LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:---
 Several questions are being asked by some people, interesting though they may be, we wish that some of them would be asked in the form of a "Letter to the Editor". It would put more people in a thinking mood, possibly, as it would be a genuine expression of some other person's thinking.

One of the statements, akin to the one of last week about the commissioner's court: It takes a majority of the court to initiate any official act! And on all decisions of the court, there is a vote taken and a majority is required to say that it is a decision of the court, and that it will be done! It would be untrue to say that one person is responsible for the court's activity in a particular project.

The Commissioners' Court is the only body in the county that is able to pass laws and be involved in projects and activities that can and do affect all of the citizens of the county. The school district, the water conservation and improvement district both also have the power to tax, but only the county and school district presently exercise that power in this county.

An incorporated town usually has the power to tax and usually has to tax in order to provide services to the residents. Incorporating Sanderson is no cure-all to problems of trash hauling, street maintenance, fire protection, police protection, building codes, zoning laws, cheaper taxes, nor any other thing. And the reason that incorporation is no immediate and positive cure-all, is because a government of an incorporated town is made up of people, and people is what makes up the governing body of the county, school, water district, or any other group.

Without making insinuations or doing anything besides expressing a positive fact: if Sanderson were incorporated, three of the present four of the county commissioners qualify in every respect as members of a governing body for an incorporated Sanderson. If they were the governing body of an incorporated Sanderson, they would have these problems of sanitation and street maintenance with some kind of limitation on available funds, and they also would have other obligations and duties they do not now have. But their duties would be restricted to the boundaries of the incorporated town, rather than the boundaries of the county. And their duties and obligations would also have legal bounds beyond which they should not pass either willingly or from pressure of any group or individual. Their governing of an incorporated town would not be divided into any lesser segments, which might be to an advantage.

What we are getting at is: There are so many things to be accomplished by a commissioners' court that would

Tax Raise Certain For School Funds In Coming Year

According to Superintendent Carroll B. Card, some kind of additional revenue is almost a certainty for the operation of the schools next year. The assertion came in an interview with The Times Monday.

Mr. Card stated that expenses of almost every item the school uses has climbed and the increase in pay for teachers is an additional expense that is already foreseen by the school board.

The legislature of Texas voted a 10-year pay-raise scale for public school teachers recently and the first 5% has already been added to the salaries. A first-year teacher has a base pay of $6,000 before the 5% increase, and tenure and degrees changes the base-pay for teachers up from that amount.

There will be a 10% cost-of-living increase effective in 1975 in addition to the built-in legislated increase, and another 10% cost-of-living increase is scheduled for 1978, which could be changed by legislation prior to that time, according to Mr. Card.

Mr. Card stated that the options open to the school board was a raise in the tax rate, a raise in valuations, or what would amount to the same thing by a change in both the valuations and rate.

Heart Attack and Stroke: They're never 'sudden'

A heart attack is often described as "sudden." Yet, there are no sudden heart attacks—only those that seem to happen suddenly.

A stroke is referred to medically as a "cerebrovascular accident." It's not an accident in human terms. Underlying causes build over the years.

Both have their roots in basic risk factors: high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol and excess cigaret smoking. Others include heredity, a lack of exercise, a diet high in saturated fats and cholesterol, and obesity.

"Some risk factors can be avoided by an alteration of lifestyle," says Dr. Richard S. Ross, president of the American Heart Association. "Others can be minimized by an awareness of them. But equally important, we should know and heed the early warning signs that often precede a heart attack or stroke."

Dr. Ross, Physician to the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and Director of the Cardiovascular Division of the Department of Medicine there, lists the warning signs, published in materials supplied as a result of Heart Fund contributions. They are:

Heart Attack

- Prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone.
- Pain may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.
- Pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating.

II

● Nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.

● Sometimes these symptoms subside and then return.

Stroke

● Sudden temporary weakness or numbness of the face, arm or leg.

● Temporary difficulty or loss of speech, or trouble understanding speech.

● Temporary dimness or loss of vision, particularly in one eye.

● An episode of double vision.

● Unexplained dizziness or unsteadiness.

● Changes in personality, mental ability or the pattern of headaches.

"As the warning signs indicate," Dr. Ross says, "heart attack is never sudden, stroke is never an accident. By being aware of these warning signs, and by seeking immediate medical help when they occur, you literally can save your own life."

Heart disease claims over a million lives each year, he continues. In the U.S. this year, an estimated 675,580 will die of heart attacks, and another 207,920 will suffer from fatal strokes.

"The goal of the American Heart Association is to save your heart," Dr. Ross adds. "When Heart volunteers call at your home during February—American Heart Month—they'll give you information on the warning signs of heart attack and stroke. Give generously to the Heart Fund."

Texas Brucellosis Program Started

Livestock producers in Terrell County will have a definite interest in the 1974 Texas Brucellosis Eradication Program, which officially began January 15.

