About Half of Voter Potential Pays Poll Taxes

About half of the voting potential of Terrell County has paid poll taxes for the current year, according to Mrs. Tol Murrah, deputy tax assessor-collector.

The figure Wednesday morning was 342 paid polls, she said.

Mrs. Murrah stressed the fact that citizens eligible for a poll tax may buy one through Tuesday of next week, January 31, but under no circumstances may a poll tax be paid after that date until the new issue next year, she emphasized.

She stated that some property tax payers are under the impression that their poll taxes are paid at the time they pay their property tax, and the statement they receive includes the poll tax payment. She said this is not true and that all property tax payers should check and be sure they have their current poll tax receipt.

Cooperation Urged For School Census

Terrell County's annual January school census is underway and due for completion by January 31. Mrs. Aubrey Harrell is the enumerator.

Children who will be six years old on or before Sept. 1 of this year, but will not be 18 or older before that date are to be counted. All children should be counted, whether or not in school and even if married.

School officials urged cooperation of parents in seeing to it that all children are counted. The amount of state financial aid received by the district hinges on the number of children reported in this county.

Freezing Rains Hit This Area

Cold and freezing rain hit this area Tuesday night on the heels of a cold front which moved into this section late Tuesday afternoon.

About 30-inch of rain fell here and on area ranches Monday night.

Tuesday morning and afternoon were balmy and sunny, but the cloud bank in the north and west was preceded by a light breeze which grew stronger and by about 9:00 o'clock was blowing rather briskly here.

Streets and highways were considered dangerous Wednesday morning as temperatures were just below freezing and some light moisture was falling, putting a coating of ice on everything in sight.

Moisture froze on the sides of the rain gauges Tuesday night and it was impossible to gauge the amount of rainfall.

Wednesday about noon a heavy fog penetrated Sanderson Canyon, cutting visibility considerably, and gave a foreboding outlook weather-wise.

The buses which bring students from the Brown-Bassett Field and from Dryden were not able to run Wednesday on account of the icy condition of the roads.

SS Benefits Vary To Dependents

The amount of benefits payable to a worker and his dependents at retirement, if he becomes disabled, or to his survivors in case of his death, depends upon the amount of wages posted to his social security account, H. P. Thomas, manager of the district office of the Social Security Administration, at Odessa, pointed out this week.

The Social Security Administration is responsible for keeping an accurate and up to date record of each earnings record; however the cooperation of employers and employees is needed in maintaining these records. A person who ing for someone else should be sure his employer gets his correct name and social security account number when he starts to work. If a pay slip or withholding statement has an incorrect name or account number, the worker should also call this to the attention of his employer. The employer should also make sure the correct names and social security account numbers are on the quarterly reports of earnings sent to the Internal Revenue Service.

A person who is self-employed should pay his social security self-employment tax and report his net earnings at the end of each year if those net earnings are $400 or more, Thomas said. These reports must be based on records of income and expenses in connection with the trade or business, whether kept in a ledger showing income and expenses or sales slips and invoices, depending on the nature of the business. Copies of self-employment reports and the business records upon which they were based should be kept for future reference.

Thomas stated that the Social Security Administration encourages working people to check their social security accounts at least once every three years to see if they are getting proper credit. A convenient card form for requesting a statement of earnings reported to your social security account is available at the nearest social security office, he said. The social security office in Odessa is located at 1428 East 8th St., phone Federal 2-9423.

Joe Borrego, highway department employee, attended a special school for the issuance of such permits and is now qualified and available for all such permits, Coker stated Wednesday.

Patch Work Done On Local Streets

Some patch work has been completed on local streets by crews of county employees.

Several chug holes have been patched as well as some patch work done to the edges of the black-topping.

The work was timely in that it was nearly completed before the moisture of this week, thus preventing further damage by the moisture.

Strawn Gas Assured In Banner-State Hole

A pay opener was assured in a Terrell County field. The third pay, the Strawn, has been assured in the Brown-Bassett (Fusselman and Devonian) field of Terrell County with the flowing of 36 barrels of acid water in 24 hours, plus gas at the daily rate of 1,770,000 cubic feet daily at the Socony Mobil Oil Co., Inc. No. 1 Banner-State in section 332 of the TW&NG Survey in the eastern part of the county.

Flow was through a 21-64-inch choke and perforations between 11,584-11,604 feet and 11,630-11,642 feet, which had been acidized with 500 gallons. Tubing pressure was 900 pounds.

The project was still flowing acid water.

The operator has perforated from 13,370-14,423 feet opposite the Ellenburger for completion attempt as a 1 3/4-mile extension to that pay.

