The local survey is part of a nationwide project by the National Foundation to compile a roster of polio cases of all ages and degree of disability, regardless of date of onset.

The March of Dimes organization, having scored a tremendous victory in its war on polio, does not now propose to walk off and leave the wounded behind so long as help for them is possible.

Dove Plentiful For Shooters

Austin — It's time to draw the shotgun from the corner in the closet and wipe off the lint. The 1957 shooting season will begin Sunday noon Sept. 1, for mourning dove in the north zone.

The dove bag limit is 10 per day, with 10 in possession. Shooting is allowed from noon until sunset.

Under federal and state regulations all shotguns must be plugged to three-shell capacity. Shooting from vehicles or across the highways is prohibited.

The director issued warning to make arrangements with land owners for their hunts.

Mourning doves are plentiful now in every area. Unless there is a drastic change in weather conditions before Sept. 1, they are expected to remain in the local areas.

"Every safety precaution should be used," the director said. "Hunting season usually brings on several accidental deaths, due entirely to carelessness."

He also warned that all persons between the 17 and 65 need licenses when hunting outside their home counties. These licenses now are available from wardens and other authorized license dealers throughout the state.

Observations of local ranchmen and interested prospective dove shooters indicate a plentiful quantity of birds available for harvesting beginning September 1.

The birds found agreeable conditions here during the winter and spring and have raised a large quantity of young birds and, according to some ranchmen, are still nesting.

The scattered rains have furnished a good supply of feed for the birds and hopes are high for excellent hunting conditions by local nimrods.

Car Inspections Begin September 1

Inspection time has rolled around again for more than four million automobile and truck owners in Texas.

The inspection period has been lengthened this year under provision of a state law setting Sept. 1, 1957 until April 15, 1958 as the time in which all vehicles must be checked for mechanical defects.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, in announcing the inspection period recommended that every owner have his cars and trucks inspected at the beginning of the period. This, he said, will enable vehicle owners to obtain inspection stickers before the holidays and before the last minute "log jam" at inspection stations.

MRS. ODELL CARRUTHERS

Mrs. Odell (Pinky) Carruthers will be at home on Carruthers ranch when they return from their wedding trip to Albuquerque, N.M. and Denver, Colo.

Their marriage was Saturday evening at 7:30 in the First Methodist Church of Sanderson. Mrs. Carruthers and Mr. Roger Rose are the parents of the bride. Mrs. Baye Rose, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carruthers, Jr. are the parents of the bridegroom. All are Terrell County residents.

The wedding ceremony in the church was unusually beautiful Saturday evening. The rays of the setting sun were reflected in the art glass window behind the altar and illumination was provided by the seven-branched candelabra on each side and the lighted chandelier in the middle overhead. The white satin ribbons were draped to the floor baskets filled with white gladiolus, Brake fern, and healyptus leaves and arranged to each side.

The caddies were lighted by Mrs. Hogg and Buster Babb. Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson was at the organ for a prelude of music and to play the traditional wedding marches. She also provided accompaniment for Mrs. Pierce of Alpine to sing "O, Perfect Love", and "O, Rest In the Lord".

Rev. Kelley E. Scott, pastor, officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, D. E. Barber, of Andrews. Her waist-length gown was of porcelain white imported Florentine lace and silk illusion. The fitted bodice featured a high neckline with stand-up collar, the long sleeves ending in petal points. The skirt from the dropped waist line had a wide lace panel in front and softly gathered tiers of silk illusion to give a bouffant effect. A Mary Queen of Scots cap of Florentine lace edged with applied lace leaves held her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion.

Her bouquet of white carnations was atop the white Bible which she carried and which had been used by former brides of the family.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Don E. Barber of Andrews. Her gown of yellow net over yellow taffeta had a fitted bodice, bouffant skirt with panels attached at the sides, and wide sash of yellow ribbon with streamers and loops in the back. Her head-dress was of the yellow net and she carried a colonial bouquet of white mums backed with yellow starched lace.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Bert Bell, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jonella Robertson of Del Rio. Their gowns were of blue net over taffeta and identical to that of the matron of honor. Their head dresses were of blue net and blue lace and ribbons were used in their colonial bouquets.

Walter Carruthers of Carta Valley, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Charles Stegall and Jack Harrell.

The candle-lighters and the groomsmen also served as ushers.

A reception in the Legion Hall followed the wedding. Members of the Sanderson Roping Club of which the bridegroom is a member, provided a cart drawn by a donkey for the couple to ride from the church to the hall. Old shoes and cans were tied to the wheels and trailed from the back of the cart.

Mrs. L. M. Wooten, aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's book to register the guests.

The refreshment table was laid in an imported pointe de Venice lace cloth. The centerpiece was of white asters. The bride's chosen colors of blue and yellow were noted in the sugar-spun flowers which decorated the three-tiered cake encircled with ruffled white net. Mrs. Jack Deaton and Mrs. Reg Monroe, cousins of the bride, poured the punch and cut the cake.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue linen suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Carruthers, a graduate of the Del Rio High School, attended Trinity University in San Antonio and North Texas State College in Denton.

Mr. Carruthers is a graduate of the Sanderson High School. He is a member of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association and is associated with his father and brother in the raising of registered Rambouillet sheep.

AUSTIN — New faces, new jobs enter the Capitol scene as laws passed in the last Legislative session go into effect.

A consolidated Texas Securities Board swung into action with a statement by newly-appointed Chairman Maurice Bullock of Fort Stockton that "all doubts (about securities issues) will be resolved in favor of the buying public."

Also appointed to the board by Gov. Price Daniel were Jay A. Phillips of Houston and Pete Rodas of Emory. An attorney, Bullock is former president of the State Bar of Texas. Phillips is a certified public accountant, former president of the Texas Society of CAPs and present chairman of the State Board of Public Accountancy. Rodas is president of the First National Bank of Emory.

Board members selected William King to be acting securities commissioner, a full-time, $10,000-a-year job. He is a former assistant attorney general and had charge of securities in the secretary of state's office.

Approving or disapproving proposed issues of both general and insurance securities will constitute the prime duties of the new agency. Formerly, these functions were divided between the Insurance Department and Secretary of State's office. It also will supervise the licensing of securities dealers and salesmen.

Governor Daniel called the new law an "outstanding measure for protecting the public against fraud and swindling."

Youth Council
Frank M. Wilson of Waco will be chairman of the new Texas Youth Council.

Other members named by Daniel are Louis Henna of Round Rock and Robert Kneebone of Houston.

New agency replaces the old Youth Development Council. It will have charge of the three state correctional schools for young people and the Corsicans State Home, the Waco State Home, and the Blind, Deaf and Orphan School at Waco.

Wilson is a Waco attorney and instructor at Baylor University School of Law. Henna, a member of the old Youth Council, was one of the founders of the Baptist Children's Home in Round Rock. A banker, Kneebone has been active in youth work in Houston.

Short Shorts
Texas prison population increased 7.5 per cent last year for a total of 9,268 persons behind bars. National average increase was 2.2 per cent. National average is 102 prisoners per 100,000 population; Texas ratio is 106 per 100,000.

CARD OF THANKS

May we use this means of expressing to thoughtful friends our sincere appreciation for every kind consideration given us while I was in the hospital. The cards, notes, and flowers have brought cheer. We will always remember how much your kindness meant.
