$350,000 School Bond Issue Approved 117-17

READY TO VOTE — Mrs. J. H. Morris, left, prepares to vote in the $350,000 school bond election held last Saturday in the high school library. Mrs. J. P. Robertson, election judge is in center of picture and Mrs. John T. Camp, one of the clerks, is on the right.

Bledsoe Debt Assumption Also Approved

Trustees of Plains Independent School District Monday night canvassed and certified the $350,000 school bond election held Saturday. The bond election was approved by a nearly 7-1 vote. Other provisions on the ballot carried with a similar margin.

The bond issue, for expanding present school plant facilities, carried 117-17. Voters approved the school financial operations as outlined in Senate Bill 116 of the 54th Legislature 114-18. Setting of a maximum tax rate not to exceed $1.50 on each $100 assessed valuation carried 117-16 and voters approved 115-19 the assumption of bonded indebtedness against that portion of the former Bledsoe Common School District which recently was annexed to the Plains district.

Farm and Ranch Insurance Rates Are Reduced

The State Insurance Commission has announced a reduction in farm and ranch insurance rates. The new rates were a result of adoption of modern and simplified manual on farm and ranch fire insurance that included redefinitions and new classifications.

Absentee Balloting Underway; County Committee Sets Order Of Candidates' Names For Primary

TOP LION — John L. Stickleby of Charlotte, N. C., has been elected International President of the Lions International at the association's 39th annual convention in Miami, Fla. Lions International with 542,828 members in 12,334 Lions clubs in 75 countries or regions, is the world's largest service club organization. Leo White, Yoakum County agent, is president of the Plains Lions Club.

Absentee balloting for the July 28 Democratic primary election began Monday. County Clerk J. W. O. Aldredge reported Wednesday morning that so far no one has cast an absentee ballot, but that possibly "half dozen" applications had been mailed.

A qualified voter in order to be permitted to vote absentee must show cause why he will be absent from the county on election day or provide proof of disabilities that will keep him from getting to the regular polling places.

County Democratic Committee met last week and selected the order names of candidates will appear on the ballot.

In local and district offices the order on the ballot will be: State Senator: Preston Smith, Kilmer Corbin, and Carroll Cobb. State Representative: R. L. Bowers, Jr., and J. O. Gillham. District Attorney: Mitchell Williams.

County Attorney: Jerry Paquin and Vernon Townes. Sheriff-Tax Assessor-Collector: Robert H. Chambliss. Commissioner, Precinct No. 1: David Whitaker, Oliver Vaughn Jr., Vance W. Brown, Johnny Grace and Jack L. Gray.

Commissioner, Precinct No. 3: Gene Payne and Pete Sampson. County Democratic Chairman: R. B. (Woody) Woodward. In the state-level race, Reuben Senterfitt leads the list of gubernatorial candidates. He is followed by W. Lee O'Daniel, Ralph Yarborough, J. J. Holmes, J. Evetts Haley and Price Daniel.

For lieutenant governor it is: John Lee Smith, C. T. Johnson, Ben Ramsey and A. W. Akin Jr. Attorney general: Will Wilson, Tom Moore, Curtis E. Hill, and Ross Carlton.

And Agriculture Commissioner: John C. White, Bill Jones, and Jim Barber. In addition to voting for vacancies in state, district and county offices, voters will be asked to vote on three referendum issues. They are:

For or against the calling for legislative action to continue segregation, prevent intermarriage between negroes and whites, and to halt federal encroachment into what is held to be states' rights.

Voting precincts over the county, location of the poll and election judge are listed below, in that order: Prec. 1—County clerk's office, Ray Fitzgerald. Prec. 2—Commissioner's courtroom, Bill Powell.

Prec. 3—Sheriff's office, Sherm Henard. Prec. 4—Tax collector's office, Truett Jones. Prec. 5—Turner school, Paul Cobb. Prec. 6—Sligo community building, Gene Bennett. Prec. 7—Denver City grade school, Maurine Wehrend. Prec. 8—Allred school, L. H. Aldredge. Prec. 9—Shell recreation building, Denver City, Bill Story. Prec. 10—Denver City city hall, W. R. Shook.

Postal Receipts Increase 6.26% During Fiscal Year

Postmistress Verda Lee Robertson has reported the Plains postal receipts showed an increase of 6.26 per cent in the fiscal year 1956 (July 1, 1955 to July 1, 1956) over the same period in 1955.

Mrs. Robertson announced receipts of $8,649.43 for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1955. An increase of $540.79, or receipts of $9,190.22 were recorded for the 1956 fiscal year.

Mrs. Robertson is acting postmaster for the Plains office and employs one full-time clerk, a substitute clerk and a janitor in the local office. T. C. Oxford, contract carrier also operates out of the Plains office.

Amateur Rodeo, Barbecue Set For July 27-28

Plans are being pushed for the second annual amateur rodeo sponsored by the Yoakum County Roping Club. The rodeo will be a three-performance event July 27 and 28 and will be highlighted by a barbecue in Stamford Park at Plains honoring old settlers of the area.

There will be a rodeo performance Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. The free barbecue and old settlers' reunion will get started at 11 a.m. Saturday and last until 1 p.m.

The rodeo will be a jack-pot affair with all entry fees paid by performers being paid back in prize money. The club will pay monies in two go-rounds and an average money.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by A. L. Long of Roswell. Arrangements have been made with the Roping Club for the Yoakum County Review, in cooperation with the Denver City Press, to provide those attending the Saturday night rodeo performance with late election results.

