Death Claims Pioneer Woman

Death ended a long life of service to family and friends late Wednesday evening when Mrs. Mary A. Baggett passed away in Lockney General Hospital. She was 91 years of age.

Mrs. Baggett had been in ill health for several years but the immediate cause of her death was a heart attack, relatives said.

Funeral services were held at the Main Street Church of Christ Friday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by S. A. Freeman, the pastor. Interment was in the Lockney Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, J. W. Baggett, who passed away in 1946.

Mrs. Baggett was born Mary Alice Fairies on January 22, 1888, in Johnson County, Texas. The family moved to Hamilton County in 1885 and it was there she was married to J. W. Baggett in 1887. The couple moved back to Johnson County, then to Jack County in 1888. They came to the Plains in 1911, settling at Plainview where they lived for six years before moving to Lockney in 1917.

Mr. Baggett was in the grain elevator and gin business here for many years and also had farming interests.

Mrs. Baggett was a member of the Main Street Church of Christ here and had been a member of the Church of Christ for 75 years. In addition to her church, Mrs. Baggett also had an unusual interest in orphan homes.

Survivors include one son, Chell Baggett, of Eads, Colo.; one sister, Mrs. Alva Raper of Lockney; eight grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren. One son, Fairies, died in his early teens, and a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Carter, passed away in 1955.

Among the grandchildren are Lester C. Carter of Lockney, J. M. and Clin Carter of the Whitefield community.

EDITORIAL

By faith we understand that the world was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made out of things which do not appear.—Hebrews 11:3.

THE MYSTERY of the underground water level in the High Plains area is something that has never been satisfactorily explained to this unlearned person. We're looking now at the map of Floyd County showing the rise and fall of the underground water level from January 1958 to January 1959 as released by the Texas Board of Water Engineers. True that most observation wells showed the expected decline, ranging from less than one foot to almost 18 feet in one well, with the average being something over four feet. But some wells showed a rise in the water level as measured from land surface, one being up more than 14 feet, another up more than 10 feet, and others lesser amounts. About 70 wells in the county were observed. The biggest concentration of wells measured in the check was in the immediate Lockney area. In this area 24 wells showed a decline while seven showed a rise in water level. How do you explain that?

WE WINCE everytime we read in the daily papers of the big increase in retail sales at Plainview, Lubbock and Amarillo. It's not that we have any grudge against these cities.

STOP ITCHING! IN 15 MINUTES.

After using ITCH-ME-NOT, get your 48c back IF THE ITCH NEEDS SCRATCHING. You feel the medication take hold. Itch and burning disappear! Use instant - drying ITCH-ME-NOT day or night for eczema, ringworm, insect bites, foot itch, other surface rashes. TODAY at Byrd Pharmacy. They are all very nice places.

we think. But we can't help thinking also about the amount of Floyd County money that goes to boost the retail sales in those cities. Of course, all of us most buy some things out of the county because they are not available at home but probably more than half of the purchases made by Floyd County people outside of the county could be bought at home at little if any sacrifice in price or quality. But preaching with a "trade at home" text is for the other fellow. We never think that we might be the guilty party. Meanwhile we wish we had better schools and better churches and never stop to consider that trading at home helps to make for better home institutions of all kinds because it leaves money at home that otherwise goes to help build other towns and cities.

ACTUALLY, Floyd County is one of the richer counties on the High Plains, according to the recent retail sales report made by the daily press. Floyd County stands fourth in farm income on the South Plains, with only Lubbock, Hale and Lamb counties ahead of us. Our farm income was better than $52 million while Hale had $96 million, Lubbock had $87 million and Lamb had $69 million. But in spendable income we dropped to seventh among the 20 counties included in the report with Floyd County spendable income reported at slightly over $20 million dollars.

FOOTBALL FEVER is in the air. All the old football fans are getting set for the season with the Lockney Longhorn team still an unknown quality. But, win, lose or draw, the Longhorns will have the backing of the faithful who even now are sitting on the edge of the seat waiting for the first kick-off whistle.

