Enchilada dinner planned for Jan. 28

A "Super Enchilada Dinner" has been planned for Jan. 28, "Super Bowl Sunday," to benefit the building fund of the First Mexican Baptist Church of Dimmitt, and the public is invited to attend. Cost of the meal is a donation.

The meal is a cooperative effort between Dimmitt's First Baptist Church and the First Mexican Baptist Church. The ladies of FMBC will prepare the food, and it will be served in the FBC Fellowship Hall following the morning worship service Jan. 28.

Those attending the meal may enter by the south entrance of FBC on the west side of the preschool playground. Serving will last until all have had time to arrive from their respective worship services.

According to Pastor Paul Kenley, FBC is promoting the event as a way to help FMBC in their effort to raise funds for a new building on property the church already owns in north-west Dimmitt.

"Last year's event raised over $3,000 and helped the former mission of First Baptist well along the way in obtaining the down-payment on the new construction," Kenley said. He said a meeting was held recently including representatives of both congregations, who met with a consultant from the Baptist General Convention of Texas concerning building plans.

Following the lunch, a brief service will be held that will focus on informing those present about the plans for the new building, and how Christians can partner with the church to meet this financial need. Following the afternoon service, no other activities will be held at FBC the remainder of the day.

Black named 'Outstanding Student Nurse'

Rochelle Portwood Black, daughter of Tommy and Paula Portwood of Dimmitt, was presented the "Outstanding Student Nurse Award" during Jan. 6 pinning ceremonies at Highland Baptist Church in Lubbock.

Black completed her vocational nurse training through South Plains College and was among 40 students pinned during the ceremony.

Black was pinned as a "Graduate Vocational Nurse" by her grandmother, Pauline Hoyler of Dimmitt, who is a licensed vocational nurse at Plains Memorial Hospital. Black will be certified as an LVN after passing a state board exam.

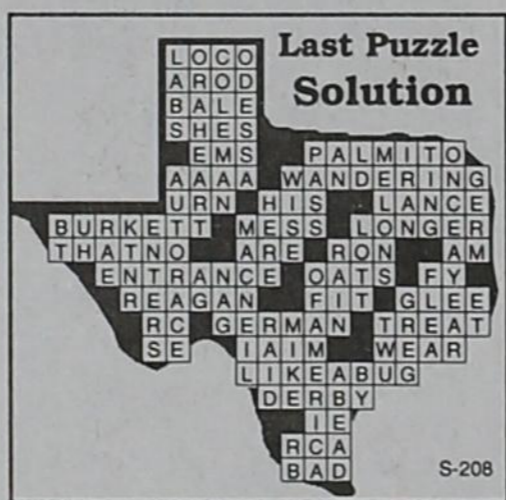

The Outstanding Student Nurse Award was presented by Barbara Bennett, RN Coordinator at SPC.

"This particular award is chosen by the faculty and we had some guidelines to go by," Bennett said in presenting the award to Black. "We looked at clinical evaluations. We chose someone who we felt was a patient advocate, anticipated patients' needs, developed a rapport with the patient through communication skills, has the skills and knowledge necessary to deliver quality care, works well with the staff, instructors and fellow students and adheres to policies and guidelines."

Tijerina assigned

Army Sgt. Marcus D. Tijerina has arrived for duty at the US Army Gulfgate Recruiting Station in Houston.

Tijerina, a recruiter, is the son of Gilbert and Ermelinda Tijerina of Hereford. He is a 1983 graduate of Hereford High School. His wife, Lidia, is the daughter of Alex and Linda Trigo of Dimmitt.

Anyone who knows how to contact the people mentioned above is asked to send the information to DHS Class of '65, 101 S. Jennings, Suite 308, Fort Worth 76104.

Let welfare system work

Dear Editor:

That was a wonderful picture of Dana Cobb and children and accompanying story in the Jan. 11 issue of the Castro County News. This story and family picture depict what is both right and good about the current welfare system. The Republicans in Congress who want to end this system are just wrong. Under their plan, this story would have been a blank space in the News.

This young lady is being given an opportunity to become a more productive citizen. And it's not just for her, but also for her children and the community where she will live and work when her education is completed.

Is there abuse in the welfare system? Probably. Is there abuse and fraud in the defense system? Probably. But let's not end the programs and start over with an untried system. Reform it, correct the problems. If we, as a country, cannot provide for those in need (or as Ronald Reagan said, "Provide a safety net for our citizens") we have failed in our purpose as the land of opportunity. Such programs are not expenses, but rather investments.

Thank you for the story.

Granddaughter of Robert W. & Norma Smith

On the Go with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Bill and Dee Brisco have returned home after a two-week trip to the east. They visited in Memphis, Tenn., with Brad and Melinda Yates, Kyle and Ashleigh.

Ashleigh is the Yates' new baby daughter. After spending several days there they went to Fredericksburg, Va., to see Bob and Tina Mason, Nikka, Trae and Jacob.

They enjoyed seeing some of the Civil War battlefields. Fredericksburg is the oldest town in Virginia. They returned to Memphis for a few more days and spoiled Ashleigh some more.

They returned home through Arlington, where they spent time with Kyle Yates, Roy and Myra Sims and John and Marie Joplin.

Kyle's wife and daughter were in school at that time. They stopped in Wichita Falls and spent the night with Bro. Ron and Carol Redding.

Bro. Ron is former pastor of Lee Street Baptist Church.

Bill and Dee say they are very tired and are glad to be back in Dimmitt.

Rosetta Bellinghausen flew to Ovilla to spend Christmas with her son and family, David, Melody, Jordan and Canaan Bellinghausen.

Melody's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Seth Murphey of Levelland, were there as well. They had fun visiting, eating and opening presents.

After Christmas Rosetta went to Huntsville to visit her cousin, Rose Acker, a former Dimmitt resident who reads "On the Go" religiously every week. Rose sends everyone her greetings. Rose's great-granddaughter, Alisa, is "just precious" and she's the daughter of Coby and Lisa Oldham.

Rose and Rosetta attended the First United Methodist Church on Sunday and Rosetta enjoyed meeting all of Rose's friends. They also had some of her friends over for spaghetti and meat balls and the women had fun giggling and visiting.

The Hospital Auxiliary met on Wednesday morning with Mattie Seale presiding over the business meeting. Reports were given by Barbara Sava and Florene Leinen.

Ricky Hunter gave an informative program especially concerning the new Life Line. Irene Carpenter served her famous sugar cookies.

The Town and Country Extension Club met on Friday morning with Oneida Hutto presiding over the business meeting in the absence of Ann Henderson. She led the group in a prayer and the creed. Rosetta Bellinghausen read the minutes and called the roll. Each member answered with a new technique in sewing.

Oneida read a poem entitled They Said It Couldn't Be Done, But I Did It. Margaret Womack read Smiles and Rosetta read Today.

Marilyn Neal was in charge of the program on using accessories to change the looks of a basic dress (by adding jewelry or scarves), and making over old clothes.

Members present were Hutto, Bellinghausen, Womack, Edith Graef, Claudine Langford, Mary Edna Hendrix and a guest, Ferne Jones.

Rosetta served coffee and doughnuts.

Gladys Benson, a former Dimmitt resident, and her friend, Rebecca Royal of Hereford, were visitors in the museum last week.

The Dimmitt Book Club met on Wednesday afternoon at Rhoads Memorial Library with Barbara Bain presiding over the business meeting and Cindy Adams reading the minutes and calling the roll.

Barbara gave out suckers and whistles with clever verses attached. My verse was "Some of our new books are so down-to-earth, they should be plowed under." I know we have freedom of the press, but things have gone too filthy.

Maxine Tidwell gave an interesting and informative review of the book My American Journey by Colin Powell and Joseph E. Persico. Oleta Gollehon and Oneida Hutto were hostesses for the social hour and they served party sandwiches, date loaf candy, canapes, toffee-topped bars, nuts, mints and coffee.

Susan and Jennifer Hanners, former Dimmitt residents, drove

TEX MEETS DOLLY PARTON— Or at least he meets Dolly in drag. Tex Conrad of Dimmitt celebrated his birthday recently, and the event was highlighted with an unusual visit from "Dolly," who was "hilarious and most striking" according to those attending. Those attending Tex's 77th birthday were his daughter and son-in-law, Sharon and Larry Sadler; his granddaughter, Laura Hurtado; and friends, Pete and Darla Stewart, Betty and Victor Steffens, Lois Scott, Yvonne Wakefield; and Tex's wife, Norma. Coffee, apple cider and doughnuts were served to guests, who left the party saying "what a great way to start the day."

down from Amarillo to attend the Book Club and we were all delighted to see them. Susan is employed at Barnes Jewelry and Jennifer is a graduate student at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Alma Kenmore was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club which met at the Senior Citizens Center and she served candy for snacks and a delicious lemon cake for dessert.

Johnny Vannoy won high score and Susie Reeves won second high score. Others playing were Neva Hickey, Ina Rae Cates, Virginia Crider, Cleo Forson, Elizabeth Huckabay, Dugan Butler, Helen were Edith Graef, Cleo Forson, Louise Mears, Mattie Seale, Geneva Justice and Mildred Sheffy. They all sang "Happy Birthday" to Mary.

Lena Martin, a former Dimmitt resident who now lives in Abernathy, was a guest in the home of Lois Scott last Tuesday and Wednesday. They drove to Amarillo while she was here, and they had fun visiting.

Crystal Scott Clearman celebrated her birthday in the home of her parents, Ben and Mollie Scott, and Eleanor Gibson of Hereford was there to celebrate her birthday as well. A delicious meal and birthday cake was served to the honored guests and others including Carrie Sheffy, Ben Scott Jr., Robert Nelson and Lois Scott.

