop in joblessness.

Former Sen. Bill Blakley, Dallas financier, announced he'd run for the senate post held by Ralph Yarborough. It was starting gun for summer politicking.

MAY — Eight-day oil production pattern continued. . . . Governor Daniel kicked off a campaign to save 254 lives in '58 by reducing the 1957 highway death toll 10%.

Bureau of Business Research reported the recession "is still very much with us."

JUNE — Election campaigns got into high gear. But as much, if not more, attention focused on the "after-hours" election, the precinct conventions. Prize in the struggle would be control of the state convention in September and selection of party officials for the next two years. Leading the rival factions were Governor Daniel for the moderate-conservatives and National Committeewoman Mrs. A. D. Randolph for the liberal DOT.

HIGH COURT JUDGE SWORN IN—Supreme Court Chief Justice John E. Hickman, right, is shown administering the oath of office to Associate Justice Joe Greenhill of Austin at January 1 ceremonies at the State Capitol. Judge Greenhill was elected by the voters of Texas to complete the term (ending Dec. 31, 1960) of the late Judge Fawcett Brewster. Judge Greenhill has been serving on the court by appointment since October 1, 1957.

JULY — Primaries returned almost all incumbents to major offices, including Ralph Yarborough to the U. S. Senate and Price Daniel to another term as governor.

Oil was up to nine producing days. . . . Economic analysts pointed to lessening unemployment, hefty bank deposits, said it might be "a good year after all."

AUGUST — Legislative Budget Board wrestled with money requests from state agencies far in excess of expected revenue for 1960-61. . . . Second primary settled who would sit in 56th Legislature, but not who would preside over the House. Both Joe Burkett of Kerrville and Waggoner Carr of Lubbock claimed enough pledges to be elected speaker.

Leaders of all types of Democrats called for "harmony" at September convention. Oil allowable rose to 11 days.

SEPTEMBER — Hale-Aikin Committee made its first report on proposals to update, enrich public schools. . . . Fiscal leaders in Legislature upped their gloomy predictions on new revenue needs to $140,000,000.

Texas Democrats turned their eyes toward 1960 after a convention controlled by the Governor despite DOT outrage over the exclusion of its members from the Executive Committee.

OCTOBER — Texas General Revenue Fund ran dry and began going in the hole. . . . Hale-Aikin Committee reconsidered and reversed its previous stand against federal aid for school lunch programs and vocational training.

Commission on Higher Education proposed a more unified study program for state colleges and universities, concentrating graduate work at UT and A&M. . . . Texans debate merits of nine proposed amendments to the state Constitution.

NOVEMBER — State fiscal officials upped their estimates of needed new revenue to nearly $200,000,000. . . . Industry leaders called the oil industry "sick." Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson called for

CROSS ROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:
I see where the Secret Service reports the counterfeiting business is picking up.

They say, too, that the do-it-yourself money printers are getting more skillful and you can't hardly tell their home-made politician bait from the authorized article.

But my strapped neighbor says maybe it's not so much that the counterfeiters' work is getting better; could be it just looks better when compared with the government printers' product nowadays, which don't buy half as much as it used to.

mandatory import controls. Many public officials were disappointed over amendment voting. Salary raises for legislators and pension plans for county officials got thumbs down.

DECEMBER — Waning weeks of '58 saw a flood of legislative proposals flow into Austin. . . . Hale-Aikin Committee, joined by Texas State Teachers Association, asked more pay for teachers, more courses, longer school year. Others wanted safety legislation, fiscal help for cities, flexible auto insurance rates, small loan company regulation, etc.

State Tax Study Commission made no recommendation beyond its reporting of the fiscal facts of life in Texas. Governor Daniel estimated the state would need $65,000,000 a year more for future spending plus $55,000,000 to wipe out the deficit. He said he thought it could be done without general sales or income taxes.

And the safety crusade moved toward an unknown outcome as officials, joined by newsmen and hundreds of billboards, sought to cut the usual holiday highway death toll.

Whatever happens to the piles of data and recommendations in '59, their accumulation made '58 a significant year. It was a year in which many thoughtful people sought to take a gasp on the problems and promise of Texas' future.

CROSS ROADS REPORT

Dear Editor: I see where the U.S. has been getting real overbearing toward its citizens who try to break into the military aid business down in Cuba.

It used to be that enterprising young fellows could get rich supplying the equipment to foreigners wishing to fight among themselves, but the government trying to hog all this business has just about ruined it.

Like my grocery store running neighbor says, you can hardly make a living selling commodities when the federaals are passing them out free.

