

Bank deposits reach record midyear levels

Bank deposits totaling $43,370,287.36 in Castro County at the close of business June 30 were reported from First State Bank of Dimmitt and Farmers State Bank of Hart, both at record levels for a midyear report.

The high deposits were matched by high figures for total bank assets, loans and discounts at the end of June.

First State's deposits amounted to $33,523,093.98 on the date of the 1978 second-quarter bank call, compared with $26,801,788.80 at the same time last year and $28,091,457.96 in 1976.

At Farmers State, $9,847,193.38 was on deposit, topping the midyear record of $9,406,548.26 in 1976 as well as last year's $8,661,381.91.

Another barometer of economic conditions, retail sales in Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth, increased in May, measured by the amount of the one percent city sales tax rebate from the state comptroller's office for that month. The June report has not been received yet.

Although there was an upswing for the month, totals for the year to date were still below those of 1977 in Hart and Dimmitt, and just a shade higher in Nazareth.

Reasons for the high deposits at midyear, a time when they are usually low, are difficult to pinpoint, said Bob McLean, president of the Dimmitt bank, although he added that the Farmers Home Administration loans to farmers in a drought emergency program have put a large amount of cash in farmers' hands.

He said also that many farmers and other residents of this area have become more cautious about spending money, and are making more of an effort to save.

According to Kenneth Pruitt, supervisor of the FmHA office here, that agency has loaned farmers a total of $17,736,150 through his office since the emergency loans became available last Oct. 1.

That amount is in addition to the $1,150,900 in loans through the regular program of the local office, Pruitt said.

Total assets of the First State Bank stand at $37,102,376.01 now, well above the $30,232,202.03 of June 30, 1977 and $32,323,848.73 on that date in 1976.

First State also reported $21,170,958.98 in loans and discounts, compared with $20,583,838.18 a year ago and $22,605,631.13 two years ago.

The Hart bank has total assets of $10,978,319.44, more than the $9,791,979.70 in 1977 and $10,389,630.77 in 1976. Its loans and discounts this year totaled $6,566,655.63 compared with $5,942,219.04 in 1977 and $5,583,162.05 for 1976.

IT'S A GREAT FEELING—As their players applaud, coaches of the Dimmitt All-Stars accept the Junior Babe Ruth district championship trophy here Sunday afternoon, following their team's victory over Plainview in the title game. Accepting the trophy is Coach Tommy Ramirez; behind him are Coaches David Martinez and Enrique Ogas [18]. Presenting the trophy is Tournament Director Ted Robb. At far left is Dimmitt Babe Ruth League Director J.R. Mixson. The district championship—Dimmitt's first ever in Babe Ruth baseball competition—advances the team to the state tournament, which will start Tuesday in Canyon. There, the team will be vying for one of two Texas spots in the regional tournament in Pine Bluff, Ark.

Workers' housing critical

A hundred or more migrant workers' families who came here to help with the county's biggest-ever vegetable harvest have had to leave the Dimmitt area because they can't find places to live.

The 192-apartment Agricultural Housing Project in East Dimmitt, built in 1968 to solve the problem, has been full for more than a month.

"I could have rented over a hundred more apartments, I know—at least half again more than we have here," Housing Project Manager Fred Moulton said this week. "That's how many we've had to turn away."

Moulton estimated that the Housing Project's population now is 1,000 to 1,200, more than half of them migrant workers and their families.

"We had room for only 600 to 700 migrant workers at the start of the summer," Moulton reported. "We have a lot of farm workers that live here year-round. The demand peaked a little early this year, and we'll probably stay full up until sometime in October."

Vegetable acreage in the Dimmitt area almost doubled this year with the opening of the new Dimco Industries, Inc., plant. The new plant also nearly doubled the number of processors and field workers needed.

"Some of our people are living in anything with a roof on it," one Dimco official said. "We could use twice as much housing as we've got."

"They've been sleeping in their cars and trucks while trying to find a place to live, but they're tired of looking," Albert Maxwell, manager of LaMantia, Cullum, Collier & Co. of Dimmitt, Inc., said.

He added, "We could probably use another 60 people before we start on carrots, but we'll have to do without them because there's no place for them to live."

Police offer to watch home of vacationer

Dimmitt residents on vacation trips this summer may rest easier if they know the hometown police are keeping an eye on their homes while they are gone. That is a service offered by the police department on request.

It is available to the traveler who fills out a form obtained at the Dimmitt police office before he leaves town, according to Chief of Police Alan Newman. This assures that the home will be checked regularly while its occupants are on vacation.

"If you don't have time to come to the police department, just call in and we'll fill out the form for you," Newman said.

It lists the home address, owner's name, dates planned for the trip, destination, whether lights are left on, animals left on the place and name of a person to be contacted in an emergency, as well as any other details the vacationer wishes to be noted.

SQUARE DANCERS take a fast-moving turn in one of the highlight events of the annual Nazareth German Folk Festival Saturday. The Festival also included a baseball game, round dancing, a new outdoor talent show, an arts and crafts show, outdoor table games and the traditional Wurstfest dinner, and ended with a public dance that drew a record crowd. The Festival, held for the first time on a Saturday, attracted visitors from throughout North Texas, as well as New Mexico and Louisiana.

Schedule changed for street work

A change in the schedule of rebuilding downtown sectors of highways through Dimmitt is announced by the State Highway Department, to make access more convenient to grain elevators during the corn and milo harvest late this summer.

When the south side of SH 86 from Broadway east to the city limits, now under construction, has a usable driving surface, the work crew will double back and rebuild the north side of the same stretch instead of beginning a sector on US 385 as originally planned.

Workmen on the current phase of the project are now applying a stabilized asphalt base, which is a usable driving surface, according to Rhea Bradley, resident engineer in the highway department's Littlefield office.

Bradley expects that this base will be completed by the end of next week, so the stretch now under construction can be opened to traffic then.

As the project continues this type of driving surface will be used until the stabilized asphalt base is down on the entire project, then an inch and a half of hot mix final coat will be applied on it.

When the work is finally completed, both US 385 and SH 86 will be entirely rebuilt through the city. The Jake Diel Construction Co., contractors, and the highway department have planned the project in segments, and workmen will tear out only half-widths of the highways at a time so two-way traffic can be continued on the other half of the street.

To finish Phase-1, the east half of US 385 from the Bedford-Broadway St. intersection south to Belsher St. is to be rebuilt, according to the original plan.

Phase-2 calls for starting work on North 385 at the railroad crossing and completing the east half of that street to the intersection. At that point the original plan was to turn east on SH 86 and finish the north side, the sector now scheduled for immediate work.

In Phase-3, the entire west half of 385 will be rebuilt, from the railroad crossing through the downtown area to Belsher St. The final stages will be on SH 86, West Bedford, from the Broadway-Bedford intersection to 10th St., half a width at a time.

Young elected to JP board

Justice of the Peace Marshall Young of Dimmitt was elected to the board of directors of the 1,100-member Texas Justices of the Peace and Constables Association at its recent convention in Dallas.

Young represents the JPs of the Panhandle area on the 10-member governing board, which is made up of five JPs and five constables. He succeeds Justice of the Peace Cliff Roberts of Amarillo as the Panhandle member.

One of the state board's main functions is to plan and schedule the curriculum to be used for the mandatory education seminars for Texas JPs each year.

Crowds entertained at German Festival

More than 900 persons were served a German sausage dinner Saturday when visitors thronged the town of Nazareth for its annual German Festival.

Crowds listened all afternoon to the free outdoor concert that was a new feature of the festival this year, attended the baseball game, square dance, arts-crafts show and the western dance that ended the celebration Saturday night. The 1978 festival was held on Saturday instead of Sunday as in previous years.

For the sixth year the Nazareth residents invited everybody to attend the community event in which they recall the light-hearted spirit of the German ancestors of most folk in the neighborhood. Music, dancing and good food are featured.

"We were really pleased by the attendance," Jerome Brockman, festival chairman, said Monday.

"The crowd at the dance was the biggest we've ever had, I think, and the concert attracted a lot of people, too. There were at least five groups playing during the afternoon, with musicians from Lubbock, Muleshoe, Earth, Amarillo, Hart and Dimmitt as well as the local boys."

At the art-crafts show sponsored by the Nazareth Art Club, the many visitors were asked to vote on the entry they liked best. A landscape painted by Irene Wilhelm got the most votes.

The three top favorites in each category were announced as follows by Patsy Huseman, club president:

SCENES — Mrs. Wilhelm, Francis Frazier, Helen Gerber.

STRUCTURES — Mrs. Wilhelm, Francis Frazier, Kay Stephen.

FLOWERS — Patsy Huseman, Irene Wilhelm, Rosemary Gesber.

WINDMILLS — Francis Frazier, Kay Stephens, Helen Gerber.

ANIMATED — Kay Stephens first and second, Helen Gerber.

