

Letters from Readers

Ed Note: The following letter was received in the mail Sunday morning:

"Dear Editor:
"It seems that your fear of federal control of the public schools because federal aid is accepted is entirely ungrounded.

"To a certain extent you are living from federal aid; the federal government has formerly subsidized the railroads for hauling the mail though I am not certain that it is still doing so.

"It might be revealing to find out from F. M. Wood just what percent of the ranch people are very grateful to the federal government for extending to them federal aid to enable them to survive the drought I would say that whatever business you do with those is federal aid profit.

"You would deny the school children adequate housing space because you would lose some control to the federal government. Yet President Eisenhower, the Republican who is a better Democrat than a Democrat, has assured the nation that there will be no federal control attached to federal aid for building adequate housing facilities for school children. This information of assurance to the public has been spread on every large newspaper in the United States. You do not have much confidence in the promise of the President who helped elect evidently of course, I can't say that I blame you for not having any confidence when he is just repeating what he is told to say by Sherman Adams. That man who does the speaking for another who makes the decisions can't be held responsible for what he says.

"By the way, what has been the report of the committee the President called to decide when the President is unable to perform his duties?"

"Sincerely yours,
Signed: Boss Ezelle
"Mrs. H. E. Ezelle

"P.S. I do not believe you have the courage to print this letter over my name. For one time you may listen till I finish."

After five weeks of headline making, three legislative investigating committees still are busy.

House committee looking into ICT's failure was to run until April 1 Senate committee to April 10. Recent additions to the committee's massive records:

1. Several former ICT directors denied having signed a document wiping out a $900,000 debt owed ICT by Jack Cage and Co. Shown photostats of such a document, they said it was not the instrument they signed.

2. Leaders in the Texas Federation of Labor called Ben Jack Cage, former manager of ICT, a "scoundrel". Union members had invested millions in the company.

3. A number of union members and officials told how they were paid by Cage to help advance the cause of ICT among labor members. One said he thought he was paid to keep to himself his belief that Cage was a "crook".

4. Max Wayne Ryehlik, son-in-law of former Insurance Commission Chairman Garland Smith, remembered an additional $9,860 he had received from a Ben Jack Cage affiliate. It made a total of $18,200 paid Ryehlik for his "job" without work.

5. House member investigating bribery charges questioned the former executive secretary of the Texas Naturopathic Association. But Albert D. Brown, who was with the organization back in '55 could give only estimates and guess on how TNA spent some $20,000 raised during the last session for "legislative education."

6. John McCully, labor union employee, had a difficult time accounting for his expenditures of union funds. In his operation of the union's publicity office, the Action Agency in Austin, he "accidentally" dropped a few political advertisements into ICT files. Big Push

INVITING THE UNDERTAKER-

State Capitol

to finish the session in 120 days. After that point, their pay ceases. Time is almost two-thirds gone. Multiple investigations have diverted a lot of time and energy. Important bills are stacked.

But a major milestone — passage of the general appropriations bill — is in sight. Senate committee approved it for floor action this week. House already has passed it.

Senate committee's version differs slightly. It includes a 10 per cent raise for lower-bracket state employees, 15 per cent for college teachers.

Wrapping up the big money bill will put the session over the hump in the minds of most members. Meanwhile, both houses are hacking at the small stuff. Special sessions have turned out local uncontested bills at the rate of one a minute.

Code of Ethics

Scandals and investigations put new impetus behind the administration-backed drive for a code of ethics and lobby registration act. But it hasn't made the subject much easier to agree on than in previous sessions. Objectors claim it isn't possible to pass a law making people honest.

House, nevertheless, passed a bill to third reading. It would require registration of persons paid to appear before state agencies. Officials would be prohibited from using their public office for private gain, accepting gifts, favors or services that might influence action, etc.

A recent Supreme Court decision held that a co-op could continue to serve customers in an area annexed by a city but could not add customers in that area.

Delay Granted

Physicians Life and Accident Ins. Co. has until April 11 to present a more favorable picture to the Insurance Commission.

Commission's show cause order alleged the firm's capital was impaired. Former Gov. Coke Stevenson, head of the company, said the management is "making progress" toward recovery of needed funds. He asked and was granted more time to prepare the case before the Commission.

Depositors Denied Preference

US Trust and Guaranty Co. creditors will have to "share and share alike".

At least that is the decision of Austin Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts. Depositors had brought suit asking for first claim. Severa contended the company's advertising, by Drew Pearson, led them to believe their funds were being held in "trust".

US Trust went bankrupt more than a year ago. Assets salvaged by the liquidator total a little more than $2,000,000. The claims against it add up to nearly $7,000,000.

Distribution of the assets may be held up further if depositors decide to appeal.

Utilities Contest

Private and cooperative utilities have moved the arena of their chronic combat from courts to Legislature.

