SANDERSON, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1958

NUMBER 33

LISTEN TO LUKE

It looks like we might be experiencing another drouth. We have had three days without rain today.

Families are on every face as a result of recent rains. There are those who have had to suffer a discomfort because of the continued rainfall but they sure haven't been complaining.

It is easy to see the results of heavy rain and one wouldn't be so complacent about the inconvenience which might have been caused on account of the rains.

Grasses and grass have sprung up to feed and promise of much better feed conditions make for happiness all along the line. With irrigation operations on the move for more production, the condition of things looks better everywhere up and down the valley.

Terrell County has shown more than a desert in recent weeks. Construction of levees and plants for the irrigation of various mud counties at Dryden make that little community feel sure that there are to be better things in their way.

In all we have cause for optimism and a desire to put up a little more fight for the development of the things that we want and that are to come. More fighting is still the greatest need for this area. Families are being places to live and more are coming.

With the progress of the work done by the Terrell County Water Improvement District, we look like a good chance to get water supply needed for the benefit of the town. That will be an important step for the community and will increase the incentive for prospective builders.

Sander son can get 30 or 40 more good housing units it will no time at all before there is a demand for even more.

Pipe Line Survey Begun From Brown-Bassett

Survey work has begun for a pipe line from Brown-Bassett Field in eastern Terrell County to Puckett Field in southeasterly Fecos County.

The line will be put up for El Paso Natural Gas Co. instead of Trans-Western Pipeline Co. as was previously reported.

Only reports so far received are that the pipe line will be a 30-inch line to carry dry gas from the Brown-Bassett Field to the processing plant at Puckett Field for extracting the carbon dioxide from the gas prior to sending it on to the west coast for ultimate use by consumers.

Easment has been obtained for the line, according to reports, and air survey has been completed, with topographical survey to precede actual laying of the line.

Indications are, according to reports, that the line will go into Independence Canyon near the Brown-Bassett Field and follow the canyon to Puckett Field or to a point near Puckett Field.

No date has been available on the probably starting time for the laying of the pipe line, but it has been rumored that production from the Brown-Bassett Field will begin in 1959.

Protective Assn. For Ranchmen Being Talked

Plans are in the making for the formation of a Ranchmen's Protective Association by E. R. Searcy, he revealed this week. Searcy will not serve as deputy sheriff after October 1, he stated.

Ranchmen of this area have asserted interest in such an organization, according to Searcy, and he is contacting all ranchmen to ascertain their willingness or interest in participating in the organization.

Searcy stated that he has applied for a Special Ranger's Commission from the Department of Public Safety, which if granted, will give him life and property protecting authority in any county of the state.

He stated that the price for participation in the organization will be determined when he ascertains the number of interested or participating ranchmen.

He also stated that he would, if such an organization were formed, do all within his power to prevent any crimes of theft or destruction of livestock and other crimes detrimental to the ranchmen, and would also make every effort possible to apprehend any person guilty of such crimes.

Ranchmen are being mailed letters explaining plans for the organization and are requested to contact Searcy with their ideas and suggestions, as well as their opinions.

Vandalism Reported At Football Game Here Last Friday

Some vandalism was reported at the football game here last Friday night when Rankin was the guest team for the Eagles.

Cars which were parked near the men's rest rooms were robbed of gasoline and some Rankin spectators reported that their gasoline tank caps were also missing.

The light fixture in the men's rest room was jerked loose and it was thought that this was done to darken the area.

Many citizens have reported gasoline thefts from their cars in recent months and some gasoline tank caps have also been reported left off or taken away from the cars.

Eagles Lose 22-14 To Rankin Here

The Sander son Eagles lost the first home game of the season to the strong Rankin Red Devils last Friday night. The score was 22-14.

Sander son drew first blood in the first period when David Graham went 18 yards through the mud for a TD. Felix Valles converted the extra two points or a run.

Rankin bounced back into the game quickly when David Windham went 64 yards for their first score with Bill Lewis converting to tie up the score.

In the second quarter Brooks Bader went over from the 2-yard line and the conversion try failed, and Sander son led 14-8 at the half-time.

In the third period Windham broke clear again and went 63 yards to score and the conversion try failed, tying the score. The final Rankin score was by Boyd in the last quarter on a 2-yard run.

Mud and fumbles were the dominating factors in the game. There was no rain during the game, but slow drizzles for several days preceding had soaked the field and footing and the ball were excessively slippery.

Sander son will host the San Felipe Mustangs in a non-conference fray here Friday night with game time at 8 o'clock.

These two teams have always put out good competition and a competitive game is expected.

None of the Eagles received injuries which kept them out of practice since the Rankin game and the coaches, Carlton Smith and Gerald Petersen, stated they expected to be full strength on Friday night.

Austin — Teacher pay raises, an issue that has packed legislative galleries in past years, will probably return next session.

