LISTEN TO LUKE

It is good to see the outlook and words of encouragement by business men of town, and to see and among the people on streets, to see the many new things that are in town.

Things are happening in and around Sanderson that are entirely new to the citizens here.

See daily concrete evidence of the growth of the town and it is encouraging to notice the way the citizens here are accepting the growth. We are grateful that the growth is slow and has been difficult for us, at times to find housing facilities for people who came here, and at times there were no places to be found for people who wanted to move here.

We have heard rumors of a big project and it is only up to this point, but it is being planned.

There are three or four houses in the final stages of completion and plans are under way for the construction of other houses here.

There has been little growth in the business district, however, only an increase in some of the inventory of some of the stores.

Most of the merchants of town are busier than ever before, with many being only that there are more people here.

Sanderson lost some residents last week when the General Geological crew moved to the Panhandle section of Texas. We are sure that they will return in spring for more exploration in this area.

The town gained the drilling of one of the wells in the area a week ago and they will be here for an indefinite period. There have been an abundance of such calibre of citizens any town would be proud to have. They have taken their place in the community and quiet and respectable citizens taking part in the various activities of the community.

Some of them have boasted of the kindness of the community and have reciprocated in every way they know.

Gene Cooke, president of the board of directors for the Terrell Water Improvement District No. 1, reports that the engineer's report of appraisal on the district is due any day now. That the hearing on exclusion of the district will be forthcoming as soon as the wheels of the district can turn out the details.

The report of the engineers will be published, in detail if time will permit, or digested for the information of the voters, if possible.

Following the exclusion hearing will be the presentation of a proposal to the voters to buy the water utility on a bond-financed basis.

There is no telling, at this time, whether a vote will be had, but details will have to be worked out, and those wheels may turn slowly.

There is no one who wants to be in or be rushed in to decide on this issue without the revelation of all pertinent facts surrounding the issue and to hear all the facts.

So long and tedious work for board members to work out details and it will be a tedious job for us in publishing the information, to be sure that all the details will be brought out, without reservation at the time, that such a proposal be carried by a large majority, up to right now, we don't go on record as favoring purchase 100 per cent, knowing what we know now, and based on the opinion that we are forming the importance of a step.

Ten Indictments Issued By Grand Jury This Week

Ten indictments were issued by the Terrell County Grand Jury here Wednesday. District Judge Roger Thurmond, District Attorney Douglas A. Newton and Court Reporter Mrs. Belle Sutherland, all of Del Rio, were here for the grand jury session.

Cloudy Skies, Balmey Weather All This Week

Cloudy skies and balmey temperatures have prevailed all week long in this immediate vicinity. There has been some drizzle but little moisture has resulted.

Nights have been foggy with some moisture left on the ground from the fog and heavy dew. No frost has been reported this week in this immediate area.

Temperatures have ranged from a low in the mid-40s up at night with most of the days being "light-jacket" weather.

Pioneer Resident, Robert L. Doak Buried Monday

Robert L. Doak, 84, of San Antonio died in a hospital in that city last Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday with interment in San Antonio.

Survivors include two sons, Theo Doak, of Stockton, Calif., Robert L. Doak, Jr., of San Antonio; a daughter Mrs. Edgar G. Carvey of San Antonio; also two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. Doak and his late wife were pioneer Terrell County ranchers, ranching in the Dryden area and also operating a hotel in Dryden.

Ranchers Promote Wool, Lamb Sales

Sheepmen in this area, as well as throughout the nation, have an interest in a self-help program of promotion and advertising on lamb and wool that is presently being conducted by the American Sheep Producers Council, headquartered in Denver, Colo.

This unique program on the part of sheep owners is an attempt to expand markets for their products — lamb and wool — and provide a more stable income. As one sheepman said: "It is time that the sheep industry builds on the solid foundation of good markets just as any other business attempts to do. No one will do it for us," he added.