Nazareth with Virgie Gerber, 945-2669

The Nazareth Senior Citizens enjoyed a Mexican stack-up dinner at the center on Sunday.

We were all glad to have Max Acker join us with her family, H.D. and Myrtle White of Amarillo. Max has been living with the Whites while recovering from hip surgery. She says she is enjoying being "pampered."

John and Norma Schacher were guests of Lawrence Schmucker.

Father Neal Dee has returned from a Christmas visit with his mother in Hartford City, Ind. She would like to send some snow our way.

Father Stanley Crocchiola is a patient at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. He is a resident of the Priests' Retirement Home in Panhandle.

Leroy and Colette Hoelting of Colorado Springs spent last weekend with her parents, Greg and Tinie Hoelting.

Prayers are asked for Vincent Guggemos, Leonard Schulte and Father Sherry's sister, Rosalie, who is having major surgery.

Charley and Bev Hill and Andi Rose drove to Wichita Falls this weekend to visit Kevin and Traci Scholl. Todd Hill of Dallas and Misty Maxfield of Lubbock joined them on Saturday.

Donna Charanza and Virgie Gerber visited with Bryan Charanza in Lubbock Sunday afternoon. We enjoyed eating out with him.

Aurelia Schoenenberger, Anne Kern and Ronnie Wilhelm attended a Pro-Life meeting Friday evening in Amarillo at the home of Jim and Peggy Brandon.

Our basketball teams are doing very well in district play so far, having posted wins over Bovina and Farwell last week. We hope their success will continue this week as they play Happy, Kress and Sudan.

Our junior high girls won first place in the Lockney Tournament over the weekend.

Three county students earn bachelor's degrees

Bachelor of science degrees from West Texas A&M University were bestowed on Dimmitt students Leigh Hyman, Stephanie Schilling and Jeanne Gabel in December.

Hyman, Gabel and Schilling all earned degrees in interdisciplinary study.

Minding Your Own Business

Picking a Partner

Ben had a good idea. When he took his idea to his employers, they weren't interested. "Business is good," they said. "We don't want to invest in an untested idea."

However, the idea kept nagging at Ben. He watched industry trends and knew the time was right. Ben resigned and worked his idea into a business plan. Then one evening at a church dinner he casually mentioned his idea to a recently retired executive.

Immediately the executive expressed interest. Was Ben looking for partners? Did Ben need capital? Ben said yes, and they met the next night to discuss the idea. The meeting went well and the executive suggested bringing in a third partner. Ben wasn't sure at first, but finally agreed because he needed additional capital.

Each partner received one-third ownership. Ben got his third for the idea and industry knowledge. The other partners supplied capital and management expertise for their shares.

The company started quickly and early production was strong. Led by Ben's knowledge of the industry and his marketing ability, the company established solid accounts quickly and profits came early.

Then unexpectedly one morning early in the second year, Ben's partners fired him from his own company. The partners controlled two-thirds of the stock and they wanted Ben out. Ben kept his stock and demanded his third of the profit. The partners immediately raised their salaries and the leftover profit was meager.

Ben hired an attorney, but was told the partners were within their legal rights. Ben was out and had no legal recourse.

Common problems

Situations like Ben's happen every day. I've watched more than a dozen partnerships come apart, and it isn't a pretty sight. It is sad to see a business deal turn friends into bitter enemies.

Common causes of these breakups include lack of planning, unclear objectives, lack of capital and no written agreements. However, the most common reason is simply that the partners themselves are not compatible.

You should select your partners for their skills, experience and compatibility factors. Good partners should have similar work ethics, ambition, motivation and personality attributes.

Successful partner attributes

• Honesty and integrity. All successful relationships are based on trust. No partnerships can last long-term if one partner is dishonest.

• Willingness to work hard. Though no two people work alike, each partner must be committed to the cause. You should define job responsibilities before you begin.

• Competence and skills. Each partner must bring useful expertise to the business. Money can start a business, but ability keeps it going.

• A good team player. A partnership, regardless of the number of partners, is a team sport. Partners must work independently when necessary, together when beneficial.

• Good people skills. Good partners get along well with all types of people. They treat others with respect and are enjoyable to be around.

• Can control their emotions. All partnerships will have periods of stress and strife. Good partners control their anger, keep cool under pressure and don't overreact.

• Communication skills. Everyone profits by improving listening, speaking and thinking skills. Listening with understanding is the first step in solving problems.

• Works toward "win-win" solutions. A good partner will see both sides of every situation. They are adept at proposing solutions where everyone comes out ahead.

• Ability to organize and prioritize. Good partners stay focused on accomplishing the most important tasks. When you organize and prioritize your efforts, everyone gets more done.

• Willing to admit errors. "I was wrong," may be one of the least used phrases in partnerships. However, it is a critical element in healing disagreements and going forward toward your common goals.

Agri-Partners developers are honored

A university-corporate team that found a unique way to enhance the productivity of farmers across an entire region of the state was honored with a top award at Texas A&M University in January.

Seven Lubbock men who developed the Agri-Partners Program received the Vice Chancellor's Award in Excellence, the highest honor given to faculty in the Texas A&M agriculture program.

Recipients were three men from private industry: Brent Crossland of Rhone-Poulenc Ag Co., Bob Cypert of Gustafson Inc., and Russ Perkins of BASF Corp. They were joined by four professionals from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service: Dr. Bob Robinson, district director of Extension's Lubbock region; Dr. Kater Hake, Extension cotton specialist; and Dr. James Leser and Dr. William Morrison, both Extension entomologists.

The team raised more than $150,000 in contributions and grants from businesses and governments to help fund an array of applied research efforts on farms across 20 counties in one of the most concentrated agricultural areas in the nation.

The Agri-Partners Program they developed includes such partners as Plains Cotton Growers, Texas and National Grain Sorghum Producers Associations, Texas Corn Growers Association, and others.

Texas Sugar Beet Growers to meet Friday and Saturday

The Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association Annual Meeting and Banquet are set for Friday and Saturday in Hereford.

The annual meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the Hereford Community Center. Lunch will be served. The banquet will be Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

Key speakers for the meeting will be Roger Hill, president of Holly Sugar Corp., and Doug Ehrenkranz, Holly marketing representative. Also representing Holly will be Calvin Jones, Kenneth Chambers, Terry Anvik and Dennis Printz. Texas Agricultural Experiment Station researchers in Bushland will review the past year's beet studies.

The key entertainment at the annual banquet will be Ken Chambers of Dawn, one of the most sought-after speakers in Texas. His presentation of "How Not to Steal Cattle for Fun and Profit" is unique due to the combination of his polished speaking technique and his experience as an inspector for the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

Hill is expected to discuss Holly's continued commitment to the Hereford region, where it has invested millions of dollars in building, expanding and maintaining one of the nation's most efficient beet processing plants.

"We're pleased to once again have Roger Hill on our annual meeting program," said Bill Cleavinger, president of TSBGA. "He will have answers to all our questions about Holly's plans for the future."

Cleavinger, a leader on the American Sugarbeet growers Association board, will discuss ASGA's efforts to maintain a sound US sugar program.

"Cleavinger should have some new insight as to what may be seen in Washington as Congress and the Clinton administration struggle to pass a farm bill," a meeting spokesperson said.

The annual meeting also will feature reports on numerous beet research projects conducted at the TAES Bushland station, as well as at regional farms.

Scheduled speakers include Dr. Charlie Rush, a Bushland plant pathologist who has headed many research projects dealing with viruses and diseases which can hamper beet production.

Dr. Steve Winter, a soil scientist who studies on controlling nitrogen and crop rotation have benefited regional growers for years, also will be a speaker.

Seed variety tests also will be discussed during the research portion of the meeting. The variety trial results should provide vital data as to which varieties are performing the best under area growing conditions. Printz, Holly Hereford agricultural manager, and his staff will recognize growers who saw outstanding yields and quality in their crops.

The meeting also will include the annual election of directors to the TSBGA board.

"One thing Hill and others are sure to discuss is the need to increase beet acreage numbers across the area," a meeting spokesperson said. "About 20,000 acres were planted and harvested in the 1995 season. More are needed to enable the Hereford plant to operate at full capacity.

"With the opportunity to improve their net return with beet production, more growers are expected to either add beets to their rotation, expand their beet production or get back into beets after a year or two of reduced or no beet plantings.

"Expansion has been successful in the Dalhart and Panhandle areas. Growers in the Etter region are look-

Farm Bureau sets conference for Jan. 30

US House Agriculture Chairman Pat Roberts will explain the provisions of the 1995 Farm Bill at the Texas Farm Bureau Leadership Conference in Abilene Jan. 30.

Roberts is scheduled to address the meeting at Abilene's Kiva Inn at 9:30 a.m. The Leadership Conference will feature meetings on commodity activities, legislative priorities, member services and communications.

Roberts is from Dodge City, Kan., and was the primary author of the Freedom to Farm Act, which is the centerpiece of the 1995 Farm Bill. The bill gives farmers much more freedom to plant while still providing a price support safety net. The act runs for a seven-year period, after which farm program benefits to farmers could be sharply reduced or eliminated.

Texas Farm Bureau President Bob Stallman praised the Kansas lawmaker for his insight on farm issues and his relationship with farmers all over the nation.

"Rep. Roberts has been a real leader on agricultural issues for many years," Stallman said. "He has taken some political risks in trying new approaches to farm policy."

