Roses celebrate 67th anniversary

67 years since C.H. and Ida Rose took their honeymoon in wagon.

Lockney residents are celebrating their 67th wedding anniversary today in Lockney.

Ida Rose says, "I wouldn't want to be any less years. I wouldn't be married to stay married."

Friends and relatives are invited to call at their home, 503 S.E. 2nd in Lockney throughout the month of June to help the Roses celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose were married June 7, 1914 in the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.F. Casey in the Roseland community, near Lockney, and then traveled on their honeymoon in a covered wagon to Blair, Oklahoma for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Rose.

"I cooked breakfast for her that first morning," says C.L. Rose who still calls his wife "girl". "And she has been expecting it ever since."

When asked how they have managed to get along with each other for so many years, Mr. Rose says with a smile, "She talks and I listen."

Mrs. Rose says, "never get mad at the same time."

The couple has been working together ever since they married. They farmed first in the Providence community, near Lockney, later buying a farm east of Lockney, where they lived until 1939 when they moved to town.

They owned and managed Rose Laundry until 1954 and then the Rose Grocery until 1949 and also the Rose Rooming House in the building that is now Rowell This R That.

The Roses say that they never retired. "Work doesn't hurt you," says Mary

Ida Rose. "We'll never stop being active and working."

They stopped farming full time at age 65 and 67, but still go to their farms in the summer time and working. He loves to garden and keeps the house filled with flourishing green plants. She spends hours crocheting.

Both enjoy entertaining.

"If more than two or three days went by without guests in our home we would think that people have forgotten us," says Mrs. Rose. "We love to have our family and friends in our house."

The couple says that Floyd County is the best place to live in the world. "I like the country and I have the finest friends and neighbors I could ever hope for.

Floyd County has changed some since the Roses married. Lockney had only plank buildings and plank sidewalks. There weren't any roads to their farm. They just drove across the fields.

C.H. and Mary Ida have vivid memories of very active and full lives in the area around Lockney.

"Our family, friends, and our church, those are the things that matter," says Mrs. Rose.

At the ages of almost 93 and 91 years they are still active members of the First United Methodist Church.

They are the parents of Delbur C. Rose of Plainview and Mrs. C.L. Record (Lucy Dean) of Lockney.

They have four grandchildren, Jerry Rose of Lubbock and Jonny Rose of Wichita, Kansas, Breck Record of Amarillo and Mrs. Guy Roberson (Donna Lyn Record) of Beaumont, and nine great-grandchildren.

C.H. Rose says marriage is still, "mighty fine with no room to complain."

MARY IDA ROSE are celebrating their 67th wedding anniversary on the month of June. They were married June 7, 1914 in the Roseland community, near Lockney.

Carol Lea Clark's 'It's Not Easy'

Clark doesn't believe me when I say that it never rains in West Texas.

When we hit the New Mexico border he looks at the almanac and says that the average rainfall in West Texas is only 20.18 inches a year. No wonder he doesn't believe me anymore.

He has been amazed at the pride West Texans take in their severe weather. As we shiver from the cold, wade through the rain watching for funnel clouds, or swelter from the heat, we say, "That's West Texas." It wouldn't be home without a little weather every now and then.

He asks me what the summer weather is going to be like. I don't have the heart to tell him. I remember reading about the steady stretch of 100 degree plus days last summer.

But, if I tell him that it is always hot here in the summer, maybe I will be wrong again.

I wouldn't want to break my perfect record at weather forecasting: wrong every time.

As a proud former Texan I know that the winters were relatively LOCKNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL AUXILIARY members Wynona Allison (left) and Clara Reece (right) sell a poppy to Linda Usry for a donation to the fund to buy a heart monitor for the hospital. The poppies were made by disabled veterans and sold this week in Lockney by the auxiliary, so a donation was a contribution for two causes.

Clark publishes Sports Firsts

The book of "Sports Firsts" written by Lockney Beacon editor Patrick Clark was released today in New York City.

The hard-cover book, published by Facts on File Inc., will be available in area book stores in the next few weeks. It will retail for $14.95.

The 288-page book covers hundreds of firsts in sports history ranging from the first Major League baseball game to the origins of the Frisbee.

"I thought I was a pretty knowledgeable sports fan until I started working on this book," Clark said. "I was amazed at some of the things I learned."

"For instance, I was really surprised to find out that Abner Doubleday wasn't the founder of baseball, that the real founder was a little-known man named Alexander Cartwright," Clark said.

"I was surprised to learn, too, that Jackie Robinson wasn't the first Black to play Major League baseball. There were Blacks playing Major League baseball before the turn of the century, but they were squeezed out," Clark said.

From first word to last, Clark said, it took nearly two years to write the book.

"In the beginning, it was pretty easy to write," Clark said. "But after I had covered the half-dozen or so so-called major sports like baseball, football, hockey and so on, it got a lot more difficult. I was fortunate to discover a museum in Southern California that serves as kind of a hall of fame for the more minor sports such as swimming, wrestling and volleyball. It has one of the largest sports libraries in the country and I spent a lot of hours there going over their books and records."

The book is Clark's first solo effort. He was contributing editor on a book about Presidents Nixon and Ford published last year by Facts on File and Harcourt, Brace and Jovanovich of New York.

Initial sales of the "Sports Firsts" book are already approaching the 5,000 copy mark.

The nation-wide Walden Book Store chain has purchased 1,500 copies and the book has been made an alternate selection of the Nostalgia Book Club.

In addition, excerpt rights have been purchased by the Playboy Corporation's OUI magazine. Excerpts of the book will appear in the October issue of OUI magazine.

Double-ring ceremony unites Kim Bertrand-Dean Hinton

Wedding vows were exchanged by Kim Lanette Bertrand and Troy Dean Hinton, Saturday, May 30, at 7:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Floydada. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Derrell Monday, brother-in-law of the bride, who is pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, Eastland, Texas.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertrand and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hinton.

Centering the altar area was a branched brass candelabra intertwined with greenery and complimented with yellow tapers. It was flanked with candelabras and baskets of greenery. Completing the nuptial decor was the unity candle.

Penny Bertrand, cousin of the bride, played traditional wedding music at the organ. Mona Dean and Mrs. David Seay presented vocal selections.

Miss Dean sang "Love Will Make Us One," and "This Is The Day." Mrs. Seay sang "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown which had been purchased by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. P.F. Bertrand, for each of her granddaughters to wear. The bride was the seventh granddaughter to wed in it.

The gown was fashioned of silk illusion bombazine and lace. Enhancing the fitted bodice was the scalloped neckline and long tapering sleeves which were caught with self-buttons and terminated in a point at her hands.

Her bouffant skirt, accented with lace appliques, fell into a three-tiered train. To compliment her attire the bride wore a lace-trimmed veil of illusion that was caught to a capulet accented with pearls.

An all white silk cascade of cattleya orchids, gardenias and delphinies was carried by the bride. She wore a pearl drop necklace and pearl earrings which were a gift from the groom. She carried a handkerchief, representing something old, that had been carried in eight previous weddings, including those of her maternal grandmother, her mother, and her sisters. She also carried a penny representing the year of their marriage. Something new was a white Bible, and something borrowed was the veil worn by her cousin, Mrs. Martin Warren of Tahoka. She added the traditional touch of blue.

