COTTON OUTLOOK is improving, according to word from the big boys who are supposed to know. At least it is in much better shape than some of our other crops as far as demand and surpluses go. Cotton has made an amazing comeback in the past year or two in its fight with synthetic fibers. The reason is simply because cotton is more comfortable and more versatile. Of course, all this "doctoring" that cotton materials are getting is helping some also. People are demanding cotton clothing and thus the demand for the fleecy white staple is improving. Then, too, they tell us that cotton production in the foreign free world is declining. Production will drop, while domestic production will increase about one and a quarter million bales. This all works to the benefit of South Plains farmers who grow cotton.

to some one with a higher IQ, and maybe with more money to provide the "cultural interests" the little girl needed. Next thing we know, unless we take steps to stop this governmental control business, we'll be having to get a government permit to punish our children. We have read of several people who did pretty good in this world without too much "cultural advantages," take for instance Lincoln, George Washington Carver and a few others, but of course, the government knows best.

EVER WONDER who the auto driver under 25 has to pay so much more for insurance than us "oldsters"? The boys who key's statistics tell us that drivers in the 15-24 age group hold 18.3 percent of Texas drivers license but are responsible for 27.2 percent of the accidents. Of course this is very unfair to many boys in this age group who are good, careful drivers. But the few who do drive carelessly bring the percentage up and the statistics boys work on figures—not individuals. Going further, the 25-34 age group holds 25.7 percent of the drivers license and are responsible for 23.8 percent of the accidents. The 35-44 age group holds 22.7 percent of drivers license and are involved in 18.2 percent of the accidents; 45-55 age group, 17.3 percent of drivers license, 14.3 percent of accidents; 55-65 age group, 10.6 percent of the drivers, 8.6 percent of the accidents; over 65 drivers, 5.9 percent of the drivers and 5.3 percent of the accidents.

THERE IS A wide difference of opinion as to this country's military strength and policies. Typical examples: Life magazine says editorially, "President Eisenhower's defense budget is dangerously deficient. He has great military experience and deep confidence his $41 billion program is adequate. But harsh facts argue it isn't. The harsh fact is that by the President's own intelligence estimates, the Soviets by 1963 will have twice as many ICBMs as we — enough, by SAC Commander Thomas Power's warning, to wipe out all our bases and retaliatory planes in one salvo." By contrast, David Lawrence writes in U. S. News & World Report, "When General Power of the Strategic Air Command testified that the Soviets might, with 300 missiles, destroy our bases in this country, he was confining himself to a hypothetical situation that illustrated to him the importance of maintaining an airborne alert 24 hours a day, every day in the week. This would require a large and perhaps unnecessary expenditure. For when a crisis is on the horizon — and there are no signs of it in the immediate future—such an airborne alert can be ordered."

COUNCILMAN WILLIAM P. McKinnell of Littleton, Colo., says: "Unless we all become more active, more people with 'axes to grind' will take over government."

GOOD QUESTION

With Our EXCHANGES

MY GET UP AND GO HAS GOT UP AND WENT
 How do I know
 My youth is all spent?
 Well, my get up and go
 Has got up and went.
 But in spite of it all,
 I am able to grin
 When I think of where
 My get-up has been.
 Old age is golden,
 So I've heard it said,
 But sometimes I wonder
 As I get into bed,
 With my teeth in a drawer,
 My eyes on the table
 Until I wake up.
 Ere sleep dims my eyes,
 I say to myself,
 Is there anything else
 I should have laid on the shelf?
 I am happy to say
 As I close my door,
 That my friends are the same,
 Only perhaps more.
 When I was young
 My slippers were red,
 I could kick up my heels
 Right over my head.
 When I grew older
 My slippers were blue,
 But still I could dance
 The whole night through.
 Now that I am old
 My slippers are black,
 I walk to the store
 And puff my way back.
 The reason I know
 My youth is all spent,
 My get-up and go
 Has got up and went.
 But I really don't mind
 When I think with a grin,
 Of all the grand places
 My get-up has been.
 Since I've retired
 From life's competition
 I busy myself
 With complete repetition,
 I get up in the morning
 And dust off my wits.

Pick up the paper
 And read the obits.
 If my name is missing
 I know I'm not dead.
 So I get a good breakfast
 And go back to bed.

MAY WE PRESUME TO ADVISE OUR ELDERS?