The Snider Insurance Agency will have the formal opening of its new office at 212 W. Bedford St. at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Coffee and doughnuts will be served, and officials of the Chamber of Commerce and the City of Dimmitt will be on hand for the ribbon-cuttings.

The agency is owned by Bill Snider.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony at Corn Saver Manufacturing Co., Inc., on US 385 north will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Owned by the Ernest Sammann family, the plant manufactures Sammann's patented "Corn Saver" pick-up attachments for corn headers.

After the ribbon-cutting, the plant will have guided tours, refreshments and displays of its products.

The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce conducts ribbon-cuttings for all member businesses' new facilities to call public attention to the Dimmitt area's business and industrial growth.

Dimmitt School Board raises lunch prices

The Dimmitt School Board voted Monday night to raise the price of school lunches by 10 cents per meal, the first such increase since a 10-cent hike in 1974. The greatest part of the increase will go to higher salaries and the increasing cost of food, according to Supt. Robert Ryan.

Lunches will go from 55 cents to 65 cents for students in kindergarten through third grade, from 60 to 70 cents for students in fourth through eighth grades, and from 70 to 80 cents for ninth through 12th grade students and adults.

During the 1977-78 school year, the cafeterias operated at a net loss of $1,787.04, Ryan reported.

Although more than half the lunches served in the schools are under the free lunch program, the free lunches do not contribute to Mary Wilhelm.

Assault charge follows fight

An altercation at the migrant housing project here early Wednesday morning resulted in Gudino Carlos Mendez, 18, being taken to Plains Memorial Hospital with stab wounds in the back, inflicted with onion shears.

Charges of misdemeanor assault against Jose Barrios, 25, were being filed in county court Wednesday, according to County Attorney Jimmy Davis. A third man was charged in city court with drunkenness, and a charge of drunkenness was also entered against Barrios.

The three men shared an apartment at the housing project, Police Chief Alan Newman said. All were illegal aliens.

The disturbance which occurred about 1:30 a.m. Wednesday was investigated by Police Officers Haney and Aleman.

COMMUNICATION

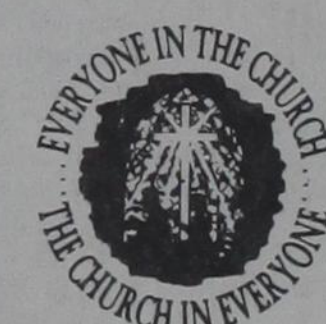

Telephone lines spread across our nation, giving us immediate contact with loved ones. Vital business is rapidly contracted through this medium.

Our linkage to God is prayer. Through prayer we can express our love, our thanks, and seek God's help.

"Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray."

Attend church, join others in fellowship and prayer to God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Wednesday Mrs. Coke had a delightful visit with her granddaughter Janet Claborn and family from Phoenix, Ariz. Janet's husband is Dr. Jobey Claborn and they have two sons Jackie and Jason. Dr. Claborn had to go back home but Janet's going to stay awhile so Mrs. Coke looks for her back for a few more visits.

Floy Hart's sister-in-law Bertha Gonsales was here visiting with Floy and Hattie Webb.

Thank you so much to who ever filled the bowls around the manor with fresh apricots. They are delicious.

The Dunn brothers will be with us Saturday night. Joe graciously got the family together for a picture for our scrapbook.

Two lovely ladies, decked out in gardening hats cleaned the flower beds and patio. They were DeLorise Gilliland and Dorothy Musick. Velma Tucker really wanted a picture of them for the bulletin board. Some of the rest of us thought the picture would do well in the garden they planted.

July 4th has come and gone. The tables were covered with white cloths and decorated. The dinner was fried chicken with apple pie for dessert. There was a little flag standing in the hot rolls. Our cooks are great and we thank them.

Thank you, Mrs. Cason Smith for the lovely July 4th bouquet you shared with us.

Dee Ann Umberson visited her grandmother Alma Umberson this week. Dee Ann is moving to Albuquerque to work on her masters degree at the university.

Mrs. Minchew brought an interesting message on the parables Sunday at 4:00. He is from the Bedford St. Church of Christ.

Pam Nutt and Tina Jones came out for a visit with Velma Tucker. She enjoyed the girls so much.

Mildred Wortham, head dietician, is back from her vacation. She went deep sea fishing and came back with a suntan. She had a good time but is ready to get back to work.

We have a new patient Mrs. Mattie Crum from Roswell, N.M. She is the mother of Cecil Crum.

Mrs. Rothwell had a nice visit from Mrs. Leland Smith. The residents enjoy visitors so much.

Mrs. Coke went to her grandson, Rick Wright's wedding shower, Saturday. She's going to be busy with grandsons' weddings later this month.

Joe Dunn and Geneva Justice gave a beautiful musical program Sunday morning, after Tom Collins from the First United Methodist Church gave his devotion.

Jennifer and Sharon Bell from Columbia, Mo. and Mary Alice Tucker came Friday to visit Velma Tucker.

Mrs. Acker's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Acker, came to visit with her Friday.

Dorothy Musick is back at work after a much needed vacation to East Texas. The only thing, her husband made her pick peas on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Bates from Plainview visited Friday with Mrs. Rothwell. Mrs. Bates is Mrs. Rothwell's daughter.

In the hospital here our residents are Pearl Sheffy and Pearl Gass. Mrs. Parker is in the hospital at Tulia. Remember them with a prayer and card.

GO!—As a Plainview outfielder [right background] chases down a Dimmitt hit, Johnny Nino gets the "go" sign from manager David Martinez and rounds third base en route home

Hart teacher selected for trainee study

Daria Underwood, faculty member at Hart, was one of 85 school personnel selected from throughout Texas to attend an administrative trainee program at Stephen F. Austin University in Nacogdoches. She is a Title I migrant reading teacher and coordinator in the Hart Elementary School, and has taught five years. She will complete 12 hours of administrative courses this summer and hopes to enter the administrative field in elementary schools later.

The trainee program at SFAU is sponsored by the Texas Center for Development of Human Resources. It encourages women and members of minority races to train for leadership positions in the state schools to help solve problems related to race and sex discrimination. Mrs. Underwood plans to return to SFAU next summer to finish the final 12 hours needed for a master's degree and certification, and later begin work for a doctor's degree in elementary education.

YOU'RE... UH, SAFE!—Dimmitt third baseman Roy Tijerina has just tagged this Muleshoe runner and umpire Tim Hucks is throwing up the "out" signal. But a second after this photo was taken, Hucks changed his ruling to "safe" when he noticed that the runner had knocked the ball [arrow] out of Tijerina's glove on the way by. The play came in the top of the fifth inning in last Thursday's game between the two first-round losers in the Junior Babe Ruth Tournament here. Dimmitt stayed alive with an 18-17 victory, then went on to defeat Olton and Plainview twice to win the district championship.

Letter to the editor

Writer asks control of insect pests

Dear Sir:
In the past few years, we have seen our town grow into a thriving business, agricultural and industrial city. This is something all of us should take pride in.

But, some of the things have not kept up to date, such as:

When we first moved to Dimmitt, almost 15 years ago, you could entertain with cook-outs and parties without the threat of mosquitos and flies. Then, the city was spraying 2 to 3 times weekly and was doing a good job of controlling these pests.

Also, each resident had their own trash barrels, which they cleaned, sprayed and emptied, as the need arose. But now, we have progressed to the extent that we now have dumpsters, which the city empties almost every week. That is if the weather is good and there are no holidays.

As these are emptied, no special care is taken to keep the trash from blowing all over town—most of the alley ways look like a disaster area. Also, you can inspect these containers and see that nothing is done to sanitize them.

One can find maggots, flies and every other kind of insect crawling around unmolested. This condition is not only unsightly, but is a health hazard to our community.

If the city demands the dumpsters be used, why can't they take care of the problems that are involved?

Thank you for letting me get this off my chest, I feel better already!

Charles Doss

Another government venture is in trouble. Conrail, the Consolidated Rail Corp., which was formed by the federal government to provide transportation in the crowded Northeast, has been classified as a flop.

Conrail is losing more money than the Penn Central and the six other bankrupt railroads it replaced. It lost $367 million in 1977 and has lost $216 million in the first three months of 1978.

So far it has gone through almost $2 billion in government provided funds and has asked Congress for another $1.3 billion. There has been no profitability, nor is there any prospect for profits and service is just as bad as ever.

Conrail has almost 4,000 miles of unprofitable trackage which should be abandoned because it will never generate enough service to be a paying proposition. Over 10,000 jobs should have been eliminated by retirement and relocation. So far, Conrail has proposed abandoning 124 miles of track. Employment is now 94,500, down from 97,000 two years ago.

Being a political creation, any proposal to abandon trackage will raise howls from local shippers and politicians. The rail unions will actively oppose any reductions of jobs or any action which will result in the elimination of jobs.

It is doubtful that Conrail can ever be profitable. But it could be a lot less the money-loser it has been in the past.

