Unemployed Vets Outnumber Civilian Unemployed Sixteen To One In Morton

Unemployed veterans outnumbered unemployed civilian workers 16 to one in Morton, Mr. B. H. Thomson, District Supervisor for the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, reported today, comparing veteran unemployment with individuals receiving civilian unemployment insurance. He said that the veterans were searching for jobs themselves and that the employment service was aiding but that churches, civic clubs, and merchants associations were needed to help solve this major employment problem—the re-employment of war veterans.

In Morton there are 4 unemployed civilian workers and 64 unemployed veterans. The latter are receiving readjustment allowances under the G. I. Bill of Rights, which is administered by the TUC in Texas through agreement with the Veterans Administration. Payments under the G. I. Bill comes from monies supplied by the VA out of congressional appropriations for that purpose.

Our economy will be unbalanced until these veterans find jobs, Mr. Thomson declared, explaining that this was not only a local problem but nationwide. Everyone has got to help because our post-war economy is not absorbing them fast enough. These unemployed veterans want the kind of jobs on which they can build a future, get married, raise a family.

Mr. Thomas said that in the past instances where the veterans have refused suitable jobs, their allowances have been stopped as provided in the G. I. Bill.

Infant Son Born In Hawaii Dies

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jordan received a cablegram from their son-in-law, G. E. Moffett in Hawaii last Saturday notifying them of the premature birth and death of a son to Mrs. G. E. Moffett, daughter of the Jordans. Mrs. Moffett had only arrived in Hawaii four days before her hospitalization. Mr. and Mrs. Moffett have a little daughter, George Lee.

Moffett has been in the Navy four and one half years, serving as a Radar specialist on a submarine until his recent land assignment as Radar instructor in Georgia. Mrs. Moffett and Georgia Lee have been living in Santa Monica, California. As the Tribune goes to press further word concerning Mrs. Moffett's condition has been received.

McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weaks, and Guy Reed, Kenneth Coffman, Roy Hill, Larry Kelley, and Robert Porter, newly elected Commander of Morton's Jesse R. Bond Post No. 374.

Delegates and alternates from Morton to attend the September 3, 4, 5, and 6 state Legion convention in Galveston will be elected at a future date.

Approximately 500 Legionnaires attended the Lubbock convention.

A joint meeting with the Legion auxiliary was conducted Sunday morning, with about 75 auxiliary members attending. Robert W. Sisson, manager of the regional office of the Veteran's administration in Lubbock, Herman Nami, department commander, and W. J. Danforth, national committeeman from Fort Worth, spoke at the morning joint session, Henry Teubel, commander of the division, from Tullia, presided.

Sisson, asking the tolerance of veterans of the area, told the Legionnaires that the West Texas Veterans' administration regional office here is laboring under a reservoir of work inherited from other VA regional offices who formerly served the area.

"We want each veteran and his dependents to have everything coming to them under the law—and at all times, a service officer appearing in behalf of a veteran will receive the attention of a rating board at this office."

The division upheld a resolution introduced at the district convention by the Ralls delegation calling for careful investigation of persons to whom American Legion awards of honor are made. The resolution was the direct result of the Legion Distinguished Service Medal having been awarded to William Randolph Hearst, nationally known newspaper executive, to whom

Low Bids For Farm-To-Market Road In Cochran Received

Low bids for two Farm-to-Market roads in Bailey and Cochran Counties were announced Tuesday by the State Highway Commission.

Kay Williams of Midland submitted a low bid of $72,578.28 for a 11 mile project on F. M. Highway 54 extending from Enochs to the Lamb County Line, connecting with the existing pavement into Littlefield. The proposal calls for grading, structures, flexible base and asphalt surface.

Kerr and Middleton of Lubbock was low with a $49,065.62 bid for 6.7 miles of F. M. Highway 596 connecting Maple in Bailey county with U. S. 290 into Morton. The Maple road proposal calls for grading, drainage structures, roadbed treatment and asphalt surface.

It is estimated construction of the two projects will begin within 30 to 60 days, provided formal contracts are approved and executed by the Highway Commission and concurrence obtained from the Public Roads Administration.