Sam C. Arnett, WT Pioneer, Dies After Long Illness

Funeral services were held in Lubbock last Friday for Sam C. Arnett Sr., 80 year-old pioneer West Texan and a brother of Mrs. Eugene Payne of Plains. Stonerod, Mrs. Floyd Beall and Mrs. Granville G. Johnson, all of Lubbock and Mrs. A. F. Curry of Plainview; two brothers, Dick M. Arnett Jr., Kansas City and W. Dudley Arnett, Lamesa and two grandchildren. Mrs. Arnett is survived by Mrs. Joe Sneed. See ARNETT on Back Page

Editor Moreland Started The Review; Bennett Oil Discovery Was 'Big Story'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In response to a request for information concerning the origin of The Review in last week's issue, Mrs. Dovie Moreland, the first Review editor answered with the following letter, which is published with her permission. If you have further information about the development of Yoakum County, Plains, Denver City, The Review; or if you just want to talk about the past, The Review would certainly like to hear from you.)

By MRS. DOVIE MORELAND I wish to say that "The Yoakum County Review" is my "brain child." I might even say that it was born in a Lubbock hospital for it was while I was waiting for my eight-year-old son to recover from a mastoid operation that I decided definitely to start a newspaper for Yoakum County. Leaving a nurse with my son, I went to the Lubbock Avalanche office and talked with the men there about printing the paper. They said they would advise me and give me all the help they could for every county should certainly have a newspaper. They did help me with the first issues. Then I had it printed at Ropes-

Commissioners OK Quarterly Report, Accept Two Bids

County Commissioners Monday approved the quarterly treasurer's report and awarded a contract to Baker Plumbing & Appliance of Denver City to air condition the court house.

The Treasurer's report (published in full elsewhere in The Review) shows a bank balance for the county of $150,076.78 at the close of business June 30. County Treasurer Susan V. Hinkle made the report.

Baker Plumbing & Appliance was low bidder of $14,718 for a 60-ton refrigerated air conditioner to cool the courthouse. Baker has already ordered the equipment and expects to be completed with the installation within the next 60 days. The equipment is from the Lennox line.

Commissioners also accepted a bid of $2217 as low from Allsup Chevrolet Co. of Denver City on a 1956 Chevrolet truck for precinct 4, county bills for payment and approval.

In other business they approved proved payment of Yoakum County Hospital Bids. Bids were asked for one used loader for Precinct 4. Loader specifications are: four-wheel drive, rubber tires and 1 1/2 cubic yard bucket.

1st Baptist Youth To Hold Revival

There will be a youth revival at the First Baptist Church in Plains Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Don Ingle of Brownwood will conduct the meetings.

Theme for the revival will be "Longing for Jesus". Services will begin at 8 o'clock each evening and the public is invited to attend. Song leader for the services will be Robert Schnelker of Brownwood and Kattie Parks of Plains will provide special music.

City Sewer Line Testing Begins

Water began flowing through the new Plains city sewer line Monday in the first efforts to test the system. Residents, however, must wait until the $115,000 system has been approved and accepted by the City Council before being able to tie onto the lines.

Midwest Contracting Co. of Dallas is contractor for the system.

Learning To Sew — Miss La Rue Gilmore, county home demonstration agent demonstrates methods in making gathered skirts to the beginners group of the younger 4-H club girls in a clothing workshop held last Thursday, Friday and Monday in the high school home economics classroom.

JOHNNY MYERS

Had a call late last week from Murphy Luna who informed me that a group of women are working on a history of this county. They expect, she said to be finished with it by Jan. 1, 1957, giving us a well rounded history to present to the public on the 50th Anniversary of the foundation of Yoakum County. Will tell you more about this as progresses.

— scratchpad — This is the kind of paragraph like very much to write, has to be done, so here since assuming The Review have been busy checking what records were and when we reached circulation lists we were puzzled: It appears all too subscribers have forgotten their subscription records. We sure do need this and if you think you are but aren't sure, we'll look it up for you. Post Office Department (with a real ugly face) papers that do not keep circulation lists up to date, so help us.

— scratchpad — A case of modern-day enterprisers should be brought to your attention: Edwin Cogburn, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Cogburn, discovered you can make money if you have the right ideas. Last week, as the temperatures were soaring, he was situated out front of his daddy's store (and of too far from the heavy traffic entering and leaving the post office) operating a lemonade stand. His wares included, at one time, red (red?) lemonade, peaches, and apparently delivery on other refreshments he didn't have in stock. Scratching his Plains youngest capitalist.

West Texas Is Humble Subject

Interesting films of vacation trails in the Texas Panhandle will be featured next week on The Humble Company's TV program, Texas in Review. Included in the features will be the origin of the Red River near Tulia, Lake McClellan, Lake Amarillo, Buffalo Lake, Palo Duro Canyon, Lubbock State Park, wheat harvesting, the big JA Ranch near Spur, the Panhandle-Plains Museum near Canyon, and helium manufacturing near Amarillo.
Another feature will compare the operation of the big Dallas post office with the one-man post office at Coppel.
And from Comanche County will come films of that county's colorful centennial celebration.
Texas in Review can be seen Monday (July 16) over K C B D - T V, Lubbock, 8:30 p. m.

Daniel Family Joins Senator In Campaigning

When U.S. Sen. Price Daniel campaigns for Governor, it's a family affair. Daniel's wife, four children, sister and brother are all playing an active role in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Mrs. Daniel, the former Jean Baldwin of Houston, is the great-granddaughter of Gen. Sam Houston, so her Texas political heritage runs a long way back.

This summer she has been with the senator on many of his campaign tours, and on some occasions has had their four children along to meet the people and help pass out literature.

The senator's sister, Ellen Daniel, is a volunteer worker at state campaign headquarters in Austin.

Their brother, former State Rep. Bill Daniel of Liberty, is chairman of the senator's statewide Speakers' Bureau and has made scores of speeches and personal appearances in behalf of Price Daniel's candidacy.

"DON'T BE SIDETRACKED!"

Preston Smith has declared time and again that the big issue in the State Senate race is HONESTY IN STATE GOVERNMENT.

