It Depends
onHow You
Look At It!

Last week, with Monday being a half-holiday for us and the rains that afternoon that caused us to be occupied with helping to alarm the people living in the lower areas of town, then later staying up half the night to "help watch" the water come down, we did not get much of a chance to talk to anyone about the damage out in the country as a result of the heavy rains.

We had driven out the road to see how much water there was on the flats and in the canyon and were amazed to see how far the water was spread out and how fast it was running on the flat this side of Longfellow.

The water was running several feet deep and was running very rapidly, had taken out a lot of fencing next to the highway or railroad and much damage was done by erosion out there.

Joe Brown Wednesday estimated several thousand dollars of damage to fencing alone and possible loss of some stock due to the high water. He had not been able to get into the area where he had some of the stock. He said there was also some stock pastured on his ranch by another rancher and any loss of stock by that person was not known at that time.

This is the third time - including the 1965 flood - that Brown has had a similar loss.

Sometimes people think the "town people" are the only ones that are seriously affected by the lack of flood control dams, but this is not the case! The loss of the livestock and fencing has been extremely high, but there has also been the loss of topsoil, and most of all, the incalculable loss of mental anguish to everyone that is affected in any way!

One of the other things that was noticed by us, and we heard similar comments, was the fact that there were many people who were acting concerned about the high water possibility and who were not directly involved by having property in the area that might be inundated.

This concern for friends, or concern about the property of friends, or just a general concern for the welfare of the town was written on the faces of many people, and expressed in actions before, during, and after the threat of high water locally.

There was no trouble, whatsoever, that we know of, in getting residents out of the area where water was most likely to be high. There was some concern over the curiosity of some residents which took them so close to the rushing water. When the wall of water hit the abutment by the bridge at the west end of Downie St. we had visions of several people being caught when the water came out of

To Open Office
Here on Monday

Michael P. Longley, M.D., announced this week that he would begin the practice of medicine in Sanderson Monday. Dr. Longley moved here last weekend from Garland.

Mrs. Longley is a nurse and will assist him in the treatment of patients in the office.

Dr. Longley asked The Times to announce that he would be in the office Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays from 9:00 a.m. to noon and 2:00 to 5:00 p.m., and on Wednesdays and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to noon.

Dr. Longley stated that he came to Sanderson to serve the people here and would do his best to be available at his office at the times stated, but he asked for the cooperation and understanding of patients when it was necessary to be out of town. He said that he was planning to do very little surgery practice and obstetrics practice, but there were times when it would be necessary for him to be away, but he would try to let patients know in advance, and also have someone in the office during his stated office hours to let patients know his next office schedule.

During their vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Rodriguez visited in San Antonio with their son, Julian Rodriguez, and family and in Pecos with their daughter, Mrs. Mike Leyva, and family.

Easement Report
Made Monday To Commissioners

The status of the flood control dam project was reviewed at the regular meeting of the Terrell County Commissioners Court Monday. Audrey F. Baker, Area Conservationist and Larry W. Seymore, District Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, met with the commissioners to review the status of easements of the Sanderson Canyon Watershed.

The information indicated that all easements had been secured on Sites 1, 4, 6, and 8. Only four landowner easements remain to be secured and easements from four utility companies remain to be secured.

Arrangements have been made with the utility companies for granting of all land right instruments involved.

There are 11 dam sites in the proposal, and with the four reported as easement-completed by the Soil Conservation Service, there remains seven sites to yet secure easements for, and covered by the four landowner easements and four utility company easements.

There are six dam sites on the Sanderson Canyon watershed and are numbered 1-6 by designation of the SCS project map, and sites 7-11 are on the Three-Mile Draw watershed, only one of which is complete, according to the report by the SCS.

On the Sanderson Canyon watershed, sites 1 and 3 are on the south side of the canyon and 2-6 on the north side. On the Three-Mile Draw watershed, 10 and 11 are on the east side of the draw and 7-9 are on the west side.