The Bailey and Cochran county projects are two of 35 involving 281 miles of Texas Farm-to-Market road for which bids are being received Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a part of the State Highway Department's three year $60,000,000 Federated Road Program which, together with scheduled improvements to the primary highway system, will bring 62 per cent of all Texas rural dwellings within one mile of a paved road; 74 per cent will be within two miles.

Through the June letting the Commission has asked for bids on 123 similar projects since the program was released for contracting in January. Eight of these roads have been completed and now serve the hundreds of farmers and ranchers living along them. Other are rapidly nearing completion.

The first postwar Farm-to-Market project to be completed in the nation was in the Texas Panhandle. The Texas three-year program of 837 Farm-to-Market projects is nearly double that of any other state.

REDEDICATION--JULY 4th

TRAIL DUST

By
DOUGLAS MEADOR

Meek slave that I am, chained to the oar of cigarettes, habit's lash has whipped away memories of freedom. Condemned by my own decision, I am as a prisoner whose sentence is ended with a moat of fear beyond the familiar walls. The path of least resistance is a corridor of strong bars and locked doors.

With his head in the clouds and moon mist it was easy for the slender boy to dream his dreams of pastel splendor. Poverty was merely the earth upon which his feet stood, temporal as the shadow of a tree. Perhaps he would have hitched his wagon to a star had his hopes been less real. Instead he harnessed a team, one a fire-tailed comet that raced unreigned through half of his life before stumbling into oblivion. He was famous and rich too young, an actor on the stage before his cue. Too proud to humble his heart with love, the golden girl married another in desperation and defeat, while he kept the haughty mistress of success. He is grey and broken now, bleached shell on the desolate shore of time. None share his memories of the past; the groceryman writes his ticket for a loaf of bread with cultivated arrogance.

Half of the world's wisdom rests its power with meekness. Stormy words are the winds rattling the leaves and having passed, leave no trace of their passing.

Rain on the roof has not changed its sound since the nights as a little boy I slept at the foot of my parent's bed and dreamed contentedly to its music.

Life is full and sweet to the dark-eyed man who returned from the wars without bitterness. There is a song on his lips and each hour is an adventure filled with sixty enticing minutes. He is neither young nor old, but seasoned with experience. He would like to be in love if its sweetness could be had without its pain.

Contentment must perish when it is procured through the unhappiness of others, unless its

Cooked A Fine Dinner; Then Threw It To Dog

One lady recently stated that she used to throw her own dinner to the dog most of the time. It made her sick just to look at anything to eat. She was swollen with gas, full of bloot, had headaches, felt worn out and was badly constipated. Finally she got INNER-AID and says she now eats everything in sight and digests it perfectly. Bowels are regular and normal. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug Stores herein Cochran county. A claim is staked on the frontier beyond the river at life's boundary.

Simmering in the juice of forgotten ages, the mountains speak silent hosannas to summer skies. A blue hawk circles the elevated mesa with impudent assurance of endless space; of power to let the world glide beneath sturdy pinions. Piles of white clouds push their shadows across the distance and silence makes overtures to the restless leaves in tall trees that follow a gurgling irrigation ditch. Verdant fields suckle at the breast of nature.

Black whirlwinds of smoke climb into clean sky above the high plains. Carbon black plants weave a web of soot across the prairie and white-faced cattle graze beneath the contaminated shadows. Industry has crawled from the clustered chimneys of cities to spawn on ranges from which the smokes of campfires have long vanished. But the cattle remain in placid herds to feed upon the eternal grass.

Beauford Jester Tours State

Folks in many sections of Texas have had a chance to see and talk to Beauford Jester of Corsicana, candidate for governor, during his tour of the state in the past two weeks.

In large cities and in small towns they have listened to him discuss the principals of his "People's Path" Platform. Jester has stated that he will stick to the principals in his "People's Path" and will make no rash promises or far fetched predictions in his campaign for the governorship.

In his tour of the state Jester urged:

A long range, planned campaign to rebuild depleted farm lands;

An expanded public health educational program to reduce disease and to raise public health standards in Texas;

A traffic and highway safety campaign to reduce the steadily mounting toll of accident victims throughout the state; Pledged support for an adequate state police highway patrol;

Higher salaries and better working conditions for teachers in all public schools and colleges;

The establishing of a first class medical school and other educational facilities for negroes at Prairie View University;

The building of more farm-to-market roads in all sections of Texas where roads are needed;

Condemned attempts of OPA Director Chester Bowles to make a deal with labor whereby agriculture would be hamstrung by stabilized farm prices in return for which labor would agree to a one year strike truce.

