LISTEN TO LUKE

It would seem that someone might have it in for The Kerr Mercantile Co. if the number of burglaries in the past few years is any indication of anything!

Local officers know that we are not taking a backhanded swipe at them when we say that it seems that someone would have seen or heard something last Friday night that would have tipped them off to what was going on.

Two or three men can't see everything and know everything that is going on. But alert citizens might get most helpful some time in reporting strangers or strange-acting persons in their business or around town.

Such alertness led to the apprehension of the two youths on Tuesday and it could lead to other arrests.

The entrance of the burglars from the street and under the lights and making the noise they must have made would lead us to believe that it was either very late at night or someone was not very alert to what must have been going on.

People who have the ability to do the things that were done to the safe in Kerr's were no amateurs. Besides being schooled in the art (?) of safecracking, they also know the ways of officers and chances are pretty good they "cased" the officers as well as the store. But they are not able to keep up with nor watch for every Tom, Dick, and Harry in town, and we should all be alert to the possibility of such things and try to prevent some and apprehend others.

And a word of praise to all who understand reported their grocery charge purchases of Friday. It was heart-warming to know that so many people willingly and voluntarily reported their charges of that day.

The theft of all the cash and the grocery sales would have run up a considerable loss for the store, which was lessened to the degree of honesty of their customers.

We noted with interest the things that were approved and talked about by the commission-cour Monday morning.

There is, in Terrell County, like in most other counties, a million - more or less - places to spend money and all of them, for each of them, is high on somebody's priority list.

It is difficult to know when to quit when you start the remodeling of a room in a house or in a building, because one thing calls for another, and soon more money is spent than was planned, or in the case of house owners more than was on hand.

The commissioners are able to spend from certain funds only for certain things, which do not always include the improvement of the court house, or the improvement of the streets.

Money spent in and around the court house, and on and adjacent to the streets is money well spent - in our opinion - as it is protecting the investment taxpayers already have in the building and in the streets.

Kiwanians Thank People For Toys At Christmas Time

The officers and members of the Kiwanis Club of Sanderson asked The Times to convey their appreciation to the people of Sanderson who cooperated by donating their old toys for repair and distribution by the club.

The Kiwanians reported that toys were distributed to 67 children in Sanderson at Christmas and that all of the toys were in first class condition when turned over to the children.

The club members stated that for a while it looked as if there would be very few toys for distribution, then all at once they began coming in and it was a night and day effort to get all of them repaired or repainted. They said they also appreciated the thoughtfulness of the people in turning in repairable toys and in their thoughtfulness of being willing to share with others less fortunate.

The Kiwanians stated that the project was so well received by the donors and recipients and that they enjoyed it so much that they planned to make the toy repairing an annual project.

Low-Income Farmers Now Eligible For Low Rate Credit

A new credit service to help low-income families in rural areas raise their incomes is now available in Texas, according to state director L. J. Cappelman, Farmers Home Administration.

Cappelman said the new service opens up FHA credit aid for the first time to many low-income rural families who previously were unable to obtain either public or private loans to improve their earnings.

All county offices in Texas are accepting applications for loans up to $2,500 to finance farming enterprises, small family businesses, trades and services. Rural cooperatives serving low-income families and providing services and facilities not otherwise available may also be eligible for credit under the program.

Liberalized loan terms and conditions for participating low-income families allow for an interest rate of 4 1/8 per cent.

To be eligible, an applicant must live in a rural area, have an income that does not cover basic family necessities, be unable to obtain credit from other sources, including the regular loan program of FHA, and show a reasonable promise of succeeding in the enterprise to be financed by the loan.

FHA offices for Terrell County are located on the 6th floor of the Del Rio National Bank Bldg. with an office period in Terrell County at the courthouse on the third Wednesday and following Thursday morning of each month.

Auto Inspection Lags Over State

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety this week encouraged Texas motorists to start the new year with a safe vehicle by securing the 1965 vehicle inspection sticker without further delay.

The Public Safety director said that approximately one-half of the inspection period has expired and only about one-fourth of the vehicles in the state have been inspected. He added that unless the inspection pace is stepped up, motorists may expect to find the usual waiting lines at the inspection stations when the April 15 deadline approaches.

"The inspection stickers for 1965 have been available since September 1, allowing ample time for all vehicles to be inspected without delay prior to the deadline. There can be no extension of the deadline and vehicles not displaying the new sticker will be in violation of the law after April 15.