Water management

Tensiometer helps you use water efficiently

By William P. Dannevik, P.E.

Tensiometers are instruments that measure tension or suction force of water in unsaturated soil. We might think of this as the ease or difficulty with which the roots of a plant can get moisture from the soil.

These measurements are in "atmospheres" or "bars," the same units as a barometer.

The low cost field instruments that are used locally will measure at the most, about .8 of a bar or 80 centibars. Most plants can remove moisture from the soil up to 1500 centibars before they die.

However, for the plant to produce a maximum yield and take full advantage of its other environmental factors such as plant food and temperature, moisture must be available to most of the root system at much less pressure than the 1500 centibars.

The stress that restricts yields occurs below 80 centibars.

On certain crops grown locally, a planned stress to limit yield and force the crop to maturity is necessary because of the short growing season. On cotton, for instance, limited irrigation is used to produce the stress.

After a cotton stand is established the plant is allowed to stress to limit its growth and cause it to bloom or mature. After blooms appear a limited amount of water is desirable to set the fruit (reduce stress), but not enough to create extra growth.

In growing sugar beets, limiting a plant food, nitrogen, seems to work best. Sometimes extra water can be used on beets to help remove excess nitrogen.

When the soil moisture is held above field capacity, less than 33 centibars, water soluble plant foods such as nitrogen will leach out of the root zone, thus stressing the plant, forcing it to maturity which makes sugar in the beet.

The very worst situation is to have adequate moisture early, develop a large ear and then stress the plant. That is the very worst unless the plant is stressed early and watered the rest of the season only to find that the ear is blank.

Now, that is as bad as you

Federal loan rate increased

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland recently raised the 1978 wheat loan rate by 10 cents to $2.35 per bushel.

According to Bergland, the increase will not only provide farmers additional interim financing but will also automatically raise the "release" level for wheat in the farmer-held grain reserve from $3.15 to $3.29 per bushel. The increase in the release level assures farmers of eventually receiving a higher price for their reserve wheat, according to the Castro County ASCS office.

The "release" level for the reserve wheat is 140 percent of the current wheat loan rate. Thus the 10-cent loan increase translates to a 14-cent release level increase.

"With domestic prices well above the loan level and our wheat exports in better shape, we feel we can now provide farmers additional price support without disrupting any markets," said Bergland. "The increase also assures that reserve wheat will not be sold back to the market in the near future."

Wheat prices have strengthened in recent months. For the month of May, the department reported that farmers received an average of $2.80 per bushel for their wheat, up from $2.19 a year earlier.

Festival draws crowd

By VIRGIE GERBER
The Sixth Annual German Festival was enjoyed by a record crowd Saturday at Nazareth. The good response of musicians who took their turn at furnishing entertainment during the afternoon did their part in keeping the crowd happy and looking forward to the dance in the evening.

The family reunion of the Mike and Matt Gerber families Saturday in Umberger at the Parish Hall was a great success. 250 members of the family attended and thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon. A covered dish supper and program emceed by Gene Gerber was a lot of fun. Relatives came from Amarillo, Dumas, Dalhart, Hereford, Dimmitt, Nazareth, Odessa, Lubbock, Austin, Dallas, Belton, Canyon, Umberger, Canadian and San Diego, Calif.

Gene and Suzie Gerber and daughters of Odessa, Kevin of Odessa and Rick of Lubbock were here for the weekend and the reunion.

Brenda and Tommy Conrad and sons of Colorado were here over the 4th of July weekend.

Tony and Erlene Fritz and daughters of Oklahoma City were here visiting with Mrs. Ida Birkenfeld.

Sidney and Peggy Birkenfeld drove to Arlington and went through Six Flags with Jackie Book who teaches school at Cedar Hill. On to Bay City to visit with Karen and Louis Loyd. While there they fished on the Gulf and skied. Came back by Buchanan Lake and enjoyed some time with George and Rita Book.

Alphonse and Leona Albracht and two grandchildren visited here with the Pohlmeier relatives. They are from Fremont, Neb. A barbecue was enjoyed Sunday evening at LeRoy Pohlmeiers.

Eight of the eighth grade girls spent a week at Wayland College Basketball Camp in Plainview. All received certificates during their stay. Deanna Hoelting, Tammy Heck, Jeanie Wilhelm, Annette Hoelting, Sharon Birkenfeld and Rhonda Hoelting all made the All-Star team. Rhonda Hoelting won the free-throw contest and also received a plaque for Miss Congeniality. Tammy Heck received a trophy for best offensive player.

Mrs. Agnes Brockman and Frances Schacher drove to Clovis last Friday to deliver fruit to Mrs. Annie Hilvers and daughter Eleanor Kaplan. They stopped in Lazbuddie and had dinner with the Phil Brockmans.

Elmer Albracht of Houston is in Nazareth visiting his mother and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Leinen of Amarillo visited Lucy Leinen on Sunday.

On the go

Anita Arellano, Rudy Rangel from Plainview and Jo Thurston went to Lubbock Sunday evening to see a Texas Tech University Theatre production "Once Upon A Mattress," in which Nancy Shurbet, a former teacher at Dimmitt High School is starring. Miss Shurbet is also starring in "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," at the University Theatre. She has recently been employed by the Slaton School System and plans to do some acting at the University in the fall.

medical student and Robert is with an oil company there. Josh Stevens came up from Yantis to visit sisters Sarena Teague and Faye Damron.

Billy and Ruth Hackleman visited her family in Virginia recently.

I chatted with Dale and his wife Barbara Prather in the grocery store. They live in Lubbock but are staying at Country Arms Apartments while Dale is spraying the fields in the area for bugs. Dale was a CPA when he lived in Dimmitt a few years ago.

Connie Nelson was the honored guest at a bon voyage party at the home of Thomas Collins Sunday evening. Food, games and talk was enjoyed by the Young Peoples Sunday School class. Connie left Lubbock Tuesday morning for a month's visit in Europe. She will visit two college friends from UT who live there. She will tell us all about it when she gets home.

Viola and B.M. Nelson and Don and Verbie barbecued several chickens and had the many foods to with them for us Tuesday evening. Oh yes, Vadabelle Oldham brought homemade ice cream from Lubbock and Lottie Bearden brought over her famous egg custard pie. I took a good appetite. Nathan was the boy there.

Irene Granado and daughters Maria, Connie and Chris, and the mother of Lupe Pina went to Waco for a vacation trip and a visit with Miss Nati Pina. And Juan Granado is in Laredo.

Natividad and Olivia Ortiz are home from Del Rio where they attended a big reunion of the school they graduated from. There was a big dance and supper. Another evening a barbecue for all near the San Felipe River. Many friends visiting. Nearly 1,000 students came from as far away as New York and California. Olivia works at Plains Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Butler were married 72 years last week so to celebrate their six children and families came to Joe and Dugan's house for a Fourth of July picnic and talk. Can you imagine 72 years and good ones too? The family are Cullen and Ruby from Mesa, Ariz., their son Mike and Ann from Michigan, a daughter Arvella and Herman Smith of Mesa, Willie and Minnie Ola of Clovis, J.M. and Midge Goings of Tulsa, a daughter, Clint and Jewell Price of Salt Lake City and Dugan's sisters Johnny and Truett Boothe and Jo Wood from Muleshoe. When the Butlers celebrated their 70th anniversary they were recognized by Paul Harvey.

Don and Dorothy Stone and son Steve and Jodie had a vacation trip to Oklahoma. First stop was at Kingfisher then to Oklahoma City to visit the Cowboy Hall of Fame. A stop in DeKalb to visit aunt and uncle Betty and Clyde Rawdon and they visited Don's dad and a brother. He went fishing, didn't catch fish but got a body full of those little red chiggers. Boy, I haven't had those since I was a kid.

Last weekend I, with friends Cletha George, Opal Bearden and Ruth Coleman went to Ruidoso for several days. We rented Buster Cooper's house. Had a good time going and coming seeing what the mountains had to see.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris are here from Battle Creek, Mich. to visit daughter Clara and Clyde Vick and son Clarence and Lee Norris and families.

STILL-LIFE PAINTINGS WITH A NOT-SO-STILL VIEWER
... Totally engrossed at Nazareth Festival Art Show Saturday

By BRICK AUTRY
New books have arrived at Rhoads Memorial Library.

One book has been asked for in particular. It is a survey of the mired religious cults in the country today. The book "All God's Children" is an investigation and a documentary on the causes and effects of the cult movement, cult members and their cult families, the families left behind, the clergy, deprogrammers and the new messiahs themselves. Carrol Stoner and Jo Anne Parke, both social commentators and journalists, authors of the book, have a comprehensive view of the cults; many pages were taken from interviews from former cult members.

I have a membership in a cult. I never told anyone much about it. The cult consists of writers and outspoken letters to the editor of the Lubbock Avalanche. The editor is very obliging. He prints all the letters he doesn't like. So much for my cult.