THE TWIN MEETS—IN RECORD-BREAKING TIME!—A new east-west speed record was set by this new Navy Neptune patrol bomber, a two-motored Lockheed P2V, when it sat down at Burbank Field, Calif., 9 hours 23 minutes and 2 seconds after its take-off from Floyd Bennett Field. This sliced 39 minutes off the previous best speed, despite poor flying conditions that forced the plane 150 miles off course. The Neptune was piloted by Commander Thomas D. Davies, of Chevy Chase, Md., and carried three naval crewmen and two civilian passengers.

TRI-STATE TATTLER

By Bill Cox

Sidelights on the life of a roving reporter: The bus in Vernon's depot was filled up before I even got to the door. I stepped on and walked to the rear of the aisle. Before I could turn about, I was pinned in by stampeding passengers behind me. So I spent the entire trip to Chillicothe standing up and facing the rear. Passengers were crammed in so tightly it was impossible to move an inch. . . . We upright passengers breathed under the able direction of our driver, "one, two, OUT. . . three, four, IN". We had to exhale and inhale in unison, or not exhale and inhale at all. . . . Everybody was perspiring terribly, it being a lovely June day of 100 degrees. The whole bus would have been an A-1 sales exhibit for a Lifebouy salesman. . . . Incidentally, our driver got awfully mad when he discovered a lady had several baby chickens aboard. And you couldn't blame him, for six passengers could have occupied that space taken by the hat box containing the chicks. . . . At Chillicothe they squeezed somebody off, leaving an empty seat right beside me. Promptly I plunked into it. I felt sorry for those gray-headed ladies standing, but I'm more the type of guy described so aptly in a recent magazine: "Be alert, lady, I get off at the next town". . . . As I opened this spiel of silliness, I spoke of Vernon's bus depot—extraordinary. It's really a fine bus station, equal I think to that of a town several times larger than Vernon. It's the only pleasant memory I have of this trip. . . . I got off at Quanah and with my luggage and typewriter tucked under my arm, staggered bow-leggedly to a hotel. I asked for a room and bath. About this time the clerk had hysterics. "Sir, I don't even have a room." Nor did any other place in town, including the tourist courts. Migratory farm labor there for the harvest had every place taken. . . . Though I didn't get a room, it did give me an idea for a story. Braving the sweltering heat, I made it to the cool confines of County Agent Bill Rector's office. We discussed the harvest and here's how Bill summed it up for his region.

"The Quanah area is about through with its harvest this week—about 80 per cent completed. The 'combines' and tractors are drifting north, up into the Panhandle". . . . The drifting farm labor is evident everywhere. Many of them are riding the buses, poor guys. They are all over practically every farm town, looking for a place to stay, registering with the county agent or whoever is responsible for getting them placed with farmers.

Speaking of Quanah, the Chamber of Commerce says the town is thinking strongly of revising the oldtime Oklahoma-Quanah wolf hunt. . . . Also, Quanah plans a gala Fourth of July celebration, which will feature a brilliant display of some new-fangled fireworks. . . . Took another bus out of Quanah. It left at 4:45 in the evening. It was hot for a while. Then the sun set and coolness swept over the bus. Passengers welcomed the relief like people craving a cool drink of water after a day in the sun. . . . An elderly man got on the bus at Clarendon. He was 63 years old, but didn't look it. I failed to get his name. He said during his many years he had traveled over the entire world, and in his estimation Clarendon was the cleanest and nicest little town he'd ever been in.

Attention Farmers!

If you have never grown Blackeye Peas and intend planting them this year as a commercial crop, here are some good rules to follow.

- 1—Be sure to get good seed with high germination.
- 2—Use bean plates. Do not use corn plates. They crack half the seed.
- 3—Plant at least 10 lbs. seed per acre.
- 4—A good planting date for West Texas is between July 4 and July 20.
- 5—Plant and Cultivate almost like cotton. Be sure to hill vines up above level so you can combine them dry in case you fail to pick them green.

At any time that I can be of any help to you don't hesitate to call on—

Features Of The Week At Your Wallace Theatre

Johnny Mack Brown and his pal, Raymond Hatton, have their hands full when they deal out justice to vicious Border Bandits in the feature western for Friday and Saturday. As two U. S. Marshalls the pair are seen in the midst of their out-door fast action thrillers.