It seems that the Texas Legislature has made it possible for the local liquor option election to be held on the precinct level. From everything we can gather, part of Cottle County is going to try to go wet.
 This editorial is aimed not at the student, but at the adult. You adults run this county, not the students here at PHS. Your world is an adult world; ours is the world of youth. Yours beer and whiskey are involved, the two worlds collide and sometimes the result isn't too pretty.
 Let's not kid ourselves. If you make it possible for liquor to be sold in this county, its youth is going to start on a steady down grade. "Some high school kids are going to drink anyway," we hear. If "some" drink when liquor is illegal, how many are going to be using if it's right under their noses? Liquor is all too easy for young people to get now.

 The members of our staff are not too old or too experienced, but plenty of us at PHS can see that nothing good can come of having beer and whiskey in our county. Surely none of you want your children to be subject to the trouble that you know alcohol brings.
 We students appeal to you, the adults of our county. We, as minors, are powerless to act — we can only express how we feel. Please don't let our county and its youth down. — The West Wind, High School Newspaper in Paducah Post.

SMART COONS

Story about the smart coons around Kalgary was passed from Raymond Caskey to Lonnie Ellis to me.
 Ted Walden, 17 manager and an employee happened to be somewhere near the ranch henhouse the other night. There is an electric light with a switchboard inside the chicken shelter.
 Suddenly the light went on. Walden and his companion decided to investigate.
 They discovered a raccoon had turned on the light, picked himself out a good fat hen and left with it.
 There is some speculation as to why the coon didn't turn out the light again. Caskey thinks perhaps he left it on as a courtesy to other coons, who might have been planning a visit that night. — Pat Bennett in Crosby-on Review.

Dear Editor:
 I see where a U. S. Army manual warns young GIs not to marry girls who "can't see the foolishness of obligating your salary for years on easily extended credit."

My shocked neighbor says this is likely to lead to another book-burning spree in the defense department, and another manual writer getting held up to shame.

But says he feels sure the priests of our Potomac Debt Shrine will find and excommunicate the traitor who is responsible for letting a government document get into circulation which supports the reactionary doctrine of solvency.

Jackson - Beedy Vows Taken In Twin Ring Rites

Miss Judy Janette Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jackson of McCoy Community, became the bride of Walter Eugene Beedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy of South Plains, in an impressive double ring ceremony performed at the First Baptist Church in Floydada Saturday, March 19, at 8:00 p.m. Rev. Haywood Kube, pastor of McCoy Baptist Church, officiated.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, played pre-nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Wren Patterson as she sang, "Whither Thou Goest", "Walk Hand and Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Decorating the altar scene was a lush arrangement of tropical foliage entwined with jewel tone colored stock and topped with white frosted wedding bells accented with a deep pink satin ribbon. Flanking the arch were seven - branched candelabra and tall holders of jewel rose colored tulle with pink satin bows. A white iron kneeling bench with white mock satin cushions completed the altar setting in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in an original model of white imported French lace and pleated tulle ruffles over net and taffeta, designed with a Sabrina neckline framed with scalloped lace enhanced with appliques of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls. The fitted princess bodice featured long sleeves ending in points over the hands and terminated with scallops at the long torso waistline. From this stemmed a magnificent skirt made entirely of alternating ruffles of scalloped lace and pleated tulle and taffeta. The immense fullness of lace, tulle and taffeta swept into a full graceful train at back. Hoops were worn underneath to emphasize fullness.

Her veil of silk illusion was joined to a pill-box type hat of taffeta embellished with appliques of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls.

The bride carried a white Rainbow Bible topped with a white orchid nestled in white roses and net showered with bridal satin streamers tied in love knots, some of which held the wedding rings of the bride's grandmothers. The rings were the traditional something old. Something borrowed was a pair of pearl earrings belonging to the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Brad Beedy, and something blue was a garter, gift from Miss Glea Adams. For luck the bride wore in her shoes pennies bearing her birthdate and that of the bridegroom.

Miss Lynn Jackson served per sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Leora King, Miss Kay Roberson, Mrs. Cleon Wylie and Mrs. Marvin Wells, the latter two being cousins of the bride. They wore identical street length dresses of jewel rose silk organza with American beauty rose colored velvet belts. The fitted bodices were designed with bateau necklines and featured fitted long sleeves. The skirts were gathered full. Each wore a flower headpiece designed of chiffon embroidered with seed pearls which held a short veil of tulle. The maid of honor carried a basket of long stemmed American beauty roses and each bridesmaid carried a single long stemmed rose.

