Vote Saturday

Elections are slated for area schools, city and hospital

The spotlight of the area will focus on politics this weekend when voters of the area go to their respective polls to cast ballots for school board members, members of the Cochran County Hospital Board and in Morton members of the City Council.

While there has been sharp contests brewing in district and county races, activity in the various local races have been light, with only a few contested races.

One of the contested races looms in the Morton School Board race where five candidates are seeking three posts. Candidates in the race are John Fincannon, Leon Marina, Don Lynskey, Owen Egger and Robert Yearly. Polling place for the school board and city council election will be the library of the Morton High School, with the polls being open from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Candidates in the race for city council posts include Jack Russell, Earl Stowe and Don Simpson, all are incumbents.

In the Hospital Board race three candidates are seeking posts, with polling places for the balloting being the school buildings in the various towns.

On the local level activity has been very light in the absentee balloting with election judge, Dub Hodge reporting only a single absentee ballot through Monday, which was the last day of absentee voting in the school and city races. School board elections are scheduled to be held in Whiteface, Bula, Three-Way, Morton, and Enochs.

Main reason for the limited activity in the respective races is due mainly to the lack of contested races in all but a couple of races and to the fact that there are no serious issues involved. The elections, nevertheless, are regarded as important and election officials in all the races are encouraging all qualified voters in the area to go to the polls and cast their ballots in these important local elections.

The balloting Saturday will signal the opening of one of the most interesting election years in the history of the state and of the nation, with the next important political date coming up on May 4, when the voters of the state will cast ballots in the first state primary election.

While there are few contested races to be decided this weekend, the same is not the case in the May balloting when voters will have the opportunity to select from a wide field of candidates entered in local, district and state races.

Contract awarded on new post office

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced recently that a contract has been awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts of Plainview, Texas, to build the new post office building in Morton, Texas 79346, and lease it to the post office department for a term of ten years with options to renew the lease for an additional 20 years at an annual rental of $7748.00 for the basic term. It represents the lowest responsive bid of three received by the department on a competitive basis, and reflects what departmental studies have determined to be a reasonable and economical rental for lease space in this area.

The announcement of the award to the successful bidder advances the new building closer to the construction stage. When fully operational, the postmaster general said, the additional space and more modern equipment will, in the long run, more than offset the extra cost involved in producing more efficient handling of the mail, in accord with President Johnson's directive to provide the best possible postal service at the least possible cost.

Mr. O'Brien explained that the department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Mr. O'Brien said further, "This project is in accordance with our policy of building new post offices only where they are urgently needed." "The new Morton post office building which is one of those urgently needed is expected to be completed by the last of this year - 1968."

Easter Seal campaign looks for needy

"Do you know a handicapped person who needs help and isn't getting it?" is the question being asked by Mr. Glen W. Thompson, who is Cochran County's Easter Seal Representative and the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

The Easter Seal Society offers rehabilitation services to help disabled persons and their families to find and make the most effective use of resources which will be helpful to them in developing their abilities and living more purposeful lives, Mr. Thompson said.

This is accomplished through direct treatments, services, education, research, and cooperative efforts with all other health agencies, private, state and federal. The Easter Seal Society does not duplicate services, but strives to fill all unmet needs of the disabled, he added.

Part of the trail . . .

MORTON'S MAYOR, Jack Russell looks on as members of the Texas highway department erect Scotchlight signs calling attention to the Texas Plains Trail. The signs, which went up all along the trail the past week, designate the routes that were taken by the settlers of the area. The trail as well as the towns are liberally sprinkled with historic markers, giving a brief history of activity and events.

Principle, not pique, basis for consideration of trifles

Farmer Jess Paul watched sullenly as a deputy sheriff, sent by creditors, arrived to cart off his hay. Paul had not paid his bills, and there was no doubt that the hay was subject to seizure.

But suddenly a wicked gleam came into his eyes. He had just realized that the deputy was using his pitchfork without permission.

The next day, Paul filed a damage suit against the deputy. Clearly the fellow had no legal right to use the pitchfork. Yet, the judge tossed the case out of court.

"De minimis non curat lex," quoth the judge. That is Latin for "The law doesn't care about trifles."