A recent Supreme Court decision held that a co-op could continue to serve customers in an area annexed by a city but could not add customers in that area.

Co-ops are working for passage of a bill that would give them the right of expansion. It provoked hot debate before a Senate committee.

Private power company spokesmen said the co-ops were trying to go far beyond the original concept of the rural electrification program. Co-op attorney contended present restrictions would mean "slow death" to REA.

Bill was sent to subcommittee to work out compromise.

Water Bills Move

Piece by piece, the mammoth water conservation program is moving forward.

Key feature, the $200,000,000 bond program to help finance local conservation projects, went to the joint committee for final adjustments.

Senate committee gave approval to the next big item, another $200,000,000 bond issue. This would be used to buy water storage space in federal dams. Committee also approved a bill which would allow use of public storm and flood waters to recharge underground reservoirs.

Listen to Luke

We think he has made a good President — but that doesn't mean that we have to support every move he makes. When we think he is wrong we voice our disapproval. When his four-year 1.3 billion Federal school building effort failed last year he told a news conference he would try again this year. He reiterated his belief that "we got way behind in schools", and that the Federal government ought to help even though "it has not any proper role in the operation and in the general maintenance of our public school system". He said he felt the thing to do was to "get these buildings built, and then turn the whole thing back to the states and have nothing more to do with it."

Perhaps the President doesn't realize how that classroom shortage has shrunk since his aides began measuring it. HEW's first secretary, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, gave three different figures in 1954 and 1955, all upwards of 300,000, and in March 1955 revised the shortage estimate for the year 1959-60 from 407,000 to 176,000. This year Secretary Marion E. Folsom put the figure at 159,000 — which has been widely challenged.

However mislead, we are sure the President's heart is in the right place. An advisor, speaking of the school program is quoted as saying: "We went into it with tears in our eyes. The New Dealers would have done it with abandon."

But the extravagance aside, the result would be the same way. It can only mean Federal control of our schools, the loss of local control.

Historically, the Government never lets go!

TELEPHONE TALK

by Bob Montgomery, Manager

A LOOK AHEAD

This is the first opportunity I've had to talk with you the year, so I'd like to take time to look at 1957.

We at the telephone company are planning to make it a good year — even better than last year, when it comes to the speed, dependability, and value of your telephone service.

Last year we were proud to be able to furnish thirty-seven telephones more than in 1955 in Sanderson.

This year we can foresee additional expansion. Construction work is continuing for new businesses and homes, highway work is in progress west of town, and a gain in tourist and truck travel will surely result at the completion of the Pecos River Bridge.

All these are encouraging factors pointing toward growth in this area. And as Sanderson grows we, like other local businesses, stand ready and eager to grow with you.

It's our feeling that our most important job is to give you the kind of telephone service you want and need — in 1957 and the years ahead. So if there's anything we can do to make your service more pleasant and helpful, please don't hesitate to ask on us.

THREE FOR TWO'S A BARGAIN

Sanderson people made more out-of-town calls last year than in any previous year — a fact which speaks well of the value of our Long Distance service.

Many of you who made calls realized big savings, too, by placing your calls station-to-station, that way, you saved up to one-third, because you can make three station-to-station calls for about the price of two person-to-person calls.

Here's an example of what I mean. You can make three station-to-station calls from here to Fort Stockton for only $1.50. Two person-to-person calls to the same city will cost $1.70. That's using the bargain rates available every evening after six and all day Sunday.

This year, why not call station-to-station when you call Long Distance? You'll save money. And you'll save time, too, if you'll call by number.

KITCHEN HELPERS

There's a lot of truth in the saying, "The kitchen is the heart of the home." It's certainly true that a homemaker spends about as much time in the kitchen as in any other room in the house.

