LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:

One could hardly say that the political pot is beginning to boil with the announcement of only one candidate for nomination by the Democrats, but there is one announcement at this writing and more are expected to announce for re-election. Or so they said!

There are some who like the "play" of politics, who like to see opposition in a political race for the sake of opposition, and there are some who do not like the strife of political races or anything else. We would not advocate that no person in a political office should not have an opponent, but it is difficult to have an opponent for a local race without the creation of some ill will, hard feelings, or just plain animosity.

Since these things are a natural by-product of "local" politics sometimes, and since sometimes people feel compelled to seek an office - either for reasons of their own or to be the tool of some other person or faction - then hard feelings have to result seemingly. But that doesn't make it good, does it?

We suppose the best way to get around any situation of that kind is for a person to find an office that no one wants - like county surveyor or county weigher, and do such a good job during his first term that no one would think of opposing him, and then not seek re-election since some feel that one term in office is long enough and two terms is the end of any consideration and three terms is an autocratic take-over of the office. And the county surveyor or county weigher who expects to have a successful one term certainly had better be in a county where there is only one political party primary or he will not and cannot be popular with the minority party members, even if they did not have a candidate, and regardless of the name of the minority group.

There seems to be a likelihood that there will be a third party again this year, according to what we heard on the tube Sunday. And if this is so, there are some things that the voters should be aware of and then be governed by their desires; as we expect they would be anyway. It is illegal and next to impossible to vote in the primary of two parties. In voting in any primary one ties himself - in a manner of speaking - to that party through the general election and yet nomination in the Democratic Party - in this county, at least - is tantamount to election because of the strength of that party in that area.

And speaking of general elections, since it is commonly known that there is a lot of ballot-splitting in general elections which are in November, and since a nominee in any party is not assured of an election, there has to be campaigning up to the time of the election. This runs from February to November and that is too long. There is no reason why there should be such a long time between the primaries and the general election in our humble opinion. Candidates get worn out and certainly

R. S. Wilkinson Asks Re-Election As County Judge

County Judge R. S. Wilkinson authorized The Times to announce his candidacy for re-election subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in May. He is the first candidate to announce locally.

Wilkinson, in his office as county judge, is the presiding officer of the commissioners court as well as presiding judge in county court cases and local juvenile officer. Other ex-officio jobs include chairmanship of the county's school board.

He stated that he would appreciate the votes of the Democrats in the primary and felt himself qualified for seeking the nomination of his party on the basis of his experience, knowledge of the job, and his past record as county judge.

New Priest At St. James Church

On last Sunday evening Rev. John Pierce was installed as pastor of St. James Catholic Church by Rev. Moeller, representative of Bishop Leven of San Angelo.

A reception in the parish hall followed the service and the Benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament with a large crowd in attendance.

Rev. Theodore McNulty left last week for another appointment after serving here for only seven months. Rev. Pierce, a native of Ireland and a resident of the United States for ten years, has been in Stanton for the past eight and a half years.

Rev. Pierce named a Parish Council consisting of Santiago Flores, Willie Banner, James Caroline, Thomas Corbett, Silvestre Silvas, and Mmes. Louise Causey, James Kerr, Andres Falcon, and Ramona Olivares with a meeting called for Monday evening in the rectory.

The JV Eaglettes lost to McCamey 20-30 there. Susi Robbins scored 10, Ana Salazar 7, Glenda Shoemaker 3 and Yolanda Carrillo also played forward. The guards were Vangie Calzada, Maurine Riess, Faye Muller, Alice Goldwire, and Maje Harrison.

The varsity Eaglettes won 59-24 over McCamey with Brenda Carter scoring 27, Rhonda Louwien 19, Jackie Bob Riggs 9, and Gina Handgrave 4. Nancy Harkins, Mitzi Cash, Marilyn Sanchez, Gaylia Coker, and Petra Sanchez were guards.