WHATEVER THE letter of the law may be, courts do have a certain amount of leeway in the name of common sense. A judge may thumb down a complaint that is simply wasting his time and the taxpayers' money.

Here are other examples:
A dentist, readying a hypodermic needle for a woman patient, allowed a bit of liquid to dribble onto her tongue. Although the stuff was bitter, it was perfectly harmless. Nevertheless, the woman sued the dentist for damages, blaming him for an offense to her taste buds. The court characterized this as an "injury without damage" — and dismissed the case.

A PEDESTRIAN dented his hat on the bottom of a barber pole. Charging that the pole was too low, he aimed a damage suit at the barber. But the court, noting that the dent was very small and the hat very bold, ruled that this too was a case of "de minimis."

And a man who tried to upset a verdict because of a 58-cent error got short shrift from the appellate court.

Shoe vital in taking exercise by walking

It has been said that there are no bad exercises but it is universally agreed that the best exercise for all ages is walking. In order to enjoy walking for health and pleasure it is of the utmost importance that the feet be comfortable.

Special consideration should be used in buying shoes for walking. Heels should be neither too high nor too low in order that body weight not be concentrated on any one part of the foot. Soles should be thick enough to protect the bottom of the feet and uppers should be pliable enough to avoid constriction. Open-toed shoes and sling-backs are not suitable for walking. Open-toes allow dirt and small pebbles to enter and irritate the feet. Sling-backs do not hold the heels in place. Above all, walking shoes must fit and become almost a part of the foot itself.

Proper fitting hose are also important. Hose that are too short will either constrict the toes or work down at the heels. Hose that are too long will bunch up beneath the heel or ball of the foot and cause discomfort.

Carolyn Waters

Carolyn Waters to wed Benny Hart, June 14

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Waters, of 202 S.W. 1st of Morton are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Carolyn Jeanne to Benny Eugene Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hart of 221 Redwood, Levelland. The wedding date has been set for June 14 at the Morningside Baptist Church in Levelland, with Rev. Fred Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Morton officiating.

Cochran County Garden Club meets with Mrs. Hill

The Cochran County Garden Club met April 1 in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill with 12 members present. Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, President conducted the meet-require approximately 18 inches square. Choose plants that will be in bloom all summer. It is better to plan your border or bed where it will get full sun.

Mrs. W. B. McSpadden gave a delegates report on the State Convention held in Corpus Christi, Texas, March 26, 27 and 28. The resignation of Mrs. J. L. Schooler and Mrs. Fred Hemphill were received and read and accepted with regret.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson presented "Propagation of Perennials". After two or three years Perennials should be divided. Some form sodlike mat type roots, such as the white daisy and Chrysanthemum. Some produce runners but need to be cut away from the parent plant, two of these are strawberries and ajuga. Others form Rhizomes that send up new shoots, and need to be divided, such as bearded iris and Day lilies. All perennials should be divided while the plant is dormant, being sure to throw away the old centers or crowns and any diseased parts. Mrs. Herman Brown presented "Perennials for cutting". Perennials are excellent for cutting for arrangements and in the garden. Most perennials should be conditioned in cold water overnight before placing in an arrangement.

Mrs. McSpadden appointed Mrs. Charles Jones as chairman of the Flower Show for next year. Mrs. Charles Jones reported that 208 trees have arrived and need to be planted at Strickland Park. The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and 4-H Boys are to meet Tuesday afternoon, April 2 and help the Garden Club members plant the trees. Our program "My Happiness — Perennials, Backbone of the Flower Border" was conducted by Mrs. Ray Griffith. Mrs. C. D. Hill presented "Grouping of Perennials". A Perennial border should be narrow enough to work easily. Plants

Ms. Fred Weaver gives tips on self

A group of Y. M. Study Club members met with the girls and staff at Girlstown, U.S.A. last Thursday night. Mrs. Fred Weaver, former Maid of Cotton, presented a program to the girls on "Being Yourself."

Mrs. Weaver, who has modeled for Hemphill-Wells, gave very many interesting tips for the girls on being more graceful, such as correct ways of walking, sitting, and standing. She also included various make-up and fashion tips. She stressed the fact, "above all, be yourself because most everyone can see through the mask of pretending to be someone else."

