Very few Randall county people really appreciate the wonderful crops that were raised in Randall county this year until the county exhibit landed high in the premium list of three big fairs. The Randall County exhibit is a fair sample of the excellent crops being raised generally in this county. Randall county has something to talk about, and something to tell the world regarding our good county. It is known that Randall county presents more opportunities right now than any county in North-west Texas. The advantages are superior, and the price of land is low. What Randall county needs right now is an agency to get these facts before the world. That's the part of a Chamber of Commerce. We have a Chamber of Commerce, but it is not as active now as it would be if all of our citizens were interested in the organization and were contributing time and money to keep the organization moving and growing. With the showing that Randall county has made, there is more need right now for a live commercial organization than there was last year, or at any other time in the past. The live business men of Canyon should consider well the advantages confronting Canyon and Randall county before they decide that a Chamber of Commerce is not needed. It is needed, and needed very badly. Your dollars will be kept very materially in the worthy cause. The organization needs a little of your time.

Mrs. Miriam Ferguson won a complete victory in the Supreme Court when that body decided that she was entirely eligible to serve as Governor of Texas, if elected. The court upheld the amendment allowing women to hold office. To allow women to vote and not allow them to hold office would have been absurd. The court held that being a married woman was no bar against Mr. Ferguson, and being the wife of an impeached Governor did not enter the case. In other words, from a common sense standpoint, crime or misconduct is not a family affair, but affects only the guilty party. Finally, the court declares that a private citizen has no authority or right to question the qualification of a candidate for state office. That is the function of the legislature. This latter part of the decision is the best news in the case. It is believed that any private citizen is invested with the power to declare by injunction any candidate for public office from the party ballot, then politics and free government become scarce. Texas has seen too much government by injunction the past two years. It is disgusting, and we hope the Supreme Court has settled the case well and for all time.

Some legislator who doesn't know much about our colleges proposes to introduce in the next session of the legislature a bill which will place a high tuition upon college students, which tuition shall be used to pay for the rural schools. If this legislator will investigate, he will find that 90 percent of the college students in Texas are poor boys and girls who are going to college, not because they can afford it, but because they cannot afford to stay away from college. Those boys and girls in Texas who can afford to go to so-called "rich men's colleges" are leaving the state, because there are no such institutions in the state. If the legislator will further investigate, he will find that the poor rural schools are generally poor in money because the trustees will not levy sufficient tax to properly support the rural schools, but trust to the legislature to furnish the money that the patrons of the school should pay. There are a lot of things about the school business that some of our so-called statesmen do not understand.

When this section of the state started to raise cotton it was a very common remark to hear men who had been brought up in the cotton patch, so to speak, say that they regretted very much to see this country go into the cotton business. Now that cotton picking time is here, you hear the same remark. Cotton raising don't seem to suit a lot of our people. The unfortunate part is that this season has not been very favorable. Seed was poor and scarce. The spring was dry and cold. June was the hottest June in the history of this country. All in all cotton has had a hard time making good this year. Then came worms which worked on the late cotton. However, all these things should not discourage the farmers. Next season will be more favorable, no doubt. A little cotton acreage, together with other diversified crops, means much to this section of the state.

Higgins News:—We read something like this the other day: "If we want to make the Palo Duro a state or national park, we must begin by taking an interest in the park ourselves." The best way to put a project over is to put it over. And that means personal work, personal supervision and personal enthusiasm. When the state of Texas wakes up to the fact that a pretty park is being made out in the wilds of the Panhandle, Texas will be proud to step in and help the cause along. When Uncle Sam sees that Texas is going right ahead improving its beauty spots and making a good job of it, Uncle Sam will take a hand in helping make a great park in Texas. But neither Texas nor Uncle Sam is going to set the ball rolling. The folks right at home must first be up and doing and by getting the park on its feet and a going concern, attract attention down at Austin and later at Washington, it can be did.