ACCORDING TO A Newsweek feature article, our mail often travels no faster than it did 99 years ago. The magazine calls "staggering" the post office's use of hand labor, and reports that every piece of mail must be picked up, read, and put somewhere an average of 12 times. Many post office methods stand untouched from the day when Benjamin Franklin was sworn in as the first Postmaster General in 1775.

RALPH T. MOORE writes in the Oregon Voter: "National labor control law has been moving into local areas so completely as to virtually preempt all labor controls. Now-a-days, if one's business establishment chances to have a migrating robin light on its roof it becomes interstate and so amendable to federal rather than state law."

FORTY-THREE per cent of the assets of public pension funds in California are invested in public utility bonds and debentures. With 600,000 active and retired members, says a publication of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, these funds have combined assets totaling almost $24 billion, a sum greater than the assets of all but 10 of the nation's largest banking institutions.

INTANGIBLE COMMUNITY ASSETS

We hear much about community assets, a modern and well-equipped school campus, paved streets, street lights, good church buildings, nice parks, beautiful restricted residential areas, good hospital facilities, modern business buildings, swimming pools, and the like. Certainly all these things are necessary and a community should have all these assets it can afford.

But there are also many intangible assets that a community may or may not have. They cost little or nothing so far as dollars and cents are concerned — but often they are much more difficult to achieve than something that can be supplied by a bond issue.

One of these intangible assets is community unity. There are towns, few and far between where it is one for all and all for one. The people have caught the vision that together they can accomplish all things.

Another intangible asset is friendliness and neighborliness. If every resident of a community resolved to show friendliness and neighborliness to all newcomers and to each other, the community would soon be the talk of the state.

Still another intangible community asset is neatness and cleanliness. One can travel through small villages in Europe and only meager financial resources. Yet, in many instances, every home is neat as a pin. Each little inexpensive home will be immaculate, will have a neat little flower garden. Never will one see weeds growing, half wrecked automobiles parked next to the houses.

es, debris of various kinds laying around, dilapidated shacks which could be repaired or razed with a little effort and no cash outlay, and other eyesores. The small shops may be humble and inexpensive, but they are clean, their windows are washed, they feature no dusty and wilted window displays that have outlived their effectiveness.

An important intangible community asset is spirit. There are a few communities where every resident is a booster. He is a self-appointed salesman of his community, pointing out its many virtues to every visitor or transient passing through.

An intangible community asset is the absence of factions. This is not to imply that everyone is cut by the same mold, that everybody sees alike on every issue, that no one has an individual personality. But we all know what it means to have two or more factors in a church, a club, an organization of any kind. We live in a town dominated by strife, factionalism, and selfishness.

These few intangible community assets are available to even the poorest community. But they are more difficult to achieve than a million dollar school building.—Tulla Herald.

IT IS BETTER!

A note from an anonymous reader came in the other day, to wit: "I hope you can find an appropriate spot in your paper for this little item, as I feel it is really food for thought."

The item is food for thought. It reads:

"It is always better—
"To be lied about than be a liar;
"To be slandered than be the slanderer;
"To be cheated than to cheat;
"To be imposed upon than be a bully;
"To lose your money than to be a thief;
"To be the victim than the sinner, and
"To be deceived than to stoop to deceive." — The Plainsman in Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

WAKE UP, TEXAS!

What ever happened to Texas wealthy, or did it indeed ever have any?

Perhaps we have all been too occupied with trying to live up to our Texas' reputation to really care about our states' finances.

Maybe this slow-moving Legislature is what we need to wake us up to the things that are going on about us.

How proud are you fellow Texan to live in a broke state? How proud are you fellow Texan to send your children to schools that are less well equipped and less modern than those of other states?

I think we have all been so busy being proud Texans that we have been coazing on our laurels.

Let's wake up.—The Texas Spur.

Dear Editor:

I see where some so-called sophisticates run down the western shows on TV as being low-brow entertainment, the same as music with rhythm, and paintings you can tell what it is.

My simple neighbor says he guesses the culture strutters pick out what to run down by seeing what ordinary people like, and vice versa.

Says he is not actually a horse and Indian addict, but so many writers have gone to playing in the dirt these days that a good Western is about the only place left where you can see virtue come out on top.

smoothest ride!

