LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(Delayed from last week.)
Mr. Editor:
In the recognition service at the "Old Settler's Day" recently, no recognition was made or trophies given to the ones that are really our "Old Settlers" - those that came to the county 73, 72, 71 or 70 years ago.

Their ranks are fast thinning out but there were several of these present that day. I wondered if we couldn't still recognize them in the paper.

Among them were: Mrs. Maggie Turner Gollehon, the oldest woman and Mrs. Stella Turner Burch who, I believe, are presently the oldest settlers and have been in the county for the longest time. They came to the county and Dimmitt in 1890 and neither have lived anywhere else; Mr. Tom Tate the oldest man who came in 1891 and has lived here excepting for a short time when he lived in Oklahoma; Mr. Presley Dyer coming in 1891 and still living in the county; and Mr. Percy Estes coming in 1891 and a permanent county resident.

Also Mrs. Willie Dyer Gilliland, Mrs. Ida Beech Bennett and Mack Beach who came to Castro County in 1891 but for several years have lived in Hereford.

Other old settlers coming in the '90's or the first three or four years of the 1900's and represented at the reunion include the Burches, Hastings, Gollehons, Johnsons, Henderson, Slovers, Hill-Alexander, B. T. Bells, Boyds, Harts, Sweazea, Hammes, Merrits, Burnhams, Irelands, Greers, Easters, Dixons, McLeans, Lovelace, Ramey, Greenes, Shives, Crums and perhaps others I may accidentally over looked.

Our hats should be off to those that braved the hardships of these early years in the then sparsely settled county.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ester Noble

Coffey Break Sidelines Junior

Dr. Harry Alban, M. D. of Long Beach, California, sent the following information concerning Junior Coffey to the News:

"Just in case you are not aware of the extensive publicity your Dimmitt-created star is getting, I am forwarding this page from the Long Beach paper," wrote Dr. Alban.

The following was taken from compiled wire reports of the Press-Telegram of Long Beach, California. "A tiny bone snapped and it was heard up and down the Pacific Coast today.

"And the University of Washington's football fortunes came tumbling down.

"Junior Coffey, powerful line plunger called by most West Coast football coaches the best fullback in the country, may be sidelined for the season.

"Coach Jim Owens said X-rays revealed a break in the right foot of the hulking all-American candidate in exactly the same area as the fracture which sidelined him during spring practice. The latest break occurred during practice session Monday, September 2.

"Coffey was the leading ground gainer in the Big Six last season and with a shortage of halfbacks at Washington this season, the entire offense was being built around the 210 pound plunger."

Annual Field Day Begins Friday

Halfway—Friday, September 13th will be a full day at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway. The Board of Trustees will hold their seventh annual meeting in the morning, and the Seventh Annual Field Day will be held during the afternoon.

Mr. Harold Hinn, Chairman of the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee, has called the board meeting for 10:00 a.m. Friday the 13th to be held in the conference room of the Killgore Memorial Building at the Foundation. The Board will decide the research program and budget for 1964. They will also act upon further expansion of facilities and staff to conduct the research program.

The Board Members will be hosts during the afternoon Field Day program in the various activities. Mr. Steve Taylor of Dimmitt, Vice-President of the Foundation, will be chairman of the hosts in the Killgore Building and laboratory and the Jim Hill Greenhouse. Eighteen Board Members will take turns escorting visitors through the building on an hourly schedule.

Graddy Tunnell, of Plainview, Secretary-Treasurer of the Foundation, will serve as Chairman of the host group in the reception-registration tent, where Board Members will be receiving visitors and explaining the operation of the Foundation.

The lawn and shrubbery display and walking tours which are new this year, will be under the direction of Claude Fargason of Halfway, who is a member of the Board. He will be assisted by a Board Member on duty each hour and by representatives of the lawn and nursery industry from Lubbock, Kress and Plainview. The lawn equipment display will be located adjacent to the 15 lawn grass plots.

A feature of the Field Days, since the first one in 1957, is the farm machinery display located around the Halfway Community Building. O. R. Stak, Jr., of Quitaque is Chairman of this portion of Field Day activities. Three Board Members and three representatives of farm equipment organizations will be hosts each hour of the afternoon. This display has increased in size and number of participants each year.

Dr. Earl H. Collister, Director of the Foundation, said he would like to "extend a personal invitation to all who are interested in Agriculture to come to the Field Day to look over the crops, stay for the barbecue, then the evening program with the guest speaker, The Honorable George Mahon."

Garden Club Resumes Meetings

(Mrs. Sid Sheffy, reporter) "Remember it is not the material but how you put it together" Mrs. W. J. Carver of Plainview, guest of the Dimmitt Garden Club, told members Tuesday afternoon in the first meeting of the Fall season. Mrs. Carver charmed those present with her delightful wit and philosophy of life.