Saturday Prevue, 11 P. M. "Alimony Wives", a problem which directly affects many U. S. servicemen, and indirectly their families, is dramatically presented. The story exposes a racket which is nothing less than a razing. Many girls are employed as the leaders of a gang, and each makes it her business to marry several men in uniform so that she may turn over to the indicate the many resulting pay allotments and insurance benefits.

Sunday and Monday we really turn a bomb shell loose in Morton, well it's about the same thing, it's Abbott and Costello in "Hollywood", their latest laugh riot. Here is the picture that has the funniest comedy situation you've ever tried to cramble Bud and Lou out of—this time they are a couple of arbers who crash the studiosets and I mean Crash is the word. For Tuesday we have coming Morton, King of the Juke box tunes, Jimmy Wakely, full of fine tunes excitement and fast gun play as he rides and sings in "The Lonesome Trail."

7th Annual Cotton Research Congress Scheduled To Be Held In Dallas July 8-9

DALLAS—Authorities on cotton, cottonseed, world trade and related subjects are listed on the program for the seventh annual Cotton Research Congress in Dallas, July 8-9, announced today by Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, general chairman of the Statewide Cotton Committee of Texas.

The program, combined with a record number of exhibits of varied cotton and cottonseed products and equipment, will attract an attendance of key leaders from all major Cotton States, Jackson said.

Following keynote addresses by Jackson and President Gibb Gilchrist of Texas A. and M., program chairman, the opening session Monday morning, July 8, will be devoted to discussions of world markets, with Dr. A. B. Cox of the University of Texas presiding.

Ben J. Williams, New Orleans, past president, American Cotton Shippers Association, will discuss "Possibilities of Exporting U. S. Cotton."

"Cotton and Post-War World Trade" will be the subject of an address by Dr. Amos E. Taylor, Director, Office of Business Economics, Department of Commerce, Washington.

The Honorable Willard L. Thorp, United States Department of State, Washington, also will be a featured speaker on a subject related to world affairs.

Monday afternoon's session will have as its theme, "A Sound National Cotton Policy," with Dr. Ide P. Trotter, Texas Extension Director, presiding.

H. H. Williamson, assistant director of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Extension Service, will discuss the Extension Service Cotton Educational program.

Joe F. Hembree, economist, University of Arkansas, will speak on "Geographic, Technological and Economic Bases of a Sound Cotton Production Policy."

Umar Fleming, Jr., president, Anderson, Clayton and Co., Houston, will speak on "Barrier to a Sound National Cotton Policy" in an address that is expected to prove of wide interest.

Maurice R. Cooper, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, will lead the discussion at this session.

Emily Wilkens, New York, foremost designer of clothes for teenage girls, will be a featured speaker on the program for the night session Monday, arranged by Ed Lipscomb, director of the sales promotion division of the National Cotton Council.

"A Layman Looks at Cotton Research" will be the subject for the Council's program; and participants will include Ward Delany, Charlottesville, Virginia, president, Institute of Textile Technology; and M. K. Horne, director of the Council's research division.

Cottonseed and its products will be the theme for the Congress program Tuesday morning, July 9, with Henry G. Womble, Caldwell, chairman of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee, presiding.

For Lieutenant Governor

ALLAN SHIVERS of Jefferson County

Senator Allan Shivers is basing his appeal for promotion to Lieutenant Governor on service to his state and his country. Dean of the Texas Senate, he is rated one of the ablest and most active members of the legislature and, on his record alone, is entitled to be promoted to the rank of presiding officer of the Senate. He spent two years overseas as a soldier in World War II.

"Cottonseed, the Southwest's Diversifier" will be the subject of Doctor Louis E. Hawkins, vice-director, Oklahoma Experiment Station, Stillwater; P. M. Jarvis, vice-president of Swift and Company, Chicago, will speak on "Industry Makes Markets for Cottonseed"; and A. Cecil Wamble, Manager, Texas Cottonseed Products Research Laboratory, College Station, will discuss "New Opportunities Through Research."

Final session of the Congress, Tuesday afternoon, will be built around efficient production and use of cotton, with Victor H. Schoffelmayer of "The Dallas News", presiding.

