LOCALS

Roy Price and Frank Griffith were business visitors at Farwell and Clovis, Tuesday.

Roy Hart was in Farwell on Tuesday afternoon, retaking a part of his physical examination before the Selective Service Board.

W. W. Ryan, of Kansas City, Mo., spent the weekend here. He came to attend the Clyde Seamands funeral.

Last word received at the Star office regarding the condition of Rev. J. W. Price, pastor of the local Methodist church, who is in the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo, was to the effect that he had passed the crisis in his pneumonia attack, but owing to other ailments, he will not be able to leave the hospital for some time.

Walter Loveless, who spent a part of last week confined to his bed with an attack of arthritis, is able to be about again this week.

George McLean and Floyd Reeve were Farwell and Clovis visitors Monday.

Minister and Mrs. C. B. Glasgow and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glasgow spent Wednesday night at Amarillo.

Mrs. John Gischler, living in the north part of town, is ill as the result of a fall she received a few days ago.

B. B. Blackburn, of Broadview, N. M., spent Tuesday here as the guest of Minister and Mrs. C. B. Glasgow.

Mrs. Orland Rury, of Abilene, is here visiting with the parents of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rury, this week and next.

Vernon F. Hinds and family, who were here attending the funeral of his father, returned Tuesday to their home at Shiprock, N. M.

Arr Hinds and family of Amarillo, L. C. Chapin and wife, of Liberal, Kan. and George A. Hinds and wife, of Raton, N. M., all returned to their homes Thursday, after having been here attending the G. B. Hinds funeral.

Mrs. C. E. McLean left last Saturday for the East where she will visit her husband, who is a member of the U. S. Coast Guards. She set no definite date for her return.

Mrs. Joe Frank Krizek returned the arly part of last week from Calif., where she had been visiting her husband, a member of the Sea-Bees, prior to his shipping out.

Miss Cordelia Coffman, formerly of this city, but now of Muleshoe, called on a few of her Friona friends while here Monday attending the G. B. Hinds funeral. While here Miss Coffman called at the Star office to inquire why she had been getting her copy of the Star so irregularly, which information we were unable to supply, she being one of our paid-up subscribers. She stated that the Star is her only means of keeping in touch with her Friona friends.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS

A few school mates and former neighbors had the pleasure of meeting again for a few minutes one day last week, Ralph Sutton, a former Friona boy, but for the past several years a resident of California.

Ralph is now in the armed service of his country and while passing through Friona had just a few minutes in which to look up and meet a few of his old school mates and neighbors during the bus stop here.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends, who so kindly and lovingly assisted us during the sickness and death of our loving father and grandfather.

Also for the gracious hospitality shown the family in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bogges, assisted by the church ladies. And for the services of Ministers, Bro. C. B. Glasgow and Bro. H. P. Cooper; and the singers. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings, which brought great comfort to us.

The Hinds Family.

Halle Attends Brother's Funeral

S. H. Halle, accompanied by his son-in-law, Tilden Slagle, left Monday for Megargle, Tex., where they attended the funeral of Mr. Halle's brother, George C. Halle, Tuesday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Baptist pastor of Megargle, assisted by Dr. Joe R. Mays of Abilene, an old friend of Mr. Halle. The Friona men returned home Wednesday morning.

Congregational Christian Church

Sunday April 11, the pastor will speak on the "Modern Meaning of The Cross." Palm Sunday, April 18, the subject will be "The Triumph and Tragedy of Jesus."

Easter Sunday, April 25, which by the way is the latest possible date on which it can ever fall, a special playlet will be presented by the children of the church. The young people will hold their annual sunrise service and a class of members will be received into the church. Some interesting religious pictures will also be on exhibit during the Easter season. The Pastor will deliver his annual Easter message.

Up 'n' at 'Em at Atterbury

Digging In

Advertisers, Newspapers, Back Bond Sale

In addition to the large amount of war bonds that have already been sold, our government is asking the sale of 13 billions of dollars worth of these bonds, which is to be secured through a drive that will begin on Monday, April 12.

