EDITORIAL

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint. — Isaiah 40:13.

STARK TRAGEDY is the best way to describe the terrible accident which occurred last Tuesday afternoon at the farm road intersection in East Lockney. Two young lives were snuffed out because someone was careless or the intersection was not properly marked or a combination of both. We don't propose to guess the real cause of the accident but we do know that accidents have happened at this intersection on several previous occasions and that it is time something was done to better warn those who use it. One point is that both drivers were probably unfamiliar with the crossing and didn't realize its danger. All of us must agree that in its present condition the intersection is a very dangerous one.

WHAT TO DO about it is something else. Many people have suggested a blinking light but our impression is that the Highway Department doesn't think this would be much improvement over the present markings. Perhaps an island in the center of the north and south approaches with a large stop sign on it would help.

Something must be done to make sure drivers know they are supposed to stop and realize the danger of ignoring the stop signal. We can count back to at least six or eight accidents at this one intersection. That is enough to prove it needs additional markings of some kind.

VOTERS of four towns in this area have approved contracts with the White River Municipal Water District thus almost insuring the construction of the White River Dam some 18 miles below Crosbyton. It shows that these people are optimistic of the future, are progressive and determined to solve their water problems. Surprising is the one-sided vote for the project in view of the unusually high cost the users will have to pay for the water. At Crosbyton for instance, the proposed rates are $5 for the minimum 3,000 gallons; 80 cents per 1,000 for the next 7,000 gallons; 75 cents per 1,000 for the next 20,000 gallons and 40 cents per 1,000 for all over 40,000 gallons. Compare this with our own rate of $2.00 for the minimum 3,000 gallons and 25 cents per 1,000 after that and you'll see what we mean. The water revenue pays for only about one-half the cost of the dam, the remainder coming from tax levies.

OUR SENATORS, Johnson and Yarborough, need to come back home and find out what the people are thinking. Both Senators voted for increasing the minimum wage to $1.25 per hour. We do not believe a majority of the people of Texas favor the minimum wage at all, much less raising it to $1.25 per hour. Somehow it is hard for us to believe that a majority of the people of this great state favor ultra-liberal, socialistic schemes proposed by the Democratic Party. And we have a feeling that a representative of the people ought to represent those people's opinion, not the opinion of some scatter-brained dope who happens to have a high position in the party. If you are opposed to these socialistic schemes and you have not told your Senator or Congressman of your opposition, then you must be partly to blame for their passage. Even politicians will heed the voice of the people when that voice gets loud enough.

QUOTE FROM TOM RIGDON: "West Texas surely has her Sunday clothes on. We have the best crops I have seen since I came here in 1898."

WHAT'S YOUR SALAD IQ? Most of the year a cook's selection of fresh salad and cooking greens is somewhat limited. The summer months offer opportunities for acquainting the family with many types of leaf lettuce, endive, turnip and beet greens, field salad, water cress and fern fronds. Before storing greens in the refrigerator, wash them thoroughly and shake off excess water. Attractive garnishes for green salads: sliced hard-cooked eggs, slivers of ham and cold cuts of meat, black olives, wedges of tomato and bread cubes sauteed in bacon fat and seasonings.

THE AMERICAN WAY

A Logical Answer

With Our EXCHANGES

THE TREND IN GOVERNMENT
The News receives about fifty West Texas newspapers, most of them weeklies, on exchange. We have been interested in noticing the reactions of other editors to the trend of government as expressed in the recent national conventions and by the party nominees.

With only two or three exceptions, every editor who has expressed any opinion at all has registered shock, anger, opposition, or at least a reprimand to both parties and to the trend of government. We don't know about the public generally, but we do know that newspaper editors are terribly upset over the trend. Even the liberal Ralls Banner is concerned. Lone exception is the ultra-liberal Tulsa Herald, whose outspoken and erudite editor, H. M. Baggerly, is for every type of Government giveaway program proposed by any do-good Democrat in the name of the party. In the past, H. M. has done everything in his editorial power to vilify Senator Lyndon B. Johnson. But, now that LBJ has made "the big switch" and traded his convictions for a place on the ticket, Baggerly has also turned tables and is writing columns of praise for our turn-coat Senator.

To say the least, most of the men on the street in Tahoka we have talked with — even those who go all the way with the party — have a lot of misgivings, to put it mildly. Many people right here in Tahoka seem to be plain mad. We wonder how closely Lyndon and Ralph and George are reading these West Texas newspapers. If they are reading them closely, they should sense that all is not well at the grassroots — the people who elected them are none too pleased with the trend of government.