A period of question and answer followed, with the girls picking up several extra tips and hints of graceful habits.

Refreshments were served by the club members. Afterwards, they were conducted on a tour of the home.

Club members attending were Mesdames: Weldon Wynn, George Hargrove, Bob Robertson, Max Clark, Pete Pierce, Jerry Winder, and Mrs. Weaver.

Cochran Garden club has recent meeting

The Cochran County Garden Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Herman Brown with 10 members present. Mrs. Wayne Porter, First Vice President presided at the meeting in the absence of Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, President.

Mrs. Brown gave a report on the salad luncheon held in the home of Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, and the program on landscaping given by Mrs. Benidean Hammock. She stated the luncheon was delicious. The program was excellent and very informative. The program was a film on Dahlias, shown by Mrs. Wayne Porter. The slides showed how to prepare beds, fertilize the beds and stake the Dahlias as planted. Dahlias should be well watered, and fertilized again after the plants are up. If the Dahlias are being grown to show, the small buds should be pinched off and one left on the stem to cultivate for showing. There were slides showing Dahlias in arrangements. It was a very informative and colorful film.

as reported by

Marine Corps Combat Correspondents

and edited by

GySgt. Bob Montgomery

Marines at the Khe Sanh air field continue to move underground as they dig bunkers 12 feet deep for living and working spaces.

Most recent addition to lower levels is the field's control tower. The old one received a direct rocket hit in mid-February. William H. Linneimer, 21, was one of the two Marines manning the tower at the time.

"Luckily it detonated on a sandbag near the lower corner of the control shack," he said. Linneimer received only small cuts in his hand while the other air controller on duty took some shrapnel in his leg and was evacuated.

MEMBERS OF Marine Air Traffic Control Unit-62 set up a new tower the next day which rises only seven feet above the runway and is well sandbagged.

Between towers, the control unit used a radio jeep to direct air traffic in and out of the besieged field. Crouched down between the jeep and a sandbag wall, two controllers took turns peeking over their protective covering to check the runway before ducking back down to their radios and talking to inbound pilots.

"It seems every time a fixed-wing aircraft lands this becomes a high-impact area," said Sgt. Robert J. Dale, 23, another of the controllers, as he slid his legs under the jeep and leaned against the wall.

"YOU MIGHT SAY we have unique problems," commented Maj. John Havlik, officer in charge of the Khe Sanh air field. "For instance our runway lights require 8,000 feet of wire and it demands a lot of maintenance."

In the interim, flare pots are being used with crash crewmen extinguishing them when the enemy starts zeroing in. Like elsewhere in northern I Corps, weather is Khe Sanh's biggest problem, according to Havlik. "If this weather would only clear," he said, referring to the low clouds clinging to the surrounding hills, "we could get attack aircraft up here to knock out those mortar and rocket positions."

UNTIL THEN, however, Khe Sanh is holding its own. "The 26th Marines," said

Havlik, "are doing an outstanding job on fortifications."

Digging around the runway continues, too. "With the daily rounds we need little incentive to burrow," the major said.

Meanwhile, Marines on neighboring hills

Blue ribbon winners at the District 4-H Food Show, Saturday, March 30, were Marilyn Cade, Velma Goodwin and Sherita Fluitt. Beth Cagle and Denise Aldridge received red ribbons. Congratulations to these girls for representing Cochran County 4-H so well.

The 4-H Bedroom Improvement Group met recently and toured Larry Hale's and Marilyn Cade's rooms to see improvements made in bedroom storage and arrangement. Mrs. E. C. Hale said that next week the girls would make pillows for their beds. This will be on April 10 at the home of Denise Aldridge.

Bledsoe 4-H will have an organizational meeting April 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Bledsoe School. All those enrolled in Bledsoe 4-H and their parents are invited to attend.

Larry Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hale, Route 1, is the 4-H Club member of the week. Larry has been in 4-H work for six years and carried projects in swine, electric, leadership, tractor, food, garden and crops. Recently he exhibited the first place barrow in the light all other class at the Cochran County Livestock Show.

