SERVING THE INTERESTS OF RANKIN AND UPTON COUNTY

XXXXVIII—NUMBER 45

RANKIN (79778), UPTON COUNTY, TEXAS

Thursday, November 7, 1974

Grass Won't Grow on A Busy Street

...but Weeds Don't Do Half Bad

All the moisture that has been in Rankin over the past few months, it would appear that everything is growing in size—even in solid concrete.

exactly growing out of the pavement—as it appears to be. The site is that of an old service station and there is a small hole beneath the weed, up thru the old service island.

Rankin Rainfall Continues to Gain

With a light sprinkle falling at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Rankin had another .20 inches of rain over the past week to add to the yearly totals. This put the measurement through Wednesday morning at 30.54 inches.

Average annual rainfall for Upton County, according to the Texas Almanac, is 12.62 inches.

In addition to the extra moisture, the area is enjoying an extended growing season with no frost reported through November 5th.

Program Changed on

Due to the holidays coming up, the drug abuse program originally scheduled for this month's Burton Wives Club meeting has been postponed until after the first of the year. The club will still hold their regular monthly meeting, Tuesday, November 12.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Rankin Park Building.

Rankin Junior High 8th Grade

Front row: Rusty Lee, John Bell, Peter Sobotik, Dwayne Braden, Kenneth Fulton. Back row: Brent Collins, Mark Self, Richard Barrett, Brent Wrinkle, Wayne McKenzie, Lyn Mitchell, Sandie Bostick, Dee Kendrick, Albert Holcomb, Coach Lester Titsworth.

RANKIN GOES FOR NO. NINE — MANY FANS PLAN TRIP—

Devils And Fans Plan Lion Hunt

With the strongest team in District 6-A matched against one of the weakest in Friday night's football game — in far West Texas—it appears that the Red Devils will not only be the favorites but will possibly have a larger following of fans at the game than will the host team. Indications are that many RHS boosters will make the trip to Clint and the El Paso area, combining a week-end of supporting their favorite ball team with a short vacation in the Border City.

Due to the distances to be traveled, plus a TSTA District Meeting, there will be no school in Rankin Friday. Also, several businesses have indicated early closings in order to get to Clint in time for the game.

Clint, over the past 6 years, has been one of the easier marks for the Red Devil football machine. With the Devils having won all six of the previous encounters, Clint has managed a total of 16 points to 329 for the Maroon and White. Scores are:

| | | | |
|-------------|-----|-------|---|
| 1968 Rankin | 60, | Clint | 0 |
| 1969 Rankin | 55, | Clint | 3 |
| 1970 Rankin | 28, | Clint | 0 |
| 1971 Rankin | 43, | Clint | 0 |
| 1972 Rankin | 57, | Clint | 7 |
| 1973 Rankin | 86, | Clint | 6 |

For the current season, Rankin stands at 8-0 as compared to the 3-5 mark of Clint. In district action, the Red Devils are at 3-0 while the Lions are 0-3. RHS has a total eight-game output of 266 points to 65 for all opponents while the Lions have managed 77 points to 136 for their opposition. In district action, the Devils have now put 103 marks on the boards to 24 for their opponents and Clint is 29-102 in that department.

New Minister at Church of Christ

The Eugene Lowrys arrived in Rankin last week from Gorman, Texas. He is the new minister at Northside Church of Christ on Upton Street.

Originally from McKenney, the Lowrys have five grown children, three sons and two daughters, the oldest son is a minister also. Mrs. Lowry is Elma Mae.

Upton Voter Register Fair Turnout For Tuesday's General Election

Doing much better than the national average, 1116 Upton residents turned out to mark ballots in Tuesday's General Election. This was near fifty percent.

John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture, was the top vote getter in opposed state races. He marked up 812 to his Republican opponent's 128. Briscoe got 692 for Governor to 224 for Republican Granberry. Muniz, the Raza Unida candidate, got 18, the Socialists got 1 and the American Party candidate, 31.

