SANDERSON, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1954

NUMBER 18

LISTEN TO LUKE

SanderSON citizens are united never before since my coming to this part of the country. Usually a good fight will do more to unite people than most anything. Since the T&NO railroad has asked for permission to abandon the terminal at Sanderson and to build a new one at Del Rio, there is a united effort to stall off any such move. The Sanderson people are ready to fight such a move and they are united in the fight. There is no challenge greater than to preserve a community's faith.

Possibilities for a greater Sanderson is the challenge before the committees working for the community. Increased effort is being put into the effort to get the dam on the river located just south of Sanderson. Highway interest is being increased. Traffic on US 90 is up considerably. Industries are being sought. Sanderson is undertaking a clean-up campaign in the near future. We have a lot of projects under way and a lot more that should be undertaken. We are going to have to get down to work and get our heads together on these other projects.

AND THE TERMINAL HAS MOVED YET!

We will say "in pride and arrogance of heart: The bricks have been laid, but we will build with good stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will plant cedars in their place."

The sanitation committee has outlined a program of cleaning up and beautifying for the town. This program will call for the cooperation of every citizen. If the spraying program is proposed to be effective, people must join in a thorough clean-up campaign to eliminate possible breeding places for flies and mosquitos. Besides making the town look better to our visitors, it will add greatly to the health conditions for those of us who live here.

The American Legion has the responsibility of getting house numbers posted on all the houses in town. After the Rotary Club put the street markers this house numbering project will add greatly to the appearance of our town. Every citizen should be interested in the welfare of the town we live in and call home.

INFALL HAS BEEN COUNTY-WIDE THESE DAYS

The pastures that are looking so barren should be giving promises of coming back and ranchmen should be showing a smile.

State politics are now brewing. It is interesting to note some of the statements of some candidates. Some voters of Texas were as some politicians indicate they should never be allowed to vote.

THOMPSONS HOME AFTER VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Thompson returned home Monday from a vacation trip which took them over 10,000 miles. They visited in San Antonio with their son, H. L. Thompson, and family, in Seguin with their son, Joe Thompson; in Austin with their son, G. J. Thompson, and family; in Houston with their son, Samuel Thompson, and wife; in Brady with Mrs. Thompson's mother and in Springtown with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis. Mr. Thompson accompanied them to Arkville, Ky., to visit their daughter, David Thompson, and his family. On their return trip, they traveled through the Ozark Mountains in Yoakum, Mr. Thompson had a reunion of the Thompson family, his brothers and sisters. He planned a picnic Sunday to honor his birthday. Mr. Thompson attended the annual SA&S picnic and took them to visit all their children except J. D. Thompson who is in the U. S. and is stationed on Guam.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Duncan are his sisters, Sam Hale and Mrs. Hulthams of Ft. Worth.

Clean-up Committee Plans Extensive Program Here Soon

The Sanitation Committee appointed by the Terrell County Chamber of Commerce and composed of C. G. Riggins, M. W. Duncan, Dr. John E. Carter, W. W. Sudduth, Julian Perez and F. M. Weigand, held its first meeting Wednesday night at the Turner Hotel to begin formulating plans to rid the town of disease-carrying flies and mosquitos.

Tentative plans are for the committee to publish data concerning the needs for such a movement, and also the possible good effects, the reason for the campaign. The group will also work out plans for carrying out the campaign in the most effective manner according to the means at hand.

Present plans are to try and eliminate the breeding places of flies to the best of the ability of the people of the county.

The committee pointed out that a general clean-up campaign would have to precede any method of eliminating the living insects and possibly their eggs or larvae, and such a clean-up campaign would have to have the support of all citizens of the county if it would be effective.

Considerable preparation would precede any definite action by the committee and all clubs and organizations of the county will be enlisted in the campaign.

Further details of the campaign will be released by the committee.

Gatlin, took him to Del Rio Sunday and from there he went to Austin to join a group of friends for the trip by bus to Fort Benning. Gatlin is a junior at Texas Tech College in Lubbock.

Two Rutherfordds who have made names for themselves got their big hats, boots, and heads together, recently in a corral huddle at the Jaycee-sponsored rodeo in Monahans. On the left is State Senator J. T. Rutherford of Odessa, an announced candidate for U. S. Representative of the 16th Congressional District. On the right is Buck Rutherford, an Oklahoma who was named top money winner and International World Championship Cowboy in 1952. Wonder if they talked politics, rodeo or kin-folks?

The Association elected Mrs. Jim Kerr as Christmas Seal sales chairman for this year.

Miss Antonia Cardenas has been named as executive secretary to assist Mrs. H. E. Ezelle, secretary of the organization.

The yearly report of the accomplishments of the association was given and included:

The sponsoring club has also been responsible for securing the help necessary to conduct the Mass Chest X-ray. The Association is sufficiently established to be responsible also for the management and preparation of the survey.

