Column Right

Last week this column told of a Texas man who, after 44 years' residence there, decided he liked the place and would settle down. His words proved prophetic, for he had passed away that morning. He and his family were the friends of the writer for many years. To his loved ones our heartfelt sympathy. Mr. "Betty," was one of the unobtrusive men we've ever known. Nobody's business but his own interested him. A lover of the great outdoors, an inveterate fisherman and hunter. His life brings cherished memories of happy hours a-field. Our hope was that schedules to and from Sanderson made impossible for us to pay our last respects to her, citizen, and man—W. D. Smith.

Mr. Davis is going in for petty government on a large scale, according to reports from the Jeff Davis county capital. So strongly do the ladies entrenched at present that there is a move to put a "feminine ticket" in the county. Mrs. Sproul is sheriff at Sanderson, through election. Mrs. E. Fowlkes is serving an unexpired term as county judge. The county treasurer is Miss Virginia E. Fowlkes, whose sister, Miss Robbia, is postmaster. All are said to be competent and, according to reports, all play a wicked game of politics.

SPRING—When the sap rises—proposals.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE (page)—One who thinks he can get the world by the tail, with a small pull.

Must be spring! Did you see that kiddy-car and donkey team of the local ice company? The wagon is a saw-down, making it match the mule. Thought. But we were instead that this abbreviation was for the convenience of Clyde and "H," in case the mule balked.

an across a pamphlet the other entitled "Hints to Journalists." Never saw one yet would take a hint. You've got to jar them.

Artist colony in Tampa needs help. The nature bugs spend winter in the South and the summer in the North. Swell opportunity for some nitwit to see the country while the artist sees her.

Ma Moore got miffed while milking a picture. She was asked while milking a cow. She said milking and singing are arts, and to try both at the same time would be to slight one or the other. Wish that baritone-boarder at our house had same idea about his bathing.

Scientist recently discovered planet. Instead of letting it be that he amplifies by stating a piece from the planet, big as our thumb would weigh 1000 lbs. And we swallow it without thought. But if our neighbor was hit his yard fence, hang out "Fresh Paint," not one in a hundred would believe it until he dabbed their fingers in it.

How crazier the idea the stronger grip on the people. The list is long one, but in recent years was the K. K. K., the tree-throwers, the Yo-ho, black widow, chain letters. And now comes the Townsend plan of penalties. Legislative investigations nobody getting a thing out of it. "Doc," his wife and kin, a few handy men who can come a little better than he can.

and talking about chain letters. One person do we know who ahead, and that was because double-crossed the other saps the chain.

She requests all having children within the school age to be sure to see her and have them registered. Mrs. Dawson has one month in which to complete this census.

P. V. A. WORKERS TO MEET

At the First Baptist church in McCamey, on Tuesday, April 7, beginning at 10 a. m., the Pecos Valley Association Workers will hold their regular meeting. A very interesting program has been prepared, with many prominent speakers taking part.

The Anson historic "Cowboys' Christmas Ball" will be repeated in December as a Centennial year celebration.

Model men and women are the kind that nobody wants to be like.

Dawn at the Alamo—March 6, 1836

"I shall die like a soldier who never forgets what is due his own honor and that of his country." Shortly after William Barrett Travis penned the most heroic document in American history, the Alamo garrison which he commanded was put to the sword. One hundred and eighty stalwart Texans gave their lives; none survived. Perpetuated in the devotion of all Texans today to the "Cradle of Texas Liberty" is the ideal for which its defenders fought and died. Shown above is the painting which now hangs in the capitol halls in Austin.

Car Registrations For Year Shows Increase Over '35

Passenger car registrations in Terrell county for 1936 show an increase over those of 1935, according to records at the office of the tax collector as of date April 1. Total number of cars registered to that date is 346, as compared with 275 on that date in 1935.