"The World Cotton Outlook" will be discussed by Francis G. Hickman, publisher of "The Cotton Trade Journal", Memphis, who recently made an extensive tour of European cotton centers.

C. D. Walker, Washington, chief, Cotton Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, will lead discussions at this session.

Farm production will be discussed by two leading cotton growers at this session. "Cotton Plantation Problems" will be the subject for George Chance, Bryan, Texas; and F. O. Masten, Morton, will discuss "Western Cotton Efficiency." Don L. Jones, Lubbock, superintendent of the Texas Substation, will speak on "Cotton Harvesting Losses on the Plains."

In order for the Congress programs and exhibits to reach the maximum number of cotton growers and agricultural and business leaders, "Cotton Caravans" are being arranged from nearby towns, composed of ginners, oil millers, farmers, County Agents, Chamber of Commerce executives, bankers and business leaders. Such a plan, developed in cotton communities within driving distance of Dallas, will enable many to attend who otherwise could not do so because of limited hotel space, Congress leaders point out.

Workers Entitled To Receipt Of Old-Age Survivors Tax

Every worker is entitled to a receipt for the old-age and survivors insurance taxes deducted from his pay by his employer, John Palmer, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Board pointed out today.

The Internal Revenue Code, as amended, in the section which relates to old-age and survivors insurance taxes, provides that "every employer shall furnish to each of his employees a written statement or statements, in a form suitable for retention by the employee, showing the wages paid by him to the employee after December 31, 1939," Mr. Palmer said.

This specifies that the statement shall be furnished at least once a year, and in every instance when the employee leaves the employment, no matter what the reason, it must be furnished at the time of the last payment of wages. The statement must show the name of the employer, the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within the period, and the amount of the old-age and survivors insurance tax deducted. In case the employer gives the worker such a statement with each payment of wages, he may substitute the date of the payment for the period covered.

Congressman George Mahon Returns To District For Brief Visit With People

Congressman George Mahon has returned to the District and will spend the brief time remaining between now and the July primary visiting among the people of the 19th District in the interest of his candidacy for re-election.

It will be impossible for him to thoroughly cover the 25-county district and see all of the quarter million people of the great area which he represents in Congress.

The Congressman has been at his post of duty in Washington where Congress is still in session. Congress has been in session all or a part of each month for 6 years with the exception of four months.

The Congressman stated that during these anxious years desperately important events had transpired at home and all over the world. "The World has been on fire," he said, "and we have all had a job to do." Fear and insecurity still threaten from many quarters.

George Mahon is one of the top members of the powerful House Appropriations Committee. He advocates abundant expenditures to keep America strong and for the support of the program for Veterans, but rigid economy in the regular departments of Government.

Mr. Mahon is the ranking majority member on the War Department Appropriations Committee where he works for National Security, a greater program of research and development, R. O. T. C., the National Guard, superior Air Forces.

The members of the 8-man committee were accorded national recognition for their work in sponsoring the Atomic Bomb Project which saved untold American lives, enabling us to outstrip enemy nations that were seeking to perfect the bomb.

The Congressman is the number two man in the House of Representatives charges with handling all appropriations for Veterans and Public Roads. He was able in cooperation with Veterans' organizations to secure a regional office of the Veterans Administration at Lubbock to serve West Texas. The only other such offices in Texas are at Dallas, Waco, San Antonio and Houston.

The 19th District Congressman is Chairman of the sub-committee which is charged with appropriating the money and approving the programs of the government in maintaining for the next two years support prices and loans on cotton, wheat, and other basic crops so important to West Texas producers in the past post war years.

The seniority system is the system under which Congress operates. By reason of seniority Mahon is slated to become Chairman of the Texas Congressional Delegation next year.

The people of the 19th District by keeping George Mahon in Congress have enabled him to reach a position of power and influence for the good of West Texas.

Mr. Mahon, who is known as George to thousands of constituents, and prefers to be called George, takes pride in trying to serve the people in matters small and great.

"As your hired hand in Washington," Mahon said, "I have been confronted with many difficult problems, as has been the case with you folks at home. You have cooperated with me and placed your trust in me in matters of the greatest importance. Our beloved and powerful nation is confronted with its best opportunity for happiness and prosperity. We must remain strong and help guide the world in paths of peace, thereby saving civilization from utter destruction. That is our number one task."

