LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:---

Two or three times during the past week we had occasion to go to or by the school during a time when the students were changing classes and we couldn't help but make an observation --- and we realize we are going to be criticized for making the look --- but most all of the girls we saw had on dresses of "reasonable" length.

We think that this is commendable in the parents or the girls or both, in not nodding to the fad of the "short" skirt.

We know that "short" is a relative thing, as is decency, but in our opinion, the girls looked real neat and cute in the dresses they had on which were long enough for the sake of modesty, another relative word.

What strikes us as odd is when a woman wears a dress that is above the knees when she is standing and then is so uncomfortable when she is sitting in trying to retain her modesty of such a "leggy" appearance by always pulling and tugging at a "too-short" dress which will not come down unless a seam bursts.

We had no intentions of getting beyond this statement: Congratulations to those girls who can and do look so cute and dressed up in the "longer" dresses.

No sooner do we have a wildcat abandoned in Terrell County than we have another one to begin drilling.

The Hardgrave well, scheduled to go to about 21,000 feet, was abandoned last week. We do not know the reason for plugging the hole, but it seemed that they were having some difficulty in the drilling process. Probably if we knew the reason, we would not be able to understand it in the first place --- or the second either.

There is, in other columns of the paper this week, the announcement of another well to begin drilling on the Keith Mitchell ranch. We hope that this one does not end the same way as did the last effort in the county.

When we were at the football field last Friday to take the pictures shown on page two, it was most obvious that something had been added; a fence running along the side lines between the playing field and the fans.

This fence is not yet a requirement in this district, but it is highly recommended that one be installed. The purpose of the fence in some places is to protect the officials from the fans, and to protect the players from the fans, or generally to keep everyone off of the field except the players, coaches, and officials, and other authorized personnel.

The fence is attractive, and we have no kind of objection to its being there, except the necessity of it.

The fence, then to us, and may it ever be to all football fans who see a game on the local field, is a symbol of the actions of some people in some places where football games are played.

There is a statement that is continued to second page

Miss Diane Tronson ... airline stewardess

Miss Diane Tronson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tronson of Del Rio, former residents of Sanderson, has started her career as an airlines stewardess.

She graduated from Eastern's in-flight training center at Miami, Fla., where her schooling included grooming, makeup, and the gracious presentation of dining services in addition to other flight crew duties.

Miss Tronson graduated from the Sanderson High School and later attended the Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. Prior to joining Eastern, she was employed in Houston and also completed her junior year at the University of Houston.

Upon completion of the training course, Miss Tronson remained in Miami, where she will be based. From there she will fly to many of the 104 cities the airline serves in 26 states, the District of Columbia, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Bermuda.

Hardgrave Well Is Plugged

Natural Gas & Oil Com. has plugged in 18,405 feet its No. 1 Nellie A. Hardgrave, Terrell County wildcat failure, 18 miles northeast of Sanderson.

Operators had drilled for 22 months on the wildcat, which originally was scheduled by Mississippi River Corp. October 26, 1964, to drill to 22,000 feet to test the Ellenburger, changed to Natural Gas & Oil July 5, 1966.

The project surfaced gas in six minutes, rated at 125,000 cubic feet daily, increasing to 435,000 cubic feet daily, and reversed out the 3,000-foot water blanket on a test between 15,670-914 feet. There was no recovery of a core cut at approximately 13,350 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from the south and 2,432 feet from the east lines of section 12 in Block 160, GC&SF Survey.

Mrs. Audrey Moore and Mrs. Buck Dorsey of Ozona were weekend visitors with Mrs. Dorsey's sister, Mrs. H. C. Goldwire, and family. When they returned home Sunday afternoon, they took Mrs. G. J. McBee of Christoval, who had been a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. Goldwire, for several days.

Spotted Rains Hit Over County, Fences, Stock Lost

Spotted rains have hit over the county during the past several days, with amounts up to four inches recorded during a 24-hour period to the north of Sanderson.

Almost every day of last week thunderheads were seen in the distance, some of which even came to Sanderson on two separate occasions, leaving about an inch of moisture locally.