Commercial trucks, however, show a decrease over 1935 in this county. In 1935 the registrations totaled 60, while this year there are 52. Farm truck registrations were upped a little in 1936, there being 102 as against 94 at this date in 1935. Trailers are holding their own 12 being licensed this year, against 13 last year.

Total number of drivers' licenses issued in Terrell county, under the new law was 957, records to April first disclosed. This is less than the number expected. The drivers' license law became effective April 1, making it a violation of the law for any person 14 years of age and over to drive a motor vehicle without a license to do so. Persons under 14 years of age will not be permitted to drive a motor vehicle at all. For them to do so will be a direct violation of the law.

MEETING IS POSTPONED

Next Friday, April 10, being Good Friday, the regular meeting of the Beautification Club will not be held. Mrs. Jim Kerr, general chairman, announces. The April meeting will be held April 17, at 3 p. m., at the court house.

John Ebers Well Known Rancher Buried at Alpine

Long time residents of Sanderson and Terrell county will regret to learn of the death of Gustav (John) Ebers, 69, which occurred last Thursday morning at the Herbert Pruett ranch, south of Alpine. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery, Alpine, Friday afternoon.

Mr. Ebers had been staying at the Pruett ranch during the absence of Mr. Pruett, who was in Houston with his family. When he failed to come into town when expected Mrs. Ebers became alarmed and phoned to the W. H. Kokernot ranch, asking that someone be sent to see about him. He was found unconscious and died before medical aid could reach him.

The following sketch of Mr. Ebers' life was taken from the Alpine Avalanche:

Mr. Ebers had an interesting life. Born in Santa Fe, N. M., on June 7, 1867 he moved to Norway at the age of six, and later was sent to Kiel, Germany, where he was educated. He later became a sailor and visited many foreign ports.

He came to this section when about 25 years of age, settling at Sanderson, and became manager of the Paxton estate holdings in that section. At the age of 42 he returned to Germany and there met and married Miss Elizabeth Christiansen in 1909. With his wife he returned to Sanderson. For several years he was foreman of Mrs. Kate Nevill's ranch located a few miles south of Alpine and had worked on other ranches in that section.

He was known to cowmen all over this area as an honest and dependable workman.

Funeral services were held at the Ebers home on N. 5th street, the Rev. Buren Sparks, Baptist pastor, officiating.

Survivors are his widow and a sister living in Berlin, Germany.

MRS. McCLUSKEY, MOTHER OF MRS. McPHEE, DIES

Friends in this city of Mrs. J. B. McPhee, prominent oil woman, who at one time lived here, will regret to learn of the death of her mother, Mrs. Ann McCluskey, which occurred last Tuesday at their home in San Antonio.

Services for Mrs. McCluskey were held Friday afternoon, Mar. 27, at four o'clock, from the chapel of Hagy & McCollum with Dr. P. B. Hill officiating. Interment was in the Mission Burial Park vault.

In addition to her daughter Mrs. McPhee is survived by two other daughters, Mesdames Maggie Davis and Agnes Davis; two sons, Andrew and Robert McCluskey.

Lucile Beauty Parlor In Charge Of New Owner

Mrs. Grace Wheeler of this city is now owner and manager of the Lucile Beauty Shop, having purchased the business from Mrs. F. S. Garrison, who leaves today for El Paso to join Mr. Garrison, and will make their home in that city.

Mrs. Wheeler has been employed as operator at the parlor for the past four months, and is a graduate of the Texas College of Beauty Culture of San Antonio. She is well and favorably known here.

The Lucile Beauty Shop is one of the best equipped in this section, and Mrs. Wheeler is thoroughly familiar with every phase of beauty culture work. She will be assisted in the work by Mrs. W. D. O'Bryant, Jr., who, also, is a graduate of the Texas College of Beauty Culture.

ROONEYS TO DENTON

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rooney and little son left last Saturday for Denton, Mr. Rooney being transferred to that city by the State Highway department. He had been stationed in the department's Sanderson office as engineer since last July. During their short stay here they made many friends who regret to see them leave and wish them well in their new location.

