LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:
 Just about the time we had the story in the paper last week about ranchers signing up for the various programs of help available to them in Terrell County, we heard the news of the President's cancelling the entire Rural Environmental Assistance Program. We were unable to verify at the time whether or not it was an immediate termination or a termination of the program at the end of the fiscal year of the government.

We found out later that it was immediate.
 There was an allocation of $30,343.00 for Terrell County ranchers to be used during 1973. The money was to have been distributed among applicants for cross fences, live-stock water storage, pipelines, well drilling, and various brush control measures.
 But not now!

We recently saw a copy of "Desiderata" - and were able to copy it this time. We remembered seeing this work several years ago, but at a time and circumstance where copying was difficult, to say the least! We liked what we read and are re-printing it with the idea that there may be others who get something out of it. It was said to have been found in St. Paul's Church (we don't know where) in 1692. "Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations of the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the council of years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the

Manuel Flores Buried Last Week In Carrollton

Manuel Flores, 66, died in Baylor University Medical Center, Dallas, Thursday morning. He suffered a severe heart attack about Thanksgiving and after being in a Del Rio hospital for treatment, he and Mrs. Flores were taken to Carrollton to be with their sons, Raul and Mario Flores. Open heart surgery had been considered there but repeated heart attacks since he has been in Carrollton made it impossible.

Funeral services were in the Mary Immaculate Catholic Church, Carrollton, Saturday morning with interment in Calvary Hill Cemetery.

He was born June 14, 1906, in Del Rio, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Flores Sr., who lived in Sanderson and Del Rio. He and his wife, the former Teresa Perez, had made their home here all of their married life. He was the captain of a sheep shearing crew, had been employed as an auto mechanic at McKnight Motors and also had his own auto repair business. Ill health forced his retirement several months ago.

Besides his widow, and the two sons, he is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Richard Riggs, of Union, N.J., and Miss Betty Flores of Los Angeles, Calif.; also three grandsons; four sisters, Mrs. Chona Longoria of Sonora; Mrs. A.C. Maldonado and Mrs. Cruz Hernandez, Del Rio; Mrs. Connie Perez, Odessa.

Pallbearers were Luis Cobos, Rudy and Armando Zepeda, Alex Esquevil, Jesse Alonzo, all of Carrollton and Danny Garza of San Antonio.

Among out-of-town relatives going to the funeral services were Mrs. Reynaldo Garza and sons, Louis and Danny of San Antonio; Messrs and Mmes. A. C. Maldonado and A.S. Directors Renamed To Water Board

Weldon Cox and Edward Kerr were re-elected to a two-year term as directors of the Terrell County Water Control & Improvement District #1 in the election Tuesday.

There were only 37 votes. Cox got 29 votes, Kerr got 20, Louise Causey 14, and Tom Breeding 9.

Inclement, cold weather may have been responsible to some degree for the light turn-out for the election.

The election was open to all qualified resident voters in the district which is comprised roughly of the town of Sanderson, with the exception of the Loma Vista Addition west of town on U.S. 90.

New Reporter For District Court

Freddy Casados, formerly of Dumas, took over his new duties as court reporter for the 63rd Judicial District last Tuesday after his recent appointment. With his wife and daughter, 14-months-old, he is residing in Del Rio.

As court reporter for the 63rd Judicial District, he is responsible for recording and transcribing all testimony in court cases and will travel with Judge George Thurmond to Rock-springs, Sanderson, Brackettville, and Eagle Pass on the judicial circuit.

Ruel Adams attended the wedding of his niece, Miss Elizabeth Francois, and Sammy Morrison in Alpine on December 28. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Francois and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrison all of Alpine.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard White plan to leave Monday for Oklahoma City to attend a mid-winter conference for Methodist ministers and their wives. The four-day conference is sponsored by the South Central Jurisdiction Council on Ministries of the United Methodist Church. They are going on a special invitation of District Supt. Buren M. Stewart as registration is limited to 100 persons who have been in the ministry 10 years or less.

Overdue Books Sought by Library

The Friends of the Terrell County Public Library are making one last plea to all local residents who may have books on their shelves that are over-due for them to please bring them back and there will be no fine levied against the books.

The file of persons with overdue books will be contacted by officers of the organization and every effort will be made to personally recover the books that have not been turned in, according to Mrs. Irvin Robbins, president. She said that many of the books that were not turned in are valuable books and their absence from the shelves of the local library is depriving other people of the privilege of their use, the officers of the library stated.

WORK STARTED ON PRESBYTERIAN MANSE

Work has started on the addition to the Presbyterian manse which will consist of a bedroom, bath, and walk-in closet. The addition will be at the rear or west end of the house.

Extensive work of remodeling the minister's house is also planned in addition to the added rooms. The work is being done by a contractor from Ozona.

The work is in preparation for the move here of a new pastor for the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. David C. Marx, with his wife and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Hartzog took their daughter, LaDawn Leach, to Odessa Monday for an appointment with an orthodontist. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clifford accompanied them on the trip for her to have a medical check-up.