Donna Garrett, of Lawton, Oklahoma, was her sister's honor attendant. Other attendants were Janna Monday of Eastland and sister of the bride, Beverly Fuller of Colorado City, and Shannon Roberts of Oklahoma City.

They wore identical floor-length gowns of pastel yellow polyester which were enhanced with matching knee-length jackets trimmed in white. Each attendant carried a silk long-stemmed yellow rose interspersed with greenery and yellow ribbon.

Best man was Mike Bean and serving as groomsmen were James Hinton, brother of the groom, Ray Hinton, the groom's brother of Holly, Colorado, and Jon Jones. Guests were seated by David Althof of Roscoe and Tom Casabonne of Hope, New Mexico.

RECEPTION

Kelli Jackson of Matador, Becky Fawver, cousin of the bride from Lubbock, Cheryl Willis, Seminole, Jan Story, Fort Worth, and Jo Beth Elizondo of Midland assisted with the reception held in the parlor.

Covering the bride's table was an ecru lace cloth over ecru. Focal point was a silver candelabra with yellow candles. Silver and crystal appointments were used to serve the three-tiered white cake, yellow punch, mints and nuts.

The groom's table was laid with cloths matching that of the bride's. It was centered with a yellow silk floral arrangement complimented with yellow candles. Silver and crystal appointments were used to serve chocolate cake, coffee and nuts. Nieces and a nephew of the bride distributed rice bags. They were Lychelle Monday, Emily Monday, D'Lynn Monday, and Jason Garrett. Names for the guest registry were secured by Mrs. Morris Applewhite of Cotton Center.

Following a wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, the couple will be home in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinton are 1977 graduates of Floydada High School and he was graduated this year from Texas Tech University and she received her degree from Hardin-Simmons University.

Hinton is affiliated with the American Society of Agricultural Engineers and Alpha Zeta. The bride is a member of Phi Phi Phi, Alpha Kappa Psi and Pi Kappa Delta. He is employed with Esmond-Haner, Inc., in Odessa.

The grooms parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in their home. Mrs. Travis Jones was hostess for the bridesmaid's luncheon held in her home.

Nance-Mercer hold reunion

A Nance-Mercer reunion, hosted by the children of the late Wiley and Lula Nance was held at the home of Wiley D. Nance, Jr. on Sunday, May 24, in the Lone Star Community.

Trapp hosts Homebuilders Extension Club meeting

Homebuilders Extension Club met May 26 in the Council Room of the Agricultural Building, with Ruth Trapp as hostess.

President Grady Widener opened the meeting by reading the club prayer. Roll call was answered on "An unpleasant experience I have had with medicine."

Some very interesting responses were given by members on side effects, medicine mix ups, and helpful precautions given in relation to prescribed drugs, as well as over the counter medicine.

Mattie Norrell had charge of the program on "Medicine Mix-up." She told the group combining drugs can produce some unusual reactions. Some drugs are prescribed so they will interact in a certain way and produce a desired result. But mixing medicine, without knowledge, can result in an unexpected and dangerous drug interaction, sometimes causing a poisonous result.

Some food and beverages contain substances which can interact directly with a medication and produce an effect which counteracts the effect of the drug. Each person was made to realize the complexities of the various medicines and be more cautious.

Games were directed by Murl Mayfield.

Ruth Trapp served refreshments to the following members: Mattie Norrell, Wilma Colston, Murl Mayfield, Blanche Williams, Lillian Smith and Lila Mae Burns.

The meeting adjourned to meet June 9 in the home of Mrs. Burns.

Shelley Bearden honored with graduation luncheon

Shelley Bearden was honored with a graduation luncheon Saturday May 30 at Harrigans in Lubbock, hosted by Ann Reddy.

Favors were glasses decorated with daisies and holiday scented candles, that complimented the daisy centerpiece. Mrs. Reddy gave the centerpiece to Miss Bearden after the party.

The menu consisted of salad, broccoli, chicken quiche, fried potatoes, watermelon, homemade bread and a dessert of caramel crepes.

Party members included Julie Faulkenberry, Deann Fry, Terri Lloyd, Kay Lyn Rainer, Kelly Ward, Tracy Reddy, Stacey Smith, Kelli Reddy, Ray Nell Bearden and Mrs. Reddy.

The couple's five children are honoring their parents with a reception Sunday, June 7, 1981, at the Wall Street Parlor, 400 South Wall Street (2 blocks south of courthouse) at Floydada from 2 to 4 p.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to all of the couple's friends, neighbors, relatives, Plainview, in Ropesville, in Sandhill, in Sterley, and the Lone Star communities near Floydada before moving seven miles southeast of Floydada in the Lakeview community where they have resided 42 years.

Lipham-Cornelius repeat wedding vows Saturday

A double-ring ceremony repeated Saturday evening in the Bible Baptist Church of Floydada united in marriage Miss Julianne Lipham and Mr. Eric Cornelius.

The Rev. Bob Chapman, pastor of Bible Baptist Church performed the ceremony for the children of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lipham and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cornelius, all of Floydada.

Pre-nuptial music was pre-Kay Crabtree, as she sang Jr. She accompanied Mrs. Kay Crabtree, as she sang "Do You Know," "Ice Castles," and "The Lords Prayer."

Setting for the 6 o'clock exchange of vows was various sized palms of emerald foliage forming the wedding background. In the center of the wedding scene was a large brass archway with added brass columns holding baskets of yellow and white gladioli and Kellian daisies. To each side of the archway were brass hurricane candelabras with yellow tapers, also decorated in yellow and white Kellian daisies. The bridal aisle pews were enhanced with brass hurricane candelabras holding yellow tapers.

Presented in marriage by her father, Julian Lipham, Julianne wore a formal gown of chiffon overlay with a high neckline and long shadow sleeves. The shadow sleeves were created with Venice lace. The bodice of the gown was a combination of silk Venice and Alencon lace beautifully patterned and dotted with seed pearls to the waistline. The A-line skirt of the gown was accented with silk Venice lace around the skirt and train of the gown.

The bride added a Venice and Alencon lace hat that held the elbow length veil of illusion which was gathered softly to the back of the hat and centered with a large matching seeded pearl flower.

She carried a prayer book designed with white alfin sweetheart rose buds, stephanotis showered in double white baby's breath. Before the bride was presented to the groom, she paused and gave her mother a long stemmed rose. After the vows were repeated she presented the groom's mother with a long stemmed rose.

For something old, the bride wore pennies in her shoes, minted in the year of her birthdate and the grooms birthdate, given by her sister, Brenda Clappitt. Something new was her wedding attire. Something borrowed, serving at the groom's table were Paula Nelson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Brenda Clappitt, sister of the groom.

Yellow fruit punch and yellow wedding bell mints were also served. The bride's table was covered with a floor length pleated white linen cloth with an over skirt of white illusion which was caught up at the corners with yellow bows. Silver candelabra held four yellow tapers and the bride's bouquet.

Completed her wedding attire by wearing a diamond and ruby pendant with matching earrings, given to her by the groom.