The greatest art is to be busy without seeming so.

SUNSET LIMITED IN SERVICE ON S. P. ABOUT APRIL 26 IS REPORT

S. P. Abolishes Assistant Supt Office in El Paso

The office of assistant superintendent of the Texas & New Orleans railway company at El Paso was abolished last Sunday, and W. R. Mann, who held that position, was appointed assistant superintendent with headquarters in San Antonio. Mann succeeds H. E. Kelley, who resigned. Mann left El Paso Monday for his new home.

T. S. Stewart, trainmaster at Austin, was appointed trainmaster at El Paso, and E. E. Heffer, chief dispatcher at Hearne, succeeded Stewart at Austin.

All above changes became effective Wednesday, April first.

County Judge of Jeff Davis Dies At Fort Davis

Fort Davis, Mar. 26.—Edwin H. Fowlkes, 49, died at his home here suddenly yesterday morning. He had not been in sound health for several weeks. He was in his third term as county judge of Jeff Davis county and was a candidate for re-election.

Judge Fowlkes had lived in the county since his youth, owning the famous Fowlkes ranch high in the Davis mountains. Famous Fowlkes Hill was named for him. Two hundred acres were donated from his ranch to make up half the area on which McDonald Observatory has been built.

His widow has been named to fill his unexpired term as county judge.

A CORRECTION

Last week when L. M. Baze gave the Times editor a list of the business firms and citizens subscribing to membership in the West Texas chamber of commerce the name of the Community Public Service Co. was omitted through error. Mr. Baze and the Times regret the mistake and are glad to make this correction.

FITTING MONUMENT

The memorial tower which will be erected jointly by the national and state governments and the City of Houston, to the honor of Texans who fought in the Battle of San Jacinto, April 21, 1836, will be higher than the Washington monument, and will cost approximately $1,000,000.

The Sunset Limited, Southern Pacific trans-continental train discontinued in 1932, will be put back into service about April 26, according to a recent announcement of officials of the system. The train will operate between Los Angeles and New Orleans.

Officials in a recent statement said that increased business and the expected patronage during the Centennial year justified resumption of the train.

According to the best information the Argonaut, the one train now in service on the T. & N. O. will retain its present schedule—westbound at 11:59 p. m., and the eastbound at 6 a. m. Though no definite schedule has been given out for the Limited, it is expected the eastbound will reach Sanderson about 5 p. m., while the westbound train's hour of arrival will be 11 a. m.

All new equipment will be used on the Limited, the cars being of steel and air-conditioned.

The addition of the Limited, it is estimated will give permanent employment to more than 200 men.

Drivers' Licenses Are Hard to Keep

Reports from Austin state that hundreds of automobile drivers who secured licenses, find that taking them out and keeping them handy for inspection are two different things. The department of public safety stated this week that requests for duplicates has already assumed proportions of a river of mail. Each request is accompanied by 25 cents.

Reasons for loss of the original are varied, but carelessness and absent-mindedness lead.

$5 FOR RED CROSS

At joint services of the Presbyterian and Methodist church, held last Sunday night, a collection of $5 was taken and this was sent to Red Cross headquarters for relief of flood sufferers in the North and East. As far as is known this is the only donation sent from the county. No quota was allotted Terrell county and no personal solicitation was made.

BAND CONCERT TODAY

This (Friday) evening at seven o'clock the band of the Sanderson high school, under the direction of J. E. King, Jr., will give a concert in the Kerr Hotel park, first of a series of open air concerts to be given by the band between now and the close of school. The public is invited to turn out and hear this splendid band.

Austin.—Jim Ferguson denied flatly the rumors that he might switch his support from Sen. Roy Sandersford and enter "Ma" Ferguson as a candidate for a third term as governor of Texas.

These marked the week's outstanding developments in the gubernatorial campaign.