Randall County won third place at the Dallas State Fair in the county exhibits. Hale County won first place and Floyd County won second. Randall County won second place at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, winning out over Floyd. At the Lubbock fair, Randall lost first place to Dawson, while at Dallas, Dawson went down to fifth place. West Texas counties won the highest places at the Dallas Fair and made a wonderful reputation for this section in the greatest fair in the Southwest. County Agent J. W. Jennings is responsible for Randall County's place in these fairs. He went out and gathered the exhibit, prepared it for the display, and then accompanied the exhibit to the three fairs. He deserves a vote of thanks from the people of this county.

The good people of Wayside are to be commended for having purchased the old home of Col. and Mrs. Chas. Goodnight in the Palo Duro Canyon and will deed this site to the State for a State Park. Mr. and Mrs. Goodnight are the earliest settlers on the Plains, and that their old home is to be preserved is good news to the people generally in this section. The purchase also carries out the idea advocated months ago by the News that if the people of this section really want a state or national park of the Palo Duro Canyon, it must be our first move; that we must obtain a portion of the canyon before the state or national government will be interested in assisting us with the project.

Saturday afternoon will be a legal holiday in Canyon while the Buffaloes beat Simmons. It is Home Coming Day, and hundreds of visitors will be here to see the game. The game itself will be the biggest game of the season for the home grounds, and is the first T. I. A. A. game for the Buffaloes this year. The fact that a Canyon boy and graduate of the Buffalo team is coach of the Simmons team adds much to the interest in the game. Everyone in Canyon is going to help the Buffaloes beat Simmons.

According to the straw vote in the Literary Digest this week Coolidge lead with 1,066,214 votes; La Follette second with 432,660; Davis third with 384,205. That looks bad for Davis until you consider the electoral vote, when you find that Coolidge carries 37 states, Davis 11 and La Follette only 1. The straw vote has only 1,903,004 so far.

Canyon will have a wonderful display of tulips next spring with more than 6,000 bulbs set out this fall. The women of the town are now thinking of other flowers which will follow the tulips. Canyon has an opportunity to become the most beautiful town on the Plains, and a few flowers well attended at each home will make this the leading flower town of the Plains.

The people of Canyon are very much interested in seeing constructed the White Way along Fourth Avenue and up Tenth Street to the new depot. This improvement will add much to the beauty and attractiveness of Canyon, and is one that is very much needed. All citizens on this avenue and street should get behind the program to build the White Way.

The popular legend that Geraldine Farrar was born under a lucky star is indeed substantiated when one reviews the many fields of endeavor which she has constantly and enthusiastically trod in working out her artistic ability.

In the glittering pre-war days, when Royalty nodded its approval to all the arts, Miss Farrar was singled out as a figure of rare promise. It was, however, her fondest hope and desire that this promise might be fulfilled in its greatest measure in her own country, before her own people. How her ardent wishes and unceasing labors in this respect have affected the fulfillment has become a matter of musical history. Though her success may read like a fairy tale, accomplished with little effort, Miss Farrar attributes them to her most precious gift—her New England heritage of undiscouraged determination to succeed.

If a lucky star does play any part in her destiny, she endeavors to sustain its guidance by diligent application and intelligent direction of its benefits. It is well known that Geraldine Farrar is an indefatigable student, whose discernment and efficiency have made it possible for her to lay aside at times prescribed traditions, and follow the lines of her own individual expression. During the past two seasons after each concert program of songs, listed in the approved classical order, she has concluded the evening with the "Habenera." Hardly did her auditors glimpse the familiar, roguish face under the flower-draped mantilla before a storm of approval and applause swept over the house, followed after the concert by an avalanche of letters, beseeching her to satisfy the opera hungry with something more than this elusive and tantalizing tidbit. Keen to perceive the constantly shifting tastes of the present day audiences, and welcoming so overwhelming a verdict to appear in the fascinating role of the gypsy "Carmen," so long identified with her in opera, records, records and cinema, Miss Farrar has evolved a novel and colorful version of Carmen. Not content to sponsor the usual conventional offering of grand opera, and inspired by the truly immortal work, unhampered and independent of traditions, she has essayed a presentation to enchant the eye, ear and emotions alike.