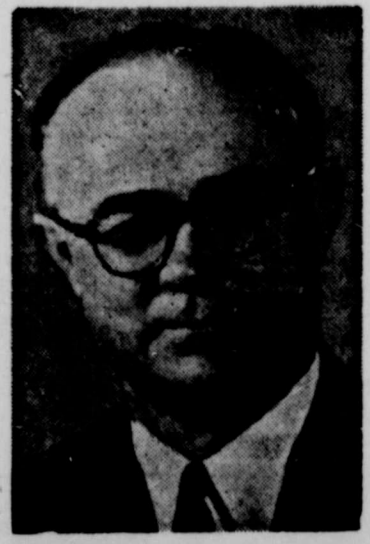

Don't be sidetracked from that issue by tricky phrases like "new faces in Senate races" or fact-dodging tactics.

HONESTY IS THE ISSUE. If integrity and honor were more common around the State Capital, most of our problems in Texas government wouldn't exist today.

Crackdown Is Needed . . .

It is time for a crackdown on excessive speeds inside the city limits of Plains. All too frequently, trucks and cars pass through town ignoring posted speed limits. If this practice is continued someone will be either hurt or killed.

Our driving habits are not as good as they should be. Add this to transient vehicles failing to observe town laws and a situation dangerous to our well-being could develop.

Residents can drive anywhere in the city they wish to go in a matter of minutes, seconds really, and it will be safer if speeds are held down.

It is true that truckers are probably the greatest offenders. They have more weight, travel faster and can cause more damage if an accident should occur. They should be curbed and made to respect the livelihood of our citizens.

A crackdown is in order, and certainly we should not complain if ticketed when we don't observe even the simpler laws.

Your Obligation . . .

Absentee balloting began Monday for the July 28 Primary election. Maybe you feel there is nothing about this year's race that excites you. But if you plan on being absent from the county, or have a valid reason for being unable to vote at the polls July 28 you certainly owe it to yourself to go by the county clerk's office in the courthouse and cast your vote at an early date.

In the years ahead, which some of these candidates will spend in office, there will be many decisions which will affect you personally. You will have no complaint due you if you fail to exercise your privilege and right to vote the ticket of your choice.

A Lesson For Us . . .

A Martin, just learning to fly, passed our office Saturday and quickly found its way to the ground; not particularly anxious to try again at that moment. A woman we all know fearing it would be struck by a car, outmaneuvered the bird, picked it up and moved it to a place of safety.

It was a small thing to do and only required a few seconds. Yet it was a truly great event. This woman showed that in her busy life she had the time and charity to aid one of God's creatures. Our lives would be fuller and happier if we all could learn her lesson and spend more of our time being useful on this earth that sustains us.

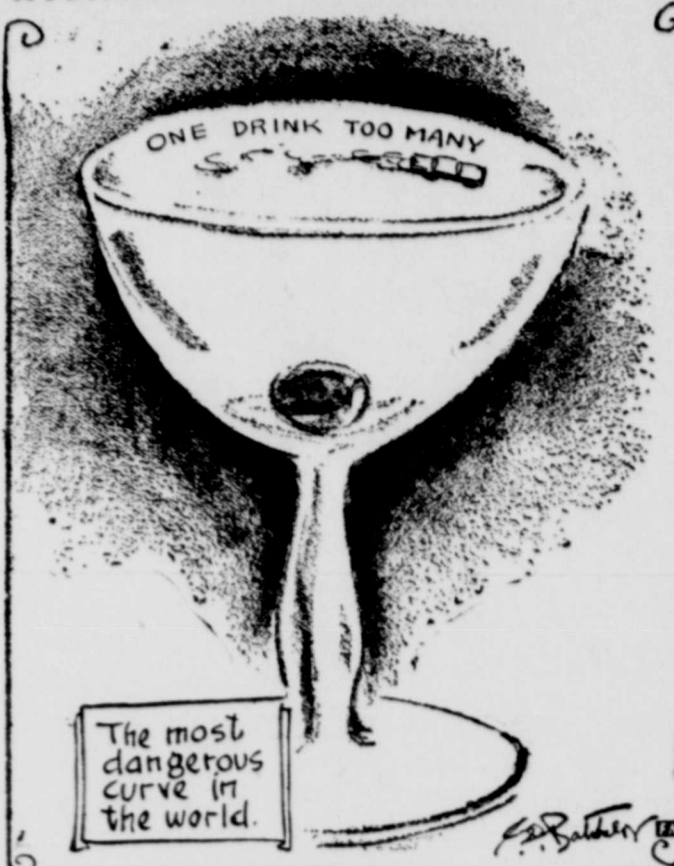

"The old saying that you can't get something for nothing is still true, even though many of us act like we don't believe it — and political candidates would have us forget it." — Dublin, Texas, Progress

"We are living up our incomes just about a year-and-a-half ahead of ourselves. This is probably all right as long as our present prosperity rates hold, but look out Nellie if the roof ever caves in." — Corvallis, Ore., Gazette-Times

"Religion, as a well-known professor of philosophy once said, 'is a life of adventure, born in aspiration. It matures in purpose and comes to its fulfillment in commitment.' There is a lot of chewy intellectual meat in those words." — Ambridge, Pa., Daily Citizen

"We should never take our government for granted. Good government is everybody's business. Every Smith, Jones, and Brown should at least be somewhat interested in who spends his tax dollar and how it is spent." — Hamlin, W. Va., Republican

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(The following report of the Democratic state convention has been prepared for The Review by Claude Freeman and Judge H. K. Benton, who attended as delegates from Yoakum County.)

Dear Editor:

In August, the delegates selected at Dallas go to Chicago to repeat the process of picking the Presidential Nominee that the National Democratic Party will bring before the people in the November general election. The system—as was demonstrated by the 1952 Democratic National Convention—is an easy tool for the political bosses, the slick manipulators and the unscrupulous kingmakers.