Things are getting pretty bad if so many of the people out in the hinterlands are worrying about what Congress might do, or what some branch of government might foist off on the public some new law by having some published in the Federal Register. — Frank Hill in Lynn County News.

POLITICAL STALWARTS
"Party is the madness of many for the gain of a few." — Pope.

As I continue to read the many writings of so-called political thinkers, I am amazed at the highly intelligent stupidity of some of them.

Some of them today are heaving coals of abuse upon the so-called "independent" voter as well as the voter who may change his mind about the ability and capabilities of some candidates. These writers seem unmindful of the fact that most political leaders look upon their "stalwart party or nothing" voter as slightly stupid and spend most of their time and energies attempting to capture the "independent" voter.

"Of all kinds of credulity, the most obstinate is that of party-spirit; of men, who, being numbered, they know not why, in any party, resign the use of their own eyes and ears, and resolve to believe nothing that does not favor those whom they profess to follow." — Samuel Johnson.

What choice has the voter today? Is the will of the majority actually being manifest in either of our parties? We actually find only the minority represented in their platforms plus the promise of "cake" for everyone.

Senator Thomas P. Gore, on the day Congress closed in 1934, said:

"In ancient Greece, Pericles inaugurated the feeding of the people out of the public treasury. A hundred years later Plato found that he had so completely debauched the Athenians that they were reduced to pauperism. Instead of working, they hung around the market place gossiping, and their characters were so weakened that the State was forced to hire barbarians to defend it from invasion. A paternalistic government is bound to destroy the self-reliance and self-respect of the people. When those attributes go, everything goes. Those are the virtues which have made our country great and those virtues alone will keep us great."

If there be a better system than the party and convention system we had better find it, and quick because the "modern partisans go for what they regard the seven cardinal principles, namely, the five loaves and two fishes." — Cecil Waggoner in Claude News.

CROSS ROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:
I note that both of our political parties this year have recognized the signs of the times and put ex-Navy men out for President.

My pond-sailor neighbor says this shrewd move shows that the politicians are fast on their feet and don't aim to be caught out of step by new developments such as our current dam rash.

Says it takes a high degree of hep to realize that putting out a landlubber candidate right now would invite defeat, on account of losing the motor boat vote.

Prizes Offered At Opening Of PAG Warehouse

More than $3,500 worth of prizes will be given away in connection with the grand opening celebration at the Panhandle Associated Grocers' tremendous new office and warehouse building Sunday, August 28th, from noon to 6 p.m., expected to be one of the biggest openings ever held in this area.

The public is invited to attend and participate. It will not be necessary to purchase anything in order to be eligible for the prizes; in fact, there will be nothing for sale during the opening, since the warehouse is strictly a wholesale institution.

The new building at 6700 South Washington Street in Amarillo, is the largest food warehouse ever built in this trade territory. Nothing has been left out of this superbly-designed structure which might be needed for the most economical and efficient handling of merchandise. Railroad cars enter the building on a siding and are completely enclosed, out of the weather, while being unloaded. Trucks also are loaded and unloaded within the building, providing complete sanitation and preventing dust or other extraneous elements from coming into contact with the merchandise.

Inside the building, merchandise is stored, handled and moved by the most modern mechanized equipment, through deft procedures which actually are exciting to watch. The startling facilities include a huge, modern frozen food storage, workers in which need to wear special protective clothing, and an enormous storage vault for processed foods.

Panhandle Associated Grocers moved into its new building on April 12, 1960.

In addition to the major addresses listed above, other parts of the PCG annual meeting will include the regular report of the President and this year will include a special report by Executive Vice President George W. Pfeiffenberger on his recent European trip.

Pfeiffenberger's report also will highlight some of the PCG's accomplishments this past year including such projects as crop-hail insurance representation in Austin; help obtain U.S.D.A. research funds — $30,000 for stripper harvesting and $40,000 for gin and research, and $22,000 for cotton color study at Tech; contribution of some $25,000 to research projects at Experiment Stations in the High Plains area; investigation of instrumenting of cotton; plus promotional activities such as technical meetings with European spinners on utilization of Plains cotton sponsored an all-cotton style show at Tech and helped sponsor the South Plains Maid of Cotton contest; conducted an international advertising campaign on Plains cotton, as well as compile and distribute area cotton quality reports and information on Plains cotton.

Mrs. Mark Fairman and sons, Mike and Robbie, of Portales, New Mexico, are here spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Thomas, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Fox. Dear Editor:
I see where the social reconstruction boys have got it figured that us uneducated citizens are spending too much of our money on foolish things, such as cars, TV sets, and other items we happen to want.