While being drilled, the hole flowed an estimated 15 to 20 million cubic feet of gas daily on a test between 12,270-12,430 feet and made 4.95 million cubic feet of gas daily on a test in the Ellenburger between 14,410-529 feet.

Several projects in the Brown-Bassett Field have flowed gas in the Wolfcamp, but none have been completed in that pay, according to information available.

The project is in the vicinity of the old, abandoned Goode Ranch gas field, opened by Ohio Oil Co. in 1931, with completion of a project for 6.5 million cubic feet from between 5,606-12 feet, identified as Pennsylvania. Activity ceased until 1949, when Western Natural Gas Co. opened the field with its No. 1 Hoge, gauging 627,000 cubic feet daily through perforations between 5,250-5,440 feet, identified as Wolfcamp. Two other wells were completed in the vicinity, but that ended the development.

These wells were not shown in a recent research of shut-in gas wells in Texas.

Additional Strawn section perforations have been made by the operator to indicate additional production potential from that level. They are from 11,205-35 feet, 11,138-68 feet, 11,310-34 feet, 11,376-96 feet, 11,436-50 feet, and 11,498-516 feet.

The Socony Mobil Co., Inc. was last reported to be preparing to run tubing in the Banner-State hole and would attempt completion through perforation between 13,300-14,423 feet.

On a one-hour drillstem test through Strawn perforations between 11,205-516 feet, gas flowed at the daily rate of 750,000 cubic feet. Tubing pressure was 4,200 pounds and 1 1/2-hour shut-in pressure was 4,850 pounds.

Man Falls Dead At Depot Tuesday

Lee Billings, whose home was listed as Flatonia, fell dead in the railroad men's waiting room at the local depot just before 8:00 o'clock Tuesday night. He had been in seemingly good health and not feeling ill just prior to his death, according to those who witnessed his death.

A local physician was summoned and Billings was pronounced dead at the time of his examination. He said that death was possibly due to a coronary condition.

Billings had worked for the T&NO as a section foreman for many years and most recently was employed as an extra gang foreman and was working in this area at the time of his death.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete, pending word from the next of kin.

Austin — When the Legislature faces a difficult problem on which there are sharp differences of opinion, the final legislation is usually a sort of Irish stew of compromises.

Ingredients for this session's main dish, state financing, are fast pouring into the pot. Simultaneously, Gov. Price Daniel and the Legislative Budget Board presented plans for state spending in 1962-63.

Governor Daniel recommended general revenue spending of $479,964,734. Budget Board recommended $356,183,172 — a difference of $123,781,562.

New spending recommended by the governor would include medical care for the aged, $600 a year salary hikes for public school teachers, and other improvements in education.

As a primary source of new money, the governor endorsed the payroll tax proposal recommended last fall by the State Finance Advisory Committee. He also approved raising state college tuition by $50 a semester.

Daniel urged lawmakers to handle separately the deficit that is expected to be about $655,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year. For this he tabbed a temporary 3 per cent natural gas tax, a franchise tax, escheat bill and transfer of the farm to market road program from the general revenue to the highway fund.

Annexation Limit Proposed

A brake on headlong expansion of city limits would be provided in a bill introduced by Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Neches.

Under the bill, cities could annex only 10 per cent of their surrounding territory each year. Meanwhile, each city would have a measure of control through "extraterritorial jurisdiction" of a zone from 1/2 to 5 miles deep on its perimeter. This would give the city direction over construction and sanitation codes and enable it to prevent the development of outlying slums.

Many officials feel that some Texas cities have gone overboard in annexing more territory than they are able to digest.

Auto Insurance Change

Sen. Grady Hazelwood of Am- arillo, long time critic of present auto insurance regulations, has outlined a liberalized plan he will ask the Legislature to approve.

Changes recommended by the senator:

1. Use of only that part of a driver's record which was made since January, 1960, date of the merit system. As set up, insurance rates are based on driver's record for the past three years.

2. Eliminate from the list of violations causing insurance rate penalties (a) speeding less than 15 miles per hour over the limit (b) stop light violations involving amber, rather than red lights and (c) "creeping" at stop signs.

3. Eliminate from accidents that result in a penalty those where less than $100 damage is caused. Present limit is $25.

School's Portion Down
Texas' public schools' share of state spending has dropped from 3.5 per cent in 1960 to 30.8 per cent in 1960.

In a report to Governor Daniel, Texas Education Agency noted that while state spending on public school has doubled in the decade, other states have upped school financing even more.