Perhaps in response to my doleful article last week, the library has now a story hour reader for Friday afternoons. We have one for the summer, anyway. If you have been thinking about being a story hour reader and you just didn't make it down to the library, come on down now. There's always a place for volunteer reader—just ask the kids who come to story hour.

Paul Harvey had an amusing story about a man who made quick money selling books—used books. His career ended abruptly when he was recognized by the reading room attendant in the public library who sent for the police. It seems as if the library was his source of supplies. That's a nice story but please, PLEASE, don't get any ideas! (Frankly we have enough suspended patrons as it is.)

YOU may have high blood pressure and not know it—so, have it checked today.

ACS benefit dinner success

A spaghetti dinner last week, served by the Ladies Golf Association to benefit the Castro County Unit of the American Cancer Society, was attended by more than a hundred persons.

Diners contributed to an ACS research fund and viewed a display showing healthy lungs in comparison with those diseased by emphysema and cancer. They were reminded to have an annual chest checkup and support the ACS.

FmHA adopts new standards of insulation

New insulation standards for housing in areas financed by the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) will be put into effect, Kenneth R. Pruitt, County Supervisor announced today.

Implementation of the standards, first scheduled for March 15, had been held up during federal court consideration of a suit by the National Association of Home Builders challenging the new code.

After FmHA prepared additional environmental material, a further hearing on the case was held. While certain aspects of the lawsuit remain to be resolved, the new insulation standards can now be implemented.

The new thermal standards are designed to provide for heavier insulation and other measures to make FmHA-financed housing less costly to heat or cool, and to conserve energy. They will apply to newly-built homes and apartments financed by FmHA, and, insofar as is economically feasible, to existing housing purchased or repaired with FmHA loans, Pruitt said.

Better weatherizing through more effective insulation, storm doors and windows and other techniques will help families to reduce high fuel and energy expenses that jeopardize their ability to afford adequate housing, he said.

Details of the standards, which vary by climactic zones, are available from FmHA county office, 3rd and Bedford Sts.

Housing loans administered by FmHA, a U.S. Department of Agriculture agency, serve all rural areas including towns of up to 10,000, and designated towns of 10,000 to 20,000 that are not in standard metropolitan statistical areas and have a shortage of mortgage credit for families of low and moderate income.

Our Solution

You will never be able to understand The things that some folks do. They seem to want the upper hand For their wishes; to see it through.

Falsehood after falsehood is said, With only their prestige in mind. And insults are given in plague, But compassion you will not find.

These folks cannot receive this truth; Their traits "belong to someone else," They think; and as a veritable sleuth With Hell's venom justify self.

They only look for comfort When destroying their fellow man! But no matter how they tell it, They're definitely the guilty one.

The Lord only has one way! And that way is the way of love. So when humans will want their say, The solution is from above!

Barlow home is damaged badly by fire

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. C.L. "Shorty" Barlow, six miles northwest of Earth, was seriously damaged by fire Wednesday morning of last week. Barlow is an employee of the Dimmitt postoffice. Fire and smoke ruined contents of the house and damaged the interior of all the rooms, Barlow said, but did not burn into the attic and left the frame standing. It apparently started from an electrical short in the kitchen area. Only the 14-year-old son of the family was at home when the blaze started, and he was in the bathtub. He said he smelled smoke but believed it was coming from outdoors until he opened the door to leave the bathroom, and was met with a rush of smoke and heat. Fire departments from Earth and Muleshoe responded to the alarm and saved the house from total loss. The family is living in an old house on the place until their home is rebuilt.

Pour it in, then pour it on!

When you use IH No. 1 engine oil in your diesel tractor, you'll really be able to "pour it on" because it's engineered to withstand the high temperatures that build up in today's engines under heavy load hour after hour. The additives are specially formulated and blended in higher amounts, helping this oil withstand high temperatures and resist chemical breakdown. Use IH oil in all four-cycle diesel engines and cars and trucks requiring an API SE oil. Be sure of full protection with IH No. 1 engine oil.

Arts-Crafts entries sought for Hart Days

The Arts-Crafts Show and Sale to be held in conjunction with the annual Hart Days celebration Aug. 5 will be open to all who wish to exhibit paintings, sculpture and any types of crafts for sale.

The event will be held in the lobby of Farmers State Bank at Hart, sponsored by Chi Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Daisy Huntsinger, chapter president, announces that display space should be reserved before Aug. 1.

Reservations may be made by artists and craftsmen with Cindy Davis, telephone 938-2556.

All the Hart Days events this year will be held in the downtown area at Hart, rather than on the school grounds as in past years. A barbecue supper, free watermelon feed, queen contest, parade and various games and contests with prizes will make up the program of the annual two-day celebration.

Food canners are busy

Many of you have been busy canning apricots. Vegetables are also getting ready for harvest. If you have any questions or need help with food preservation, be sure to call me at 647-4115 or at home, 647-5219, or come to the office in the courthouse basement.

We have several excellent publications that you may want to get.

Some general guidelines for food preservation are:

1. Select only good quality fresh produce to preserve.
2. Be careful to process correctly.
3. Use standard jars that are designed for the temperature required for water bath or pressure canner processing.
4. Plan your preservation to coincide with your family food needs.
5. Remember, with the cost of utilities, it is less expensive to can foods rather than using a freezer.

We do have recipes for those who need to preserve foods without sugar.

Pickled okra is a popular food and easy to make. This recipe is a favorite of Mrs. Lyndon Baines Johnson.

- Pickled Okra
- Fresh okra
  - 1/2 cup water
  - 1 tablespoon salt
  - 1 teaspoon dill seeds for each pint jar
  - 1 hot red pepper
  - 1 hot green pepper
  - 2 cloves garlic
  - 2 cups vinegar

Place one-half teaspoon dill seeds in bottom of each sterilized jar. Wash okra and pack as tightly as possible in jars being careful not to bruise. Add one-half teaspoon dill seed, red and green peppers and garlic. Bring vinegar, water and salt to a boil and pour this hot mixture over the okra. Seal the jars and allow to stand two weeks. Serve icy cold. Makes approximately four pints.

Processing—Process sealed jars of okra for five minutes in boiling water bath while hot—immediately after putting it in the jar.

Processing destroys any bacteria, yeasts or molds which occur in the air and, therefore, can easily contaminate food in transfer from the kettle to the jar and cause spoilage.

Newly-married pair at home

Mr. and Mrs. S. Chesser of Friona announce the marriage of their daughter, Imelda Scott of Amarillo, to Everett Wilkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Cline of Dimmitt. The couple is at home in Panhandle.

The wedding ceremony was conducted recently in the Cline home by Rev. Van Earl Hughes, Baptist minister. The couple was attended by Denise and Kent Fulfer, niece and nephew of the groom.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Zaragoza Castillo of Hart announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Amelia to Gerardo Gamboa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Gamboa of Plainview. Miss Castillo is a 1972 graduate of Hart High School. Gamboa is a spring graduate of Texas Tech. A wedding date of August 5 has been chosen.

Girls softball meeting called

Parents of girls who will be in the third to eighth grade next year, who are interested in the Little Girls' Softball program for 1979, are invited to meet at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) in the Dimmitt City Hall assembly room.

David Terry, president, said the meeting will determine whether there will be a softball league program for girls of that age group next summer.

Plans for the program will be discussed if the parents decide that league play will be carried on next year, Terry said.

JOHN DILLINGER robbed more banks in one year than Jesse James did in 16 years.

History book on county put on sale

Copies of the first published history of Castro County, "The Moving Finger" by the late Lillie Mae Hunter, have been placed on sale here at the Castro County Historical Museum.

Mrs. Hunter's son, Bill, a Dalhart attorney, was in Dimmitt last week and said that 250 copies of the book are still available.

He asked the Museum Association to sell the books at $15 each, with part of the proceeds going to the museum. Members of the association agreed to allow the books to be sold at the museum, but not on a commission basis since it is a non-profit organization.

Mrs. Hunter was a history and civics teacher in Dimmitt for many years before moving with her husband, Sam, to Dalhart in 1955. They bought a ranch there which has since been converted to a farming operation. She published "The Moving Finger" in 1956.

She wrote of events, but more of people, in the early days of the county and related its history in the light of personal happenings told to her by the old settlers in their reminiscences. The book's style is casual, to make a readable account of the factual narrative.

From the 1880's to World War II and the following years when the Plains developed into an area of lush irrigated farms, Mrs. Hunter traced the change from an unpopulated stretch of land to the present towns and farm homes, many of them still occupied by the pioneers or their descendants.

THE FORD Motor Company paid no federal income taxes in 1975.

Growing Tops Club moves to larger meeting room

A move to a larger meeting place has been made by the Dimmitt Tops Club, which is growing so it was crowded out of the Tops Hut. Meetings now are at the Senior Citizens Center, each Monday at 6:30 p.m.

A special program for Awards Night is planned at 7:30 p.m. July 22 in the city hall assembly room.