Recognizing the value of the efforts of the newspapers of the country in accomplishing such sales, the secretary of the treasury has sent to each newspaper in the land, a short letter calling on them for their active support in pushing the sale, and also requesting the support of advertisers. His letter follows:

April 3, 1943.

To All Newspaper Publishers: "To make current and continuing war financing a complete success we shall need the wholehearted cooperation, not only of the newspapers, but also of the newspaper advertisers.

"In addition to the powerful aid that your newspaper itself can supply, I shall appreciate your help in informing business and industry in your community of the important role that sponsored local newspaper advertising can play in advising the public of the urgent need for investment in government

Last Rites For Geo. B. Hinds Held Monday

George Berry Hinds was born in McDonald County, Mo., on April 20, 1871, and died April 2, at Liberal, Kan., in the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. C. Chapin. His age was 71 years, 11 months and 12 days.

He was married to Mary Lula Mouck on November 23, 1890. To this union were born seven children—six sons and one daughter—all of whom survive him and all were present at his funeral except one.

Survivors include the six sons, George A. Hinds of Raton, N. M., Vernon F. Hinds of Shiprock, N. M., Arr B. Hinds of Amarillo, Lee Roy Hinds of Davenport, Neb., Jess H. Hinds and Otey Hinds of Friona; and the daughter, Mrs. L. C. Chapin of Liberal, Kan. Mrs. Hinds died about two and a half years ago.

Mr. Hinds was also survived by 19 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Brother Hinds obeyed the gospel of Christ at an early age—1894—and lived an ardent Christian life from that time until his death. A great portion of his Christian life he served as elder of the church, which responsibility he was bearing at the time of his passing.

In 1904 he settled with his family on a homestead in Beaver County, Okla., where he made his home until 1929, at which time he moved to a farm near Friona, Texas. There he resided until he "finished the course," having "kept the faith."

It should be said in honor of Brother and Sister Hinds, that they successfully led their children heavenward, having led them all into the church of the Lord, for which institution Christ died.

Besides his children and their families, he leaves behind to mourn his departure, five brothers and two sisters and a great many other relatives along with a host of friends and neighbors whom he had won wherever he had lived. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Sixth Street Church of Christ, at Friona, conducted by the local minister, C. B. Glasgow, assisted by Bro. H. P. Cooper, minister of the Hereford Church of Christ. Three songs, which had been requested by the deceased to be sung at his funeral, "Don't

Mrs. Nittler Candidate For H-D Dist. Office

Mrs. W. P. Nittler will be presented by the Parmer County Home Demonstration Club as candidate for vice-president of the Texas Home Demonstration Association at the District 2 convention in Littlefield on April 10.

Mrs. Nittler is now serving the second year of her term as chairman of the Parmer County Council. During ten years of club membership she has served as secretary, reporter, delegate, parliamentarian, chairman of standing committees and demonstrator in her local club and the county council.

Mrs. Nittler's early training in rural extension club work dates back to membership in a tomato canning club in Crosby County, which later merged into the Farmer 4-H Club.

Mrs. Nittler's nomination was announced by Mrs. N. E. Bonds, president of the Bovina Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. Bonds stated that the whole community is back of Mrs. Nittler as they feel she is well qualified for the office. Mrs. Nittler is always active in furthering worthwhile work and taking part in such organizations as Methodist Church, Eastern Star, P. T. A., County Nutrition Committee, and the County Agricultural Victory Council.

Parmer County Home Demonstration Club members who are attending the District 2 convention at Littlefield are asked to meet at the O. W. Rhinehart Service Station in Bovina Saturday morning, Apr. 10. The County delegation will leave for Littlefield at 8:00 o'clock. Delegates to the convention are: Mrs. E. L. Fairchilds, Mrs. Will Jones and Mrs. W. P. Nittler, Mrs. David Moseley and Mrs. Russell Harrington. All club members are welcome to go along.

Funeral Rites For Clyde Seamands, Widely Known Rancher, Held Sunday

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

A "bake sale" will be held by the Junior Woman's Club, Saturday afternoon, April 10. The plan of the sale has not been decided, but notices will be posted. Proceeds from the sale will be used to buy a war bond.