Bobbies mangle 10th-ranked Muleshoe

Dimmitt roared from behind in overtime Friday to upset the 10th-ranked Muleshoe girls in a 57-56 thriller at Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium.

Kara Josselet, who had made just one of four free throws in regulation, made four straight in OT, including two with three seconds to play to give the Bobbies the win.

Dimmitt was at less-than-full strength against the Lady Mules. Josselet and Amy Ethridge had bum ankles that had forced them out of the 42-40 loss the previous Tuesday at Littlefield. Jacy Buckley was less than par with a slight knee injury;

Shawna Kenworthy had a bum leg; and Emily Roberson had a bad back.

Those five led the way to the win, with, of course, help from their teammates. The quintet, though, was the key ingredient.

- Ethridge led Dimmitt with 17 points.
- Josselet had her four free throws in overtime, and another in the fourth quarter that tied the score at 40 with 1:55 to play.
- Roberson came off the bench to score six important points in the second quarter.
- Kenworthy, the smallest player on either team, worked for three important rebounds in the fourth quarter and overtime.
- Buckley, who scored nine points and was five-for-five from the line, led Dimmitt back to the lead in the fourth quarter with a three-point play to give Dimmitt a 44-43 lead with 1:19 to play in regulation.

Muleshoe was without its two senior stars, Mandy Cleavinger and Allyson Field, down the stretch. Cleavinger fouled out with 50 seconds to go in regulation, while Field fouled out with 1:22 to go in overtime.

Field had tied up the game at the buzzer with a driving layup at the end of overtime. Muleshoe had called timeout with 29.41 seconds to play, but when the Lady Mules came back the timeout clock was still running with three seconds left. Officials allowed play to start, and when the clock ticked back in there were only 10.91 seconds to play in the game.

Unnerved, Field drove to the basket and scored at the horn to tie the score at 49 at the end of regulation.

In overtime, Field scored first with 2:48 to go to put Muleshoe ahead 51-49. Ethridge answered with two minutes left to tie it at 51.

Kristen Nichols hit the second of a two-shot opportunity with 1:33 to play to put Muleshoe up by one, before Josselet hit back-to-back free throws with 1:22 to go for a 53-52 lead for the Bobbies.

Muleshoe then went on a roll, with a basket by Brandi Harrison followed by a free throw by Cassidy Cleavinger with 32 seconds to go to put the Lady Mules up by two, 55-53.

Amber Matthews got a tough rebound and put the ball back in with 20 seconds to play to tie the score at 55, but Nichols hit a free throw after rebounding a Dimmitt miss with eight seconds to go for a 56-55 Dimmitt lead.

The Bobbies briskly moved the ball down the floor before Josselet was knocked down with three seconds left. The senior stepped up and knocked down both ends of the double bonus.

Muleshoe was able to get the ball in play, but couldn't get it into the forecourt before time expired.

The last second heroics almost weren't necessary, as Dimmitt seemed to have won it in regulation.

Muleshoe had a 43-40 lead when Josselet made her first free throw to cut it to two points.

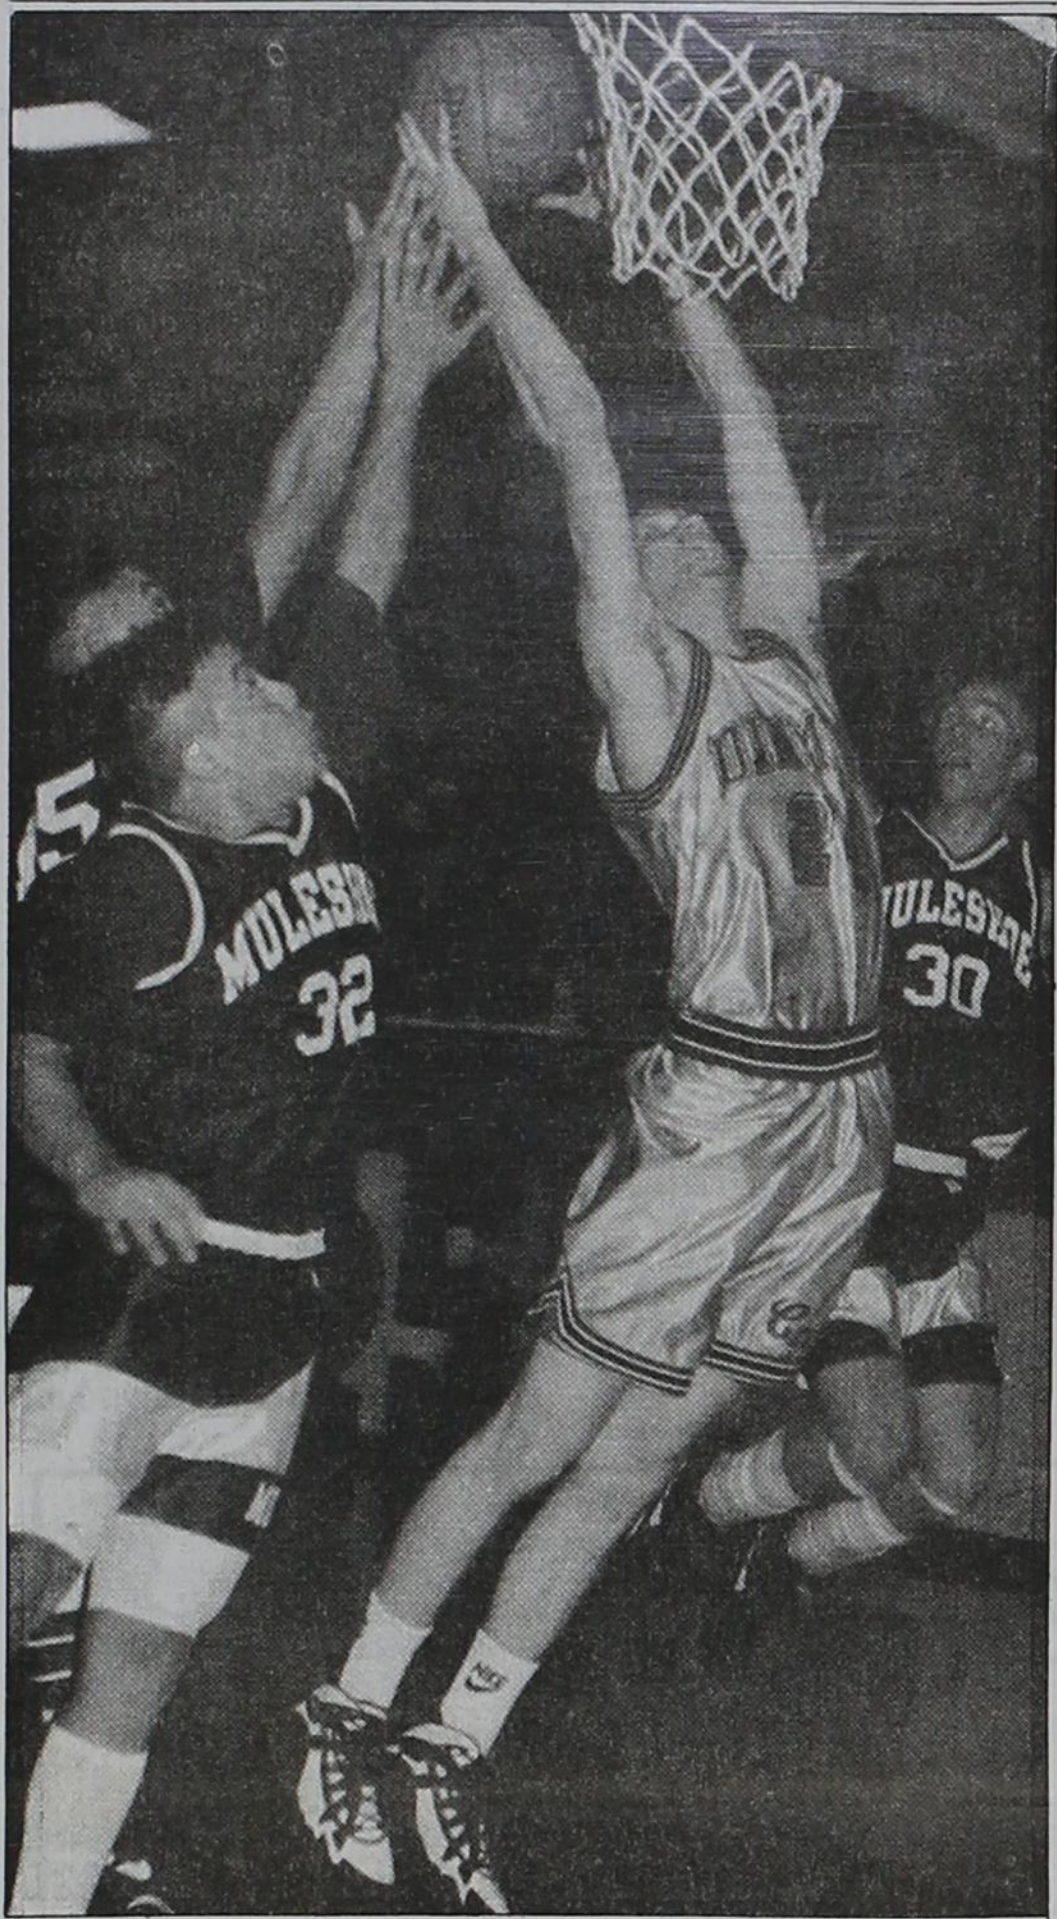

Buckley then gave Dimmitt the lead with 1:19 left in the fourth with her three point play. Matthews made one of two free throws with 1:05 to go to put Dimmitt up by two, 45-43.