Honor members for June have been named, with Carolyn Copeland as Kops of the Month, cited for keeping her weight at a chosen goal. Delbert Smotherman as Male Kops for his weight loss of 14 pounds 8 ounces and Cindy Wells as Lady Tops, who lost 7 pounds.

Ruth Slough was named Angel of the Month for her encouragement of other members in their weight loss program. Susie Reeves has attained Kops status by reaching her weight goal.

For the last two weeks, Vivian Pigg and Mrs. Copeland were honored as Kops of the Week, Dalia Gregory and Mrs. Slough as Lady Tops, James Powell and Smotherman as Male Tops.

Sharon Jones was welcomed at the Monday meeting as a returned member of the club.

Poster contest to precede Hart Days

A poster contest for youngsters 12 years and under will be a new feature of Hart Days this year. A preliminary to the community celebration of Aug. 4 and 5, the contest will provide posters to advertise the event.

Kim Williamson, general chairman, announces that cash prizes of $10, $5 and $3 will be given by the Farmers State Bank to the youngsters whose posters are judged in first, second and third places.

Poster entries will be made to Myrt Loman, with July 21 as the deadline.

Contests will be a feature of Hart Days this summer, varying from competition for the Miss Hart title to watermelon seed spitting. The celebration is being moved to downtown Hart from its former location on the school grounds.

Dances, games, a parade, a barbecue supper, watermelon feast, Miss Hart and Little Miss Hart revues and a carnival will all have a share in entertaining residents of the Hart community and visitors.

The melon feed will begin the festivities Friday afternoon, Aug. 4, followed by the beauty contests at 7:30 p.m. Organizations and businesses in Hart are sponsoring the entrants. Seniors of Hart High School will sponsor the Little Miss pageant.

Mrs. Harold Bob Bennett and Mrs. DeWayne Brown are in charge of the Miss Hart contest, and announce that entries to date include Betsy Berry, B.J. Brantley, Lori Barnes, Lesa Higgins, Laura Miller, Lana Tucker, Jacque Ritter, Sandy Grensberg, Stacy Averitt, Tamara Bowden, LaGlenda Wilson, Teresa Kittrell, Laurey Franks, Marci Cobb, Dana Cobb, Donna Reyna, Janet Black, Cindy Brooks and Sheila Brooks.

Wrestling returns in Monday matches

Championship wrestling returns to Dimmitt Monday night after a year-long absence with one of the biggest cards of the year.

In the first main of the evening, ex-West Texas State footballer Ted Di Biase matches his prowess against one of the best wrestlers to come from the Orient in years, Mr. Pogo.

Di Biase, one of the top-ranking contenders for the Harley Race-owned World Champion's Belt, will have to be constantly on the look out for another nemesis Monday night: Oliver Humberdink, Mr. Pogo's manager. Humberdink has created many victories in the past few weeks for Pogo with his ring-side hijinks.

Adrian Adonis, a good-looking crowd pleaser from New York City, will put up $5,000 in his rematch with Noah Jones. The stipulations in the match, approved by the National Wrestling Alliance, are that Jones must pin Adonis' shoulders to the mat within a 10 minute time-limit to win the $5,000. If Adonis wins the match, or if Jones wins by any means other than the shoulder pin, the $5,000 is retained by Adonis. Recently, these two matmen ended up in an Amarillo hospital for treatment after a free-for-all.

Another crowd-pleaser will be the tag team affair with "Nature Boy" Roger Kirby and "Mad Dog" Dennis Stamp against Ricky Romero and Scott Casey. There is no love lost between these wrestlers, especially between Kirby and Romero. Romero just recently won the Western States heavyweight title from Kirby, plus, Romero defeated Kirby's ex-partner, Lord Jonathan Boyd, in a "Loser Leaves Town" match in Amarillo a few weeks ago.

The first match of the evening sees the return of "Pretty Boy" Doug Sommers against Super Destroyer. Local fans will remember their match last year, when Sommers held the International Heavyweight crown. Sommers retained the championship when he used the ropes for leverage to pin Super Destroyer.

SOUTH CAROLINA VISITORS—Amstar Production Manager Ed Ray explains the corn refining operation here to a group of 20 South Carolinians on a "Texas Agri-Business Tour" Monday. In right foreground is George Lamberth, Amstar plant manager. After touring the Dimmitt Amstar Plant, the visitors also saw the Dimco, Inc., vegetable processing plant and Estacado Industries Lamb

Feeding Division in operation. The nine-day tour was coordinated by the agriculture commissions of South Carolina and Texas, with the Texas Corn Growers Association serving as hosts for the visitors' stops in this area. The tour group included farmers, Extension Service personnel and South Carolina Dept. of Agriculture officials.

4-H horsemen qualify for state show entry

Six Castro County 4-H Horse Club members qualified for entry in the state show at San Antonio July 26-29, as they won places at the District II Horse Show in Lubbock last weekend.

Robin Cluck with her horse, Straw Hat, Kyle Bagwell with Cool Quick Cash and Scott Bagwell with Jane's Dude each earned enough total points to qualify for state competition.

A western pleasure futurity for 2-year-olds will be held in conjunction with the state show, and county youth competing will be G. Cluck, M. Cole, Norris Cole, Scott Bagwell, Steve and Scott Bagley.

Scott Bagley will be the first alternate to enter the state show if one of the six entrants is not able to go to San Antonio.

Places won at the district show by Castro County members were:

A&M students from county earn honors

Charles L. Heck, and Kimla G. King, both of Nazareth, have earned "Distinguished Student" ranking at Texas A&M University.

The undergraduate honor is awarded to students who excel academically at Texas A&M. Recipients of the Distinguished Student honor must earn at least a 3.25, grade point ratio out of a possible 4.0 during the most recent grading period.

Heck, a nuclear engineering major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck of Nazareth, and King, a physical education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe King of Dimmitt.

Nazareth Flying Queen at home between trips

Elaine Schulte, who will be a junior in Wayland Baptist College this fall and a member of the Flying Queens, will be at home in Nazareth briefly this month after a basketball camp at Plainview that began just after her return from a trip to the Orient with the Queens.

She is due to go to another camp in Kansas the last week in July, then will be at home again the remainder of the summer. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schulte and a former star forward with the Nazareth High Swiftettes.

Elaine, who played in a number of the Queens' games as a sophomore and hopes to participate more next term, was one of two team members on the Orient trip who were interviewed by the Plainview Daily Herald sports editor during the basketball camp on the Wayland campus, and talked to him as enthusiastically as she has to her family and friends at Nazareth about the tour.

It was sponsored by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Queens stayed in homes of missionaries, gave Christian testimonies at their games and in 13 Baptist churches which they visited in Hong Kong and Honolulu.

They won all eight of their games against college and independent teams. The Queens also played a game with a young boys' team at a school formerly headed by a Wayland graduate, Mang Pew Lee.

They talked with students there who Elaine said came mostly from Buddhist families and "don't seem to have much interest in religion; they only seem to be interested in getting rich."

Elaine told of speaking briefly at a church after the Queens had attended Sunday School at the Kowloon Baptist Church and then separated to go to different churches. She talked to some of the young people afterward, and said many of them speak English since it is taught in the schools.

"They told me how lucky I was," she said. "Some of them want to become Christians but they support some Communist philosophies."

A highlight of the Queens' stay in Hong Kong was being invited to a wedding feast for the coach of a team they played. It was a 10-course meal for 400 people and some of the food startled the Texas girls.

"There was pigeon soup, and there was a whole pigeon, head and all, in the bowl," Elaine said. "Also there was a whole chicken head, feet and everything, for each table. We ate a little of each thing and had Coke and Sprite to drink."

She and her roommate at a hotel in Manila drank some expensive Coke, paying $2 a bottle because they understood the price was $2 instead of 2 pesos. In Honolulu "Most of the time we just lived on the beach and looked at all the good-looking surfers," the Nazareth girl admitted to her interviewer "with a slight blush."

USDA seeks comment on dairy price plan

Melvin Barton, chairman of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, said the Secretary of Agriculture will consider public comments on the support price for manufacturing milk for the marketing year which begins Oct. 1, 1978, if they are received by Aug. 9.

Current law requires that milk be supported between 80 and 90 percent of parity with a semiannual price adjustment to reflect changes in the parity index since the beginning of the marketing year.

The support price was $9 per hundredweight as of last Oct. 1, and was adjusted to $9.43 per cwt. as of April 1. The support price is for manufacturing milk with a national average fat content of 3.67 percent. The equivalent price for milk of 3.5 percent milkfat content was $8.79 and was adjusted to $9.21.

Persons interested in commenting should write to the Director, Procurement and Sales Division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, USDA, P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013.

BUILDING STORAGE STRUCTURES—Castro County farmers who may be faced with storage problems this fall can obtain funds to build additional facilities or to expand present storage structures, Charley Hill, county official of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said.