Which they claim leaves many world improvement projects and projectors low on funds, and the government ought to choke more of this dough out of our tight little fists, so it can be spent by experts.

My self-coddling neighbor says Bongoslovakia, or South Suction, Maine, may need their slums cleared worse than he needs a motor boat, but being beached would sure make him a grouchy voter.

Tree Seedlings Are Available

College Station. — Tree seedlings will again be available to West Texas landowners for planting windbreaks next January. Don Young, head of the Forest Management Department of the Texas Forestry Service, urges landowners to place their orders as early as possible before the February 10 deadline.

Orders must be in multiples of 50, and no order for less than 100 trees will be accepted. The delivered cost of seedlings this year is $1.50 per hundred. Tree species available for the 1960-61 planting season are Austrian pine, black locust, black walnut, stratified nuts, catalpa, cottonwood, Chinese elm, mulberry, orange rose, ponderosa pine, red cedar, rosa multiflora, sycamore, slash and loblolly pine.

All seedlings are packaged in moss and moisture-proof paper and shipped directly to the landowner. Tree seedlings, purchased for ornamental purposes, the landowner further agrees to protect the trees from fire, cattle, and destructive insects.

Application forms can be obtained from county agents and Soil Conservation District offices in the West Texas area. Forms are also available upon request from the Director, Texas Forest Service, College Station, Texas.

SHOULD UNPOPULAR FOODS BE DISGUISED?

Instead of disguising unpopular foods and leftovers, Margaret Spader, home service consultant for the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, suggests that "compensation or reward foods" be included in the same menu. For instance, if the family doesn't like spinach, serve it as attractively as you possibly can. If your family likes hot bread, molded salad or crispy fried chicken, include at least one of their favorites in the menu with the spinach and you'll reduce complaints. Garnish such as slices of hard cooked egg, slivers of ham and pieces of bacon will give more appeal to many vegetable dishes without disguising them.

U. S. banks handled more than 13 billion checks last year, compared with three billion in 1942.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

JAMES CARTHEL IS OUT OF SERVICE

August 20, 1960
El Paso, Texas

Dear Mr. Hays,

I am pleased to hear that the third grade teachers have compiled and written a history of Lockney. Seems to me that I was involved in a similar project when in the sixth grade when Frances Copeland worked on Lockney's history. My check for $2.00 is for my copy; cost of mailing it to me; and appreciation to the authors.

You may be interested in my return to civilian status. You probably do not remember as well as I the day I registered for Selective Service in your office seven years ago. Yesterday I finished the major part of that obligation when I was released from active duty to teach here in El Paso.

I will be directing freshman, sophomore, and junior choirs at Ysleta High School and working part time with the "Giri's Drum Corps". Carol will teach third through eighth grade music at Marion Manor School as she did last year.

During my active duty I became a Dental Laboratory Technician specializing in crown and bridge work. While that is an excellent skill to have, I am pleased to be going back to the classroom where I can serve my country better. Although I have made the best of everything while in the Army and consider the experience invaluable, I regret that those who decided that I should serve in that capacity could not see how much more good I would have been able to do as a teacher at home. My own interest is of my concern as I have lost two years of work, pay, and advancement in my career, but there is a matter of greater concern — to our nation — and that is maximum benefit from our resources.

Specifically, the teacher, on whom lies a great deal of the responsibility of guiding Young America, I shall not attempt to estimate how much my family, city, county, and state spent to prepare me to teach but the thought of it causes me to ask what justification there is for my being lifted out of that capacity into a job of utter insignificance. Having been acquainted with other cases such as mine, and seeing fantastic waste of manpower I am appalled.

It is high time we got interested in the way our government agencies operate and see that their operation is made more efficient. I have become more aware of what is going on and intend in the years to come to keep my eyes open and do what I can to help the situation — as a teacher and as a citizen.

Keep sending The Beacon, we read it every week. It was a great help to me when I was separated from my family. How about giving my brother-in-law, Chuck Wilson, some encouragement in his business in your community? He is an excellent photographer and worthy of your support.

Sincerely,
James T. Carthel

SHOULD UNPOPULAR FOODS BE DISGUISED?

