EDITORIAL

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. —John 1:3-4.

IN THIS nation run by politics it is very seldom that we get everything just like we want it. Perhaps we support one man for an office, not because we like everything he stands for but because he is the least objectionable. That has been our lot on more than one occasion. We are hoping that Senator Lyndon Johnson gets the Democratic nomination for president, not because we are for everything he stands for but because we think he will be the best man for the job of all the possibilities mentioned thus far. We particularly like his statement that he is, in this order, 1. a free man, 2. an American citizen, 3. a senator, 4. a Democrat. We're glad to see any man put his country's welfare above his party, whatever the party. We believe that's statesmanship.

WE DON'T like some of the things the good Senator has come out as supporting. We are disappointed that he favors raising the minimum wage. We don't believe such a step will help the working man and we know it will hurt the business man and may eventually get around to hurting the farmer too. We also are opposed to his suggestion of "modernizing and improving the social security program." The social security program is already a drain on both employer and employee and promises to get worse. We also doubt the value of his "crash" health program, public works and recreation program. Surely the states can handle some of its own affairs without depending upon the federal government for everything. Maybe he's just talking politics and we're still favoring his nomination — but we've had all the socialism we want for the present.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Boy Scouts of America on their 50th anniversary. This is Boy Scout week and one set aside to commemorate this very worth-while movement. We are glad for the work done among boys of the nation and we realize its worthwhileness because this writer was a member of a Boy Scout troop in the dim, dark past. We enjoyed it as much as anything we ever did as a boy. And we can still quote from memory the 12 Scout laws as well as the Scout oath. Maybe we haven't always lived by them but we know what they are in case we decide to do so. Our own Scout Master, Ted Carthel, and Cub Master, Robert McDonald, deserve the support of all the people of this city and community in their work with the boys.

"BARGAINS" and "good deals" are not always what they seem to be. Sometimes we find ourselves paying too much for cheap merchandise. All these are not expressed in monetary terms either. Some of our worst "bargains" are at a deeper level. For instance, financial success or advantage at the price of integrity and principle, a gay escapade at the price of happiness at home, a begged favor at the cost of independence and self-respect, the victory of gaining an advantage at the cost of respect of friends. At times we find that money is not the most important thing in the world. Many other values are more important than money.

WE'RE SOMEWHAT disappointed that Marshall Formby will not make the race for governor this year although we can readily understand why. We hope the time will come when Mr. Formby will see his way clear to run for the office. Maybe in 1962 — so he says.

TODAY'S HEALTH, a magazine of general circulation published by the American Medical Association, warns that woolen blankets can be a source of disease in the wintertime. The blankets can harbor disease germs that cause flu, sore throats and similar illnesses because the low-temperature washing recommended is not hot enough to kill the germs. To combat the danger, the magazine recommends that the blankets be soaked briefly in a water and disinfectant solution before being laundered; that they be laundered regularly; that they be covered with bedspreads while in use, and that they be disinfected after illness.

Sylvia Porter, the financial columnist, writes: "You will pay the stiffest price in more than a generation for money you borrow in the months directly ahead. You will find the loans increasingly tough to get in this period. . . . We are likely into a major cycle of tight and expensive credit."

"BUT I'M TOO YOUNG TO DIE!"

LABOR UNIONS ARE NOT FOR FARMERS

Labor unions serve a useful purpose. We are strongly in favor of them, even though we deplore and condemn some of their policies and practices. But labor unions were not meant for farmers. They were set up to serve labor. And unless the farmer expects to be more of a laborer than a capitalist, there are better routes to fair farm prices than through labor unions.

Every small farm owner who does his own work is both a laborer and a capitalist. At the state, he may be more laborer than capitalist; that is, he gets more out of his labor than out of his investment in land and equipment. But if a farmer at heart, no matter how small at the start, he dreams of the day when he will own more land and equipment and thus become more of a capitalist and less laborer. Being both capitalist and laborer, farmers need help that labor unions are not prepared to give. The best way to get this help is for farmers to work together to solve their problems through group action. — Progressive Farmer.

SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS

More than thirteen and a half people are now on Social Security, meaning they have earned the right to draw money from the federal treasury every month, having met the requirements of the Social Security law. Since this is an election year it may be taken for granted somebody in congress will think up something else to liberalize the Social Security regulations. In a tight race it is always worth a few votes to have your name associated with something helpful to the old folks. The young ones, who are going to pay the enormous bill, think nothing of it. Principal objection to Social Security increases at the time is that the program it not now self-sustaining. It will be some time up in the next generation and a few notches higher in cost before it will be so. — Homer Steen in Floyd County Herperian.

ULTRA-LIBERAL METHODS

I run into the word "reactionary" so much in communist literature that I'm suspicious when I encounter it in other writings. The communists, ultra-liberals and socialists have an unmistakable set of moves and calling people "reactionary" is one of them. Another favorite method of theirs is to attempt to club their opponents down. However, when the same club is used on them they immediately yell "foul" and cry and moan about the ingrate's unethical and unsavory method of attack. When you speak of patriotism they cry "nationalism" with a capital "Nazi." When you speak of state rights, they immediately brand you a "racist." When you point out the attempts to destroy our constitution via the United Nations they scream "war-monger." — Cecil Waggoner in Claude News.

Dear Editor: I see where the U.S. is not going to rebuke Cuba's Mr. Castro for tiring against us and taking property away from American citizens.

Washington says this meek attitude is on account of if we took a fly swatter to this bushy little character, it might make other Latin Americans mad at us.

But my case-hardened neighbor says what is apt to rile our foreign buddies more is President Ike's selfish scheme to tax up a budget surplus and then it all paying on our old debts instead of juicing up our handout program.

Patsy Vanek, Frank Cde Baca Wed In Nuptial High Mass

MRS. FRANK C. de BACA

celebration of Nuptial Mass, read by Father Fitzgerald, united in the Miss Patricia Janet of Lockney, and Frank Cde Baca, of Plainview. St. Alice Catholic Church, Plainview was the scene of the double ring ceremony, a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 11.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank L. Vanek, of Lockney. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C de Baca, of Plainview.

The wedding was exchanged at the altar of the church, was beautifully appointed with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and tropical foliage. A seven-branch candelabra holding white tapers flanked the altar, providing illumination for the wedding.

White urns of small chrysanthemums, accented with red carnations, were placed on the side altars. The pews were marked with white satin.

The bride chose her sister, Maxine Vanek, to be her maid of honor. Her gown of red tulle and short puffed sleeves and the flattering fullness of the skirt was emphasized at the waistline by a cummerbund. The honor attendant wore a scalloped halo hat of velvet, and matching muffs dotted with red carnations and tied with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mable Baca, a sister of the groom, Misses Arlene Matthews, Mary Prutzman, all of Plainview, and the junior bridesmaid was Elaine McGarr.

Lisia Marshall, flower girl, designated the bride's passage as she dropped red rose petals from a white basket.

All feminine attendants were dressed identically to the maid of honor.

Allen Vanek, brother of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Candles were lighted by altar boys of the church, Pat Cde Baca, Tommy Prutzman, Johnny McGarr and Larry Marshall. Jim Nicholson, of Atchinson, Kansas, attended the groom as best man.

Groomsmen were Thurman Reese, Dale Graham, and Wendell Reeder, Plainview. Ushers were Bill Price and Davis Horne, Plainview.

The male attendants wore black tuxedos, red carnation boutonnieres and red cummerbunds.

