Vaccine For Bluetongue Disease of Sheep Now in Commercial Production by 4 Labs

College Station — A vaccine for bluetongue is now in production in four commercial laboratories. In addition to some deaths, this sheep disease results in severe loss of weight, impairment of fleece stiffness or lameness, and screw worm infestation.

Workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have made several contributions to the basic research on this disease. They include: (1) the first description of the disease in the United States in '52, when it was called sore muzzle, (2) multiple isolations of the virus from Texas animals, (3) preparation of an experimental vaccine against Texas strains, (4) confirmation of the South African work which incriminated the Culicoides gnat as a transmitter or vector, and (5) discovery that a certain new antibiotic renders the bluetongue virus ineffective when studied in test tubes and chicken embryos. This work has been centered at the Sonora Station and directed by Supt. W. T. Hardy and D. A. Price, associate veterinarian.

Wood Announces Feed Program As ASC Office Courtesies

F. M. Wood announced this week that application forms for drought emergency feed are now available at the ASC office in Sanderson. Since there is no FHA office or representative located in Terrell County, the ASC personnel will assist the ranchers in filling out the necessary forms to make application for this aid, Wood said, as a courtesy to the county ranchers. Only these ranchers that operate in Terrell County will be eligible to apply here.

Briefly, the program is designed to operate in this manner: A rancher is to make application for feed through the local ASC office, which application in turn must be approved by the FHA Committee in Del Rio. Once eligibility is determined, the ranchman is allotted a 60-day supply of surplus Commodity Credit Corporation feed which is based on the number of head of basic livestock he has on hand. He may purchase this feed through a dealer at a discount of 60c per cwt., with the purchase order that will be issued by the ASC Committee. Once the transaction is complete and the purchase order is properly filled out, the ASC committee will issue a dealers' certificate to the feed dealer, authorizing the dealer to replace his feed stocks with CCC surplus feed. The types of feed offered under this program are barley, corn, grain sorghums, and oats, along with two kinds of mixed feeds that must contain either 75 per cent or 60 per cent of the above-mentioned grains.

The hay program is to be operated in basically the same manner as it was during the spring of 1954. Once a rancher has his application approved, he may purchase hay from any hay dealer at an agreed price. When the hay has been purchased, either party may make application for a refund for 50 per cent of the freight costs, not to exceed $10 per ton. In cases where the hay is transported by truck, the trucker must fill out a notarized affidavit in the county from which the hay was purchased and present the rancher with duplicate freight bills to substantiate the cost of transportation.

The ASC election deadline that had been previously set for September 25, 1954, has been extended to Sept. 30, 1954. This extension was granted in an effort to expedite the feed program, giving the ASC personnel more time to concentrate on the new regulations. Ballots are being mailed to all eligible voters but should anyone be overlooked, he may obtain his ballot by coming to the ASC office.

ED LEATHERWOODS MOVING TO PECOS

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sullivan have bought the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leatherwood and moved to it Thursday. They were residing in the Laughlin apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Leatherwood are moving to Pecos where he will manage a service station. He has been employed at McKnight Motor Company here.

PECOS CANYON BRIDGE OPENED MONDAY MORNING

Barricades were removed on Highway 90 at the Pecos Canyon Bridge at 9:00 a.m. Monday and the highway was again opened for public travel. No formal ceremonies attended the opening of the highway route which had been closed since the bridge was washed away in the flood waters of June 26 and 27. Several cars were lined up on the west side of the canyon waiting to cross.

A substantial low water bridge has been completed with roadway approaches of the same gradient as those existing prior to the flood when the bridge was destroyed.

Approaches to the low water structure will be much wider and easier to negotiate than the approaches to the old bridge but there is a U-turn on the north, or west, bank which had to be added of necessity but which has been properly super-elevated and can be negotiated at a speed of 15 m.p.h.

The low water structure is 240 feet in length, 20 feet in width and without restriction as to vertical clearance.

Some four miles east of the Pecos River there is a short detour some 1500 feet in length and which will be utilized for a period of about two or three weeks until in addition to the Seminole Canyon bridge has been constructed and the necessary embankment completed. This will be an all-weather detour, dustless, but the grades on either side are rather steep and heavy loaded trucks should proceed with caution. Adequate warning signs of this detour will be in place and in addition there will be flagmen on 24-hour duty to stop and warn all traffic of what they might expect just ahead.

All other repairs on this highway have been completed and restored to its original condition.

School Holidays For Coming Year Noted

A school calendar for the schools of the county was made available last week with 177 teaching days noted.

The first scheduled holiday will be the Thanksgiving holidays when the schools will close on Tuesday, November 23, and resume classes on November 25.

For Christmas, the schools will have eleven holidays. Classes will be dismissed on Wednesday, December 22, and resumed on Monday, January 3.

Two scheduled holiday periods for the second semester are the Easter holidays on April 8-12, and two holidays for the District VI meeting on March 10 and 11.

School will open on Wednesday, September 1 and close on May 25.

Knowledge Key To Range Grass Growth And Improvement

College Station — A knowledge of grasses is fundamental to the building of a successful range management program. There is a wide range of usefulness among pasture grasses and, according to A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, scrub grasses are like scrub animals, growing where they don't pay.

Even under conditions of favorable moisture, the specialist points out that the good plants are fighting for survival. They must compete with other vegetation which in addition to less desirable grasses includes brush, weeds, and trees.

These competitors rob the good grasses of needed moisture and plant food and make the struggle for survival a one-sided fight when overgrazing is practiced.