"Our District is one of the great agricultural districts of the nation. I was born and reared on a farm and I know something about the benefits of soil conservation, the need of REA, full parity income—the need for the kind of Government that will promote the well being of all our people."

There are 435 members of the House, all of whom are competing for power and influence in order to better serve their Districts. The 19th District Congressman outranks in point of service 317 members. George Mahon is serving his 6th term. He is 45 years of age.

Rats Considered A Serious Menace To Mankind

AUSTIN—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases which are transmitted to man from the rat are known to medical science, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. The whole history of the role rats play in the transmission of disease remains as yet unknown.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products."

The doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, the use of ratproof materials in construction, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof buildings or in ratproof containers, the proper storage and disposal of garbage, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace, but in improved health conditions and the prevention of rat-borne diseases.

100 Texas Veterans Will Be Benefited Contract Of Vocational Education

Approximately 8,000 Texas war veterans, training in peacetime in county-sponsored vocational schools, will be benefited by the contract between the Veterans Administration and the Board for Vocational Education to become effective July 1. Under the contract terms, the administration of some 75 approved county vocational schools is centered with the State Vocational Board, with the VA supervising the veterans in the schools.

This agreement more fully provides for training veterans in agriculture, business, trade and industry. Vocational instruction will be provided. Certification of administrative control of the state is expected to make uniform the standards of the county schools and speed up VA tuition payments.

VA is to pay $29 per veteran per month, all but $4 of which is to be channeled to the local school involved. The Board will retain the $4 additional administrative cost imposed by the contract. Its cost is expected to decrease sharply when the program is a few months old. By September 1 the VA predicts the number of county-sponsored vocational schools will increase to 100, eventually growing to 150 with an average enrollment of 100 veterans. It was emphasized by the Dallas branch director of vocational rehabilitation and education that "schools will be set up when and where they're needed."

Veterans enrolled in agricultural training must devote at least 36 hours a week to their programs and a minimum of 200 hours per year in classroom instruction, the course of training taking three years to complete. Men in trade and industrial training must spend a minimum of 30 1/2 hours a week in training. Classroom instruction in allotted 12 1/2 hours weekly, and the veteran must spend not less than 18 hours weekly working on the job under supervision of the school coordinator. Veterans enrolled for business training in county vocational schools will also be trained by a plan calling for classroom instruction in addition to actual on-the-job activities. The trainee-farmer will study

Texas' Oldest Voter

Senator Allan Shivers, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, of Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas, receiving a check for his filing fee from Capt. Roderick Donald Steele, Texas' oldest voter. In presenting the check, Captain Steele, representing the citizens of Port Arthur, expressed the voters' appreciation for his 12 years faithful service to the district and reminded him that he was the youngest senator to take the oath of office when first elected to the Senate. (Shivers is now dean of the Senate).

Captain Steele for many years has refused to tell his age, but old-timers say that he is now 106. He still works daily as a marine surveyor, climbing over ships to inspect their cargoes.

Sidelights From Washington

By George Mahon

It would, of course, be incorrect to assume that primary elections in all fact is that as of the date this is being written, June 22, primary elections have already been held in 18 states, involving a total of 213 seats in Congress. A total of four members of Congress have been defeated in the primary elections held thus far.

The earliest primary was held on April 9 in the state of Illinois. Primaries were held in Massachusetts and Michigan this week. On Monday the primary will be held in Maryland, Mississippi and Oklahoma hold their primaries on July 2.

Yesterday afternoon the House passed the War Department Appropriation Bill. This bill was written by the eight-man committee of which I am a member. We devoted six weeks to the job of conducting the hearings, writing the bill and passing it through the House. It required a printed volume of 1183 pages to record the testimony of the witnesses.

The bill involved more money than any bill presented to Congress this year, and we felt that six weeks of work was not too long a time to devote to such important matters as were involved.

In actual farming operations as well as in the classroom—farm management, farm shop, crops, soil science, home gardens and orchards, food preservation, homestead beautification, agricultural and arithmetic and farm forestry. The veteran can study general farming or specialize in livestock, dairy, poultry, or truck and fruit farming.

Some of the business occupations for which a veteran can train in county schools are salesman, displayman, teller, advertising man, hotel clerk, buyer, credit man, receiving and shipping clerk and stock clerk.

