Recycle old greeting cards

St. Jude's Ranch for Children in Nevada has issued an appeal for used greeting cards. The cards are recycled in a project which helps the residents of the ranch earn a little pocket money.

The ranch is near Las Vegas, and was established to help neglected and abused children.

The fronts of attractive greeting cards may be sent to St. Jude's Ranch for Children, 100 St. Jude's St., Boulder City, NV 89005.

"Donations of cards have dropped in the last several years, and I feel that . . . this (is a) worthwhile recycling program," said Ed McMahon, a promoter of the project.

Naz girls beat Ozona for third in Caprock

Tourney champs topple Swiftettes in semis

So, are the Nazareth Swiftettes the best team in Texas?

Well, last Saturday at the Caprock ABC Holiday Basketball Tournament they couldn't get by Coronado, but a case can be made for the Swiftettes to have bragging rights to at least the bottom three classes.

Not only are the Swiftettes the top team in Class A, they have beaten the No. 1 team in Class AA, Ozona, and the No. 3 team in Class AAA, Groesbeck, in the past week. Naz ended up in third place after beating the defending Class AA state champs Saturday evening, 36-28.

Naz lost its second game of the season on Saturday morning in a disappointing 48-44 loss to Coronado. Both games Saturday were at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

"If we could hit a layup, we could have won (Saturday) morning," said a disappointed coach Johnny Hampton. "We really played well against them, but we couldn't hit a layup."

Coronado is only No. 8 in Class 5A, so Hampton wasn't too disappointed with the loss.

"We had an easy first game, but everything after that was tough," the coach said. "These were all Top 10 teams, top teams in their classes, and it was just the kind of competition we needed coming off the Christmas break."

THURSDAY
Naz 63, Seminole 22

To say the Swiftettes had this one in the bag all the way would be gross understatement—and not give the Nazareth girls their due for a thorough thrashing to the Maidens.

Granted, Seminole lost its best player a month ago, but Seminole would have been in trouble all the way.

Naz led 52-9 in the fourth quarter, allowing Seminole to get into double figures just before halftime. By then, Hampton had cleared out his bench several times as the reserves got plenty of playing time.

Despite limited playing time, Amy Pohlmeier and Melinda Schmucker each got 16 points to lead Naz.

PENETRATING THE PAINT against Lubbock Coronado is Nazareth's Tanya Wethington (22), who makes a move inside against Coronado's Jill Skipper (21) and Alana Soliz (12). Wethington's sister, Carie (10) comes in to help out her sibling. The Swiftettes lost to Coronado Saturday morning in the championship semis of the Caprock Tourney and lost the close game, 48-44. Coronado won the tournament and the Swiftettes, who played five games in three days, beat Ozona Saturday afternoon for third place.

Nazareth didn't allow a Seminole field goal until the second quarter, and led 17-1 after one period. The Swiftettes, substituting at will, still kept the offense flowing and led by as many as 25 points during the second period and settled for a 32-11 margin at halftime.

In the third quarter, Seminole still couldn't find a tourniquet as Nazareth continued to take the Maidens to school. By the end of the third, Seminole had just two more points, while Nazareth stretched its lead to 46-13 after three.

Nazareth led by as much as 44 late in the game, at 59-15, before Seminole scored three late baskets.

Nazareth's defense went not only from end-to-end but was especially tough in the forecourt. Despite many tries, Seminole never made a three pointer, while Nazareth had five.

FRIDAY
Naz 53, San Angelo Central 33
Naz 45, Groesbeck 35

Friday's early game was close for a while, as the Lady Cats were within eight at halftime, 21-13.

Then came the third quarter blitz, which saw Naz blow out the Class 5A squad, 27-7, to pave the way to the easy 20-point win.

Naz led by seven after the first quarter, 13-6, but had a sluggish second quarter and led by eight at the break.

That was when the Swiftettes, and especially Schmucker went to work. At one point Naz scored 18 unanswered points in the period to stretch its lead to 43-16.

San Angelo outscored Naz 13-5 in the fourth quarter to make the score a little more respectable.

Schmucker had 23 points while Pohlmeier added 12 to lead the Swiftettes.

In Friday evening's game, the Goats gave the Swiftettes all the competition they wanted for three quarters before Naz hit a spurt to begin the fourth period to put the game away.

With two quick guards, twins Lanetta and Annetta Anglin, out front in a rare 1-2-2 defense, the Swiftettes parried with the Goats throughout the first three periods.