There is nothing particularly new about this situation. Students of politics have known for a long time what a weak reed the convention system is for our democratic government to lean upon. The Feb. 3rd issue of the U.S. News & World Report featured the article, "Who'll Name the Next President." After an exhaustive study, and with elaborate statistics their conclusion is simple. "Few ordinary citizens get any voice unless the names of two candidates are handed them to choose from in the final voting." Election reforms are needed if we ever are to break the hold of the bosses and kingmakers who make decisions in smoke-filled rooms.

The era of boss rule in American politics is fading. Every time the issue of bossism versus the American people is tested at the polls now, the bosses take another licking.

Some real progress was made at Dallas. In the 19th congressional district caucus Monday night, May 21, we elected four delegates and two alternates to the National Convention in Chicago from a slate of fourteen hopefuls. The election took place after a successful battle was waged to table a motion that gave the chairman authority to appoint the National Delegates. At this time Claude Freeman was elected Permanent Assistant Secretary of the 1956 State Democratic Convention for the 19th congressional district.

From each congressional district a member is elected to the Resolutions Committee to help write the platform of the Texas Democratic Party. The Yoakum County delegation was proud to sponsor the resolution adopted in Plains at the Yoakum County Convention recommending a preferential primary. We were able to enlist the support of several key county delegations including Harris, Tarrant, Dallas, Austin, and Lubbock. However we are sorry to report the resolution was tabled by a 12 to 7 show of hands. This is not surprising as there were several members at large on the committee by appointment. They succeeded in tabling all resolutions not prepared and presented by the executive group running the convention. Here is the resolution as presented to the Resolutions Committee of the Democratic Convention assembled in Dallas May 22:

Whereas, the selection of the Democratic Delegation from the State of Texas to the National Democratic Convention has been the source of continued disunity within the ranks of Texas Democrats,

Whereas, under the present convention system few ordinary citizens get any choice until the names of two candidates are handed them to choose from in the final voting,

Whereas, the Presidential Primary has the tendency to develop "grass roots" interests in the democratic process, therefore, be it

"Resolved", That the Texas Democratic Convention assembled in Dallas today go on record urging the State Legislature to adopt a bill providing for a Presidential Primary for Texas.

"Resolved", that such primary be held for the election of delegates to the national convention, of each political party for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President.

"Resolved", That, copies of this general resolution be presented to both the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the presiding officer of the Senate, of the Texas Legislature.

Adopted, May 22, 1956, by the Texas Democratic Convention.

Your delegates supported Senator Johnson for chairman of the delegation to Chicago and helped elect four men to that delegation pledged to vote for Senator Johnson as the Democratic Presidential Nominee as long as his name is before the National Democratic Convention.

Sincerely,
Judge H. K. Benton
Claude Freeman

IN THE NAME OF THE LAW

CONTRIBUTED IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST BY

TEXAS POLICE ASSOCIATION

Juvenile Delinquency doesn't just happen. It is caused. Possibility in some cases by society in general, but more often than not Juvenile Delinquency is the direct result of "parental delinquency."

The Harvard Law School recently made an exhaustive study of Juvenile Delinquency in this Country. The results of this study have amazed me. For instance, in 80 per cent of the cases studied there was no "team spirit" in the home. Twice as many juvenile delinquents came from broken homes as others. In some of the cases studied there was no fixed routine in the home. In 8 out of each 10 cases studied the mothers of the delinquents spent very little time at home. In 75 per cent of the cases studied the fathers and mothers fought and quarrelled. In 80 per cent of the cases studied the mothers took no interest in their children. In a majority of the cases the parents were unconcerned about their children's friends. In 75 per cent of the cases studied the youngsters reported that their parents were indifferent to them — there was no love or respect in the home. In 80 per cent of the cases studied liquor was a factor. Still further, the study indicated that only a few of the sons and daughters went to Sunday School or Church, even infrequently; and the same was true of their parents. To top this off, there was absolutely no religious discussion in the homes affected. It was indeed interesting for me to note that in all ten of these findings "THE ORIGINAL FAULT WAS WITH PARENTS."

There's no secret about what causes our juvenile problem of today. Both the cause and the cure have been before us for years. Yet, by far, the majority of parents either fail or refuse to admit it. The very first mistake a good many parents make is when they allow their children to sleep past Sunday School time. Now, I'm no religious fanatic, but I can honestly say that I've never attended Sunday School or Church, whether I wanted to or not, without learning something. The second mistake is when parents become too busy to have those good 'ole fashioned family conferences. We fail to realize that are not motivated by reason and object. They lack wisdom we, as parents, are obligated to provide for them. What better place is there to develop such wisdom than in the 'ole fashioned family conference?

Our third mistake is probably the most expensive of all. We dealt democracy a terrific blow when we took the paddle out of the school teacher's hand. Year in and year out — particularly during formative years — our children spend far more of their active hours with the school teachers than they do with their parents. Yet, we have deprived these teachers, who have the responsibility of firming our children into good solid citizens, with the very children into good citizens and good parents.

This business of out-smarting a child was a tough thing for our parents to put over on us when we were children, and it's getting tougher with each generation. With the movies, television and other things, our children are given a much better opportunity to become educated earlier in life than we did. Don't try to out-smart your child. There's no such short-cut. You know as well as I do that some of those things the old folks tried to put over on us just didn't take. Remember what you and I did when such attempts were made? Why, of course, we laughed at such stupidity — and that's what your children will do too.

Think I'm wrong? If you do then take a look at the other countries of the world that have practically no juvenile delinquency problem. When you do you'll find that the children in those countries are being reared like we're "raising" our children.