Preceding the wedding vows, organist, Bill Deardorf, played a selection of favorite family hymns.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original formal model of silk frosted peau de soie, fashioned with a full chapel train. Scallops of Alencon lace centered with pearls, embroidered the Sabrina neckline, and extended down the center of the princess bodice. Appliques of Alencon continued to the center front hemline. Soft side pleats, held by Alencon appliques, enhanced the neckline. Long sleeves terminated in petal points over the hand. The bridal bouquet of white cattleya orchids surrounded by stephanotis and showered with white picot satin, graced an antique prayer book, covered with white satin, that belonged to her paternal grandmother, Mrs. L. J. Vanek, of West, Texas.

The double-tiered bridal veil of imported illusion flowed from a regal crown of pearls. The upper layer of the veil fell to the elbow, the lower to the fingertip. Focal point of the crown was teardrops of crystal.

The bride and groom knelt at a white satin prie dieu centered by a white prayer book, to receive the blessing.

Following the wedding ceremony the St. Alice Choir sang the Nuptial High Mass, using the "Mass in Honor of St. Francis" by J. Singenberger.

The nuptial procession and postlude were played by church organist Bill Deardorf.

Mrs. Vanek, the bride's mother, chose a dress of avocado green, worn with brown accessories, for her daughters wedding. The corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Cde Baca, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green chardot silk linen jacket dress, with beige accessories and a corsage of light green cymbidium orchids.

Reception

Following the ceremony, a reception honoring the newly-married couple was given at the Plainview Country Club. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, their parents, and wedding attendants.

The bride's table was covered with an Italian linen cutwork cloth. The three-tiered white wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom standing beneath an arch, centered the table. Small red rosebuds decorated the cake which was flanked by three branched candleholders with white tapers. An arrangement of white chrysanthemums and red carnations formed a background for the cake. Other appointments were of crystal and silver.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. Dan Griffith of Amarillo, and Mrs. K. J. Medicamp, of Plainview.

Members of the houseparty were friends and relatives of the honored couple and their parents.

Guests for the wedding and reception were present from West, Amarillo, Lockney, Floydada, Hale Center and Plainview, and from Clayton and Albuquerque, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Cde Baca will return from a wedding trip to the East Coast about February 15, when they will be at home at 2213 Independence Street in Plainview.

For the trip, the bride chose a brown wool suit, worn with lizard accessories, and a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Cde Baca is a graduate of Lockney High School. Before her marriage, she was employed at the First National Bank of Lockney.

Mr. Cde Baca graduated from Plainview High School, and attended Texas Tech. He is

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips—with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Sill's lower for easier loading.

Census Takers Will Be "Nosy" This Year

The census taker is getting more personal all the time. The ancient Romans simply counted noses and property, chiefly for the purpose of taxation, according to World Book Encyclopedia.

William the Conqueror compiled a little more information on who-owned-what when he decided to spread some payola, in the form of land, among his followers . . . at the expense of the nobility. When his officials finished adding up the English people and their possessions in 1086, they had two huge volumes called the Domesday Book.

European cities kept to the bare facts when they began to count their population in the 1400's and 1500's. The first such count was taken in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1449.

Three hundred years later Sweden compiled the first national census, based on parish records.

In 1790 the fledgling U. S. government sent out 17 marshals and a few hundred assistants to count the population in order to provide a basis for taxing the states and to determine the number of representatives they would have in Congress.

The first great invasion of privacy occurred in 1850, when census takers began to write down the names of all people in the country. They also classified the population according to age, sex, race and place of birth.

Soon the "enumerators" were poking their noses into such matters as occupation, education, income, marital status and the fertility of women. In 1950 they wanted to know about your plumbing.

This year they're going to find out whether you're really keeping up with the Joneses. A sample of the population will be asked whether they own a washing machine, a clothes dryer, a food freezer and air conditioning . . . and the number of cars in the family garage.

Area People On Washington Trip

A number of people from this area are in Washington this week on the annual Texas Farmers Union bus trip to the nation's capital. They left from Wichita Falls Friday morning and will return home Sunday.

The Farmers Union delegates will call on members of the Senate, House of Representatives, and Department of Agriculture in an effort to get a realistic farm bill for farm families, according to Alex Dickie Jr., president of the state organization.