One of the 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any other car in its field

Anyone who's ever taken a Chevy over a choppy country road can tell you how lightly Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension handles rough going — and coil springs never squeak, never need grease! Try this velvet way of going for yourself. Once you do, you'll find your own way of saying what MOTOR TREND magazine puts this way: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But the happiest part of it all is that this Full Coil ride is just one of seven big bests — all documented by published opinions of experts and on-the-record facts and figures.

BEST ROOM — Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* show that Chevrolet sedans offer more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars — more front seat hip room (by up to 5.9 inches) than the "other two" of the leading low-priced three.

BEST ENGINE — Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise from virtually every automobile magazine, and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR† Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ECONOMY — A pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, topping every other full-sized car. And the winning mileage was a whopping 22.38 m.p.g.

BEST BRAKES — Chevy's bonded-lining brakes are the biggest in their field, built for up to 66% longer life. In a direct competition conducted by NASCAR, Chevy out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars in a test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE — It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST TRADE-IN — Any N.A.D.A.‡ Guide Book can give you the figures on Chevy's extra value. You'll find that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." Your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to tell you about a whole host of other advantages besides these seven. Why not drop by his showroom!

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

STIN, Tex. — Quiet has reigned over Texas Capitol Hill for 202 days of hubbub. Legislators packed up to go home and agencies were filling out pads with figures. For state-supported activities, the budget which goes into effect Sept. 1 will mean more than $300,000.

grams got less than had been asked for, some salaries were cut, and there were riders and restrictions in other activities. But, overall, there was more relief and rejoicing than tears and complaining. Most seemed to regard the new budget as the best that could be hoped for in such a "hard year."

For their parts, lawmakers were eager to get home and "mingle with the folks." Ahead lie probable show-downs on new spending for welfare and public schools, and, always, the inching up every two years in general spending.

BUDGET BREAKDOWN — Texas' new record high budget of $2,418,000,000 was reported out after 95 days of haggling in conference committee. But once out, it zipped through both houses, with only 8 dissenting votes in the Senate and a 108-to-30 vote in the House. Spending from the general revenue fund, the state's multi-purpose housekeeping kitty, totals $322,800,000. This is up $42,000,000 from the present biennium. To show how hard up the state was, more than 56 per cent of total general revenue spending — or $185,000,000 — will have to come from the new tax bill passed this session. Here's how the pie was finally sliced on major items:

PUBLIC SCHOOLS — Received an appropriation of $774,904,500, an increase of about $85,000,000, mostly because school spending has an "escalator clause" which ties it to enrollment.

HIGHER EDUCATION — Got the biggest increase from the general revenue fund of any program. It was boosted by more than $12,000,000 to a total of $130,933,424 for the state's 18 tax-supported colleges and universities. Increase was only about half what was asked by the Commission on Higher Education.

University of Texas officials saw one of their fondest dreams come true in that the "available fund" (income from the University's permanent fund) was left free for buildings and "excellence" programs.

HOSPITALS, SPECIAL SCHOOLS, YOUTH COUNCIL — Allotted a total of $90,456,554, an increase of $6,348,252. This is to be used to improve medical care in state hospitals and to build a new mental hospital at Denton, a new dormitory for delinquent boys at the Gatesville school and a new building at the Gainesville School for Girls. It will also cover some salary increases and cost of some repair and remodeling in the vast hospital and school systems. It does not allow for setting up the juvenile parole system ardently desired by the Youth Council and recommended by Gov. Price Daniel.

JUDICIARY — Will receive $9,336,769 from general revenue, a $312,779 increase. Most of this goes for new district courts plus briefing attorneys and secretaries for the Supreme Court.

PRISON SYSTEM — Operating budget increased by $2,800,000 plus $7,720,000 to provide additional buildings for a prison population soaring toward 11,000.

LIVESTOCK DISEASE — A new program to control brucellosis was tabbed for $239,960, considerably under the $2,170,000 requested.

STATE ADVERTISING — State Highway Department was authorized to use $100,000 to lure tourists and the Texas Industrial Commission $20,000 to seek new industries.

CONSTITUTION — Texas Legislative Council was given $50,000 for a study of the State Constitution with a view to revising it.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT — All the furor over top officials' salaries brought little change. Commissioner of Insurance William Harrison was cut from $20,000 to $15,000 a year; the three board members, from $15,000 to $14,000.