The costumes and scenic effects for this revised version have been designed to follow suggestions by Zuloaga, foremost of Spanish painters. The ensemble of orchestral players has been recruited from the ranks of the best. The principal parts will be entrusted to artists of proved ability; the dances arranged to harmonize with this modern fantasia, and the presentation as a whole bids fair to strike a new note in the annals of operatic offerings.

In making shark fin soup, the Chinese boil the fins and otherwise treat them until they take on the appearance of fan-like flakes and filaments of pure gelatine. The eyes of the shark, after they are boiled, lose their outer covering, and the residue becomes quite hard and has a sort of shifting light in its texture. These shark eyes are then mounted on pins or other forms of jewelry and present an unusual appearance.

America's tax burden in the year 1923 was $755,000,000 heavier than the year preceding, and in ten years taxation has increased more than $5,500,000,000. Total taxes in 1923 were $7,716,000,000 against $6,961,000,000 in 1922.

NOTICE OF SALE UNDER CHATTEL MORTGAGE.

The State of Texas, County of Randall, WHEREAS, on the 9th day of September A. D. 1924, J. T. Lane and D. G. Houston of Randall County, Texas, made, executed and delivered to J. S. McCormick a certain chattel mortgage on the following described personal property, to wit: All of the furniture and fixtures in what is known as the Palace Cafe, more particularly described as follows: One 35 foot counter; 14 porcelain stools; 1 Victor Safe; 1 Hall Rack; 3 show cases; 8 square dining tables; 6 large dining tables; 50 dining chairs; 1 electric fan; 1 meat box; 6 candy and chewing gum jars; 1 Oliver typewriter; 2 round dining tables; 1 coffee urn; 1 electric ceiling fan; 1 large refrigerator; 1 cigar lighter; 1 large buffet; 1 small side board; 1 large heater; 1 cash register; 1 large water cooler; 2 pyrene fire extinguishers; 1 new majestic range No. 22,325; 1 door electric fan; all dishes, knives, forks and spoons, and all kitchen utensils, which said chattel mortgage is duly registered in the Chattel Mortgage records of Randall County, Texas, in Vol. 10 Page 146, and is Chattel Mortgage No. 7193 in said register.

Said Chattel Mortgage was given for the purpose of securing the payment of Two Certain promissory Notes executed by the said J. T. Lane and D. G. Houston, one for the sum of $800.00, and due on or before October 5th, 1924, and one installment note for the sum of $2500.00 payable in 33 monthly installments of $75.00 each and the 34th installment of $25.00, the first installment being due November 1st 1924, said notes dated September 9th 1924, and bear interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum.

Said Chattel mortgage specially providing that on the default of the payment of the principal or interest on any note, when due that the mortgagee is authorized at his option to declare all of said notes due and to take actual possession of the property, and sell same at public auction for cash according to law as same is made governing the sales of personal property under execution.

And, whereas the said J. T. Lane and D. G. Houston, failed and refused to pay the principal and interest due on the $800.00 note above mentioned, when same became due on October 5th 1924, and that on or about the 14th day of October 1924 the said J. T. Lane and D. G. Houston abandoned said property, and because of the failure of said parties to pay said note when due the said J. S. McCormick, the holder of said note, and the mortgagee in said mortgage has elected to declare all of said notes due, and has on this the 15th day of October 1924 taken possession of said property. That all of the above described notes, both principal and interest are now due and unpaid.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given that on the 27th day of October A. D. 1924, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., J. S. McCormick, the mortgagee in said mortgage and the payee in said notes, will proceed to sell the above described property, at the Court House door in Canyon, Randall County, Texas, to the highest bidder, for cash, for the purpose of satisfying the above described notes.