BATHING SUITS OF YESTERYEAR covered a multitude of sins. A less than perfect figure or complexion could be hidden beneath the voluminous bloomers, long black hose of a chic bathing beauty of the early 1900's. But today's swim and sun suits demand that you—all of you—be at your best. There's great news for sunners and swimmers with skin blemishes, large or small. A medically proven cream—used and recommended by doctors—can make the big difference when you take to the sun. Waterproof Covermark by Lydia O'Leary is a completely moisture-resistant cream that performs real skin magic before your eyes. It's especially effective for covering relatively large areas like unsightly broken veins, brown and white spots, burns, scars, skin eruptions—even birth marks. Smoothed on like a fine make-up, it's insurance that your legs and body—all blemishes hidden—will be in the "long-stemmed American Beauty" class. Spot-stick, the same product in convenient stick form, is a beach boon too—a lifesaver for quick cover-ups of sudden skin eruptions or redness. These two products will keep all your complexion secrets and help you take your rightful place in the sun. Both by Lydia O'Leary—available in shades to match every skin color—at department and better drug stores.

Club Hears Talk On Luggage Covers

The Stanford Valley Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, July 5, in the clubroom, with eight members present. Each member answered the roll call travel.

Two visitors, Mrs. Wynell Loe and Mrs. Bettie Jackson, were also present. The home demonstration agent, Miss LaRue Gilmore, was also present.

The president, Mrs. Bruce White conducted the business meeting. Miss Gilmore gave a report on the council meeting. The club discussed the ice cream super and 42 party which will be held in the clubroom July 9 at 8 p. m.

A program on "luggage covers" was given by Miss Gilmore.

Western Drilling Has Brahaney Producer

Western Drilling Company Inc., has potential No. 5 Webb as a new producer in the Brahaney field of Central Yoakum County, 3 miles southwest of Plains.

On the 24-hour gauge, the well pumped 42 barrels of water through open hole section from 5,345 to 5,337 feet, after acidizing with 2,000 gallons and fracturing with 10,000 gallons.

Well site is 2,310 feet from north section 477, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Fourteen miles south of Denver City in Northwest Gaines County, City Service Production Company No. 9 Procter, scheduled El-don test from 8,772 to 8,786 feet.

Open six hours, the test surfaced gas in six hours. Recovery was 120 gas-cut mud. Zone tested probably was the Leonard.

Drilling continued below 8,851 feet.

Location is 2,040 feet from north section 355 block G, CCSD&RGNG.

The Texas Company finalized No. 1-b Edwards as a new producer in the Fields (Devonian) field of Northwest Yoakum County, 15 1/2 miles northwest of Plains.

On 24-hour potential test the well pumped 89 barrels of water plus 42 per cent water and gas-cut mud, 10 per cent oil, 1,991 feet after fracturing with 46,000 gallons of solution.

It is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 105, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Eleven and one-half miles north-west of Plains, The Texas Company has completed No. 1 D. K. Woodward Jr., as a new producer. The 24-hour gauge from perforations 12,045 to 12,080 feet, made 40 barrels of 45 gravity oil and 81 per cent water, with gas too small to measure.

Site is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 227, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Shell Oil Company No. 15 Doris Roberts, Southwest Yoakum County, has plugged back to preparing to test from perforations at 10,094-115 feet.

Location is 2,310 feet from north section 783, block D, J. H. Gibson survey, eight miles northwest of Denver City.

Lario Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Jones, Central Yoakum County project, found shows of oil on drillstem test of the San Andres.

The interval from 5,250 to 5,291 feet was tested 90 minutes. Recently completed 1 1/2 mile west extension to the Brahaney field, is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 448, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 8 Armstrong, South Yoakum County, is making hole below 9,651 feet in lime. The project is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 69, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Texas Crude Oil Company and Tri-Service Drilling Company No. 1 Randall, Southwest Yoakum County, is making hole below 12,068 feet in lime.

The deep operation is 16 miles northeast of Denver City, 660 feet from north and east lines of section 841, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Monsanto Chemical Company, Yoakum County project, is drilling below 9,390 feet in lime and chert, and west lines of section 473, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Shell Oil Company No. 1 D. S. Northwest Yoakum County, is drilling below 830 feet in red beds, 1,980 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 217, block D, J. H. Gibson survey, five miles north of Henard (San Andres) field and 25 miles northwest of Denver City.

Drill site is one mile north and slightly west of a J. D. Wraether, Jr., and others No. 1 E. W. Jones, recently completed San Andres discovery.

Location is two miles northwest of Plains, 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 391, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation in the Seagraves (Siluro-Devonian) field of Southeast Yoakum County, is drilling below 380 feet in red beds. The project spudded at one a.m. on the 9th.

It is 330 feet from south and 990 feet from east lines of section 882, block D, J. H. Gibson survey, and 14 miles due east of Denver City.

The Texas Company No. 1 A. I. Jean C. Black West Terry County project, is drilling below 8,301 feet in lime and shale.

Location is 330 feet from south and 990 feet from west lines of section 123, block D-11, C&M survey, two miles southwest of the Southeast Corozo (Siluro-Devonian) field, and 24 miles northeast of Denver City.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 9 Procter, Northwest Gaines County, is making progress below 9,728 feet in lime.

Location is 2,040 feet from north section 355 block G, CCSD&RGNG survey, 18 miles southeast of Denver City.

Husky Oil Company No. 1 D. M. Parnell, North Gaines wildcat, is making progress below 12,582 feet in lime.

It is 1,980 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 173, block G, WTRR survey, 11 miles southwest of Denver City.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company, No. 1-F Oil Development Company of Texas, Northwest Gaines County, is making progress below 9,728 feet in lime.

Site is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 277, block G, WTRR survey.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 E. W. Clawater, West Yoakum County project, is preparing location.