Roberson then hit a clutch bucket to give Dimmitt its biggest lead of the night, 47-43. Muleshoe responded with baskets by Field and Nichols to tie the score, but Bradley put Dimmitt back on top with 21 seconds to play with back-to-back free throws, setting up Field's last-second shot to send the contest into an extra period.

The Dimmitt win knocked the Muleshoe girls from the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches Top 10 in Class AAA. The Lady Mules had been 10th last week.

STRET-T-TCH! — Dimmitt's Justin Newman outleaps three Muleshoe players for a defensive rebound in the second quarter of Friday night's District 2-AAA game here. Newman finished with 28 points and eight rebounds as the Bobcats won easily, 91-61.

Cats mutilate Mules

After a dozen close contests in a row, the Muleshoe Mules provided a refreshing breather for the Bobcats in a 91-61 Dimmitt win Friday at Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium.

The first and third quarters were almost even, but Dimmitt exploded for 28 points in the second quarter for a 43-23 lead at halftime. Dimmitt added another 23 points in the third period to cruise to the 30-point win.

Dimmitt had an easy night, with all but two Bobcats on the team scoring in the first quarter. Joey Martinez was the last to make the book when he canned a shot halfway through the fourth to put Dimmitt up by 30, 80-50.

The Mules hung tough for a quarter, with the Bobcats posting only a 15-9 lead after the first eight minutes.

Dimmitt then erupted from all over the floor to claim the 43-23 halftime advantage.

Justin Newman had 11 points in the first half, then had five more baskets in the third quarter to help Dimmitt cruise to a 66-40 lead after three periods. The Bobcats were up by as many as 31, 63-32, after a Joe Larra bucket with 2:30 to go in the period.

In the fourth quarter, Dimmitt coach Alan Steinle tried several different combinations of players throughout the period as Dimmitt had the game well in hand.

Newman led all scorers with 28 points, while Chad Ellis canned 14 and Larra 13.

The win, and last week's victory at Littlefield, boosted the Bobcats back into the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches Top 10 in Class AAA. The Bobcats are No. 7 in this week's poll.

Swift squads sweep Steers

By SCOTT BROCKMAN
The Nazareth Swiftettes connected to another easy victory while the Swifts picked up a big win over Farwell Friday night.

Both Nazareth teams upped their records to 2-0 in the district play.

In the first game the Swiftettes jumped out early to dominate the Lady Blues of Farwell.

Melinda Schmucker and Amy Pohlmeier led the way early in the first quarter as Naz went ahead 14-4 before Farwell knew what had happened.

The Swiftettes led 23-7 at the end of the first and 42-11 at the end of the half.

Farwell scored only 15 more points for the rest of the game to make the final score 75-26.

Nazareth was running on all cylinders throughout the game, showing why they are the top ranked team in Class A.

Schmucker paced the Swiftettes with 18 points, seven assists and five rebounds. Misti Ball added 16 points while sophomores K'Lynn Gerber and Pohlmeier chipped in 12 and 10, respectively.

The Lady Blues were led by Valerie Mace, who had eight points. Gerber scored on a feed from Schmucker to open the game, and the Swiftettes rolled from there.

Gerber picked up her second basket for a 4-2 Nazareth lead, then Pohlmeier drove inside, scored and was fouled. She made the free shot for a 7-2 lead. Pohlmeier connected on an inside shot, then Schmucker made two baskets while Gerber sank one of two free throws for the 14-4 lead.

The boys' team was expected to be a much closer game.

Nazareth and Farwell were vying for early bragging rights in district. The Swifts had won their first game while the Steers had upset the Sudan Hornets earlier in the week.

Early in the game, it looked like the teams wouldn't disappoint those who expected a close game.

The teams traded buckets throughout the first quarter and that was reflected in the score at the end of the stanza, which had Nazareth clinging to a 17-14 lead.

The second quarter would prove to be the deciding factor in the game as the Swifts outscored their opponents 27-12 in the eight-minute period.

Nazareth made its big run near the end of the quarter.

The Swift lead was just seven with five minutes remaining. The teams traded baskets twice to make the score 29-22, but then Nazareth took over and it was a Swift game after that.

Bryan Braddock nailed a three-pointer with three minutes left to make the Nazareth lead 10. After missed free throws by Farwell, Nathan Hoelting hit the trifecta.

Farwell scored to narrow the gap, but Hoelting put back a missed three to answer. Gaylon Schilling then made a deft post move underneath to bring the score to 39-24 with less than two minutes remaining in the half.

Two points from the Steers were sandwiched between a three and an end-of-the-half layup by Braddock, to end a 15-4 run by the Swifts to end the half at 44-26.

Nazareth continued its dominance through most of the third quarter and led by 21 near the end of the stanza.

Farwell wouldn't give up, through. The Steers shot the lights out in the final minutes of the third period and throughout the fourth quarter, but they never got closer than 11 points, which was Nazareth's final margin of victory, 74-63.

Hoelting paced Nazareth with 29 points and 10 caroms. Coby Schacher was the only other player in double figures with 12, but Braddock, Robby Schmucker and Schilling all added eight.

Swiftettes shatter Happy dreams, 52-23

Top-ranked Nazareth used a smothering man-to-man defense from buzzer to buzzer to lasso the weary Happy Cowgirls, 52-23, in a key District 7-A matchup Tuesday night in Nazareth.

Happy matched up with the Swiftettes in first-quarter play, forcing a 9-point stalemate at the end of the period.

But 23 turnovers and 7-of-28 shooting in the game plagued Happy.

Happy's woes started in the second quarter. Nazareth's stingy, hand-in-your-face defense wore the Cowgirls down beginning in the stanza and Happy never got its breath back.

"We wanted to emphasize defense the entire game and we hoped we could wear them down," said Nazareth Coach Johnny Hampton. "We were hoping Happy wasn't used to this kind of pressure. We wanted to apply pressure and do it without fouling, just to see if they could last longer than us."

Melinda Schmucker and Amy Pohlmeier sparked the Swiftettes on a 12-0 run to open the second quarter and Nazareth never looked back. During that run Nazareth forced eight Happy turnovers.

"I didn't realize we had a 12-0 run," Hampton said. "I guess anytime you do, it'll make a difference in the game."

Schmucker led the second-quarter surge with three steals and seven points while Pohlmeier added six points and two blocked shots.

Happy finally scored its first basket when Leah Lair popped a three-pointer with 1:38 left in the half. She hit Happy's only other basket, off of an inbounds play with 59 seconds left to make it 24-14 at the break. Lair finished with 10 first-half points and led Happy with 13 in the game.

"We knew Lair was their best player and we wanted to make her work for everything she got," Hampton said. "We left her open on a couple of three pointers and she was good enough to hit them. Next time we'll have to stay on her a little closer."

Schmucker and Pohlmeier dominated third-quarter scoring, usually off of Happy turnovers forced by K'Lynn Gerber, Courtney Hoelting and Misti Ball.

The Cowgirls lost control of the game seven more times in the stanza and were too weary to stop the Schmucker-Pohlmeier assault on the other end of the court.

Lair connected two minutes into the third to keep it a 10-point game, but Nazareth shut out the Cowgirls until the 1:15 mark when Laci Pearson scored. That was all Nazareth's defense allowed.

Meanwhile, Schmucker poured in six points, Pohlmeier added five and Gerber canned four to boost Nazareth to a 40-18 lead.

Nazareth led 48-19 with 5:06 left in the game after Schmucker finished off a layup with a free throw, then buried a three from the top of the key.

A cross-court pass from Hoelting to Pohlmeier resulted in another basket, then Hoelting added a basket and two charity tosses of her own for the final 52-23 margin.

Schmucker finished with 20 points to lead the Swiftettes while Pohlmeier tallied 16.

The Nazareth victory will set up a showdown with two-time defending state champion and the current No. 2-ranked Sudan Lady Hornets Tuesday night, probably for district bragging rights.

The Swiftettes must beat Kress Friday night while Sudan will tackle Bovina.

Both the Swiftettes and Lady Hornets are currently undefeated in district. Game time will be 6:30 p.m. in Sudan.

Swifts mangle Cowboys, 81-28, in district matchup

The Happy Cowboys suffered through a Swift stampede Tuesday night in Nazareth, and it lasted 32 minutes.

The stampede started in the first quarter of the District 7-A game as Nazareth, ranked No. 9 in the state, jumped out to a 20-2 lead before coasting to a 25-6 advantage in the first quarter. The run-a-way Swifts were ahead 46-12 at halftime and by the time the final buzzer sounded, Nazareth had posted a convincing 81-28 victory.

Three Swifts recorded 14 points in the game and they were Brian Braddock, Gaylon Schilling and Coby Schacher.

Schilling started off hot, scoring the seven points in the first three minutes of the game. The Swifts added two shots by Robby Schmucker, another and two free throws by Nathan Hoelting and a three by Braddock to take their 20-2 lead at the 2:16 mark. Happy cut the lead to 21-6, but Braddock and Justing Bingham countered Happy scorers for the 25-6 advantage.

Nazareth's defense held Happy to six points in the second quarter, too, and all six points came in the first 3:33 of the quarter. The Cowboys were silent after that.