Mrs. Carver made several arrangements using dried plant material, such as small crooked branches, dried leaves and seed pods. She says that age is a wonderful time of life for people and materials just as youth is also wonderful.

Mrs. Carver said that branches of trees and plants are like children, they grow the way they are bent, so that they may be used in the Great Design. Design is the first and greatest of the six elements in making a flower arrangement, a dress or a house, then harmony, color, texture and others.

Mrs. Bob DuLaney presided at the business session. Mrs. Robert Singer presented the Year Books and gave the outline of the coming work.

Mrs. Ray Riley, Miss Allie Mae Willis and Mrs. R. N. Carpenter served coffee and cookies from a table covered with a dark green linen cloth edged with gold braid. The appointments were of copper and china. Forming the centerpiece was an arrangement of colorful fruits in wooden containers.

Madrid Clover Proves Useful

Madrid Sweetclover is useful in a coarinated soil and water conservation program announces Pete Wright, SCS technician.

The clover provides good protection against soil loss, improves soil productivity, makes good grazing and hay crop and produces satisfactory seed crop.

Madrid sweet clover can reach deep into the subsoil and bring up minerals which have become exhausted on the surface says Wright. No other legume will penetrate so well the plow soil and subsoil to open it for aeration and moisture penetration. Madrid resists cold and can be planted in the fall or spring. It is a biennial if planted in late fall or early spring.

Sweetclover is leafy and fine stemmed which makes it desirable for both hay and grazing. It produces grazing from May to December the first year, early spring and summer grazing the second year.

Oklahoma Experiment Station has carried on a rotation of Madrid Sweetclover and wheat. In a five year rotation, the three years of wheat produced 20 per cent more bushels than the check area of wheat did in five years according to Wright. This rotation has been carried on for 16 years with same satisfactory results.

Most crops such as small grains, sorghums or cotton will do well if planted after Madrid. Experiments have found there will be less root rot present when cotton is planted after Madrid.

To grow Madrid Sweetclover, farmers need firm seedbed. Also seed need to be inoculated, planted in normal rows or drilled, fertilized in phosphate and should not be grazed until plants are 12 to 15 inches high. Seeding rates for normal rows is four to five pounds per acre. Drilled alone 10-15 pounds per acre is needful. If overseeding small grain, farmers should use 8-10 pounds per acre. These rates are based on commercial seed. Weeds should be controlled by mowing, especially when clover is seeding in the spring.

Farmers Union Hears Johnson

Reuben Johnson, legislative director of the National Farmers Union Legislative office in Washington, D. C. spoke at the annual Castro County Farmers Union meeting, Monday night.

He spoke concerning the function of his office and the role Farmers Union plays in passing legislation.

Mr. Johnson stressed the need of farmers contacting their Congressmen concerning farm legislation.

He briefed the group on farm status at Capitol Hill. Johnson stated, "National Farmers Union said they favor a full parity wheat support program and that a better solution must be found than the proposals now before the Congress."

"We have made a careful analysis of all the new wheat programs presented by members of Congress since the wheat referendum. The revival of what in effect is the old worn-out soil bank proposal which Congress has repeatedly rejected offers no solution to the prospect of lower wheat prices in 1964. The effect of this proposal price-wise is to support wheat at approximately $1.30 per bushel, a level below which wheat prices are now expected to drop because of the renewal of the feed grain program. This further retards whole farms which has been a highly objectionable feature of the soil bank program."

"Since its inception has been strongly objected to by the rural community as well as farmers, we do not believe that Congress should enact such legislation as would set wheat prices permanently at this disastrously low level and permit whole farms to be taken out of production."

"We should look toward the time when wheat prices reflect full parity returns to wheat growers and the building of a strong kind of rural economy which is essential to overall economic growth and development."

Mr. Johnson is a native of Georgia and has been employed by National Farmers Union in legislative office for 11 years. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and their daughter, Joy, resides in Washington, D.C.

Other highlights of the Farmers Union meeting was ice cream supper and election of officers.

Serving as officers in the Farmers Union this year will be James Welch, reelected as president; John Merritt, vice-president; and S. L. Garrison, secretary-treasurer. Directors will be elected at the next Castro County Farmers Union meeting.

Annual Field Day Planned At Texas Experiment Station

Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, seven and one-half miles north of Lubbock on Hwy 87 is conducting their annual field day, Tuesday, September 17 according to Charles Hottel, county agent.

The field day will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Purpose is to show the latest developments in agricultural research.

Highlights of the day include discussion of effective weed control. Chemicals found to be effective, rates and methods of applications and costs will be discussed at the field day.

At the Station, farmers will view strains of cotton which are being developed for tolerance to Verticillium wilt, seedling diseases and nematodes (root-knot). Farmers will have the opportunity to observe studies of the use of chemicals for cotton disease control.

