TEXAS LAWYERS
Ranger Captain Bill McDonald
"No man in the wrong can stand up against a fellow that's in the right and keeps on comin' "

A Texas Ranger, tradition has it, must ride like a Mexican, trail like an Indian, shoot like a Tennessean and fight like a devil. William Jesse McDonald was just such a man. He was the lone lawman who answered the call for a company of Rangers with, "You ain't got but one mob, have you?" Born in "Bloody Kemper" County, Mississippi, 1852, McDonald's first 33 years were restless, roving. But on the rolling plains of Hardeman county in 1885, he came into his own. As Deputy Sheriff he established a reputation for fearless law enforcement, expert marksmanship and lightning quick disarming of opponents. Soon he was a special Ranger, then a U. S. Deputy Marshal — and the McDonald legend was a-building. Governor Hogg made him Captain of Co. B, Frontier Battalion, in 1891. And it was Bill McDonald who was chosen to guard and go wolf hunting with President Teddy Roosevelt in 1905. Later he guarded Woodrow Wilson on a trip to Texas. The salty-talking Captain Bill delighted them both. With a good fighting Scots name, he had a fine face lined with sun, wind and character, mild blue eyes, soft voice — and a "suddenness" that made him irresistible to friend or enemy. Since 1914 Ranger Captain Bill McDonald has been at peace — in Quasah Cemetery.

Respected and honored, the Texas lawman today still safeguards our lives and liberty. And in this vigorous and freedom minded homeland, where "Beer Belongs," the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials.
