Dependents Eligible For Aid Under S.S.

An important notice is enclosed with the social security checks delivered this month to the 200,000 disabled workers who are receiving monthly disability insurance benefits. This notice tells of a provision in the 1958 Amendments to the social security law under which supplementary dependent's benefits may be paid to certain members of his family.

Disability insurance benefits have been payable to severely disabled workers 50 to 65 years of age since July 1957. These disability payments are equal in amount to the monthly old-age insurance benefits the worker would receive if he were already 65 years of age, but the dependents of these workers have until now, not been eligible for payments.

Under the new amendments the disabled person's dependents will be paid the same benefits they would receive if he were 65 and drawing benefits as a retired worker. Benefits can be paid to any of his children who are under age 18 (or who have been totally disabled since before the 18th birthday), and to his wife, regardless of her age, if she has in her care children who are eligible for these dependent's benefits. If there is no child in the family eligible for benefits, the wife of a disabled person can qualify for benefits when she reaches 62.

It is estimated that about 180,000 dependents of disabled workers could start collecting benefits, beginning with a payment for the month of September 1958. Before payment can be made however, an application must be filed by or on behalf of the eligible dependent with the nearest social security office.

Acclaimed Hit Coming Here To Princess Theatre

One of the most lavish and spectacular pictures of all time, costing approximately $4,000,000 to produce, "The Vikings", will make its local debut here next Wednesday and Thursday at the Princess Theatre. The picture is an epic screen adaptation of the best-selling novel by Edison Marshall, and stars Kirk Douglas, Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine, and Janet Leigh.

A swashbuckling, authentically researched story of the blood-thirsty Norse warriors, "The Vikings" was filmed in Norway, Germany and France.

The immensity and grandeur of the Norwegian fjords were such that they almost dwarfed the thirty-acre sets that were

Hueys Take Over Turner Hotel Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. John Huey assumed management of the Turner Hotel Cafe last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Martin have been operating the cafe in recent months and he is now employed at Puckett Field.

The Hueys stated that they would continue to serve good food with the same friendly courteous service that has been available at the cafe. They are asking for the continued patronage of old customers and will appreciate new customers.

panied her sister, Mrs. Cash, on the trip and their mother, Mrs. Elma Riley, returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Dawson returned home Sunday night from a visit with relatives in Las Cruces, N.M., and El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Talbot of El Paso visited on the ranch with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bendele this week.

constructed for the picture. Even the vast number of extras hired for the tremendous battle scenes couldn't detract from the awe-inspiring countryside.

And, to make the largeness of the film even more apparent, no use was made of miniatures, process shots or other illusions — everything was photographed full-size.

No people in history have been as ferocious and wild as the Vikings in their heyday, which was about a thousand years ago. And the film pulls no punches in showing their games, feasts, and battles in scrupulously accurate and forceful detail.

A complete 30-acre replica of an ancient Viking village was constructed and Norwegian ship-builders re-created authentic full scale models of three Viking vessels modeled after the remains of the ancient Norse ship preserved at the Viking Museum in Oslo.

A fleet of 30 vessels was hired to service the production in Norway.

In France, at the coastal town of Dinard, a 1000-year-old castle was taken over for the climactic battle scenes set in ancient Britain.

No stranger to he-man roles, Douglas outdoes himself as Einar, the Viking leader. His work with the favorite weapon of the Norsemen, the broadaxe — is something to behold — not for the unduly squeamish.

Curtis has a real change of pace with his Viking characterization. He sports a beard through out the picture, and indulges in some rough sword work and knife play.

Ernest Borgnine as the great Viking chieftan, Ragnar, also wears a beard, but in Ernie's case no great damage is done to his original beauty. He plays the role of a rampaging, murderous Viking who numbers among his accomplishments the brutal ravishing of an English queen in the movie.

The show promises breathtaking beauty and excitement in its entirety, according to Carlton White, theatre manager, who recommends the picture for the entire family.