Flower girl was Miss Cindy Beedy, niece of the bridegroom. She wore a dress of jewel rose silk organza designed with a fitted bodice with a low neckline and short puffed sleeves.

Scott Beedy, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a satin covered pillow edged with tulle ruffles caught with seed pearls and iridescent sequins.

James Teague of Lubbock was best man.

Groomsmen and ushers were Charles Beedy, Brad Beedy, Brothers of the bridegroom, and Alton Higginbotham and Weldon Pruitt.

Candles were lighted by Joe Roland and Jim Reynolds, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Mary Whitehead registered the guests as they entered the church. For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a two-piece dress of mauve cotton lace over taffeta with mauve and black patent accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink silk linen dress with light brown and pink accessories. Their corsages were of American beauty roses.

At the reception held in the church parlor immediately after the ceremony, the bride's table was laid with a hand-made white Madeira cloth and

American Legion Celebrates 41st Anniversary

Lockney American Legion was honored with a dinner party on the occasion of their 41st birthday Thursday night at the Legion Home. The Legion Auxiliary was host for the event.

Special guests were Wilfred Stoerner, 19th District Chaplain, who gave the invocation, and Mrs. Stoerner, 19th District president of American Legion Auxiliary. A shamrock was pinned on each guest on arrival.

Following a bountiful meal of ham and all the trimmings, games of Forty-Two were played. Those enjoying the memorable occasion were Messrs. and Meses. James Taylor, Don Marble, Donald Reecer, George Webster, Elmo Schaffner, Wilfred Stoerner, Mac Howard, Fred Huggins, Hugh Coody, Jay McPherson, Kenneth Moody, Joe Phillips, Raymond Rhodes, accented with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Three white tapers in a silver candelabra illuminated the table. The silver punch bowl was encircled with American beauty roses, presiding at the table were Mrs. Jane Pruitt and Mrs. Jan Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Beedy are both graduates of Floydada High School. The bride attended North Texas State College, Denton and the bridegroom is a student at West Texas State College, Canyon.

After a short wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Canyon. For traveling, the bride chose a white raw-silk suit with which she wore bone and cocoa brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Farmers Union Plan Meetings On Safflower

Denton. — The state office of Texas Farmers Union has announced plans for their 1960 Safflower program for the South Plains and Panhandle area of Texas. A series of one or more meetings will be held in each of the following counties: Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Bailey, Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Armstrong, Randall, Deaf Smith, Potter, Carson, Hartley, Moore, Hemphill, Gray, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Hansford, Sherman, and Dallam Counties.

The meetings will begin early in April in the South Plains area. Seed and contracts will be available to interested growers at these meetings.

The 1960 program will differ from last year's Safflower program in that the growers will not be required to purchase stock to participate. The growers may or may not purchase stock in the Farmers Union Marketing Co-op Association, which is sponsoring the program. Former Secretary of Agriculture, Charles F. Brannan, is secretary and general counsel of this Farmers Union Co-op project.

Acreage last year was limited to not more than 10 acres per grower. There will be no limit to the growers this year, as long as planting seed is available.

Farmers interested in planting Safflower this year should contact their local Farmers Union officials.

GRIDDLE CARE

Before washing a griddle, allow it to cool. Then wipe off the crumbs and excess grease with a paper towel and wash it in warm water with mild soap. Do not use detergents as they remove all the grease, and a certain amount of protective lubricant actually improves griddle results. Griddles will last a lifetime when properly cared for. There is no danger of over-heating and buckling when you have an automatic top burner heat control to control the temperature under the griddle.

Band Boosters Look At New Jackets

Several styles of band jackets were viewed and considered at the meeting of Lockney Band Boosters Club Tuesday evening at the band hall. A large number of parents and band members were present.

The jacket committee recommended the adoption of a standard jacket but a decision on the selection of the jacket was postponed to allow the band students to look at the samples and express their preference. They will be left at the band hall for several days.

The club voted to ask each band parent to purchase at least one of the fruit cakes at the organization has been selling in order to complete the project. They may be secured from Wyatt Burkhalter, band director.

The club also expressed thanks to several people who have been helpful in the band's various projects during the year. These include Oliver Holmes and C. L. Record for making a drum case, M. L. Brewer and the FFA boys for making a music cabinet, the Knox Grocery for helping with the fruit cake sale, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Potts for storing the pop corn machine, and the owners of lots in West Lockney who allowed their use for a band practice field. They include Walter Taack, Kenneth Wofford, Hall Ferguson and the Gentry estate.