Said sale to be made in conformity to and with the terms of the Chattel mortgage above described.

In Testimony whereof, witness my hand at Canyon, Texas, this 15th day of October A. D. 1924.

J. S. McCORMICK, Mortgagee.

THE PASSING DAY

By W. H. Mays, Department of Journalism, University of Texas.

A friend whom I have known many years, and who I never heard speak a word against any one, said to me the other day that the most noticeable change in his character as he grows older is that he becomes less critical of others and more inclined to concede that they have as much right as he to think and do as they please. Youth is inclined to be impetuous and to attempt to force the whole world to accept its ideas. Failing in the effort to implant its ideals in others, it is likely to become critical and to say things that should be left unsaid. As one grows older he comes to see, if he keeps his contact with the life about him, that others, as well as he, are largely the products of their environments and their training, and often are more to be pitied than censured if their views and their conduct are at variance with the commonly accepted standards of right.

One of the hardest lessons to learn, though, especially if one holds the position of teacher or preacher, is to avoid passing unfavorable judgment on those who do not accept your views. Most persons forget that they change their own views and their standards of conduct from time to time, and that they are only in very small part what they were in their early years. It is unfortunate if, despite this change which all thinking people recognize as inevitable, an individual grows harsh in his judgment of those who have not developed or changed along with him. The most miserable person is the old man or woman who has grown cynical and harsh and merciless along with age, and who has gotten out of attune with the world. The happy old age is that keeps close to the thoughts and to the lives of youth.

On his own account, even if the happiness of those about him is not considered, one cannot afford to drift into a pessimistic attitude toward life. It may be true that life today is not pitched along exactly the same lines as it was fifty years ago, but why complain of the change? We are living in a faster age, just as our parents lived in an age faster than that in which their ancestors lived. I can't bring myself to think, though, that the people are any worse than they were in "the good old days." In fact it seems to me that youth is better than it was then, that, with some exceptions of course, young people have higher ideals and motives and are making preparation for doing greater things in life. The age has laid aside a certain prudishness and assumed modesty noticeable in former years, but who can say that it is really any the worse for that.

Recently a young girl was talking to me about taking a ride with a party which her mother was to accompany. Inadvertently I asked why she did not take her father along, too. Her reply was that he was too grouchy and would spoil the drive for the whole party. Somehow I did not feel so sorry for the girl because she had such a father as I did for the father because he had such a disposition. To come to be recognized as a "grouch" by one's children is a plight to invite pity. That father has merely lost contact with the viewpoint of youth, and the mother has retained it. Perhaps it is because she has lived closer to the children that she is better prepared to understand them, and to enter into their pleasures as one of them.

Teachers have wonderful opportunities for living with young people in such intimacy that they themselves may remain young in mind if only they will. Unfortunately too many of them become dogmatic in their instruction, censorious in their methods, and disgruntled in their attitude toward life. When they do, they not only lose most of their influence on those they would reach, but a reaction is felt in their own lives that makes them "crusty" and "grouchy." The best teachers are learning this and as they do learn it the school room is losing most of its horrors for youth and is getting its right place in the hearts of the young. It is great to remain young just to know the viewpoint of youth.

DEVOE FLOOR PAINT

The Paint That Will Make Any Floor Beautiful

SOME floors are beautiful in themselves, but all floors, old or new, can be made beautiful with a glossy coat of paint that hides the old, worn surface, or new unattractive surface perfectly.

Devoe Floor paint is easy to apply, is spot-resisting, dries rapidly and is hard enough to protect the floor against a great deal of vigorous wear. Its coat is not brittle and does not crack, check or peel, but wears down gradually and evenly to the end.

Don't call a room beautiful until the floor has been made as bright and beautiful as paint can make it. See that your floors hold the beauty that they get . . . by using Devoe Floor Paint. . . sold in the most artistic and effective tints and tones.