Other business transacted by the court included the authorization to advertise for bids for a crawler loader with the trade-in of a loader that has been used in precinct 3 for about 20 years; and authorizing payment of bills presented. Kerr Mercantile Co. was the only bidder on the equipment on the water well on the north side of the courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Garrett of Carrizo Springs visited last week with his aunt, Mrs. Elma Riley, and family.

Jr. High Gridders

Eagles Lose To
Balmorhea 21-13

The Sanderson Eagles lost their season grid opener to the Class A Balmorhea Bears here Friday night by a score of 21-13.

Sanderson got on the scoreboard first with a field goal by Kendall Billings from 19 yards out and in the second period, and that was the score at the end of the first half - 3-0.

In the third period, the Eagles worked downfield, but were unable to move the ball sufficiently well to risk a fourth-down try for necessary yardage and went for another field goal. Billings kicked his second score and Sanderson held a 6-0 lead.

In a few plays later, the Bears evened up the score

Everyone is looking forward to the new doctor, Michael P. Longley, M.D., opening his office here. There have been several inquiries in the past several days about when he will begin his practice.

We sincerely hope that his practice here is mutually satisfactory to him and to the community.

We cannot say that we hope that he stays busy - as that would indicate that we hoped that there was a lot of sickness here, or injuries. And we do not wish that.

For whatever the reasons he is coming to Sanderson to serve the people of this area with his ability and knowledge, we hope that he is happy with his practice here and that his patients are happy with the treatment they receive.

A good doctor is more than just a benefit to the sick and injured in the area he serves!

with a touchdown run of 54 yards. The try for the extra point failed.

In the same period, Frankie Flores took the ball over from the 3-yard mark and Billings converted the extra point to put the Eagles in the lead again by 13-6.

In the third period, Tommy Granado, Bear back, ran the ball over the goal line from the 2-yard line for their second touchdown and Robert Gomez ran over for the two points extra to give the lead back to Balmorhea - 14-13.

During the final frame, the Bears' Abel Anchando exploded through the Eagle line and secondary for a 40-yard run and score that proved to be the icing for the cake. Balti Dutchover kicked the extra point to leave the game at 21-13 in favor of the visitors.

Sanderson was able to move the ball well in the center area of the field, but the Eagle power decreased and the Bear stubbornness increased near their 20-yard line and deeper, preventing the Eagles from successfully completing several scoring threats.

Sanderson led in first downs 17-8, and yards rushing 237 to 207. Balmorhea led in passing yards 60-21 to boost the total offense in their favor 267-252. Each team completed two passes. The Bears lost three fumbles and the Eagles two. Sanderson and Balmorhea shared total penalty yardage with 55, but Sanderson had seven infractions and Balmorhea 5. Sanderson had six punts and a 21-yard average and Balmorhea punted five times for an average of 32 yards.

The Eagle coaching staff: Don Malone, George Black, Tommy Gray, and Bill Ford, stated that there were no injuries during the game with Balmorhea and barring accidents during the scrimmages this week, the Eagles would go into the Brackettville game with full strength and one more game's experience.

The Eagles will go to Brackettville Friday night of this week for a non-conference tilt and will have their next home game next week with Nueces Canyon.

The Eagle Band put on a half-time show that featured the twirlers, Rosalinda Lopez, Terry Harrell, and Susan Walton, while the band played "Will the Circle Be Unbroken", with Patti Hope, drum major, directing the band on the field. Dick Ramey is the band director.

Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Calzada made a business trip to San Angelo last week.

Dismissed from an Alpine hospital last week were Blas Hernandez, Joe Callahan, and Mrs. Martin Arredondo, all medical patients.

HOW'S YOUR FIRST AID IQ?