At Levelland Livestock Show he exhibited 4th place medium weight Duroc barrow. Last year he won first place at District in the Farm and Ranch Management Demonstration Contest. He has received county awards in agriculture, swine, tractor and forestry. He was the third member of his family to receive the Gold Star Award in 1967.

Larry served as Morton 4-H Club president for two years and is currently chairman of County 4-H Council. He is also on the District 4-H Council.

receive supplies and the wounded are evacuated by helicopters operating out of Quang Tri.

Leathernecks defending Hill 881 South, a vital Marine strongpoint north of the Khe Sanh combat base, have found a way to rub salt in the wounds of the NVA.

SINCE JAN. 21, when the NVA mortar, rocket and artillery barrage began, the Marines have contrived a way to taunt the enemy. When he misses with a round, they wave a huge "Maggie's Drawers" (red flag).

"Maggie's Drawers," in Marine rifle range lingo, is a term for a miss on target and is signified by waving a red flag across the bull's eye.

"I may be kind of silly," summed up one young Marine, "but it does a lot for our morale and we know it makes the NVA mad."

"In fact they probably get so mad they see . . . red."

"TO MAKE MATTERS worse for the NVA," reported the Marines, "when they overshoot the hill their rounds fall into the valley on other NVA positions."

Master Gunnery Sergeant Bob Lurie, pilot of a C-117 "Skytrain," has added an altogether new dimension to the art of flare dropping in Vietnam.

On a mission in support of riflemen of the 5th Marines, near Hue, Lurie was asked by ground forces to drop flares in an area where suspect North Vietnamese forces were moving under cover of darkness.

In response, the flare ship was directed by the pilot to the area and a series of flares dropped.

Two of the flares caught their parachutes on fire, sending them plummeting to the ground. Two NVA had been sighted in an open field by an Australian observer.

THINKING THE flares would not harm them, the NVA scurried for cover. But not for long. Each flare canister tapped a NVA on the head, a million in one shot.

When approaching altitude for another flare drop, Lurie was informed by the Australian ground observer that, "You've just got two confirmed NVA kills. Didn't know 'Snoopy' (nickname for the flare planes) was a bomber!"

Sandra Gandy daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gandy visited in the home of her parents over the weekend. Sandra is a student at South Plains College.

Loan prices to remain unchanged

The government schedule of premiums and discounts that will apply to the 1968 cotton crop, excluding the effects of micronaire, shows physical loan prices unchanged for most staples and qualities and relatively minor changes for a few others.

No change at all was made in the loan price of cottons stapling an inch or below and all changes on staples above an inch were increases, ranging from .05 cents to .95 cents per pound. There were no decreased loan prices except those that may result from different micronaire discounts on cottons outside the desirable 3.5 to 4.9 range.

Most of the loan price increases occurred in the longer staples grading Low Middling White and above and in the Light Spotted category. A few smaller increases apply to Light Gray cottons stapling 1-1/32 inches and above.

Prior to 1967 USDA based premiums and discounts on the average of spot market quotations for the nine months previous to their announcement. They departed slightly from that procedure in 1967 and set lower prices on staples below an inch to encourage production of "the most desirable qualities of cotton."

Easter linen symbol of purity, excellence

Since man learned to weave, an art of such extreme antiquity that its beginning cannot be traced, linen material has been known and loved for many reasons. It is mentioned in Genesis as a material used to robe royal princes of Egypt, and throughout the Bible it is a symbol of purity and excellence.

Egyptian and Jewish priests wore it at all of their religious ceremonies, and it was exported from Egypt in the time of Herodotus. From Egypt the use and manufacturing of linen passed to Greeks and Romans and a linen tunic was a regular part of male Greek attire as early as the Homer period.

Linen was used as a material for writing and mummies were wrapped in linen. Linens of 5,000 years ago have been found in Egyptian tombs, and during the middle ages linen and woolen cloth were the chief materials for dress, fine linen being held in the highest regard. It was considered a mark of distinction for those who wore it and was, in many ways, a status symbol.

The use of linen for Easter attire is especially fitting to commemorate the death of Jesus Christ. Matthew said "And when Joseph had taken the body he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth." Mark wrote "And he brought fine linen and took him down and wrapped him in linen."