Maid of honor was Melissa Morren. She wore a floor length gown of yellow Chantilly lace over organza crepe, with a yellow matching hat. The back of the bodice was slit from the neckline to the waist and brought together with lace covered buttons. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white daisies and double white baby's breath trimmed in yellow lace.

Spring Lipham, sister of the bride, and Kirsten Soto, niece of the groom, were flower girls. They wore matching floor length yellow gowns, with lace inserts on the bodice, accented with yellow satin ribbons. They carried white lace baskets filled with yellow rose petals that they dropped along the aisle as they preceded the bride.

The groom was attired in a light grey tuxedo, trimmed in dark grey with a white stephanotis boutonniere. Larry Westbrook, best man, was in a matching grey tuxedo with a white carnation boutonniere. Ushers were Timothy and Joe Kim Lipham, Richard Nelson, brother of the bride, and Terry Westbrook and Kelly Sue.

Guests were registered by Amy Jones and Terri Gentry, attired in floor length gowns.

RECEPTION

A reception in the fellowship hall of the church followed the wedding ceremony.

Charlotte Spurlock, sister of the bride, and Kim Soto, sister of the groom, served at the bridal table. The 3-tiered wedding cake was a garland of daisies frosted in a soft yellow and covered with three sizes of tiny white daisies with tall, airy columns. Frolicsome cherubs and a miniature fountain were between the tiers of cake. The third tier was adorned with a moonlite ornament with the bride and groom dressed as Julianne and Eric.

Yellow fruit punch and yellow wedding bell mints were also served. The bride's table was covered with a floor length pleated white linen cloth with an over skirt of white illusion which was caught up at the corners with yellow bows. Silver candelabra held four yellow tapers and the bride's bouquet.

Serving at the groom's table were Paula Nelson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Brenda Clappitt, sister of the groom.

of the bride.

A German chocolate cake was served from the grooms table. It was decorated with double fudge frosting and a garland of yellow daisies.

Coffee was served from brass, copper and gold appointments. The grooms table was round and covered with yellow under cloth and a white ecru lace and linen over cloth.

A bridal picture of Julianne centered the groom's table.

The bride is a 1981 graduate and the groom a 1980 graduate of Floydada High School. He is employed at Cornelius Conoco of Floydada.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will reside in Floydada.

COURTESIES

A rehearsal dinner hosted by the grooms parents was held at King's Restaurant.

Mrs. Roy Kidd hosts "Stuffed Potato Party" for Rebecca Evans

Saturday, May 23, Mrs. Roy Kidd honored graduating high school senior, Rebecca Evans with a "Stuffed Potato Party." The occasion took place at 1 p.m. in the home of the hostess. Several close friends were also honored.

Rebecca wore a three piece pastel pink pantsuit and was greeted with a corsage of silk white daisies trimmed with blue and white polka dot ribbon.

Four tables covered with blue pinstripe cloths were set. They were accented with centerpieces of tole painted porcelain cups, trimmed with blue and white bows. Drinks were served out of fruit jars with the same ribbon trim.

The senior girls enjoyed serving themselves buffet style and prepared their own potatoes, using their favorite stuffing. Toppings included sour cream, butter, onion flakes, bacon bits, hamburger meat, butter, and cheese. Cantalope, pickles, olives and salad were also available with iced tea.

Following the meal, Mrs. Kidd congratulated the special guest, Rebecca, and her senior friends on their accomplishments and wished them success in their future.

Rebecca was presented with a book of quotes as a token of the occasion.

Guests attending who also signed the book were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Bill Evans and friends; Julie Frizzell, Sharon Spencer, Penny Sterling, Rosalind Hill, Tammy Hayes, Roxanne Ford, Tonya Nance, Cindy Michaelson, and Julie Ferguson, and the special guest, Rebecca.

Also helping host the occasion and attending were other members of the Kidd family, Roy, Phillip and Dale.

Red Cross marks its 100th anniversary

The Floyd County chapter of the American Red Cross opened its 100th anniversary campaign this week according to O.M. Watson Jr., chapter chairman. "There will not be a personal contact for the Red Cross," Watson said. "An envelope addressed to the Floyd County Chapter will be furnished in which to mail a 1981 contribution." "Last year we reminded Floyd County residents to put the Red Cross into their 1981 budget. We hope they did. Now we ask that they mail their check to the Red Cross, Floydada or deposit it in the First National Bank, Floydada." In addition to disaster aid throughout the nation, activities in Floyd County this year included service to men and women in the Armed Forces, a class on how to take blood pressure, and classes on First Aid and CPR. The Floyd County chapter also sponsored two meetings to coordinate disaster plans in the county with the Floyd County Sheriff's Office, County Municipalities, and county officials. The Red Cross and NBC Television will sponsor a campaign this summer to teach Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation classes throughout the United States. Committee members of the Floyd County chapter include Sam Spence, service to Armed Forces personnel; Jerry Finley, First Aid instructor; Marilyn Tate and Jett Major, Health Education; and the chapter team to teach how to take blood pressure, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Marquis, Mrs. Joyce Williams and Mrs. Hester Moore. Red Cross is 100 years old this year and is having a nation wide birthday party.

Nothing beats the flavored taste of...

Gas Grilling is versatile. You can sizzle a steak grill, ham, barbeque a bird, roast a potato. You can cook many varieties of ways, many at the same time.

Gas Grilling is delicious. You get that great outdoor without the charcoal mess. You need a gas grill. There's no wait either, you reach cooking temperature.

Gas Grilling is economical. You can cook a full family dinner for less than a penny. Gas grilling costs less than what it would cost on an electric grill. The cost for a national survey proved it.

Gas Grilling is cooler. It keeps the heat out of the kitchen. You don't have to wait. It's important during the summer. Gas grilling is the perfect meal maker for the year.

And, Gas Grilling is now 20% off. Buy now and you'll save 20% off the price. The price has been reduced 20% from August 1, 1981. ... and so on.

Center receives showers

By Mrs. J.E. Green
Monday, June 1:

Another month has gone by. We are grateful for the showers Friday night and Saturday night. Sunday was a nice day. Good crowds at church.

Some of us - Mrs. Frizzell and Ma Green are a bit in disposed today. Other ladies are busy in Vacation Bible School.

Mrs. Henry Brewer continues to be not so well at home. Visitors in the home Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Millard Watson of Mt. Blanco, and from Littlefield Rest Home. Mrs. Brewer's brother, Burnen Forman and his daughter, Mrs. Inez Jackson.

Mrs. Mize visited Mrs. Fred Batty Friday evening.

Miss Vera Meredith's visitors Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Mize and Bro. and Mrs. Clay Muncy.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son, David of Lubbock, came Saturday afternoon for a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas.

Son Clyde Green of Peralta, New Mexico called Thursday nite to say he and family of the home were to leave by plane from Albuquerque Friday for London, England via Chicago. And for other points in Europe on vacation. They expect to meet their other daughter and husband in Austria.

Our sympathy is with the Morris Carroll family whose paternal grandfather passed away recently in a Dallas hospital.

Mrs. Ava Jackson visited Mrs. Flora Warren Sunday.