In the 1950-60 period, the scholastic population increased 34 per cent, enrollment 46 per cent and average daily attendance 50 per

The Great Debate

By Pete Turner, Commander American Legion, Dept. of Texas

In the year of 1787, delegates from thirteen independent states gathered in Philadelphia, and for one hundred and seventeen days they debated the form and substance of our constitutional government, taking care that their work would not only be expedient to the needs of the people for the time, but that the formula for the preservation of that form of government would endure against the assaults of special interest and tyranny for all time to come.

The delegates were men of high classical education, conversant with the historical significance of every government which had blossomed in the world. They debated the reasons why and how each of these governments had enslaved the people and in failing to serve the best interests of the people, had decayed from within and crossed the horizon into oblivion. They knew that freedom under God was the highest attainment of man's struggle for four thousand years, and that their duty was, with the help of God, to make such a form of government that freedom would remain as man's highest attainment on earth, and be enshrined in the hearts of the people forever. They knew well the tortuous road of man's struggle for freedom and it is well that we, in our generation, should study each step in man's struggle for freedom to the end that we might be equally dedicated. But our duty does not remain only to our generation, but the story of the American Heritage must be instilled in the hearts of each generation yet to come, in the homes, in the churches, in the schools.

This is our duty and this is the price of a united America, loyal to the every cause of freedom.

cent. State spending on schools rose from $187,000,000 to $356,000,000.

Texas State Board of Education, TEA's policy making body, has recommended a raise for teachers, but did not specify how much it felt the raise should be.

Wealth From the Past

There's money to be made in museums, mansions and missions — if they're kept up and made attractive to tourists.

An improved and increased array of historic spots could increase tourism 10 per cent and thereby state tax revenue $1,750,000 a year, the State Historical Survey Committee reported to the Legislature.

Committee did not ask for state funds to renovate historic buildings. Instead, it suggested an $82,775 appropriation for leadership and guidance of local groups who want to preserve or improve something in their locale.

Also recommended was a $50,000 a year appropriation for the Civil War Commission to be used in setting up Texas's part in the centennial observance. Other states in the South, many of whom already have combined scenery and Civil War mementoes to make big drawing cards for tourists, have the jump on centennial planning.

Petticoat War

Women's rights advocates have come to Austin every session, as far back as most legislative observers can remember, to try to get rid of one or more of the Texas laws that treat women differently from men.

Every session, the women are treated with courtesy, viewed with amusement, and their bills are good naturedly buried.

This year the irked women mostly members of the Federated Business and Professional Women's Club, are going all out. Instead of trying to get one or two individual statutes repealed, they are trying for a constitutional amendment guaranteeing equal rights for women and abolishing Spokesman for the Texas Republican party's "new generation" of leadership is Tad Smith of El Paso.

Smith, a 32-year old attorney, succeeds Thad Hutcheson of Houston who resigned.

Republicans are setting their sight on: (1) getting revisions in the election code which they blame for their loss of Texas in the general election (2) running a strong race in the April 4 special election to name a new U.S. Senator (3) building up momentum for a serious effort to challenge U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough when he comes up for re-election in 1964.

Miss Phyllis Jo Davenport, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nichols, is one of the 44 high school students from Uvalde who left from San Antonio on January 18 for the Alice Pietz tour to Washington and New York and attended the inauguration. They will return January 29.

Four types, Japanese, Chinese, Hawaiian, and pure Haole, were given as examples.

Mrs. Will J. Murrah told of the outstanding personalities in Hawaii.

Golden grapes with yellow candles in crystal holders formed the centerpiece on the lace-covered tea table. Yellow roses in a brandy snifter decorated the speakers' table.

Million Dollar Salad on a Budget

The fame of the Southern dish has traveled far, and chicken is the most celebrated Southern dish of all. Here's a wonderful jellied chicken salad that looks and tastes like a million, yet barely tickles the budget because it is made so thriftily with evaporated milk. So smooth, so elegant in flavor, we call this ingenious recipe our Million Dollar Salad. It makes a party main dish, Sunday night supper, or luncheon specialty with make-ahead convenience and cool-of-the-morning cooling.

Best of all, with slight variations in this satin-textured salad, you can make pretty Grange Carrot Raisin Salad or Lime Peach Dessert. Evaporated milk blends so beautifully, you'll say this is the smoothest jellied salad you've ever made.

MILLION DOLLAR SALAD

- 1 cup very hot water
- 1 package lemon flavor gelatin dessert
- 1 cup evaporated milk
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cups diced cooked chicken
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- 1 1/2 teaspoons minced onion
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Add very hot water to lemon gelatin in deep bowl. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool slightly. Stir in evaporated milk and lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in remaining ingredients. Turn into a 4 cup mold or individual molds; chill until firm. Unmold to serve.