BUILDING PROGRAM — To further the Capitol expansion program, $2,753,000 was appropriated for buying land, $2,924,000 for a second state office building.

WATER PLANNING — Board of water engineers was allotted $2,037,000, an increase of $200,000, but nearly $800,000 less than requested. It will allow for some salary increases for board members and engineers and mapping to locate future damsites.

RIO GRANDE NAVY — Sen. Abraham (Chick) Kazen Jr. of Laredo, Texas' fourth "governor for a day" this year, used his time in the spotlight to call attention to needs of his South Texas border country district. As Senate president pro tempore, Kazen served as chief executive in the absence of the governor and lieutenant governor. He proclaimed Good Neighbor Day, created the Navy of the Rio Grande and urged Congressional approval for construction of Diablo Dam west of Del Rio.

REPRIEVE FOR CHURCH — St. Martin's Lutheran Church a beautiful, classically designed building one block north of the Capitol, was to be destroyed to make way for the state building program. Texas Employment Commission's new building has already gone up within a few feet of it. But the Senate, in a resolution sponsored by Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, has asked the TEC to study the possibility of putting the church to some use, such as a non-denominational chapel, before deciding to level it.

SHORT SNORTS — Penalties up to $200 and court costs can be assessed against operators of dual-wheeled vehicles without protective "mud flaps" after Aug. 9. Previously the law

Dear Editor: I see where a prominent economist says a fat chunk of the high cost of living for us Americans is now the item of interest on our installments. My debt-sprung neighbor says the sad thing about all this money going for interest is that you can't eat nor wear the stuff, and it don't impress the neighbors. But says likely civilization would still be back about the Dark Ages if it hadn't been for debts and interest, and countries had always had to save up the money to pay for it before they could start a war.

ACCENT ON LAMB — Seasonings such as garlic, thyme, rosemary, marjoram and dill are compatible flavors with lamb. Before broiling lamb chops and steaks in the broiler, it is a good idea to warm remember to score the edges to prevent the meat from curling plates in the oven.

"Previously Owned by a Little Old Lady..."

Surprisingly, that gentle little old lady who never drove over 30 miles an hour was really tough on her car's motor. The fact is that start-and-stop driving at low speeds means the motor doesn't warm up enough for its own good. Sludge forms in the motor oil. Damage to the engine will result. Most of us do a lot of start-and-stop driving these days, and that's why it's wise to protect with Phillips 66 Trop-Artic* Motor Oil. It flows quickly in a cold engine... resists sludge formation... then keeps on protecting your motor on long, hot drives. Trop-Artic is an all-season oil. Get it from your Phillips 66 Dealer.

West Texas Retail Sales On Increase

Abilene. — Retail sales in West Texas last year increased over 1957 at a rate 19.7 per cent greater than the rest of the state, according to a story in the July issue of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Based on copyrighted figures reported by Sales Management, Inc., the article also reveals that the 132-county region of the WTXC recorded an increase for the year of $245,616,000 in effective buying income. The county-by-county listing of retail sales for 1958, 1957 and 1956 in the magazine article indicates that increases in 1958 over 1957 were realized by all eight of the eight counties in the over $100 million category, in three of four of the $50 million to $100 million group, in seven of nine in the $25 million to $50 million group, in 25 of 42 in the $10 million to $25 million category, in 11 of 33 in the $5 million to $10 million group, in nine of 29 in the $2.5 million to $5 million group, and in two of seven in the less than $1 million category.

WATER DISTRICT OFFICIALS URGE GOOD PRACTICES

Lubbock — Waste of underground water should be a matter of utmost importance to each individual making his home in the Texas High Plains.

There is a great quantity of water in storage beneath the southern High Plains. However, the fresh water-bearing formations underground receive only a negligible amount of recharge.

Because this is true and actual, the water pumped from these formations is mined in a similar manner to oil or gas.

By law, underground water in Texas is private property. Recognizing this fact, one would think that water users throughout the state would feel a great personal responsibility to conserve water.

Generally, this is true. Unfortunately, however, we in the High Plains have our share of those who hold no regard for the future but think only in terms of the present—and not much about it.