Mrs. Jackson's daughter, Mrs. Beth Wright of Colorado City sustained a broken arm a few days ago. A broken wrist, I understand.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Myers of Canyon visited Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield one day last week.

Mrs. Ethel Warren dined Friday with Mrs. Leo Frizzell.

Mrs. Sally Carpenter is back in the Lockney Rest Home after a siege in the Lockney Hospital.

Mrs. Ashton has good days, and not so good, also in Lockney Rest Home.

REMEMBER your loved ones and friends with a memorial to Lockney General Hospital Memorial Fund. These memorials go toward equipment to help serve our community in the best way possible.

Perspectives

Something happened in the news this past week. About the same time that the Rev. Jerry Falwell and the Moral Majority are getting ready to announce their intention to boycott, there was a story about the producers of the cable TV market along the lines of the show - miss the question, remove a piece of clothing. It is much like trying to plug one leak only to have another one pop up that but the patches are leaking a bit, too, since not everyone is a leak and keeps picking at the patches. The worst thing to happen to CBTV was the enthusiastic support by the Rev. Jerry Falwell and the Moral Majority. People became upset with that group during the last elections, and if something, worthwhile or not, they will be against it. Really something here to worry about? Is TV going off the deep end so should we be trying to change it? What about the first amendment and people's right to freedom of censorship? We will not work. The way we are, the more forbidden something we want it. "Banned in Boston" used to be the way to ensure the work. That many valuable pieces of literature have been deemed to be of general use in our society. Taste is not a criteria either, since education, upbringing, and a host of other factors cause differences of opinion even among Christians. I commend the efforts of CBTV to present its feelings about and to encourage its supporters to be active. I still think the best way to exercise the off button. I like a program, turn it off. I write the networks and tell them why you are not watching a program and compliment them when they run something worthwhile. I hope the network listened to the viewers and picked up the defunct program, a show that along with the also defunct Waltons I did not care

Social Security News

The records of 25,000 SSI disability recipients, who were converted from State welfare disability rolls, are being reviewed to see if they continue to meet the criteria for disability. In addition, an increasing number of social security disability beneficiaries are also having their records reviewed. The purpose of the review - or continuing disability investigation - is to improve program management. Previously, disabled SSI recipients who were on State welfare rolls prior to January 1974, when the SSI program went into effect, had been excluded from such review. Continuing Disability Investigation involves a review of pertinent records to determine whether a recipient has recovered sufficiently so that he or she should no longer be considered disabled. Priority is being given to SSI recipients since there is reason to believe that some of them no longer meet the medical criteria for disability or blindness. In the case of converted SSI recipients, the State's disability criteria at the time they were found to be disabled continue to apply. Ordinarily, a Continuing Disability Investigation is conducted whenever earnings are posted to a person's social security record, when he or she reports medical improvement or returns to work, when a medical reexamination is scheduled, or when new evidence indicates that the person is no longer disabled. Any person who disagrees with the determination has the right of appeal. In fact, the forms sent out by social security advise people what to do if they do not agree with a decision. An appeal can be filed at any local social security office. If you have social security or medicare questions you may call our toll-free number for more information. The number is 1-800-392-1603. Teleservice will save you time, energy and money!

We are moving forward full speed with a plan to relieve the problem of over-crowding in the Texas prison system. Through a new conditional parole program utilizing existing halfway houses and a temporary tent encampment within the perimeter of prison security areas, we will be able to get 3,000 inmates who now sleep on Department of Corrections floors into more-comfortable facilities by July 1. Our plan is responsive to the order of Federal District Judge William Wayne Justice to eliminate triple-celling of inmates by August. Attorney General Mark White is seeking a stay of Judge Justice's far-reaching decision with regard to the Texas prison system, many aspects of which we strongly disagree with. We do agree, however, that over-crowding must be eliminated promptly. Hopefully, 750 inmates will be paroled to halfway houses by June 1 and another 750 before July 1. Meanwhile, I have recommended $16 million be appropriated for intensively-supervised halfway houses during the next biennium. Board of Pardons and Paroles contracts with halfway houses and individual parolee contracts will be drawn tightly to insure protection of law-abiding citizens, restitution to victims of crimes and minimum cost to taxpayers. A supplemental grant of $1.25 million from the Governor's Office of General Counsel and Criminal Justice to the Board of Pardons and Paroles permits immediate placement of conditional parolees in halfway houses. Inmates will receive the highest degree of supervision to assure protection of the public. Initial conditional parolees have been identified and are being processed to halfway houses with advice of local judges, prosecutors and sheriffs. Meanwhile, we are obtaining military tents from the Texas National Guard to house another 1500 low risk inmates temporarily within prison unit security areas. July 1 is our goal for this relocation. The tents, which have been used by our loyal servicemen in the field, will certainly be a preferred alternative to triple-celling of inmates during a brief, five-months period. The Legislature already has approved my emergency request for a $35 million appropriation to construct additional permanent housing for inmates. When this construction is completed November 1, inmates who have spent the summer and early fall in the tent encampments will be transferred to the new quarters. Texas Department of Corrections is studying possible purchase of the Harris County Rehabilitation Center or building new facilities on state land to expand work furlough programs under my $18 million appropriations request. We have also increased funding for adult probation programs. The TDC construction program for the 1982-83 biennium will provide 10,800 additional permanent bed spaces by August 31, 1983. I am encouraged, based on my meeting with U.S. Attorney General William French Smith, that the Reagan Administration is re-examining its position in the lawsuit involving the Texas prison system. I am increasingly hopeful of a stay on appeal of the Ruiz v. Estelle suit. We are, indeed, in a crisis situation, however—one which could cost the state billions of dollars. I am confident the programs I have set out will eliminate the problem of inmates sleeping on floors by July 1, without need for wholesale release to homes via an inadequately-supervised work furlough arrangement. All of this has been undertaken in good faith and with integrity to alleviate the situation in our prisons. I believe that Judge Justice will be pleased with our efforts.

County joins Floyd Floyd County remains in Foster Whaley's district

Representative Whaley said, "I am very pleased to have the three rural counties of Carson, Crosby, and Hardeman added to my district. I regret very much that Mr. Healey had to lose any of his present district. There was no other way for my district to expand. We will endeavor to serve the new counties that have been added to the very best of our ability." The combined agricultural income from the proposed new district exceeded $539,560,000.00 in 1979. The three new counties had agricultural incomes in 1979 as follows: Carson - $60.6 million; Hardeman - $26.8 million; and Crosby - $63,910,000.00. Representative Whaley and his wife, Lois, live on an irrigated farm west of Pampa. They have farming and ranching interests in Carson and Armstrong Counties. Their operation is leased out and they serve on a full-time basis in his state representative work.

Representative Foster Whaley's district was expanded to include Hardeman and Crosby Counties. Representative Bob Simpson lost Floyd County and picked up Deaf Smith County, the dean of the House, and Healey County. Counties to Representative Whaley's district in additional areas that were added to the House Bill Clayton is from the House Bill Clayton is from the House, leaving his old district to be split up among Representatives Rudd, Simpson and Expansion of the Districts by Representative Whaley was necessary to bring up to the approximate required residents.