Against Ozona here last Friday night, the junior varsity lost 21-43 with Ana leading the scoring with 12, Susi 7, Glenda 2, and Yolanda also played.

The guards in the B-game were the same as in McCamey.

The Eaglettes beat Ozona in a real scrap 51-40 with Brenda scoring 32 points, Rhonda 14, and Jackie Bob 5. The guards were Mitzi, Nancy, Marilyn, and Petra.

Local Fund Drives Are Being Made

Drives for special funds within the county are being made or are planned to take place in the very near future.

Local residents this week received letters from the Eagle Boosters asking for donations to their field house at the football field project. The letter asks for an additional $4,500.00 to complete their goal and the Boosters have raised $1,200.00 of this amount.

Donations to the project will be accepted by Aubry Harrell, Jimmy Davis, L. R. Hall, or Ike Billings.

Letters will be in the mail in the next few days from the Terrell County unit of the March of Dimes asking for donations for this cause. The money is for research to fight birth defects and to continue to wage war against poliomyelitis prevention and cure. W. W. Suduth is the local chairman and Jimmy Caroline is treasurer of the local unit.

Another drive for funds to be made soon is for the heart fund which is under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Higgins and plans for this campaign will be announced at a later date.

The annual Girl Scout sale of cookies is slated to begin early in February and is one of the fund-raising projects for this organization.

Roadrunner Seen On Oak Street - But No Fox

Monday afternoon a roadrunner, chaparral, faisano, Geococcyx californianus, was seen going east on Oak St. Evidently he was a stranger in this country and was following the highway.

But there was no wiley fox seen behind the roadrunner, but maybe the reason the fox was not seen was because he was so wiley!

Nor was there heard the traditional BEEP BEEP!!!

With the invasion of deer into town, quail frequently, and javelina watering in local fish ponds, one is not surprised to see the migration or visitation of roadrunners into town. No telling how many fly over town, though, is there?

For the information of those who are not ornithologists, the roadrunner is a member of the cuckoo family and the male is almost indistinguishable from the female except to other roadrunners. But that's all that's necessary!

Old Clipping Is Interesting

The following was clipped from the Uvalde Leader-News. It is a newspaper clipping concerning a wedding in Floresville found in a worn leather card case belonging to an early day resident, C. N. Wentworth.

After giving the names of the marriage party, the writer goes on to wax quite sentimental over the union:

"...this is a union of hearts and hands the probability of which has been discussed for several years past. The groom has been a devoted lover and has waited faithfully for the fruition of his desires. The bride is a prize worth waiting and working for. She has an amiable disposition, and as fair a face and lovely a form as any girl in the country round.

"She has truly been in love with her adorer for ever-so-long, so everybody says. The pair was raised in this country and everybody knows and likes them."

"...There was a large crowd to witness the ceremony and to partake of the supper which was provided with such lavishness.

"The happy couple will go immediately to housekeeping, where they will enjoy each other's society, with no one near to make them afraid."

The Floresville Chronicle goes on to wish the couple "happiness through this life and into the glorious future beyond the stars."

Miss Rosalinda Valles has completed a business school in Odessa and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Genaro Valles. Miss Ana Maria Calzada has also completed the same school and is employed in Odessa.

LISTEN TO LUKE

 so do the voters long before the time comes for the general election.

And this also permits the expenditure - or should we say demands the expenditure of far too much money by candidates seeking office. As has been brought out before, the cost of running for the governor of our state by a major candidate far exceeds any hope that the candidate will make that much in office in salary.

This example, and there are so many others, brings us to always ask these questions: How is the money repaid, if it is, and what obligations go along with the acceptance of campaign contribution up in four, five, or six figures? Is the candidate worth the cost of electing him to the overall welfare of the state and all its citizens? What favors, plums, or whatever you want to call them are handed out, put within reach, or slid under the table to "qualified" people who happen to have made a campaign contribution or were the friend of someone who did? Or am I being too realistic?