Rains swelled the draws on FM 400 and made the road impassable for a time Saturday night and debris was washed up on US285 in Pecos County from water crossing the road.

Most of the county has been benefitted from the rains during the past week and ranchmen have been busy during these days fixing water gaps in their fences.

Where US 285 goes through the ranch of C. C. Mitchell, several yards of fence were washed out by high water along the right of way and not in gulleys or arroyos.

There were some reports of the loss of livestock from high water, also.

Wildcat To Begin On Mitchell Ranch

A wildcat was scheduled in Terrell County by Pan American Petroleum Corp., Monahans. It is to be a 15,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat, 22 miles northwest of Sanderson, 13 miles northwest of Ellenburger production in the Brown-Bassett multipay field and one and one-fourth miles south east of an undesignated field containing the No. 1 Keith Mitchell.

Location of the well will be 1,032 feet from the north and 1,219 feet from the west lines of section 7 in Block 1 of the CCSD&FCNG Survey.

The discovery, Mobil Oil Com. No. 1 George K. Mitchell, was finalized December 4, 1964, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 3.1 million cubic feet of gas per day through perforations at 10,106-120 feet and 11,630-670 feet.

Drilled to 16,369 feet, it reported no shows below the Strawn.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Walker attended the open house at the new Masonic Hall in Balmorea Thursday evening and visited with friends.

Miss Elizabeth Marquez ... in Diez y Seis Commemoration

Miss Elizabeth Marquez, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cruz Marquez of Sanderson, who is now residing in San Antonio, has been chosen by officials of the Mexican - American Friendship Committee of San Antonio to participate, with 12 other girls, in the Diez y Seis Commemoration that begins Sunday, September 11 and lasts a week.

Miss Marquez, as well as the other chosen girls, will represent and model Mexico's different dresses and styles worn in different parts of Mexico City.

The commemoration will be in the Municipal Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. The different dresses will be displayed at various stores in San Antonio.

The celebration will also consist of a meeting of Mexico's presidential representative, Consul General Cano, Texas' Gov. John Connally, and famous dancers and singers from Mexico.

The independence program will be transmitted to Mexico City by television relay.

Mr. and Mrs. Marquez plan to attend the celebration.

Mrs. Olene Laine, Former Resident, Dies In El Paso

Word was received last week of the death of Mrs. Olene E. Laine, a former resident of Sanderson who has been residing in Alamogordo for the past 10 years. Death came while she was in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clifford E. Beare, in El Paso.

Mrs. Laine was the daughter of the late H. C. Holt, a former resident of Sanderson when he and Mrs. Holt were owners and operators of the Club Cafe.

Burial was in an El Paso cemetery Friday.

Eagles To Open Grid Season In Imperial

The Sanderson High School Eagles will open the 1966 football season Friday night of this week against the Imperial High School gridsters.

The host school is in Class B football this year.

The Eagle coaches stated that there was not a lot of experience going into the game Friday night, and the game should be fairly well matched, even though the visitors were a Class B school.

The two scrimmages during pre-season workouts were with Fort Stockton's B team and with Class B Forsan, and while the Eagles showed up well against both of these opponents, there was no outstanding strength indicated.

Eagle strength has been bolstered to some degree by additional candidates showing up for practice and there are now 22 boys wearing orange and black instead of 16 who were early comers. This additional length of substitutes keeps competition stronger for posts on the line-up, as well as replacements for wind and injuries.

The game will get under way at 8:00 p.m. in Imperial.

The game on September 16 will be the first home game for the Eagles and with Van Horn.

Possibly the same load of wool that was shown last week at the local freight warehouse, is pictured above at the top of "Big Hill" between Sanderson and Fort Stockton. These wagons are also in tandem and pulled by nine animals. A man on the wagon on the right is adjusting the load or roped holding the sacks. The crossed poles visible on the loads is the means of "booming" the robes. The picture was taken on the oldest road on "Big Hill" which was abandoned in about 1928. Photo is owned by Pres Nichols of Alpine and furnished by Mrs. H. A. Smith.

supposed to be read at the football games that we are going to print for the information of the people who do and do not plan to attend any of the games. It is to inform you - our publishing the statement - that drastic steps are necessary in some places, to restrain the fans at athletic contests of high school students.