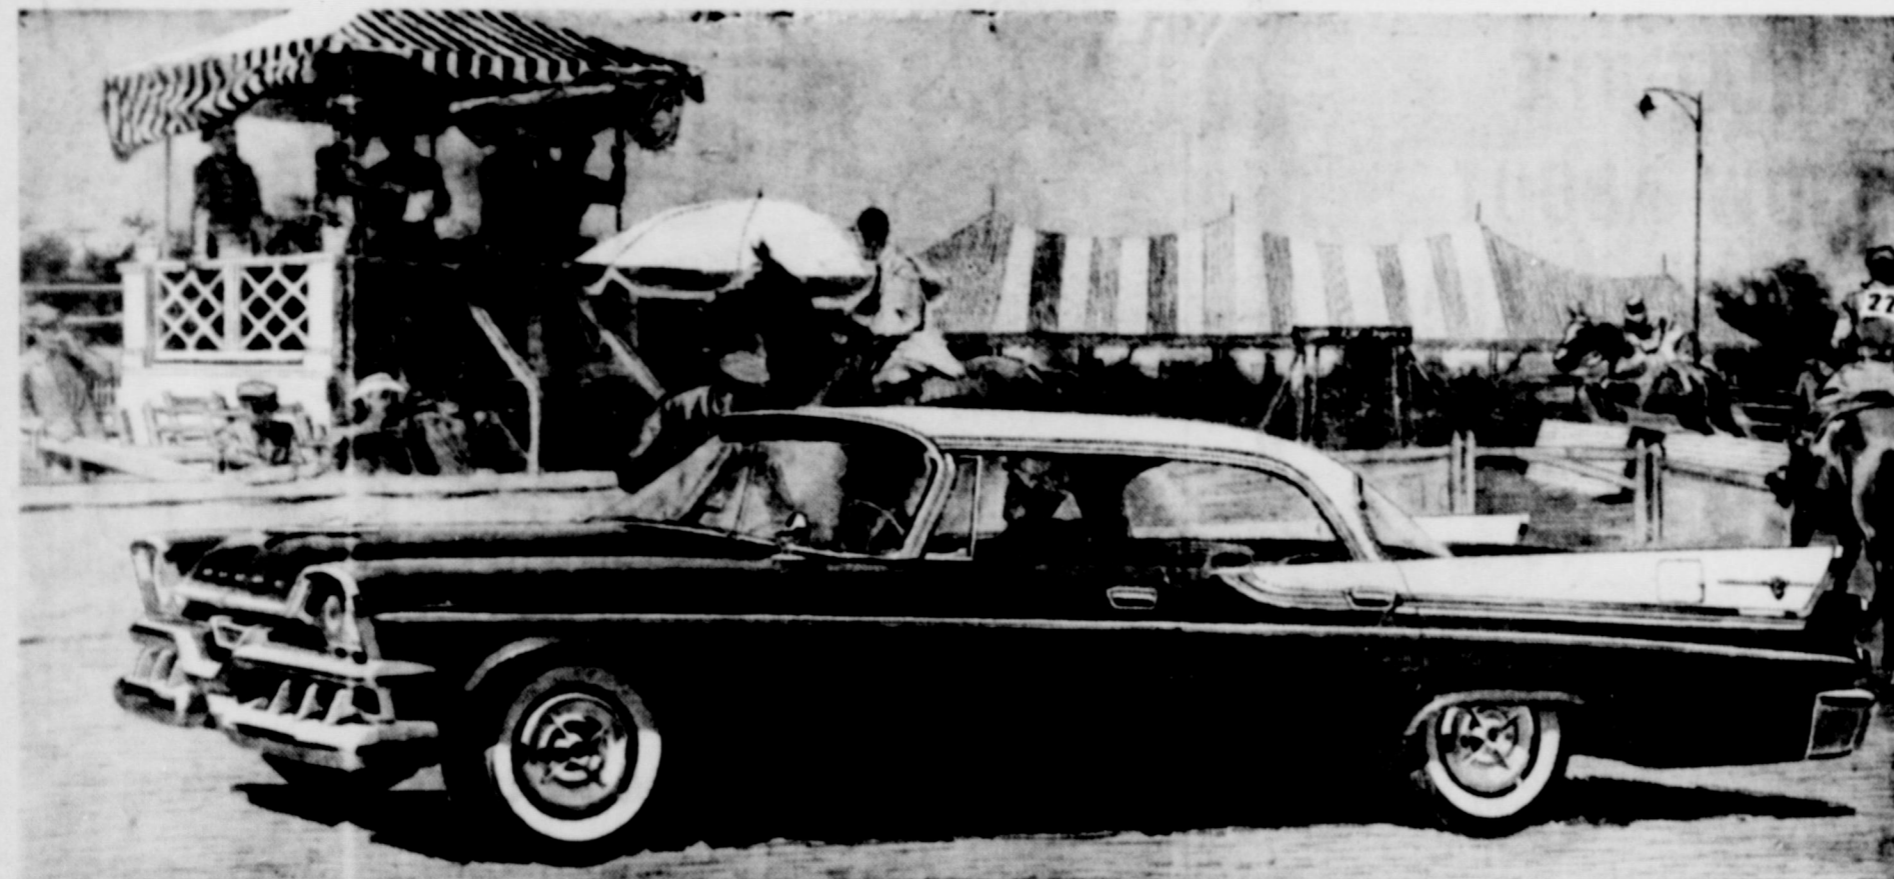

I guess that accounts for the popularity of some of the wonderful new "kitchen helpers," like dishwashers, waste disposals, and freezers. No wonder they're popular! Think of how much drudgery these conveniences save the homemaker.

There's another "kitchen helper" I'd like to mention that's growing in popularity, too. That's an additional telephone. Kitchen phones save time and steps for busy housewives, and make it easier to keep in touch with friends.

Additional telephone for any room in the house can be installed in cost — just $1.00 a month, plus tax and a small one-time installation charge. Just dial operator and ask for "the business office."