Lazbuddy First Aid Class In Progress

The Lazbuddy School building is open on Monday and Thursday evenings each week for a First Aid Class under the direction of Miss Elsie Cunningham. The class is held from 9 to 11 p. m. and is free, the only expense being sixty cents for the Red Cross First Aid Manual.

The first lesson was given on Monday, April 5; however, anyone interested in earning a standard certificate can still enroll and meet all requirements of the Red Cross, according to the instructor.

Jacquelyn Wilkison Elected President Of Tech Sorority

Miss Jacquelin Wilkison, daughter of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. J. C. Wilkison, has recently been elected president of the DFD Sorority at Texas Technological College.

As is a tradition of the club, the identity of the newly-elected President was withheld until the annual Presentation Dance, which was held at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, last Saturday night, when the announcement of her election was made known. Miss Wilkison is one of the few sophomores ever chosen to the president's office in the club and continues a list of college honors which includes serving as treasurer of the Sophomore Class and selection as R O T C Cadet Girl.

Among the 22 girls who were presented as new members was Miss Melba Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Welch of Friona. Miss Welch was presented by Billy Joe Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Brown of Rhea.

Habbingas Return From Indiana Stay

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Habbingas, who after their farm sale here last summer have returned to Texas.

Dick was in town one day last week and stated that the winter in Indiana had been beneficial to his health but that he will not make any permanent location until he feels satisfied that he has found a climate that will agree with his health.

The following card received from Mrs. Habbinga tells why they returned to Texas at this time and outlines some of their future plans:

April 2, 1943.
Dear Mr. White:
We are now back in Texas again. We like Texas best yet. We still had rain or snow every week there—and so dry on the plains. I am in South Texas at now, and it has rained here, too. My father had a stroke, so I am with him now. His left side is all paralyzed and he is very sick. Suffers a lot. Dick is up there. Will be in Friona a week, then go to Dallas for a while. I guess I will be here for some time, so please send the Star to this address. I sure have missed it since we left Manchester. We sure enjoyed it there—just like a letter from home. Hope you are well.
Mrs. D. E. Habbinga.

Friona Weather
The weather in the Friona territory for the past few weeks, has been continued dry and very little change in it otherwise, no appreciable amount of moisture has fallen here since Christmas.

Funeral rites for Clyde Seamands, Friona's outstanding pioneer cattleman and rancher, were held here Sunday afternoon at the Union Congregational Church. Rev. Paxton Smith, pastor of the church, was in charge of the services and preached the funeral sermon.

The services were attended by one of the largest assemblies ever to congregate to do honor to a Friona citizen, the auditorium of the church being packed to capacity, with many standing on the outside unable to find standing room within.

Mr. Seamands was born on March 10, 1885, at Maquoketa, Ia., where he lived until about 1908 or 1909, when he came to Friona with his father, with whom he was engaged for several years at cattle raising and farming. When his father and mother returned to Iowa, he remained here and managed the business alone until 1918 when he sold all his cattle holdings and himself returned to his boyhood home where he remained for several months until he again returned to Friona and entered the cattle business, and thus remained employed until his death. Starting from a small beginning, and staying on the job through fat years and lean, he had built up one of the most extensive cattle and farming businesses to be found in this area.

In stature he was rather below the average, but was a stalwart as to energy, determination and business ability. Socially he was of a likeable and attractive disposition, but had no time to loiter on the streets awaiting someone to talk with. He was most commonly seen either in his saddle looking after his cattle or behind the steering wheel of his car, going after or bringing in more business. There were few men in Parmer County who did not know Clyde Seamands, and he had a broad acquaintance, especially among cattlemen, throughout the Panhandle of Texas, Eastern New Mexico and parts of Colorado.

The casket was surrounded and almost obscured by a lavish array of rich and beautiful floral offerings.

The pallbearers were J. R. Roden, Hamlin Overstreet, J. C. Wilkison, F. A. Spring, G. B. Buske and Bert Chitwood. The funeral director was Paul Bryant of Clovis.

Following the rites at the church the body was taken to Clovis from where it was shipped to Maquoketa, Ia., for burial.

Of his immediate family the deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mabel Seamands, and a son, Owen Seamands, a member of the United States Army, stationed in Kansas. He was the only relative present at the funeral. Mrs. Seamands, an invalid, was unable to be present.