The Association is proud of the help it has given its citizens who have been in McKnight Sanatorium and offers them assistance in any way it can be of service. The amount of $100 has been contributed by the local Association toward rehabilitation for the salary of an occupational therapist. At Christmas time a box was placed in the Kerr Mercantile Co. in which citizens of the community placed items that could be used by the occupational therapist in training patients for occupations suited to their capacity for work. The local newspaper ran articles of educational nature along this line and thus stimulated giving.

The report was made by Mrs. James Caroline who was president.

Game Department Public Meeting Friday Night Here

The public meeting to be held in the courthouse Friday night at 8 p. m. is sponsored by the Texas Game and Fish Commission and the commission is urging all interested landowners and hunters to attend.

The purpose of this meeting is pointed out, is to afford ranchers and sportsmen the opportunity to discuss hunting regulations with representatives of the game department. Also, their opinions pertaining to wildlife conservation and sound, constructive management practices and to game population declines will be appreciated.

Attendance should be well proportioned between the groups concerned. This is to prevent possible biased opinions being offered and accepted as established facts and applicable to the county as a whole.

One or more of the following movies will be shown: "High and Wide", Trans-Pecos movie to be used on state-wide television shows, "Master Whitetail", a story of a whitetail buck deer, and "Making of a Shooter" a film on teaching youngsters how to use firearms safely. Ben Ramsey Enters State Race For Lieutenant-Governor

Ben Ramsey has actively entered the political activities of the summer in behalf of his race for re-election to the post of Lieutenant-Governor of Texas.

His own words seem best to explain Ramsey's campaign attitude. "A man or woman doesn't buy a suit or dress without feeling the cloth, and I don't think the people of Texas will select their officials without checking the record. That is all," Ramsey said, "that I ask."

Ramsey served eight years in the Senate and four years in the House of Representatives. He was appointed as secretary of state by the late Governor Beauford Jester and continued under Governor Allan Shivers until he resigned to make the race for lieutenant-governor.

Ramsey stated that he had fought against the forces of nature and politics and feels that his fight and record qualify him for re-election to the job he seeks. He added that he felt a deep understanding of the problems that confront all the people of the state these days, and thinks that his record shows that he has always been working for the best interest of all the people.

His services as leader of the Senate will always be toward providing the needs of the people with the least possible cost for efficient management in governmental actions.

Post Office Plans To Regionalize Here, Rep. Regan Says

Congressman Ken Regan of Midland, today announced that, under the decentralization program of the Post Office Department, postmasters in the 19 counties of his district will report directly to the district managers nearer their communities, rather than to Washington.

All postmasters in the 16th Congressional district will report to the district manager at San Antonio.

Plans call for six district managers in the two-state region of Texas and Louisiana, operating under a Regional Manager in Dallas. This will eliminate one of the major bottlenecks in the Postal Service and will enable our own local personnel to solve local problems at the local level," Regan said. "The result will be better service, greater economy, and quicker solutions to problems."

Regan pointed out that, in decentralizing its operations, the Post Office Department will be following the lead of most other successful business organizations in the country, as well as the recommendation of the Hoover Commission. He added that under this plan, field personnel will be delegated authority equal to their responsibility.

Vacation Rates Now In Effects On SP Railroad

With the beginning of the summer vacation season, Southern Pacific has announced it is joining with other railroads in the new reduced family fare plan for travel locally in Texas and Louisiana and to the Pacific Coast and the East. Gray, passenger traffic manager of the road in Houston.

Under the proposed family fare program, a husband pays full fare, a wife half fare, children 12-21 inclusive half-fare; youngsters 5-11 inclusive, one-fourth fare; with those under 5 traveling free. The rates apply to both one-way and round trip, and permits checking of 300 pounds of baggage.

To come under the family plan, a trip must begin on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. The return trip may begin on any day of the week. THREE GREAT CANNOTS

What our children of today are taught will determine the way of life this nation will have in the years ahead. Nothing, therefore, could be more important to the future welfare of the people of America than the substance of the education that will be given to the 35,000,000 youngsters who will enroll in our schools next September. A sound observation regarding one phase of this education has been made by Mark C. Schinnerer, superintendent of the Cleveland, Ohio, schools.

John W. Studebaker, chairman of the Scholastic Magazines' editorial board and former U.S. Commissioner of Education, commends Dr. Schinnerer's statement, and I hope it will be read by all parents and teachers, by everybody. "This is about the teaching of economics," Dr. Schinnerer wrote. "It is not directed just to teachers of economics, but to all teachers. It is directed to all teachers because the job that needs to be done cannot be done by just the teachers of economics."