"These are high school athletes who are performing here tonight. They are friendly rivals as members of opposing teams. They are not enemies.

"This, basically, is the theme of interscholastic athletics - the idea of friendly competition. The visiting team tonight, and in every interscholastic game, is the guest of the home team. They are expected to be so regarded and so treated.

The officials are men, who, by agreement between the competing teams, are assigned to administer the rules of the game.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The bureaucratic tendency seems to be that if you have a bad problem, then create an even worse situation.

To many people the recent speech by the Secretary of Defense in Montreal recommending that all young men be obliged to serve for two years in some sort of government capacity was really a lulu.

The proposal is that if young men cannot qualify for the military draft they should be drafted for the Peace Corps, the War on Poverty, or some other grandiose Federal project.

It is quite surprising that any responsible official of the government of the United States of America would ever come out with such recommendation, although it does perhaps help explain the thinking that produced the ill-fated Edsel.

Manipulation of the youth on a compulsory basis has been the standby of every totalitarian system ever devised. There has long been in Russia the Young Communists who have been the most active opponents to any form of religion.

And in Nazi Germany nobody exceeded the zeal of the Hitler Youth in committing depredations against mankind.

It is unfortunate that young men are drafted for military service. This tends to degrade the honor and pride felt by many young men to serve their country in uniform.

And while in times of great national peril the concept of a citizen's armed force has served the American nation well, it is perhaps time to consider, if the nation is to continue to get involved in similar somewhat foggy affairs as Vietnam, to plan for a small, well organized professional military force such as the legions of ancient Rome, or the guard regiments of Victorian England.

But to take two years out of a young man's early years to while away in some obscure non-military governmental project is a waste, and can lead to dangerous consequences.

Of course, one factor in this whole proposal is that if this were done, it would make those drafted for military service feel better about this situation. Yet it is hard to see how a young man in the swamps of Vietnam, dodging bullets from both foe and off-and-on again allies would be greatly comforted by the knowledge that his less physically qualified counterpart is standing under the shade of a Central American banana tree teaching children how to speak English.

It is most difficult to equate any professions of democracy with a system that would force young men to postpone the start of their careers for two years to shuffle around aimlessly in some ill-hatched plan dreamed up by bureaucracy. The young men and the nation would be much better off if they are employed by private enterprise.

For after all, they also serve who pay taxes.

astic contest. This attitude of sportsmanship should be reflected by all spectators, too, no matter what their personal feelings of loyalty may be to one or the other of the teams in tonight's contest."

The loss of the students from the El Paso Gas Plant in the local schools was a disappointment to many people here for several reasons. But it is understandable that those people would be concerned with what they think are the best interests of their children. There is one facet of the circumstances we think that should be of concern to all of us and that is the fact that the absence of a doctor was one of the considerations for the move.

Another one of the reasons why we should all be busy and working in every way we know to get a doctor here!

If one of the plant children became ill, it was a 53-mile trip to town and then at least 64 more to a doctor.

We hope that the children and their parents have a means of sending their children to school that will work out for the best interest of all concerned.

In 1947, when we came to Sanderson, one of the first things we heard was the fact that some of the men who had been doing some of the chores of the town were happy that there were some younger men - who were coming home from the wars - who would be available to take over some of those chores.

What dawned on us this week was the fact that we are now as old as those men were then and there are few younger men who are around to take over those chores from us.

The same thing holds true of some of the chores of the women of the community.

Those who are approaching 50 have no business being the backbone of the fire department, the work and strain - mental and physical of operating the ambulance, of carrying on the work of the ladies' clubs, the Girl and Boy Scout leaders, etc.

There were none of the oldersters of the community who asked us to publish such a statement and some of them might be incensed by the thought of anyone thinking they are not as young as they used to be. But ego can go out the window to make room for the truth!

We are not trying to get out from under any or all responsibility for us or for any other person, but it's about time that the younger group begins to think about taking over some of those chores.

