School board renews contracts

Renewal of 52 teacher contracts and the renewal of athletic director Ted Whillock's contract with a substantial raise in salary was announced by the district school board of education following its meeting Monday night.

In recognition of his outstanding performance as athletic director, head football coach and head basketball coach, during the present academic year, the board voted unanimously to raise his salary by $1,000 for the coming year. The board further passed a resolution of appreciation to Whillock, his staff of coaches and the players in each sport for an outstanding year in athletics with emphasis on its beneficial effect on the community.

In another move in the field of compensation, the board voted to pay a minimum annual salary supplement of $280 above that prescribed by the state to professional employees of the Morton public schools. It was explained that this does not constitute a raise in salary of $30 per year, but only sets the level of salaries on a comparative basis, that will be paid for the coming year.

In other business, the board voted approval of repair and use as a child day care center of the Eastside teacherage building by the Community Action Center. Wiley Hodge appeared before the board to make the application for this use. The day care center will be for use by children of working mothers in economically depressed families.

Approval was given for the adoption of the textbook list submitted by the textbook committee for use during the 1970-71 school year.

The panel approved the appointment of T. Lemons as election judge and Dorothy Baker and Mildred McDermott as clerks for the school board election to be held April 4.

President Van Greene advised the board that he has called a special meeting of the board for 7 a.m., Monday, April 6, 1970 for the purpose of canvassing the votes cast in the April 4 election.

Superintendent Bob E. Travis advised the board that all those wishing to transfer from another school district into Morton school district must make application through his office prior to June 1. Applications received after that date cannot be approved except in dire hardship.

Dr. Joe Dorsey

Dr. Joe Dorsey to open dental practice

Morton has at long last obtained the dentist that the residents have striven for so earnestly.

Dr. Joe Dorsey, a native of Snyder and late of the U. S. Army, was busy this week remodeling a suit of offices where he will set up his practice in the Professional Building. He indicated to the Tribune that he hopes to be in operation by April 6.

Dorsey was recently released from the Army in which he served as a dentist at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Prior to his Army service he practiced dentistry in Lubbock for four years.

He attended Texas Tech from 1955 to 1959 and later graduated from the University of Texas Dental Branch in Houston. Married to the former Lynda Turner of Lubbock, the doctor has two children, Sharon, 8 and a second grader and Kim, 6, who will begin school next fall.

Dr. Dorsey will move to Morton as soon as he can find a suitable house. Lynda and the children will move here as soon as school is out, he stated.

Seven true bills returned by Cochran County Grand Jury

Seven true bills involving indictment of four persons were returned by the Cochran County Grand Jury sitting in session in Morton early last week.

All four of those indicted had failed to post bond by late Wednesday morning and remain in custody of the Cochran county sheriff awaiting the next trial session of the 121st District Court.

Grand Jury foreman J. C. O'Brien announced the following true bills:

Kenneth Cecil Martin, two counts. One count for intent to steal mercury from the El Paso Natural Gas Company on February 12, 1970 and one count for possession of mercury for which he has not accounted. Date of this offense was also specified as February 12.

Robert Alan Schuller, two counts. One count for intent to steal mercury from the El Paso Natural Gas Company on February 12, 1970 and one count for possession of mercury for which he has not accounted, also on February 12.

Armando Berrera, two counts on violation of the check law. Each indictment was brought for the passing of a worthless check in the amount of $50 to Truett's Food Store in Morton. Date of the offenses was December 13, 1969.

Woody Jesse Short, one count of Burglary. He is charged with breaking and entering a house owned by Bill Jackson, proprietor of the Goodpasture Grain Elevator here, for the purpose of illegally obtaining property. The indictment specifies January 22, 1970 as the date of the alleged burglary.

Bond was set at $5,000 on each of their two counts for Martin and Schuller, making a total of $10,000 bail for each.

Bond was set for Berrera at $1,000 on each of his two counts for a total of $2,000. Short is under bond of $1,000.

School board passes resolution in praise of MHS coaches, athletes

In a mood of appreciation for the fine athletic program carried on by MHS during this academic year, the board of education passed at its meeting Monday night a resolution expressing "utmost that to the players and coaching staff. The outstanding performance of Ted Whillock as athletic director, football and basketball coach was rewarded, in part, earlier in the meeting when the board voted to raise his salary by $1,000 for the coming year.