Such practices as how to obtain fall and irrigation water through the use of timely irrigation, balancing of water and fertilizer, skip-row planting and land forming practices will be seen at the Field Day.

The sorghum midge, a major threat to grain sorghum industry has been found to overwinter in the area. Midge builds up on Johnsongrass, Sorghum Almum and some native grasses. Heavy populations usually appear in grain sorghum fields around August 1, with the degree of damage increasing with later blooming sorghum. Research, supported by the sorghum industry, is underway to combat this pest by use of cultural practices and chemical treatment. See and learn more about the control of sorghum midge at the Field Day.

Other items of interest include use of radioactive isotopes to study root development of cotton, sub-irrigation of cotton and new strains of cotton.

Grazing Diverted Acreage Changed To October 1

The ASCS Office has received notice of a change in the regulations concerning diverted acres. The original date set to resume grazing diverted acres was November 1, 1963. This means that you may begin grazing land designated as diverted acres on Tuesday, October 1, 1963. This includes diverted acres on which you have fall sown wheat.

Reasons For Change:

- A. To permit cooperating producers to plan fall and winter operations more effectively.
- B. To allow grazing of 1964-crop winter wheat in the Southern Plains to avoid too rank growth which sometimes results in smothering and winter kill.
- C. To provide more equitable treatment in northern areas where snow often prevents grazing by November 1.
- D. To alleviate, to some extent, the shortage of forage in areas containing spotty drought conditions.

About Your Health

Good posture makes it possible to use the body in the simplest and most effective way—muscle contraction and relaxation, balance, coordination, rhythm, and timing makes all tasks easier.

Posture has a direct bearing on comfort, work efficiency and body functions. Poor posture can become a habit, like overeating. Poor posture reduces blood circulation, induces drowsiness and fatigue. Because breathing is shallow, abdominal organs sag and perform poorly.

Posture, some experts explain, is the end result of body mechanics. The human body is composed of many intricate and interacting components. Body mechanics might be defined as the functioning of the body parts.

Tension is a deterrent to good body mechanics. Relaxation is a lessening of tension. Learning to relax completely is an important aid to body mechanics. A person may lie down to rest but defeat his purpose by not relaxing.

A person with poor posture can get tired just sitting. It's worth learning the right way to sit, too, for it can save much fatigue and weariness. Try it, using these simple rules: Use a firm chair with a seat height equal to leg length from bottom of the heel to the back of the knee, minus 1 1/2 inches. Sit tall — on the back of the thighs rather than the end of the spine. Hold the head and trunk erect, centered over the pelvis or tilted slightly forward. Flex the knees at right angles.

ENMU Collides With New Mexico Aggies Saturday

Head Coach Carl Richardson of the Eastern New Mexico University Greyhounds has announced his probable starting lineup for the Hounds opening game Saturday (Sept. 14) in Las Cruces against New Mexico State.

The lineup will include five seniors, three in the line and two backs; two juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman.

The starting line averages 201 pounds per man and the backfield averages 185 pounds. The starting team average is 195 pounds.

When the Hounds tangle with the Aggies Saturday, they will be playing one of the toughest games on their schedule. However, a look at the schedule shows the going will remain tough throughout the season.

In addition to the Aggies, the Hounds have games with such small college powerhouses as Adams State of Colorado and Central Oklahoma, defending NAIA national champions.

Physically, the Hounds appear to be in good shape for the Aggie clash. The only injuries so far are senior halfback Billy Adams, Lubbock, who has a bruised right knee and may not be ready by Saturday, and Reggie Sparks, an Illinois freshman who was lost for the season with a shoulder separation.

Lack of experienced depth in the line looms as the Hounds major problem to date. There are only three senior linemen on the squad. Of the 28 squadmen playing line, one-half are freshmen.

The Greyhounds success in the opener as well as the remainder of the season will depend a great deal on how well inexperienced linemen develop.

Saturday's tilt will be the first between the two schools since Eastern became a fully accredited four-year university. However, the two played in 1934 while ENMU was a junior college and the Hounds absorbed a 34-0 defeat.

HERE FROM IDAHO
Capt. and Mrs. Garnett Holland and four months old daughter, Vanesa Ann, of Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho are here for a furlough visit with his mother, Mrs. Faye Holland, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Patterson of Hart and other friends and relatives.

Every year about this time county farmers start looking over their fields for the best grain, vegetable and cotton samples and their wives and youngsters start looking over their livestock and households for possible exhibits. Every year these people come up with about the best farm produce in the United States . . . and we're proud of their efforts. We wish them all luck and a good fair.

"Looking Through The Knot Hole"

With Myrtle

Top of the morning to you; and let's go down to the Willson Nichols store and look at some new door knobs that old knob has worn out until the least wind blows the door open.