Groesbeck came out hot and used its overall team quickness to punch up an 11-5 lead by the end of the first period. Naz kept picking away at the lead, adjusted to the Goats' sets, and snuck into the dressing room with a one-point lead, 20-19, at halftime.

In the third period, Groesbeck got six early points in the period to take a three point lead. That, however, would be it for the Goats. Nazareth reclaimed the lead for good, 27-25, with 3:10 left to go in the quarter on a shot by Schmucker. K'Lynn Gerber, Schmucker and Misti Ball then added points to make Nazareth's lead seven, 32-25, at quarter's end.

Groesbeck hung around early in the fourth period, but never got closer than five points, 32-27, with 4:50 left in the game after two free throws by Chimika Carter.

Schmucker then took over, hitting a trey with 3:26 to play and two free throws with three minutes left to make it 37-27. Naz went on to lead by as many as 13 until Tara Champion hit a trey at the buzzer to make it 10 points at the end.

Schmucker led all players with 26 points.

SATURDAY
Coronado 48, Naz 44
Naz 36, Ozona 28

Dark and early Saturday morning, Nazareth's players left to make the 90-mile trip to Lubbock for a 9 a.m. date with Coronado, who could have slept 'til eight, by which time most of the Swiftettes had already been out and around for three hours.

Despite the early hours, the Swiftettes almost knocked off the Mustangs in the semifinals at the Coliseum.

Coronado rolled to an early 7-0 lead until Naz finally scored on two free throws by Schmucker with 4:29 left in the first. Pohlmeier scored the team's first goal 20 seconds later, and added a free throw to make it 11-5.

With eight seconds left in the quarter, Schmucker took Coronado's Alana Soliz to school, faking her one way, then turning to the other to score and draw the foul to make it 11-8 at quarter's end.

Naz made just two of eight shots in the first period, including three of those dreaded layups.

In the second quarter, Naz made six of nine field goals to take a four point lead at halftime, 25-21. The Swiftettes first claimed the lead when Pohlmeier took a pass at close range, backed up a couple of dribbles, then shot a 10-footer over a bewildered defender for a 12-11 lead.

Coronado rallied to take a 19-14 lead with 4:36 to play in the half, but the Swiftettes went on an 11-2 run the rest of the half to claim the four-point lead at the break.

Naz extended its lead to seven points early before Coronado charged back with a 6-1 run in the last 1:04 to make it 34-33 after three periods.

In the fourth period, the Swiftettes made just three of 12 shots, while Coronado made all but three of its 10 field goal tries, including the last five straight.

Jill Skipper tied the score at 36 with 7:15 to play, and Naz never led by more than two the rest of the game. Coronado took the lead for good when Soliz scored with 2:11 to go to make it 46-44.

Naz worked the ball around, but Schmucker missed a shot with 1:08 left. Courtney Hoelting fouled April Armacost, sending her to the stripe for two. Armacost, a senior, missed both free throws, and Naz got the ball back with 1:06 left.

Naz worked the ball around again, but Schmucker missed another with 25 seconds left. Naz forced a turnover three seconds later, but the Swiftettes missed again with seven seconds to play, and Soliz made two free throws at the end to ice the game.

Many folks felt Ozona and Nazareth would meet in the last game of the girls' tournament Saturday, and they almost did.

Instead, they played for third place while hometown teams Monterey and Coronado duked it out later for the tournament title.

Monterey had defeated Ozona on Saturday morning, but the girls from Southwest Texas were missing one of their top players, guard Bobbie Bryson. Bryson attended a funeral Saturday morning but was back in Lubbock in time to start against Naz.

The Swiftettes jumped to an early 5-0 lead and were never headed to win third place in the 32-team field.

The game showcased two of the best players in the state: Schmucker and Ozona's Amber Tarr, a 5-11 sophomore who led Dickie Faught's team to an overtime win over Hart in last year's 1-AA regional semifinal and on to the state title.

Naz led 13-9 after the first quarter, and after a sluggish second quarter by both teams took a 19-13 lead at halftime.

During the third period, Naz led by 10 at one point before Ozona came back to make it 29-24 after three.

In the fourth period, the Swiftettes asserted themselves again on defense, holding Ozona to just four points to take the eight-point win.

Schmucker led everybody with 16 points, outscoring Tarr by two.

side of the basket, who bounced the ball to Bradley on the other side of the lane. Bradley calmly sank her 10-footer with a second left to give Dimmitt the win.