Instead of disguising unpopular foods and leftovers, Margaret Spader, home service consultant for the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, suggests that "compensation or reward foods" be included in the same menu. For instance, if the family doesn't like spinach, serve it as attractively as you possibly can. If your family likes hot bread, molded salad or crispy fried chicken, include at least one of their favorites in the menu with the spinach and you'll reduce complaints. Garnish such as slices of hard cooked egg, slivers of ham and pieces of bacon will give more appeal to many vegetable dishes without disguising them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

JAMES CARTHEL IS OUT OF SERVICE
August 20, 1960
El Paso, Texas

Dear Mr. Hays, I am pleased to hear that the third grade teachers have compiled and written a history of Lockney. Seems to me that I was involved in a similar project when in the sixth grade when Frances Copeland worked on Lockney's history. My check for $2.00 is for my copy; cost of mailing it to me; and appreciation to the authors.

You may be interested in my return to civilian status. You probably do not remember as well as I the day I registered for Selective Service in your office seven years ago. Yesterday I finished the major part of that obligation when I was released from active duty to teach here in El Paso.

I will be directing freshman, sophomore, and junior choirs at Ysleta High School and working part time with the "Girl's Drum Corps". Carol will teach third through eighth grade music at Marion Manor School as she did last year.

During my active duty I became a Dental Laboratory Technician specializing in crown and bridge work. While that is an excellent skill to have, I am pleased to be going back to the classroom where I can serve my country better. Although I have made the best of everything while in the Army and consider the experience invaluable, I regret that those who decided that I should serve in that capacity could not see how much more good I would have been able to do as a teacher at home. My own interest is of my concern as I have lost two years of work, pay, and advancement in my career, but there is a matter of greater concern — to our nation — and that is maximum benefit from our resources.

Specifically, the teacher, on whom lies a great deal of the responsibility of guiding Young America, I shall not attempt to estimate how much my family, city, county, and state spent to prepare me to teach but the thought of it causes me to ask what justification there is for my being lifted out of that capacity into a job of utter insignificance. Having been acquainted with other cases such as mine, and seeing fantastic waste of manpower I am appalled.

It is high time we got interested in the way our government agencies operate and see that their operation is made more efficient. I have become more aware of what is going on and intend in the years to come to keep my eyes open and do what I can to help the situation — as a teacher and as a citizen.

Keep sending The Beacon, we read it every week. It was a great help to me when I was separated from my family. How about giving my brother-in-law, Chuck Wilson, some encouragement in his business in your community? He is an excellent photographer and worthy of your support.

Sincerely,
James T. Carthel

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 11. terest is agreed upon, the rate shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. Should any regulatory agency, acting under the provisions of this Section, cancel or refuse to grant any permit under any law passed by the Legislature, then such applicant of holder shall have the right of appeal to the courts and granted a trial de novo as that term is used in appealing from the justice of peace court to the county court."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1960, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; and providing for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Luther Williams, Barbara Lawson Exchange Vows

The chapel of First Baptist Church in Abilene was the scene for the marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Lawson, and Luther Williams, Jr., on Saturday evening.

Parents are Mrs. Foster Rhodes of Abilene, and Carl Lawson of Concord, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Lois Williams, Sr., of Lockney.

John Petry, director of the Baptist Student Union at Hardin-Simmons University, read the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Fredda Herndon, organist, played the wedding prelude and accompanied Bob Gilbreth, soloist.

Wearing a gown of white chantilly lace over satin, the bride was given in marriage by Frank Payne. Her formal gown was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, basque bodice and long sleeves. A scalloped hemline accented her full skirt. Tiny seed pearls decorated the tiana that held her elbow length veil, and she carried an arrangement of white roses on a white Bible.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Gerald Lively of Martinez, California. Bridesmaids were Martha Payne of Baird, and Mrs. Ruby Gallion of Concord, California. They wore dresses of light blue dotted swiss over blue crystalline, fashioned with billowing skirts, scoop necklines, and short sleeves. Each attendant carried a long stemmed white rose.

Jerry Williams of Lockney, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers and candlelighters were Jackie Duncan and Eddie Williams, both of Roscoe. Kenneth Williams of Lockney, brother of the bridegroom, and Bobby Becker of Pampa, were groomsmen.

Members of the houseparty for the reception were Carolyn Joyce Virden of Amarillo, Peggy Payne of Baird, Mary Ann Smarzik, Jody Sapp of Jal. N. M., and Mrs. Jerry Williams, Lockney.

For the wedding trip to Dallas, the bride chose a black linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The bride is a May graduate of Hardin-Simmons, and was active in Mission Volunteers, Science Club, Life Service Band, and Los Rancheros Spanish Club. Williams received a bachelor of arts degree in biology, August 19 from Hardin-Simmons, where he was president of Mission Volunteers, art editor of the yearbook, and was named "Mr. S. E. A." by the Student Education Association.