Texas became "modified-certified" in August 1973, which meant that less than five per cent of the cattle herds and less than one per cent of the cattle were infected. The new plan will make Texas a Brucellosis-free state.

Brucellosis, commonly called Bang's Disease, is a costly, contagious disease of livestock that may also affect human beings, it is stated. The disease in humans is known as undulant fever. Although it may attack most farm animals, it is more common in cattle, swine, and goats. Herds with brucellosis may produce as much as 20 per cent less milk and 40 per cent less calves. Thus millions of dollars are lost each year.

The new program is designed to locate the infection, contain it and assist the owner of infected animals to eliminate the disease. Three different methods are used to locate infections: Brucellosis Ring Test for dairy herds, Market Cattle Test of all breeding cattle slaughtered, and Blood Test of all breeding cattle exchanging ownership.

All infected and exposed cattle are quarantined and their movement is limited to slaughter only. Blood testing procedures are used to assist owners of infected herds to free their cattle of the disease.

The new program includes: all cattle except steers, spayed heifers, and vaccinated animals under two years old, must be tested within 30 days of any change of ownership.

A relatively simple card test has been developed that gives quick results -- an improvement over the old system of sending blood samples to a laboratory. The cost of this initial test by a practicing veterinarian or other authorized person must be paid by the cattleman.

If a brucellosis reactor is found at a sale yard or slaughterhouse, federal or state personnel trace the animal back to its herd of origin. Trace-back tools include registered back tags or ear tags that many sale facilities are routinely putting on consigned animals. Ear tags are required for interstate shipment of most cattle.

Other animals in consignment where the reactor was found can be handled any of three ways: sold immediately for slaughter, sent to a quarantined feedlot, or returned to the ranch for quarantine.

All members of the herd of origin are considered exposed to the disease and must be tested at 30 and 120 days after the first reactor is found.

Government agencies conduct these additional tests and pay all the direct costs. All reactor animals must be branded with a "B" on the jaw and sold immediately for slaughter. Meat from these animals is not tainted, according to the story given The Times.

Final clearance on a state basis can be granted when no more than 1 per cent of the herds in any one county and not more than 2 per cent of the cattle in that county are confirmed reactors during an 18-month testing period.

The program is vital to Texas if we want to keep our interstate trade with Brucellosis-free states, the story emphasized.

Tax Collections By County Near 100 Per Cent Mark

Tax collections in Terrell County run near 100%, according to figures released by the office of the county tax assessor-collector.

For the period 1968-1972, the figure of 99.24% was the total collections figure, and this takes into consideration the taxes collected during the payment period before penalties are added on for late payment.

Mrs. A.J. Hahn, deputy tax assessor-collector, stated that tax payers in Terrell County have been very attentive to their tax obligations generally and a large number of the tax payers make their payment before January 1 each year in order to take advantage of the discount that is available for early payment.

Phone Subscribers Increase Here

Despite recession clouds on the horizon, telephone growth in Sanderson is expected to remain healthy following a strong 1973, says Don Lincoln, manager for Southwestern Bell.

"The total for telephones in Sanderson is 800, a 9% increase over 1972," said Lincoln. "That's part of 300,000 telephones gained statewide in 1973."

Lincoln said if the energy crisis doesn't cause a sharp decline in economic activity, "we may well need an 8 to 10 per cent increase in construction dollars for Texas in 1974 over what we spent in 1973. This year we'll spend $10-million a week in Texas to expand and improve telephone service, all of which can affect telephone service in Sanderson."

"We think this volume may increase this year, partly because of normal growth and partly because of the energy crisis. People may be calling more and driving less," the manager said.

To keep pace with Sanderson's growth, Lincoln said Southwestern Bell is planning installation of additional call switching equipment to help meet demands for increased customer service.

Library Conference To Be April 17

A conference on libraries called by Gov. Dolph Briscoe will be in Austin April 17. He called upon the Texas State Library in cooperation with Texas Library Association to plan the session.

"This conference will give Texans an opportunity to discuss what modern library services can do for their communities. As library users they want good service, and as taxpayers they want to know how much this service will cost," said one official.

In 1972 Texas cities and counties spent an average of $2.26 per capita to provide public library services. This ranks Texas as 37th among the 50 states. About 6.4% of the population have no local public library.

MRS. GEORGE ESCOBAR IS STUDENT TEACHING

Immigration Officers Apprehend 53,186 In This Region

Immigration officers in the 10-state Southwest Immigration Region apprehended 53,186 aliens illegally in the U. S. during January, according to a news release furnished The Times last weekend.

Southwest Regional Immigration Commissioner L.W. Gilman said that 47,216 illegal aliens were apprehended by Immigration Border Patrolmen working principally in areas near the United States-Mexican border, while Immigration Investigators working in urban areas apprehended 5,970 illegal aliens.

The Southwest Region, including Hawaii, California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma, has the largest alien population of any Immigration region.