BUFFALOES LOST TO N.M.

The Buffaloes lost their first game of the season Saturday to the New Mexico University at Albuquerque in a fast football game. The Buffaloes staged a comeback in the second half which all but swept the Lobos off their feet.
 The Lobos avenged the defeat of last year at the hands of the Buffaloes, winning the big end of the 12 to 6 score. The fast attack of the New Mexico boys in the first half swept the Buffaloes off their feet and before they realized what was going on the Lobos had annexed two scores. Once the Buffalo players realized they were up against a hard fighting team, the boys launched an attack in the second half which netted them one touchdown, and twice more the ball lucked but inches of going over for additional scores.
 Sixteen Redmen traveled to Albuquerque in the college bus, and pulled a surprise on the Buffaloes by appearing on the field in full regalia just as the game was starting.

First Quarter.
 After an exchange of punts, with the ball in New Mexico's possession on the fifty yard line, the Lobos ran through the line consistently and marched down the field with a ferociousness that stopped only after a touchdown. Try for goal by the place kick method failed. Brown kicked over the Lobos goal line. New Mexico kicked on their first down. With the ball in the middle of the field in hands of the Buffaloes, the quarter ended. Score Lobos 6—Buffaloes 0. First downs Lobos 6—Buffaloes 0. Yards punted; Lobos, two punts 55 yds.; Buffaloes, two punts, 75 yards. Passes, Lobos attempted two, none completed; Buffaloes attempted none.

Second Quarter.
 The second quarter opened with the ball in the Buffs' 40 yard line, second down 9 yards to go. One pass failed; another completed gave the Buffaloes their first down. Line plunges failed, pass failed. Kick blocked and the ball was in the Lobos' possession on the Buffs 45 yd line. Long made 20 yards through Buffs line. Mitchell threw Long back for 10 yard loss. Bivens intercepted a pass. Buffs ball on their 25 yard line. Hill kicked 45 yards. The Lobos completed a pass that put the ball on the 15 yard line, and line plunges took the ball over the goal line for the Lobos' second touchdown. The half ended with the ball on the Buffaloes 15 yard line in the possession of the Lobos with four downs to make. Scoring, Lobos 6, Buffaloes 0—Total: Lobos 12, Buffaloes 0.

Third Quarter.
 Brown kicked to Long; returned 15 yards. Ball on New Mexico's 25 yard line. An offside penalty forced the Lobos to kick. With the ball on the fifty yard line the Buffaloes staged a comeback and marched down the field passing and bucking with such quick precision that before the astonished Lobos could recover a touch down had been made. Try for goal by place kick failed. Dutton kicked to Burson who returned it 25 yards. Buffaloes kicked out of danger. Lobos kicked also. Quarter ended as Hill kicked 30 yards out of bounds. Scoring: Lobos 6, Buffaloes 6. First downs: Lobos, 0, Buffaloes, 5. Punts, Lobos two for 55 yards; Buffaloes, two for 70 yards. Passes, Lobos 0, Buffaloes, four incomplete, three completed. Penalties, Lobos 5 yards, offside. Total score N. M. U. 12; W. T. S. T. C. 6.

Fourth Quarter.
 The fourth quarter opened with New Mexico in possession of ball deep in their own territory. They kicked out of danger. Mitchell made a spectacular catch of Bivens 25 yard pass. Burson began to plough the Lobo line to pieces. Jennings found several holes in the New Mexico line. With 7 yards to go for a touchdown the Buffaloes called time out for a conference. A pass over the goal line failed, Lobos ball on their 20 yard line. They then opened a terrific attack and just as the whistle blew ending the game, Armstrong was stopped on the Buffaloes 5 yard line. Score Lobos 6; Buffaloes 0. First downs, Lobos 4; Buffaloes 4. Punts, Lobos one for 35 yards. Passes Lobos 0, Buffaloes two incomplete, one completed. Time out Lobos once, Buffaloes once. Penalties Lobos 5 yard offside.
 Total Score: Lobos 12; Buffaloes 6.
 Total summary: First downs, Lobos 16; Buffaloes 10. Punts, Buffaloes 5 for 190 yards; average 38 yds. Lobos 5 for 190 yards; average 32 yds. Passes, Buffaloes 14 attempted, 5 completed, 3 incomplete, 1 intercepted. Lobos: 4 attempted, 1 completed, two incomplete, one intercepted.