The Dog and His Bone

AESOP, the well-known fable teller, started that story about the little dog . . . who went trotting home one day with a nice bone. On the way he saw what looked like a much juicier one in the bright mirror of a water hole . . . but, in grabbing for it, he lost the bone he already had.

- There's a good moral for one and all in this little story. But the educational value of fables must be over-rated. Because this one has been around for 1300 years and people are still risking . . . and often losing . . . some of the good things they have by reaching for something that is more temptingly offered.

- Like some of us here in this community . . . who roam far and wide in a search for "better deals" and thereby seriously undermine the economic structure which supports our own businesses and jobs, our fine schools and churches, and all the other elements of our well-ordered American small town life.

★ Buy at home . . . and your dollars will work for you longer

- In this community . . . right now . . . we could be enjoying much greater prosperity, much finer social and civic facilities . . . if we had but kept in our local economic bloodstream all of the money we have put into the upkeep and upbuilding of larger cities in years past.

It Pays to Buy
where you Live

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade-invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Workmans Attend Family Reunion In Oklahoma

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Harney Workman, Donna and David, Mr. and Mrs. Herman King, Ben and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Phillips, Jane, Derl and Keith, returned last week from Carney, Okla., where they attended a reunion of the children and grandchildren of the late Bob and Lizzie Workman.

The reunion was held at Boggy Depot State Park, a few miles northwest of Carney. The area was only recently created a state park, and is the historical site of an early day stage station for a stage coach line running through the Indian nation.

The reunion was held on Sunday, August 14, with more than 150 descendants and friends attending the gathering. A basket dinner was spread at noon, and a great number remained for a picnic supper. Relatives attended from El Paso, Amarillo, Borger, Houston, Garland, Fort Worth, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Grand Prairie, Caddo, Caney, Durant, Ardmore and Lockney.

Plans were made for the reunion to be held next year at the same time and place.

The local people left Lockney Saturday morning and drove to Lake Texhoma where they picniced. During the afternoon they visited several landmarks, one of which was the location of Mrs. W. H. Workman's childhood home on Empson's Prairie, near Bokchita, Okla.

On Monday a fishing trip was organized and there were 35 or 40 in the group. One of the most enjoyable events of the trip was a fish fry on Monday night at the log cabin home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Workman near Hopewell, Okla. Mr. Workman had caught the fish and stored them in his freezer for the event. There were 62 people present.

An unforgettable event for the boys was a coon hunt. A cousin, Curt Workman, took David Workman, Ben King, Derl and Keith Phillips on a coon hunt one night.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman King, Ben and Joan, left Monday morning and returned home by way of the Anadarko Indian Festival at Anadarko, Okla.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Over 50,000 persons are drawing approximately one million dollars a week in unemployment compensation in Texas.

Investigations have disclosed fraudulent claims. Charges already have been filed in several Texas cities, and investigation is underway statewide.

"In view of the recent frauds disclosed by investigations in unemployment compensation claims," says Maurice Acers, Commissioner, "it is imperative that an already broad system of fraud detection and prevention be expanded and accelerated."

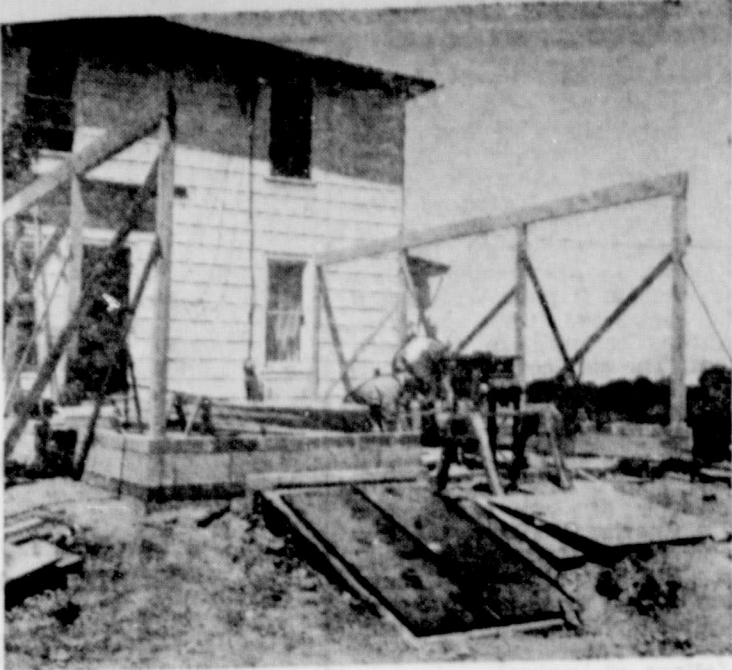

There are a number of ways TEC can catch the cheaters. And TEC is out after them now. One method is by "cross-matching". This involves checking a person's unemployment claims against his earnings.