ELECT VERNON TOWNES your COUNTY ATTORNEY

TO THE PEOPLE OF YOAKUM COUNTY:

As I am sure you know, I was appointed County Attorney by the Commissioners Court when Paul New resigned, and have served on this appointive term since June of 1955. The duty of the County Attorney is to assist the District Attorney in District Court cases, and to handle all criminal prosecutions in Justice and County courts, and to serve as legal advisor to the Commissioners Court and all County Officials. I have carried out the duties of the office to the best of my ability in accordance with law; I have never tried to tell any other officials how to conduct their office, but I have given correct legal advice to all, and served all the people all the time, with fairness.

As to qualifications, I received my Law Degree from the University of Texas in 1948 and was licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas that same year; have had 8 years active experience in law practice, and over 5 years as a prosecuting attorney, enforcing our laws in an honest and impartial manner.

I am 34 years of age, married, have 3 children, am a veteran of combat in World War II; teach a class at the First Baptist Church, and am active in Lions Club and other civic affairs.

I am not sponsored by any groups, cliques, or factions, and have no obligations to anyone other than my Creator, my family, my country and the citizens of Yoakum County.

In the past few months I have made an active campaign for office, and have made a house to house canvas of the county; have tried to see each of you personally, but as some were away from home, I ask you to accept this as a personal solicitation for your vote and support. Please investigate my ability, background and record, as these are public matters, or check with any peace officer or judge with whom I have worked as to my qualifications.

I very deeply appreciate the many opportunities, advantages and courtesies extended to me by the people of this county; your vote and support in the coming election will be sincerely appreciated. Thank you.

New Variety Of Cotton, Wheat
To Be Available

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has announced that planting seeds for Blightmaster, a disease-tolerant, stormproof cotton and Crockett, a new high-test quality, hard red winter wheat
for Texas will be available in 1957.
Available from the Agricultural Information Office are publication
L-292, Blightmaster and L-288, Crockett which describe these new
and improved crop varieties
for Texas.

Tests indicate that Blightmaster
will yield as much under blight-free conditions as other storm-proof varieties now grown in Texas, and greater yields may be expected under heavy blight conditions. Staple length is 15-16 to one inch. It is adapted to stripper harvesting; is medium in maturity; semi-spreading in growth habit and is recommended for areas
of the state where a stormproof
variety is desired.

The new hard red winter wheat
for Texas has good disease resistance, early maturity, high yield,
high test weight and high milling qualities to its credit. Crockett wheat is recommended for the Panhandle and South Plains
wheat areas and also for the Rolling Plains and north-central Texas wheat areas. Individuals interested in producing certified seeds of Crockett during the 1956-57 crop year may obtain foundation seed from the Foundation
Seed Section, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station, Tex.

land, and Buford Duff of Pampa.

ACROSS THE Cattle Guard
By LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

The farmers who have used
good cotton insect control measures are getting a real set of fruit on their cotton. The early planted cotton has some small bolls on it and since the thrip and flea hopper have decreased, the new squares are staying on.

Some farmers have already treated twice for bollworm and where they put on the second application within seven to 10 days after the first application, they have a field of cotton that is almost free of insects except for an occasional cabbage looper.

The cabbage looper has not been considered a damaging cotton insect until just the past year.
There were some fields last year
where the cabbage looper infestation was heavy enough to do actual damage instead of just eating enough of the leaves to make the field look bad.

The cabbage looper is a worm
that is hard to control with ordinary cotton insecticides. The DDT and Toxaphene dusts and sprays that control the bollworm will kill a good many of the small cabbage loopers and those that are left in the field will not usually be enough to damage the cotton.

In cases where the cabbage looper gets out of control and treatment is necessary, the use of an endrin dust or spray is recommended for their control. A dust containing 2.5 per cent endrin and 40 per cent sulfur applied at the rate of 18 pounds per acre will do a satisfactory job. This same material will control bollworms
but only 10 to 15 pounds of dust is needed for each acre to get the small bollworms. A few additional pounds of dust applied at a regular time for bollworm control will not increase the cost of production nearly as much as a special application just to get rid of the loopers.

If a spray is desired instead of a dust, a quart of material containing one and six tenths pounds of endrin per gallon will get the loopers and the same spray material is effective on the bollworm at the same rate of one quart per acre.

It would be a good idea to check with the insecticide dealers because there is a possibility that endrin can be used for bollworm control at a cheaper cost per acre
than the materials that farmers are now using. Endrin is not highly toxic to humans like demeton and parathion but farmers should use caution in handling any type of poison.

Everyone should be flexible enough in their thinking that they can change their opinions. I have changed my thinking to some extent about cotton poisons. I used to believe that there would not be

Referendum Set
For 1957 Wheat
Marketing Quotas

Yoakum County ASC office has announced a wheat marketing referendum for 1957 will be held July 20.

The two points at issue in the vote are whether marketing quotas shall be in effect, with penalties on excess wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) not in compliance with the acreage allotment and the level of price support available to those who comply with their acreage allotment.

The ASC office pointed out that whether or not quotas are in effect, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the 1957 wheat crop.

If quotas are approved by at least two-thirds of those who vote
in the referendum, the quotas
and penalties for excess production will be in effect; and price support on the crop will available at a level between 75 and 90 per cent of parity to those who comply with the farm wheat allotments. If more than one-third of the voters disapprove the quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no
penalties from excess production,
and the available price support
will drop to 50 per cent of parity,
as provided by law.

Polls will be open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Place for voting will be the old courthouse at Plains.

Farmers who would be subject to quotas—those who will have more than 15 acres of wheat on a farm for harvest as grain in 1957
—are eligible to vote in the referendum.

Miss Doshia Lusk of Lubbock
visited in the home of her parents last week. Her mother, Mrs. Odus Lusk, was operated on Friday morning.

a case where an insect count
would not be necessary before applying an insecticide. After watching a few farmers who started poisoning at the time that the first blooms appeared and then made regular applications at seven to 10 day intervals, I saw that they were able to set a crop of fruit with very little bollworm damage.