Pastures and ranges of the state have been hard hit during the past few years but have shown remarkable recovery in most areas, says Walker. His advice now is to give the key grasses a chance to build a root system and produce a seed crop. The roots are even more important to the plant than the top growth for without a deep, well-developed root system, the key plants' chances of survival are reduced. A good seed crop is needed to hasten the range rebuilding job and here is where the knowledge of grasses come into the picture.

Walker says local county agricultural agents have on hand material which contains suggestions and aids for identifying range plants as well as hints on how best to handle them for maximum returns.

Finally, the specialist points out, the key plants, they may be native or well-established introduced species, are the best ones for any given area. They should be the measuring stick for judging proper range use. They produce more forage and are a basic resource of livestock in Texas. Their survival and well-being depends upon the treatment given them by the livestock producers of the state.

Church Plans Dinner Sunday, Sept. 5

The Methodist Church is planning a big old-fashioned dinner on the grounds for Sunday noon, September 5.

The occasion will be a fall rally for the church membership and friends and will also be a welcome to the school teachers — a general social in a Christian atmosphere.

The teachers are requested to bring their families and consider themselves guests. The families of the church will provide sufficient food to take care of their guests.

The dinner will be served on the courthouse lawn. It is planned to be ready to start serving by 12:30.

Some Game Scarce, But Overall Hunting Outlook Is Good For Coming Season

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said Texas hunters probably will enjoy a good season this fall despite shrinkage of such minor species as antelope and whitewing doves.

He said prospects are good for both mourning doves and waterfowl and added that the big game outlook is satisfactory. Even bobwhite quail reports are favorable for the first time in several years.

The Commission, at its recent regular meeting, voted against a season on antelope in both the Panhandle and West of the Pecos, and recommended a closed season in whitewing doves which have been on the downgrade for several years.

"It is not always sound conservation to forbid hunting just because some species are in low population," explained the Executive Secretary. "But the Big Bend antelope herds are in hard straits from the drought and the whitewings in the Valley at most got the coup-de-grace from the recent hurricane which caught the birds at the peak of their nesting and wrecked nests by the wholesale. There was some question about the Panhandle antelope status and the commission judged the harvestable surplus NOT to be worth the trouble."

Hearing Postponed To Oct. 18 By Texas Railroad Commission

Word was received Thursday morning by Clyde Griffith, president of the Terrell County Chamber of Commerce, that the Texas Railroad Commission had approved a postponement of hearings on

Fifty-Two Absentees Cast for Run-Off

Only 52 absentee ballots were cast for the run-off election, according to a report made by County Clerk Ruel Adams at noon Wednesday. Tuesday midnight marked the deadline for the absentee voting.

Less than half of the number of absentee votes cast for the Democratic primaries in July, 1954, were cast for the run-off election.

Polis will open at 8:00 a.m. Saturday and close at 7:00 p.m. Only two polling places will be available in Terrell County, one at the courthouse and the other at Dryden. Only three offices will be balloted on locally — the governor, judge of the court of criminal appeals, and associate justice of the supreme court.

W. A. Davis To Head Highway Department Offices In Monahans

Mrs. W. A. Davis and Dixie left Friday for Monahans to reside. Mr. Davis will be senior resident engineer for the State Highway Department there, the place he had held since coming here from Pecos almost three years ago.

He will remain here until the completion of current construction jobs in this area. Mrs. Davis will be on the Monahans public school faculty and Mr. Davis will join his family there later.

Practically all of the employees of the local highway department engineering crew will move to Monahans later. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Surratt are having a new home built and it will not be ready for occupancy before October.

J. Russell Walker, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Arrington, will move his family to Monahans before the beginning of the school term. He has been engaged in private engineering work with the firm of Silliman and Walker for the past several years in Fort Stockton and will be a resident engineer with the highway department. He was formerly an engineer with the highway department in various offices.

The Monahans office will have the job of drawing plans and supervising the construction of the planned four-lane highway across Ward County as a part of the Pecos to Odessa widening of US 80.

The evening show at 8 o'clock is expected to attract many children as well as the adults who cannot attend during the day.

The circus has a well-balanced program of 48 special acts. Wild animal exhibits and acts have been added to the program since last year.

TEXANS ... Do You Doubt It Now?

PARR AGAINST GOV. SHIVERS

San Diego, Texas—George B. Parr, the Duval County political power, said Ralph W. Yarborough would get his vote for Governor.

Parr interrupted a coffee-cup conference with Roy Harcafe secretary-treasurer of the CIO State Council, to say that he was not particularly for Yarborough.

"It's just that I'm against Allan Shivers," said the political boss.

Parr said that on Wednesday night he went to Fairburn to hear Yarborough make a campaign speech. Parr said he sat in the bleachers at the school stadium where Yarborough spoke and did not speak personally to the candidate. Some Parr-backed local officials sat on the platform with Yarborough.

"We haven't talked since before he announced," said Parr.

Here is conclusive proof of the link between Parr, Yarborough and C.I.O.

This news story, appearing in the Dallas Morning News on Sunday, August 22, 1954, will convince all TRUE TEXANS that there is a conspiracy by the Parr-Yarborough-CIO Machine to TAKE OVER TEXAS.

Remember the CIO-PARR link has been repeatedly denied by Ralph Yarborough.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT TEXAS

BARBED WIRE FENCE

In 1876, John W. Gates, a young drummer, sold barbed wire to the ranchers of Texas. In San Antonio the cattlemen laughed at him. In response to their jibes, Gates fenced in a city plaza and called for the "worst fence busters" of the herds. The cattle charged the wire as was expected but their hides were pierced by the barbs. They soon retired. Barbed wire came into use throughout the range area by 1883. Strife arose between cattlemen and fence-cutting became general. In some counties feeling ran so high that there was threat of civil warfare. An act of Legislature, together with the Texas Rangers, ended the strife.