By The American National Red Cross

1. If someone stops breathing, you should first wipe visible materials from his mouth then tilt his head so his chin juts upward. True False
2. To control severe bleeding you should use a clean cloth and place pressure directly on the wound. True False
3. If a person has swallowed a poisonous substance, you should first cause that person to vomit. True False
4. To prevent or reduce traumatic shock, place the victim in a comfortable position, usually lying down, and maintain normal body temperature. True False
5. If you suspect a person has a broken back and he must be moved because of immediate danger, you should pull him from the side. True False
6. The application of a burn ointment is the proper first aid care for severe burns. True False
7. The primary care for suspected broken bones is to keep the bone ends and the adjacent joints quiet and to treat for shock. True False
8. If you suspect someone is having a heart attack, you should have him lie down in a comfortable position and assist him to take his prescribed medicine. True False
9. If someone suffers what appears to be a head injury, you should have him lie down with his feet elevated. True False
10. If a victim is unconscious, he should be turned to his side so secretions can drool from his mouth. True False

SCORING

1. True This clears the airway. Many times these actions will be sufficient to restore breathing. If not, then you should give mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration.
 2. True This procedure normally controls bleeding. If the bleeding is from an arm or leg, the extremity should be elevated. Sometimes pressure on the supplying blood vessel is also necessary.
 3. False The first step is to dilute the poison with water or milk. Do not induce vomiting when the poison is an acid, an alkali, or a petroleum product, and the victim is conscious.
 4. True Any serious injuries should be taken when a victim has any serious injuries.
 5. False If he must be pulled, it should be in the direction of the long axis of the body. It is best, however, to wait until trained help arrives if the victim is not in immediate danger.
 6. False A severe burn should be covered with several thicknesses of dry, sterile dressings. Seek immediate medical attention.
7. True This care prevents further damage from the jagged bone ends and helps to keep a relatively minor injury from becoming a more serious one.
8. True Place the victim in the most comfortable position, which usually is lying down with the head and shoulders raised. Do not give medicine if he is unconscious.
9. False Do not place the feet higher than the head. Do elevate the head.
10. True However, if there is a suspected neck or back injury, extreme care should be taken to turn his body as a unit.
- If you answered 0-4 correct, you are poorly prepared to offer effective help if something happens to you or your family.
- If you answered 5-7 correct, you're average, but you could use additional knowledge in first aid.
- If you answered 8-10 correct, put yourself on the back. No matter what your score, Red Cross urges you to sign up for the next first aid course offered in your community. It could save your life or that of someone you love.

Hours Told For Carlsbad Caverns

Carlsbad Caverns National Park Superintendent Donald Dayton has announced that new visitor hours will go into effect for the fall and winter season at the Caverns, following the Labor Day weekend.

Starting on September 3, the visitor center will open at 8:00 a.m. and trips into the main cavern will be offered from 8:00 a.m. until 3:15 p.m. daily. Bat flight programs will be continued throughout the month of September, and the visitor center will remain open until 6:00 p.m. each evening for as long as the bat flight talks are continued. Following the fall migration of the bat colony, which usually occurs in late October or early November, the visitor center will close at 4:30 p.m.

Concession facilities at the park, which include the restaurant, gift shop, nursery, kennel, will open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 4:30 p.m. daily under the new schedule.

Visitors desiring to make the complete three-mile trip through the Caverns should plan to enter the natural entrance no later than 2:00 p.m. once the new schedule goes into effect in order to have sufficient time for the Big Room portion of the trip. Supt. Dayton added that the fall season is usually an excellent time to visit the park, since groups are smaller, the weather is normally mild and pleasant, the bat flights are the most spectacular, etc.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped to make our grand opening a big success. Words cannot express our sincere appreciation to all of you. The plants and flowers were truly beautiful and we feel we were not giving, but were given a real "grand" opening.

All are welcome and each visit appreciated. We desire to please everyone and encourage you to let us know if we have failed.

Again, let us say a heartfelt "thank you" for your support. Most sincerely,
Bill and Jan Rose.