The Board of Directors and County Committees of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District are urging irrigators who have irrigation waste water problems to face these problems realistically.

The irrigator should ask himself how much longer will the citizens in other sections of Texas stand idly by while High Plains' underground water runs down bar-ditches in near navigable streams to wet-weather lakes from which it mostly evaporates or is used by weeds?

How much longer before they band together in such force that they will become capable of changing the law so that underground water becomes public property rather than individual property? If the law were changed, then where would we be? Probably standing in line waiting for a permit to pump sufficient water with which to irrigate about one-fourth of our land.

High Plains' irrigators do not want this kind of thing to befall them, and yet many will not take hold of the problem as individuals and solve it.

There are some farms where complete control of irrigation water at all times would be next to impossible, but they are few. Most cases of irrigation water waste with which the High Plains Water District is confronted are by no means in this category. There are few farms where simple and inexpensive conservation methods could not be employed to save water.

Of course, each farm is somewhat different from the next, consequently, each must vary the conservation methods used according to the problems encountered on that particular farm. Things like the slope of the land, the quantity of irrigation water available and soil texture must be taken into consideration. On some farms a combination of conservation procedures should be used.

For the most part, however, simple measures should be considered for conserving water—things like shortening lengths of irrigation runs, use of smaller siphon tubes, pulling up borders at the lower end of rows, or planting a crop at the lower end of the field perpendicular to the rows coming down the slope.

In more extreme cases, where the farm land has a greater slope, methods such as "benching" might be considered.

Or perhaps the use of a recirculating pump in a sump location at the lowest point of the farm could prove successful in preventing the escape from the land of irrigation water.

These things would admittedly require an immediate outlay of cash, but they would in most cases pay for themselves through water savings in a few years.

The High Plains Water District urges that you assume your responsibility as a High Plains' irrigator. At present, you own the water stored beneath your land. Do your part to maintain private ownership. Conserve your water — its your future.

FROM THE County Agent's Office

By Cecil Lewis and Harold W. Ellison

Dear Editor:
I see where the Internal Revenue men admit they work harder to find underpay errors in tax returns than they do to straighten out taxpayers who have overpaid.

My self-loyal neighbor says some people will think this shows the government don't care how it comes, just so it's money.

But he figures the revenue boys know most of us fine tooth our own returns to catch any mistakes favoring the government, and they don't see any use in doing a job over that the taxpayer has already done with dollar-marked real.

Grain Sorghum Ass'n Sends Gossett To Greece

E. Martin Gossett, County Agricultural Agent, Dumas, September 1st, in interest of developing new markets for area grain sorghums. The announcement of Gossett's appointment to represent the Grain Sorghum Producers Association at the International Trade Fair of Salonika was jointly made this week by W. W. Grisham, District Agent for the Texas Extension Service and Frank Moore, President of the Association.

Moore County farmers have donated and shipped several hundred pounds of grain sorghum and mixed feeds to Greece to be fed to livestock which will be on display at the Fair during Gossett's visit, according to Wallace Corse, Sunray, Chairman of the Moore County Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

It is expected that Gossett will spend the entire month of September visiting with Greek Government Ministry of Agriculture officials, feed manufacturers, livestock and poultry producers and other agricultural officials relative to the use of grain sorghum in balanced mixed feeds.

The area County Agent's travel to Europe is part of an over-all market development program being administered by the Grain Sorghum Producers Administration in cooperation with the Foreign Agricultural service under agreements developed last December.

Funds for the Association's market development programs, as well as its research and service activities, are made available by a two-pound per thousand deduction from farmer delivery of grain sorghum to local elevators in the High Plains area. The Association underwrites approximately 5% of the total cost of the European market development program with the Foreign Agricultural Service making the additional funds available through the Agricultural Trade and Assistance Act of 1954.

Cotton Irrigation

The time of the year for planning when to cut off irrigation water on cotton is here. About August 20th has proven to be the best time. This is one of the most important practices in producing high quality cotton. Watering too late will produce low grades and a low net return per acre. We should think about optimum yield of high quality cotton instead of maximum yield, because a good yield with quality will give a higher net return per acre.