In the 21st Congressional District's Representative race, it was 659 for Krueger, 190 for Harlan and 83 for Ed Gallion.

State Senator Pete Snelson, unopposed, got 888 votes to lead Upton voting in non-contested races. Tom Craddick (R), also unopposed, got 486 for State Representative.

In the County Judge's race, Peggy Garner received 784 votes to 193 for Walter Campbell on a write-in. County and District Clerk Beuna Coffee was the top vote-getter in the county with 911, running unopposed.

In the judge race, the vote by precincts was: Absentee, Garner 24, Campbell 6; Precinct 1, Garner 168, Campbell 30; Precinct 2, Garner 51, Campbell 27; Precinct 3, Garner 278, Campbell 59; and Precinct 4, Garner 263, Campbell 71.

Three Teams in Final '74 Games

Playing their last games of the 1974 season this Thursday will be the Red Devil B-Team and the Junior High's 7th and 8th Grades. A three-game affair is to be held here with McCamey as the opposition in all games.

Starting action at 4:00 p.m. will be the 7th Grade, followed by the 8th Grade and B-Team games at approximately 1½-hour intervals. In their last encounter back of Oct. 24, all three games were closely contested between these teams, with the B game a 0-0 affair.

The public is invited, free of charge to all three games, and the concession stands will be in operation.

The Scoop

CONGRATS —

A tip of the ole helmet is due the kids—and adults—of Rankin, for the very fine manner with which the recent Halloween event was celebrated. It was one of the more sane and reasonable such flingdings to be carried off here that I can remember.

A lot of credit must go to all who had a part in the one-night observance of trick or treating. It was a big success. And it might be well to point out that there was a little misunderstanding about that phase of the "game." Mainly, there was no effort intended to tell anyone—child or adult—when they could do their tricking and treating. It was simply a request that we all try to do it at the same time and avoid dragging it out over several night—for the reasons previously explained.

The Rankin (Texas) News —
Thursday, November 7, 1974

And as noted, the cooperation by the community as a whole was far beyond the expectations of anyone. I commend you all and especially our young people. I believe that I only saw one soap mark on a window and if there was any property damage.

JOB -

It appears that former Nixon is going to pull his ordeal in the hospi-I'm sure just about — regardless of what may have thought of him as ent or an individual— is for him to regain his es; however, point out et and that is that being ent just about ruins any health. It seems to me President Ford looks ten older now than he did at me he took office some or four months ago. It is possible that Lyndon Johnould still be alive today had it not been for his years in the White House—and he was a seasoned politician, well accustomed to the strain and stress, if there ever was one.

Ike didn't last long after his tenure in office and John Kennedy was showing signs of poor health before his death.
Roosevelt died in office.

About the only exception one can name out of the last half dozen men to hold the job was Harry Truman and he was a different sort of cat. But anyone who takes the job had better make sure his affair are in order for it seems to be one heck of a tough assignment.

VERY BAD -

What has to rank as some of the most disgusting pictures to ever be shown of Americans are those we are seeing in recent days of grown men killing livestock and dumping them into pits as a means of protesting the prices they are receiving for their product. The killing itself— although probably somewhat shocking to city folk who have probably never seen or given much thought to the fact that that particular fate awaits a large portion of all meat producing livestock— is not necessarily the bad part. It's the dumping of the meat into pits and letting it go to waste.

For that there is no excuse and there most certainly ought to be laws that prohibit such things. And the same goes for those who dump milk, drown chickens and trukeys or otherwise use childish and outlandish practices in efforts of protesting. It makes me sick and more than a little ashamed.

Far better to do as the farmers and ranchers did near Dallas on Monday when they gave away some 100 calves to "city folk" with the written understanding that those who took the stock would make an honest attempt to raise it. This is not only a practical means of protest, it left a good taste in ever-ones mouth and, perhaps, will indeed get across to the city dweller just what the problems are in raising livestock.