Sometimes this isn't necessary. Some people who are drawing unemployment compensation and secretly working, will betray themselves by their nervousness when they report to the local TEC office.

In one instance a truck driver applied for unemployment compensation, then got another job. When he made his weekly trip to report to the employment office, he drove up in the truck of the company employing and double-parked in front of the TEC office.

A TEC employe asked the man why he was driving this company's truck. "Because I'm working for the company," the

DUAL PURPOSE fallout shelter and carport-patio is shown under construction at the farm of John Holden near Hickory Corners, Mich. The shelter, to be used also for food storage, cost $1,200. With the carport and patio now being added, the cost totaled $2,300. Holden's family of three, and eight neighbors, gave the shelter a realistic workout recently when a small tornado struck nearby. An entrance to the shelter is in the foreground. (OCDM Photo) driver said.

This man soon found himself in court.

There are some, says a veteran TEC employe, who take the attitude: "I've earned it. Now I want to collect it." In other words, after they have worked long enough and earned enough to qualify for unemployment compensation, they feel they're entitled to quit work and collect it.

That is not the way the program is set up under the law. Here, briefly, are some of the requirements:

1. You must have built up a certain amount of work credits during the 15 months preceding application, with an employer who hires four or more persons.
2. You must have lost your job through no fault of your own.
3. You must make application with TEC for another job.
4. You must be able and available to accept another suitable job.
5. You must visit your local TEC office once a week to report your availability for work, or if you have done any work, report your earnings.

For example, a woman unable to work because of pregnancy would not be eligible for unemployment compensation, even though employed by a concern participating in the program.

Conflicting opinions sometimes develop over what is another "suitable" job and who is "available" for work.

A typist who has been making $200 a month may consider a salary of $185 unsuitable. But if that is the going rate for that work in that area, TEC may decide it's suitable enough and deny unemployment compensation.

Others drawing unemployment benefits may be "available" in body only. When direct by TEC to apply for a certain job, they do it, but will appear so dull and uninterested that prospective employers won't hire them.

Most important to TEC is throwing a barricade in the paths of those people who just plain want to get some of the money just because it's there.

TEC also tries to alert employers to their role in halting fraud. When a former employe applies for benefits, a copy of his application is sent to the employer. If the employe quit or was fired for incompetence, it is the employer's duty to inform TEC at once.

TEC warns that if you're not willing to work at a suitable job, you cannot collect unemployment insurance at the same time.

Invariably some people try to get around TEC rules. Such persons cause trouble for their employers, who have to pay more taxes; trouble for TEC, which now is on the lookout for the chiselers; and trouble for themselves, because they are laying themselves wide open for suits for fraudulent claims.

Taken individually, the collection by some person of from $7 to $28 a week, to which he is not entitled, may seem like peanuts. But any unchecked fraud, viewed in the light of the whole massive unemployment compensation program in Texas, could multiply itself into a million-dollar headache.

Last year $51,376,076 was paid out in Texas in unemployment benefits. This was more than was taken in in unemployment taxes from employers. Fortunately for TEC, the program has, over a period of years, built up a substantial trust fund — $255,534,551 to be exact — against bad periods.

But this fund, designed as a cushion against depression-type breadlines, can serve its purpose only if it is not abused. It is meant as insurance, TEC officials explain, not as a dole, and not to pay for vacations for those who are tired of working.

New Rexall Formulas Feed Natural Beauty Into Hair

Rexall laboratories have developed a formula which penetrates the hair shaft and restores and protects the natural beauty intended by Nature.

To understand the significance of this boon to natural beauty it is necessary to know the complex structure of hair, explained Clyde Briley, druggist in Lockney Drug.

Each hair is composed of a root contained in a sheath called the hair follicle, and the shaft which grows from the extreme end of this follicle. The shaft receives its nourishment from blood vessels that extend into the follicle and, for a short distance, into the shaft itself.

If yours is a normal scalp, you have from 100,000 to 200,000 individual hair shafts, each one a living, growing organism, and Nature is constantly supplying it with nutrients essential for healthy growth and beauty. One is protein, a vital part of all life and the basic building block that gives your hair body and strength. Another is panthenol, a vitamin that is a natural component of your hair. Another is sebum, the natural lubricating element that gives your hair lustre, keeps it elastic and resilient, helps protect it from drying, splitting and breaking.

