The season of the "hard luck story" is in full swing.

Legislative committees having to do with taxing and spending are in almost constant sessions. On the one hand they hear from the state agencies that want more money — of their dire needs, of the gloomy future that awaits the state if their programs are underfinanced.

Equally mournful are the stories of those who would be the targets of new taxes. It would be like putting up a "Keep Out of Texas" sign for new business; and accompanying prosperity, say many business and civic leaders of the sharp new tax bites. Texas communities trying to build up their areas by bringing in money-making enterprises would have the rug pulled out from under them, say the tax critics.

In this arena of clashing viewpoints, the legislators must serve as both judge and jury. Few lawmakers expect to collect any nose-gays for their efforts — no matter how sincere or well-considered. Some expect they may have to displease both groups — by cutting spending requests and raising taxes — all in one woeful session.

Bank To Business

As expected, businesses, large and small, take a dim view of Gov. Daniel's proposal to increase corporation franchise taxes.

Industry spokesmen told of the probable increases of from 50 to 250 per cent in the amount they would have to pay. They complained, too, that they'd have to pay a tax whether they were making money or not, since the tax would be on capital, rather than income.

Rep. J. E. Wintree of Houston, sponsor of the bill, told the business representatives, in effect, "It's this or something else".

UT Pleads Case

University of Texas "will sink back into mediocrity," declared exes and officials, unless the school gets a better appropriation deal than that proposed by the Legislative Budget Board.

University officials asked for a two-year appropriation of about $34,066,667. Budget Board recommended $27,920,524.

Dr. Logan Wilson told the House Appropriations Committee that people seemed willing to pay broad-based taxes for highways.

Why not for higher education? Herman Jones, Austin attorney and spokesman for alumni, emphasized the importance of improved education to this country's position in international affairs. "I don't want it put in the history books that this generation kept the budget low and let the nation die," said Jones.

UT officials also said they would be opposed to establishing a third medical branch — at San Antonio, Austin, or elsewhere — until they have gotten enough money to make "first class" the existing Dallas and Galveston branches.

Prison Problems

Even more impressed are the pleas of those concerned with appropriations for the Department of Corrections.

Texas Prison System is operated on about half the national average cost per inmate, says Supt. O. B. Ellis. For some years Board members have been warning of dangerously overcrowded conditions, and the need for additional buildings.

A slash in funds and personnel as proposed by the Legislative Budget Board, would bring sheer ruin to the bulging prisons in Ellis' view.

Prison System has an even more immediate pinch in that it hasn't money to finish out this fiscal year. It had a crop failure last year, when floods wiped out cotton on the prison farms.

Mrs. H. E. Ezelle Hostess For Bridge On Wednesday

A color scheme of red and white was used in carrying out a Valentine motif when Mrs. H. E. Ezelle entertained with a bridge-luncheon at her home Wednesday.

A large red satin heart surrounded by red and white flowers, centered the dining table covered in a white cloth. A red rose and gold leaves decorated the heart, which was pierced with a gold arrow flanked by red tapers.

Red hearts formed place mats on the quartet tables which were centered with small vases of spring flowers around which were grouped Valentines.

Morning-Chevy panel hustles over causeway to St. Petersburg

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 387 miles a day . . . runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light-, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevies of all sizes are turning to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!

If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

McPherson-Bentley Wedding Sunday in San Antonio

Miss Mary Jane Bentley and Sgt. Daryl E. McPherson were united in marriage Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the post chapel at Brooks Air Force Base in San Antonio. Chaplain Peden officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

Arrangements of white gladioli decorated the chapel which was illuminated by white candles in two large candelabra arranged to each side. The candles were lighted by Airman Williams.

Wills Harris was at the organ for the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Francis Mansfield of Sander- son, the bride wore a gown of white lace over taffeta, the skirt fashioned with a long train. The round neck of the fitted bodice was buttoned in the back and outlined in seed pearls and the long sleeves formed petal points at her hands. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearlized flowers. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with a center corsage of carnations.

For the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue" the bride wore a locket which her late grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Mansfield, had received as a gift from her bridegroom and had worn at her wedding, a blue garter, and a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Roy Powell of San Antonio was the matron of honor. With her strapless harem puff dresses of pink nylon chiffon, she wore a stole of matching material and a nose-length veil of pink net attached to a pink tiara. She carried pink carnations.

Miss Eva Bentley, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, her gown of blue nylon chiffon was identical to the one worn by the matron of honor and she carried pink carnations.

Sgt. Roy Powell of San Antonio was the best man and Charles Bentley, brother of the bride, groomsman. A-2c Kermit Rose and A-2c James Reznor were ushers.

Following the wedding, there was a reception in the NCO Club. The bouquets of the fem-

... members of the bridal party decorated the table where the bridal cake was served with punch after the bride and groom had cut the first slice.

The table holding the wedding gifts was covered in a white cloth and arranged to one side.

The members of the families of the bride and groom later went to the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Powell for an informal gathering.