Margie Savage's My Savage World

Having a teenager in the house is pretty complicated. Having a teenager living away from home is doubly complicated especially when I was called upon to be a laundress and a delivery boy in the same day. Like most young people, my son thought it would be a social disaster if he lived at home one single moment after graduation. So he flew the coop and went to roost in his own apartment. However, among the Jet Set, it seems to be a status symbol to air their dirty laundry in their mother's house. The family had just finished the noon meal when my son came parachuting in on a dirty sheet with the rest of his laundry stuffed into a pillow case. "Will you wash these for me, Mom? I'm in such a hurry." He blew me a kiss as the air currents carried him away. Because I was as full as a 'possum in a persimmon patch, I was having difficulty bending down trying to touch the dirty sock toes when the telephone rang. It always rings 59 times when my son is in town. I think he must have my telephone number on his license plates. "Hello, no the Dirty Red Baron is not here. Yes, I'll give him a message if I can find him." I hopped on my trusty bike and pointed my nose into the wind. I went downtown and looked in all his favorite haunts: the fast-food food drive-in, the fast-food grocery store, and the fast-fill service station. But I couldn't find him. I kept looking. With my pointed nose, my broom-straw hair, and my flapping black sweater, I was not unlike the Wicked Witch of the West. The dogs must have seen the similarity for they began barking. "Slosh, slosh," went the tea in my stomach. "Bark, bark," went the dogs. "Slosh, slosh, bark, bark," we were making beautiful music together until the dogs began "nip, nip, nipping," at my heels. I changed into high gear and trumpeted away. The bike, being second-hand was a bit rusty, but not nearly as rusty as I. My legs were becoming a bit wobbly. I was huffing and puffing. My chinny chin chin was quivering. I came upon a sign that said, "Inside sale. Come in." By this time, I was ready to sell my insides, so I went in. There was a papa bear chair which I immediately tried out. I tried it out for quite some time until I finally decided that it was too big. What I really needed was a momma bear bed so I could go into hibernation. I headed back to my den. Inside the den, the pungent odor of the dirty clothes told me that they had not gone into hibernation. The phone was ringing. "Hello, Mom. Where have you been? I've been looking all over for you. Do you have any messages for me?" "Yes, Son. Please have your license plates changed and do you think you could move back home?"

Public Notices

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

City of Floydada
114 West Virginia
Floydada, Texas 79235
(806) 983-2834

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS and persons:

On or about June 23, 1981, the above-named City of Floydada will request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to release Federal funds under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93-383) as amended, for a 3-year Comprehensive program to be used for the following projects:

ACTIVITY	ESTIMATED COST
1.3 Voluntary Relocation	$95,000
1.4 Clearance/Demolition	32,000

All of the above referenced projects will be located in a target area located in north Floydada. Bounded on the north by Prince Street, on the east by 12th Street, on the south by Missouri Street and on the west by 3rd Street.

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above-named City of Floydada has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190).

The Reasons for such decision not to prepare such Statement are as follows:

VOLUNTARY RELOCATION - Low/moderate income owner-occupants whose applications for housing rehabilitation grants are turned down due to the lack of feasibility to rehabilitate their homes will be offered a relocation housing payment. The housing payments will be utilized by the homeowners to acquire a safe, sanitary, standard dwelling. This activity will provide decent housing and a suitable living environment for these relocated families. The effective benefits of a well developed relocation program far outweigh any temporary inconvenience to the relocated families.

CLEARANCE ACTIVITIES - Unoccupied and dilapidated structures, abandoned vehicles and uncleared overgrown lots in the project area create serious threats to public health and safety and contribute to overall neighborhood blight. The project will seriously reduce this problem through a comprehensive program in the community. No major effects on environmental pollution or neighborhood development are expected.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the within projects has been made by the above-named City of Floydada which documents the environmental review of the projects and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request in the office of the City Secretary between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

No further environmental review of such projects is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of Federal funds.

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City of Floydada, to the office of the undersigned. Such written comments should be received at P.O. Box 10, Floydada, Texas, 79235 on or before July 13, 1981. All such comments so received will be considered and the City of Floydada, will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the within projects prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

The City of Floydada will undertake the projects described above with Block Grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City of Floydada is certifying to HUD that the City of Floydada and

A&M course offered

"I'm sorry, but you don't have any skills. We're looking for experience."

Most job applicants have been told this at least once in their quest for employment. It can be very devastating to the unskilled person. Finding skills training can sometimes be as difficult as finding that first job.

Recognizing the need for skills training in an area with abundant job opportunities, the Construction Equipment Training Division of the Texas Engineering Extension Service, a part of the Texas A&M University System, initiated a heavy equipment operators training program. Students in the program spend eight weeks learning to operate crawler tractors, motor graders, motor scrapers, draglines and hydraulic backhoes.

FLOYD DATA
Louzilla Nichols returned to her home Tuesday. She left May 9 to visit her daughter and husband, Glen and Ruby Jewel Whitfill in Sweetwater.

A surprise birthday party was given in Roscoe by Mr. and Mrs. Jim McDonald for Mrs. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whitfill and Mr. and Mrs. Cody Rudd also attended.

Memorial weekend, Mrs. Nichols and Glen and Ruby Jewel Whitfill traveled to Garland to visit Terry and Cindy Michaels, the Whitfill's daughter.

Parnell Powell in his official capacity as Mayor consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval the City of Floydada may use the Block Grant funds and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. HUD will accept an objection to its approval only if it is on one of the following bases: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the certifying officer or other officer of applicant approved by HUD; or (b) that applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision finding or step applicable to the project on the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58) and may be addressed to Community Development Department of Housing & Urban Development, 2001 Bryan Tower, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection received after July 13, 1981 will be considered by HUD. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Floydada is Parnell Powell.

NOTICE OF EXPLANATION ON FLOOD PLAINS AND WETLANDS

City of Floydada
114 West Virginia
Floydada, Texas 79235
(806) 983-2834

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

The City of Floydada proposes to use Federal funds provided under Title 1 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1974, as amended, for the following projects in an area which is included in the 100-year flood plain:

Clearance/Demolition - This project is needed to remove all vacant dilapidated dwellings and other structures such as abandoned automobiles and appliances which have accumulated throughout the area. It is also needed to alter the neighborhood of overgrown lots, junk piles, and areas that are breeding grounds for rodents and areas that create a health hazard to the Citizens.

Code Enforcement - This project is required so that the City will have the administrative mechanism to plan, and enforce all local codes, standards and ordinances. These standards will act as a base for conservation of the existing housing stock or prevent further blight throughout sections of the area.

Voluntary Relocation - Families will be voluntarily displaced under this project. Some of these may be located in the 100-year flood plain area of the Target Area. In such cases, relocation of the displaced occupants will be to sites located outside of the flood area. Removal of these dwellings from the flood plain will eliminate a current public safety hazard and therefore use of Federal funds for this effort in the flood plain is justified.

It is the City's finding that the proposed projects cannot be undertaken in any other location and, therefore, there is no practicable alternative to the proposed project. Failure to provide these improvements will result in the continued deterioration and blight of a low/moderate income area of the City of Floydada. It is the City's judgement that the continued viability of this low/moderate income area outweighs consideration of Executive Order in 11988.