Another project of the Farmers Union is a nation-wide, low interest REA type loan for farmer owned co-operative marketing and processing plants which would enable the farmer to handle his products further along the line. The Farmers Union also advocates the direct payment approach on farm commodities.

The Texas group will be joined by Farmers Union trippers from Illinois, Colorado, North Dakota and Minnesota. Attending from this area are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crass of Silverton, E. C. Reed and Bill Helm of Quitaque; Hobby Thomas Jr. and Dennis Mooney, both of Hale Center; Theroh Morrison of Kress.

30 Die, 42 Hurt In Gun Accidents

Austin. — There were 30 hunting deaths reported during 1959, according to information compiled by the fiscal director of the Game and Fish Commission. During the year there was a total of 72 shooting accidents. Of the 72 accidents, 34 were caused by the individual affected, and 38 by other persons.

This is a part of the report made by the Game and Fish Commission each year to the National Rifle Association. It is made up of reports sent in by game wardens from over the State, and may not include all the shooting accidents of the year, according to the director.

SUPERB HAM SANDWICHES

Grind cooked ham and mix it with butter or margarine, mustard and orange marmalade. Spread the mixture between two slices of bread. Beat 2 eggs with a cup of milk and dip the sandwiches lightly on both sides into the mixture. Preheat an aluminum griddle or frypan. Set the control at 300 degrees. Fry the sandwiches until golden brown. Serve with fruit salad and tea for a special luncheon.

Diseases Cost Cotton Farmers $147 Million

College Station. — Diseases took a $147 million bite out of the 1959 Texas cotton crop, report 15 cotton specialists located throughout the state.

"Cotton diseases kept at least 879,000 bales of cotton from being marketed," said Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist, who compiled the information for the Cotton Disease Council.

Besides the $147 million cash loss to producers, there were losses of business to farm labor, railroads, trucking companies, suppliers, compress companies, storage facilities and other phases of the industry. Diseases also were a major factor in grade reduction as well as a limiting factor in yield.

This loss occurred even though 1959 growing conditions were generally good as near record yields were harvested in many areas, Smith said.

Major diseases and estimated loss due to their effect on yield were bacterial blight, 5.91 per cent; root rot, 4.43 per cent; verticillium wilt, 1.85 per cent; seedling diseases, 1.75 per cent; and root knot, 50 percent. Other diseases causing losses were boll rot, fusarium wilt and ascochyta blight.

These average figures don't give the true picture because in areas where diseases struck the hardest losses ran into ruinous figures, pointed out Smith. For example, root rot was estimated to have caused a 25 percent loss in the Central Blackland area. The amount of root rot increased in many areas compared to 1958 losses. Ascochyta blight, a minor disease in past years, was a problem in several areas for the first time. Root

Dear Editor:
I see where here a while back ex-President Truman went on record as being of the opinion that Democrat Chairman Butler talks too much.

Which my free spiling neighbor says is likely one of the most uncontestable remarks ever made by Mr. Truman in his long career as a first-striny remarker.

But says he guesses the hair-trigger tongue is a breed characteristic — just like a dog can't help chasing cats, a born politician can't help talking too much and spending too much.

THE BIBLE CHURCH
A man once asked this writer the following questions: Who is the head or president of the Church of Christ? Where are its headquarters? What authority governs it?
The man who asked the above questions honestly believed that the true church should have an earthly head or president and that Vatican City should be its headquarters. He also thought it should be wholly governed by this head stationed in Rome, Italy.
The following answers were given: Christ is the only head of his church, Eph. 1:22-23; Col. 1:18. Its headquarters are where God and Christ are, HEAVEN, Heb. 9:24; 1 Pt. 3:21-22. The only authority to govern it is the word of God and that word is contained in the Bible.
WELCOME to the gospel meeting which begins next week, Feb. 15-21, with Dean Brookshire as speaker and Paul Epps as song director. Services twice daily, 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Also listen to Brother Brookshire over KFLD each morning from 9:30 to 9:45.