Luke and John agreed. Luke said "And he took it down and wrapped it in linen", and John said "Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes".

Even today, and in spite of the wealth and variety of beautiful cloth modern science and weaving techniques have made available for use in wearing apparel, linen remains a treasured material for many uses.

Beautifully embroidered linen table clothes and napkins are family heirlooms and are used for special occasions only. Linen is still used in religious ceremonies of almost all faiths, but it is in lovely and durable costumes for women of impeccable taste that it has probably reached its highest perfection.

The expression "It has the feel of fine linen" is not an idle one, for the feel and texture of pure linen has never been excelled by any other material. Linen is one of the fastest moisture absorbing materials ever known, and applying a wet finger to a piece of material to see how fast the moisture is absorbed has long been a common test to determine whether the cloth is woven from authentic linen fibers or a substitute fiber masquerading as such.

Although linen is completely compatible with the use of hot water and soap for cleaning purposes and can be ironed at a higher temperature, it should never be subjected to excessive dryness.

Favorite Easter lily is native off Bermuda subject to transplant

Long the favorite flower of the Easter season, symbol of purity and rebirth, the Easter lily, (longiflorum) commonly used in the United States is a native of Bermuda.

Blossoming at Easter time is not natural with the lily family but the L. longiflorum varieties lend themselves well to forcing by commercial growers.

For early spring bloom lilies are planted in September and kept in a dark place until roots are well developed and tops commence to form. Then they are placed in the light, and by careful and strict control of temperature, (low heat to retard growth and higher heat to encourage growth), they are brought into bloom during the Easter season.

Potted Easter lilies bought from florist can be transplanted to the garden in suitable locations. They should be planted outdoors as soon as the blossoms fade and should never be allowed to dry out. The best method for planting them outdoors is to carefully break the clay pots in which they usually come from the florist or nursery and plant the contents intact.

Emlea Smith Study Club has program on etiquette

The Emlea Smith Junior Study Club met Thursday, March 28 in the home of Mrs. Pegues Houston with Mrs. Richard Houston and Mrs. Tommy Hawkins serving as co-hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Loy Kern and club members were led in the club collect by Mrs. Doug Reed. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given.

Mrs. Sherrill Griffith reported on the Cotton Club meeting she attended on behalf of the club. She reported that the Cotton Club was organized specifically to lend support to all phases of the cotton industry by advertising, by the purchase of cotton products, by informing people what stores purchase cotton products, and in any way serve to promote cotton. She reported that there would be a county wide organizational meeting April 5 at 2:30 p.m. in the County Activity Building.

Mrs. Richard Houston asked that her name be placed on the associate member list. Club members discussed donations for a surprise gift for Jerri Tenner, our State Junior Director to be presented at the State Convention. We voted to send $200.

Mrs. Loy Kern reported on the District Convention held at Lamesa. The various district honors presented to the club were: second place on the Home Life Dept. report by Mrs. Tommy Hawkins; a second place on the Public Affairs dept. by Mrs. James Dewbre, a third place on the Fine Arts Dept. by Mrs. Don Lynskey; a second place on the District Junior Chairwoman of Home Life report by Mrs. Don Lynskey; a third place on our President's report by Mrs. Loy Kern; and a certificate for 100% subscription to the TEXAS CLUBWOMAN magazine.

Mrs. Sherrill Griffith and Mrs. Gary Willingham reported that the Cancer Crusade would be held Tuesday, April 9. Those volunteering to help from our club were Mesdames: Earl Polvado, James Walker, Rodney Fralin, and T. C. Asbill.

Mrs. Ronald Coleman introduced the program entitled "Etiquette Do's and Don'ts" presented by Mrs. J. W. Tyson. Mrs. Tyson began by saying that etiquette was once defined as the code of a gentleman. Now it is considered an essential code of good conduct for everyone. One special rule to always remember is never to attract any attention to yourself in public. In so doing etiquette is usually preserved. Weddings, once thought to have to follow exact special rules, are now planned to meet individual tastes with very little consideration for rules of etiquette. While wedding and graduation invitations may be sent to anyone, birth announcements should only be sent to close friends. Thank you notes must always be handwritten. The most important of all, we should always observe the same rules of good manners and etiquette with our family members as we do with non family members.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served. Mrs. Tom Davey and Mrs. Ronnie Johnson were guests for the evening.