Text of the resolution is as follows:

RESOLVED

CAMPFIRE GIRLS' ANNIVERSARY...

BLOWING HARD on the candles of their anniversary cake are three members of the Ta-Wan-Ka unit of the Morton Campfire Girls as they celebrated their birthday Tuesday. They are not quite sure just which anniversary this is, but believe it to be about the 76th. From left, the happy celebrants are Jeanie Coker, Cassandra Reeder and Debbie Adams. The cake is the handiwork of adult leader Mrs. E. L. Reeder.

Whiteface youth shows Grand Champion Steer at Levelland

A Whiteface youth has brought home the ribbon for Grand Champion steer at the Levelland Fat Stock Show held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Tommy Lewis, WHS sophomore FFA member and son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Lewis, won the grand championship with his 902 lb. Hereford calf named Fred. The steer was 15½ months old at the time of his big win. Lewis had earlier shown his calf in the Cochran County Junior Livestock Show where it placed tenth in its class.

A pool of local merchants combined their resources to purchase the calf at the show sale where Deryl Bennett, of the First State Bank, acted as their purchasing agent. The prize Hereford brought a top price of $1.30 per pound for a total of $1,172.60.

The six firms combining to buy the calf included Cox Auto Supply, Silvers Butane, Maple Co-op Gin, First State Bank, Beseda & Son Elevators and Maple Seed and Delinting, Inc.

Tommy, whose parents farm 1,200 acres of cotton and grain approximately 20 miles south of Morton, said the calf was no longer in his possession and that he could not furnish a picture to be published in the Tribune.

He credits the first rate advice and supervision in raising his animal to Wendell Dunlap, WHS vocational agriculture teacher, which he feels was a large contributing factor in his success.

Three Indians listed on all-district team

Three more distinguished honors were heaped on the Region I AA basketball champions, the Morton Indians as a result of a district meeting held last week.

The Tribe's three junior starters, M. C. Collins, Terry Harvey, and George Pritchett were all named to the 1969-70 all-district team.

The naming marked the fourth time Morton players have been designated on honor teams. Elton Patton was the only sophomore to be named to the state tournament all-tourney team among all three divisions. Patton scored 24 points in Morton's game against Taft in the first round of the state tournament.

The Indians' six-foot jumper, George Pritchett, was named to the Regional all-tournament team at Lubbock when the Indians rolled over McCamey and Quannah in gaining a berth in the state playoffs.

SEEKS COUNCIL POST...

EVERETT (SLICK) NICHOLS, local farmer, has entered the race for a city council seat. He will oppose Robert K. Robinson for the council seat in Place Three. The election is scheduled for April 4.

Famous artist Fred Harmon pays visit

Painter personifies 'Great West'

By BILL SAYERS

A limited number of Morton residents were treated to a very rare occasion at the First State Bank here Sunday afternoon.

The limited number because there was practically no advanced publicity on the event. The rare treat because Fred Harmon, widely-acclaimed western artist and fast-growing legend of the West as it really was, held a one man show of a large number of his paintings from 3 to 5 p.m. in the bank lobby.

Harmon displayed a collection of his paintings which had a combined value of well over $100,000. With the display of paintings, he also presented his recently released book "The Great West in Paintings." This beautifully produced volume, which has already become a collector's item, contains 32 color plates and 57 black and white reproductions of Harmon's paintings. It is in a limited edition and is not expected to go into a second printing, which should greatly enhance its value in years to come.

Harmon is rapidly becoming as famous, and being given equal recognition, with the legendary Remington and Russell in the field of western artistry. There is nothing fly-by-night in his work or his approach to his work. Here is combined the talent, the experience, the perception and the determination to re-create it exactly like it was or not at all. He paints things as he saw them on the long, hard road up, and in the process makes you, the viewer, believe you are there. His final product yields little or nothing to Remington or Russell.

He was in Morton largely on the instigation of his long-time friends Dr. and Mrs. William Dean and was returning to his Albuquerque N.M. home from a two months show of these same paintings at the Western Heritage Center and Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City. His show there has now become an annual event.