South Plains

By Mrs. Murray Julian

Flu continues to plague our community with attendance low at church Sunday. Sixty-two were present at the morning, and only 21 at night services. There are two types of flu, it seems, the Asiatic flu and the common type, which does not linger so long.

Thunder showers fell here Tuesday and Wednesday, followed by snow during that night and Thursday. School buses could not get around over the dirt roads and WMU was postponed Thursday. The roads were again navigable by Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Calahan Jr. and Vicki all had the flu last week, and little Bary had the misfortune to pull some hot soup over on him from the stove, and was badly scalded, but they are all better this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Key West went to Fort Worth last week where they attended the Fat Stock Show and rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wood had Sunday dinner in Lubbock with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Teague. The dinner honored Mrs. Wood on her birthday and little Earl who was six months old.

Mrs. Roy Bledsoe came down with flu last Tuesday and Roy came down on Thursday. They were both a little better Monday.

Monday a group of young farmers met at the Floydada High School Ag room where they organized a Young Farmers Association to be held once a month, with the next meeting to be on March 7. Don Probasco from South Plains was elected as vice president.

During last week's storm the Bryant Higginbothams had several baby lambs born. In the 9 they had, 8 of them were sets of twins! L. T. Wood and Glen Wood were also out in much of the rain and snow with a crop of new baby calves.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Young and Kit visited Saturday in Floydada with her folks, the V. D. Turners, and with his parents, the R. E. Youngs.

Mrs. Skeet Thornton left by plane to join her son, Arnold and family, at Hot Springs, Ark., and they will spend several days vacationing there. Eugene Beedy and Tommy Respondek were home from Canyon over the week end with their respective parents.

The John Wilsons, Sue and Gary spent Sunday in Canyon where they had dinner with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wilson and Brad, and enjoyed games of bowling during the afternoon.

The Jones Kinslows and Stevie spent Thursday in Lubbock with his parents, the D. E. Kinslows where they visited with his brother and family, the Robert Kinslows, here from Denver, Colorado.

The Raymond Uptons, Shelby Calahans, Junior Calahans and the Bryan Karrs received word of the passing on Tuesday of their uncle, T. A. Shelby of Shreveport, La., with services held Thursday morning at 10. Those who went to the services included Mr. and Mrs. Zach Cummings and Mrs. Arthur Brown, former residents here.

Mrs. Wayne Adams went to the hospital Thursday with a severe case of the flu but was able to come home Sunday. She is still recuperating in Floydada at the home of her parents, the Aaron Carthels.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Morrison had their grandson, Jeffie Morrison of Lubbock, here with them over the week end.

Mrs. C. A. Purnell and her 5th and 6th grade pupils gave the P.T.A. program at the school Friday at 3 o'clock. The children were all in costume for their play. Plans are being made for a "Fun Night" to be held at the next P.T.A. meeting in March.

The Elmo Fortenberrys visit-his folks, the Fred Fortenberrys, Sunday and they went to the singing at Sterley Methodist Church. This was the first in a series of singings to be held from 2:30 to 4 the first Sunday of every month.

Mrs. Ernest Newton was down with the flu Wednesday and JoAnn was in the Lockney General Hospital Tuesday to Saturday with flu and kidney infection. Ernest also suffered a cut on his hand which infected. Monday all are reported better.

Eulan Bradshaw went to Amarillo Tuesday to see Mrs. Grigsby Milton, Sr., at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Mrs. Edna Lackey is at the Nichols Clinic in Lockney and hopes to be able to go home this week end. Visitors from our area this week have included the Fred Fortenberrys, the Elmo Fortenberrys, the Jim Connors, the Robin Fortenberrys and Mrs. Murray Julian.

Those attending the Vanek-Cde Baca wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells, Mrs. Lee Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Respondek and children, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian, and Tommy Respondek of Canyon. Patsy grew up in our vicinity and attended grade school here.