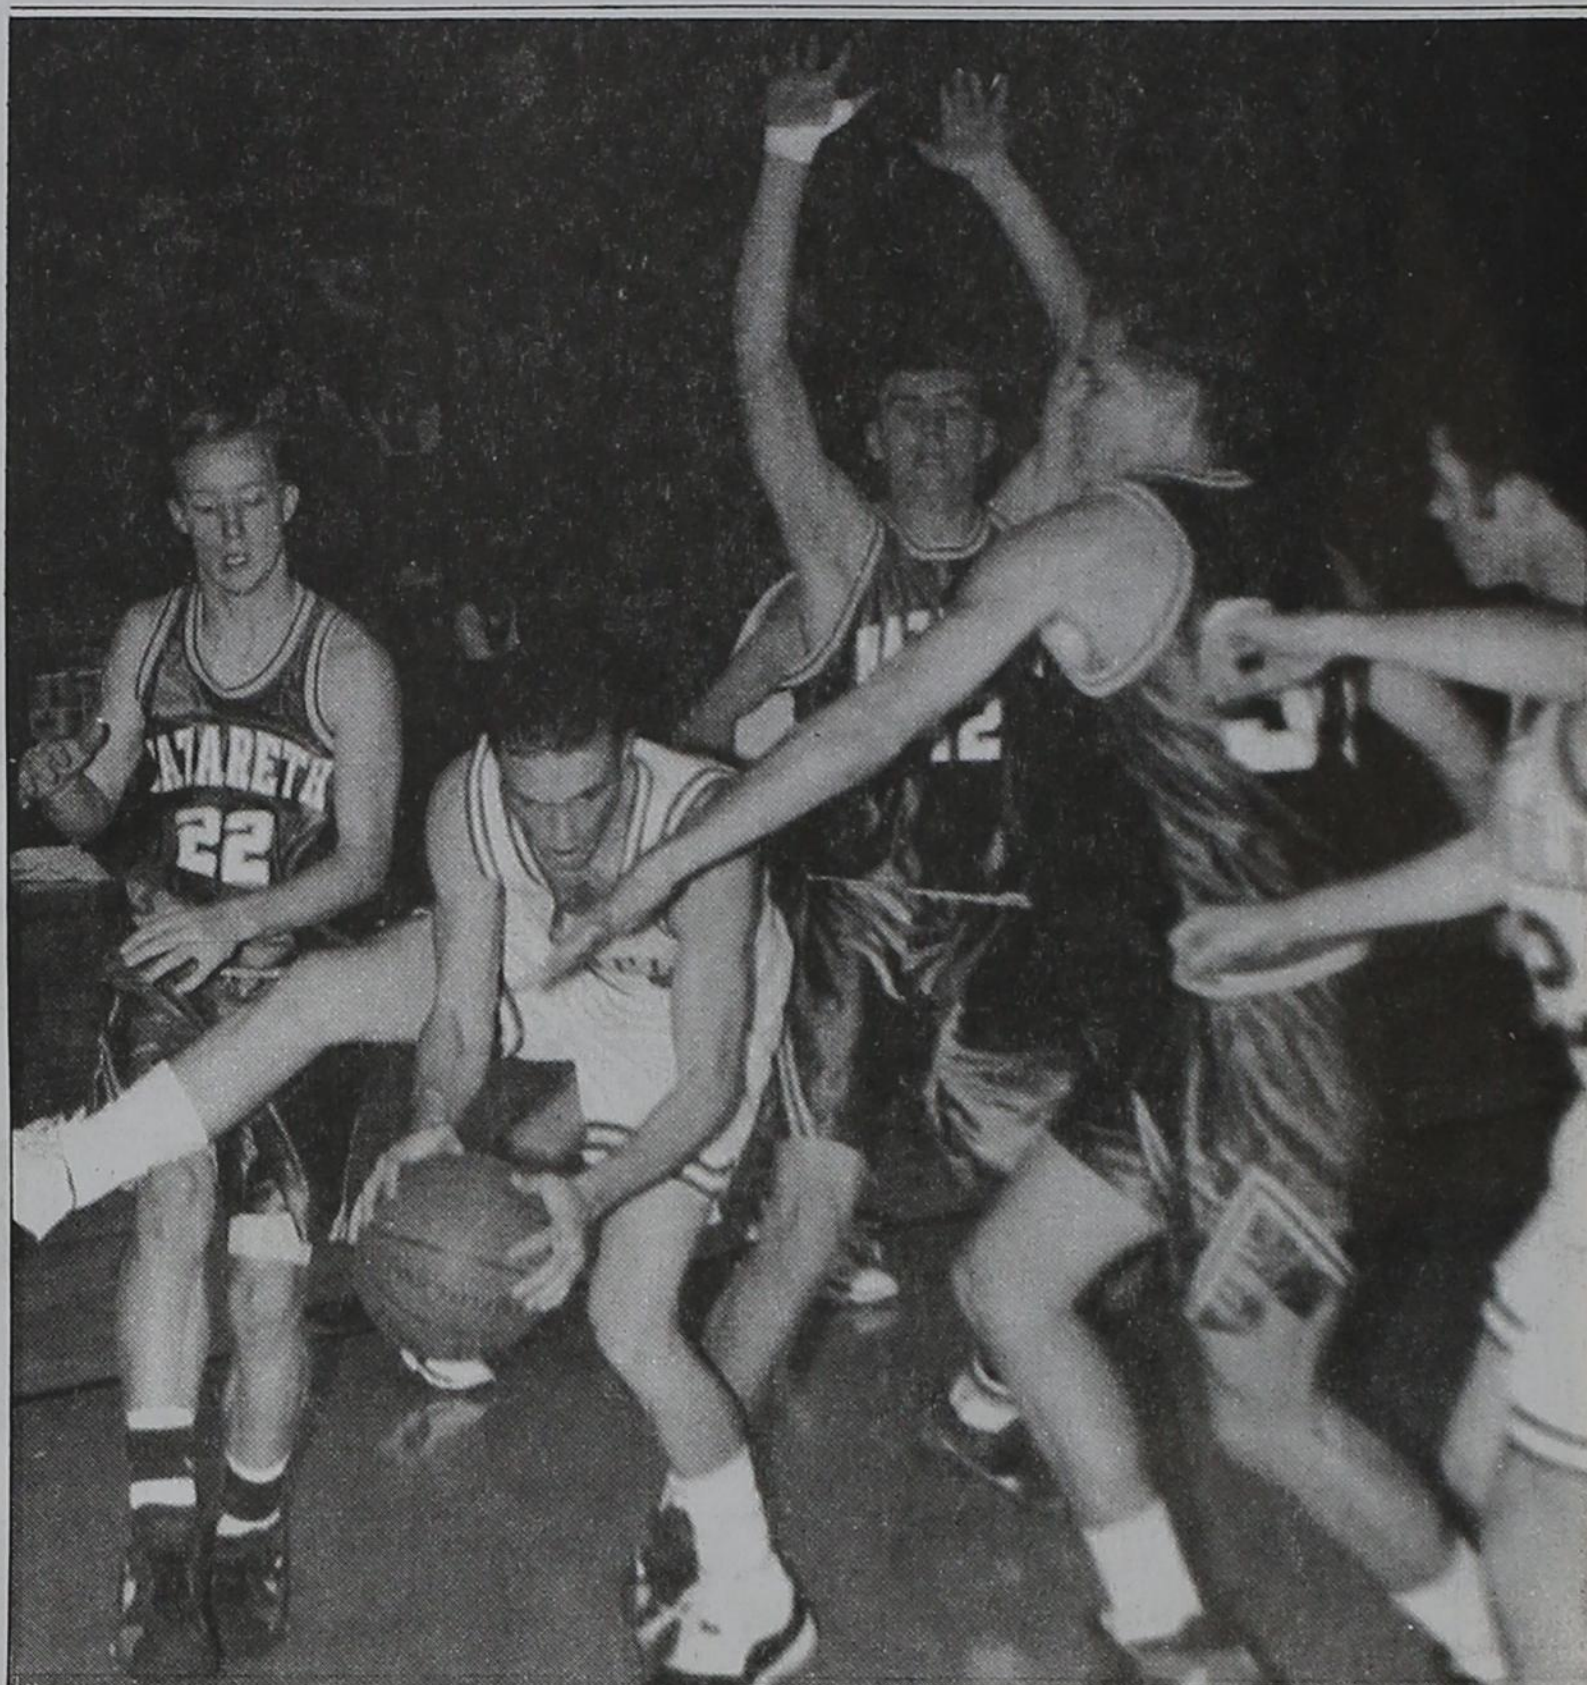

Schacher picked up five quick points to put the Swifts up 35-12.

Then it was Schilling from the baseline, Robby Schmucker with a fastbreak layup, Schilling with a pair of free throws, Braddock with a fadeaway and a trey and Nazareth was ahead 46-12 at halftime.

Nazareth had no problems getting started in the second half, either, and before Happy could get going, they were down by 41, 59-18, with 2:50 left in the third.

A three-pointer by Bingham at the buzzer gave the Swifts a 64-20 lead at the end of the period.

Nazareth scored six quick points at the beginning of the fourth on baskets by Hoelting, Schmucker and Schilling, for a 70-20 lead. The Swifts coasted through the rest of the period for the 81-28 victory.

TRAPPED! A Farwell post player struggles to get control of the ball, but his efforts are hampered by Nazareth's defense, especially by Justin Bingham (22), Coby Schacher (42) and Nathan Hoelting (30). Nazareth broke open a close game in the second quarter and held a 21-point lead at one point before Farwell closed the gap during the District 7-A matchup Friday in Farwell. The Swifts posted a 74-63 victory and improved their district mark to 2-0.

Hart teams hopeful as new district race begins Friday

Hart's boys and girls might not be leading their district at the end of the first half, but they have seven more games to go, and it's a brand new season and anything can happen.

"We can forget everything that's happened so far," said Ladyhorn Coach Rachelle Wilcox. "We play our district in halves. New Deal has wrapped up a playoff berth by winning the first half. We just need to win the second half."