Tea Tuesday Honors New Brownie Scouts

A tea in Fellowship Hall Tuesday afternoon honored the members of the new first-year Brownie Scouts and their leaders. The plans and preparations for the tea and all of the work was done by the Girl Scouts under the supervision of the leaders. Ninety-one Girl Scouts, mothers, and guests were present.

Mrs. W. H. Dishman, chairman of the Neighborhood Association, introduced the members of the association and the Scout leaders, including the two new leaders, Mrs. W. G. Downie, and Mrs. James Mayfield.

The Scouts presented a short program which consisted of a playlet "Three Little Pigs", a song "Queen Mary", a hoola-hoop performance by four of the girls: Patricia Dishman, Susie Robinson, Laura Lee Allen, and Nikki Northcut.

Four Scouts: Pixie Mansfield, Susan Couch, Eloise Farley, and Vicki Allen, who attended one session of Girl Scout Camp at Mitre Peak this summer, told of their camp experience.

Refreshments were served from a tea table, covered in a dark green cloth trimmed in gold and silver ric-rac braid, and centered with a beautiful arrangement of autumn flowers. Golden punch and cookies were served. The other Scout leaders are Mmes. Jack Deaton, and Billy Hibbert, troop 2; Mrs. G. K. Ma chell and Mrs. L. A. McBe, of troop 3; Mmes. Don Allen and E. Farley of troop 4.

A son, Carlos, was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. M. Galvan, their third child. Birth weight was eight pounds and twelve ounces.

Whatever happened to the windmill??

Old "High Lonesome" has virtually-disappeared from the rural scene along with the wood stove, cistern and kerosene lamp, swept into obscurity by rural electrification. They are remnants of a romantic past. In their place is the new way of life that electricity brings.

No one can say what electrical marvels the future holds. But hundreds of thousands of rural Texans know that the Rural Electric Cooperatives they own, operate, and enjoy are equal to the task. With nearly a quarter century's experience behind them, these elements of democracy, if unhampered, can continue the great service for which they were founded: Rural Electrification

SANDERSON, TEXAS

Austin — In and out of the State Supreme Court flow many of the most controversial issues of the day. Public officials, large corporations and important persons often are involved in the cases, and the lives of many less-celebrated persons frequently are affected by the decisions.

After a two-months summer recess the high court reconvened this month and waded into a stock of disputes. Among interesting cases either decided or due to be decided are these:

Water Rights are Involved in a case filed by Southern Canal Co. of Houston against the State Water Board. Southern Canal wanted a permit to take 280,110 acre feet of water per year from the Trinity River for industrial use in the Houston area. Water Board refused the request, and the company appealed to the courts.

Upstream cities such as Dallas and Fort Worth had opposed the Houston company's request when it was before the Board. Oral arguments were centered on whether the courts have the right to review Water Board decisions. Supreme Court ruling will have implications for every person interested in the course of Texas water development.

Keeping rooms and setting up a church in a residential area were the cause of contention in two cases from Houston. In both cases certain property owners in university neighborhoods argued that other property owners were violating deed restrictions.

Lower courts ruled in favor of the room renters and church builders. Supreme Court agreed to review the roomers' case and denied a motion to force the lower court judge to move the student religious center.

Office seekers had their in-ring in the usual contests arising out of the year's elections. George Parr, a familiar figure in the courts, won the right to a new trial in his effort to be certified winner in a 1956 election for Duval County sheriff.

Laredo Attny. William Wright lost out in an attempt to force Sec'y of State Zollie Steakley to place his name on the general election ballot as a Constitution Party candidate for district judge. Steakley had refused on grounds Wright voted in the Democratic primary.

Myron Love, choice of Houston liberals, won out in a dispute over the legality of his selection as Democratic nominee for district judge. Harris County Executive Committee had ruled that no candidate filed in time for the office, and Love was nominated by the one-man District Executive Committee. Conservative forces had contested this method.

Damage suits, labor-management controversy also commanded judicial attention. A gas explosion in the basement of Dallas' Baker Hotel, back in 1946, is the basis for one suit in which 82 petitioners ask some $1,000,000 for deaths and injuries. High court sent it back to district court for new trial.