Color Trends For Fall

Muted, quiet, grayed, subtle, rich and deep are some adjectives that are used to picture the colors we'll be seeing in fabrics and ready-to-wear this fall.

Yellow and brown are influencing fall colors. A golden amber added to beige gives a warm vicuna. A touch of it in blue gives us the flattering "real" in greens it makes most and lichen green, in red it creates paprika.

Graying makes the new colors smoky — taupe brown, leather green, mist gray. The grays are important in their own right and are seen in everything from medium or men's wear gray to oxford, and on to almost black charcoal.

Reds are influenced by yellow or blue; in the first category, we have paprika and brick; in the second, burgundy, plum, cranberry, mountain berry and candy apple. Some bright reds will be used in young clothes, bearing such vivid names as red hot, scarlet and fire engine.

Greens are more muted than they were last year. There are new subtle versions of olive and forest green; such greens are used in the ancient Tartans and in other plaids and prints. Deep blue green are destined for dress wear.

Blue with a green cast, as in Toal, is very much in the picture. Sapphire blues, clear, shiny electric blues and inky blues will have a favored place in junior apparel.

It's going to be a great time for black, particularly combined with the burnished browns and golds.

Check Beginner's Readiness For School

Starting to school is a big event in every child's life. The experience will be a happy one, if your youngster is physically, mentally and emotionally ready for it.

Children should not be entered in school unless they can meet certain practical tests to show they are ready. These tests are suggested by the White House conference on child health and protection.

First of all, a child needs to know his own name and address well enough to repeat to others if necessary.

Physically, he needs to be fairly independent and well-trained. He should be able to dress and undress himself, take care of toilet needs and eat wholesome food without assistance. If he is able to run, climb and use his hands easily in simple construction and play, he will be more at ease with other youngsters.

Check on his intellectual readiness. He should talk readily, using sentences, understand and carry out simple directions, and show a healthy curiosity and desire to experiment. It will help if he knows the names and uses of the common objects in his environment.

Health check-ups are very important. Be sure to include eye, ear, nose and throat examinations and dental check. Plan for necessary vaccinations and immunizations. Build up general health with lots of rest and nourishing foods during the remainder of summer.

School will mean a new social situation. He will be happier if he has learned to play with other children, respects their possessions and assumes some responsibility for his own belongings.

The emotional adjustment is difficult for a child who is still very dependent on others, shows marked fears, temper outbursts or moodiness. If he looks forward to school as a happy experience, and has learned to stay contentedly in another home or school for limited periods, he is ready to go.

Check safety training, too. Make certain your child knows the danger of passing automobiles, and how to walk safely on the streets or highways. He needs to realize the danger of sharp instruments, matches, electricity and machinery in motion.

Only two weeks to go before school starts. Check that beginner now and help prepare him for a happy start.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Isaiah	40	28-31
Monday	Romans	1	8-12
Tuesday	Acts	3	19-26
Wednesday	Psalms	34	14-18
Thursday	1 Peter	5	6-11
Friday	Philippians	4	4-9
Saturday	John	10	27-30

Wings for a journey...

Vacation time—a trip; magic words, excitement! We study a map, read travel books, and listen eagerly to others who have taken the same journey. We anticipate seeing new places, new people, and unusual things. The routine of everyday will be forgotten.

But sometimes a trip is impossible, and we must accept the hurry and anxiety of everyday living.

Then it is that we need to plan a journey of mind and spirit—one that can lift us out of the ordinary into peace and communion with our God—one that refreshes and strengthens.

For this journey we do not need an airplane. Instead, we use the powerful wings of prayer, of praise and trust.

Come to Church and find these wings of the spirit, not for a brief journey—but for all eternity.

HERE ON VISIT

J. W. Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Albert of Lockney, spent last weekend here visiting his parents. He is a junior at Butler College, Tyler, Texas, where he is majoring in mathematics. J. W. is president of the Library Seminar and vice-president of the Student Council at Butler College.

CORRECTION

In the recent story in The Beacon concerning new officers of the Lockney American Legion Post, the name of Bob Miller was given as a trustee for one year for the Post. This was an error. The name should have been Bob Walker who is serving the Post as trustee for a one year period.