Dr. and Mrs. Dean are the proud owners of several of his works, some of which have been displayed for several months in the First State Bank building.

Harmon and his wife Lola were accompanied to Morton by Dr. John H. McCulloch of Lubbock who is the owner of 10 of his paintings which have a combined value of over $75,000.

Harmon had the usual beginnings of hardship, hard work and little "trim-min's" on his father's ranch claim in the wilds of southwestern Colorado. With very little schooling, he can credit his vast genius with the paint brush mostly to self-teaching. In the early days he teamed up with another unknown artist in a film ad company in Kansas City. The unknown was a fellow named Walt Disney. The two of them were caught "Moonlighting" on the company by their boss and both promptly fired. This occasioned Disney's departure for Hollywood and almost immediate fame and Harmon's re-departure for more ranching in Colorado and several more years of obscurity.

A few years after his Kansas adventure, Harmon created the comic strip characters Red Rider and Little Beaver, which later became a favorite of the youth throughout America. The strip was soon syndicated in 750 newspapers on three continents to the delight of an estimated 45 million readers. His characters soon were to become featured in a large number of movies which played in over 8,000 theaters in the United States.

Not at all prepossessing in size or stature, Harmon's out-of-doors-creased-face with its iron gray rancher's mustache, bushy gray brows and humorous gleam in the eye, is instantly recognizable by any westerner for as far as the eye can reach. His is the type of "takes me home" countenance that is so refreshingly welcome across a cocktail party room in the smoky confines of Washington, New York, Philadelphia or Boston.

While most of his art is of a very serious nature, depicting white men, Indians, animals and nature as surely and accurately as his brush can reproduce them, he also possesses a humility and deep-down sense of humor. This sense of humor resulted, in one case, in his painting a cover for "True West" magazine showing a saddle horse patiently awaiting without while the reins trailed into the partially-open door of an old-time wooden privy. Both artistry and subject matter

FRED HARMAN, famous western artist and creator of the comic strip "Red Rider and Little Beaver", was a surprise visitor and exhibitor of his paintings of western scenes in Morton Sunday. Pictured above at left center, with Dr. and Mrs. William Dean on his right and wife Lola on his left, Harmon shows his painting "Wild and Reckless", which is owned by the Deans and is valued at in excess of $8,000. The canvas will form the cover for the May-June issue of "The Westerner" magazine which will be on the news stands within the next few weeks. During his brief visit to Morton, Harmon exhibited over $100,000 worth of his western scenes and introduced locally his recently published book of art entitled "The Great West in Paintings". The local showing was held in the lobby of the First State Bank Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

City of Morton, Texas

Dear Mayor,
This past Sunday I moved into your town. My first night's stay was much more pleasant than I was afraid it was going to be. You see, the utilities were all off when I got to the house I was renting. I had understood that the landlord would have the house ready.

Mr. Rex Crawford came to my rescue. He waskind enough to come out on Sunday afternoon and turn on the gas and water. I appreciated this and feel that the City of Morton is fortunate to have employees that are willing to extend such courtesies.

Sincerely yours,

Patricia Lynn Butler is victim of accidental automobile fire

Patricia Lynn Butler, 23-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Butler, formerly of Morton, was burned to death in a tragic auto fire in Dallas last Thursday.

Both her older sister, Devon, 5, and her older brother, David, 3, escaped from the burning car.

Flames prevented witnesses and firemen from pulling the baby from the car in time to save her life.

Reports from police and witnesses indicate that the tragedy occurred when Mrs. Butler left the children momentarily to enter a building in which her husband worked to deliver a check to him. She is said to have been in the building no more than five minutes when passers-by rushed into the building to report that the auto was on fire.

The father and others present rushed to the car to release the children, but the flames prevented them reaching the baby. The two older children had evidently crawled from the car unaided.

Mrs. Butler, 23, collapsed at the scene and was taken to Parkland Hospital where she was given treatment for shock.

The Butlers had formerly lived in Morton, moving to Dallas from here February 6 of this year.