Where the first crop of bollworms are allowed to damage the early bolls, the grade of cotton can be lowered from white cotton to spotted which will mean a loss of $10 a bale to the farmer. The increased price in grade can easily pay for all the insecticide used on a crop of irrigated cotton. All the increase in yield that comes from good insect control is already paid for in grade increase. I am convinced that insect control is a must if the farmer is to make any money on irrigated and fertilized cotton.

Yankee Bred Hog
To Be Boon For Southwest Farmers

A yankee hog which finds Texas weather invigorating will prove to be a boon to southwestern stockmen, Dr. Charles Shrewsbury of Southwest Foundation for Research and Education said today.

Foundation scientists are enthusiastic about the possibilities of the Minnesota No. 1, a new hog breed developed at the University of Minnesota. They found it is well adapted to Texas weather.

The pigs are noted for lean meat, rapid growth produced at a lower feed cost and large litters.

The breed was developed by mating a Danish Landrace boar
with English Tamworth females.
It is reddish in color and litters have averaged 9.3 over a ten year period. Tests made by the University of Minnesota showed an average weight of 222 pounds in 154 days with 94 per cent of the carcasses graded number one.

The Foundation is being assisted in broadening the development of this breed by the Tex-Shire Corporation which was formed for that purpose by Foundation President Harold Vagborg and Kerrville rancher, Hal Peterson.
Special pens with concrete "bath tubs" have been built and the hogs
now wallow in Texas luxury.

They are on display at Southwest Foundation at San Antonio Texas and are available for sale
to farmers and ranchers who want to develop their own herds.

AFFIDAVIT OF COMMISSIONERS' COURT AS TO COUNTY FINANCES

IN THE MATTER OF COUNTY FINANCES
IN THE HANDS OF
SUSAN V. HINKLE
Treasurer of Yoakum County, Texas

COMMISSIONERS' COURT
Yoakum County, Texas

July Term, 1956

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, as County Commissioners within and for said Yoakum County, and the Hon. H. K. Benton, County Judge of said Yoakum County, constituting the entire Commissioners' Court of said County, and each one of us, do hereby certify that on this, the 9th day of July A. D., 1956, at a regular term of our said Court, we have compared and examined the report of Susan V. Hinkle, Treasurer of said County, for the period beginning on the 1st day of April A. D. 1956 and ending on the 30th day of June A. D. 1956, and finding the same correct have caused an order to be entered upon the minutes of the Commissioners' Court of said County, stating the approval of said Treasurer's Report by our said Court, which said order recites separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by said County Treasurer since his last report to this Court, and for and during the time covered by his present report, and the balance of each fund remaining in said Treasurer's hands on the said 30th day of June
A. D. 1956, and have ordered the proper credits to be made in the accounts of the said County Treasurer, in accordance with said order as required by Articles 1636-1637, Chapter 1, Title 34 of the Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925.

And we, and each of us, further certify that we have actually and fully inspected and counted all the actual cash and assets in hands of the said Treasurer belonging to Yoakum County at the close of the examination of said Treasurer's Report on this the 9th day of July A. D. 1956, and find the same to be as follows, to-wit:

sheriff's sale notice on the Bennett land. I was glad to do this for I was getting two cents per word for it. This land was to have been sold at 10 a. m. on Tuesday and the well came in on Sunday night. Oil has meant life and growth for Yoakum County ever since.

When we saw the oil well was a good one, a committee from Seagraves, where the drillers had stayed, and a committee from Yoakum County, joined in giving a free barbecue and a program at the discovery well. More than one thousand people came to this barbecue over roads that were just sand and more sand. The grown-ups thought that after the "feed" the young folks would go into Seagraves and dance, but do you know they all stayed right there and enjoyed the planned program and the talks that followed by men who were interested in road building and other things that must come along with the oil wells.

The following week Editor Tricklin Sr. of the Terry County Herald said in his paper that he did not get to come to the "blow out", but that he heard that Charlie Guy from the Avalanche Journal had a rope on the oil derrick trying to pull it over into Lubbock County and Editor Moreland had another rope on it trying to keep it in Yoakum County. Well boy, the well is still in Yoakum County with hundreds more drilled since that time to keep it company!

The oil people are the best supporters of a newspaper. The non-resident people subscribe for it and look eagerly every week for oil news from the county seat. They want to know the distance from the courthouse to their property where development is going on.

The Review grew rapidly from the start. After six years as owner and publisher I was having to hire help in my own home and help in the Review office. That took most of my profit so I decided to sell to a professional newspaperman. I sold to Editor Hale, who moved to Plains from Ropesville. I'll let him take over here.

Hot Weather Is Big Threat To Egg Quality

When daytime temperatures hit 90 degrees, egg quality will hit the skids unless egg producers make some changes in management practices, says Kermit Schlamb, extension poultry marketing specialist.

From now on until cool weather in the fall, refrigeration is a must if high egg quality is to be maintained. Schlamb says that 55 degrees F. is the optimum temperature for maintaining proper egg environment. Too, eggs must be gathered more often during hot weather with three times a day gathering as a minimum.

Low quality is costly to producers selling on grade "A" quality eggs of similar size normally bring four to six cents a dozen more than "B" quality eggs. Eggs can be properly cooled for as little as 10 cents a case.

Adequate cooling points out the specialist is no substitute for frequent marketings. Even with good refrigeration, eggs should be delivered to the grading station either twice or three times a week.

Good cooling, says Schlamb, means getting the animal heat out of the egg in the shortest possible time and at the lowest cost. A cooling unit containing a tray for holding wire baskets with space underneath for storing eggs in cases is the most desirable cooling equipment. Added egg income from the use of such a unit will soon retire its cost.

Army Offers Courses

High school students shopping for a career field upon graduating recently, can find a wide stricture of the U. S. Army.

More than 100 technical training courses are offered by the Army, with qualified young men being given the opportunity of selecting a course before enlistment. Most of these training courses prepare a man for a job in a civilian industrial field as well as for military assignments.