NEW FORD BABY

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ford are the parents of a baby boy born Saturday, August 15, at 2:30 a. m. He was born in the Lockney General Hospital and weighed 5 lbs. 9 ozs., and was named Richard Kirby. Grandparents are Kirby Foard, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ford, and great grandfather, C. V. Ford, all of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Ford of Waco are here visiting his brother, C. V. Ford and family, and his sister, Mrs. F. L. Marble and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Barker and son, Brent, left Monday for Colorado Springs for a few days vacation.

Wheat
Sowing date will soon be here. If any farmers need some certified planting seed we have a list of certified seed producers in our office. If you need to know drop by and look at the list.

Legumes
Many of you may be planning vetch or Austrian winter peas on your land. The Soil Conservation District has legume seeders located with the Vocational Agriculture Department in both Lockney and Floydada and may be loaned. By sowing the seeds now or before the last watering on a piece of land, vetch can be seeded without too much extra trouble. The planting rate for both legumes in cotton or grain sorghum is 10-15 pounds per acre. This is a good practice and will conserve water in years to come.

4-H Beef Tour
The 4-H beef tour was held Thursday, August 13, with 40 people attending. Stops were made at Melvin and Don Lloyd's, Dougherty, Johnny Lackey, Cedar Hill, Dwight Teeple, South Plains, Ricky Kellison, Lone Star, Linda, Dianne, and David Scheele, Providence, and Larry Golden and Francis Montandon, Aiken. A judging contest for all people on the tour was conducted and animals were furnished by Oscar Golden. In the men's division, Gerald Lackey, 1st; Homer Steen and Ray Lloyd tied for 2nd and 3rd; the ladies' division, Mrs. Albert Scheele, 1st; Mrs. Leighton Teeple, 2nd; and Mrs. Earl Kellison, 3rd. In the Junior Division, Warren Mitchell, 1st; Bobby Holt, 2nd; and Linda Scheele, 3rd.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet Tonight

Lockney American Legion Auxiliary will meet tonight (Thursday) in the American Legion home in east Lockney, according to announcement by Mrs. Terry Phillips, president. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

All members are urged to attend, Mrs. Phillips said. She and Mrs. June Bybee will be hostesses for the occasion.

Rhode Island has the greatest population density of any state and the highest proportion of industrial workers.

One of every five Americans will move during 1959.

Pro Basketball Game at Lubbock

Basketball fans in the Lockney area can still obtain choice seats for the professional basketball game to be played this fall at Lubbock Coliseum.

The game matches the 1958 world champion St. Louis Hawks against the Philadelphia Warriors, who will be led by seven-foot Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain. It will be the first contest ever played by National Basketball Association clubs in West Texas.

The pro cage tilt is the first half of an unusual "sports doubleheader" scheduled in Lubbock on Saturday, October 3. The basketball clash is slated for 3:30 p.m., followed by the Texas Tech-Tulsa football game at 8 p.m. These twin attractions are expected to lure one of the year's biggest crowds to Lubbock.

Opposing Chamberlain at the pivot position will be tall and talented Bob Pettit, the perennial NBA scoring leader. Pettit, who is generally regarded as basketball's finest offensive performer, led St. Louis to a world championship in 1958, and to a divisional crown last season. Followers of pro basketball are anxious to see how Chamberlain, the former Kansas all-American, will fare against sharpshooters of Pettit's caliber. Chamberlain passed up his final year of collegiate eligibility to accept a $65,000 offer from the Harlem Globe Trotters. He has just finished his international tour with the Trotters, and will play with Philadelphia in the NBA this season.

Other stars who will see action at Lubbock include little Slater Martin, Tom Gola, Clyde Lovellette, Paul Arizin, Cliff Hagan and Guy Rodgers.

Tickets to the game, priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, may now be ordered by mail. All seats are reserved, and early orders will receive the best seat locations in each price bracket. To order tickets, send a check in the proper amount to: Pro Basketball, Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Ratliff-Dunavant Vows Exchanged

Miss Nellie Joyce Ratliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ratliff, and Neil Dunavant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dunavant of Aiken, were united in marriage, Wednesday, August 12. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ohmer Kirk, Floydada, in his home.

The couple plan to make their home here where he is employed by Paymaster Farm.