Funeral services for Patricia were held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the First Missionary Baptist Church in Morton with Rev. Merl Moore officiating. Interment was in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Survivors in addition to her parents and brother and sister include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner Butler, Morton and Mr. and Mrs. John Wines, Lubbock; Three great grandmothers, Mrs. J. F. Reed, Morton, Mrs. Bertha Mae Butler, Levelland and Mrs. Dean Perkins, Sayre, Oklahoma and one great great grandmother, Mrs. John Floyd of Eric, Oklahoma.

seem in true western style, if perhaps a little daring on the cover of a national magazine.

Harmon's visit to Morton was a true delight to those who were privileged to participate in it. It is regrettable that there was not more advanced publicity so that a great deal more persons in Morton could have attended.

There is no doubt but that they would have enjoyed meeting and conversing with this unique and fascinating personality. A personality who is most certainly sure of a place for all time in the heritage of the West—a West that is fast fading into history and whose legends will be preserved for coming generations largely through the artistry of just such persons as Fred Harmon.

Morton to host first area independent cage tournament

Eight area teams will be competing for championship honors in the first Morton Independent Basketball Tournament today through Saturday at Morton High School.

The tournament, planned in order to raise support for Morton's track program, will feature several former all-state basketball players and several former Morton basketball stars.

Games get underway today at 5 p.m. when the Bula coaches meet a team from Texas Tech. Amherst Butane faces South Plains College at 6:30. The SPC squad features former Morton High players Wayne Thompson, Bob Hawkins, Dick Van Landingham, Rusty Rowden, and Gary Willingham.

At 7:45, Littlefield Coca-Cola will meet the Slaton coaches, and at nine, the Morton coaches will take on Sudan's Nix implement. The Morton team includes Indian coaches Ted Willock, Doug Reed, Bill White, Lester Dupler, Tommy Thompson, as well as Richard Houston, Ernie Chesser, and Sam Garrett.

Each team must pay a thirty-dollar entry fee in order to play and will be competing for first, second, third place, and consolation trophies. In addition, trophies will be awarded to an all-tournament team and to the most valuable player of the tourney.

The Morton team rates as a pre-tournament favorite, but will face strong competition from Amherst as well as several other teams. Morton is 7-1 in play this year, having lost only to Amherst earlier in the year.

Games Friday will begin at 5 p.m. with four games to be played that evening. The consolation game will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday with the third place game to follow at 7:30. The championship contest begins at 9 p.m. Saturday night.

Money raised from the tournament will contribute to the support of the high school's track program. At present, the school does not have a track on which to work. Track programs, often neglected, help to train more athletes than does basketball with less expense. A good track program also contributes to the development of a good football program, yet track suffers the disadvantage of not being able to attract large crowds, and thus the program does not support itself. Attendance at the Independent Tournament will help offset this disadvantage.

"Texas Day" is program for 1936 Study Club meet

The 1936 Study club met Wednesday, March 4, in the home of Mrs. H. B. King for a "Texas Day" program.

Mrs. Gage Knox gave many interesting and little known facts about the state. She told the club members the 1901 location for Spindletop, the state's first oil well gusher, was picked by a thirteen year old boy, who had, what he considered, a God given talent for locating water.

The property from which the granite was cut to build the state capitol was once thought to be so worthless that the owner could not trade it for a saddle horse. It later sold for $90,000 and produced millions of dollars worth of granite. In spite of much advanced planning for the Hemisfair in Texas, a problem has appeared for which no answer has been found. Mountain climbers and helicopters have been unable to clean the slanting windows at the top of the Tower of the Americas.

Continuing the subject of Texas, Mrs. Lloyd Miller reviewed the book "Personal Country" by A. C. Green, a native of Abilene. The book describes West Texas as an area of open spaces tied together by asphalt roads, so good that they contribute a brutally high proportion of the state's accidents. It is a land of livestock on the roads, deer crossings and wind currents; a land of red clay, chocolate loam and brown grass that raises wonderful crops and puts meat on animals.

Mr. Greene describes the people of West Texas as an aristocracy of deeds where a man is known for what he does and the phrase "didn't amount to nothing" is more meaningful than "he failed."

Mrs. John Crowder presided at a short business meeting where members were reminded of the flag sale to be conducted by the L'Allegro Study Club and of the District Convention in Lubbock March 20.

Others present were: Mesdames Hume Russell, Joe Gipson, Joe Nicewarner, Glenn Thompson, Neal Rose, B. H. Tucker, John L. McGee, James St. Clair, Bill Sayers, W. W. Smith, D. E. Benham and M. C. Ledbetter.