This, then, is your "crowning glory". But Nature's plan meets resistance. Natural moisture, protective oils, pigment, all are constantly being lost through exposure to sun, wind, dust, air pollution and other environmental contaminants, along with harsh shampoos, bleaches, dyes and improper care.

Rexall scientists reasoned that if Nature's own replenishment cycle could be aided by actually penetrating the hair shafts with substances similar to those Nature uses, real improvement could be achieved. They searched for years for means of achieving this and at last succeeded. Now you can:

1. Cleanse your hair without robbing it of precious natural oils.
2. Protect and prolong the life of the natural nutrients.
3. Sustain healthfully clean hair between shampoos.
4. Enhance natural strength, lustre and sheen.

Rexall offers a shampoo that cleans without washing away precious oils, sebum and panthenol vitamin. It's a New Awakening for your hair called Controlled Action Shampoo. This exclusive Rexall formula is automatically controlled to cleanse your hair while protecting Nature's nutrients. The scientific base is amphoteric, which means the ingredients are so balanced and buffered that they automatically meet the cleansing needs of your hair.

To preserve the healthful cleanliness and beauty New Awakening Shampoo has revived, Rexall research has perfected New Awakening Sheen 'N' Shield Rinse. This formula is fortified with Prolanovite, a Rexall Laboratories secret that combines protein with a unique lanolin compound nearly approximating the function of natural sebum in your hair.

This rinse takes Prolanovite right into each shaft of hair.

To combat ancient enemies of beauty — dust, wind and sun — Rexall scientists have developed a formula called New Awakening Moisture-Guard Conditioner. Used for just a few moments each night or morning, this conditioner will constantly reinforce the natural elasticity of your hair, constantly restore and sustain its natural moisture balance. Dandruff and dryness are denied the conditions that help cause them.

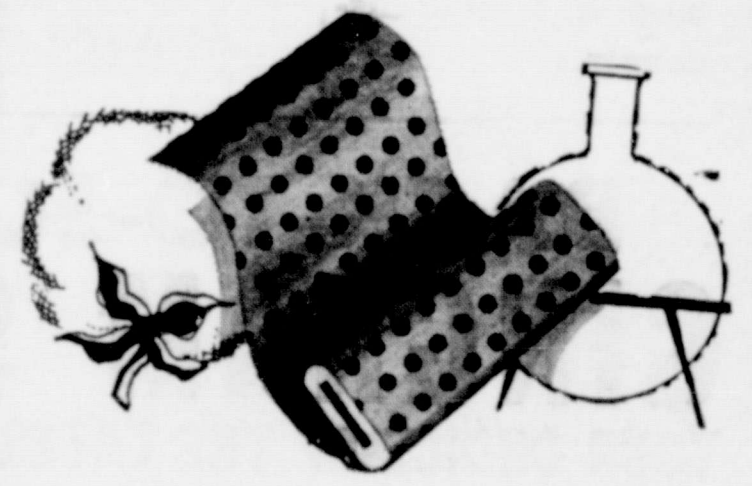

Moisture-Guard Conditioner contains Prolanovite. That means you will be giving your hair a daily treatment with beauty-promoting protein, lanolin and Panthenol vitamin.

There is yet another New Awakening for your hair—Crystal Clear Hair Spray. It can hold your hair in the most delicate, fragile, natural style, yet there's not a single ingredient that will dull or darken. It also contains beauty-aiding lanolin and Panthenol vitamin. It is absolutely transparent, without the slightest trace of lacquer or goo.

And for special dates or special evenings, Rexall has provided Star Shine. Compounded of the most delicate oils, it makes your hair dance with highlights, gleam with natural radiance.

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

Seventy-nine acre feet of water was drained by gravity flow into the underground water sand from the Playa lake on the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway between July 4 and August 4, 1960. Since June 19, 1959, one hundred and eighty-five acre feet of lake water has been stored in the underground sand from the lake.

The value of one acre foot of water applied to cotton has been estimated at $65.00 an acre foot. If this 185 acre feet of water had been used to irrigate cotton the value of the water thus applied would be $12,025.

This water thus stored was saved from evaporation and added to the underground water supply for future irrigation. This added water supply will be the first used in subsequent irrigations.

The recharge process, bench leveling, and other water conservation will be displayed at the Foundation Fourth Annual Field Day on Wednesday afternoon, September 14th.

Barrows in the carcass division will be judged at 8:45 a.m., Thursday, and the placing of individual barrows will follow at 9:30 a.m.

Many in the community are on their last vacation before the school term starts. Crops are looking beautiful and certainly we have much to be thankful for.