Training in more than 60 different skills is offered in the county schools' trades and industrial program, such as baking, cabinet making, dry cleaning, engraving, furniture repair, photography, plumbing, watch-making, welding, carpentry, cosmetology, boot and shoemaking.

in deciding how much money should be spent for national defense by the War Department during the next twelve months.

In my remarks in the House of Representatives, I discussed in some detail the program of research and development, particularly with respect to aviation, I said:

"If this committee has its way, you will find that our Nation, which is already out in front in the field of aviation, will go forward, ahead of the parade, in order that we may be more secure in the future, and that no nation will dare challenge us at some future time. While we talk of money, airplanes, weapons, and research and development, we realize that military might alone cannot insure the peace and security of this Nation and the world."

This is the fourth major bill which I have helped write in Committee and pass through the House this year.

The Hobbs Anti-Racketeering Bill, which passed the House months ago, was finally approved last night by the Senate. It now goes to the White House. The measure prohibits violence and threats of violence in industry-labor controversies involving interstate commerce.

The present law permits a United States national debt of 300 billion dollars. The House did a significant and hopeful thing this week in passing legislation reducing the authorized national debt to 275 billion dollars. This is the first time that the Federal Government has taken such a step in a number of years.

Our 1940 map gives the elevation of Morton as 3,757 feet above sea level. However it may have gone up since 1940, everything else has.

So much more moisture than usual around here lately, the air feels almost like east Texas.

Mrs. Mae Ellis Howell's friends around Morton have really put the big pot in the little one with entertainment for her. She is a lovely person and we consider ourselves fortunate to have had the opportunity of meeting her.

The Garden Club had their yard beautiful pilgrimage Tuesday. We are anxious now to know what they will give as "Booby prize" as we are sure the judges selected ours as the worst yard in town.

We surprised Mrs. J. B. Knox working in her garden early Tuesday morning, wearing a darling bonnet.

While "news gathering" Tuesday we also had a really delightful visit with Mrs. W. A. Johnson and her house guest, Mrs. B. H. Haralson from Dallas. Mrs. Johnson has such a pretty home, it was our first call but we have often driven out in that vicinity and admired her house, especially the picture windows in the living room.

Sunday afternoon around six we were definitely convinced the "Atom Bomb" had us, driving to Levelland we noticed a dense wall, extending from the ground to the sky that we couldn't account for, soon it was all perfectly understandable, just another sandstorm. It extended from Whiteface into Levelland and was so dense all cars were driving with lights on. We still maintain that Texas does every thing in a big way, no half measures for us.

We lived in despair for days—the spouse bought a saw, for untunately the new wore off before he got to the table and chair legs. Our trees will never be the same tho.

Practically the whole of Morton will close up over the fourth of July. The Tribune staff will be so worn out with rushing to get the papers in the mail early that they won't be able to enjoy their holiday.

Recently we met and enjoyed a short chat with Mrs. W. E. Angley. She has been confined to her bed for several days, and instead of being depressed (as we would be if we had to remain in bed) she was very jolly and interesting.

So much going and coming around Morton we can't begin to keep up, actually we should have been at least triplets to keep up with all the activities.

Morton's square has certainly improved since the removal of those short posts and things in the center of the two unpaved streets and grading of same.

The Englands are very proud that East First Street has been graded. We could never tell when we had a flat tire or were bouncing in and out of chug holes.

The Travis Fergusons evidently have a new lawn mower, as we see the doctor out pushing one almost every afternoon, with little Jane trailing along saying, "That's beautiful Daddy."

Some of us acquire tact and diplomacy while others are born with it.

Welcome Home

Elmer E. Akin, Technician 4th Grade, received his discharge at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, June 21, 1946. He entered the armed forces July 2, 1944. He served in Rhineland, Central Europe and received the campaign ribbon with 2 bronze stars, and the victory ribbon with 2 overseas bars.

George I. Smith, Private First Class, received his discharge from the armed forces June 21, 1946 at Fort Lavenworth, Kansas. He was inducted September 30, 1944 and received the American Theatre Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal and the victory ribbon.

MRS. DORA DOUGHTY, daughter, CLEDA GRACE, and JEAN COCHRAN spent the week-end in Oklahoma City. VIRGINIA LEE DOUGHTY returned home with them.