Reception Honors Director
Members of the Booster Club were hosts at a surprise reception following the meeting honoring Band Director Wyatt Burkhalter and Mrs. Burkhalter on their first wedding anniversary. The serving table was decorated with a red and white styrofoam centerpiece, accented with white carnations and a white styrofoam "1". Punch, coffee and cookies were served to the group.

Tax Rate, Officers Salaries Remain Same As In 1959

Floydada. — The ad valorem tax rate in Floyd County will remain the same in 1960 as in the year 1959, records of the Commissioners' Court reveal, and also there are no changes in the salaries of elective officers.

The county rate is 60 cents for the constitutional funds and 60 cents for debt service on outstanding bond issues and special road tax.

The order of the court allocates the county constitutional tax on the following basis:

Jury Fund	3c
Road and Bridge	20c
General Fund	35c
Permanent Improvements	17c
Library Fund	5c
For a total of	80c

This allocation represents only one change from last year, though no change in the total levied. The jury fund is being allocated 3 cents per $100 valuation, two cents under last year, while the permanent improvement fund is being allocated 17 cents, a raise of 2 cents from last year.

Also ordered levied and collected is the special road fund tax of 15c, the 1948 series road bond tax of 23c, court house sinking fund tax of 10c, and the 1958 road bond series tax of 12 cents, for a total of 60 cents per $100 valuation.

Total county rate is $1.60 on the $100 valuation.

County Salaries The Same
The salary list for all elective officers of the county was set in February meeting as follows:
County Judge, $5,340 per annum;
Members of the Commissioners' Court, $4,000 per annum;

The American Farmer

Farmers' expenses for labor, farm machinery, fuel, feed, fertilizer, pesticides and other production items have increased to $6.4 billion a year since 1937-41 to $25.1 billion in 1958. This fourfold increase in such purchases contributed greatly to maintenance of high industrial employment.

The committee was appointed some time ago and has a new constitution worked out and ready for presentation. Members of the committee are Chester Carthel, chairman, Robert Lee Smith, Helmuth Quebe, L. E. Brandes, and David Battey Jr. The directors of the county Farm Bureau met with members of the constitution committee at Rogers Cafe in Floydada last Thursday night. Directors and officers present include Jack McIntosh, Ewald Quebe, Jerry Cooper, John Moss, David Battey Jr., Shirley Irwin, Richard and Sam Puckett. New Bedford, Mass. — It is the little things that count, Ronald Pimental realized when $20 worth of purchases were stolen from his car. The thief had put a nickel in the meter, so Pimental would not get a parking ticket.

CCC's Cotton To Sell At 115% Of 'B' Loan

The USDA announced recently that the resale price of 1959 and prior seasons CCC-owned cotton would be 115 per cent of the Choice 'B' Loan price or the market price, whichever is higher. This season the resale price for the CCC's carryover crops is 110 per cent of the 'B' Loan price.

The resale price for Choice 'A' cotton will remain at 110 per cent of the 'B' Loan—the same as it is this season.

Announcement of the change gave hope to the New Orleans and New York futures exchanges that business would improve. The higher resale prices had won support of some producer groups who hoped that withholding of carryover stocks for a higher price would stimulate demand for the 1960 crop.

It is also expected that due to withholding CCC stocks from the market for a higher price there will be more participation in the Choice 'B' program. Reason for this, is to understand, is that some believe taking Choice 'B' will remove their crop from competition with the carryover cotton.

There was considerable producer complaint last year because with Choice 'A' cotton selling at 110 per cent of 'B' and with the carryover selling at the same price, the trade elected to buy the carryover cotton.

The Department also announced that carrying charges will be 20 points a month in the 1960-61 season instead of the 15 points a month this season.

Carrying charges will start with 10 points in October, will be increased 20 points in November and each month thereafter, until the top level of 190 points is reached in July.

The carrying charges were increased as a means of making the Government charges more in line with trade charges in the hope of encouraging shippers and others to buy and store cotton instead of letting the CCC store it at the lower rate.

There is no indication that there will be carrying charges in August and September nor was there anything in the announcement that buyers of CCC cotton will be given the right to have the cotton released before final settlement.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

An Invitation

We in the telephone business wish to meet as many of our customers as possible. We know it is almost impossible to meet each of our customers individually, and we feel that one of the best ways of accomplishing this is to invite our customers to visit our telephone office. Here you will meet our local personnel and learn first hand some of the problems of furnishing telephone service.