Bradley led the Bobbies with 19 points.

In Saturday night's game, Friona led practically from wire to wire for a win among the district rivals.

The first quarter was almost exclusively Jacy Buckley vs. Courtney Carthel, as each player had eight of her team's 11 points, and the first quarter ended in a tie.

The two didn't keep up the pace though, although Buckley had just two more points, Carthel only five more. Their teammates, though, kept things going in the "B" consolation final.

Friona had a big spurt at the start of the second quarter, running to an eight point lead at 24-15. Ethridge hit Dimmitt's first field goal of the period with 3:14 to go, and Bradley, Amy Matthews and Amber Matthews added buckets down the stretch to make it a 33-26 game at the half.

In the third quarter, Dimmitt was down by seven, 38-31, with five minutes left, but Dimmitt got it within two on a technical foul against a Friona player. Josselet made both free throws to cut the gap to 38-36 late in the quarter, but Friona hit a trey to make it 41-36 after 24 minutes.

Friona jumped into a six-point lead again when Dimmitt got it to four, 45-41. The Bobbies forced a held ball, but a mixup on the possession arrow mistakenly gave the ball to Friona. The Squaws converted, and went on to hit six free throws in the last minute to win.

Josselet led Dimmitt with 12 points.

Swifts go 1-2 in weekend's Caprock ABC Tournament

Nazareth's boys lost two of three games last weekend in the Caprock Tournament, but may have come out better for the experience.

"I think we've improved," said Naz boys' coach Mark Makeever. "We can't help but improve. We've had so little time playing with everyone, and we are finally getting our roles defined.

"We have still not gotten back to playing at the top of our game. The offense is coming around, and we are seeing more improvement on defense.

"I still think we are capable of much, much more as a team."

THURSDAY Frenship 69, Swifts 51

The Swifts went toe-to-toe with the Tigers for the first period, but couldn't keep up with the Tigers down the stretch as Frenship pulled away for the 18 point win.

Frenship, which was 12-3 coming into the contest, trailed Naz by two after the first quarter, 12-10. The Tigers then hit a hot spot late in the first half to lead at intermission, 33-29.

Frenship eased to an eight point lead by the end of the third, 47-39, before blowing past the Swifts in the fourth period for the win.

Nathan Hoelting led Naz with 14 points, while Robby Schmucker had 11 and Gaylon Schilling 12 for the Swifts.

FRIDAY Swifts 50, Abernathy 26 Dalhart 60, Swifts 51

Naz broke open an early defensive battle with two big runs in the second quarter to put the game away against the Antelopes.

Abernathy is still trying to get its season going, with Matt Riley playing for the first time last Thursday after injuring his knee in the Plainview Tournament four weeks ago. Riley got in some playing time for Coach Jerry Schaeffer in the tourney, but Naz fired up its offense against the Lopes to take a second-round win.

Nazareth was up 10-2 early and settled for a 10-7 lead at the end of the first period.

The Swifts then hit five quick points, with Coby Schacher going to the hole for a layup with 6:40 to go in the half for a 15-7 lead.

After a trey by Abernathy's Tanner Davis, the Swifts then hit four straight baskets to go up 24-10. Naz then had another spurt in the last minute to lead at the half by 14, 28-14.

Naz got off 25 shots in the first half, making 11 of them. Naz controlled the boards on both ends and allowed Abernathy just 19 shots in the first two quarter. In the second half, Naz kept up the defensive pressure, limiting Abernathy to 2-of-11 from the field. Meanwhile, Naz made 4-of-10 and extended its lead to 42-18 by quarter's end. Abernathy didn't score again after a basket with 4:25 to go in the period.

In the fourth, Naz emptied the bench, but maintained a big lead over the Antelopes, going up by as many as 26, 48-22 on a free throw by Brian Braddock with 2:51 to go.

Schacher had 13 and Schilling added 12 to lead the Swifts.

The Swifts and Golden Wolves met for the second time in eight days in Friday's consolation quarterfinal.

In the previous meeting, Nazareth came back from 24 down to take a lead. This time, they didn't allow Dalhart the big cushion, but couldn't come back at the end.

In fact, Dalhart almost led from wire to wire, but had to quell a Naz rally in the third quarter to take the win.

Naz bounced back from a five-point deficit, 17-12 at the end of the first quarter, to get within two points late in the second period on two big buckets by Braddock. Dalhart hit five points in the last 40 seconds of the half to take a 33-26 lead at the break.