One of the wonderful things about some of the people that we know is their willingness to do what they can when and where and however they can to fulfill their obligations as citizens, without very many people knowing that they have done a thing.

They will - we know - continue to do what has to be done to the absolute best of their ability, as they have always done, even if there are no younger men to come in and take over some of those chores.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mullings and Mrs. Walter Thorn spent the holidays in Junction.

WHY BE A GRIME FIGHTER?

WITH A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC RANGE

You'll spend less time at tiresome kitchen clean-up chores when you cook electrically. Because electric heat is flameless, there's no fuel grime. Pots and pans stay shiny with less scouring. And since the electric oven requires no oxygen to support combustion, there's no flow of air into and out of it, carrying greasy cooking vapors into your kitchen. Walls, woodwork and curtains stay fresh and new-looking with a minimum of care. So why be a grime fighter? See your dealer soon about a clean-cooking flameless electric range.

Acreage Survey Cards Mailed

Postmaster J. F. Hodgkins announced today that 1966 Acreage Survey cards will be distributed to patrons of Sanderson about September 14.

The post office assists U. S. D. A. in making this survey each year. These reports, directly from the ranchers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in Texas in 1966.

To be sure this community is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Hodgkins urges each rancher patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to the post office or mail box.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Stutes returned home Saturday from San Angelo where she was hospitalized for five days for a medical check-up.

Mrs. B. F. Martin spent several days in the Big Bend National Park with her son, Ben Ed Martin, and family.

Sen. John Tower To Speak At TS&GRA Meeting

Senator John Tower will speak at the quarterly Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association meeting in Mineral Wells on September 16 and 17. His appearance will be shortly after the general session convenes at 8:30 a. m. on September 17.

Also speaking will be State Senator Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, Democrat representing the 22nd Texas Senatorial District; and John Hutchison, director of the Texas Extensior Service.

Sheep and goat raisers will hear a report on the victory in having their range livestock employees exempted from the new Minimum Wage and Hour Law. The exclusion was based on the irregularity of working hours and seasonal variation in labor needs in ranch operations. They will also discuss the wool and lamb promotion referendum being conducted September 12 to 23. TSEGRA has officially endorsed a "yes" vote by producers.

Recent good rains and strong markets for cattle, sheep, and most wool are expected to have the ranchmen in a generally optimistic mood, though lagging mohair prices continue to be a strong concern.

Stockmen will register from 5 a. m. to 5 p. m. the first day at the convention headquarters, the Baker Hotel. They may also register from 8 to 9 a. m. the second day. Committee meetings are from 2 to 5 p. m. the first day, followed by reception, poolside luau and dinner at 6. The general session is from 8:30 a. m. to about noon the second day.

The Women's Auxiliary will have concurrent meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrell and children visited in Seminole with his brother, J. M. Harrell, and family Sunday. En route home they visited with his sister, Mrs. Claude Gibson, and his brother, Frank Harrell, and their families.

P. G. HARRIS JR. Lease Drive-Inn

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Harris Jr. have assumed management of the Sanderson Drive Inn, formerly operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Martin for the past 18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris stated that they would continue to operate a type of business that was for all of the family and that no boisterous or annoying incidents would be tolerated.

They stressed the fact that the business would cater to those who wanted to bring their families out for a fried chicken meal - which would be their specialty - or just for a sandwich or hamburger with their favorite drink.

'Gripe' Cards Are Mailed Phone Users

A simple post card was called on to do an unusual job: helping Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. improve its service in Sanderson.

During the week past, every telephone customer here received a post card from Bill Gilliland, local manager for Southwestern Bell. On one half of the double post card, the customer was asked for comments and criticisms.

The other half of the card can be torn off, filled out and returned - postage free - to Gilliland.

"We're not seeking compliments," the manager pointed out. "If any of our customers have criticisms or service difficulties, we would like to know about them so we can try to remove the causes. Comments and criticisms help us give the customers the kind of service they want."

The manager said everyone who replies unfavorably will be contacted in an effort to clear up some of the source of dissatisfaction.
