PLAINS, YOAKUM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1956

NUMBER 24

CAA Allocates $11,651 For 'Port Improvement'

Application was received Tuesday from the Civil Aeronautics Administration that Yoakum County has been tentatively allocated $11,651 for a project at the Plains airport.

Notification was received by Judge H. K. Benton in a communication from L. C. Elliott, local administrator of the CAA, to immediate action on the allocation is expected locally, since the county has a period of several months in which the funds can be utilized. Also, the county must match dollar for dollar the federal funds in development of the port.

According to Elliott, the amount allocated as the United States' share of allowable project costs at Plains port has been approved as follows: $300 for acquiring clear zones for the north-south runway; $10,440 for paving the runway by 75 feet of the north-south runway and $275 for relocation of utility pole lines.

Funds must be used only for development specified, Elliott said, and may not be applied to other development without approval of the administration. Allocation is based upon fund authorization which will become available July 1, 1956. Under the terms of the Federal Airport Act, an actual grant of funds can be made only after a project application (incorporating plans, specifications, and other basic documents) has been submitted and approved.

Therefore, Elliott pointed out, this tentative allocation of funds is subject to the local project application meeting the requirements of the Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Purpose of the advance allocation, he said, is to permit the county to commence the preparations of project documents, if they desire, so that a Grant Agreement may be entered into following July 1.

There are a number of specific requirements necessary in the processing of a Project Application. One is the policy of the CAA with respect to requirements for clear zones at the end of the runways. A local county spokesman said this week that to meet these requirements, some 30-35 acres of additional land would have to be acquired to provide the needed clear zones.

100 More Names Added To Hospital Petition

One hundred additional signatures to the petition asking for a $150,000 hospital-clinic at Plains were added to the commissioners' list at a meeting Monday.

Previously, a petition bearing names of 67 signers had been presented to the court on the proposed bond election.

The list of names is now being by the county clerk's office against the poll list, and as that is completed it will be against the tax roll. Bondsmen must be property within Yoakum County and in addition for taxation, it is required.

One percent of the qualified voters in the county are required to sign a petition before the bond election is required.

The petitions presented to court on Monday were the

Transfer Of School Land Is Effected

Members of the county board of education met Monday afternoon for a public hearing on the proposed change of boundaries between the Sligo Independent School District and the Plains school district.

No interested parties appeared at the hearing, therefore the board ordered that the portion of land north of the north line of Sections 770-778 be detached from the Sligo school district, and be attached to the Plains school district.

An agreement had been reached previously at the recent consolidation election, by the two school boards, that the area mentioned above would be changed from Sligo to Plains provided the people in that district so indicated. Petition for the change was asked by nearly 100 per cent of the families involved, it was reported.

Construction To Start Soon On Gasoline Plant Near Here

Work is expected to start between July 1 and July 15 on the construction of the jointly-owned Prentice-Multipay casinghead gasoline plant in northeast Yoakum County. It was learned Monday by The Press in an interview with G. D. Evans, of district division gasoline engineer for Honolulu Oil Corporation.

Although no figures were available on the cost of the plant, it is understood the plant will cost several million dollars. It is expected for initial completion by September.

The plant is located in Section Block K, just off the Terry road line, and in the Brownfield school district. A 25-acre tract has been purchased for the plant to insure a sufficient area for future expansion.

The multi-owned project, the installation will be operated by Honolulu Oil as owner of 26 per cent and the production in this 350-acre area. Lubbock-based producer who figure in the construction of the plant include A. Blair Chery, J. J. Christensen, Placid Oil Co., and J. M. O'Neill.

Other independents have an interest in the plant are Cabot Carbon Co., Western Drig. Co., and Hunter, Midwest Oil Co., I. O'Neill and Tennessee Transmission Co. Shell and other are the only majors in the area with a combined production of less than two per

See Possibility of Daily Mail Service To Denver City

A good possibility was seen this week of improved mail service between Plains and Denver City, long felt to be greatly needed.