Holiday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Vic Littleton were their sons, Bill, who attends Angelo State University, and Bob J. Littleton, and his wife of Midland; their daughters, Mrs. Sylvia Boyd and son, Jeff, of Abilene, Mrs. Wayne Sanders, and family of Amarillo, and Mrs. Tom Carruth, and family of Waco.

Ice and sleet and cold have been in this area all this week following a break in the weather last week that sent the thermometer plunging. There was some light snow fell last week, also some light rainfall reported in some parts of the county -- up to .20-inch.

Ice prevented traffic in and out of this area the middle of last week. The mail truck from El Paso did not arrive until after 5:00 p.m. Wednesday; its usual time is about 8:30 a.m.

Fog, light mist, drizzle, and cold weather prevailed over all of the weekend and Monday morning there was heavy fog over this area with more light mist and some freezing conditions.

Tuesday morning a light covering of ice was on everything and there had been sleet during the night, turning to and from drizzle. Icy conditions prevailed all day Tuesday and there was more of the same and worse predicted for later in the week.

Ice was said to have been responsible for an accident at the railroad overpass east of Sanderson, but there were no serious injuries, according to the report.

A cattle truck was reported to have slid off the highway and struck an electrical utility pole, knocking out the rural electric service for a time on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Carruthers Jr. and Mrs. C.P. Peavy went to Carlsbad, N.M., Friday to spend the weekend with Rev. and Mrs. M.A. Walker.

"Mama and Aunt Lelia 1916" is the caption on the picture loaned us by Mrs. E.E. Harkins Jr. "Mama" is Mrs. Harkins' grandmother, Mrs. W.A. Cochran, and "Aunt Lelia" is Mrs. Cochran's sister. The cows are a part of the diary herd of the Cochrans' and the next few pictures will be a continuation of the diary operation, and an effort to pictorially demonstrate the origin of milk in years past, another fact that has not basically changed.

Bible in Every Home is One Aim of 'Key '73' Campaign

One of Christianity's biggest evangelistic crusades a year-long effort known as Key '73, got under way in the United States and Canada this year.

Through the rest of this year participating church and denominations hope to saturate both countries with the Christian Gospel in a kind of "evangelistic blitz".

More than 130 Christian organizations, including several Roman Catholic dioceses, have joined Key '73.

Nationally, it has been endorsed by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and the National Council of Churches. The National Association of Evangelicals, however, has not endorsed it.

National coordinator of Key '73 is Rev. Dr. Theodore A. Raedeke of St. Louis, who served 14 years in the evangelism department of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Dr. Raedeke says crusade participants hope to get a Bible of some sort into every Christian dwelling in the U.S. and Canada this year.

He said the purpose of Key '73 is to "confront the people of our continent more fully and more forcefully with the Gospel of Jesus Christ by proclaiming, demonstration, witness, and ministry, in word and deed.

He said Key '73 is not designed to launch another ecumenical movement or coax churches into some new ecclesiastical structure.

*Garza Olivares
Wedding Saturday
In St. James Church*

Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, Miss Sylvia Olivares became the bride of Carlos Garza in a double-ring ceremony in St. James Catholic Church. Rev. John Pierce, pastor, officiated at the marriage rites in the presence of a few close friends and relatives.

Arrangements of red and white gladiolus decorated the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Alfonso Olivares. She wore a floor-length bridal gown of white embroidered organza over satin in Empire style with long petal pointed sleeves and high neckline. Her floor-length veil of illusion was attached to a pearl coronet. Her bridal bouquet was of fresh magnolias and carnations.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martinez, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olivares, and Miss Rosa Olivares, maid of honor. Miss Olivares' long formal gown was of white velveteen, Mrs. Martinez of green and Mrs. Olivares' red. Each carried a single red carnation tied in red satin ribbons.

An informal reception in St. James Hall followed the wedding. Red and white carnations decorated the bride's table, covered in a lace cloth, where wedding cookies and punch were served with the three-tiered bride's cake and the bridegroom's chocolate cake.

The couple made a short wedding trip to Del Rio and he has returned to Sul Ross University where he is a senior physical education major. She is employed at the C.G. Morrison store.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Jose Olivares and the late Jose Olivares. She is a graduate of the Sanderson High School.

The bridegroom, also a Sanderson High School graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Garza.

The bride-elect was honored at a bridal shower on Saturday, December 30, in St. James Hall with 20 attending.

Candles and flowers carrying out her color scheme of red and green decorated the refreshment table where chicken sandwiches, wedding cookies, dips, and chips were served with punch and the cake squares decorated in red and green.

The honoree opened and displayed her large assortment of gifts.

Hostesses were Misses Lupe Bustos, Yolanda Escamilla, and Lupe Garza, and Mmes. Robert Salazar, Alfredo Calzada, Joe Martinez, and Pete Olivares.