In the third, the teams went breakneck for the first two minutes of the period, then the pace slowed. Schacher hit a layup with 5:06 left in the period to make it 39-38, then each team missed its next three shots. Nathan Hoelting then put Naz on top with 2:51 to go, 40-39. Dalhart responded with two baskets in the rest of the quarter, while Naz didn't find the basket again until the second minute of the fourth period.

Schilling had 19 and Braddock 17 to lead the Swifts.

COAST TO COAST—Hart's Lisa Rincon (left) drives the length of the court after stealing the ball in the fourth quarter of the Ladyhorns' game against Idalou during the first round of the Wildcat Christmas Classic at Littlefield Thursday. Rincon ended the transition play with a put-back basket. Chasing her is Idalou's Amber Hammond (23). In center background is Hart's Charbra Lee. Idalou won the game, 51-32. The Ladyhorns finished eighth in the tourney.

Longhorns fall to Littlefield in finals of Wildcat Classic

Teams in the Littlefield Wildcat Christmas Classic figured out pretty early that if you want to beat Hart, you've got to stop J.R. Lee.

Idalou couldn't do it. Neither could Floydada. But Littlefield did and the result was the home team victory over Hart in the championship game.

Lee was a scoring machine in the first two games, scoring 33 in a first-round overtime win over Idalou, then pouring in an impressive 41 against Floydada in the semifinal round.

Littlefield held Lee to 12 points in Saturday's championship game and the result was a 67-49 Wildcat victory.

After taking a lead at halftime, Hart ran into trouble in the third quarter with Lee on the bench, and clung to a 42-41 lead at the end of the third.

Hart fell behind in the fourth quarter and it was Lee and teammate Raynea Garcia who gave the Horns new life to tie the game at 60 at the end of regulation.

Lee was whistled for a technical foul at the four minute mark in the third quarter and he was benched for the rest of the stanza. After that Idalou started closing in on the Longhorns.

Lee returned to the game in the fourth quarter, but Idalou was on a hot streak.

It took back-to-back three-pointers by Lee and Garcia in the final 10 seconds of regulation to keep Hart alive.

Those threes tied the game at 60. Idalou canned a three-pointer of its own at the start of the OT period to go up 63-60, but that was the only shot the team would make.

Lee sank a pair of free throws, then John Welps added two more to give Hart a 64-63 edge with 1:54 left.

Hart then went into a four-corner offense after a turnover at the 1:56 mark.

Desperation fouls on Idalou sent Lee, Garcia and Manuel Minjarez to the line in the last minute. Lee hit one of four attempts, Garcia made one of two and Minjarez missed two, but it was enough for a 66-63 win.

Hart posted a 10-point advantage over Floydada in Friday's semifinal round and that was enough for the victory.

Lee scored from everywhere, almost at will. Floydada fell behind 27-17 in the first quarter, but rebounded in the second to pull within five at halftime, 38-33.

Second half scoring was fairly even with Hart sinking 25 points and Floydada managing 24.

The Whirlwinds tamed the Longhorns after the first quarter, but Hart had built up enough of an edge and couldn't be blown over.

Littlefield used a strong second half to claim the championship, 67-49, over Hart Saturday night.

The score was tied at 12 after the first quarter, and Littlefield held a slim 27-24 lead at halftime.

Hart stayed with the quick Wildcats over the first 16 minutes, but couldn't keep up the pace in the second half.

Hart's scoring fell off in the third and fourth quarters, as the Longhorns managed just 14 and 11 points, respectively, in the stanzas.

Littlefield had no problems, tossing in 20 points in each stanza for the win.

Dusty Ortiz tossed in 16 points for Hart while Lee finished with 12.

The Ladyhorns suffered a 53-30 loss to Idalou's ladies in the tournament opener last Thursday and couldn't rebound to claim consolation title.

Hart lost its next two games—to Petersburg and Roosevelt—by a combined 14 points, a disappointing finish for the Hart girls.

Idalou controlled the first game from the opening tip, posting an 11-7 lead after the first quarter and 24-16 edge at intermission. Idalou put the game away with a 14-4 third-quarter performance. Gayla Reyna and Charbra Lee had six apiece to lead Hart's girls.

The Ladyhorns would love to replay the first halves of Friday's consolation semifinal game with Petersburg and Saturday's seventh-place game with Roosevelt.