It is possible to map a portion of a three-year Regular Army enlistment prior to being sworn into the service. "Choice, not chance" Emotional contacts can be mis-hatched become a reality for high school graduates that measure up to the Army's qualification standards.

'Don't Use All the Horsepower in Car,' Motorists Advised

E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice President of Employers Casualty Company and President of the Texas Safety Association, today urged motorists to keep a sensible rein on their speed. Mr. McFadden's plea for driver restraint was part of the speed control program which the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council are now conducting in cooperation with the "Slow Down and Live" program of the National Conference of the State Safety Coordinators.

"Undisciplined highway speed leads to disaster," McFadden said. "Such uncontrolled speed played a big part in last year's more than 38,000 traffic deaths."

He explained that the high speed potential of the modern car is there for a purpose -- to be kept in reserve for special needs, such as passing.

"The trouble comes when the driver unleashes this speed at the wrong time," he said.

He further advised drivers to cut their speed whenever weather, road conditions, or visibility are poor and also when driving through shopping districts or residential areas.

"And don't relax your control when you're on the open road," he warned. "High speed on long, monotonous stretches of road often tends to produce a somewhat hypnotic effect."

He said that the combination of monotony and speed is a factor in many rear-end collisions, and also figures prominently in accidents in which vehicles roll over or skid off the road.

"Control that urge to cut loose," McFadden said. "You'll live longer and you'll get there in good time."

RECORDS ARE VALUABLE

Record books are supplied with most such instruments that can be used to keep a record over a period of years of the soil moisture at different periods after irrigation. Such records will be very valuable in predicting the irrigation water requirements of a crop for the year in advance.

Besides being able to determine the moisture content of soil, the irrigator must know the water holding capacity of the soil. By subtracting the moisture in the soil from the capacity of the soil to hold water, he will determine how much water needs to be applied to bring soil up to field capacity. SCS technicians assisting the Yoakum Soil Conservation District will be glad to help farmers to determine when and how much to irrigate and how to estimate soil moisture estimates in order that they will know how much water to apply at any time and thus prevent waste and reduce operating costs.

TWO COMPENSATION SUITS FILED AGAINST TEXAS EMPLOYERS ASS'N

Two compensation cases against the Texas Employers Insurance association were filed in district court this week.

Willie Oakes who is a resident of Arkansas, alleges that on or about April 24, 1956, while working in the course of his employment for H&M Service Company in Yoakum county, accidental injuries were sustained that have resulted in permanent total disability. He is asking the court for compensation for a total of 401 weeks at the rate of $25 per week.

Oakes sets forth that while he was engaged in work he was lifting some 7-inch casing and injured his back causing excruciating pain and agony and directly and proximately resulting in injuries and damages sustained by him. That medical examination reveals the plaintiff sustained injuries to his back including myoelectric changes in his lumbar spine; that muscles, ligaments and tendons in the back and spine were wrenched twisted and torn and there was serious damage to nerves themselves.

He further intends to show the court that his spine was so damaged and injured that it is a source of constant pain to him; that said injuries are of such nature to make it impossible for the plaintiff ever again to obtain or retain employment requiring heavy lifting and the use of a strong, unimpaired back and body; that plaintiff is totally disabled from his usual occupation by reason of the extent and severity of injuries his condition of total disability is permanent and will be with him throughout the rest of his natural life.

The other case filed is on behalf of J. C. Harrell, a resident of Livingston, Polk county, Texas, who asserts that on or about November 12, 1954, the plaintiff entered the employ of O'Neal Drilling Company, and remained until he sustained injury on or about November 17, 1954, in Yoakum county; that at the time of the injury the plaintiff was working as a roughneck at an oil well drill site and while so occupied, a four-inch hose blew out at the metal union striking plaintiff and knocking him down with a great deal of force and violence.

As a result, the plaintiff alleges he received severely stretched, torn, wrenched, bruised, lacerated, impinged and otherwise damaged and injured muscles, ligaments, nerves, tendons, cartilage, and other tissues and attachments of back, hips, pelvis, lower extremities and left shoulder and arm; crushing injuries to left shoulder and arm resulting in lipping and increased density in the area of the greater tubercle and abnormal rarified areas; crushing and twisting injuries to left shoulder and arm resulting in lipping fractures at the base of the inferior margin of the humerus and causing irregularity of the scapula; compaction and jamming together of the left shoulder resulting in a mass of calcification in the superior portion of the acromioclavicular joint leaving said joint separated and all attempted articulation of said member painful and unnatural; that as a result of said injuries to plaintiff's left leg, the bones of said member have become badly displaced and dislocated and the plaintiff has been caused to undergo extensive surgery and medical treatment resulting in a long, metal pin being placed in the tibia bone, along with a metal screw; that as a result of said injuries, plaintiff has been caused to suffer a serious disruption of his central nervous system and suffers from loss of weight and sleep and extreme nervous seizures, that as a result of said accident and the pain and suffering incident hereto, plaintiff has been caused to suffer total disability and incapacity from labor and said condition are permanent.

The plaintiff sets forth that his average daily wage was $17; that he is 54 years of age and with no other means of support; that the nature of injuries have wholly incapacitated the plaintiff from performance of labor and said incapacity will continue for the remainder of his life; that plaintiff has been without funds for support of himself and has been compelled to go into debt in the sum of $800 in order to procure necessities; that if said compensation due him be paid on lump sum, he desires to provide necessities, to pay his debts and make an investment in a suitable business; that under the prevailing high cost of living, weekly payments of compensation at the rate of $25 per week after payment of expenses, will be wholly inadequate for the purpose of providing necessities, paying debts and making provision for the future; that under said circumstances, plaintiff would suffer a manifest hardship and injustice if said compensation be paid in weekly installments rather than in one lump sum, therefore he asks he