Another crowd . . .
EVERYONE LOVES A Sale, from mom right on down the line. Last Thursday was no exception as a huge farm machinery auction in Morton, drew steady crowds of bargain hunters and visitors to the city. One estimate of the crowd topped 400 bidders and spectators at the high point of the sale.

Cochran County Garden Club also proudly accepted $100.00 Sears, Roebuck and Co. Grant for plans to landscape the Strickland Park as a city Park for Morton. This money will go for a portion of plants to be used in the landscaping. Mrs. Bobby Travis is Civic Development Chairman in the club. Other committee members are Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. W. B. McSpadden, and Mrs. Willie Taylor.

This project involves the entire community and all interested groups or individuals are urged to assist in any way possible. The progress and developing of

OUR USE OF LEISURE

None of us can make our best contribution to life unless we take care of our physical selves. The right kind of recreation renews the body, mind, and spirit.

There should be a proper balance and rhythm between work and rest. Our Lord meant for us to enjoy life and intended no man to punish his body with unrelieved work.

Of course our recreation should be of a kind that would actually re-create our spirits and bodies and make us better able to perform our work.

Part of our leisure time should be spent renewing our spirit by worshipping God in His Church. We invite you to attend services this week.

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:31.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

11:30 a.m. — Austin, Tex. — Greatest tourist-vacation ever experienced in Texas is about to get under way. Austin will share in it, as will every other town in Texas.

Gov. John Connally has just opened the 10th new Texas Travel Trails — Mountain Trail in Trans-Pecos — and designated improved Davis Mountains State Park.

Standing by out-of-state visitors in Texas last year totaled $1,200,000,000. Industries are 1968 will top that substantially.

Miss Fair opens April 6 (granted some marvellous feats of speed in construction and cleanup activities) and will continue through October 6. Historic San Antonio's 250th birthday will be celebrated in connection with the grand opening.

By conservative estimate, 7,000,000 visitors will attend the fair during its six-month run. Twenty-six foreign governments will exhibit on the 92-acre site. Texas' own $10,000,000 exhibit — the Institute of Texan Cultures, depicting the life of two dozen ethnic groups in building the state — is expected to be the main educational attraction.

A $5,000,000 U. S. Pavilion will feature a remarkable motion picture on the conquest of western civilizations.

In addition to the educational events, there is top-flight entertainment is booked in San Antonio's new civic center on Fairgrounds, and there are rides, souveniers and fun events for all ages.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will head a group of dignitaries including Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, who will preside over opening ceremonies April 6.

A great Texas attraction — Six Flags Texas — will launch its eighth season (midway between Dallas and Fort Worth) April 13. Facilities have been expanded into a $2,000,000 program. Pioneer Theatre's 1968 production of "TEXAS" in scenic outdoor splendor near Canyon, opens June 29.

COURTS SPEAK — In a landmark case, the State Supreme Court found Methodist Church's Hilltop Village non-profit retirement home, which has some residents who pay up to $215 a month but cares for others on a charity basis, does not meet the test for tax exemption as a purely public charity.

In a long list of other decisions, the court:

- Upheld a $5,500 judgment for a man hit by a train at Midland after he pushed a cart containing a woman and eight children off the track.
- Agreed that a Potter County widow should be allowed to seek damages from a builder for defective residence construction.
- Held that Garland cannot require a permit of Texas Power and Light Company to serve an area the city wants served by its own power plant.
- Decided that a suit against an interstate truck firm, which damaged equipment in an accident near San Marcos, must be tried under the Federal Interstate Commerce Act.
- Ordered a hearing at Eastland on the matter of a candidate for district judge to see that he meets the residence requirements necessary to get on the ballot.
- Agreed with a judgment against the J.

C. Penney Company for malicious prosecution of a man whose driver's license was used by another to cash a stolen $100 money order in their store at Marshall.