"We Have Failed"

"There is a colossal oversupply of people in my country who either never discovered some of the basic principles of economics or think that the economic laws have been repealed. We hear much wailing that the schools have failed in this regard and the cry is for required courses in economics. We have failed — in school and out — but the answer is not in required courses."

"The answer, in my opinion, lies in a continuous effort to inculcate in children, from the kindergarten through high school, some basic and very simple facts. There are three things which almost anyone can be brought to understand and if these three are ingrained, we can leave the more complicated principles to the experts."

Nothing for Nothing

"No. 1: You can't get something for nothing. Too many think they can. That is the basis of gambling and most speculation. Giving a higher mark in school than is earned is proving that the student can get something for nothing. That is bad business. When we urge no homework, they expect something for nothing. One gets out of school work about what he puts into it. Only parasites get something for nothing."

"No. 2: You can't spend more than you have and remain solvent. The longer such a system is followed, the more impossible it becomes to keep afloat. Know anyone who trades in a mortgaged car on a new one and has both a newer car and a bigger mortgage? The woods are full of such people. It is bad economics. It's somewhat like drug addiction. This applies equally to a person, a business, or a government.

Can't Equalize Ability

"No. 3: You cannot equalize ability by a handicap system. It is wrong to expect as much from a youngster with a low I.Q. as is expected from a youngster with a high I.Q. It is also wrong to set up handicaps so that they come out even. Leave that for the exclusive use of the racing stewards. Competition still has a place in America, thank goodness, and I don't want it any other way."

As I have written them down here, it seems to me that Dr. Schinnerer's three fundamentals are lessons on which we all need to be refreshed — especially in a world in which glittering promises of something for nothing are being made by the Socialists and Communists and their dupes. It is good to see these fundamentals propounded by one of America's top public school educators.

Just What Is A Credit Bureau? —

A credit bureau is an office where the credit records of all persons in a community are recorded. Business firms need credit bureaus to be in a position to know the paying habits of those who apply for credit. These businesses are required to send to the Bureau periodically a record of accounts on their ledger.

The Credit Bureau consists of most of the leading business and professional men. Each member reports on every customer as to whether he is prompt pay, fair pay, slow pay, too slow for credit or cash is required, according to the merchant's experience with this particular customer. This information is recorded at the Credit Bureau and is available to Bureau members.

Whenever a person opens up a charge account with a member of the Bureau, he adds to his credit record. Every person makes his own rating — the Bureau simply files the credit information reported by the merchant.

A good credit rating is a valuable asset which serves one in time of need. It is maintained by not incurring liabilities which an individual cannot meet when due.

The Credit Bureau is a friend of the individual who pays as agreed. A complete record of those who pay promptly is kept by the Bureau as well as the record of the individual who is negligent in paying his bills.

Cadillac

He's Ten Years Younger Today!

Here's a man who has just taken ten years off his age — insofar as his spirits and mental outlook are concerned.

He's going for his first ride in his first Cadillac — and he's a happy, happy man — with his hopes in the sky and his heart singing a song it hasn't recalled for a decade.

He's having an experience which we can't tell you about. You have to live it yourself — at the wheel of that first Cadillac — in order to evaluate it.

You know how it goes. You work and you worry and plan and hope. The years go by — and, bit by bit, you get things done. The insurance creeps up where you want it — the mortgage on the home goes into the fire — there's that nest-egg against the future and the college fund is in the bank.

And then, one day, you feel there's no further need for resisting — so you order the Cadillac — and wait for the happy news — "It's here!"

Your ride home will live in your memory forever. You've put the cap sheaf on your world of dreams.

Of course, this great sense of personal well-being is only the first thrill that comes with your Cadillac.

There's its magnificent performance — its marvelous balance and roadability — and its rare comfort and safety and handling ease. Every hour at the wheel is a privilege — and every journey is a wonderful memory.

Is the time about right for you to step up to a Cadillac?

If so — please come in and see us. The longer we're in business, the happier we are when we deliver a man his first Cadillac.

We'll be waiting to welcome you — anytime.

Why GMC's make other trucks out of date

Be careful — drive safely

The GMC light-duty truck does more because it has, as standard equipment, a full 125-horsepower engine — the most powerful 6 in its class.

The GMC light-duty truck saves more because its Truck Hydra-Matic Drive* ends repairs caused by shock-loading strains — ends all clutch costs — uses less gas — spares the tires.

The Hydra-Matic GMC light-duty truck performs better because it always is in the correct gear for the need — regardless.

The Hydra-Matic GMC light-duty truck handles easier because you never have to shove a clutch or shift a gear.

The GMC light-duty truck commands respect with its dashing smartness — its look of quality — its spacious luxury cab, that make you and your wife proud to take it anywhere.

The GMC light-duty truck costs less to own — less to run — than old-style trucks. Come in and we'll demonstrate it!