Red Cross Nursing Services Mark 50th Anniversary

Washington, D. C. — On January 1, 1959, the American Red Cross begins a year-long observance of the 50th Anniversary of its Nursing Services. The national organization and chapters throughout the country have been planning for many months the ways in which they will honor the Red Cross nurse and publicize the story of her services during 1959.

While celebrating the anniversary of the service, the national organization and its chapters also will pay homage to all nurses who, for almost a century, have embodied the ideal of Red Cross — service to humanity and the mitigation of suffering.

It was Florence Nightingale's work with the wounded during the Crimean War which Henri Dunant, founder of the International Red Cross movement, said inspired him to do similar work during the Battle of Solferino, Italy, in 1859.

In 1863, at the Geneva International Conference on aid to the wounded during wartime, promoted by Dunant, five of the ten adopted resolutions related directly to the organization, training, and assignment of volunteer nurses to assist the military medical services. Such persons, it was resolved, "shall wear in all countries, as a uniform, . . . a white armband with a red cross."

Clara Barton, the "angel" of the Civil War battlefields and founder of the American Red Cross in 1881, knew firsthand the nursing needs in peacetime disasters and epidemics as well as in wartime. She, and later June A. Delano, a volunteer nurse during the 1888 yellow fever outbreak in Jacksonville, Fla., tirelessly labored to lay the groundwork for present-day American Red Cross nursing activities. Their efforts resulted in the formal organization on May 5, 1909, of the National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Services. Miss Delano, then superintendent of the Army Nurse Corps, became first chairman.

During the 50th anniversary year, Red Cross will honor the memory and legacy of these four great pioneer leaders — Nightingale, Dunant, Barton, and Delano — as well as the nearly 223,000 professional nurses who, since 1909, have enrolled for service with Red Cross.

Today, some 57,000 nurses are serving in disaster relief, during outbreaks of disease or other periods of local or national emergency and are providing home nursing and volunteer nurses aide instruction. These nurses personify the slogan Red Cross has adopted as the theme of the golden anniversary celebration — "A Strong Link in America's Chain of Health." The slogan, chosen from among many suggested to Nursing Services, was submitted by Miss Betty Adams, 312 Laverne Avenue, Alexandria, Va., a secretary in the Red Cross Eastern Area office.

According to The World Book Encyclopedia, Henry Cay is credited with first using the plea of "temporary insanity" to save an accused man from the death sentence.

T. T. Hamilton, Floyd County tax collector, will set up office at Lockney Auto Co. one day, Thursday, January 14th, for the purpose of collecting state, county and poll taxes only, he announced this week. This is an annual custom of the tax collector in order that people in this part of the county may conveniently pay their taxes.

MISCONCEPTION ABOUT COOKING MEAT

A recent survey indicates that many homemakers still believe that searing seals in juices of meats. Home economists with the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association say that searing is an old fashion method of cooking that actually results in shrinking and drying of roasted meats. Low temperature roasting preserves flavor and juices. The new ranges are equipped with meat probes, rotisseries, thermostats and automatic controls to help homemakers get the most from the dollars they spend for meat. The most experienced cook can prepare meat to perfection if she owns an automatic range.

Rainbow Seen Here Saturday Morning

A rainbow on each side of the sun was clearly visible here early Saturday morning. Mist or ice flying in the air was believed to be the cause. The rainbow extended from the horizon upward to about a level with the sun on each side and was not joined at the top. It soon disappeared as the sun rose up from the horizon.

Rayburn Begins 16th Year As House Speaker

When the 86th Congress convenes on January 7th, Speaker Rayburn will take up the gavel he has wielded for a record-breaking 15 years as speaker of the House of Representatives. The Texas Democrat has held the post almost twice as long as any other speaker. But Republicans gave the speaker the power that has caused some experts to rank it as the second most important office in the nation.

Henry Clay was the first to turn the office to political advantage. The speaker was simply an impartial moderator before Clay's election in 1811. According to The World Book Encyclopedia, the "Great Compromiser" used the office to argue so forcefully for the Veto of 1812 that it was called "Clay's War."

However, the speakership was transformed into a political tool almost as powerful as the presidency by Thomas Reed in "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

In 1890, Reed cracked down on the delaying tactics of minority groups by counting members present as a quorum — a number sufficient to conduct business — even if they did not vote.

Rayburn Begins 16th Year As House Speaker

When the 86th Congress convenes on January 7th, Sam Rayburn will take up the gavel he has wielded for a record-breaking 15 years as speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Texas Democrat has held the post almost twice as long as any other speaker. But two Republicans gave the speaker-ship the power that has caused some experts to rank it as the second most important office in the nation.