A more detailed description of these projects and the FIA flood maps are available for citizen review at the Floydada City Hall, 114 West Virginia, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Comments on these projects in relation to Executive Order 11988 will be considered until June 22, 1981. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Floydada is Parnell Powell, Mayor.

Paymaster 792 Cotton

Early maturing, high yielding, widely adapted

Here's your cotton for late planting or replanting. Paymaster 792 is a favorite with many growers because it combines high yield potential with extreme earliness. Paymaster 792 tolerates growing stress and adapts well to all row widths. Exhibits good Verticillium wilt tolerance. Give us a call. Find out how Paymaster 792 can help with your cotton program.

Young cotton takes beating, wheat harvest looks hopeful

BY Joyce Williams

About 3 inches of rain have fallen over the community this past week. Quite a lot of the new cotton was hailed out, or dusted out, but the hail was not severe enough to wipe the wheat out and it looks like there will still be a wheat harvest in Lakeview. Afternoon showers that carry hail could change the situation in minutes, however. Grass in pastures and lawns looks beautiful. There will be lots of weed chopping this summer. Sand fighters are scratching cotton land and some combines have already moved in waiting for fields to dry so that they can start cutting.

Mr. Walter Craft, father of Mrs. Dee Adams, is still in Caprock Hospital. A daughter from San Antonio is planning to visit soon, to visit her father and other relatives.

Lightning struck a barbed wire fence at the Q.D. Williams, welding the closing chain on a wire gate, traveled down the fence and killed a calf.

Mrs. Donna Garrett and son, Jason of Lawton, Oklahoma were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertrand during the wedding of her sister, Kim to Dean Hinton last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Monday of Eastland, and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertrand for Kim's wedding. Darryl read the marriage service for his sister-in-law.

Other Bertrand guests included Mrs. Bertrand's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harvell Stambaugh of Cross Plains.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams met Mrs. Liz Rojas, of Roosevelt, at the Gold Room at Hemphill-Wells for lunch Monday and kept her little daughter, Deborah, while Liz registered for summer school at Texas Tech.

Mrs. William Bertrand honored her sister, Mrs. Orville Newberry, with a "39th" birthday dinner Tuesday, at Faye's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gentry of Slaton spent Friday night with their son's family, the Travis Gentry's, to see their granddaughter, Terri graduate with honors from Floydada High School. Terri was elected to National Honor Society, ranked tenth in her class in academics, was chosen to Who's Who, works for the dentists' office in town, and plans to attend West Texas State University next fall to study dental hygiene.

Congratulations to Mr. W. Earl Edwards for his recognition received at Old Settlers for the work he has done for the community over the years. And here's an orchid to Mrs. Edwards, also, for the educational and volunteer contributions she's made over the years.

Rance and Lacy Golightly are attending Vacation Bible School at First Baptist Church in Floydada this week. Their mother, Mrs. Dayne Golightly, is helping teach the first grade class.

Rance also plays baseball this summer with Dyson's Circle-S team, coached by Bobby Gilliland and Keith Thomas.

Saturday night dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Womack were Joe's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Copp and son, Jody, of Lasbuddie; his brothers, Jay and Tracy Womack and a guest, Karen Walker, all of Stephenville, and Joe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Womack and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Jester of Floydada.

Mrs. Joe Womack has been helping her sister, Mrs. Vicky Ochoa, prepare to open her private day care center at 102 E. Hallie. Vicky is certified by the state and ran the Beverly Hills Baptist Day Care in Dallas.

It seems like every spring is annual paint-the-wood-siding time it's probably because moisture has collected behind the siding causing the paint to peel. After your annual repainting this year, take one more step which may end the yearly ritual. Vent your siding. This can be done by boring holes in the siding and inserting aluminum vents, or by driving small aluminum wedges up under the laps on the siding. Both the vents and wedges are available for this purpose.

Plastic vents are also available which are inserted in holes bored through the bottom of the siding section. A jig is available to properly angle your drill. Perhaps the simplest siding vent is a nail and metal sleeve set. The whole thing is driven into the siding - the nail comes out and the vent remains.

Program Building Executive officers elected

The Floyd County Program Building Executive Committee members met for a breakfast meeting May 28, 7:30 at King's Restaurant. Acting president James Hinton presided. Lillian Smith was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the vacancy left in that office.

Discussion was made on revising the long range county program workbook. Every five years the committee reevaluates the different areas or needs, to stay updated on the county situation revising and implementing areas of interest in Floyd Co.

The organization has expanded its commitment to the people by forming a Community Resource Committee. These two committees add dimension to the program building process and assist the executive committee of extra curricular activity. Each committee member was handed workbooks to revise.

Members attending were

Warren Mitchell, and Juanita Broseh, of Lockney; James Hinton, LaVada Garrett, Mike Hinsley, Roger Dawdy, Hester, Lillian Smith and agents Marilyn Tate, Jett Majors and Ken Langley.

INSUR-MATION
Floyd County Insurance Agency
Jerry Cooper

In a Buy-and-Sell Agreement involving life insurance purchased on the lives of partners or stockholders to fund an agreement to purchase that portion of the business, are the proceeds taxable as included in the insured's estate?
If proceeds of the agreement policy are not payable to the insured's estate, and the insured has no incidents of ownership in the policies or his life, the proceeds are not includable in the gross estate and, therefore, not taxable. The value of his partnership interest or the corporate stock which he holds is includable in his estate, however, and is subject to Federal estate taxes. Incidents of ownership would be precluded by a provision in the agreement prohibiting the insured from surrendering or borrowing on the policy or changing the beneficiary.

If it seems like every spring is annual paint-the-wood-siding time it's probably because moisture has collected behind the siding causing the paint to peel. After your annual repainting this year, take one more step which may end the yearly ritual. Vent your siding. This can be done by boring holes in the siding and inserting aluminum vents, or by driving small aluminum wedges up under the laps on the siding. Both the vents and wedges are available for this purpose. Plastic vents are also available which are inserted in holes bored through the bottom of the siding section. A jig is available to properly angle your drill. Perhaps the simplest siding vent is a nail and metal sleeve set. The whole thing is driven into the siding - the nail comes out and the vent remains.

Texas Tech to hold tennis camp

The 1981 Texas Tech University Tennis Camp will be offered in three summer sessions: June 7-12, June 14-19 and June 28 through July 3. It is open to advanced, intermediate and beginning players ages 9-17.

Instruction will include daily programs of physical conditioning, singles and doubles play and seminars on tactics, injuries, and racket repair. Individual and group attention will be given to stroke production, strategy and drills.

Texas Tech men's tennis coach Ron Damron is camp director. Texas Tech varsity tennis players and other qualified instructors will teach.

Housing will be provided in Bromley Hall, a privately-owned dormitory east of the Texas Tech campus. Participants needing housing at Bromley Hall will be assigned double-occupancy rooms and can check in 2-4 p.m. the Sunday before each session begins. Bromley Hall will serve a meal each Sunday night and three meals each day of the camp.

Tennis camp enrollment fee for those needing housing is $150. Persons not needing housing may register for $10 and that includes lunch each day.