Wheat, however, where the green bugs have not bothered it, is still looking promising. Many reports of the green bugs doing great damage to the crop is being heard, especially in those fields where the crop has not been pastured heavily.

At this writing, Wednesday afternoon, heavy rainy looking clouds are to be seen covering the sky to the west and north from Friona, and much lightning and thunder is to be seen and heard, and it is quite evident that good rain has fallen in those localities, and we hope to be able to report it throughout the next week's issue.

Since the above a light shower has at Friona, bringing "steenth of an inch" and it is still cloudy and raining.

"Pride goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall." So wrote the wise men of olden time, as is recorded in Proverbs 16th chapter and 18th verse, and I am free to confess that I did have a little of what I was pleased to call "pardonable pride" relative to what I had written about "Friendship" when I received that very nice letter from Dr. Lindeman which I quoted some two or three weeks ago in this column.

And does the above quoted proverb apply to me since I receive such a mild, but firm calling to task in a letter recently received from my good friend, George M. Baker of Marfa; and my "pardonable" (?) pride was quickly followed by the utter destruction of the false idea that poor humble I should ever say or write anything that is worthy of the sincere consideration of my fellow-men. And does that proverb apply to me? Yea, verily!

George is another of my good friends and we have had many conversations and a few discussions of some of the more prominent ideas of life; and we have agreed fairly well on many of them and I am convinced that we are not so far apart on many of the others, only George does not seem to know it and still clings to the idea that I am radically wrong in my views and Holy Writ has often been called in to settle our discussions, and it has always done so, though the opinion of neither of us was changed the least whit. And I frequently wonder if my good friend, George, is not one of those who, owing to my "queerness" and peculiar views, believe me to be an atheist or an infidel. I believe there are those who hold that view of me and my ideas, but I flatly deny the charge and plead... "Not Guilty." I am just "queer."

I shall not attempt to claim any honor whatsoever for any of my own expressions, for they are, more likely, not worthy of any serious consideration. But I feel that I deserve some commendation in the matter for having called forth the expression of those beautiful sentiments expressed by Dr. Lindeman in his letter, while I reproduced some two or three weeks ago. And since I have reproduced Dr. Lindeman's letter which I considered as highly complimentary to my own efforts, I shall likewise now give to the reader, the context of George's letter even though he seems to have adopted an almost radically opposite view from my own in the matter. And if George's view shall be chosen as the wiser and more nearly correct view, I shall still maintain I am deserving of some commendation in having provoked his expression of opinion. I feel that his views will be deeply interesting to the readers, especially those among his long list of Friona friends. And the other part of his letter, relative to the good health of himself and his good wife, their list of seven sons now in the service of their country and his lucrative employment. His letter follows:

3-22-43
 Dear Sir and friend:
 I suppose it is about time I show my appreciation of the Star, by sending some de-hario.

I see you and my good friend "Farmer John," need someone to put you right on some of your cogitations. Well, I am just the fellow who can get the job done. Ha, Ha! I have been keeping up with your columns and wonder why everyone lets so many of your erroneous, hence misleading statements pass unanswred. To begin with, I call your attention to an article written about a year ago in your paper, by Mr. O. E. Enfield, on "Toleration," and sanctioned by you. Well, truly, toleration to the proper extent is a great virtue, but in the above mentioned article, it was so broad it absolutely does away with all standards and leaves each individual a law unto himself to do just as he pleased, and we should tolerate what they do. Such toleration would destroy all standards of right and wrong, morality, citizenship and Christianity. The Bible sets the standard for right and wrong, morality and Christianity. Our government sets the standard of citizenship. Should we tolerate Nazism and Communism? Well, there were some things Christ refused to tolerate. Example — when he cleaned out the temple. He made a whip and drove them out and said, "It is written, My Father's house shall be a house of prayer, and you made it a den of thieves." Then in your cogitations you got greatly enthused about friendship. Truly, friendship is one of the greatest things in the world, but in your enthusiasm you got "the cart before the horse" and said, "friendship was what made Christ the Son of God." Not his marvelous birth nor his ignominious death, because others claimed the same kind of birth and died the same kind of death. The truth of the matter is, because Christ was and is the Son of God, he was and is the greatest friend man ever did or ever will have. He came to this earth, bore temptations, suffered persecution, even death on the cross, because he was and is the Son of God and a true friend of man and that he could perfect a plan of redemption for man. He opened the blind eyes, cleansed the leper, healed the sick, raised the dead, thereby proving himself to be the Son of God, therefore, the friend to man. Then along came "Farmer John" in his column and said in effect — "The sooner people learn to work in cooperation with Nanations, but he did not say teach Christianity." But he did say what to teach them. He said, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded." (Matt 28:20) And that is impossible without teaching Christ, who is the very embodiment of Christianity. It seems you do not distinguish between religion, which never saved anybody, and Christianity, without which no one is saved. There are hundreds of religions but only one Christianity. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but me." (John 14:6). "He that believeth on him is not condemned, but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten son of God." (John 3:18). There is only one cause for condemnation and that is unbelief in Christ as the Son of God. "And Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:14-15).