CASH SCARCE

Ferguson's denial of the widely circulated rumor that he found the reception to Sanderford's cause so lukewarm that he might shift was easily the outstanding development. Jim paid a visit to Houston on "personal business," where he said he "talked politics" with friends.

RECORD SPEAKS

Attention of this correspondent has been belatedly called to a letter to The Cisco Press from Louise Marx, secretary to Rep. Tom Blanton. The lady thinks the recent report in this column, crediting the county judges association with victory in its fight to obtain federal road funds for 1936-37 is "inaccurate, ridiculous and absurd."

And meanwhile, the East Texas County Judges Association, in session at Corsicana, adopted resolutions strongly indorsing the recommendation of Senator Carl Hayden, Arizona, that a $770,000...

PROGRESS MARCHES ON

Items of Interest From Towns in the Southwest

VALENTINE.—An election was held here on March 24, and the citizens, by a vote of 48 to 1 incorporated the town. W. A. Yarbro was chosen as Valentine's first mayor.

MARFA.—Army maneuvers, on a wartime scale, are scheduled for the Big Bend area, beginning April 25. Soldiers from Fort D. A. Russell, Fort Clark, Fort Bliss, Fort Brown, and Fort Ringgold, representing practically every U. S. defense unit, will participate.

BRACKETTVILLE.—In response to the plea of the American Red Cross for funds to relieve suffering in the flooded sections, citizens of this town subscribed $100. The allotted quota was $25.

MONAHANS.—Ever since the installation of natural gas in this city, the consumers and the gas company have been at war. It is alleged, to the high service charges and the poor quality of the gas. To remedy the situation, an election has been called to vote bonds in the sum of $60,000. Of this amount, if the election carries, $50,000 will be used for the installation of a municipal plant, and $10,000 will be spent for the erection of a city hall.

CARRIZO SPRINGS.—W. H. Kittrell, in charge of exhibits at Centennial building, Dallas, must have been impressed with sprinting records at the Dummit county meet. He placed a notice in last week's Javelin "wanting runners to run down road-runners." He wants one gross of the fleet-footed birds, paying 50c for each bird.

McCAMEY.—A gruesome vocation is that followed by P. L. Brown of this place. He catches rattlesnakes. On his first jaunt of the new season, last week, he bagged 8 large buzzers. He finds a lucrative market for the reptiles in the North, and sells many to carnival companies. In the nine years he has been catching rattlesnakes he figures the total catch at approximately 3,000.

OZONA.—After being in a huddle for two weeks, the citizens of Ozona decided to place a team in the Permian Basin League again this year. Entrance of Wink, last week complicated things, the distance being such as to make the schedule hard to maintain. The opposition was overcome and the Giants, winners of the last half season's championship, will represent Ozona this season.

FLORESVILLE.—A CCC Soil Erosion camp, scheduled to be abolished, will be retained indefinitely. Live wire citizens, with the aid of senators and congressmen are responsible. A high school band is being organized in Floresville with Karl E. Klausner as director.

PECOS.—Old timers here are used to seeing big fish, but not as big as one Dr. Hilliard Camp exhibited last week. It was a sea bass, snagged in the Gulf, and tipped the beam at 135 pounds. Thirty-two years ago a "cat" was snagged at State Line in the Rio Pecos, weight 102—a mere kitten compared to "Doc's."

FORT STOCKTON.—Will P. Rooney, native son, has announced for re-election as sheriff. He is opposed by F. S. Wilson.

PECOS.—Preparing for the annual Frontier Day and Rodeo on July 4th, the Rotary club of this city has challenged the Lions club to a mustache-growing contest.