Henry Clay was the first to turn the office to political advantage. The speaker was simply an impartial moderator before Clay's election in 1811. But, according to The World Book Encyclopedia, the "Great Compromiser" used the office to argue so forcefully for the War of 1812 that it was called "Mr. Clay's War."

However, the speakership was transformed into a political tool almost as powerful as the presidency by Thomas Reed and "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

In 1890, Reed cracked down on the delaying tactics of minority groups by counting all members present as a quorum — a number sufficient to conduct business — even if they did not vote.

The move earned Reed the nickname "Czar," but the Supreme Court later upheld the rule.

Reed's methods were only the starting point for Joseph Cannon, who ruled the House like a dictator in the early 1900's. Once, after putting a question for a voice vote, "Uncle Joe" declared, "The ayes make the most noise but the nays have it."

Even some members of Cannon's party rebelled. In 1910, on St. Patrick's Day, a coalition of Democrats and about 30 Republicans set out to strip Cannon of much of his power.

Because of the "St. Patrick's Day Revolution," Sam Rayburn has little of the formal authority which Reed and Cannon delegated to themselves.

He still has the important "speaker's eye," or the power of recognizing members who wish to speak on the floor.

But most of his strength comes from an informal source — the party discipline he can maintain as leader of the majority party in the House.

Extension Of Muster Out Payment For Certain Veterans

Public Law 550, approved July 16, 1952, authorized the payment of mustering out pay for those men discharged from active service on or after June 27, 1950.

Section 503 of the Act contained provision that any member of the Armed Forces who was discharged or relieved from active service prior to July 16, 1952, had two years from that date in which to make claim for the payment. Under Public Law 180 — 84th Congress, approved July 26, 1955, Section 503 was amended to provide making claim on or before July 15, 1956.

Public Law 85-638, approved August 14, 1958, now changes the July 16, 1956 date to July 16, 1959 for veterans to make their claim. It is possible that some men were placed on the retired list by reason of physical disability, and knew nothing of their entitlement to this mustering out payment.

Persons drawing, or entitled to draw retired pay (other than disability retired pay,) retainer pay, severance pay, etc., are not entitled to the mustering out payment.

Report Shows Cotton Crop Best On Record

Lubbock — The fifth Texas High Plains Cotton Quality Report for the 1958 cotton crop, representing total ginnings of more than one million bales, still indicates that this year's crop may be one of the best on record.

George W. Pfeiffenberger, Executive Vice President of the PCG, said statistics on the report, which covers ginnings of 1,250,000 bales as of November 30, indicate that white cotton accounted for 78.9% of the crop with 24.7% being Middling white and better. Light spotted cotton was only 20% and of that, 15% was Middling light spot and better. Full spotted cotton was only 0.1%.

Pfeiffenberger said ginnings are running much faster the past two weeks and many observers feel the crop will be 95% by Christmas. Estimated total production is around two million bales.

Statistics show in the fifth quality report that the average staple length is still holding close to an inch, being 31.2 thirty-seconds of an inch. There is 32.8% of the staple that measures one inch and longer and only 4.6% measures below 15-16 inch.

The micronaire average is 4.1 with 90.5% of the crop above the tenderable micronaire limit of 3.5. The majority of the crop, or 59.7% falls between 4.0 and 5.0.

In fiber strength the data show the average is 75,100 pounds per square inch with 47.1% between 75,000 and 90,000 pounds.

Pfeiffenberger called attention to the uniformity of the crop in grade, staple and micronaire and pointed out that this perhaps is one of the most uniform crops ever harvested on the High Plains.

The quality report is a cooperative venture of the PCG, the USDA, Texas Tech College and the Texas Experiment Station.

Lockney Auto Company Has Sold--

71% of the 1958 model cars in the low-price three in our trade territory according to statistics compiled by R. L. Polk & Co. especially for dealers. The latest available figures are accurate up to November 1st, 1958.

We have had a very slow start on our 1959 models due to a prolonged strike. Thanks for waiting for the new 1959 Chevrolet. We know it has been inconvenient for lots of our customers. However, we have delivered 21 new 1959 model cars and 8 new 1959 Pickups with eight orders still on file undelivered. In just a few days now we feel sure that we will have a good stock of 1959 cars and pickups for immediate delivery. Public acceptance of our new models has been very favorable and we are confident that we will maintain this percent of price class or even better it on our 1959 models.

When we started back in 1914, all garages were called auto companies, therefore we have remained the Lockney Auto Co. and as long as we can serve people like you we will remain your Lockney Auto Co. Working with folks like you is what makes doing business in end around Lockney a pleasure.