"Home Coming Day" To Bring Hundreds Of Ex-Students To College Next Saturday

Next Saturday is "Home-Coming Day." Ex-students will come from all over the Plains to visit the alma mater, and, more particularly, to witness the routing of the Simmons Cowboys.
 The game will be called at three o'clock. The bleachers formerly situated behind the wire have been placed on the south sidelines and have been reserved for visitors. Last year the Buffaloes decisively defeated the Cowboys on the latter's field before representatives of twenty colleges attending the Baptist Student Convention. The cow hands are still smarting under this humiliation and fully expect to even the count on this occasion.
 Students and Ex-Students of this college are doubly interested in this game because a famous "ex" P. E. Shotwell of Canyon, is head coach of the Baptist school's eleven.
 In the evening another attraction will claim the attention of the ex-students, the Ex-student Association Carnival. This will furnish great amusement, besides helping to finance the Mary E. Hudspeth Hall, which is the structure planned by the ex-students.
 Since the Thanksgiving game will be played in Las Vegas with Montezuma College this year, the Buffalo-Simmons game and Home-Coming Day furnish the best opportunity of the quarter for a reunion. A record breaking crowd is expected to be here next Saturday.

A REAL GOOD SHOW.
 COLE BROS.' SHOWS will visit Canyon Saturday November 1 for two performances. With each successive season one looks forward to the visits of the various tented aggregations that travel the country for the amusement of the people and no show is ever more heartily welcome than Cole Bros. They have made a reputation for themselves by giving the people a good highclass entertainment which appeals to all as interesting, amusing and instructive. Everybody loves horses and ponies. More especially does this apply to the ladies who with the little ones are the most loyal patrons. They are assured of the highest form of entertainment free from everything at all calculated to offend the most sensitive. In addition to the trained animal features, Cole Bros. have the very best of lady and gentlemen performers. The performing elephants and rare wild beasts Banty Bunny, the cute little baby elephant, the good night pony, together with the many prancing ponies in military drills and marches are especially pleasing to the little ones. The funny clowns, the many beautiful lady artists, the feature acts by the world's greatest gymnast, M. E. Roberts, in her death defying act in mid-air, the like of which has never been witnessed, will live long in memory when many other shows have faded away into forgetfulness. Don't fail to see the grand free street review. Two complete performances daily.

EAGLES BEAT HEREFORD

The Canyon High School Eagles annexed the second interscholastic football victory Friday afternoon by defeating the fast Hereford team by a score of 20 to 6.

The Eagles clearly outclassed their opponents throughout the game, but it was not a one-sided affair by any means. Hereford fought every inch of the way, and upon two occasions made things look pretty bad for the Eagles. The Eagles displayed a much faster class of football than showed in the Tulsa game the week previous.

Jones, Oldham, Donnell, Sanders, Hazlewood, Brown, Otis, Christian, Greenfield, Atkins and Martain, captain, started the game for the Eagles. A number of substitutions were made during the game by Coach Ray Hale, but each man in the Eagle line-up showed great stuff. Hines was clearly the outstanding man of the Hereford team.

Hereford received the kick-off, and was unable to gain. Kicked to the 41 yard line, where the Eagles started down the field and in five plays made a touchdown when Brown got away with a 25 yard forward pass. Goal failed, making the score 6 to 0. This was the only score of the quarter.