The Frank McClures spent from Thursday to Saturday in Crosbyton with their grandchildren, while the Don McClures took Donna to Lubbock for surgery. They brought their grandson home with them to stay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell and Linda of Midland came from Hereford where they had been visiting her mother, to attend church services at South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning. They went home with the Murray Julians and Bruce for dinner and a visit. Mrs. Mitchell will be remembered as the former Mrs. E. E. Joiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Young and Kirt of South Plains, the Don Shurbets, Floydada, and the Doug Meriwethers of Lockney visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Young in Floydada Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Adams went to Quannah Monday afternoon to attend funeral services of their friend, Mrs. Nellie Stevens, 44. The rites were said at the First Baptist Church in Quannah at 2:30.

Study the Facts of Life (economic)

A community such as ours is built . . . and maintained . . . and prospered by the trading that goes on within it; not by the dollars which we allow ourselves to be persuaded to send off or carry off to some other community.

depend upon local trade . . . money spent here at home.

- Our schools . . . our churches . . . most of our homes and jobs or businesses . . . the number and sort of neighbors we have . . . the ability of our stores and service establishments to take care of our daily and emergency needs . . . all of these

- One of the cold facts of life (economic) is that the prosperity and better life which our dollars naturally help to pay for in the community where they are spent can be far more valuable than the goods or service those dollars buy for us.

- But an equally undeniable fact of life is that we don't share in the enjoyment of these more important things paid for by our money . . . unless we spend it at home.

Buy . . . where your trade helps to support your way of life

It Pays to Buy where you Live

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade-invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Young - Callaway Vows Recited In Church Rites

Miss Betty Young became the bride of Kenneth Callaway in a double ring ceremony solemnized Friday evening at 7:30 in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young, Lockney, are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Callaway, Lockney, are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. C. L. Record played the organ prelude, wedding marches, and accompanied Mr. Record as he sang, "On Promise Me" and "Because".

Rev. Charles Broadhurst, pastor of the church, read the vows as the couple stood before an altar decked with tall baskets of white gladioli, stock, palm trees and candelabra tied with pink bows.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown of silk organza. The firmly moulded bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline outlined with sequins and the long sleeves terminated in points over the hands. The fullness of the skirt was accented with inverted pleats. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid nestled in sprays of white stock with a shower of pink satin streamers. The bouquet was arranged atop a lace covered white Bible.

Mrs. A. A. Manning of Lockney, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a gown of pink and white pin checks accented with white applique lace flecked with rhinestones. The strapless bodice was topped with a sheer white lace stole. Her bouquet was designed of white carnations.

Billy Karl Race, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Kathy Manning, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress fashioned with short puffed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore a small lace hat and carried a white flower basket tied with a pink bow.

Allen Dean Manning, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Ushers were Jimmy Graham, nephew of the bridegroom and Cleatis Hayes, cousin of the bridegroom.

Vincent Manning, nephew of the bride, was candlelighter.

Mrs. Young chose for her daughter's wedding a black suit, an orchid velvet flower petal hat. Other accessories were orchid and black. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Callaway, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a light blue dress with complimentary accessories. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Reception: A reception was held in fellowship hall of the church immediately following the wedding.

The bride's table was laid with lace over pink and centered with a three tiered wedding cake iced in white and decorated with pink rose buds. Topping the cake was a miniature bride and groom standing beneath a floral arch hung with a white wedding bell. Napkins were white with a silver bell and the names of the newly weds inscribed in silver. Crystal appointments were used. Miss Jeannie Boyter and Miss Donna Workman served punch and cake.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip the bride was attired in a dress of brown silk with black satin trim. Her accessories were black and she wore a white orchid corsage.

They returned Sunday and are now at home in Lockney where the bride attends Lockney High School as a senior student, and the groom is employed at the Department Store. He is a graduate of Lockney High School.