Mr. Jess Cox, who was general manager for us for 32 years is now in the insurance business here in Lockney. We will miss Jess and wish him success in his new experience. Mr. Leonard Finley, who was with us for 10 years, now has his own parts house in Lockney, and we also wish Leonard the very best in his new business. These are but a few of the fine people who have been associated with the Lockney Auto over the past 45 years, and with their help we have retained the same high standards of service and sales through the years.

Our pledge to you is — we will have a parts stock for all Chevrolet owners. We will have a complete insurance and finance service for sales of new and used cars. We have the best mechanics, not only for Chevrolet, but for all makes. Leonard Griffith, who has been with the Lockney Auto Company for the past eight years, is an expert in air condition work and is qualified to work on all General Motors and independent brands of air conditioners. Leonard has been off to Oklahoma City to our Chevrolet Training Center twice on the 59 product and we know he can keep your Chevrolet in top repair. Frank Messimer has been with us for 18 years and is a very good tune-up and repair specialist. Frank likes to use our new Front End Machine and has studied under a factory man who came right into our shop and worked with all our mechanics. G. A. McAda is the one we count on to keep the school buses on the road. G. A. has been with us for 13 years and has 13 years experience working on most all kinds of cars. G. A. also is the one we count on to keep our spirits up. He sings and keeps us all laughing and happy. Aubria Kent has been with us only one year but he worked for the Ford garage here in Lockney for 11 years and is the very best Ford mechanic we have ever known. This statement is backed up by all the people who have ever had Aubria work on their car. We hope Aubria will remain with us much longer than any place he has ever worked. Rudy Amaya is studying to be a mechanic under the guidance of the above named men and we have great plans for Rudy. Rudy is loyal and honest and does a day's work every day. He has been with us for over five years. We have a new wash and grease man. We know he will satisfy you and that is just what we at Lockney Auto Co. want to do — satisfy you.

We will be happy to show you our new 1959 cars. All of our cars are shipped in and we can give you local service on your new car. Remember we are the only firm in Lockney which is authorized to sell you a new Chevrolet. Come in to see us.

If planting has to be delayed be sure and "heel in" the trees so that they will not dry out.

Dear Editor:
I see where some doctors have invented another new drug, which they say is so powerful it cured one boy of stealing cars after he had done it 34 times.

Seems from this example that the medicine works to counteract unruly hankering for items which belong to somebody else.

My crusty neighbor says this discovery ought to be helpful in the treatment of enlarged thymic glands, and to stabilize the lives of Hollywood greats by subduing their yearning for each other's wives and husbands.

Whatever happens to the windmill?

Old "High Lonesome" has virtually disappeared from the rural scene along with the wood stove, cistern and kerosene lamp, swept into obscurity by rural electrification. They are remnants of a romantic past. In their place is the new way of life that electricity brings.

No one can say what electrical marvels the future holds. But hundreds of thousands of rural Texans know that the Rural Electric Cooperatives they own, operate, and enjoy are equal to the task. With nearly a quarter century's experience behind them, these elements of democracy, if unhampered, can continue the great service for which they were founded: Rural Electrification

Duane Griffith Is Honorable Mention On All-State Team

Duane Griffith, fine center of the Longhorns, has been given honorable mention to the Class AA All-State football team. The selections were released Tuesday.

Two Jailed Charged With Cafe Burglary

Two young men, Frank Sanchez and Paul Barrientz, are in jail at Floydada after making statements to District Attorney John Stapleton concerning the burglary of the Mendoza Cafe on Highway 70 in south Lockney last week. The two were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Billy Tigert and City Officer Lowell Bihrey last Thursday near the fair grounds in southeast Lockney. They had some money taken in the when arrested, officers said.

Sanchez is out of the penitentiary on probation after being sentenced from Knox County. He had served 14 months on a 5-year term. Bond for both men was set at $1,000.

On Thursday night of last week thieves entered Consumers Fuel Association office here, making off with a small amount of change. Manager Thurman Davis said that they took $5.20 in nickels and dimes from the cash register. No merchandise was missed. They entered the rear of the building by breaking a window and used a tire tool to pry open the door between the rear building and the office. The cash register was also pried open. Most of the loss was damage to the big metal door between the office and the remainder of the building, Davis said.

Burglars also entered the South Plains school building this week. They searched the room, apparently looking for money. Finding none they tried off a 50 lb. bag of beans and an undetermined amount of canned goods. Sheriff Ernest Huckaby investigated the matter Wednesday morning. Entry was gained through window.
