LISTEN TO LUKE

Albert: ---

Some sort of a record was set Saturday with the large turnout of voters in the school election. We are glad that so many voted, but also we wish there had been more who were interested enough to help in the selection of school board members.

The re-election of the two incumbents signified some sort of endorsement of the plan of the board in the past year of satisfaction with a continuation of this. To this day we have not heard of any dissatisfaction with the board members from the past year or their actions and can only assume that there were six people who were willing to serve on the board if people wanted them, in which case there were actually people seeking one slot in the post going to the high-vote getter.

We would hope that the selection of Westbrook will help in securing the gas plant students back to the Terrell County schools, rather than the bus riding from Sheffield to haul them there and to Iraan for the school students. It will improve our situation quite a bit if these students would all start back to Sanderson to school.

Average daily attendance hit a blow that hurt when we lost those students and we would like to have them back. We would also like to have the will and cooperation of the people at the gas plant in the activities of Terrell County in this area. The fact that they normally travel to the north for so many things is understandable and this is a consideration in their children going to the schools in Pecos County, but we would still like a situation better if they considered themselves more a part of Terrell County.

The business community of Sanderson - so far as we know - puts everyone the same with distinction made to any person or group. If one of us is ahead to one, usually we are sorehead to all and so-on down the line. But we try to be the same and consistent sorehead if we are one. And by the token there are those who are not soreheads and try to be congenial, and accommodating to one and all.

Our town is just like the rest of the towns of the state - and are our visitors here - some good and some not-so-good!

Anyway, our congratulations and condolences - to the school board members who were elected - and the same thing for those who were not!

Those who lost showed their willingness to serve.

Who could do more?

Some sort of a record was set in the community of Juno Saturday. There were two candidates for the school board and two posts to be filled - and there was only one voter in the election!

Federal Allotment For Disadvantaged Students Is Made

Congressman Richard C. White has announced the allotment by the office of Education, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, of $1,779,995.02 to the public school systems of the 16th District under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. The federal grants under this title are for special programs for educationally disadvantaged children, and are based on the number of children from families having incomes of less than $2,000 per year, families receiving assistance under the Aid to Dependent Children provisions of the Social Security Act, and children under public institutions or foster homes. There are 11,989 qualifying children in the 16th District, according to the figures supplied Congressman White by the Office of Education.

Allotments include $29,545.33 for Terrell County, which has 199 children qualifying.

According to the figures, the money accepted by the local schools for the special education is for almost half of the total enrollment of 429.

Tips Offered To Boost Life Of Easter Lily

The blooming period of an Easter lily can be prolonged by pinching out the yellow anthers as new buds open.

Other tips for longer enjoyment of an Easter lily have been supplied by a local florist. Remove blossoms as they fade and add water only when the soil is dry and sandy on top.

When water is needed, water well and be sure any excess drains and is removed from the saucer. If the decorative pot covering does not allow drainage, punch holes to let the water flow through.

Keep the lily in a cool spot, out of direct sunlight.

When the flower dies down, plant it outside in a sunny place.

vantaged children in Terrell County. There is a total enrollment of 429, according to figures at the beginning of the year. And by simple, complicated, or new math this is almost 50% of our school children are educationally disadvantaged. Or so says the Office of Education of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

And they say that this figure is based on the number of children from families having incomes of less than $2,000 per year.

We feel that if this figure is true, then this would put a big portion of the families of the county in the below-$2,000 a year cash and we are all in a worst shape that we realized.

We also feel like this may not be the case and if it is not then all of the schools of the state and nation should ask for a realistic figure and a realistic figure for the allotment.

Honesty in our government from the top to the bottom is as important as honesty from the bottom to the top.

And if our opinion of the economic situation here is erroneous and we are shown that such is the case, then we will do the apologizing, publicly and in writing.