According to reports, it is planned to have the rural mail carrier from Plains transport the Plains mail pouch to Denver City, and return with the Denver City pouch to Plains on a daily basis. Exact schedule has not been worked out, but it is expected to take effect shortly after July 1.

At the present time, two and sometimes three days is needed to get mail between the two towns. It is believed that the new schedule will prove of much benefit to both Plains and Denver City.

Nephew Of Local Resident Drowns In Irrigation Pond

The nephew of a local resident, 18-year-old Edward Kocich of Cotton Center, drowned in an irrigation pond about four miles southwest of Cotton Center Sunday afternoon. A young companion fought to save him, but had to give up and go for help.

Edward Kocich, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kocich, and nephew of Mrs. Rudolph Koncaba of here, was pronounced dead by doctor's at Hale Center's Hi-Plains Hospital after two hours of fruitless resuscitation efforts. The youth's parents and sister had to be hospitalized for shock.

The boys did not know how to swim very well and were trying to teach each other. The inner tube which they had on hand to use floated out of reach of young Edward.

The pond was reported to be up to 15 feet deep at the point of the drowning.

JAMES WARREN FILES SUIT TO COLLECT DEBT

James W. Warren, doing business as the Plains Oil Company, Tuesday filed suit through his attorney against the Midland Contractors of Midland for collection of $384.40 which he alleges is due him.

Warren charges that during December, 1955, R. R. Herrington, authorized representative of the Midland firm, made various purchases of gasoline, oil, etc., from the plaintiff and charged them to Midland Contractors.

He further sets out that the Midland firm has failed and refused to pay the amount he alleges is due, and therefore is asking for the $384.40 plus costs of the case.

BURGLARS FORCE DOOR

DICK MCGINTY, owner of the Plains Frozen Food Store, points out where burglars gained entrance to his place of business early Saturday morning. The robbers are believed to have forced open the front door of the store shortly after 4 a.m. Charges have already been filed by the county sheriff's office against two suspects.

Fire Destroys Store At Tokio

Fire which broke out in the D. E. Green Grocery at Tokio early Monday morning, raced through the frame structure almost completely destroying the building, which also included the housing quarters of Mr. and Mrs. Green.

Loss was tentatively set at $30,000, which included the grocery stock and nearly all the personal belongings of the owners. It was partially covered by insurance, according to reports.

The fire is believed to have started in the back bedroom, apparently from faulty wiring. The blaze was noticed about 5 a.m., but by the time the Brownfield fire department could be summoned and arrived at the scene, the fire had gained too much headway. Only a few bed blankets, etc., were salvaged.

The store had been operated by the Greens for nearly 20 years. Green is planning to rebuild, it was reported.

The Tokio community is planning a gift party for the Greens in the old school house Saturday night, to which everyone is invited.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE FILES BURGLARY CHARGES ON TWO

The Plains Frozen Foods store and locker was burglarized early Saturday morning, and less than 15 hours later county peace officers had charges filed against two men, with one held in custody at the county jail.

Sheriff Robert Chambliss said William Randolph Crow, 25, (no address) and Jimmie Hallman, 25, of Shawnee, Okla., were picked up Saturday night about 7 p. m. in Lovington, N. Mex., by himself and Deputy Olan Heath, in officers.

Crow signed a waiver and returned to the county jail at Plains where bond was set at $2500. He will appear before the next grand jury session, charged with burglary at night.

Hallman refused to sign a waiver, Chambliss said, to Texas, but did sign one to Kansas where he is also wanted for burglary. Special officers left Tuesday morning to return Hallman to Kansas for trial. A hold was placed on Hallman for Yoakum county, and he will have to return here to face charges at a later date.

The two men were located at a tourist court in Lovington, with part of the stolen goods found in the cabin and part in the car driven by the pair.

Stolen from the store were between $50 and $60 in cash, two to three dozen canvass work gloves several cartons of cigarettes, and a .38 revolver plus some loose shells, which was in an unlocked safe. The revolver was in the car with the rest of the Plains store property located in the cabin. Among the cash taken were several rolls of pennies, most of which were recovered. The remainder of the cash was not found.

