LISTEN TO LUKE

We didn't know there were so many pick-up drivers in the country! And it seems that every one of them called us last weekend about the story we had on commercial licenses for pickup drivers.

We goofed on one portion of the story—concerning ranchmen who used farm plates on their pick-up and not clarifying statement further with limitations of 6,000 pounds gross weight on the ranchers' exemption.

Sorry the misinformation caused so much furor, and sorry the error caused so much stink. Sorry, too, that people thought we might have written the law! We are highway patrolmen, whom we have always considered our friends—and other peace officers—said something to us about writing such a story as a cautionary measure to local pickup owners. We certainly know nothing wrong with that and we wrote the story. We didn't know there was so much interest in the story. We probably would have gotten the full text of the law.

It has been taken care of this week, we hope to the full satisfaction of all our readers.

How many people misconstrue the law?

Remember publishing time again, such stories as warning motorists during heavy toll holiday periods. We don't remember making the statement that some Terrell County resident would be killed. We recall being responsible for those statistical figures which indicated the probability of heavy traffic death toll.

Our capacity as a newspaper has always pledged our support of all law enforcing agencies in helping to inform, enforce and enact the law we possibly can.

We are not in the legislative capacity, nor interpretive, nor do we want to be. In cooperation with the Texas Highway Patrol and all other law enforcing agencies, we pledge our continued support to help in any way to getting a message of warning, information or otherwise to the public.

Newspapers of the state all entered into a fight for safety over the state. The honor of the state nor most residents of the state are of Texas' second-place fatalities nor the high record within the state. Information and reminders in papers, it is hoped, will contribute to decrease such a record. The number of accidents. So there has been some progress.

In times law enforcement is the easiest thing in the world. Really when the people are educated to the benefits of the law enforcement.

Enforcement is always of a nature demanded by the people, and one way to help educate the people is by enlightening them through the printed word.

We have seen and read about where there was not such progress (Continued on page 6)

Swimming Pool for Sanderson Is Renewed Project for C of C

A swimming pool in Sanderson has again been taken under consideration by the Terrell County Chamber of Commerce at the regular meeting of the directors on Monday night at the courthouse.

Rain Clouds Miss This Area

Rain clouds and thunderheads have continued to evade this immediate area during the past few days and no rain has been reported near here for several weeks.

Heavy banks of clouds have, on several occasions, worked up from the west and northwest but leaving no moisture for the hot and parching range land.

Some clouds have been noted south of Sanderson in Mexico in the past several days.

Some ranchmen have not yet shipped their lambs but shipments are expected to be completed later in the month.

Some ranchmen have also reported selling off all of their stock to save feed bills during the coming fall and winter.

Some good range feed is noted in some parts of this area, while other portions are suffering from an extension of the drought or the beginning of another period of drought.

LL Mothers To Have Fund-Raising Sale

Mothers of the Little Leaguers and the Pony League teams will sponsor a benefit sale all day Saturday.

The ladies will offer the public both chicken and beef tamales, cakes and pies, coffee and soft drinks all day or until the food is sold, it was announced. The food and drinks will be served in the office of the Magnolia Seismograph crew, next to the Princess Theatre.

The ladies are working on a project to have lights installed at the field on the American Legion property in the eastern part of town. Funds are now in the bank and will be used as part of the project, but it is hoped that more can be added throughout the school term so that the lights will be available before play will begin next summer.

The public is invited and urged to assist in this program by supporting the sale Saturday.

Football coach Carlton Smith issued a summons this week to all boys interested in playing football to report at the gym on Monday, August 25. All returning lettermen are asked to report at 8 o'clock and all new aspirants are asked to report at 8:30.

There will be a twice daily practice—at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Pecos Redfish Show Success Of Transplant

Indications of success in transplanting a salt water fish species into an inland river came with a recent report of a redfish being taken from the Pecos River, according to the Director of Inland Fisheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

Caught by Bill Russell of Midland, the redfish weighed three and one-half pounds and was 21 inches long. This is one of a large number of fingerling redfish placed in the Pecos River near Imperial in 1956 to learn if a salt water fish could adapt to this inland body of water. The Pecos River has a high salt content due to the nature of its watershed.

"These fish have shown amazing growth," the director said. "It is doubtful that there will be reproduction because of improper habitat."

Federal aid project plans call for more transplants of redfish, but no fry have been found in any numbers along the coast as yet, the director said.

Antelope Crop Shows Big Gain In Trans-Pecos

Outlook for a good prong-horned antelope season in the Trans-Pecos area this year is very promising, according to Wildlife Restoration Director of the Game and Fish Commission.

Aerial surveys indicate an exceptional fawn crop. Many ranches over the area have had 100 to 125 per cent reproduction of the pronghorn herds, well over recent 50 to 60 per cent reproduction rates.

Persons desiring to hunt should immediately send their request for applications to the Chief Clerk of the Commission in Austin.

Range land is in the best shape in several years, P. B. Uzzell, wildlife biologist for the commission has been quoted as saying. He explained the winter snows and spring rains have improved vegetation which have enabled doe to rear more young.

There should be several trophy bucks also, according to the biologist stated. Uzzell said some well-developed horns have been observed. All conditions point to a good season and a better hunt, he added.

Hunting season for the antelope in the Trans-Pecos area was set at a recent meeting of the Commission. Extending from October 1 through 10, the season will consist of three separate hunts of three days each, Oct. 1-3, 5-7, and 8-10.

Counties in the Trans-Pecos include: Brewster, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Hudspeth, Pecos, and Presidio.

County Buys Building For Hospital-Clinic

The Commissioners' Court of Terrell County Monday approved the purchase of the building now occupied by Dr. Gene Richardson. The building is being rented to Dr. Richardson.