There are so many to choose from the decision will not be easy. Here is the entrance handle locks. This one has a classic design, a good working thumb piece, this has the same working skill on each side of the door.

Another plain door knob has the key lock with ease of operation. A similar entrance knob lock has the inside knob that operates the latch at all times while the inside lock and unlocks the door. As a security measure, the T-Turn will not lock the door of the key is turned in the lock, now all of these knobs and locks by Weiser are made for beauty and safety for inside and outside doors, but I want to see the different styles, you know what a pretty door knob can do for the front entrance.

John Nichols has several Weiser Locks and knobs on display. There is the decorated brass with cut outs in square design and one in a half round. The thumb and handle entrance knob that will be so pretty on the Early American or Colonial house. The two square design plates in a bright brass or copper. These would be very nice on the ranch style or if you like the smooth and different look of modern, the arrow or a long point star design might just be the thing to brighten your door. We need to go window shopping at the Willson Nichols store more often, there are pretty new things being made now that we need to see. A new entrance knob might just be what that door needs for beauty and usefulness.

So long for now. Myrtle (Pd. Adv.)

VENISON POPULAR FOOD—

State Parks and Wildlife Department has a booklet available for free distribution, which should be of interest to ranchers, hunters and just about everyone.

Its title is "Texas Deer Herd Management—problems and Principles." Booklet was written by James G. Teer, wildlife biologist formerly employed by the state. In his research, Teer found that deer herds of Texas provided more than 6,000 tons of meat for family consumption last year.

Another bulletin, newly-revised, also can be secured without cost. It's called "Poisonous Snakes of Texas and the First Aid Treatment of Their Bites."

A large number of door prizes will be given away at the 5:30 drawing. According to Vandiver, presence is not required in order to win. The store will be serving free cokes and coffee all day.

Calling the group together is the committee of the Governing Boards of State Colleges and Universities. Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales is executive secretary of the privately financed committee.

On the program will be Governor Connally, Dr. A. B. Martin, executive director of the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School; and Dr. Lester Harrell, director of the Texas Commission on Higher Education.

Purpose of the meeting is to spell out the Committee's goals for the immediate future and determine a means of attaining them.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texan:

The Senate has approved an additional $455 Million for the Area Redevelopment Administration. This is an agency set up to aid local enterprise in revitalizing communities, counties, areas of high unemployment and low income.

I am co-author of the original Area Redevelopment Act, S. 1. of the 87th Congress which created the Area Redevelopment program. Earlier this year the House of Representatives defeated the bill authorizing additional funds for the Area Redevelopment Administration. But now the Senate has passed that bill for $455 Million.

The House Banking and Currency Committee has now reported out a bill amounting $100 Million for the amount authorized by the Senate. I am hopeful this bill will be passed in the House and that we can restore as much of that $100 Million as possible.

The Area Redevelopment program has been especially helpful to Texas. Under plans initiated locally, backed by private capital, the Area Redevelopment Administration is responsible for bringing many projects to Texas: One of the finest brick and tile plants in the world to Malakoff in Henderson County; expansion of a pottery company at Athens in Henderson County; a mineral survey in East Texas; a synthetic marble plant and office furniture plant in Jacksonville, Cherokee County; an industrial park at Clarksville in Red River County; a pickle plant in Detroit, Red River County; an $11 Million tire plant to Texarkana in Bowie County. We are hopeful of obtaining many other projects. For example, a $30 Million newsprint plant at Jasper is under survey.

Every penny of the loans in connection with these projects must be repaid to the United States with interest not lower than the government pays on its loans. In addition there are public grants that go to build water works, sewage disposal plants and public buildings in cities and counties. These are matching grants projects. The federal government grants part of the money; the local community raises the rest.

In all, the ARA has loaned more than $10 Million on these plants in Texas, and they have created new jobs in new areas. Some sixty counties in Texas with a total population of about a million Texans have been designated by the ARA as eligible for these programs.

The counties are as widely dispersed as Collingsworth County in the Panhandle; Val Verde, Zapata and Dimmitt counties on the Rio Grande; Falls County in the heart of Central Texas; Red River County in Northeast Texas and others in Central, East, South and North Texas. The ARA works on formula based on the percentage of unemployment in the county, the average income, and on whether the county's population has been falling. In other words, this is a redevelopment act to let people through their own initiative rebuild for their own prosperity. It's a good law.

HOLDS REVIVAL

Rev. and Mrs. Henry C. Thomas left Wednesday to conduct a week's revival at First Church of Nazarene in Tucumcari, New Mexico.

THE BIBLE TEACHES...

... that "the love of money is the root of all evil" in I Timothy 6:10. Money is not bad itself.

The bad thing is an uncontrolled desire for money. That kind of attitude results in all kinds of evil in an effort to get money.