Texas now has more than 5,200 authorized inspection stations over the state. According to Garrison, these stations are ready and capable of handling the remaining uninspected vehicles without delay provided vehicle owners do not wait until just a few days before the deadline.

He pointed out that he basic function of vehicle inspection is to detect and correct vehicle defects that might cause an accident. He said last year vehicle defects contributed to fewer traffic accidents that ever before in Texas.

Kerr Mercantile Co. Is Burglarized

The Kerr Mercantile Co. was burglarized last Friday night and losses were estimated to be over $2,000.00, according to Bill C. Cooksey, sheriff.

Also included in the losses, besides the cash, were the charge tickets from the grocery department for Friday.

Entrance to the store was made through the side door at the rear of the store on First St. Investigating officers and Edward Kerr, store manager, stated that apparently the burglars went first to the sock counter in the dry goods section and took some socks, then went straight to the vault on the mezzanine floor and went to work, using the socks to prevent finger prints.

The door of the vault was "peeled" and a large round safe for cash only was carried from the vault and building.

Tools, including pry bars, drift pins, screw drivers, and a sledge were later found and are being investigated thoroughly for possible origin.

An investigator from the Texas Department of Public Safety came out Monday to make all possible investigations to try to learn something about possible suspects.

Commissioners Act On Improvements Of Room, Vehicles

The Terrell County Commissioners Court Monday approved a plan to remodel the district court room and plans to equip to vehicles for emergency use.

Bids will be asked for the installation of an acoustical ceiling suspended from the present ceiling in the district court room. The remodeling will not only improve the appearance of the court room, but will make the acoustics better for jurors and participants in district court cases, as well as for spectators.

A plan was submitted by Sheriff Bill C. Cooksey and approved by the ambulance committee and subsequently approved by the court to equip two additional vehicles for emergency use.

Deputy Sheriff Dalton Hogg has already purchased a station wagon exactly like the ambulance owned by the county and Sheriff Cooksey has a similar vehicle on order, he reported. Both of these vehicles will be used by the sheriff's department officers as their regular patrol and routine-duty vehicles, and with the emergency equipment purchased and installed by the county, may be used as emergency vehicles.

It was pointed out that in no way was the sheriff's department trying to go into the ambulance business, but that their vehicles might be used in case of an emergency which occurred while the ambulance was on a run or in case of multiple injuries in an accident.

Cooksey stated that the vehicles would be equipped with two-way radio and other law enforcement accessories which would enable them to take care of their first-obligation duties satisfactorily.

F. M. Weigand, commissioner of Precinct 1, also stated that work of repairing and patching of the local streets would begin immediately and would include protecting the shoulders of the present black-topping.

Plans for lowering the ceiling and installing recessed lighting in the county clerk's office, the sheriff's office, and the county court room were also discussed by the commissioners.

An order was passed to leave the salaries as they were last year for all county officials.

The court reviewed the bonds of the county officials elected in November and approved them.

Speaking for only one taxpayer, and a relatively small one, we feel that it will be a long time before we scream "waste" with the expenditure of tax money to improve and beautify the court house and grounds, and improve and maintain the local streets.

Both of these housekeeping expenditures help the appearance of our town and give us all a little inward pride, the same as a new coat of paint, or a new walk or curb at our house does for us individually.

And certainly the cost of equipping two more vehicles for emergency use is negligible, compared to their worth as such vehicles, and may be mighty desirable at some future date.

And lest someone think the commissioners have launched a wild spending spree, remember they failed to raise any officials' salary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Attaway met their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Attaway of Lubbock, in Odessa Sunday morning and brought their grandson, Mark Attaway, to Sanderson for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jolly Harkins and boys, Steve and Barton, went to Junction Sunday and met their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Choice, and brought their grandson, Billy, home with them for a visit.

Discover the difference in the '65 Chevrolets (As different from other cars as they are from each other)

CHEVROLET - As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built. Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the attractively curved windows help to give you more shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward to give you more foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car - except bigger monthly payments?

CORVAIR - The only rear engine American car made. Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

You should read what the automotive magazines say about the '65 Corvair. They're wild about its ride. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that can touch its styling. They say if you haven't driven a new Corvair Corsa with a 180-hp Six Turbo-Chaarged!