The break-in was discovered about 5 o'clock Saturday morning by Dick McGinty, owner of the store and Roger Curry, only a short time after it is believed the burglars left the scene.

Harold Smith, a high school youth who has been employed at the store, was to leave early Saturday morning for Austin and Boys' State, and had left his health certificate at the store. Curry, who was to drive the boy to Austin, awakened McGinty to obtain a key to the store, and the two then came to the building.

City To Vote In Elections

Urge Heavy Vote On Bond Issues

A good turnout of voters is urged for the important bond election here this Friday.

The election has been called for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of $40,000 in revenue bonds to be used in the improvement of the water system.

Also included in the election, as a separate proposition, will be the authorization of $7,500 in general obligation tax bonds which will replace that amount in time warrants that were issued in order to complete the sewer system.

The two issues will be separate, one not affecting the other. They will, however, appear on the same ballot.

The authorization of the $40,000 in revenue bonds has been asked in order that the City can alleviate a water shortage which has already occurred, and which is expected to grow steadily worse before the end of the summer. Included in the planned improvements will be the construction of a new tank and tower, new wells, etc. The extent of the remaining improvements have not as yet been determined.

Issuance of the bonds will not affect taxes of city residents, it pointed out, as the indebtedness will be paid with revenue from the water system.

The $7,500 in general obligation tax bonds is needed in order for the City to do away with that amount in time warrants and thus afford the City with a lower interest rate on the money. These bonds will also not affect the present tax structure, as repayment of the bonds may be made without the raising of taxes, city officials point out.

The election will be held this Friday, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. at City Hall. Only qualified property owning citizens who have rendered property for taxation are eligible to vote in this election.

Summer Weather Results In Decision To Cool Courthouse

Bids for the purchase of an air conditioning unit for the courthouse at Plains will be advertised for in the near future, following a decision by the county commissioner's court to install such a unit.

Decision to cool the court house during the hot summer months was made at a regular meeting of the court Monday. The unit is to be paid for by interest bearing time warrants. Action was taken following a motion made by Commissioner Vance Brown, and a second by Commissioner Clyde Trout.

It was also voted on motion by Brown, seconded by Trout, to remodel rooms in the old courthouse for offices of the Farmers Home Administration, according to specifications as outlined by the F.H.A. The administration plans to establish a permanent full time office for Yoakum County within the next month.

Other action included the transferring of $224 from the Plains park fund to pay the premium on swimming pool insurance, and the decision to pay Jesse Allen of Denver City, $30 per month rent as of June 1, 1956, on behalf of Tommy Tucker of Denver City.

Monthly reports of the county clerk, treasurer, service officer, tax assessor-collector, auditor, and Justice of Peace of Precinct 1 were approved, bills against the county allowed, and hospital bills as approved by the hospital board were authorized to be paid.

Travis Been Is Write-In Candidate

A write-in campaign on behalf of Travis Been, well-known businessman here, sparked interest this week in the election Friday to name one alderman to the city council.

One candidate, W. R. Scott, filed last week prior to the deadline, and his name will appear on the official ballot. Scott is an employee of Honolulu Oil Company.

Considerable campaigning has been done this week by friends of Been's, who are asking that his name be written on the ballot.

The one vacancy on the council resulted after the election of W. R. Curry as mayor. The new alderman will take Curry's place on the council.

Residents may cast their ballots for alderman between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. at the City Hall this Friday.

Yoakum Farmers May Take Part In Government's Soil Bank

Requirements for participation in the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program under the "Soil Bank Act" Public Law 540, were announced recently by the Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. According to W. M. Overton, ASC Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, which will administer the program, will announce locally when the program agreements are available for signature by farmers in the county office. At that time they will have full information on the terms and conditions.

In announcing participation requirements for the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program, Secretary Benson stated:

"We have proceeded with all possible haste since enactment of the Soil Bank legislation to present a sound 1956 program to farmers. It is true, however, that the program for this year is in a sense a special program designed to meet the time limitations and the requirements of the legislation for 1956.