The Providence school will start August 31. We wish for the teachers and pupils a successful school year.

Miss Marie Scheele is now in Germany enjoying a tour of that country. She left last Friday a week ago, accompanied by Mrs. Delbert Halloway of Borger who is a native of Germany. Marie is there visiting her relatives and friends. They flew by T.W.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner and children, together with Mrs. Ben Brandes and Mrs. Brandes, sister, Miss Bertha Luedtke of Waco, attended the State Legion and Auxiliary convention which was held at Adolph and Baker hotels in Dallas. Mrs. Alexander Gray of Brownville, Tennessee, national auxiliary president, gave a most inspirational address. "Get out and vote" was stressed throughout the three day convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner saw the state play-offs of the State Legion Junior baseball between Nacogdoches and Odessa.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown and other relatives last week in Lockney were Miss Dorothy Stout, and Mr. and Mrs. Knox Greer, and Stevie and Camilla, all of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Relay Station Will Be Put To Use Soon

Super high frequencies carrying network television programs will soon be beamed through space near Lockney on a $1 million radio relay system being readied for service next month.

J. C. Oakley, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, said a 130-mile communications skyway extends the Lamesa-Lubbock route to Amarillo. Five new stations similar to the building and 280-foot tower four miles north of town have been built by the Long Lines Department of American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The route is of the type that can carry both TV programs and hundreds of long distance calls simultaneously.

"Since the radio relay route's frequency range is substantially higher than the range picked up by home television sets, residents in this area will not be able to 'tune in' the super high frequencies carrying the programs," Oakley said. "Actually, the programs are delivered to the local television stations for broadcasting in their service areas," he explained.

Farm Bureau Meeting In Lubbock Sept. 1

Lubbock. — The Municipal Garden and Art Center in Lubbock will be the site of the annual District 2 Farm Bureau queen contest and Talk Meet, Sept. 1, according to an announcement by H. L. (Hub) King of Brownfield, district director.

The event will get under way at 7:30 p.m. at the Center which is located at 4215 College Ave. County Farm Bureau queens and Talk Meet entrants from all over the district, which comprises some 18 counties, will participate.

For the queen contestants, the Lubbock elimination will be the second step in the quest for the coveted Texas Farm Bureau crown. The winner will represent this district in the state finals to be held in conjunction with the annual TFB convention in November in Dallas. Expenses of the district queen and her matron escort attending the state convention will be paid by the state organization, and the winner in Dallas will receive $500 to defray expenses for her and her matron escort attending the American Farm Bureau Federation convention in Denver, Colo.

The Talk Meet contestants will likewise compete for a chance to attend the state convention and engage in the Talk Meet, with the opportunity of going on to Denver and participating in a Talk Meet sponsored by the American Farm Bureau Federation. This is the first year that Texas has engaged in the national Talk Meet activity which is open to both boys and girls.

A useful addition to your car first aid kit is a dime taped inside the lid for use in case you need to make an emergency telephone call.

GOOD ENOUGH FOR COMSTOCK

Springs that provide 116,000-000 gallons of water per day should be good enough for anybody.

People in the Southwest Texas town of Comstock decided long ago that such springs were good enough for them, so they named them "Good Enough Springs."

The springs are located just south of Comstock, in Val Verde County, and their fine waters feed the Rio Grande River.

Shreds up to 100 acres a day!

This new 140", 4-row rotary cutter is fully gear driven. Behind a 35 H.P. or larger tractor, you can cut from 60 to 100 acres of stalks or brush up to 1 1/2" in diameter.

Rear wheels are on 72" spacing. Cutter offsets tractor wheels 40" on both sides; ideal for orchards and fence-line work. Although 144" over-all in width, slide shoes may be removed permitting passage through 12' gates.

Has the same heavy blades and blade carriers as the other famous Gyro cutters, giving it high momentum, gyroscopic cutting action for maximum cutting power with minimum RPM. This means long life and economical operation. A real work horse that will save hours of time.

PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS

Nearly 400,000 Texas Families are partners in a noble undertaking that celebrates its silver anniversary this year.

They are the member-owners of the electric cooperatives that serve the rural areas of the Lone Star State. They borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems. They created a multi-billion dollar market for electric appliances with main street merchants. They brought the blessings of electricity to areas that might still be dark had it not been for the cooperative effort. They accomplished these wonderful things while repaying principal and interest on their loans... often ahead of schedule.

The electric cooperatives of Texas can point with pride to an efficient, dependable, electric service providing Partnership Power For Progress.