For information or to register, contact Damron, Texas Tech Tennis Camp, P.O. Box 4280, Lubbock, Texas, 79409, (806) 742-3355 or 793-0710.

Repertory tickets on sale

Tickets for individual shows in the 1981 three-hit season for Lubbock summer repertory theater are on sale at the Lubbock Civic Center.

"Oklahoma!," "110 In the Shade" and "The Robber Bridegroom" — all hit musicals with western themes — will be produced cooperatively by Civic Lubbock, Texas Tech University Theatre and Texas Tech Music Theatre.

This is the first year that the three groups have combined efforts to produce a summer repertory theatre, although other cooperative productions have been highly successful. Texas Tech University Theatre has offered a summer repertory program for more than 15 years. "Oklahoma!" will be presented June 19-20 and July 3-4. "110 In the Shade" will be performed June 26-27 and "The Robber Bridegroom" July 10-11. All performances begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Lubbock Civic Center Theater.

Barbecue dinners are planned for the June 19, June 27, July 3 and July 11 performances. Dinners will be served buffet style in the Civic Center courtyard at 6:30 p.m. those dates. Old West arts and crafts shows and wagon rides for children are planned in conjunction with several performances.

Tickets and information for both the musicals and barbecue dinners are available from the Texas Tech University Theatre, P.O. Box 4298, Lubbock, Texas 79409, or Civic Center or by calling (806) 742-1936.

"Oklahoma!," written by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, will be directed by John Gillas, director of the Texas Tech Music Theatre. The musical is based on the play "Green Grow the Lilacs." Set in the western United States at the turn of the century, it follows the love triangle between a farm girl, Laurey, cowboy Curly and the sinister farm hand Jud Fry.

"110 In the Shade," written by N. Richard Nash, Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, is based on the play "The Rainmaker." It will be directed by Paul Richards of New York City. The story is set in a small Southwestern town during a drought. It follows a rancher, worried about a lack of rain and a lack of suitors for his daughter Lizzie.

Six Flags Over Texas has begun daily operation following a spring season which saw average daily attendance up more than 16 percent over last year.

The theme park's general manager, Ray Williams, said more than a half million visitors were counted through Memorial Day.

"In 1980 we had an average of 11,260 guests per day," he noted, "and this year the daily average is up to 13,433. This indicates to us that prospects for the summer season are extremely strong."

He added, "When you consider the unusual amount of weekend rain we have had this year, the numbers are even more impressive. We'd say the state's tourism outlook is excellent. Our attendance is traditionally one of the best barometers."

For the summer months, Six Flags Over Texas is adding a nightly fireworks show to its entertainment lineup. The fireworks spectacular will be presented at 9:30 each evening through Labor Day.

Week of June 7 - 13

GEMINI

(May 22 - June 21) Conditions could change suddenly concerning a project you have been working on for some time so be ready for action.

CANCER

(June 22 - July 23) Someone you once cared for might need your assistance. Bills could pile up if they are not paid when received.

LEO

(July 24 - August 23) Starting a new business venture may be more on your mind than you are willing to admit to anyone, especially friends.

VIRGO

(August 24 - September 23) Misunderstandings with family members could be more upsetting to you than you think. Deal openly with feelings.

LIBRA

(September 24 - October 22) Genuinely warm emotions may start developing between you and someone you have not been friendly with in the past.

SCORPIO

(October 23 - November 22) Business dealings could take up more of your time. Loved ones might not approve of your current lifestyle.

SAGITTARIUS

(November 23 - December 22) Stick to your ideas or a scheming associate could try confusing you. Avoid being with this person a lot.

CAPRICORN

(December 23 - January 19) Confusing circumstances may lead to an amusing turn of events. Handle your financial ventures on your own.

AQUARIUS

(January 20 - February 18) A growing interest in a topic could lead to a new career. Children may bring you unexpected happiness soon.

PISCES

(February 19 - March 20) An acquaintance could be more intriguing to you than you realize. Career conflicts should be solved immediately.

ARIES

(March 21 - April 21) A childish streak may put you in a capricious state of mind. Your finances should be watched for a while.

TAURUS

(April 22 - May 21) Secrets from the past could be bothering a loved one. Business dealings may not run as smoothly as you'd like.

Plans are underway for the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Committee for season 1981

Six Flags Over Texas has begun daily operation following a spring season which saw average daily attendance up more than 16 percent over last year.

The theme park's general manager, Ray Williams, said more than a half million visitors were counted through Memorial Day.

"In 1980 we had an average of 11,260 guests per day," he noted, "and this year the daily average is up to 13,433. This indicates to us that prospects for the summer season are extremely strong."

He added, "When you consider the unusual amount of weekend rain we have had this year, the numbers are even more impressive. We'd say the state's tourism outlook is excellent. Our attendance is traditionally one of the best barometers."

For the summer months, Six Flags Over Texas is adding a nightly fireworks show to its entertainment lineup. The fireworks spectacular will be presented at 9:30 each evening

GSPA—TGSPB moves office to Abernathy

The offices of Grain Sorghum Producers Association (GSPA) and Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board (TGSPB) will be relocated in Abernathy, on June 1. Announcement of the move was made this week by Elbert Harp who is Executive Director of both organizations.

Grain Sorghum Producers Association, founded in 1955, is the only national organization of sorghum producers. It has approximately three thousand members with state organizations in Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. Its president is Mabry Foreman, a farmer and rancher who lives in Felt, Oklahoma.

GSPA is dedicated to its original goal to strengthen the economy of grain sorghum production through research, market development and legislation. Since its inception, GSPA has been the voice of the grain sorghum industry where legislative representation is needed.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board was established by a referendum of grain sorghum producers in 1969. It represents a 29-county area of the Texas High Plains. It is supported by a voluntary assessment of 5 cents per ton collected by the elevator. Checkoff programs are in effect on other commodities in most agricultural states. A mandatory assessment supports the Kansas Sorghum Commission.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board supports research to improve sorghum quality and to prove its value as a feed grain. The main thrust of TGSPB's effort has been directed to development and expansion of markets for grain sorghum. Through U.S. Feed Grains Council, TGSPB has introduced sorghum to worldwide markets which now consume 40 percent of the U.S. sorghum crop.

TGSPB funds may not be used for legislative representation. It operates under the Texas Commodity Referendum Law, supervised by the Texas Secretary of Agriculture. Its financial records are audited by state auditors. Larry Witten of Olton is Chairman of the TGSPB farmer-elected Board of Directors.

The new GSPA-TGSPB office is located in Abernathy (sixteen miles north of Lubbock), just off the new Interstate Highway 27. The mailing address is Box R, Abernathy, Texas 79311 and the telephone number is (806) 298-2543.

"By moving our offices to the new location in Abernathy," Harp said, "we will be able to reduce our operating expenses and concentrate the funds of both organizations where they will most effectively serve sorghum farmers."

Cotton dust research under way

Solons hear NCC president: National Cotton Council President Frank M. Mitchener recently told the South Carolina General Assembly the cotton industry is making an all-out drive to solve the cotton dust problem.

Addressing a joint session, Mitchener said more than $8 million worth of dust research is now under way largely as a result of funding by USDA and cotton farmers through Cotton Incorporated.