Accepted a motion to dismiss a suit against a Houston woman for refusal to tell a judge the whereabouts of her son who was involved in a divorce action.

Refused to grant an application for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain release from jail of an El Paso juror who was sentenced to three days and fined $100 for contempt after he flatly refused to obey a judge's order to wear a coat in the courtroom.

Austin district court has begun a long hearing on the application of Trans-Texas, Braniff and Continental airlines to enjoin Texas Aeronautics Commission from certifying Air Southwest Company's four-engine Electra flight service linking Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth and San Antonio.

HONORS ANNOUNCED — Sherman Birdwell Jr. of Austin and Garrett Morris of Fort Worth were named by Governor Connally to new terms on the Texas Employment Commission and the Texas Public Safety Commission.

Kenneth Pearce, 37, Department of Public Safety intelligence agent in Corpus Christi is the new head of the undercover investigations section of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Richard C. Gibson of Austin has been appointed to the legislative Internship Advisory Committee.

H. A. Beckwith, veteran state water official, was honored when the "Beckwith Arm" of the Falcon International Reservoir was named for him.

Dr. DeWitt C. Reddick, dean of the University of Texas Communications School, received award from Southern Illinois University for meritorious service to journalism.

Governor Connally named Irby N. Taylor of Dallas and Ward Westbrook of Jasper to the Texas State Board of Accountancy.

REVISION — Judicial sub-committee of the State Constitutional Revision Commission has recommended that judges of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals be appointed rather than elected.

Recommendations call for appointment by the governor of top court judges from a panel submitted by a special nominating commission. Judges occasionally would "run against their records" on a public ballot, with voters marking their preference for continued service or judicial retirement. Where judges are rejected, new appointment would follow.

Norman Register, director of revenue and finance for the City of Dallas, says Texas' $250 home-furnishings exemption from ad valorem taxes should be either increased or done away with. Register told the local-governments committee that in 1876 when the $250 figure was written into the constitution it was enough money to furnish a house. Now, however, that's ridiculous, he said.

Another witness before the committee said that Lubbock and Dallas are the only two cities in the state which effectively collect their ad valorem taxes on cars.

Revision commission heard strong recommendation from former Gov. Allan Shivers for four-year-terms for governors and advice from Municipal Advisor Council that cities are losing "tens of millions of dollars in bond interest rates because of antiquated provisions in Texas law."

ATTY. GEN. RULES — Atty. Gen.

Resident to attend sales conference

Mr. M. Cullum Thompson, President of United Fidelity Life Insurance Company, has announced that the company is holding its 1968 Agents' Sales Conference April 24-28 in Miami Beach, Florida. Headquarters for the 120-member group while in Miami Beach will be the Doral Hotel-On-The-Ocean. The gathering will include agents from Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Bonham, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, San Antonio, Wichita Falls, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Phoenix, Arizona; Tulsa, Oklahoma and parts of Southern California.

Morton residents attending the conference will be Mr. and Mrs. James McClure.

Crawford C. Martin has ruled that the "American Party" label may be used by George Wallace-for-President supporters in Texas.

Opinion, requested by Secretary of State Roy R. Barrera, noted that the American Party name has not been certified on a Texas general election ballot since 1920, therefore it is not a "pre-existing" party whose name is protected from use today.

Martin also held that the county clerks must accept for filing American Party required notice for its conventions and registrars must furnish the party registered voter lists for not more than $5 a set in counties where it holds conventions.

Party is determined to show a membership of 14,259, the number necessary to get Wallace on the Texas general election ballot. Officials also served notice that their members will get a chance to vote at conventions on liquor-by-the-drink and horse race betting, just like Democrats and Republicans.

MANUAL PREPARED — Atty. Gen. Martin has mailed to county and district attorneys copies of a new manual on Texas' extradition and rendition procedures.

About 800 cases involving use of these procedures for return of fleeing legal offenders to their home states are handled by the governor's office each year.

Manual is a practical guide on previously largely-unwritten details, following custom and tradition rather than statutory or case law.

ATTACK STANDARDS — Proposed water quality standards amendments were termed unreasonably by 200 oil, gas and chemical company representatives at a Texas Water Quality Board hearing.