Some of the things you will see in our building are: How your telephone service is brought from the wires in back of your home to our building; how we terminate your service in our equipment; equipment, actually in use; or what happens when you make a local call; long distance equipment and how it is possible to place more than one conversation on each line; trouble reporting center and how telephone maintenance personnel are dispatched to repair your service; records we keep on your service and show you in general why you have the best telephone service possible.

We would like to extend an invitation to each and everyone in this community to come by and visit with us, either by yourself or we certainly will cater to groups, such as school classes, Church groups, civic clubs, Boy and Girl Scouts, etc.

Pick-A-Phone

"Sure be nice when the spring flowers start blooming," a fellow down the block said the other day. "Just looking at their colors makes me feel good."

"Say," I said, "since you like color so much I have a suggestion."

"What's that?" he asked. "A color phone. You have a wide choice, red, white, green — nine altogether." Almost as an afterthought I added, "You can pick your phone from... a garden of colors!"

That did it. "Now you're talking my language," said my garden-loving friend. He chuckled. "Colors of the garden in my house with color phones. Think I'll get one — maybe even two."

Why don't you do as he did? Treat yourself to color phones.

It's Smart To Look Up The Number

"The best way to learn and remember something is to look it up..." That's what a teacher told me years ago when I asked how to spell a word.

It was good advice then. It's good advice now. When you want to know a number, for instance, the best thing to do is look it up in the directory.

Incidentally, if you'd like a free Blue Book for keeping frequently-called numbers, just phone the telephone business office.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

All wells at the High Plains Research Foundation are now connected by underground concrete lines with the addition of 2138 feet of 15-inch line. This line added to the existing 4050 feet will now service all but a small area of the farm. Also 1291 feet of 12-inch seal gasket concrete line has been installed. Another 2800 feet of underground line will complete the system so that no open ditches will be needed for irrigation. Research has shown losses in open ditches because of evaporation, and deep percolation is very high in the High Plains. Underground concrete line eliminates these losses and adds to ease of operation.

are asking the question "Should I preplant irrigate?" In order to find the answer to this question, soil moisture blocks have been placed in four locations at the High Plains Research Foundation, James Valliant, Water Engineer, stated. Three of these locations are on Pullman clay loam on three types of land surface, as follows: (1) sloping land, (2) benched land, and (3) gentle sloping land. A fourth location is on Amarillo clay loam in the Southwest section of the Foundation farm. These blocks are placed at depths of one, two, three, and four feet. Available soil moisture data will be released at weekly intervals with the hope that it may be helpful to farmers in deciding whether to preplant irrigate.

FHA Supervisor Meets With Farm Families

Approximately twenty-five farm families, representing a good proportion of those using Farmers Home Administration credit in Floyd and Motley counties, have completed a series of individual meetings with Joe T. Boone, the agency's county supervisor, to take a careful look at their 1959 operations and to make 1960 plans. Mr. Boone said this year-end analysis is a service given by the agency which makes loans to eligible farmers to operate, improve, or enlarge family-type farms.

As a result of this study of their farm operations, Mr. Boone said, some of the better practices that farmers here are working into their 1960 plans include (1) rotation planting of soybeans or other legumes, cotton, and maize for better land care and greater yields, (2) more extensive use of fertilizer based on land needs indicated by soil analysis tests, (3) more strip cropping and summer fallowing of land for moisture conservation, and (4) planting crops according to available irrigation water and not trying to water more acres than is practical.

There are 65 families in Floyd and Motley counties now using FHA credit. This is a decrease of some 50% since 1958 which reflects the progress FHA borrowers have made in the past two years. The purpose of FHA of course is to graduate their borrowers to normal sources of credit.

Loans totaling over $300,000 have been made to farmers in this area in a 9-month period since June 30, 1959. This money has been for acquiring equipment, livestock, seed, feed, fertilizer, and paying other operating costs, and paying for labor and materials in connection with housing and other improvements. This money, and the extra money from increased incomes, circulate through local trade channels.

Good farm planning and record keeping are carried on throughout the year and play an important part in operations financed with FHA credit. As proof that good practices pay off, Mr. Boone pointed out that during fiscal 1959 twenty-five per cent of borrowers repaid their loans in full and are now obtaining their necessary credit from local banks and other lenders.

GEORGE MAHON

George Mahon Asks Re-Election

The 19th Congressional District's Representative, George Mahon, has submitted his name to the voters for re-election to another two-year term.