The building and lot were purchased at a price of $7,000 from Dr. John W. Pate of Alpine.

The county also is paying for the installation of partitions to go into the building.

Volunteer work has helped tremendously, according to R. S. Wilkinson, County Judge, who stated that volunteers doing various jobs of painting and cleaning had been the source of a great savings to the county in labor.

Some reception room furniture has been donated, according to Judge Wilkinson, and the building now is in need of an air conditioner.

Dr. Gene Richardson, operator of the hospital-clinic, stated that he is in the process of attempting to get the local unit approved for hospitalization insurance approval for the benefit of the local citizens. If such a move can be accomplished, he said, the local clinic will be of much greater service to the people in and near Sanderson.

Ranchers Exempt On License Law

Howard J. Colson, State Highway Patrolman, asked The Times to elaborate on the story of last week concerning operating a pick-up without a commercial operator's license. He said that clarification was necessary because of the number of questions being asked him.

He referred to the exemption noted in Sec. 4a of Article 6687b.

"A person operating a commercial motor vehicle, the gross weight of which does not exceed six thousand (6,000) pounds as that term is defined in Article 6675a-6 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, operated in the manner and bearing current farm registration plates as provided in Article 6675a-6a of the Revised Civil Statutes, who holds an operator's license."

Mr. Colson stated that his advice to the public concerning the law was not to confuse, but to caution, and his duty was not to interpret or legislate, but to enforce the law.

The law pertaining to pickups, with the exception of ranchers or farmers with farm registration, is as follows:

Art. 6687b-n — "Commercial Operator. Every person who is the driver of a motor vehicle designed or used for the transportation of property, including all vehicles used for delivery purposes, while said vehicle is being used for commercial purposes."

US90 Seal Coat Keeps Crews Busy

Topping of U.S. 90 through Sanderson has kept local maintenance crews busy for the past several weeks.

Seal coating was applied on the highway through Sanderson and subsequent hot weather has caused the tar to "bleed" excessively necessitating the addition of more chat to absorb the tar that has been coming through.

Later additions of small chat have been dusty and caused considerable discomfort to local residents and to merchants.

K. E. Dick, local maintenance foreman, stated that he was sorry for the inconvenience caused to so many people, but he was unable to control the "bleeding" in any other manner and it was just unfortunate circumstances.

The highway will have a well-packed and well-sealed roadbed if and when the weather subsides to permit the highway crew to stop the addition of more chat.

Rip-Roaring Western Coming Saturday

A rip-roaring adventure of the west, "Ride Out For Revenge," starring Rory Calhoun, Gloria Grahame, Lloyd Bridges, and Joanne Gilbert, is slated for Saturday at the Princess Theatre.

The picture tells through action and drama, the hate between white man and red man on the Great Plains in the 1880s, and how some people did their best to erase that hatred. The story is set in the Dakotas some 90 years ago when the army attempted to move all the Cheyennes from their ancestral hunting grounds in Oklahoma. Some resisted with a violence that exploded throughout the tinderbox west.

Calhoun plays the role of a rugged man of the west who believes one has to understand the Indians, and is willing to fight to prove his point. Miss Grahame plays the part of an embittered woman who has been made a widow by an Indian raid.

The film has an interesting story that is good entertainment for all the family, according to C. I. White manager of the local theatre.

PORK CHOP 'N' RUSSET SKILLET DINNER

4 medium Washington State Russet potatoes
4 loin pork chops, 1 inch thick
Salt and pepper
1 tbs. fat or oil
1 split clove garlic
1 cup water

2 bay leaves
3 whole cloves
1 tsp. marjoram
1 tbs. sugar
4 fresh tomatoes, quartered or 1 #303 can solid pack tomatoes

Sprinkle pork chops with salt and pepper. In hot fat in skillet, brown chops with garlic until rich golden brown on both sides, 15 to 20 mins. Remove garlic. Add water, spices and sugar to chops. Cook over low heat, covered, for 30 mins. While chops are cooking, peel Washington State Russets and cut into one inch cubes. Place tomatoes and potato cubes around pork chops and cook, covered, about 20 mins. longer, until potatoes are tender. Season with more salt, if needed. Makes 4 servings.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT BEE STINGS
By Dr. Paul F. MacLeod

Honey bees, bumble bees, hornets, wasps and yellow jackets all belong to the same family, and they all sting. The female, with the exception of the wasp, leaves her stinger with the victim.

- Remember:
- Scrape out the stinger with a small knife blade. Don't pull it out. You may cause poisonous fluid to enter the flesh.
 - Use baking soda paste, Unguentine or calamine lotion to allay the pain.
 - If a finger or toe is stung, wrap a rubber band around it above the sting and leave it there until the stinger has been removed (but not more than five minutes) to keep the poison from going farther.
 - Call a doctor if the victim is stung several times. A wasp or hornet can sting repeatedly.
 - Use ice packs or cold applications to help reduce the swelling and prevent absorption of toxin that may cause a severe reaction.

Caution: Anyone who has experienced severe reactions to a bee sting should consult a doctor. To avoid serious consequences if stung again, he should be desensitized or should have ephedrine or adrenaline immediately available.

good law enforcement, but we have never known a newspaper to cease advocating better law enforcement or respect for the law, regardless of the quality of law enforcement or respect.

Law abiding people are the happiest people in the world. Usually they are the best educated people, too.

The laws made by educated people are for the good of all the people, and usually there is some sound reasoning for having the law — that is to curtail the actions of those less informed or less educated, or with less respect for the law.

If everybody were willing to try to live a life with the utmost effort to do what's right toward their fellowman, there would never have been any laws.

But old or useless or unreasonable laws should be repealed legally and not ignored.