One amendment would permit lowering of quality standards only where it is demonstrated to the board as needed to assure economic or social development.

It calls for the highest and best degree of waste treatment available for any industry, public or private project that conceivably could create a new pollution source. Alternative proposes industry be bound to comparably high standards of treatment the same as to those required to facilities serving the general public.

TWQ board probably will take no action before April 25.

SULPHUR EXPLORATION — State School Land Board has approved an application by the Duval Corporation to increase from 800 to 1,800 feet the maximum depth of exploratory sulphur wells on a mineral lease in Culberson County.

Lease was one sold November 7 in Texas' first sulphur-lease sale on West Texas lands. State will receive one-sixth royalty on production from the lease.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has set May 7 for another sulphur-lease sale. This one covers 19 tracts of land in Culberson, Reeves and Pecos counties involving 8,938 acres.

SHORT SHORTS — Governor Connally designated April as Bluebonnet Month in Texas and presented Helen Dale Biggs of Vernon as Texas Bluebonnet queen of the 1968-69 Bluebonnet Festival . . . Vernon Maxwell Arrell, formerly with the Texas Education Agency, has been named assistant director of rehabilitation — a new job with the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation . . . Fredrick Bell of San Antonio, a retired brigadier general, has been appointed South Texas field consultant for the Texas State Library . . . Texas Railroad Commission approved a request for discontinuance of the railroad depot in Overton, which was once used by the Missouri-Pacific Railroad . . . Seasonally adjusted construction authorized in Texas rose 15 per cent in February, after declining 3 per cent in January, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports . . . Railroad Commission has been asked for a new field designation for 79 oil wells near Kilgore, now in East Texas field . . . Loy R. Jones has retired as supervisor of big San Antonio district for the Texas Liquor Control Board . . . New attorney general's opinion upholds the form of affidavit for use in April 20 Travis County Junior College district bond election . . . Reports that Hurricane Beulah damaged fishing by dumping too much fresh water into Texas' bays are "hogwash", according to Parks and Wildlife Department.

Well, actually nothing much has happened around good ol' MHS this week, except for the annual stir in the air of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

The banquet is sponsored every year by the junior class and this year's class is no exception. The theme this year will be . . . oh yes, we're not supposed to tell that (seniors have big ears you know) but it is going to be real cool.

Five junior girls spent the day in Lubbock last Saturday buying little surprises for the banquet. These were: Carol Freeland, Dolores McCall, Dorothy Spence, Sharon Irwin, and myself. Also, several committees are hard at work preparing for the "big night", Saturday, April 27.

The National Honor Society had a called meeting last Friday morning. The purpose of this meeting was to select pins for the members.

Also, the same day, the Pep Squad met to elect the new officers for 1968-69. Those elected were: Deborah Miller, President; Rhoda Brown, Vice President; Jeanie McMinn, Secretary; Celeste Cross, Reporter, and Nine Lewis, Scrapbook Chairman.

The Future Teachers held a meeting last Thursday morning to discuss the annual student teachers day. The future teachers will observe in classes April 24, and teach the same classes April 25. The students are allowed to teach in either elementary, junior high, or high school, with the permission of the teacher and principal. The day is always good experience for the students concerned and everyone is really looking forward to it.

The girls' volleyball team was hosted by Bledsoe in a scrimmage last Thursday afternoon. Our girls came out ahead by winning two out of three games. The team is now preparing to start their district games.

Also, the first district track meet will be held this weekend at Frenship. So good luck to both these teams.

Oh yes, I almost forgot to mention the vital fact that report cards were distributed last Wednesday, and MHS has begun its last nine-weeks term. (Hooray!) This fact and the spring weather we're having seems to be affecting both students and teachers now-a-days. It's getting extremely harder to stay awake and pay attention in class, and several teachers even held their classes outside last Friday. I guess that just proves that even teachers are human!

Well, I guess that about wraps it up for this week. (It looks like I could think of an original way to end this thing, doesn't it?) Everyone be careful!

It is a time for developing and awareness of FHA — what it is, what it does, and what it offers.

It is a time for expressing appreciation to those who have been instrumental in helping the organization progress.