Local Campfire Girls chapter marks anniversary of founding

The local chapter of National Campfire Girls are celebrating Campfire Girl Week March 16 through 22.

The girls will attend the Church of their choice in uniform March 22 and will receive special recognition.

March 21 at 7:30 the annual Dad and Daughter dinner will be held at the school cafeteria. At the fete the daughter members will treat their fathers as special guests, entertain them and acquaint them more closely with Campfire Girl activities.

The campfire organization is open to all girls from the second grade through high school. It is to prepare girls to be better citizens, better wives and better mothers. A variety of awards may be earned by such simple household chores such as cooking, cleaning and baby sitting. There are many other ways to earn awards.

The girls are taught and encouraged to obey the Campfire Girls laws which are: worship God, seek beauty, give service, pursue knowledge, glorify work, hold on to health and be happy.

There are approximately eighty registered Campfire Girls in Morton. These are divided into groups according to school grades:

The second and third grade groups are called "Bluebirds" and their leaders are, Maxine Yeary and Lanell Dewbre.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades are called Campfire Girls and their leaders are Christine Polvado, Betty Owens and Minnie Ellen Evans.

The seventh and eighth grades are Junior High Campfire Girls led by Virginia Reeder. Upon reaching High School they are known as the Horizon Club.

The Campfire Organization and its work is financed by sale of candy and the annual painting and sale of rodeo pictures for local business firms.

All of the leaders are volunteers who devote much time and talent to this worthwhile organization.

Some of the community projects which the Campfire Girls help with are the annual March of Dimes and the Heart fund drive. The girls have also joined the YM Study Club "Join us for Progress" project and will pick up litter to help in making Morton a cleaner city in which to live.

On alternate years the girls attend a week long camp at Scott Abel Camp and follow a busy schedule including hikes, sports, games and handicrafts while there.

Hi, gang! How did everyone like the Junior play last Friday night? The directors, Mr. David Murrah, Mr. Bruce Ayres and Mr. Dennis Howell were very pleased with the play. Mrs. Mike Doss and Mrs. Bobby Travis helped with the make-up. We would like to thank them for their help. "Rest Assured" was one of the best Junior plays ever presented in Morton High School. The cast had a great time in presenting it.

Mr. Howell Do you always go around hitting little kids on the head with a tricycle?

Approximately 60 people attended services in Brownfield at the First Baptist Church to hear Don Maynard of the New York Jets speak. A film was shown on the year the Jets won the world championship. A question and answer session was held after the film.

Nan, where did you say M. L. went over the weekend?

Our track team did very good at the meet last Saturday in Denver City. The Junior High team will be going to a track meet tomorrow and Saturday. Best of Luck to them!

Connie, I guess the cops can rest easy now since you are in the hospital! Isn't that right??

Mary, what's this I hear about those stories you've been writing? Why do you always write such morbid ones?

Mr. Murrah, you and Mr. Howell shouldn't be writing all over the props used in the Play!

The First Baptist Church is having a revival this week. They have invited everyone to attend.

That's all for this week and Good Luck at the track meet.

Lecture, slides on Africa life are feature of DKGS meeting

The Theta Epsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society met in the home of Mrs. Charles A. Sylvester in Level-land, Texas, Saturday, March 14, at 2:30 p.m.

Guest speaker Mrs. Brotherton presented slides she made while on a trip to Africa in 1967. The living conditions, ranching, country schools, homes and farming operations were included in the slides, as well as the native animals of Africa.

In the gold mine she visited, her tour was informed that it required 5 tons to produce just one ounce of gold. The natives enjoyed posing for pictures and they carried everything on their heads, and then if necessary, used their hands for carrying articles. Oxen yoked together are used to pull the hand plows 16 oxen were yoked to the plow observed.

Stock from the United States is exported to Africa and they appeared in excellent condition. The ranch house on the ranch visited was a group of huts attached to one another with separate roofs which had to be replaced every two years.

If they needed more room, it was quite simple to add another rock hut. The citrus pickers were paid but one cent for a sack of oranges which they carried around their neck. The sack would probably hold 50 pounds and wages were not bad at 1 cent actually because they were furnished a comfortable home, groceries and all medical expenses.