In Houston 311 workers of the AFL-CIO Office Employees Union picketed a construction project to

Fair to Show Posters of Good Old Days

Old timers will remember posters like these which will afford a nostalgic glimpse of America in the "good old days" before World War I in the big exhibit, POSTERS USA, at the 1958 State Fair of Texas, October 4 through 19. The 70 early-day American posters will be on exhibit in the Texas Hall of State.

protest the firing of one man. A lower court granted an injunction against the picketers, and the Supreme Court refused to interfere.

Better Traveling Days Ahead

Holding promise of better traveling days ahead is the 1961-62 interstate advance planning program announced by the State Highway Commission.

Commission authorized the preliminary engineering studies for 85 miles of new interstate highways, consisting of 45 projects in 22 counties. Included in the advance planning will be the completion of the gaps in the interstate highways between Dallas and Houston, Dallas and Texarkana and from Denton to Fort Worth to Hillsboro.

Cost of the program is foreseen as $36,500,000 for land purchases and $166,500,000 for construction.

Water Safety Law Due

Some 280,000 Texas boat owners will have to obtain licenses for their craft if a proposed Uniform Water Safety Act is enacted by the 1959 Legislature.

Representatives of sportsmen's organizations, trade associations and safety groups drafted the measure. It is to be introduced by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas.

State Highway Department would have the responsibility for registering boats. Enforcement of safety regulations would be the job of the state's various peace officers and game wardens.

Zoning — the restricting of skiing, racing, fishing, etc., to various areas, was omitted from the bill.

Republicans Jockey for Position

Texas Republicans got no help from Secretary of State Steakley in their efforts to break into the first column on the general election ballot.

In the past the Secretary of State's office has sent out the list of certified nominees, to counties, with the Democrats listed in the first column. GOP protested, demanding a drawing for position.

Steakley said he was not authorized to set up such a procedure. His office mailed out ballot forms this year, without comment. Democrats were in the first column on the forms.

Short Snorts

An Austin district court ordered forfeiture of the charter of Walker-Texas Investment Corp. which had refused to allow the Attorney General's staff to inspect its records. Walker-Texas operates five loan firms in Houston.

Fall pick-up in Texas business activity may gather momentum develop into a "decisive breakthrough," says the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Optimists see complete recovery from the recession by the end of 1959, pessimists, later in 1960.

State Board of Health has upped standards on fire prevention measures and space requirement for state-licensed nursing homes. There are 560 such homes in Texas. Board must approve all plans for new homes or re-modeling. W. E. (Bill) Arpe of Weslaco was cited by Gov. Price Daniel as Handicapped Man of the Year in (Continued to page 4)

Wedding Rites
Here Saturday

Judge R. S. Wilkinson officiated at the double-ring ceremony Saturday evening when Mrs. Martha L. Athas became the bride of Louis Anschutz, Jr. The wedding was in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. L. Lead- er, and the floral decorations were fall flowers. The bride wore a navy blue tulle suit with bolero jacket and blue blouse. Her corsage was of white carnations and lilies of the valley. Miss Carlene Fletcher, the maid of honor, wore a dress of green printed nylon with brown accessories. Her corsage was also white carnations. Milton Leubner of Giddings was the best man. Following the ceremony, cake and coffee were served at the informal reception. The white lin- en-covered table was centered with an arrangement of pink cor- allyne and asters. The three- tiered cake at one extremity was served by Mrs. Helen Graham. The couple will be at home in Giddings, leaving here Tuesday for a short wedding trip. The reception is employed by a construction crew for the Hum- phreys Co. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anschutz of Giddings. The bride has made her home here for the past two years and has been employed as bookkeep- er at the Community Public Service Co. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Anschutz of Giddings and her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Fletcher of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDougal, an un- cle and aunt of the bride, of Aus- tin; Mrs. E. W. Leubner of Gid- dings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ezelle went to Lake Jackson Wednesday to visit with her mother and other relatives for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Melugin, who had visited here for several weeks in the home of their son, Dr. K. T. Melugin, and family, returned to their home in Corpus Christi with the Ezelles.