George then continued his letter by quoting, in addition to the scripture quoted above, the following references: John, 3:16-17; 23:37-40; all of which I have read and heard read from my youth up and all of which I respect; and I respect George and his views of such matters, but I am still firmly founded on my own (what I call common sense) interpretations of the passages he has quoted. I know George is my friend and would gladly save my immortal soul from eternal perdition if I would let him; but I am so durned "queer" that I am still unmoved and clinging to my own way of thinking.

The remainder of George's letter in which I feel Friona people will all be interested reads as follows:
 Well, I now have seven sons and a son-in-law in the armed forces. Duke is in the Marines. His present address is Pvt. Duke M. Baker, P. L. T. 173, R. D. M. G. B., San Diego, Cal. Wife and I were across the corner of Parmer county last week, from Muleshoe to Farwell, but lack of time prevented us from coming to Friona. We brought Florence home with us, as her husband is in the army. I am still working for the government, operating four electric and two gas motor pumps at an air field. I am getting $2100 per year, plus overtime. With the best of wishes to you and all of Friona and community, I remain,
 Your friend,
 George M. Baker,
 Box 1032, Marfa, Tex.

While I am cogitating along the line of thought expressed in the above effusion, I wish to quote the written contents of a card received last Saturday from another of my good friends, Father Samuel Pearson, of Plainfield, N. J., then I will call it "30," for this week.
 "Dear Friend:
 "Just a line to thank you for publishing Dr. Lindeman's letter in the Star. It will go far to encourage the ideal friendship between husband and wife and provoke real peace after the war. For the core of so de-

WAAC Slogan Is Gain Weight... And Love It

By Auxiliary Merita Mills
 When a woman gains weight and loves it, that news! But, take it from the WAACs, it can happen here.
 Don't ask me how it happens. All I know is that I went into the corps at around (and I mean round) 120 pounds. I weigh 125 now, after six weeks of training and can look at the girl pictures in Esquire without a single quiver of envy.
 The fact is, Uncle Sam is operating, strictly as a by-product of military training, one of the greatest beauty culture schools in the country. He's making us firm and lean muscled and giving us swings to our walks and tilts to our chins that civilians can't duplicate.
 He's flattening out the lumpy hips, slimming down chubby ankles, smoothing out double chins. And sometimes he builds curves where only hollows were before.

 It's not done by diet. Diets are declass in the WAAC. You don't need them, and besides there's no time for calorie counting.
 Mary Webb, an auxiliary from North Carolina, had been trying to gain ten pounds for ten years. She got it in ten weeks of WAAC training.

Texas A&M College Ext. Ser.
I think a lot of you would probably be interested in some little simple home remedies for your livestock troubles. So this week, I am going to give you a few which I have found to be very effective. First, let me say that if you have a serious case always see your veterinarian. For your common troubles these will do the job well.

Calf Scours

Calf scours lose a lot of calves for our farmers each year. If you have scours in your young calves, regularly, clean up the calf pen well and vaccinate the young calves before they take scours. For calves which already have scours try this: Give 2 to 4 oz. castor oil and follow in 1 hour with a teaspoonful of the following mixture in enough water for a drench—1 part salol and 2 parts subnitrate of bismuth. Continue this drench 3 times a day at the same rate until the calf is improved.