During the past year, provisions of the farm facility and drying equipment loan program were broadened and liberalized to increase on-farm storage, and to insure adequate space for the 1978 harvest and grain placed in the reserve.

Under the program, farmers can borrow up to $50,000 on facilities adequate to store two years' crops, with 15 percent down and 7 percent interest, to build typical, conventional type on-farm storage facilities such as steel bins, wooden granaries, and wet storage structures.

"The cost of concrete and electrical wiring is also covered under the program," Hill said.

He pointed out that facility loans are secured loans and borrowers must provide adequate security to protect the Commodity Credit Corporation's interest. The program provides for an eight year repayment term.

For more information on the farm facility loan program, contact the county ASCS office.

VETERAN'S SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH County Service Officer

We expect to have our office open next week after a brief vacation, attending the North American Christian Convention at Oklahoma City, July 11-14. Since Universities and Colleges are now enrolling for their next session, Vietnam Veterans take note: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Veterans Administration chief Max Cleland today announced a VA drive to encourage Vietnam era veterans to use their GI Bill education benefits while they are still available.

The campaign, called "Operation Boost," will focus especially on 11 states where fewer than 50 percent of the eligible veterans have taken some GI Bill training.

"Although Vietnam era veterans have already participated in the program to a much greater extent than did veterans of World War II and Korea," Cleland said, "there are still a great many veterans who could significantly improve their lives by using the GI Bill for VA job training or formal education."

"Time is important, for veterans must use this benefit within 10 years from the date they are discharged from military service."

The 11 states in which participation has been less than 50 percent of the eligibles are Vermont, New Jersey, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Ohio, Maryland, New Hampshire, Iowa and Illinois.

"Of course, the decision to pursue education and training has to be made by each veteran," the Administrator explained. "I just want to be sure no veteran fails to take advantage of the GI Bill opportunity because he doesn't know about the program and the importance of the benefits it offers."

"We will be depending heavily on the assistance of educators, editors, broadcasters, veterans organizations and many other groups in local communities to get across the message that education is more important today than ever."

At the present time, VA pays a monthly allowance of $311 to a single veteran going to school full-time; $370 to a veteran with one dependent; $422 to a veteran with two dependents, and an extra $26 for each additional dependent.

In addition, veterans may be eligible for free counseling and tutorial assistance, extra pay for engaging in VA's work-study program, and low interest VA educational loans.

Veterans with less than a high school education are also paid VA allowances for completion of that training and still retain their basic eligibility for pursuing higher education.

Cleland noted that nearly 17 million veterans have trained under the World War II, the Korean and the current GI Bills.

Our office is prepared to help you with information about VA Approved-Schools and the necessary paper work to enroll.

YOUTH ON TRIP — Evey Wilhelm of Nazareth and John Carson of Friona are the two young people from this area who won expense-paid trips to Washington, D.C. in a speech contest sponsored by Deaf Smith Rural Electric Cooperative. Miss Wilhelm, daughter of the James Wilhelms, will be a senior in Nazareth High School next term.

ASCS Notes

Deadline dates fixed

CONSERVATION PROGRAM—There will be a sign-up for cost-share assistance under 1978 ACP beginning August 21 thru August 25. Funds are limited and applications will be approved on a basis of priority of need as in the past.

BURNING OF RESIDUE—Deliberate burning of any annual crop residue will make you ineligible for 1978 ACP Payments.

CERTIFICATION OF ACREAGE—This is to again remind you to certify to your crop acreages and set-aside, field by field, no later than August 1. Accuracy is a must, since an incorrect report could make you ineligible for program benefits.

Farms will be selected at random for a visit and measurements by the ASCS Office after certification.

You will be asked at the time of certification to delineate on a photo copy, field by field, the crops planted, other land use, and whether the crop is irrigated or dry.

It takes awhile to make these certifications; therefore, we would urge you to measure your acreages accurately and come on in and make your certifications.

Aerial measurement service is available to interested producers, at a cost of $11 for first quarter section plus $9 for each additional quarter. Interested producers should make their request for this service no later than July 14. DON'T FORGET AUG. 1 DEADLINE DATE FOR CERTIFYING ACRES.

Please come on in and avoid the last minute rush. DISASTER PROGRAM—If you lose any feed grain or cotton acreage, you must report the loss to this office prior to destroying the crop or making any other use of the acreage.

Corn or grain sorghum acreage affected by a disaster which will be harvested for non-grain use (silage, grazing or hay) must be appraised prior to harvest to be eligible for any disaster payments.

SUPPORT LOANS—All commodity loans (grain sorghum, rye, wheat and barley) may be obtained at the County ASCS Office.

Grain Sorghum grade No. 2 or better $3.37 Cwt.

Rye grading No. 2 or better $1.75 Bu.

Wheat grading No. 1 $2.35 Bu.

Barley grading No. 2 or better $1.64 Bu.

1978 warehouse stored loans for wheat, corn, barley, oats, rye, sorghum, and soybeans will mature on the last day of the ninth calendar month following the month in which the loan is disbursed.

Interest rate for 1978-Crop Grain Loans is 7 percent per annum. Producers are reminded on grain placed into the loan that it will be necessary to secure a lien waiver from the lien holder prior to disbursement of such loan. Lien waiver forms are available at the Castro County ASCS Office.

THOUGHT—So many of us spend so much time griping we haven't time to count our blessings.

Heat, drought add to insect damage threat

Spider mites as well as southwestern corn borers are posing threats of damage to the corn crop in this area, aggravated by the continued hot, dry weather, according to Olan Moore, consulting entomologist.

First generation corn borers continued their activity about a week longer than usual, he said, and second generation borers are due to appear this weekend. Treatment of infested fields should begin about five days after the insects' appearance, Moore said.

The spider mites are spreading from wheat fields, now that the harvest is over, into corn and grain sorghum, the entomologist said, and are a danger because they reproduce so fast.

He warned that farmers should, if possible, use chemicals that will not also kill predatory insects which destroy the spider mites. These insects include beneficial mites, six-spotted thrips and stethorus lady beetles.

Cotton is setting its squares this week and some early sunflowers are blooming, Moore reported, while early cowpeas will bloom soon.

A few cotton aphids are appearing but they are normally of no major concern because they are a good food source for beneficial cotton insects that later aid in controlling bollworms, Moore said. No cotton fleahoppers have been seen yet and greenbugs are not numerous in grain sorghum.

Phones to go from 'bzzzz' to 'mmmmmm'

If you live in Dimmitt's 647 telephone exchange, your dial tone, busy signal and ringing tone will sound different after next week.

Continental Telephone Co. is installing a new system of electronic tone generators that will carry more traffic through the growing Dimmitt exchange. The new generators will produce a different sound than the old ones did. "The dial tone will have a lot more mellow sound," CTC Manager Reeford Burrows explained. "The tone signal that tells you the other phone is ringing will be milder, too, and will be an electronic sound."

Burrows said he expects the new electronic generators to be phased in the latter half of next week.

The new generators are part of a Continental upgrading program in Dimmitt's main switching office. The upgrading also includes new batteries, switching equipment and lines.

The Hart exchange also is getting new equipment, but not electronic tone generators, Burrows said. There will be no change in the dial-tone sounds in the Hart, Nazareth and Sunnyside exchanges.

W's To Meet

The Association of W's will meet at the Nazareth CCB Building just east of the Holy Family Catholic Church at 9:30 a.m. Friday. All members and interested persons are invited.

County names election workers, hears pleas of eight taxpayers

At its Monday meeting, the County Commissioner's Court named new election judges and alternates for several voting precincts, approved two road improvement projects and heard tax equalization requests from eight people.

In voting Precinct 1, Graham Sheffy was named to succeed Mrs. Glenn Merritt as judge. Precinct 12 judge Mrs. Lyn Ehly will be succeeded by Virgie Gerber, and alternate Mrs. Agnes Brockman will be followed by Marguerite Ann Brockman.

Mrs. Lavern Wilhelm will succeed Mrs. Aurelia Schoenberger as judge in Precinct 13, with the new alternate Helene McFarland replacing Burks. The alternate voting place for Pct. 13 will be the McFarland place, two miles north and one-half mile east of Nazareth.

The alternate in Pct. 6 was changed from L.J. Rice to Mrs. Marguerite McLain.

Also, the alternate voting place in Pct. 8 was changed from the Rachel Hunter home to the M.L. Simpson home.

The rest of the judges and alternates approved Monday will be the same as last year. The revised listing will go into effect in 1979.

The commission signed a contract for $12,243.50 for the placement of caliche on 1.6 miles of road to the "Beef City" feed lot in the northwest part of the county. The contract was awarded to the Messer Company of Hereford. The amount to be paid by the county will cover half of the cost, with the other half being paid by the owners of the feed lot.

Improvements on the road to the O.G. Hill Jr. place have just been completed, but a formal agreement must be made giving the county an easement for the road.