Base pay raises of almost $600 a year will be recommended to the legislature by the Hale-Aikin Committee. This group of 24 lawmakers and private citizens has spent almost two years in a massive study of ways to improve Texas public school program.

Its recommendations, now being readied for final presentation, would, for the most part, involve extra spending running into millions. Cost of moving up the floor on teacher salaries is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Advocates say better salaries are necessary to attract and hold enough good teachers. But even within the committee there were objections.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, co-chairman, voted against the raise recommendation. He said this, plus other proposals, would mean "about a quarter of a billion dollar tax bill."

Other committee members said they felt the problem was not a shortage of teachers, but unequal distribution. While small district may have trouble filling facilities, they said, some cities have a surplus.

Many legislators, elected on "economy in government" platforms, can be expected to echo Hale's sentiments. Since a huge state deficit is foreseen without raising the cost of anything, the squeeze could be especially acute.

Teachers, always a potent force because of their number, might be substantially reinforced by the current concern to "catch up with the Russians" in education. A head-on clash between these groups and the economy forces might well provide the flashiest fireworks of the next session.

No Thanks
Another Hale-Aikin Committee suggestion Texas should quit accepting federal money for the school lunch program and vocational education.

Federal funds now received are estimated at $9,000,000 a year.

Peavy Insurance Agency

Committee said local district and parents should pay for these services. It did recommend however, that federal aid be continued to districts where military installations bring in a large non-tax-paying attendance.

Other committee recommendations:
1. State should quit levying property tax, leave this source to local district.
2. Permanent School Fund should be kept as an endowment, not spent for current needs.
3. Counties, not state, should bear the cost of maintaining the county school superintendents' offices.

Brighter Weather
Texas Securities Board reviewed its first year as a separate state agency and declared the "investment climate" had improved under tougher regulation.

Securities Board was set up by the last Legislature by combining functions formerly handled partly by the Secretary of State's office, partly by the Insurance Department.

Texas' investment climate was "very poor" when the new law went into effect, said Board Chairman Maurice Bullock. The score for "tightening-up years": (1) A drop of 37 per cent in the number of licensed securities dealers, (2) investigation under way in 215 cases of possible securities law violation and (3) 75

revisions in the rate structure

cases referred to district attorneys over the state.

Bullock said the Board's aim was to weed out the wild promotion schemes so as to restore confidence in Texas securities, but not to be so zealous as to discourage legitimate offerings. Local Parks Urged Several parks now under the administration of the State Parks Board should logically be in the hands of local communities, according to State Auditor C. H. Caviness.

Caviness' audit report on the Parks Board noted that Gonzalez State Park had been turned over to the city of Gonzalez. Officers used on a community basis also could be community up created, he said.

Caviness also noted the addition of six new parks to the state system.

College Building Advancing
Twelve state colleges have sold $12,373,948 in building bonds — after adjusting to "buyers market" difficulties.

Representatives of the schools, meeting in Austin, first offered $17,500,000 worth of bonds on a 10-year payback basis, but got no offers. Several of the schools already had let contracts for construction, feeling sure the bonds would sell.

Bonds were then re-offered on an 8-year basis and partially sold. Remaining bonds may be offered later.

Water Needs Forecast
Demand for Texas surface water is expected to triple in the next 50 years. Prediction is by Harry P. Burleigh, area engineer for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

"Where will it all come from?" Burleigh says enough water is now being wasted to meet that demand. Problem of saving it is up to engineers to solve. Needed is a simple, low-cost means of capturing run-off water now flowing into the Gulf of Mexico and delivering it to points where it is needed.

Burleigh was one of 10 speakers at a water conference sponsored by Texas A&M College. Gov. Price Daniel praised the recently adopted statewide water program and urged against sliding back into apathy as a result of recent drought-breaking rains. Revision in the rate structure for city water users was proposed as one means of conservation. Lubbock hydrologist W. L. Broadhurst said that increasing the rate instead of decreasing it

Highway Work at Peak
Two-thirds the way through 1958 the State Highway Department already has placed as much highway construction work under contract as in the entire record-setting year of 1957.

Total for this year reached $224,000,000 this month. Low bids opened in a two-day tabulation for this month's proposed projects amounted to $28,669,432. Department spending on highways in the next three years is expected to reach one billion dollars. Highway Commission Chairman Marshall Formby said.

Roy Bogusch and his two sons, Jack and Mike, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Sand Dunes State Park near Monahans, camping out in the sand dunes. They went to an art exhibit in the park museum, rode horse back and took a jeep trip over the area.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM
MARTIN DE LEON
Builder of Liberty's Empire

Of the champions of freedom in Texas, none was more loyal and courageous than a wealthy Mexican aristocrat, Martin de Leon. But a life of luxury was not for him. He was an empire builder.