Representative Mahon has officially filed for a place on the ticket in all the counties of his District, and he has asked The Beacon to make known his candidacy to the public. The Congressman has no opposition. He has had the endorsement of the voters—without an opponent—for several years.

"It goes without saying," Representative Mahon said, "that I remain deeply grateful to the people of the 19th District for the confidence they have placed in me. It will always be my earnest desire to be at your service and I will try to be of assistance in requests which come to my office and in legislative matters in the House of Representatives." Mahon is ranked as one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, with tenure in office dating back to 1935. His seniority, as well as his forthright approach to public affairs, has earned him high prestige in Washington.

He is Chairman of the Subcommittee on Defense Appropriations. In that role he receives national attention for his views on the nation's defense situation. He is the second ranking Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee and is especially active in fiscal and agricultural matters.

Forgiveness Through Christ's Blood And The Gospel

SHALL YOU FACE

The New Testament is a better covenant, established on better promises (Heb. 8:6). The Old Testament had animal blood for atonement (Heb. 10:1-4). The New Testament has the blood of Christ, Jesus said, "For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins" (Mt. 26:28). The gospel contains two things for the alien sinner: conditions of pardon to be believed and obeyed and the blood of Christ to atone for sins. When the sinner meets these terms of pardon God forgives his past sins — the blood atones for them.

If it were possible for man to live without sin he could be saved without the gospel and the blood of Christ. If he lived above sin he would be saved by his own works of perfect living. All responsible people are sinners. (Rom. 3:23; Gal. 3:22; 1 John 1:10). That is why no person can be saved by his own works of perfect living (Eph. 2:9; Tit. 3:5). The conditions of pardon set forth in the gospel of Christ must be obeyed by the sinner (II Thes. 1:7-9). The gospel is God's power to save (Rom. 1:16). When the sinner obeys the terms of pardon he is made free from sins (Rom. 6:17-18). The conditions of pardon are as follows: BELIEVE, Mark 16:16; REPENT, Acts 2:38; CONFESS CHRIST, Acts 8:37; Romans 10:9-10; BAPTISM FOR REMISSIONS OF SINS, Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Pt. 3:21; Mark 16:16. THE LORD ADDS THE ONES WHO ARE SAVED TO HIS CHURCH (Acts 2:47).

Make Church - Going a Habit

Building A New Life

Quite a thrill — building a new home! Day by day you watch it take shape. And somehow, you have the feeling that this new house will bring new life for you and your family.

But building a new life isn't as simple as building a new home. One just can't move out of the drab past into a sparkling future.

The life to which conscientious men and women aspire is built on foundations that cannot be laid in a week or two. Character, courage, consecration — these are concrete evidences of faithful years in the worship and service of God.

Today, where there are new houses there are new churches — and where there are old houses there are old churches. And through the portals of all the churches pass the millions of earnest families who are serious and happy about building a new life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the-building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The world's first water conservation postage stamp, to be issued April 13 in Washington, D. C., honors rural and urban organizations engaged in water conservation activities, according to Gilbert L. Fawcett, chairman of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District.

The new 4-cent stamp will go on sale at the post office here April 13, the day following its issuance at the Seventh National Watermen Congress in the nation's capital.

The Floyd County Soil Conservation District, and the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District are among the local groups honored by issuance of the stamp, Fawcett said.

"These local groups are attacking water problems where they begin — in the farm land where the water runs off, and along the small creeks and rivers that join to form our major rivers," Fawcett said.

Mr. Fawcett pointed out that virtually every community in the country has a water problem of some sort — too much (periodic floods), too little (droughts) or too poor (polluted). In Floyd County SCD our main water problem is lack of sufficient rainfall. "Our irrigated land needs more water conserving practices installed," Fawcett said. Too many open ditches allow excessive evaporation to take place where underground pipelines could prevent that; many fields need land leveling to permit uniform distribution of irrigation water without erosion. Another important practice is Proper Irrigation Water Use which is the use and management of irrigation water according to a planned farm irrigation system where the quantity of water used for each irrigation is determined by the need of the crop and the water holding capacity of the soil.

During the last three years technicians of the Soil Conservation Service in Floyd County assisting the Floyd County SCD to carry out its soil and water conservation program, have assisted cooperators with the district in carrying out or installing 190 miles of underground pipelines and 1,800 acres of land leveling. If you need assistance in developing a conservation plan on your farm or ranch, contact your local SCS office for information and assistance.