Both New Deal teams captured the first half title with perfect 7-0 marks.

In the girls' race, Abernathy was second with a 6-1 record and Hart was third with a 5-2 mark. Hart's only losses were to New Deal and Abernathy. The boys' race has New Deal on top with Lockney in second at 6-1. Abernathy and Hale Center tied for third place honors with 4-3 marks and Hart is next at 3-4.

Friday night Hart will host Springlake-Earth in the first game of the "new season," and Hart coaches are hoping their teams will repeat their first-round wins over the Wolverines.

After that Hart will take on the first-half champs, New Deal, there, on Tuesday night.

The Ladyhorns have shown marked improvement since the beginning of the season, and Wilcox is pleased with their progress.

"I can't even compare this team with the one at the first of the year," Wilcox said. "They're playing well now and they keep improving."

Hart beat Olton 42-20 Friday night and Wilcox credited a great defensive performance for the win.

"We had a poor, poor shooting night, but our defense stepped up and we were able to win."

Hart limited Olton to four first-half points, two in each of the quarters. The Ladyhorns, despite poor shooting, had 19 points in the half. Olton attempted a second-half comeback, but fell short as Hart outscored the Fillies 11-4 in the final stanza.

Tiffany Bradford, Gayla Reyna and Charbra Lee each had seven points to lead the Lady Horns.

Then Tuesday night the Hart girls clinched third place in district by beating Morton, 61-40.

Bradford led the way with 17 points while Lee added 11.

Again it was Hart defense which stymied Morton in the first half. Hart outscored Morton 27-13 in the first half and 34-27 in the second for the victory.

Hart's boys posted a 62-44 win over Olton Friday, but were downed by Morton Tuesday in a disappointing 64-54 game.

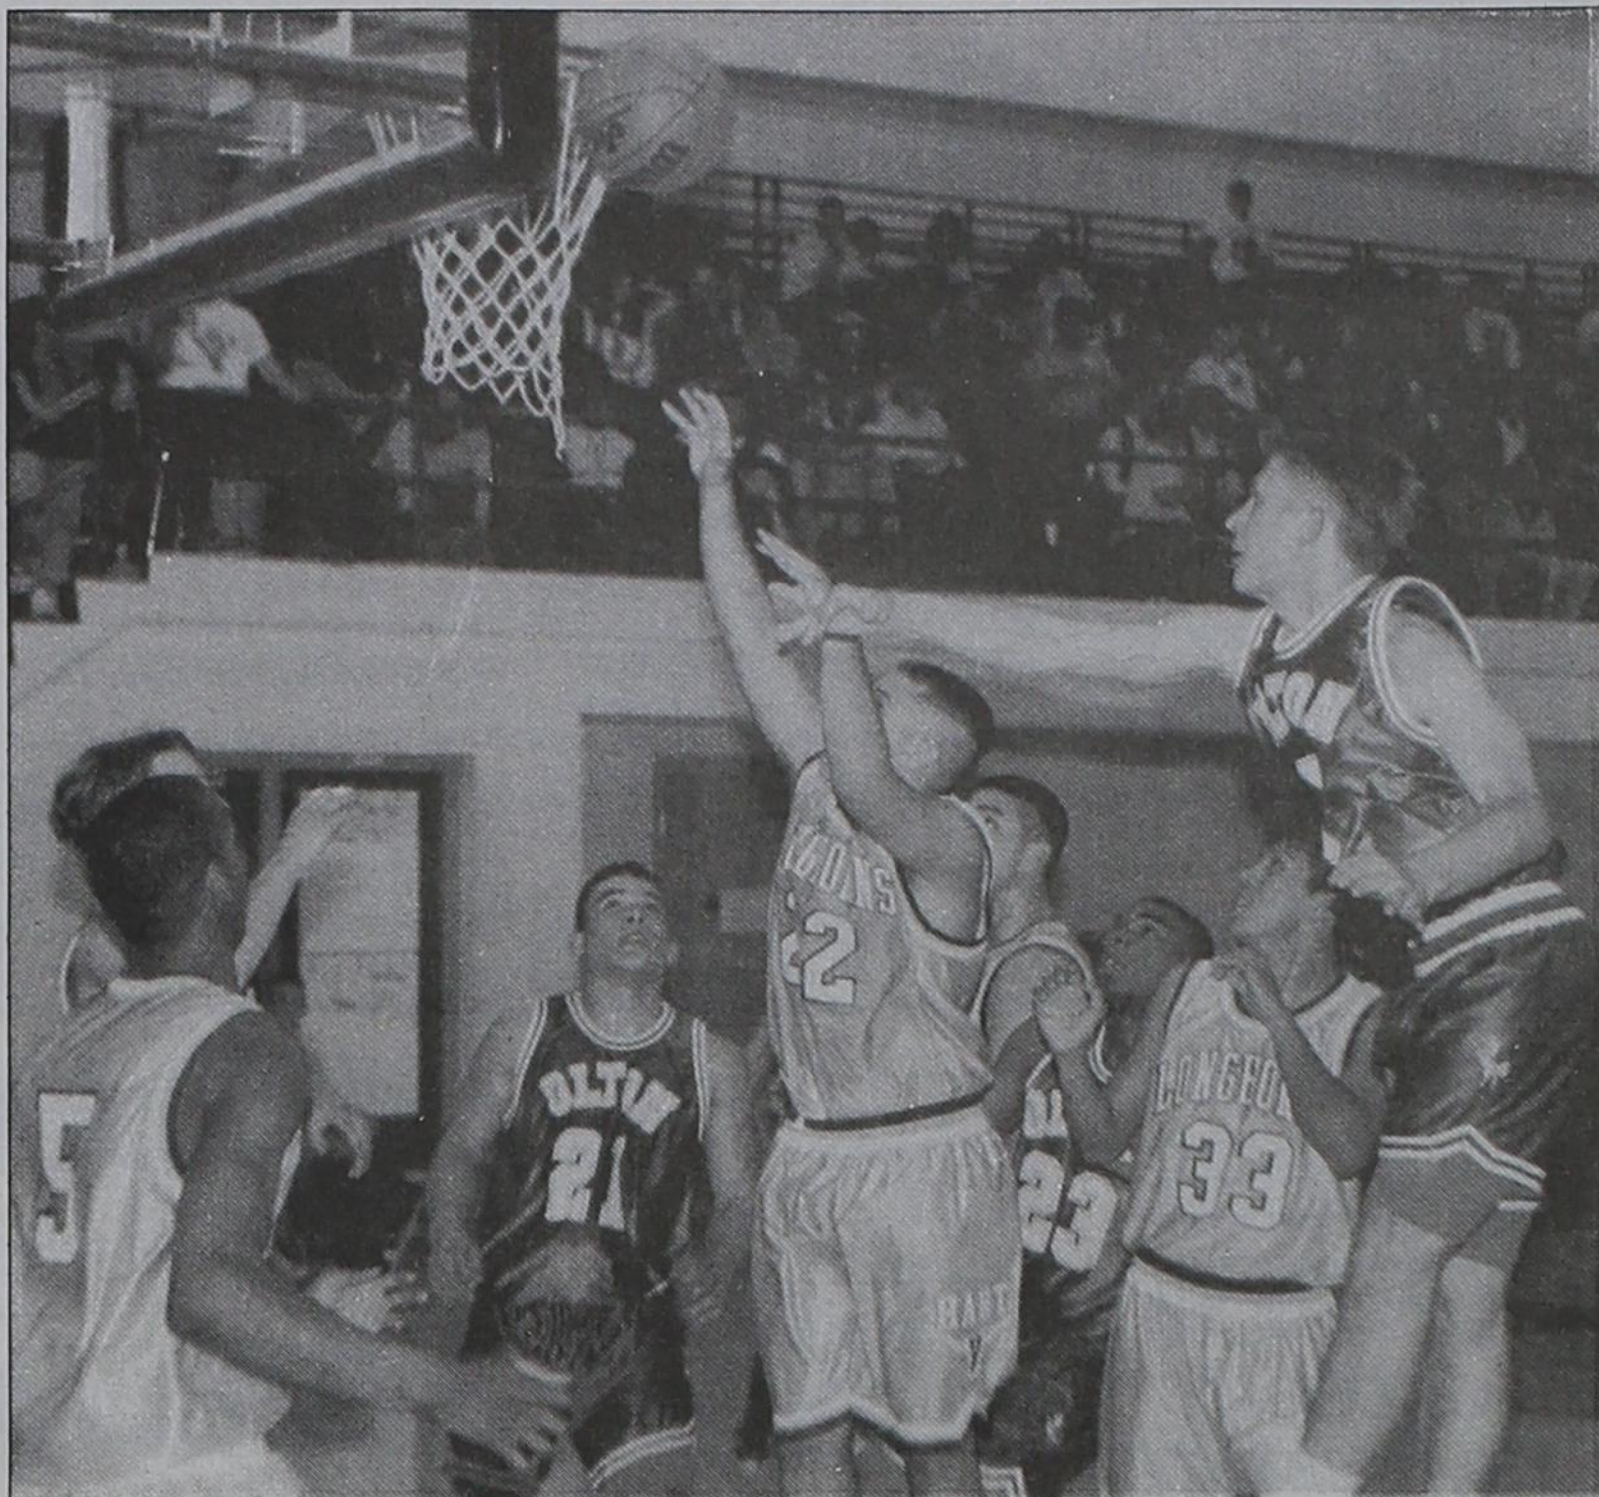

On Friday Hart's Dusty Ortiz poured in 20 points while J.R. Lee added 16 for Hart.