In 1805 he ventured north, and was so attracted by the wilderness of freedom this side of the Rio Grande that he became a Texas rancher. Then, with liberty for others his ideal, in 1824 he and a caravan of freedom-seeking Mexican families founded the colony of Victoria on the Guadalupe River. The settlement grew and prospered, and his colonists became Texans in every sense. The Texas revolution of 1836 drew them into the Texas army, staunch patriots, defenders of their chosen country. Today in historic, charming Victoria live many descendants of the original Mexican families, and some still own the same fertile acres granted their forefathers by Martin de Leon.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland, "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interests of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

Johnny's bright enough but his study light isn't. To prevent eyestrain and fatigue, he needs a 150-watt bulb in his study lamp. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light evenly over the work area and should be properly shaded to conceal the light source from his eyes. A diffusing bowl is recommended to soften the light and prevent glare. If the lamp has no diffusing bowl, a 150-watt white indirect bulb can be used. It has its own built-in diffuser.

The atom tests fuels for S. P.

One of the most important jobs we have at Southern Pacific is keeping our fleet of 2,000 diesel locomotives operating at peak efficiency. Recently we equipped two locomotives for standing tests with "hot" or radioactive piston rings. Geiger tubes count the particles of metal worn off the rings. As a result, we're now getting information in 6 to 8 hours that ordinary tests could give us only after 1 to 2 years. These tests, conducted jointly with Standard Oil Company of California, tell us the effects of different fuels, lubricants and improved engine parts on engine operation and wear.

Here is another example of how S. P. makes use of the latest developments in science to provide better, more dependable transportation—a complete, modern service that we'd like to have you try.

The 8-state Golden Empire served by Southern Pacific is one of the fastest-growing and most productive areas in the U. S. It is our job to match this vitality with dynamic, resourceful transportation service.

Last Friday night the Sanderson Eagles dropped a good game to the strong Rankin Red Devils after holding them to a tie for the first half. It was a good game. This week San Felipe will be here and everybody expects a good close game from the border team.

The greatest loss of the evening was to the reputation of the town caused by the pilfering of gas tank caps and gasoline from the cars of some of our visitors. The good people from Rankin will long remember those incidents with displeasure the same as local residents will remember similar incidents which happened on some of our out-of-town games.

We don't know how to prevent such occurrences, but we feel that if those guilty of such acts had more respect for other people's property and more respect for the law, they wouldn't happen.

And respect of that nature begins first at home. Young people — and we mean young — who are allowed to wander around on the streets at night until a late hour are in a good position to get into serious trouble.

An idle mind is still the devil's workshop.

As is noted in other columns of The Times, there are two mud companies opening houses in Dryden immediately. Also Charlie Hamrick is redoing some buildings he recently purchased and will have four 2-bedroom apartments ready for occupancy in the next few days. He is also making ready a 10-trailer court.

Dryden is trying to stay up with the possible growth by these actions and we wish success to them.

Mud Companies Open In Dryden

Two mud companies are expected to be open for business in a very few days in Dryden.

Permian Mud Co. is building a warehouse in Dryden and Milwaukee has leased one-half of the Hi-Way mercantile building for storage of their products.

It has been stated that Barold is expected to move into this area immediately with their products.

Each of the companies will have employees on duty 24 hours a day to furnish drilling mud to well sites. The number of new residents in Dryden as a result of the mud companies moving in is not known yet.

Mrs. Goldwire's Mother Dies Sept. 18

Mrs. Alice Gaither, mother of Mrs. J. H. Goldwire, died in a Lubbock hospital Thursday. Funeral services were held in this city Saturday afternoon.

Besides the daughter, survivors include a son, H. G. Gaither, of Lubbock, and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Gaither had been a frequent visitor in Sanderson. She had been in failing health for several months, spending the last five weeks of her life in a hospital in Lubbock.

Mrs. Goldwire had been with her mother most of the time during her illness, except for periods when Mrs. Gaither visited here.

Sage Blooming Adds Color To Area

"The sage in bloom is like perfume" over this area, and what's more it's a beautiful sight to see.

The sage — or senesa — over all of the county, has put out its lavender blossoms in full array to add a color seldom seen in such splendor as now.

Many of the older plants did not survive the drought and large bushes are not readily seen over the countryside. Most of the bushes are small or medium size.

There is a profusion of color in many of the draws, and on the lower slopes of the mountains. The leaves of the senesa have changed to a little livelier green color — though still pale — and add to the beauty of the rich lavender tone of the blooms which actually cover each and every limb of the bush.

West Texas has strange ways, indeed, of spreading its colors — and strange colors they are at times — to the eyes that will only look for beauty.

This country has greened up to an extent that would be almost unbelievable except to those who have seen it happen before. All of the brush and weeds visible to the top of the surrounding mountains are a deep and healthy green.