The first play in the second quarter was an attempted place kick by the Eagles, which failed. The ball was held in the Hereford territory, and soon a safety counted two more points for the Eagles. Right at the close of the quarter Jones intercepted a forward pass from the Hereford crew and raced 50 yards through five Hereford men for a touchdown. Goal failed. Score Eagles 14, Hereford 0.

Hereford came back fighting hard in the third quarter. Within five minutes a fumbled punt on the Eagles ten yards line gave the ball to a Hereford player, who carried it over, but goal failed, making the score 14 to 6.

The remainder of the third quarter was an even break, with advantage slightly in favor of Hereford.

The final period opened with Canyon defending her goal on the 30 yard line. Two dandy punts planted the ball near Hereford's goal and Brown went over on another forward pass, making the score 20 to 6.

Hereford received the kick-off, and Hines raced 56 yards through half of the Eagle team for a return, which was the sensation play of the game. Canyon intercepted a forward pass and kicked the ball to the other end of the field where it was held. When the whistle blew, the Eagles were in possession of the ball on Hereford 6-yard line and the first down.

The game throughout was entirely satisfactory from the Eagle team standpoint, and the standpoint of more than sixty rooters accompanied the Eagles.

CANYON HIGH SCHOOL EAGLES TO PLAY CLARENDON HI AT CLARENDON FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT 3:00

The Canyon high school Eagles will play the third interscholastic League football game Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock on the Clarendon high school ground. The Eagles were to meet the Canadian team here Friday, but were ordered Saturday by the League officials to meet the Clarendon team.

Clarendon is looked upon as a tough proposition. The team defeated Shamrock badly. It has defeated the Clarendon College Pups, which in turn played Pampa a close game. Pampa held Amarillo to a closer score than did Canyon. By a long string of comparisons, the Eagles will have their hands full in the game Friday, but are going over confident of winning the game.

A glacial mud flow, originating on the southeast side of Mt. Shasta in Northern California, was caused by the exceptionally dry season of 1923-24. There was very little snow deposited on Shasta last winter; the sun melted the glacier to such an extent that the water came down in torrents from high above timber lines bringing down great quantities of boulders, mud and debris, twenty feet deep and a quarter of a mile wide. It finally emptied into the McCloud River and on into the Sacramento River, coloring the water for more than 100 miles below the confluence of the streams.

YOUR VALUE TO THE COMMUNITY

Dalhart Texan: A short time ago a Dalhart minister, in a well prepared sermon, said: among other good things that a man's value to a community is measured by what he contributes to the community. The contribution may be made in cash or time or both, but he is worth no more to the community life than he gives.

Measured by this standard some people are a liability rather than an asset, for they extract something without giving anything. They are leeches upon the community life. They are parasites. They are worse than non-entities.

It is not enough for a man to pay his debts and his taxes. He still owes something to the community for his peace and prosperity. Churches, schools, parks, playgrounds, must be supported by citizens of the community, and it takes both time and money. He who doesn't give of his means and time to these causes is a community slacker.

"I wish that we could send to Russia, for a cure, every Red in America, and make him live there until he could learn by actual experience what Emma Goldman and Bill Haywood have learned about the relative blessings of Bolshevism and personal liberty under the Constitution of the United States."

—Henry J. Allen, former governor of Kansas.

Tailors of London are up in arms because they see "badly dressed husbands accompanied by extravagantly dressed wives, while shabby business men dictate letters to stenographers wearing the latest thing from Paris." Their theory is that the woman spends so much of the family income that there is nothing left to dress the man.

Pioneers of Progress

—There was a time in the early pioneer days of this state when the services of a bank were used only for occasional important transactions.

Since then, the ever-increasing demands of modern business have made the various functions of the bank a necessary part of everyday life.

Banks are truly Pioneers of Progress in their relation to the up-building and advancement of every community.