"For that reason, 1956 will not present a fair trial of what the program can accomplish. The rates set for the 1956 program only. Before next year's crops are planted, however-- including fall seeding of wheat this year, we will have an opportunity to plan and develop a more comprehensive program.

"The Soil Bank makes available beginning in 1957 a way to safeguard our soil and water resources, to give a lift to farm prices.

Under the 1956 Acreage Reserve, farmers who are eligible to take part in the program may earn payments in connection with one or more of the commodities specified in the law-- corn, wheat, upland or extra long staple cotton, peanuts (except Virginias and Valencia for which is no surplus), rice, and most types of tobacco-- by reducing their acreage of the crop below the farm's established allotment (or base acreage in the case of corn).

Under the basic rules of eligibility established in keeping with the law, acreage designated for the Acreage Reserve must: (1) Be representative of the land used for the crop, (2) result in the harvesting of an acreage of the basic crop less than the farm allotment or corn base acreage, and (3) not be grazed, cut for hay or cropped for the entire 1956 calendar year. Noxious weeds, also must be controlled on the "reserved" acreage.

In order to participate in the Acreage Reserve, a farmer must comply with all acreage allotments or corn base established for the farm.

The 1956 program, as provided by the law, contains special provisions and payments which enable farmers to participate this year. Any farmer who otherwise complies with the provisions of the Acreage Reserve will be eligible for payment if:

1. He has underplanted his Soil Bank corn base or his allotment of cotton, rice, tobacco, peanuts or wheat (when planted to spring wheat) and he certifies that he underplanted (a) in anticipation of complying with the 1956 Acreage Reserve or (b) because of adverse weather conditions; or

2. He has underplanted his 1956 allotment for winter wheat and certifies that this was done because of adverse weather conditions; or

3. He has complied with his Soil Bank corn base or his farm allotment for a particular crop, but an acreage of the crop was not harvested because of destruction by natural causes; or

4. The farmer is in an area where an established final date set for the basic commodity for his area is subsequent to May 28 and prior to June 30 or the established final date, which-ever is later. (The "established final date" will be the same as the last date on which the acreage of a basic crop may be adjusted in order to bring it into compliance with the acreage allotment of the regular production adjustment program).

Maximum and minimum acreages of the basic crops which may be placed in the Acreage Reserve have been established as follows (except that where the allotment is less than the specified acreage total allotment shall be minimum and maximum, the minimum or the maximum):

For corn, the maximum is the larger of half the corn base acreage or 50 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the base acreage or 5 acres.

For wheat, the maximum is the larger of half the wheat allotment or 50 acres.

The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or 5 acres.

For rice, the maximum is the larger of half the rice allotment or 50 acres.

The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or 5 acres.

For cotton, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or 10 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or 5 acres.

For tobacco, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or 5 acres.

The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or 1 acre.

For peanuts, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or 10 acres.

The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or 1 acre.

The payment which a farmer may earn for participating in the Acreage Reserve will be determined by multiplying a base unit rate by a yield factor. The national average rates for 1956 crops are: Corn, 90 cents per bushel; Cotton 15 cents per pound; Wheat, $1.20 per bushel; rice, $2.25 per hundred weight; Peanuts, 3 cents per pound; and Tobacco, varying rates per pound for different types (details in USDA press release 16661-56 issue June 8, 1956).

The payments will be determined as follows:

For underplanting the corn base or the allotment for cotton, rice, tobacco, peanuts, or wheat (when planted to spring wheat), the payment rate will be based on the normal yield for the designated acreage.

For underplanting 1956 winter wheat, the payment will be $4.00 per acre.

For destruction due to natural causes or for plowing or otherwise physically incorporating the crop into the soil, or for clipping mowing or cutting the crop, the payment will be based on the smaller of an appraised yield for the field or the normal yield for the farm, but will not be less than $6.00 per acre.

Provisions of the Conservation Reserve part of the Soil Bank will be announced as soon as practical. Under this part of the program a farmer will be able to earn two types of payment-- an annual payment to help compensate for income which he would have received if the "reserved" land had been in crop, and a payment representing a percentage of the cost of establishing land.