Half of those appearing before the commission as the tax equalization board were seeking reduction of the evaluation of their water wells because of a decrease in the water level. The other four who appeared before the Glass damage estimated at $200 or less was reported by 44 other businesses and one car owner, Newman said.

Few of the windows were actually broken, Davis said. Instead, they were pock-marked, evidently by pellets, BB's or rocks.

"That's one of the problems facing the Grand Jury—how to value the damage," Davis explained. "Most of the windows are unsightly, but still usable. Many of the businesses haven't replaced their damaged windows."

The Grand Jury Monday also will consider nine cases involving felony possession of marijuana, welfare fraud, felony DWI, criminal mischief, forgery, aggravated assault and felony hot checks.

Police Chief Alan Newman said the youth has admitted shooting 17 holes in the drive-up service window of the SPS office with a BB pistol, but has denied taking part in any of the other incidents.

Newman and County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis will present the city's incident reports, signed statements, witnesses and other evidence to the Grand Jury.

If the Grand Jury votes to recommend that a criminal charge be filed in the case—either misdemeanor or felony—then it will be asked to determine how many incidents should be included in the charge and how the property damage should be evaluated.

Police have estimated the replacement value of the damaged SPS glass at $1,100.

In all 62 incidents, police estimated the replacement and repair value at $13,497. The worst damage was sustained by the First State Bank, $1,545 in two separate incidents; Southwestern Public Service Co., $1,100; Higbrockman.

The Dimmitt-Nazareth 14 and 15 year old All-Stars were scheduled to meet the host team in Olton's Junior Babe Ruth Tournament Wednesday at 6 p.m., after losing their first game in the double elimination tourney to Plainview Tuesday night.

Dwayne Acker homered for Dimmitt in the third inning of the Plainview contest, but the bases were vacant. Terry Mixson was the starting pitcher in the 17-3 game.

Grand Jury to study window-shooting case

The Dimmitt Police Dept.'s evidence in a rash of downtown window-shooting incidents will go to the Castro County Grand Jury for investigation Monday.

A 17-year-old Dimmitt youth stands accused—but not formally charged—with the April 22 window-shooting at the Southwestern Public Service Co. office. It was the last of 62 glass-shooting incidents reported by Dimmitt businesses during February, March and April.

The Grand Jury will be asked to decide whether the accused youth should be charged and indicted for criminal mischief.

Police Chief Alan Newman said the youth has admitted shooting 17 holes in the drive-up service window of the SPS office with a BB pistol, but has denied taking part in any of the other incidents.

Newman and County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis will present the city's incident reports, signed statements, witnesses and other evidence to the Grand Jury.

Nazareth FFA boy honored

Darryl Birkenfeld of the Nazareth High School chapter, Future Farmers of America, is one of 15 members in Texas winning educational achievement awards provided by the Santa Fe Railway.

The awards, plus two cash scholarships, will be presented today (Thursday) at the 50th annual Texas FFA convention in San Antonio. The railway will honor its winners at a dinner in Kansas City during a national FFA convention in the fall.

Babe Ruth Junior stars drop starter

The Dimmitt-Nazareth 14 and 15 year old All-Stars were scheduled to meet the host team in Olton's Junior Babe Ruth Tournament Wednesday at 6 p.m., after losing their first game in the double elimination tourney to Plainview Tuesday night.

Dwayne Acker homered for Dimmitt in the third inning of the Plainview contest, but the bases were vacant. Terry Mixson was the starting pitcher in the 17-3 game.

"I hate to make them move on, but I have to—it's against the law to camp on the streets," Newman said. "I feel sorry for them because they can't find a place to go."

Conrad flies in AF contest

Colonel Theodore J. Conrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Conrad of Nazareth, deployed with his unit to Lossiemouth, Scotland to participate in the Royal Air Force Tactical Bombing Competition last week.

Colonel Conrad is assistant deputy commander for operations at England AFB, La., with the 23rd Tactical Fighter Wing, which flies the A-70 Corsair II. The Flying Tigers unit defended the team trophy and individual awards they won last year.

The competition began July 4 and ran four days. Also entered were four RAF units flying Jaguar and Buccaneer fighter aircrafts.

The colonel, a 1956 graduate of Nazareth High School, was commissioned through the aviation cadets program. He earned a BS degree in 1973 from Hampton (Va.) Institute.

Rotary Club discusses ideas for coming year

The Dimmitt Rotary Club will go after more members, more flag contracts and more community service projects during the coming year.

At the club's July business meeting Friday, Vice-President George Lamberth set the tone for the coming fiscal year, when he called on each Rotarian to propose at least one new member during the year, requested ideas for new club projects for 1978-79, and appointed chairmen for several standing committees.

Gary Moore was designated as the flag project chairman for the coming year as members discussed the need to increase the number of flag-service contracts.

Rotarians set out flags in front of business houses on 10 holidays, and have added new wall-bracket flags to go with the sidewalk flags. The holiday flag service costs a business $15 per year.

Lamberth called upon members to think of prospective new projects for fund-raising and community service, with all ideas to be considered at the next board meeting.

Two fund-raising ideas discussed were a different Halloween Carnival booth and participation in the County Fair in September.

For community service, Lamberth urged that the Rotary Club continue its work with the Senior Citizens and Meals on Wheels programs, and the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

urged club participation in the United Way campaign, and suggested additional playground equipment for the city park as a possible new project.

Lamberth appointed chairmen of standing Rotary committees for the coming year, and urged each to submit names before this week's meeting of Rotarians who they would like to have serve on those committees.

Monthly program chairmen through February also were appointed.

Lamberth urged each Rotarian to propose at least one new member within three weeks. Classification Chairman Bill Dannevik said he would provide all members with a list of business and professional classifications now open for prospective new members.

The club voted to donate the total proceeds of its recent Parade Day Garage Sale, $330, to the local unit of the American Heart Association. This is $100 more than the balance needed by the local unit to buy a new resuscitator training module. The club's check for $330 will be presented to the Heart Association at Friday's Rotary meeting.

The club's monthly board meeting was scheduled for 6:30 a.m. today (Thursday). The Rotary Club meets each Friday at noon in the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

Dimmitt 13's win district Babe Ruth tourney

Dimmitt's 13-year old Babe Ruth All-Stars tore up the district tournament script as they fought their way through the loser's bracket and defeated the favored Plainview All-Stars twice for the district championship.

The tourney at Dimmitt's Babe Ruth Park saw the four teams turn the diamond into a race track, scoring 167 runs—and committing almost that many errors—in seven games. Plainview registered the most lopsided victories—14-1 over Muleshoe and 24-2 over Olton—while Dimmitt and Muleshoe played the highest-scoring game, a 35-run affair. There were no shutouts.

Good crowds, thick tourney booklets, a busy concession stand and an extra game in extra-hot weather made the tourney a financial success for the Dimmitt hosts.

The best game of the tournament was Dimmitt's 7-6 victory over Plainview in the championship bracket Saturday night. The game featured a triple-play by Plainview in the first inning, and saw Dimmitt pitcher Roy Tijerina put down a Plainview rally in the final inning to preserve the Dimmitt victory.

The triple play came when Dimmitt had the bases loaded with no outs in the first. Plainview's third baseman caught a pop-fly for the first out, threw to first for the second, then the first baseman threw to the plate in time to catch Dimmitt's lead runner who was trying to steal home.

With Dimmitt holding a 7-4 lead going into the bottom of the seventh and final inning, Plainview rallied with two runs and had the tying and winning runs on third and second with just one out. But Tijerina fanned the next-to-last batter, then forced a pop-up which first baseman Jeff Watts gloved for the final out.

The Dimmitt victory forced a championship playoff Sunday afternoon. Before a big, sun-drenched crowd that guzzled soft drinks and homemade ice cream by the gallon, Dimmitt chalked up five runs in the second, three in the fourth and four in the fifth to take a commanding 12-6 lead. Then the Dimmitt batters went on a nine-run spree in

Amstar lists appointments

The Amstar Corp. this week announced two personnel appointments in its Dimmitt plant.