Just as gyroscopic stabilizers, radio direction finders and fool-proof controls have eliminated "blind flying" in commercial aviation, so has science eliminated "blind flying" for the housewife as to refrigeration temperatures and food preservation. And now comes announcement of perfected controls and mechanism in electric refrigerators to a point where a thermometer now is built into the food compartment, from the Kelvinator Corporation, pioneer and economy in the home.

electric refrigerator manufacturer. With this development housewives can tell at a glance that food is being safely preserved. Home economists agree that this is a tremendous advancement in food preservation science, and a step which marks the highest development of the electric refrigerator as an aid to greater health

R. H. Lewellen, who had been in the S. P. hospital in Houston for several weeks receiving treatment for rheumatism, returned home Tuesday very much improved in health.

J. R. Black, Jr., was a business visitor in San Antonio last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Turk were in town Monday from their ranch.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES By a Young Modern (CIA)

Denton.—After you've bought your new spring hat, take it home and try it on. Now look at your hair. Does it do justice to the hat? The season's strongest challenge in coiffures is "away from the hairline," and it's one of the most flattering accents, not only for youth, but for the older face as well.

All sorts of individually becoming things can be done. A forward dip over the temple, or a few soft curls high and just forward of the ear, will soften a thin face. Center parts are lovely, and are particularly smart with an upward dip over each temple. Not everyone, however, can wear a straight and narrow path right down the middle of their head, so be particularly sure that you're the type.

If you have red hair, remember the color carries it. Too many curls only make it look "frozzy" and take away that smooth sheen that is essential to beautiful hair. A particularly smart curl concession that might be used is a few wisps of curled half bangs on one side of the forehead. Height can be gained for a round face by dressing the hair back across the ears and low on the neck in two sort of tiers of thick puff curls. This, however, is a severe hairdress and should be used with discretion (only for a round face).

PRACTICAL COOKERY By the Home Economics Dept. Texas State College for Women

Denton.—Cheese as well as fish comes into prominence in the Lenten season.

Cheese With Rice and Mushrooms.—1 cup of rice, 7 ounces of cheese, 1 medium can of mushrooms, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 tablespoon milk, 1 teaspoon of brown sauce, salt. Cook rice in briskly boiling salted water until done. Drain in a sieve, let cold water run through it, then put in top of double boiler to heat through. Place a round piece of cheese in a double boiler to heat through. Drain the mushrooms and brown in butter. Add flour and blend well. Add cold milk until it boils to heavy creamy consistency. Add the brown sauce to color and salt to taste. Arrange the dry, hot rice in a dish, turn out the round slightly melted cheese on top, and pour the mushroom sauce over all.

Creamed Cheese Cubes on Toast.—Cut pimento or the plain cheese in cubes and drop into thick cream sauce and serve on thin slices of hot toast. Do not let the sauce boil after the cheese is added.

Asparagus Croquettes.—1 medium can asparagus, 1 cup thick white sauce, 1 cup of cracker crumbs, 1/4 pound grated American cheese, 1 egg. Drain asparagus (save liquid for soup). Chop fine and mix it with 1 cup thick white sauce and season slightly with nutmeg. Add the cracker crumbs and cheese. Mix and shape into small croquettes. Dip each in the cracker crumbs, then in egg, and again in

Current Comment

Did you wonder why nearly all the students wore flowers Tuesday morning? Although they looked nice the reason for wearing them was the fact that the biology class was studying flowers that day.

The monthly rush on the campus seems to be that of getting in English notebooks and Book reports. If you don't have yours in you'd better step on it.

The band is improving. The tunes now floating around are louder and clearer. Maybe those new cymbals are helping.

Everyone is wondering and asking who won in a certain contest. Well, we hope you won. If you didn't, then be a good loser.

We wonder what will happen if Bert Herbert gets any smarter in Texas history. You should hear him!

April came again at last. We know you tried your best trick on your friends. No unusual amount were absent; so that was a good joke.

Can U Imagine?

A junior writing a story about a man playing around with another man's wife? Would you call it inheritance, knowledge, or experience?

Essary Haines going to be captain of a submarine when he grows up?

A seventh grade teacher proving to Bert Herbert he wasn't dry behind the ears?