It was almost like two different Hart teams in the first and second halves of the games.

On Friday, the Ladyhorns struggled from the field in the first half and scored only 13 points while Petersburg tossed in 30. In the second half, Hart scored 38 points while Petersburg only sank 29.

Reyna and Lee were the top scorers for Hart again, with Reyna scoring 16 and Lee adding 12.

Saturday's game was almost a carbon copy of Friday's. Roosevelt jumped ahead 33-22 in the first half. Hart outscored the Lady Eagles 33-27 in the second half, but came up five points short of the victory.

Tiffany Bradford exploded for 24 points and Lee had 12 for Hart.

SLAM!—Hart's J. R. Lee slam-dunks a basket after a steal and snowbird drive in the second quarter of the Longhorns' game against Idalou during the first round of the Wildcat Christmas Classic at Littlefield Thursday. This basket gave the Longhorns a 20-14 lead; they went on to win the game in overtime, 66-63. The 'Horns finished second in the tourney, losing to Littlefield in the championship game Saturday.

Pohlmeier was one of two Swiftettes mentioned to the 32-team tournament's all-tournament team. Teammate Melinda Schmucker was named Most Valuable Player. Coronado won the semifinal game, then won the championship. The Swiftettes had to settle for third place.

Forest Service nursery offers low-cost seedlings

'Tis the season to plant your windbreaks, wildlife plantings and tree crops, so grab your seedling list, check it twice and contact the Texas Forest Service's Indian Mound nursery.

The nursery offers a variety of low-cost pine and hardwood seedlings to private landowners planning reforestation projects. (These seedlings aren't intended for landscaping or ornamental use).

"We have plenty," said Joan Landrum, nursery office manager.

Along with the remaining hardwood varieties, a number of pines are available, including rust resistant slash, northeast Texas loblolly, drought-hardy loblolly, advanced generation loblolly, shortleaf, Virginia and longleaf. Prices range from $18.50 for a package of 100 hardwoods to $65 for 1,000 Virginia pines.

For more information contact the nursery at P.O. Box 617, Alto, Texas 75925-0617; or call (409) 858-4202.

The Concealed Handgun Unit has reviewed all applications received in September and some of those received in October. All September applicants have been mailed their licenses or have been sent notices of problems such as smudged fingerprint cards, incomplete application packets or questions about potential disqualifying factors.

"We've dedicated a lot of resources to initiating the licensing process, and it is running very smoothly," said Frankie L. Waller, chief of administration for DPS. "The public response has been tremendous, however, due to the enormous response and the short startup period, we do anticipate taking the full 90 days to process applications."

"I know all applicants are eagerly awaiting their licenses and are tempted to call and ask for their status, but each time the phone rings it takes our personnel away from the license issuance process and slows things down," Waller said. "We ask your patience in giving us ample time to process your application before calling to check on its status."

Citizens obtaining concealed carry permits must shell out $140 for each four-year license.

Police Calls

An 18-year-old Dimmitt woman was allegedly assaulted in an incident reported to Dimmitt police around 5:05 p.m. last Thursday. When police reported to the scene, the suspect and the victim of the assault both were arrested. The victim was arrested for assault on a peace officer.

The victim reportedly attacked officer Rita Ramos as she was attempting to arrest the suspect. Ramos suffered an injury to her wrist in the incident, which happened on Western Circle Dr.

The residence of Rex Lust in the north part of the county was broken into sometime between 4 p.m. Saturday and Monday morning. Taken were a TV and VCR, tools, telephone and answering machine, a jewelry box containing a gold-nugget-type ring, a camera and soft case, a half-gallon size jar containing pennies, a quart mug containing silver coins, articles of clothing, a pair of bib overalls, and food from the kitchen and refrigerator.

Entry was gained through the front door, which had not been locked, but had been blocked by a treadmill exercise machine, which was pushed out of the way.

Storage buildings belonging to Garnett Holland out in the county were entered without permission and a band saw valued at $100 was taken. According to Sheriff's deputies the saw was probably taken prior to Dec. 17. It was reported missing on Dec. 27.

Arrests during the past week included a 31-year-old Nazareth man on a warrant for indecency with a child. He was arrested last Thursday. Also, a Dimmitt man, 35, was arrested Saturday for public intoxication.

Two arrests were made on warrants for violation of probation, including a 21-year-old Hart man on Monday and a 21-year-old Dimmitt man on Dec. 26.