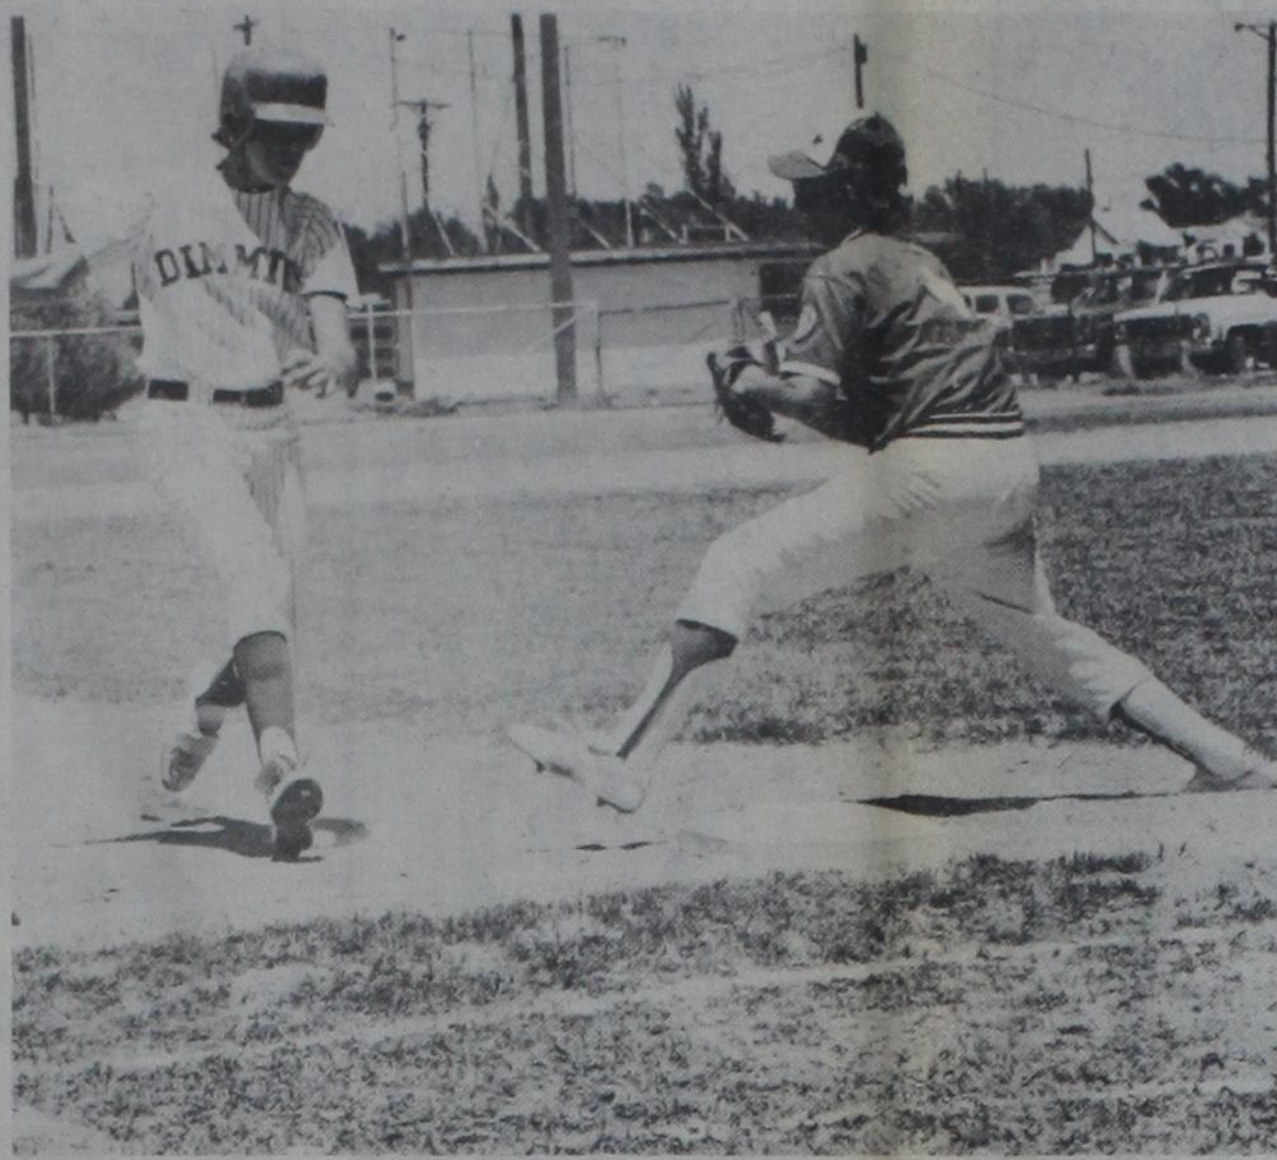

George Lamberth, formerly plant engineer, has been promoted to plant manager to direct overall plant operations, including production, maintenance, quality control and safety.

In his new position, Lamberth will take over some of the duties formerly carried out by Doug Lapins, general manager.

Lapins also announced the appointment of Ron Burleson as personnel manager of the Dimmitt plant.

A native of Amarillo and a graduate of West Texas State University, Burleson comes to Dimmitt from Tuscola, Fla., where he was with the Cabot Corp.

He succeeds David Arend, who has accepted a transfer to Amstar's Woodland, Calif., plant.

UH-OH!—Dimmitt's Jeff Watts loses the race to third base as he tries to stretch his off-the-fence hit in the championship playoff game against Plainview Sunday in the Junior Babe Ruth Tournament here. Watt's long hit scored a runner, though, to give Dimmitt an 8-4 lead in the fourth inning. Dimmitt went on to win the district championship game, 21-10.

the sixth to sew up the victory over the disheartened Plainview lads.

David Ogas was the winning pitcher, chalking up his second tourney victory against no losses. Elberto Trevino was the losing hurler.

The tourney's first night of action last Wednesday gave Dimmitt fans little reason for hope, as Olton downed the locals 16-13, after the big Plainview boys had put away Muleshoe 14-1 in the curtain-raiser.

Dimmitt jumped to a 6-0 lead over Olton in the bottom of the first inning, but Olton roared back with three in the second and eight in the third while holding Dimmitt to goose-eggs to take an 11-6 lead. Dimmitt tied it up at 12-12 in the fifth, but Olton came back with four runs in the final two innings to salt away the victory. Dimmitt fielding errors played a major role in Olton's win.

The loss forced Dimmitt's All-Stars to play for survival during the rest of the double-elimination tourney.

Things looked bleak in the loser's bracket game between Dimmitt and Muleshoe as the locals fell behind by 10 runs, 17-7, going into the fifth inning. Dimmitt was scoring every inning, but Muleshoe put together an 11-run outburst in the fourth to open up its 10-run lead.

That's where Muleshoe's scoring stopped, though, as Dimmitt held the visitors to goose-eggs the final three innings while rallying with eight runs in the fifth, two in the sixth and the winning run in the seventh.

David Ogas was the winning pitcher, while Sammy Gonzales of Muleshoe absorbed the loss.

For Muleshoe it was the second loss in two games, and eliminated the Bailey County lads from the tourney.

Meanwhile, Plainview defeated Olton 24-2 in the winner's bracket to set up a close encounter of the second kind between Dimmitt and Olton.

Dimmitt, which seemed to be gaining momentum with each survival game, evened the score against Olton in the semifinals. With Lonnie Robb on the mound, Dimmitt jumped to a 6-1 lead in the second and led by 11-1 before Olton could cross the plate again in the fourth. Dimmitt went on to post a 14-4 victory to eliminate Olton from the tourney.

Randy Wiseman absorbed the loss for Olton.

The Dimmitt victory set up Saturday night's game against unbeaten Plainview, which the locals won by 7-6 to force the championship playoff.

Tedd Robb was the tournament director. Umpires were Jimmie Chapman, Pat Barrios, George Howell, Tim Hucks and John Brooks.

Scorekeeper and statistician was Marie Howell. Jo Behrends and Jean Robb were in charge of the concession stand, Joe Weatherford was the gate keeper, and Bill Behrends was the PA announcer.

The state-bound All-Stars are coached by Tommy Ramirez, David Martinez and Enrique Ogas.

County farmers may apply for drought loans

Although nearly 2,400 Texas farmers have either interviewed or filed drought loan applications totaling approximately $10 million, SBA Regional Director Alicia Chacon of Lubbock announced the opening of six more offices to serve those who have not yet applied.

For farmers who suffered drought damage and resultant financial hardship, the filing deadline is October 11.

"Before the deadline we expect considerably more applications to be filed and are therefore moving some of the existing offices and opening new locations in an effort to be as accessible as we can to the 220 counties that are eligible for drought disaster loans," said Chacon.

Each office will be open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday. Those in Lubbock and Amarillo serve Castro County, which is among the counties eligible for drought hardship loans.

Cleveland sets record in hurdles at Borger

Vicki Cleveland of Dimmitt set a new record in the 100-meter hurdles at the AAU meet in Borger Saturday, although her time of 14.7 did not equal the 14.4 which is the fastest she has made.

The previous best time in the event at Borger was 15.4.

Her record at Borger makes her eligible for the AAU meet at Fort Worth this weekend, where there will be contestants from several states.

Cleveland won first place in 100-meter hurdles at a recent meet in Mexico City. She also took third in the 100-meter run and was a member of a team which was first in the 400-meter relay. Other girls on the team were from Washington.

"I don't know my times exactly, because I don't understand Spanish enough to know what was announced," the Dimmitt school girl said, "but I do know that my time for the hurdles was 14.5 in the prelims."

She said she did not find the high altitude of Mexico City any disadvantage in running, as many athletes have complained, "but I am in the short-distance events and it could be hard for the ones who run long distances."