The Longhorns handled Olton in the first quarter, 24-3, and the stunned Mustangs never recovered. At halftime it was 34-18 and at the end of three Hart was on top 48-29.

The Longhorns struggled Tuesday against the Indians, though.

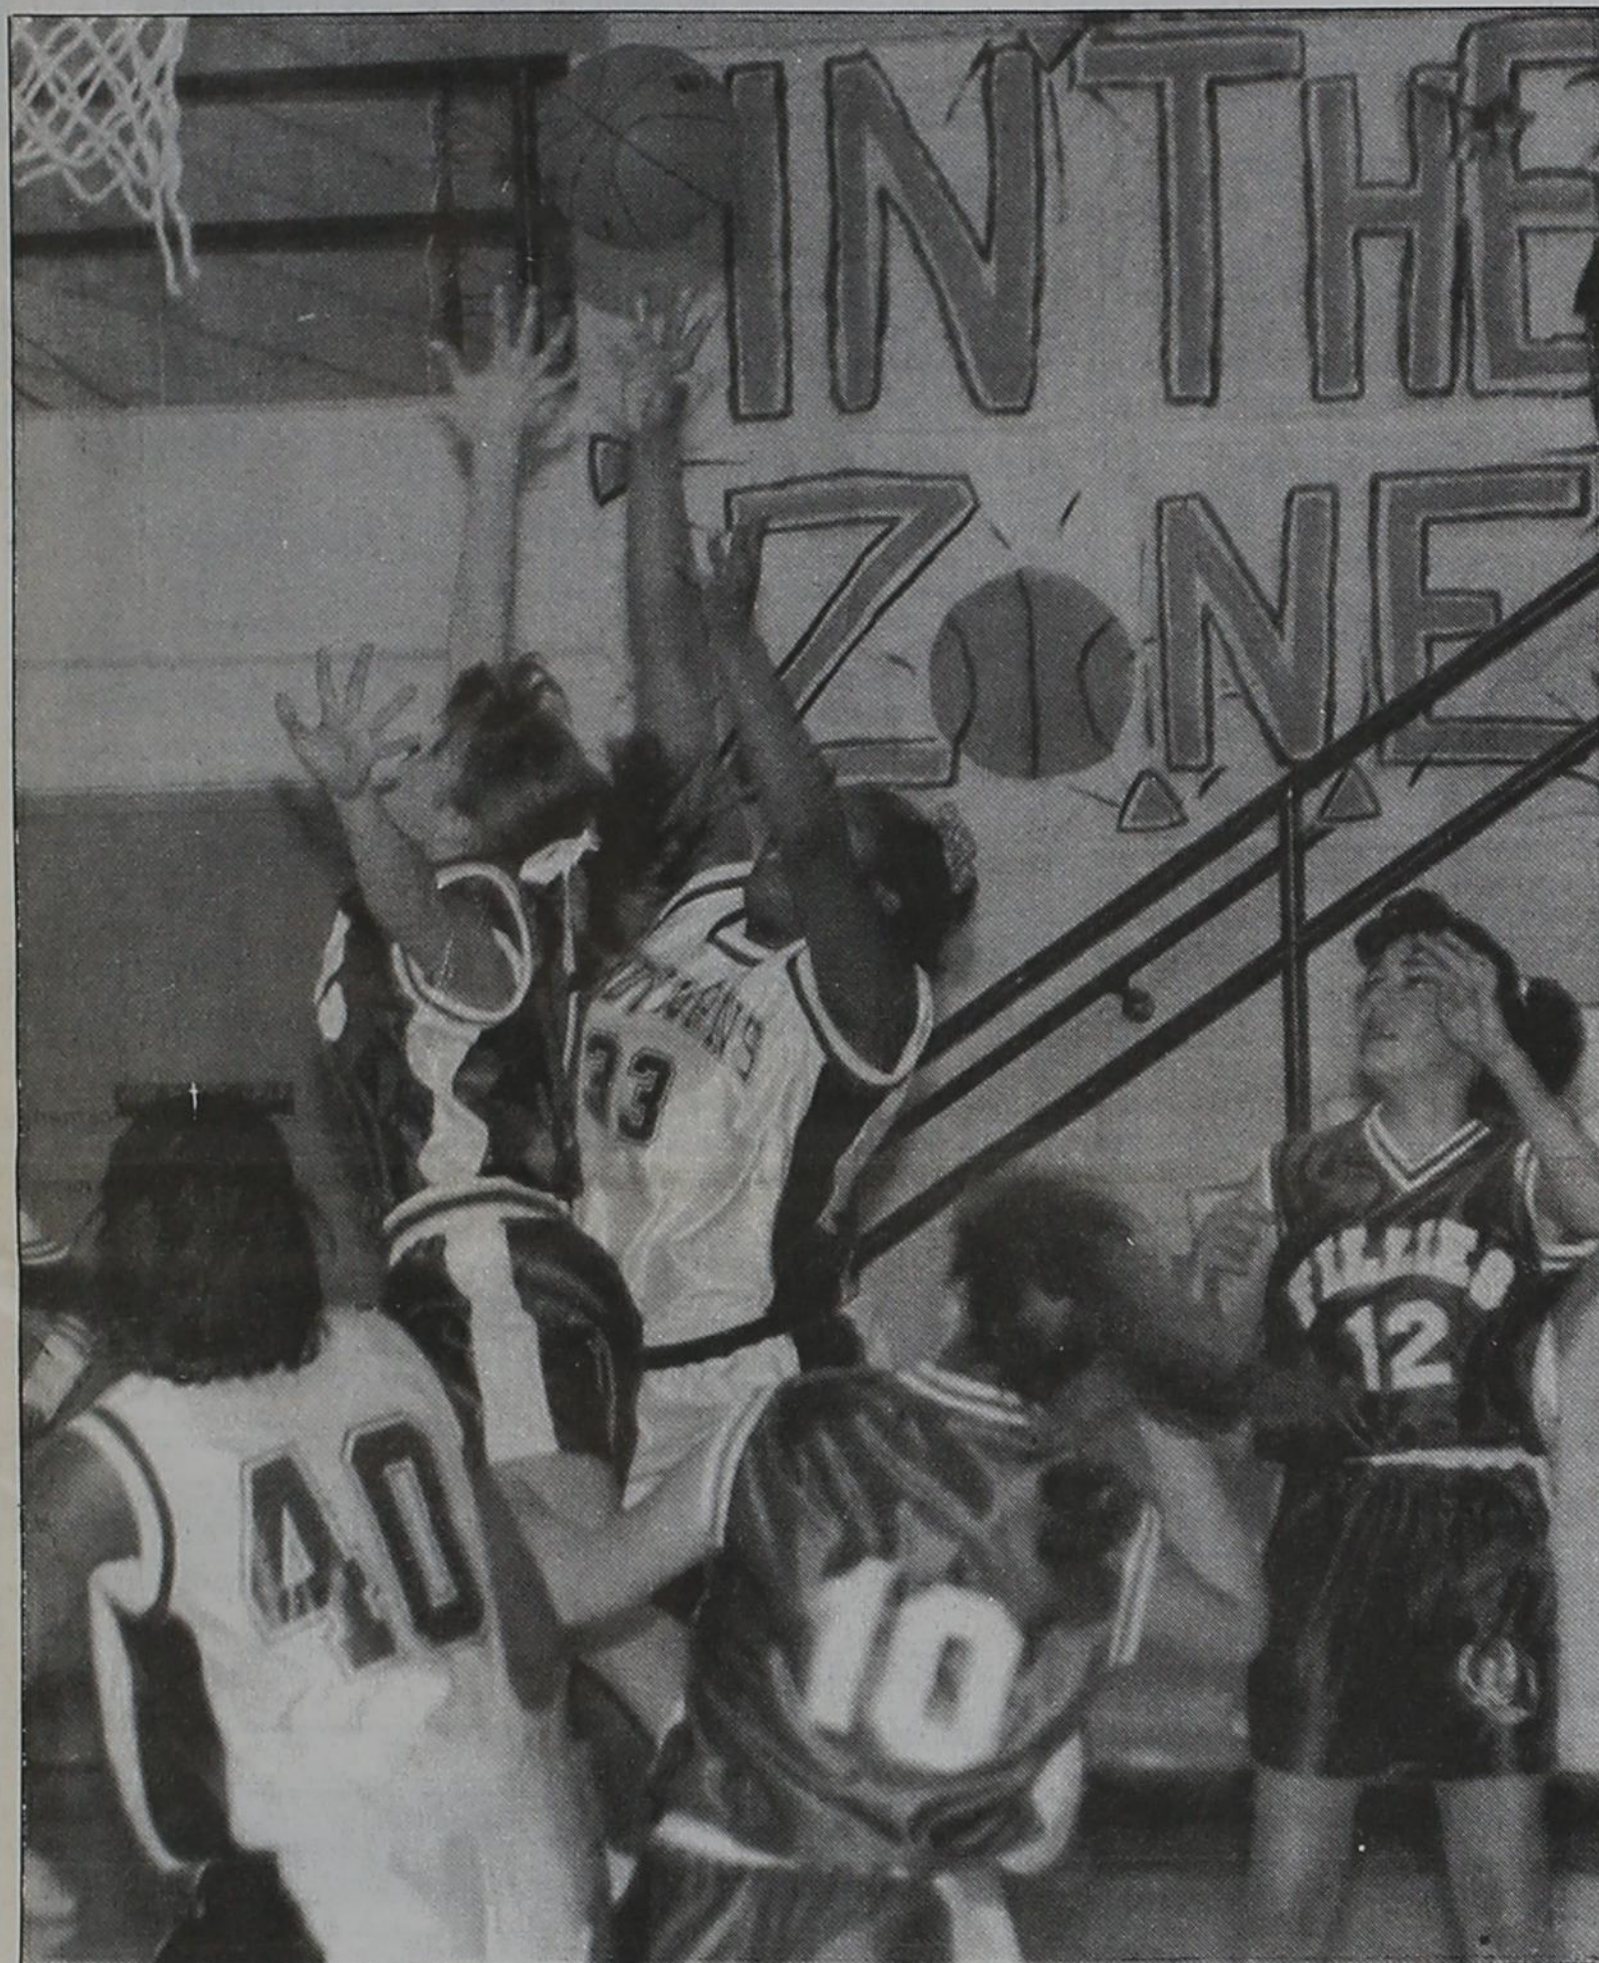

Morton took a slim 8-7 lead in the first quarter, but was able to extend it to 36-28 before halftime. Hart won the third-quarter battle by four to trim Morton's lead to 46-42, but the Indians exploded for 18 four-quarter points and the 10-point victory.