The same acreage on a farm may not be included under both the Acreage Reserve and the Conservation Reserve parts of the Soil Bank.

ACROSS THE CATTLE GUARD

By LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

Each year there seems to be a few more people in Yoakum county who become interested in producing pheasants. Another game bird that is gaining in popularity is the chucker partridge. These birds are raised in captivity and every once in a while we hear or read about someone who has made the production of game birds into a sound and profitable business.

Most of the game birds that are produced in Yoakum county are kept only as a hobby by some nature lovers or sports-minded individual. The hobby pays off when the birds are used for home consumption because the delicate flavor of pheasant, quail or chucker make a rare treat for the housewife who is looking for something different or for something to serve on special occasions.

Some game birds farmers have developed a market for their products through certain hotels, country clubs and restaurants and they have turned a hobby into a full-time job. Another outlet for game birds is found by contracting the young birds to State Game Departments for re-stocking. Almost every state has a re-stocking program and they buy thousands of birds each year from state-approved farms for releasing into the wild. Still another opportunity centers around specializing in the production of eggs or baby chicks. As game bird farming grows in popularity, this promises to be as specialized a business as turkey or chicken breeding.

The beginner will not find game bird farming to be a "get-rich-quick" deal, but if he will start out on a small scale, study his mistakes and plan for the future, he can expect a moderate income.

Probably the best and most economical way to do something about game birds is to improve the set-up that already is in existence. Almost every farm and ranch in Yoakum county has a small number of native blue quail around the place. By doing something just a little extra for these native birds, they will produce rapidly and furnish some sport during the season and some fine meat for the table.

The only way of making this kind of set-up into a scheme to increase their income and do it legally is to sell hunting rights on the property. When a farmer or rancher offers to sell hunting rights on his place, he is inviting criticism from his neighbors who allow free hunting. He is also inviting promiscuous shooting on his property which is always something to shy away from.

A great deal of pleasure may come by furnishing some shelter and feed for the blue quail. By building some pens to produce other game birds, some added pleasure will be received if the individual is interested in that kind of a hobby. I would not encourage any one in Yoakum county to go into the production of game birds except on the hobby basis. Regardless of the reason for producing game birds in captivity, healthy birds are seldom produced under unsanitary conditions. A good sanitation program for game birds cannot be over stressed. It is a vital part to the success of game bird production regardless of the size of the unit. Clean pens, clean feed, and fresh water in clean containers is the secret to a good sanitation program.

When it comes t' fallin' in love, some gals never tumble. Yep, rash people make us itch t' git at 'em. Many a feller has a tank full o' gas who doesn't own a car. Some folks who are of few words do have many thoughts. Remember, even a numb skull has some feelin'.

Some chicks never let out a peep when they're picked up. It's hard to put on a front when you're flat on your back. Some merchants would have more sales with less wind. A gal with no heart kin sure make a fool of a feller with no head. When Tubby Tyler is all dressed up he looks like he'd been upholstered. Tobe Hinch said as soon as Doc Henton felt his purse he said he was sick.

News Notes from the Hillside Church of Christ
By Mrs. Wilford Ham

Good attendance was given at all Sunday services. There was both in town and out of town visitors—among them were Mrs. Shirley Curry and baby of Seminole. We were glad to have Mary Lois back with us. Other visitors were the Kisors from Roswell, N. M. They are relatives of the Joe Kennedy family.

We were glad to see Sharlott and Paula Stapleton home from a two-week vacation with their grandmother in Dickens.

We missed Mrs. Paul Loe, Bob, Winnell and the boys from the services Sunday, but are sure everyone enjoyed the sermon Bob brought to the Spur congregation at Spur, Sunday. We say again, "Keep up the Good Work, Bob." Everyone enjoyed the talks given by Jim and Jack Palmer Wednesday night.

Visitors in the C. L. Billingsly home Sunday were Frances Smith, Mary Lane, Barlow Hill, Ross Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Ham. Visitors in the home of the Arnel Pippins were the Ben McMilling family.