YIELD: 4 to 6 servings.
Variations: Grange Carrot Raisin Salad: Substitute 1 package orange flavor gelatin dessert for lemon gelatin. Substitute 1 cup grated raw carrot and 1/2 cup raisins for the chicken, celery, onion and salt. Turn into a 3-cup mold.
YIELD: 6 servings.

Lime Peach Dessert: Substitute 1 package lime flavor gelatin dessert for lemon gelatin. Substitute 1 can (1 pound) cling peach slices, drained and cut-up, for the chicken, celery, onion and salt. Add 2 tablespoons peach syrup to water. Turn into a 3-cup mold.
YIELD: 6 servings.

The miracles performed by electricity in rural areas today would put the Arabian Night's Genie to shame. The flip of the switch can accomplish work that once took hours. The twist of a dial can provide comforts unheard of just a few years ago.

Rural people borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems and make these miracles possible. They are paying back principal and interest on these loans while providing a steady dependable supply of electricity.

The Electric Cooperatives are building a brighter tomorrow through rural electrification.

2 Million Women to Join Mothers' March To Support March of Dimes Health Goals

The Golden Key of Hope—a new symbol for a new decade of medical progress against crippling diseases—is the badge some two million volunteers will proudly wear in the 1961 Mothers' March climaxing the New March of Dimes.

Symbolizing the need for research to unlock the mysteries of such major crippling diseases as birth defects and arthritis, the Golden Key also represents the vaccine "keys" to polio prevention perfected through research made possible by the March of Dimes.

In most communities, the Mothers' March will take place the evening or afternoon of Tuesday, Jan. 31. Volunteers identified by the Golden Key badge will call on their neighbors for support in the campaign against tragedies which affect one in every four American families.

Each of the estimated 40 million households visited in the Mothers' March will receive valuable health information cards including Do's and Don'ts for expectant mothers, Arthritis Warnings, and Vaccination Alerts for the almost 85,000,000 Americans still not protected against polio.

Beclouded by centuries of superstition, birth defects are considered by medical authorities to be the nation's most serious child health problem. Yet the fields of cause and prevention were largely unexplored until funds from the March of Dimes began to make intensive research possible. Pointers derived from early research are included on the cards to be distributed by Mothers' March volunteers.

The cards are also designed to bring home the realization that more than 11,000,000 Americans suffer from some form of crippling arthritis. Many victims, grasping at straws, pay out a total of more than $250,000,000 annually on questionable "cures." The fact is that the causes of arthritis are largely unknown. There is no known cure, no known preventive. But research to find the key is being rapidly advanced through March of Dimes support. To improve treatment and rehabilitation of those crippled by birth defects and arthritis, a network of clinical study centers is being established by means of March of Dimes funds. TELEPHONE TALK by C. R. "Rusty" Lammis, Manager

Glimpsed through a keyhole, three small victims of dread crippling diseases hold the Golden Key of Hope, 1961 Mothers' March symbol of March of Dimes-supported efforts to unlock the mysteries of their afflictions. They are, left to right, Gail Berg, 3½ years, arthritis patient; Allen Markowitz, 5, polio victim; and Rosalie Porretto, 7, born with a birth defect, all of New York City.

Telephone Service Improvements for Sanderson in 1961 As we move into the second year of the "Soaring Sixties," many of us in Sanderson are busy with new plans for next year. The year ahead is always a new challenge . . . A new opportunity for each of us to do a better job.

Our job at the telephone company is to continue providing you with ever-improving telephone service.

One way of improving your telephone service is to offer you a wider range of things that make telephone service more convenient and enjoyable. Examples are the new Princess phone, color phones, wall phones, and the new home interphone now being introduced.

Another way is to expand the communications network, improve its quality, make it more efficient and trouble-free. Here are some of the improvements planned for Sanderson:

- (a) Provide additional long distance circuits if service demands are great enough to justify. (b) Continued change out of old cables and wire where defective. Add new cable, poles, etc., where service demands are the greatest. (c) Continued above normal test and routine check intervals on all central office equipment.

In 1961, we'll not only give you better service but we'll do it more efficiently. This is important, because greater efficiency helps fight inflation.

Our ability to achieve greater efficiency — through technical advances in the telephone business, innovations and new methods — helps make it possible for us to give you, at reasonable rates, telephone service that grows better year after year.

Important New Film on National Defense How safe are we from an enemy missile attack? A new color film, "Seconds for Survival," produced by the Bell System offers a dramatic and positive answer.

The film, which is being offered for showings at church, school, civic, and business group meetings, is narrated by Raymond Massey and shows how the United States defense network guards against enemy attack.

Would your group or club like to see this movie? If so, just call the telephone business office to make arrangements. There's no charge, of course. I hope you can see it soon.