A Dimmitt woman, 40, was picked up on a DPS warrant.

Two Dimmitt people, ages 21 and 39, were picked up Friday on charges of theft by check, one of them on a warrant from Deaf Smith County.

Police are investigating damages to the phone boxes at Allsup's, which were jerked off the wall. The incident was reported just past midnight Friday.

A car stereo valued at $199 was taken from a Dodge van parked at the Azteca complex. The burglary was reported Sunday evening by Benardino Ojeda.

Dan Heard told sheriff's deputies that someone removed a survey marker on his property sometime within the past month.

herded, and perhaps even not fully utilized.

By law, the TCPB fund cannot be used for any political purposes. But in the gray areas of promotion, marketing, public education, pesticide and herbicide research and use, export quotas, trade agreements—what is and is not political? Definitions can get sticky.

Perhaps there was controversy on the TCPB board over how the check-off fund was being administered — priorities for grants, expenditures, etc.

Or perhaps it was the fact that King is, and always has been, a political animal. Board members may have been worried about that gray area between promotion and politics.

Whatever the cause of the TCPB's divorce from King and Wales, the board has lost the services of the two most widely known advocates of the Texas corn industry, and two who are working harder than almost anyone in the nation to protect and preserve the family farm.

I'm a member of the TCGA, as are many business and professional people here who realize that our livelihoods are tied to agriculture. And I worry that the TCPB's severing of King and Wales may diminish their effectiveness.

And we locals aren't the only ones who are worried about this turn of events. Consider this letter which Bob Robinson, district director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, presented to King at his retirement reception:

"Dear Carl:
"Words cannot express my sorrow for your resigning from the Texas Corn Producers Board. As a lifelong resident of the High Plains, I cannot think of one individual who has helped agriculture and its producers more than you. I will always be indebted to you for saving our water source. Your leadership in bringing new industry to our area is unparalleled. The Texas Corn Producers, under your leadership, would not shy away from controversial issues or groups. You had the courage to fight, to right the wrongs that would adversely affect all of us. Thank you.

"On behalf of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, we have never had a better friend—a man that supported us financially and used his influence to represent us in Austin and Washington. At times you would challenge us, and today we have the largest IPM (insect and pest management) program in the nation which you helped to pioneer. A few years ago you were selected as the recipient of our State Friend of Extension Award. In my mind, you are 'in the running' for our best friend ever.

"We admire you as a man, one of conviction, courage and principle.

We, all of our agents and specialists, value your friendship. . . . The greatest compliment one can have is that he made a difference for others. Wow! What a difference you have made!"

I'm not sure whether the TCPB has cut King and Wales loose or—through the process of unexpected consequences—has cut itself loose from its own base of support.

co-op (ko-op or ko-op), n. 1. the act of operating jointly with another or others, to the same end; to work or labor with mutual efforts to promote the same object.

advertising

ad-ver-tis-ing, ad-ver-tiz-ing, n. 1. to call the public's attention to things for sale, help wanted, etc., as by printed notices or announcements. . . . 3. v.t. to publish a notice of; to give conspicuous notice or information of to the public, through newspapers, signs, circulars, posters, periodical publications, radio, television, etc.; especially, to praise publicly in this way to encourage buying; as to advertise goods for sale, entertainments to occur, etc.

half price

half price, a. 1. the value of one at the cost of fifty percent of the whole; a good deal; as in "When you use co-op advertising in the Castro County News, you usually pay only half price for it."

Many manufacturers will pay up to half the cost of advertising their products locally.

Yet many local dealers are missing the boat. More than a billion dollars' worth of co-op advertising goes unused in the US every year.

If you're a retailer, keep up with the co-op advertising programs available to you and USE YOUR CO-OP ADVERTISING.

It's your own half-price bargain. If you don't use it, you lose it.

Many successful businesses do most or all of their advertising through co-op programs.

If you aren't sure of the "co-opportunities" available on specific products that you sell, ask your distributor or manufacturer's rep.

In many cases, the manufacturer (or his advertising agency—keep an eye on your mail) will provide you with prepared ads and commercial scripts. If he doesn't, the News has illustrations of many products that are eligible for co-op advertising. We'll design your ad to meet the manufacturer's specifications, and help you with the forms and tearsheet proofs to qualify you for co-op reimbursement.

Keep your name before the public at half the cost through co-op advertising.

Just give us a call at 647-3123.

Then you won't need to look up the definition of good bus'i-ness.