As for those who just shoot them and dump them, they need to be reminded that they are not forced by anyone to be in the livestock business—no more than I'm forced into the newspaper business. And you can't help wondering if these same people would not approve of solving the plight of the hungry by the same method— shooting them and burying them. It's not beyond a possibility.

something special"

ME —

If you one thing, sports 4th & 10 realized how Marfa Shorthorns
to last Friday night, ould have been a lot concern shown in this col-out the outcome of the Rankin not only beat a table" team, as one area ter called them, they gogone good team — at ey were good in Marfa day.

ver the years, I think rd will show that Marfa inning record for games en their home field. No, at have anything to do e officiating. I thought pretty good—maybe even a bit in Rankin's favor. Being somewhat on the thick side, it has taken me about fifteen years to figure it out but the reason the Horns play better in Marfa is the advantage they have in being accustomed to a higher altitude—about 4000 feet higher than Rankin.

It may well be that the boys themselves didn't notice it during the heat of the game but in the 4th quarter—near the end of the game, they appeared to be a bit winded—something you just don't see in a Red Devil team. However, when you consider the difference in the air, then it's not hard to understand. It's probably much to the credit of the conditioning of the Red Devils that they were able to look as strong for as long as they did.

And for any who think that the RHS crew can't grind it out against a solid ball club—well, you just wasn't at Marfa for that's exactly what they did.
And being a very important district game, I'd vote it as their best effort so far this year.

A SIDE NOTE —

The Red Devils may never be

What Long Hair?

They made the deal and they stuck with it. Members of the 7th Grade football team told their coach, Bud Poage, that if they won last Thursday's game with Imperial, he, Poage, had to get a burr hair cut. If they lost, then the team would get the burr.

They did. And they did.

Commented one of the boys:
"Man, I feel three or four years younger." All 40 and over types, please note.

featured on a nation-wide television game, but they did impress at least one "foreigner." Near the end of the game, a chap walked up on the side of the field behind the Red Devil bench and asked, "Where are you people from?"

Several of us looked at him like we thought he had to be trying to josh us. We thought he was from Marfa. Finally, someone said, "Rankin."

"Rankin? Where the heck is Rankin?" he wanted to know.

By now Doc Gossett, Jerry Hefflin and some of the rest of us were sure we had ourselves a wiseguy. Then he said that he was from California—was one of the judges at the Terlingua Chili Cook-Off. After learning that the Red Devils were on the verge of going to 8-0 for the season, he seemed to be sincerely impressed.

So, Red Devils, always look sharp. You can never tell who is watching.

THIS WEEK —

So, comes now the Clint Lions and you can't help wondering why so many fans are all hopped up about going to see the game. After all, on paper, it's going to be Rankin for sure.
I guess it's just that a lot of the fans hope to see some of that snow they've been having out in El Paso. Certainly, it wouldn't be that they are using the ball game as an excuse to take in some of the attractions offered by the Border City—could it?

Anyhow, as for the Red Devils, they had better not be looking ahead or going out there expecting the Lions to roll over and play dead—that is, if they want to keep a perfect record.
Clint was 4th & 10's choice to finish second in the district at the start of the season. True, they haven't done as well as expected but they are not the Clint that Rankin has spanked with all ease over the past few years.

Former Rankinite Gets Certificate

Cruz B. Sanchez, a former Rankin resident, was recently awarded a Structure Certificate after completing 400 hours of training. He is an employee of Steele Construction Company of Rapid City and Belle Fourche, South Dakota.

The son of Julia B. Sanchez of Rankin, he is married to the former Lucille Brien of Culbertson, Montana. They have one son, Steven Ray, and live in Belle Fourche.

Patsy Northcott Hosts Sorority

Patsy Northcott was hostess for the October 28 meeting of the Omicron Tau Chapter of Rankin Beta Sigma Phi. The meeting was held in the North-cott home in Rankin.

President Betty Neal called the meeting to order and after a short business session, plans were made for the upcoming Rituals and Tea, to be held on November 11. Jan Heffernan brought the program on "Love."

A spokesman for the chapter said that "Omicron Tau thanks you, the people of the community, for making the Halloween Carnival a success."