Sgt. and Mrs. McPherson will reside in San Antonio until Mar 10 when they will visit here and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McPherson of Decatur City, Iowa, before Sgt. McPherson leaves for a tour of duty in Japan, his bride planning to join him there later.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. H. C. Rock, is a graduate of the Sanderson High School with the class of 1957. She completed her studies at a beautician's school in San Antonio where she has been employed for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Rock, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Winnie Mansfield of Del Rio, attended the wedding. Mrs. Rock remained in San Antonio to visit with her son and daughter, Charles and Eva Bentley, before returning to Sanderson.

Mrs. James Kerr Hostess Wednesday At Bridge-Luncheon

The members of the Wednesday Bridge Club and three guests were entertained at a luncheon this week in the home of Mrs. James Kerr.

In the card games which followed the luncheon, high score and slam prizes went to Mrs. Bustin Canon, and second high and slam to Mrs. Roger Rose.

Also present were Mmes. W. R. Stumberg, R. S. Wilkinson, Herbert Brown, J. T. Williams, F. M. Wood, S. L. Stumberg, W. W. Sudduth, John Reininger, G. E. Babb and Edward Kerr.

A profusion of violets, narcissus and daffodils decorated the party rooms.

Mrs. Novis McElroy and son, Bruce, are occupying the Underwood rent house at 416 School St. They had been residing with her mother, Mrs. C. H. White.

Baptist W.M.S. Honors Seniors At Banquet Monday

The members of the senior class of the Sanderson High School were honored at a banquet served Monday evening in the band hall. The members of the Womans Missionary Society of the Baptist Church were hostesses for the banquet which they planned, prepared and served.

"An Enchanted Garden" was the theme for the banquet. The guests entered the hall under an arched trellis covered in roses and walked down a garden path of rocks, to a pool. Burning candles were on lily pads floating in the pool with lilies also blooming there. A large tree sprayed in silver was beside the pool. White roses were in the tree and white birds sat on silvered bird's nests. All were dusted in glitter.

The U-shaped table, covered in white cloths, was decorated in arrangements of spring flowers. Silvered styrafoam balls provided the holders for green and pink candles decorated in red and green rosebuds. The menu and program were printed in flower folders. Nut cups were waxed flowers and a tracing of ivy outlined the edges of the napkins. Miniature garden chairs held the place cards which were decorated in tiny flowers. Chinese lanterns covered the lights to provide a soft glow for the garden scene.

Doyal Strange was master of ceremonies. Following the invocation by Rev. Ir. L. Richardson, Mrs. L. H. Lemons, president of the W.M.S., extended the welcome and Miss Peggie Cooke gave the response.

"Tea for Two" was sung by a quartet composed of Travis Williams, David Hardgrave, Vicki and Sandra Rogers. Elton Carroll gave a musical reading, "My Happiness" was sung by a trio composed of Mmes. Jack Turner, Marvin Wood and Charles Baker. Mrs. L. D. Booker, Jr., played the piano accompaniment for the musical numbers and dinner music was provided by her and Mrs. Charles Baker.

Rev. Richardson stressed Christian education in the address which he made to the guests.

Besides the seniors, other guests included Mrs. W. H. Savage, class sponsor, Mr. Savage, Mrs. M. F. Bader, and Mrs. Olivia Salinas, room mothers; Supt. M. F. Bader, and Principal and Mrs. A. J. Riess.

Latin-American W.S.C.S. Has Mother-Daughter Banquet

The annual Mother and Daughter Banquet was held by the W.S.C.S. of the Latin-American Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at the parsonage.

Present for the occasion were about 50 mothers and daughters.

Two awards were presented by the president, Mrs. Ramona Moreno: Mrs. Hortencia Arredondo for being the oldest active member of the society and Mrs. Basilia Adams for being the most recent active member.

Rev. Noe Montez spoke to the group on the banquet theme "The Christian Life, Pearl of Great Price". Mrs. Montez led the devotional.

Time was when spring made us think all sorts of thoughts, but now the thoughts are all concerning the improvements we planned in and around the yard at home, the beauty it will reflect when such improvements are made and the amount of work that will be attached to it.
Weed pulling, lawn mowing, planting, digging, spraying, trimming, watering — you don't have to remind us of our age.

Things just keep happening in Terrell County, so fast, it seems that we are not able to get it all into our thick heads, but maybe it's just as well.
Now another gasser has come in, and we haven't even been able to visualize the limit of possibilities with what we already had.

We have heard stories all our lives about Texans being full of air, but now we know it was gas. Such a tremendous thing as the potentialities that loom before us leave us spell-bound.

'59 MERCURY Planned for People

Mercury's new beauty is planned for people... makes room for 6, not just 4!

Here's proof you needn't sacrifice comfort for beauty. Unlike most '59 cars, Mercury is beautifully built for roominess. For instance: the hump on the floor has been cut in half, giving the middle rider more leg room... and a thicker, softer cushion. Mercury has the roomiest passenger compartment of all. Has the widest doors. Has the most visibility. Yes, you're comfortably fixed... in a Mercury.