The program is financed by a deduction from payments made to sheepmen and sheep feeders under the National Wool Act of 1954. Deductions for promotion and advertising made by local ASC offices amount to one cent per pound of wool marketed and five cents per ewe of lamb marketed. This adds up to approximately $2½ million annually for the promotion program.

The lamb program is concentrated in 19 major metropolitan areas across the nation and includes advertising in newspapers, radio and television, plus a merchandising program designed to increase interest in lamb among packers and retailers. Wool, unlike lamb, is used nationwide and advertising on wool is conducted in national consumer magazines.

That the program of the American Sheep Producers Council is effective is evidenced by a definite stabilizing of average prices for lambs in the last two years. In addition, the figures on sheep population released by the US DA indicated a 3 per cent increase in stock sheep numbers from 1957 to 1958.

Eagles Dumped From District Title Race In Loss To Fabens By 20-14 Game There

The Sanderson Eagles lost the chance for a district title last Friday night when they lost their game to Fabens 20-14. The game was played in Fabens.

The contest was won in the fourth quarter on two TD passes. Fabens received the opening kickoff and went deep into the Eagle territory. They lost the ball on downs and Sanderson moved the ball 90 yards for the first TD. David Graham took the ball over from the 3-yard line. The conversion attempt failed.

The first Fabens score came on a 4 yard run after Sanderson had fumbled the ball and lost it at that point. Their conversion was good.

The second half was scoreless and the half-time score was 8-6 in favor of Fabens.

Last Eagle Grid Game of Current Season To Be Played Here Friday Against Marfa

The last football game for the 1958 season for the Sanderson Eagles will be played on the local field Friday night at 8 o'clock against the Marfa Shorthorns in a conference game.

There is no title at stake in the game since last week's loss to Fabens by the Eagles.

Fans are promised an exciting game Friday night and are urged to come out and watch the Eagles in their last fray of the season.

Girls Play Here In Cage Games Tuesday Night

A large crowd in the local gym saw about 45 Sanderson girls in action on the hardwood when the girls from Comstock came here to play in practice games Tuesday evening.

The Roadrunners — local girls' cage team — was divided into two groups, freshmen and above, for the two games.

The freshmen girls, who had their first competition in basketball Tuesday night, showed up well and furnished a real thriller for local cage fans. The game went into overtime and Sanderson was on the top side of the score after the overtime.

In the bigger Roadrunners' game, the local girls walked off with the score.

All of the girls who are going out for basketball had an opportunity to play in the games.

The girls are coached by Y. F. Bowley and Miss Zelma Strickland, physical education teacher.

The girls have been working out since November 1 and they are all showing lots of enthusiasm in their efforts to gain a place on the teams.

The coaches stated that they were well pleased with the attitude of the girls and hoped to produce some interesting and exciting competition in the girls' games during the coming season.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

JUDGE ROY BEAN

Defender of Liberty and Justice for All

Judge Roy Bean, Texan by choice and famous as "Law West of the Pecos," not only believed in and fought for freedom... he lived it, ignored with magnificent unconcern the conventionalities of his times... and dealt out considerable measures of liberty to his fellow citizens when he had the power to do so. Originally a Kentuckian, he drifted West to fill several adventurous and romantic years... with duels, jails, escapes, prosperity, and service as a Southern irregular in New Mexico during the Civil War. Then... Texas, as a freighter, butcher, wood contractor, saloon keeper in San Antonio. There his home neighborhood on Flores Street is still sometimes called "Beanville." His schemes for raising money, winning lawsuits and avoiding payment of rent gave rise to a wealth of legend. In 1882 financial and domestic difficulties indicated a new base of operations... elsewhere.

Bean departed westward, to follow the grading camps of the Sunset Railroad builders with a profitable tent saloon. Near Vinegaroon, across the Pecos, he settled down... where he later named a small town Langtry and made it famous. As Langtry's Justice of the Peace, he adopted the title of "Law West of the Pecos"... and made the title stick.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland... "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.