The Council president said over the next five years world consumption of cotton is expected to increase by 7 million bales or more, necessitating an average yearly increase in world cotton production of 1.25 million bales. He added American cotton growers probably will be called on to supply part of this.

Exports improve: Exports of 105,000 running bales of upland cotton were reported for the week ended May 7 to bring the season's total to 4,735,100. New sales for the season reached 33,700 running bales, of which South Korea purchased 22,900. Sales for 1981-82 totaled 16,300 bales, with Taiwan purchasing 7,800.

Trade balance improves: The U.S. textile trade balance improved during

IH introduces more efficient combine corn heads

CHICAGO — International Harvester has introduced a more efficient, lightweight and durable series of combine corn heads.

Other yield-raising features include a deeper ear picker, a rubberized bottom of stalk rolls, and a new gear case that allows for individual gear changes. Fewer gears and a new system further reduce weight.

Weight reduction was achieved by simplifying overall design and manufacturing many machine components from aluminum rather than cast iron. At the same time, stalk roll frames were made stronger and lighter by using channel steel instead of I-beams.

Stalk rolls also are two in. longer than previous IH corn heads. The extra length enables the gathering units to work nearer the ground, if necessary, to save more ears when stalks are down and tangled. Long stalk rolls also clear the bottom of the combine. The new design allows for a deeper ear picker, a rubberized bottom of stalk rolls, and a new gear case that allows for individual gear changes. Fewer gears and a new system further reduce weight.

Landscape & Gardening

BY KEN LANGLEY

Good watering practices usually mean a good harvest.

HOW TO TELL WHEN TO WATER — A REAL MYSTERY

It's safe to say that successful gardening in this area generally depends upon a good source of water. Although gardens can be grown "dry land," your chance of success with vegetable gardening is greatly increased if a water faucet is nearby.

To many of us one of the most enjoyable aspects of home gardening is watering. It can be quite enjoyable to see garden vegetables respond to a "drink" during the heat of mid-summer. Despite the fact that watering can be a great deal of fun, it is often associated with many problems. Many of the things which can plague us each year, such as bitter fruit, sunscald, disease problems, poor fertility, poor quality, poor yields and a dozen other things, can be related to poor and improper watering.

Many of us enjoy watering our garden after a hard day's work or just as a form of relaxation. So it is not at all unusual that many gardens get watered two, three or more times a week. Unfortunately, in most cases this is one of the worst things you can do since it can result in poor root development.

Light, frequent waterings have a tendency to cause a concentration of roots in the top inch or two of the soil. This type of "limited" root system does not pose any real serious problem early in the season when plants are young and sufficient moisture is generally available. However, as the season progresses and moisture becomes less and less available, you may be forced to water the garden several times a week just to keep plants from wilting severely. This practice results in insufficient nutrient uptake, poor growth and disease problems.

Water the garden not by looking at plants but rather by examining your soil. Look at the soil surface. If it appears dry, then scratch to a depth of 1 to 2 inches to determine if moisture is present. If soil is relatively dry beneath the surface, then watering is necessary. If sufficient moisture is available, wait a couple of days before applying additional water. Another point to consider is your garden soil. Obviously a sandy soil that drains well will require more frequent watering than a heavy soil which holds water.

How much water to apply is another mystery that confronts us. The amount of water to apply must be determined for each and every garden in the county. Apply enough water until you feel your garden is well watered. Then, take a sharpshooter or shovel and dig down and see if the soil is wet to a depth of at least 6 inches. If the soil is wet at that depth, you've watered enough. If it's relatively dry, then water some more. After doing this a couple of times, experience will tell you when you have watered enough.

How you water the garden is important, but adequate watering at the right time and in the right amount is more important than the method used. Most gardeners prefer the furrow or flood system as a means of applying water. Others prefer to use a sprinkler.

There are advantages and disadvantages to each method. The primary advantage of flood or furrow watering is that individual rows can be watered while this is not generally possible with a sprinkler. The main advantage with a sprinkler is that large areas of your garden can be watered without moving the hose from row to row or from area to area. One disadvantage of the sprinkler system is that wet foliage can lead to disease problems. If you prefer to use a sprinkler, then water in the morning to allow foliage to dry off before cooler evening temperatures set in.

Another method gaining in popularity is drip or trickle irrigation. This system is an effective and efficient means of watering your vegetable plants but its initial cost is high.

Proper use of water in the garden will be reflected in the amount of produce that you take from the garden to the kitchen.

Deep watering results in good growth of plants.

Around The County

By Jett Major

FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

The last two to three weeks of weather in Floyd County has not only caused many crops and pastures to suffer, but has also taken its toll on the temperment, patience and pocketbooks of some area farmers and ranchers who were sure (up until two weeks ago) that this would be a very productive year. It will still be a very productive year for many of the South Plains farmers and ranchers, but dry winds, washing rains and heavy hail has taken its toll on not only the promising wheat stands in the area, but also on the young stands of corn, grain sorghum, cotton, soybeans, bell peppers, and sunflowers as well as the grazing potential of the once lush green pastures in the county.

Dry winds have sapped the moisture out of the wheat causing a substantial reduction in yield potential of a crop that was to have yielded well above average before the high winds bleached it out. The winds have also caused many dryland and some irrigated farmers to postpone cotton planting and replanting operations because the fields that once had more than enough moisture to germinate cotton are now too dry to plant, much less get a stand of cotton up. The winds have even begun to yellow the pastures in the area, and we have yet to experience any hot dry weather comparable to that of last year which severely dried out the pastures and crops.

Heavy rain and hail wiped out several sections of wheat, and rendered considerable damage to corn stands Sunday afternoon in the Providence area. As much as three and one-half inches of rain and hail fell in a short period of time and the hail was so heavy in one area that it completely covered the furrows, turnrows and road and did not melt down for over a day and a half in spite of the hot weather which followed the storm. Many of the cotton, soybeans, sorghum and pepper fields in the area will have to be replanted, as will a few of the corn fields. This will no doubt cut the yield potential for some of these crops because of the short time left to get the crops replanted and established in time to fully mature before the first freeze. Before the hail Sunday, an estimated 85% of all cotton acreage to be planted was planted in the county.

Wheat continues to rapidly turn color as harvest time approaches. Despite the hail and dry winds, prospects for some very high yielding dryland and irrigated wheat remains good. Weather permitting, harvest could begin as early as the latter part of next week in some parts of the county.

After an unusually mild winter and an early spring which brought ample rains and good working, planting and growing weather, it looks like Floyd County producers must once again prepare to do battle with the adverse weather conditions and insect problems that summer often brings to the area.

Wheat agreement signed

Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng signed protocols for extending the International Wheat Agreement of 1971, which was due to expire on June 30. The protocols will now be submitted to the Senate for ratification.

The Wheat Trade Convention of 1971 and the Food Aid Convention of 1980 together comprise the International Wheat Agreement of 1971. The protocols for a two-year extension of the conventions were adopted in London March 6, 1981.

This sixth extension of the Wheat Trade Convention, like the five previous extensions, maintains the framework for international cooperation in wheat trade matters. The International Wheat Agreement continues to provide a framework for international cooperation in wheat trade matters.