Lee had 28 points for Hart while Ortiz had 8.

HART'S ARMANDO MINJAREZ (22) penetrates and puts up a layup Friday during action against Olton. Hart hosted the District 3-AA matchup and walked away with the victory, 62-44. Crashing the boards hoping to nab a rebound include Hart's J.R. Lee (5) and Sergio Martinez (33). Photo by David Knox

OFF OF HER FINGERTIPS—Charbra Lee fights to get off a shot as an Olton defender attempts to block the effort Friday night in a District 3-AA showdown in Hart. The Ladyhorns improved their district mark to 4-2 with a 42-20 win over the Fillies, and that win moved them into a tie for third in district.

Bobcats overcome slow start to destroy Friona Tuesday night

Dimmitt had trouble with Friona for a little over a quarter, but got the kinks ironed out of a new lineup Tuesday night to claim a 73-54 win over Chieftains at Friona.

Dimmitt finally corralled Friona's big man, Charlie Milner, who had eight points in the first quarter. Milner had only one more basket the rest of the game, in the third period.

The key cog for Friona in the last three quarters was Quint Ellis, but Ellis had Friona's only five points in the second quarter as the Bobcats began to rally after being down much of the first quarter.

Charley Sanders drew his first start of the season. The sophomore played in the post with Chad Ellis, moving Justin Newman outside. The Bobcats seemed to be uncomfortable for a little bit with the new set, but adjusted late in the first quarter then blitzed the Chieftains over the last three quarters for the win.

Friona used Milner's explosion and two treys by Aaron King to post a 17-14 lead after one period. Ellis kept Dimmitt close with three baskets in the first quarter.

The Bobcats came back to take the lead for good on a basket by Newman early in the second period, the last of two quick buckets, putting Dimmitt up 18-17 early in the second.

Dimmitt worked the lead up to 10, 30-20, with 1:55 to go in the half with a basket by Omar Rascon. The teams then traded baskets in the last two minutes to give Dimmitt a 32-22 halftime edge.

In the third, Joe Larra had three quick baskets, including a trey, to boost the Bobcats to an early 14 point edge. Dimmitt then went up by as many as 16 before settling for a 53-41 margin after three periods.

In the fourth, Larra had two baskets and made all three free throws after a foul outside to push Dimmitt's lead over 20 for the first time, 67-46, with 4:20 to go.

Larra hit another basket seconds later, and Sanders scored with 3:15 to play to give Dimmitt its biggest lead of the night at 71-46.

Larra led Dimmitt with 23 points, while Ellis canned 17 and Newman 11.

The win moved the Bobcats to 4-0 in the conference and set up Friday's showdown with Shallowater at Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium. Shallowater is also undefeated in district play after whipping Floydada, 77-43, on Tuesday. Shallowater already owns one win over the Bobcats, 68-54 at the Caprock ABC Holiday Basketball Tournament in December.

In that game, big man Cole Roberts came on strong in the third quarter to break open a close contest. The Bobcats twice rallied back from double-digit deficits in the fourth quarter, but Shallowater pulled away a third time for the win.

Bobbies fall to Friona, 41-26

Friona's tough defense limited the Dimmitt girls to just one basket in the third period and nine points overall in the second half as the Squaws claimed a 41-26 win Tuesday at Friona.

The win moved Friona to 4-0 and a showdown with Muleshoe on Friday. The Lady Mules defeated Littlefield in overtime on Tuesday, 67-66. The Bobbies are in fourth place in District 2-AAA at 2-2 going into Friday's home contest with Shallowater.

Dimmitt controlled the boards in the first half, allowing Friona only two second-chance shots in the first two periods. Friona still made nine field goals in the first half compared to six for the Bobbies.

The Squaws jumped out to a 10-5 lead by the end of the first quarter as Dimmitt played most of the first quarter without Amy Ethridge and Kara Josselet. They each were charged with two fouls in the first half of the first quarter and sat out over four minutes of the first period.

Friona then stretched out its lead throughout the second quarter. Friona took its biggest lead of the half with 3:33 to go, 20-9, on a basket by Britny White. White had 12 points in the first half, but Dimmitt held the senior guard to only a free throw in the second half.

The Bobbies bounced back to within five late in the half, each time on baskets by Amber Matthews. Matthews closed it to 20-15 with 55 seconds to play with two free throws, then hit a running jumper in the lane with two seconds to go to make it 22-17 at halftime.

Dimmitt went into the doldrums for a long time after that, though. Emily Roberson hit Dimmitt's only bucket of the third period with 2:32 to go, making the score 28-19. Friona responded with two more baskets later in the period to go up 32-19 after three periods.

In the fourth, held Friona scoreless from the field, but the Squaws made eight of 14 free throws in the last eight minutes to secure the win.

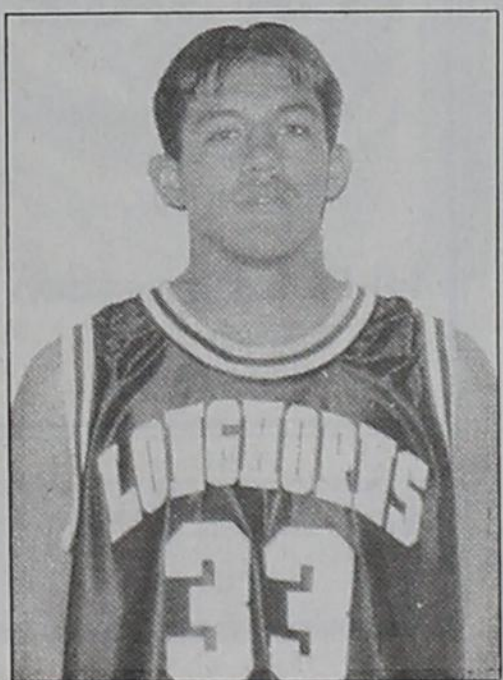

The Bobbies cut it to 32-21 with 5:43 to play on a bucket by Amy Matthews. Amy Ethridge hit a basket with 1:40 to go to make it 34-23, and Kara Josselet converted a three-point play with 1:24 to go to make it an eight-point game, 34-26.

Dimmitt then began fouling Friona in earnest to try to get the ball back. The play worked, to an extent, as the Squaws made just four of eight free throws in the next half-minute. The Bobbies couldn't convert on offense, though, and Friona then stepped up and made three free throws in the last 30 seconds to pull away for the win.

Dimmitt had no one in double figures. Amber Matthews and Ethridge each had six points.

McDonald's cross grands swine show in Arizona

Dimmitt pig exhibitors made a clean sweep at the Arizona National Livestock Swine Show in Phoenix, Ariz., with Julia McDonald of the Flagg 4-H driving her heavyweight crossbred to the grand championship.

Her grand champion barrow sold at the bonus auction for $8 per pound. She also showed a seventh-place lightweight crossbred in the show.

Jay McCormick of the Dimmitt FFA exhibited a first-place lightweight Yorkshire, a second-place lightweight cross and a second-place lightweight Hampshire.

McCormick went on to defeat five classes of senior showmen in the Senior Swine Showmanship Competition and was named the Senior Champion Swine Showman. That qualified him as a finalist in the Round Robin Showmanship Contest, which was held later.

Competing against champion showmen from the steer, horse and lamb divisions, McCormick had to exhibit a steer, lamb, pig and a horse in the Round Robin Competition. He earned enough points to be named the Champion Round Robin Showman.

McCormick said he had some friends give him a quick crash course on horse showmanship in the horse barn before the Round Robin because he'd never shown horses before.

More about

Hart health care . . .

the hospital district could afford only to supply a physician's assistant, a nurse practitioner or perhaps a family physician one or two days a week to provide primary health care.

"Will two days a week satisfy the taxpayers of Hart?" Lindsey asked.

"Would it meet the needs of the community?" Clark asked.

Farris answered, "If you got sick on the right day. . ."

After a frank discussion of what was and was not feasible and affordable, Welch asked the school board, "What do you need us to provide? Figure out what Hart wants and needs, and tell us, and we'll see if it's within reach."

"Surely somewhere we could meet halfway," hospital board member Teresa Lindsey said.

"You don't think the two sides could sit down and come up with some cost figures, a budget, estimates and so forth?" Clark asked.

"We need to back off now and decide some things," Mike Smith said. "This school board needs to decide how much deeper it wants to go into the medical field, and you need to decide how much money you're willing to lose."

The two boards agreed to study the ideas and options proposed and get back together later.

Meanwhile, the Hawkins Clinic is still open, providing health care five half-days a week.