Milk Fever

Avoid milk fever in your cows by feeding a balanced mineral mixture. I have a bulletin on feeding mineral to cows which is free to you. For cows which go down with milk fever give Calcium gluconate intravenously. A 250 cc bottle usually is enough to bring the cow up in 15 to 30 minutes. You can give up to 1000 to 2000 cc spaced at intervals of several hours if the cows don't come up with first treatment. Be sure to give this calcium gluconate in the jugular vein by the gravity flow method and give slowly. It should be pinched off about every half minute and then allowed to flow another half minute. By tying a rope around the neck close against the shoulder the jugular vein will stand out and you can find it with needle easier. Take rope off when flow of liquid starts. DON'T GET AIR IN BLOOD STREAM.

Pink Eye

It is getting to be the season when pink eye causes us a lot of trouble. You can vaccinate and sometimes avoid pink eye; however, vaccination is not always effective. Here is a good remedy to use after pink eye is contracted by a calf: An eye wash used 3 times a day composed of 2 parts boric acid and one part calomel. The effectiveness of this eye wash will be increased by having your druggist add some sulphathazole. If possible keep the infected calf in a dark shed until better.

Cow Pox

Cow pox and other scores can be effectively controlled by using some sulphathazole ointment on the udder. This ointment is mighty handy to have around the dairy barn. See your druggist today and get a can.

Mastitis or Garget

Many of our cows in Farmer County have mastitis. This is an udder trouble and starts with clotting or bloody milk. In severe cases the cow may even lose a quarter or even the whole udder. To control, milk each cow separately and wash hands between milking each cow. Never let a calf suck a cow with a bad udder and then let calf suck another cow. For a cow which already has an udder infection bathe the udder with warm salt water regularly until swelling is reduced and then inject into the udder 30 cc of a 90 percent solution of SULFATHAZOLE. Make this injection in the infected quarter for 3 days. This is a new drug which is made by the Abbott Laboratory and can be furnished you by your druggist. Don't use milk from the cow for 5 to 10 days after injection. Some fine results have been accomplished with this drug.

Bloat

A cow which is bloated can be let down with a rubber hose which is passed down into the stomach. The use of 5 oz. of kerosene mixed with sweet milk is another good treatment. Give the cow about a pound of Epsom salts as a drench. If the cow stays off feed or is a chronic bloater see your veterinarian. Next week we will give some home remedies for other livestock troubles.

The 2nd War Loan Starts April 12

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building . . . We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battle-fronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.

For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

There Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Securities—Choose The Ones Best Suited For You:

United States War Savings Bonds—Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Designed especially for the smaller investor. Dated 1st day of month in which payment is received. Interest: 2.9% a year if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969: Readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated April 15, 1943; due June 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000—also $1,000,000 if registered. Redemption: Not callable till June 15, 1964; thereafter at par and accrued interest on any interest date at 4 months' notice. Subject to Federal taxes only. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other Securities: Series "C" Tax Notes; 7/8% Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1950-1952; United States Savings Bonds Series "F"; United States Savings Bonds Series "G."

Spring Football Training Starts

With approximately 22 boys reporting, spring training began last Monday.

Coch Williams remarked that there is some good material for next season. He also remarked that enthusiasm is great.

Three weeks ago, approximately 16 of those reported interested in spring training failed to qualify. At present there are only four. Those who do participate must be at least three subjects, and are being made for an eight-game schedule and every one is looking forward to the defeat of the Hereford Whites.

A stifled yawn in English class, a lazy, sleepy feeling all day, new couples appearing hand in hand on the campus, more freckles on your arms and nose, a dreamy look on the face of the toughest kid in school, a haze of green covering the trees and grass, blue skies, fluffy white clouds, everyone turning gentle in a silly sort of way—ah, you guessed it—it's "Spring". ## Evangelist Speaks At Friday Chapel Program

George McCall, Baptist Evangelist, was the guest speaker in chapel last Friday, April 2. In his talk he pointed out the four rules in the game of Christianity: First, pull off your street clothes; second, put on Christ's armor; Third, join the church team, and last, watch the coach, Christ.

