uditorium at 11 a.m. Rev. Gene Medaris, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the evocation, Two hymns, "I Would Be True" and "Holy! Holy! Holy"! were sung by a choir composed of high school students and directed by Jack Enright.

Rev. J. W. Byrd read the Bible Choosing his text from Joshua 24, 14 and 15, Mr. Jackson asked the question, 'Have you thought about your freedome, your liberties which you enjoy in this country?" Continuing, he mentioned the freedoms of speech, the press, and religion, and concluding with Monday marks the opening of the freedom of choice, stated "The freedom of choice is not guaransponsored by the Methodist and teed by the Constitution of the United States, nor the Declara-Classes will begin at 3 p.m. and tion of Independence, but it is the most important freedom because, noon for a two-weeks' period. Moses' choice in dergarten, primary, junior and inhis leading the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage and his choice to serve the Lord God rather than other gods, resulted in the possession of the Promised Land by a remnant of Israelites after 40 years of wandering in the wilderness. Although Moses did not lead the Israelites into week that Governor Price Daniel Canaan, under the leadeship of had signed into law a bill which Joshua and Caleb, they were able to conquer and possess the land and settle there. Then came the day of choice when Joshua proclaimed "As for me and my house

ve will serve the Lord.' "The freedom of choice has al ways been the greatest freedom and it was given in the beginning when first Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden chose to eat of the tree of good and evil which they had been forbidden to do. Man has never been a robot but has always had the privilege of choice. Although Adam disobeyed God, He did not take the freedom f choice away. Along came Cain and Abel and Cain, in making the wrong choice had a curse placed upon him and his descendants after him. Luke, the physician, chose to be a physician but he also chose to serve God. So it is with all of you in choosing your profession or trade or avocation, no one is going to make you believe or trust in God but our eternal destination depends on our free dom of choice. Upon returning from his third missionary journney, Paul went to Jerusalem where he was arrested and accused of defilement. After being put in bonds and sent to Caesarea, he made his defense before Agrippa, the Roman governor and a politician, who like everyone, had tho freedom of choice to be a leader. 'Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian', he told Paul. 'Al most you persuade me to choose God,' Agrippa said but instead he chose to serve self. Choose ye this day whom ye will serve."

The choir sang "Now Is The Hour", before the benediction by Rev. James A. Wilshire, pastor of plane last Thursday night and the First Methodist Church.

The processional and recessional marches were played by Mrs. R. Wilkinson.

Sanderson Loses Bi-District Tilt To Rotan 10-2

The Sanderson Eagles lost their bi-district baseball game here on l Monday to the Rotan nine. The one-game play-off for the bi-district title put the Rotan team in the running for regional honors. Sanderson went to Rotan last wtek-end to play a two-out-ofthree series with their bi-district foes, but were rained out and the coaches agreed on a sudden-death one-game playoff for the title.

Fernando Vasquez lost his first conference game of the season. He went for three innings giving up six runs. Roland McDonald went to the mound for Vasquez and relinguished four runs.

Sanderson got only three hits in the ball game, the first coming in the sixth inning off of the Rotan starter Danny Ivy, who was relieved after the sixth by Ted Sanderson had six miscues fielding to three for Rotan.

The game Monday closed the current baseball season for the Sanderson Eagles. They have a season record of two losses and seven wins, including the bi-district game.

The Eagles will lost two graduating players this season, Armando Ochoa, catcher, and Roland McDonald, pitcher-outfielder.

Coach Gardon Harmon mentored the Eagle nine.

Deferred Grazing Program Clarified

The deferred grazing program recently enacted by Congress and signed by President Eisenhower on April 25 is not to be confused | Rancher Attacked with the "baby soil bank", according to local Soil Conservation District officials. The new program makes deferred grazing a practice in the National A.C.P. Handbook for states in the drouth area. The states then pick their ractices from the National Handbook and the County A.S.C. Committees pick practices from the State Handbook

County Committees may request "special practices" which are not listed in the State Handbook. It was under this provision that deferred grazing was set up as an A.C.P. practice in Terrell, Pecosi and Brewster Counties for 1957. The bill the President signed will not bring about any change er any new program because deferred grazing is already in the Terrell, Pecos, and Brewster County A.C.P. Handbooks.

Notaries Public To Renew Licenses June 1 - June 10

Secretary of State Zollie Steakley has announced that he will reappoint persons now holding notary public commissions but that such persons must re-qualify by the filing of a new oath and bond with the county clerk of his residence between June 1 and June 10, 1957

Steakley emphasized that no taries public should not send requests for reappointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires the county clerks to approve the notary bonds. Steakley further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a notary public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact Braves Beat Del Rio name and permanent address the applicant must be furnished the county clerk.

By Crazy Fox

the south of Sanderson was attacked by a "crazy" fox near his ranch home last Friday afternoon.

Shelton stated that he was out in the yard at the ranch and noticed a fox coming toward the house. His attention was attracted by flight and noise of chickens scared by the animal, but not be ing chased by it. The fox came right toward Shelton who picked up a piece of sotol stalk, the only weapon handy and available, and when the fox came close enough he hit it in the hind quarters as it went by. He said the blow turned the fox which then came right at him. He broke the sotol stalk in the first engagement and had nothing with which to defend himself. He said the fox was sluggish and he was able to dodge when the fox came at him. He called his dog and put him on the animal. This gave Shelton time to pick up a piece of 2x4, he said, about three feet long which he used to kill the fox. The fox got hold of his dog's hind leg and.

The dog was taken to a veter inary to begin a series of shots to prevent rabies. The dog is a young thoroughbred Collie and is learning fast in handling sheep and goats on the ranch, Shelton said.

Shelton stated that he was "certain" the fox was rabid, because of his actions and condition and Wednesday night following the his complete indifference to the Friendly Welcome For a Total Stranger!

He's a "stranger in these parts"-just passing through on his way to some distant destination. But you wouldn't know it to look at the wonderful welcome he receives as he brings his car to a silken stop and his day's travels to an end. For high on the hood of his motor car rides the beautiful crest of Cadillac-and hospitality just seems to follow a new Cadillac wherever it goes.

No man, you see, is ever without standing when he is in command of the "car of cars"

For it is a recognized fact that Cadillac owners -representing though they do such varying fields of endeavor and such widely separated parts of our world-also have a great deal in common.

Invariably they are people of marked personal achievement-who have won for themselves a considerable measure of respect and recognition. In brief, the driver's seat of the Cadillac car is the traditional dwelling place of the world's leading citizens. And people everywhere have found it safe to assume that whomsoever they behold at the wheel is a worthy member of this great and distinguished company.

Of course, this is but one of the satisfactions of Cadillac ownership . . . in addition to inspiring beauty, luxurious Fleetwood coachcraft, superlative performance and extraordinary value.

Have you as yet taken the wheel of a new 1957 Cadillac? If not, then you should visit your Cadillac dealer and spend an hour on the highway.

He'll be waiting for you with a "friendly welcome" of his own!