While illegal aliens constitute the greatest problem, the Immigration Official pointed out that use of false documents to gain entry and smuggling of aliens are also serious problems. He described alien smugglers as vicious exploiters of Mexicans seeking entry to the United States in hopes of finding employment, and declared that smugglers have very little regard for the safety of their human contraband and often blackmail them during their stay in the United States.

It was also stated that during January Immigration officers intercepted 1,913 persons attempting to come into the U. S. using altered or counterfeit documents or by impersonating the true owner of the document.

Incidental to their regular duties, officers in the Southwest Region seized marijuana and narcotics valued at $1,782,796. Seizures included 17,629 pounds of marijuana, 28.07 ounces of heroin, small quantities of cocaine and hashish, and 17,543 narcotic pills.

Soil Maps Available To Area Residents

A general soil map has been completed for Terrell County and is available at the Soil Conservation Service Field Office in Sanderson. This general soil map shows the soil associations in the county. A soil association is a landscape that has distinctive proportional patterns of soils. It normally consists of one or more major soils for which it is named, although several minor soils also may be included.

This map is useful to people who want a general idea of the soils in the county. It can be used to determine suitability of soils to certain land uses for general planning. More specific interpretations should be based on a detailed soil survey and on-site investigations.

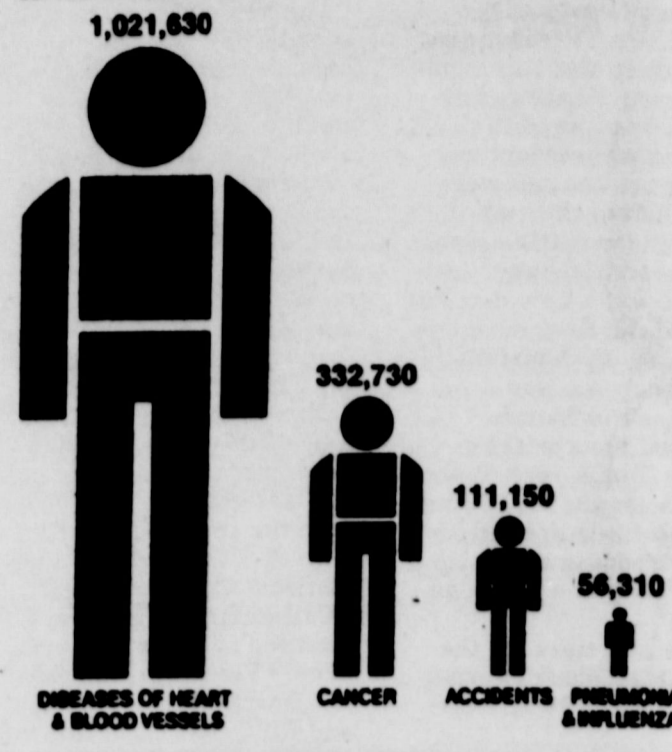

A table of soil interpretations is on the back of the map. Interpretations have been made for sanitary facilities, agriculture, community development, source materials, water management, recreation and wildlife habitat. The interpretation table lists the soil potential and the principal factors affecting the major soils within each association. The table lists only the principal adverse factors affecting uses.

Soil descriptions of the major soils in each association are also on the map. These descriptions give a general description of the soils, percent of each major soil in the association, other soils included, and the topography of the association.

Leading Causes of Death in U.S.A.

SOURCE: 1971 estimates from National Center for Health Statistics, U.S. Public Health Service, DHEW.

HEART ATTACK, STROKE and other cardiovascular diseases kill more Americans than all other causes combined. In 1974 these diseases will claim more than one million lives—53% of all deaths. During February, the Heart Fund campaign will seek funds to reduce needless death and disability by telling the public how to recognize the early warning signs of heart attack and stroke and how to reduce their risk of these killer diseases.

Kite Flying Dangers Told for Youngsters

"There's just nothing like a sunny, windy day to give kids - and some grown-ups, too - a case of kite-flying fever," observed Gene Thompson, district manager for Community Public Service Company. "But before you go charging out to give that new high-flyer a test flight, be sure you know the safety rules - and always abide by them."

"Make sure that there is no metal in the kite or kite string. Avoid electric wires, TV antennas, and busy streets and highways. Don't fly your kite on a rainy day, and above all, if your kite gets snagged on a power line, don't try to climb up and get it down. Call the electric company for help."

Kite-flying safety rules are being publicized in posters for school bulletin boards and in newspaper advertisements, both sponsored by the power company.

Fruit Trees Test Weather With Full Array of Blooms

Many fruit trees around Sanderson are in full bloom!

With the warm days that have been prevalent recently and householders watering the lawns, the combination has brought forth blossoms particularly on plum trees and peach trees.

The apricot trees have been delayed for some reason from blooming.

Fruit tree owners are holding their breaths (figuratively) in case of a late(?) freeze.

The annual harbinger of spring - the cactus in front of the postoffice, the mesquite, and return of buzzards - have not yet occurred.