Dorothy Lewellen being that way about a boy called "Porky"?

"That something" about Lillian that has Fritz up at her house nearly every week end?

Roy Deaton getting notes telling him whom he should go with?

Bob Lea and Lloyd Gant being absent from school the same day?

H. C. Monroe acting as chauffeur for Essary Haines and Dutch Halley last Saturday?

Miss Wilson allowing the second year Spanish class tell jokes during class period? (Spanish jokes).

Homer Richardson spending the week end in Alpine and Constance in Fort Stockton?

James Allen flirting with Lois Taylor in geometry class and with Mildred Underwood in Spanish?

Bert Herbert being still and quiet for five minutes?
Joe Kerr collecting nearly $25 from the junior class? (Maybe).
Sammie Carter having her hair cut in Spanish class?

THE GHOST HOUSE

CONCLUSION
Getting quietly out of bed, I put my feet into my slippers and was reaching for my robe when something rubbed softly against my leg. I knew I would faint. Oh, where was that light switch? There it was. And by my bed sat the little cat I had taken in that morning.

I wasn't going to spend the night in that house! I ran over to my neighbor's and asked her if I could stay with her. She said I could. So I went to bed and slept the remainder of the night.

On awakening next morning I rejoiced at how well I had slept. Suddenly I remembered the incident of the night before. I was afraid to enter the house alone, so I asked two policemen to go with me. We explored the cellar, the entire house, and then the attic. It was so dark and musty the men had to use their flashlights to see. Everything was quiet and still up there.

As we were descending the stairs we heard a feeble moan. We rushed back to the attic. Everything was as we had left it. Then one of the men noticed the black boxes. Upon reaching them I suddenly realized that they were caskets. I felt sick and my knees became very weak.

I dreaded to see what was in the boxes. The first one was opened. No, nothing in that one, or the next, or the next.

When the last one was opened there lay a small boy gasping for breath. I couldn't imagine what he was doing in there alive.

The men looked at each other and smiled. It was Mrs. Smith's little boy, who had disappeared two days ago.

Being questioned the boy said he had been locked in there by his little friend when they were playing two days before.

I felt much better after I had decided what a ridiculous play of fate that it was.

Biology Students Study Flowers

Dissection of frogs and study of bugs and beetles have taken a back seat in the biology class the past week while the student have been working on a native flower project. The class had on display Wednesday over 40 varieties of native flowers that the members gathered. Yesterday the class went on a field trip and gathered more specimens. Mr. Smith, class instructor, stated "I know definitely there are many more varieties of flowers in this section."

The class dissects and studies the parts of the flowers. Each student is responsible for making a set-up of the flowers, separating and labeling the parts, and knowing the function of each part.

Among the varieties of wild flowers studied by the class are the thistle, dandelion, varieties of daisy, stalk, cactus, bluebonnet, sweet william, niggerhead, mountain laurel, and many others. The domesticated nasturtium and the larkspur have been included in this study.

THE STORY OF A LOAF OF BREAD

David Duke, Third Grade
I am a grain of wheat. First I was planted in the dark ground. I did not like it for a while. But soon I got used to the darkness, and I liked it very much.

And what do you think happened in a very short time? I soon began to grow. I grew a long time until a big machine came and cut me down even with the ground. Then I went into another machine called a thresher. I was then taken to the flour mill where I was ground into flour.

Soon after that I was taken to the big city bakery where I was placed in a large mixing bowl and made into dough. After being worked several times, I was placed in a pan and put into the oven. I soon came out a golden brown loaf of bread. When I had cooled I was placed in a machine and sliced, and was wrapped in wax paper. The same day I was taken by truck to a little girl's home where I was enjoyed for dinner.

TEXAS IS LARGE

Texans, celebrating 100 years of independence this year for the Centennial, may boast that Lone Star State comprises one-twelfth of the area of the United States. Texas is larger than 83,000 sq. miles than France and is the only European country with an area larger than Texas.