Several songs were sung during the program. The Music Club was in charge.

Band Leads Legion Parade

Marching "out front" were the members of Friona High School Band, March 29, as they led the parade of Amarillo and Friona Legionnaires down Main street. Also in the parade were two WAAC recruiting officers from Amarillo and one recruiting officer for the Army. Colonel Simpson made a speech preceding the band sales. The band played several numbers at the rally, held at the intersection of main street, and then march-

Anyone who has eyes to see with, ears to hear with, or a nose to smell with can tell that it is spring, so why say more, except:

Spring is here, the Grass is

Students Buy Sport Shirts With Emblem

With spring already here the sport shirts which have been received are the ideal thing to wear in this kind of weather and be comfortable. These shirts are white, short sleeved cotton sport shirts having the school emblem, an Indian's head, on the front. Many boys ordered three or four of these and there are a few who ordered five or six.

Since these shirts arrived, a new order has been made and sent off for more shirts because some did not get the size they ordered. Thus a supply of large shirts are left on hand and some smaller boys did not receive as many as they ordered.

All of these are ordered through the school.

Students Receive Pictures

There were groans and shrieks of agony in the school last Wednesday, when the pictures were distributed. The pictures were taken about two months ago by a travelling photographer. Each student received 6 small pictures and one enlargement; the pictures may be bought or turned in at the office.

EXCHANGES

My meals now are meatless, my tea it is sweetless, Even biscuits are wheatless, and how!

My bed it is sheetless and sox almost feetless, I'm getting more eatless each hour.

My car wheels are tireless, my furnace is fireless; My radio wireless is a wreck; My evenings are lassless, cause my car is gasless; My pants almost seatless, Oh Heck!

My mattress is tuftless, my pants legs are cuffless; And my income now takes a trimmin.

There's a ceiling on rent, much coffee has went, And now I'll have to wear my old shoes.

Now shirt tails are shortened two inches or more, To contemplate that leaves me cold; I've got to stop now and push my shirt tail down, For you see my tale is told.

All this is just a little fun, for everyone is eager to do anything necessary to win the struggle ahead of us.

The F. H. T. Club met Wednesday, March 31, with their president, Cleola Hurst, presiding. Their mother-daughter entertainment this year was the subject of the business meeting. Because of rationing, the club decided to serve a salad plate with drink and dessert. They will serve this banquet style. Miss Stanford will furnish tulips for the tables.

The program committee, headed by Jean Crawford, is planning an enjoyable program. The banquet will be held April 14, in the Homemaking department.

standing boy and girl for each district will be chosen from the entries by a committee at the A. & M. College. The successful candidates will be honored at the Grain Producers banquet at Amarillo on May 19. Each winner will sign a pledge of faith and will be given $25 to use in financing a 4-H Club demonstration.

"Barbara has a good chance of winning," Miss Elsie Cunningham, the Home Demonstration Agent, stated. "She was awarded the Gold Star Medal in 1942 for outstanding 4-H Club work."

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Foster of Oklahoma Lane. She has been active in 4-H Club work four years and has served the Oklahoma Lane Club as president for the past two years.

SONS in the SERVICE

We have another interesting letter this week from Ensign E. W. Boedecker, now located at Fort Pierce, Fla.
March 16, 1943.
c/o C. O. T. P., U. S. C. G., Fort Pierce, Fla.

Dear Mr. White:
You have been sending the STAR to me all this time. In order to show my appreciation I am sending you a copy of the first issue of "The Sea Lion." I have been working on it for some time and we managed to get out the first issue Saturday. I am sure it will be helpful as far as morale is concerned. It will be published bi-monthly. This week I am trying to get a Coast Guard band organized. I sure do need Harley Balks to get that done, but he is getting that done in a big way in the army. Tomorrow I will sit on my first Court Martial. I do not feel too much out of place, even though I am the Junior officer, because the other officers have never been on one either. I find the pleadings and rules of evidence are very similar to those of our civilian courts. There sure is lots of fishing sports around here. Some officers have gone out and brought in as much as 50 pounds of fish in one afternoon. Good luck to all of you.
Sincerely,
E. W. Boedecker.