We were sorry to hear that the Harry Hamlin was called to the bedside of Mrs. Hamlin's mother who is very ill. Others among the ill are Mrs. Mary Lane's daughter and Mr. Barlow Hill's daughter-in-law.

We are very thankful to have Onetha Biggs home after a second operation on her eye. We hope and pray this time it will be successful. Everyone is invited to our services next Sunday night. We have a guest speaker—Rev. Oton Dunn from Seagraves. Stapleton will be speaking at graves.

FOUR DIVORCE CASES ARE FILED IN DISTRICT COURT HERE THIS WEEK

Four cases were filed in district court this week, and all four were divorce actions.

They included: Louie Kerrick vs. Lorene Kerrick; Dona Joan Baze vs. Ira Burton Baze; Hazel Edwards vs. O. Q. Edwards; and Lizzie Jeneva Sheffield vs. L. B. Sheffield.

In the case of Kerrick vs. Kerrick, the plaintiff sets forth that they were married November 3, 1952, and lived together as husband and wife until June 1, 1956, at which time they separated as a result of incompatibility to the extent of mental cruelty. One child, Sherry Lynn, was born to them on September 1, 1953, and is presently residing with the mother in Plains. The plaintiff asks for the care and custody of the minor child for six months of each year, and expresses the willingness to support and care for the child.

In the case of Baze vs. Baze, the plaintiff asserts they were married May 12, 1952, and lived together as husband and wife until April 29, 1956. She charges that the defendant failed to provide properly for the plaintiff and provide a proper home, that the defendant earned good money each month but refused to provide for his family.

The plaintiff also charges the defendant is guilty of physical cruelty towards her and that finally the lack of support, physical cruelty and other acts of cruelty on the part of the defendant constituted cruel treatment of sufficient nature to render living together as man and wife insupportable.

The three children of the couple, Craig Burton, 3, Debra Lynn, 2, and Kenny Harrison, 1, all live with the mother in Denver City, the case sets forth, and it is asked that their care be given to the plaintiff, as the plaintiff would show the court that the defendant was not a fit or proper person to have custody of said children.

The plaintiff would further show the defendant earns from $6000 to $8000 per year; that the plaintiff has been supporting the children and will continue to do so, but asks the court to order the defendant to fulfill his father's obligation and support said children at $50 per month for each child, or a total of $150 per month.

In the case of Edwards vs. Edwards, the plaintiff sets out that they were married December 22, 1936, and lived as husband and wife until Jun 1, 1956. She charges that the defendant for a number of years pursued a course of harsh, cruel and tyrannical conduct and finally the course of conduct became unbearable to the plaintiff and she separated from him. It is further alleged in the suit that the defendant failed and refused to work steadily or to support his wife and children and in addition drank intoxicating liquor to excess, and was guilty of all manner of physical and mental cruelty to plaintiff so that the plaintiff lived in constant fear of her life and of bodily harm.

The plaintiff sets forth that they are parents of seven children, Joe Edward, 17, Kenneth, 15, Effie, 12, Jerry, 10, Ollie, 8, Lilly Ann, 7, and Nancy, 5. The plaintiff asserts for several years she has had practically sole obligation of supporting the children and asks for their custody. The plaintiff would show that the defendant is able to work and asks for $250 per month as child support.

In the case of Sheffield vs. Sheffield, the plaintiff declares that they were married in May, 1939, and separated June 1, 1956. The plaintiff charges the defendant failed and refused to work steadily or to support the plaintiff and children; that the defendant on numerous occasions was guilty of physical abuse to the plaintiff, and on numerous occasions threatened with physical violence and even threatened to take her life. The plaintiff further asserts that the defendant constantly nagged and complained about the plaintiff and her every action, and that nothing the plaintiff could do would satisfy the defendant.

The plaintiff charges that she had for several years practically been the sole support of the children, D.H., 14, Nadine, 11, and Yevon, 10, and asks for their custody, and $150 per month in child support.