Who in the world built this beauty ...
the only car with wide-track wheels?

EXCLUSIVELY YOURS—WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Wheels moved out 5 inches for the widest, steadiest stance in America—better cooling for engine and brakes—lower center of gravity for better grip on the road, safer cornering, smoother ride, easier handling. You get the most beautiful roadability you've ever known—in America's Number 1 Road Car!

PONTIAC! America's Number 1 Road Car!

Those exclusive Wide-Track Wheels sparked a chain reaction of wonderful new ideas: You can see the trim, tailored new look . . . it's inches lower without sacrificing roominess or road clearance. The first time you drive it, you'll discover this beauty handles city corners and clings to country curves in a way the conventional narrow-gauge cars can't hope to imitate. And the ride . . . the miraculous freedom from sway, dive and bounce . . . this is an experience in buoyant travel that you won't believe—until you try it.

But there's still more to the new Pontiac to stamp it as the big change for '59:

Vista-lounge interiors with full 360-degree visibility . . . seats actually wider than a sofa . . . Air-Cooled True-Contour Brakes for smooth, effortless control, stop after stop after stop.

The industry's most advanced V-8, Pontiac's Tempest 420, gives you spectacular new responsiveness. And there's a new companion power plant, the Tempest 420E, that delivers phenomenal extra mileage—and does it on regular octane gas!

Come see why no other car can possibly be so new as the new Pontiac—three series: magnificent Bonneville, dramatic Star Chief and brilliant new Catalina.

See Ginger Rogers on the Pontiac Star Parade, Wednesday, Oct. 15th, CBS-TV.

TELEPHONE TALK

by Randy Cooper, Manager

I have a couple of suggestions I'd like to pass on to you folks to make your Long Distance service speedier and more accurate. When you are placing a Long Distance call be sure and tell the operator the complete number of the telephone you're calling like "Wilson 3-2525" and be sure to give her your complete tele- phone number like "Diamond 5-2261." You know many people think it's sufficient to give the operator just the numbers of their telephone. They leave off the central office name or prefix. This makes it kind of tough on the operators who are handling calls from many different towns for all parts of the world. As a result they can't give you the fast speedy service that you want. Giving your telephone number without the prefix is sort of like giving your address without the street name.

You see, the prefix or central office name is part of a "cod- ed" routing which our Long Distance switching machines recog- nize. When the operator dials that prefix into the equipment, the machine can then tell where the call is supposed to go. That's why it's so necessary that you give the full number in the distant city when you're placing an out-of-town call. And at the same time the operator needs the prefix and the numbers from the telephone you're calling from in order to make a correct record of the call as required by the Federal Communications Commis- sion. These details may seem small — but they're important to you because they help us give you better Long Distance service.

For Husbands Only
I suspect some wives will sneak a peek at this simply because it says, "For Husbands Only". But just this once I'd like to have man-to-man talk with all husbands.

About this time of year — halfway between summer vacations and Christmas — things settle down and your wife is probably doing a bit of dreaming. Maybe it's that trip you've always plan- ned to take, or a new house, or even a sports car.

Dreaming's fine but it usually takes a lot of years to make a dream come true. However, little dreams take less time. In fact, just a minute or two.

So here's my hint for husbands. Order an extension phone in color for the bedroom. I'll guarantee that it will perk up your wife's morale like a new hairdo or a new hat. Even better, it will make a hero out of you.

Just call the telephone business office today. A service rep- resentative will help you pick the right color.

It's Real Family Fun
Sunday is a real family day.

Many of us have our families around us, and we spend the day going to church, relaxing, chatting, just doing things togeth- er.

However, some people have members of their families living away from home — either away at college or married sons or daughters living in another part of the country.

There's really no reason to leave them out of the happy Sun- day get-togethers. Just pick up the telephone and make a long distance call. That way, Sunday is fun for everyone in the fam- ily.

Why not this Sunday? You'll surprise the "out-of-towners" and have a lot of fun on your end of the line, too.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