And now we have received long-looked-for letter from Sgt. Raymond Jasper, who was moved about so much while in the States, that it was almost impossible for the Star to keep up with him. He does not state where he is, but we have a strong suspicion as to his location, but your guess is as good as ours. Here is his letter.

March 13, 1943.

Hello Uncle John:
Guess I've been quite negligent in writing to the Star during the past three months, but I never know what to write. When you are censured to all there is to talk about, you just can't write. I have been trying to think up something to write about for quite a while, but I just can't manage it. I can and will take this time to tell you that I have received three issues of the Star, which makes me very happy, yet also makes me want to be at home all the more. I am not like Dr. McElroy. I enjoy the Star as a whole. Yet I can see his point. I am not criticizing him because I like Dr. McElroy. He is a good doctor and a good man. I, like him, have my choices. Personally, I like the column "Sons in the Service," because it keeps me up on the boys I was reared with. I do like the other columns though. I read all of the paper, including the "Help Wanted" column—"Want Ads." I do read the Star through and enjoy all of it. That's why I am saying "Thanks" again for sending it. Just keep it coming if it's possible. Well, I believe I am still in the clear, so I may as well sign off before I write something I shouldn't. Keep your chin up and lots of luck.
A friend,
Raymond Jasper.

Many of our readers will be interested in the following information, which was taken from a clipping from an Alva, Okla. paper. The information is relative to the sons of Rev. and Mrs. E. Ray Lansdown, former residents of Friona, while Rev. Lansdown was pastor of the local Baptist Church. We quote:

"When Uncle Sam said 'I need you' two Alva families took him at his word. Between the two families the number in the armed forces was increased by ten. The first is the E. Ray Lansdown family, of 1421 Young Street. The Lansdowns have five sons in the armed forces—scattered from California to New York. The Coast Guard claims three of the boys. John is in Port Arthur, Texas; Paul, a senior at Alva High School last year, is at Cocoa Beach, Fla., and Orville is stationed in Brooklyn, N. Y. The fourth son, Lawrence, is in the maritime service as a merchant marine, stationed at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y. The fifth member of the family, Ivan, is in the navy. The last to join, Ivan is taking his navy training at San Diego, Calif. The sixth son, Irvin, a senior at Alva High School, is in the army reserve and will leave when school is out in the spring.

Jack Rashberry, who lives several miles northwest of Friona, was in the Star office Saturday afternoon, and stated that he has enlisted in the navy, and is at home awaiting his call for induction. Jack promised to call at the Star office again before he leaves for the navy.

Raymond Euler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Euler, of Friona, returned to Denver Colo., March 19, after a brief visit with relatives and friends here. Raymond is in the employ of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft of San Diego, Calif., and is at present attending the University of Denver, studying drafting engineering. He will be transferred to Consolidated's Engineering Department at San Diego, about June 20.

Last week the Star office received a copy of "The Sea Lion," No. 1, Volume 1, magazine form newspaper, edited and published by the boys of the U. S. Coast Guard, stationed at Fort Pierce, Fla.

Following is the personnel of the editorial staff, one of whom is well known in Friona:

The plans and purposes of the little magazine are briefly expressed as follows:

"To provide the strangers from every section of the country with something they are particularly interested in and to advance the morale and efficiency of the men, a weekly magazine has been inaugurated, and as this is entirely a sea operation, it has been given the name of "Sea Lion."

"The name suggests the sea action and the aggressive ruggedness of fearless of the lion, which has always been known as the king of beasts. The seal, which is known as the sea lion, is not as ferocious animal but nevertheless can put up a sizeable scrap is necessary."

"The magazine is primarily published for the armed forces represented in the Fort Pierce area, but it will be available to the public who will be interested and want to send copies to their friends and boys in the service."

"The subject matter will be written largely by the men in uniform and will be edited by newspaper men serving their country as officers and men in the various branches of the armed forces."

The Star is indebted to Ensign E. W. Boedecker for its copy of the magazine, for which we hereby extend our thanks and appreciation.—Ed.