Mrs. Neal Rose read a letter which had been written to Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter by Mrs. Savana Walker who is in Africa and the big need in the country is in education even though big strides for the education of women have been made in the past 10 years.

After singing the Delta Kappa Gamma song, the history book for the Chapter was made available for viewing and refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Ruth Breed, Flora Bryant, Anne Bulls, Entha Cambell, Cornelia Couch, Irene Galvin, Inez Grant, Helen Hamilton, Inez Knox, Cherylyne Ingalls, Sycily Lattimore, Lasca McChristial, Helen Roberts, Lois Selman, Lois St. Clair, Marie Stockard, Freda Tubb, Pauline Winghamam, Inez Witte, Wanda Balch, Gail Burrier, Laura Cole, Ina Fern Gray, Polly Ann Parmer, Cathy Powell, Dorothy Rose, Hazel Sylvester, Miss Lonora Jackson and two guests Mrs. Brotherton and Mrs. Marleen Lieb.

Accent on health

Drugs! How many times have you heard the word? Abuse! Just what does it mean?

Taken together "drug abuse" is probably one of the most talked-about topics in Texas and the nation today. The topic is attacked from various sides law enforcement, morality, punishment. It is also attacked from another side education.

It's this attack which has been launched by the Texas State Department of Health's Division of Public Health Education. The Department has long felt a very real concern about this growing menace to the total population because of its direct implications to public health.

About two years ago the Department became aware that a serious deficiency existed in the area of public health education concerning drug abuse. As the deficiency became increasingly apparent, and because of the Department's existing activity in registering wholesale drug outlets, the Division of Public Health Education began to accept requests for its participation in drug abuse programs in schools, teacher training programs, civic organizations, etc.

During this two year period, the Division has had instructors traveling to various parts of the state presenting an educational concept of drug abuse control.

To date, more than 500 such classes have been held with an audience of some 50,000 students.

The actual course consists of showing one of several films ordinarily the film entitled "Marihuana," a "no preaching, tell-it-like-it-is" film. The film depicts a "pot party" being raided by the police. As each person is taken from the party to awaiting patrol cars, each expresses his or her thoughts about smoking marihuana and defends the use of it.

Apply Terraclor Super-X and only the first time you plant cotton.

Think for a minute what it costs to replant an acre of cotton that doesn't make a stand. There's the cost of seed, fertilizer, herbicides, insecticides, equipment, operators and the precious time. Multiply that by the number of acres you could lose to seed and seedling disease.

Now think about Terraclor Super-X Soil Fungicide. It could very well eliminate replanting. Here's why: Terraclor Super-X is a combination of two Olin discoveries that effectively control the fungi that cause cotton seedling disease.

How important is this to you? The regional Cotton Disease Council reports that losses average $60,000,000 a year to seedling diseases alone.

Terraclor Super-X is applied while you plant. Your cotton seed is surrounded by protection in the furrow, where it counts. As the seed germinates and the seedling emerges, the fungi that kill unprotected plants are held off by Terraclor Super-X. You get a healthy, vigorous stand from only one planting.

About seed treatments: They are great... as far as they go. But seed treatment protection lasts only until the seed coat opens and the seedling grows into untreated soil. That's when you need Terraclor Super-X in the furrow.

Terraclor Super-X is available from your Olin dealer in three formulations: granular, liquid and dust. A special formulation is available with a quality soil systemic insecticide impregnated in the granules for combination fungus and insect control.

If you don't know your local Olin dealer, write to Terraclor Super-X, P. O. Box 991, Little Rock, Ark. 72203 for his name.

You ought to get to know him. He can help you get a good stand from only one planting. That's one good reason he is known as the rare bird in the business.

Morton Indians finish fifth in season's first track meet

The Morton Indians kicked off the track season by running in the tough Denver City Relays last weekend. The Indian thinclads placed fifth in the race behind Denver City, Sudan, Eunice, and Plains.

Track coach Bill White expressed satisfaction with his boys' performance. "I am real pleased, considering our late start," White said this week. The track program was delayed for two weeks because of Morton's participation in the state basketball playoffs. Bad weather last week prohibited workouts before the Denver City meet.

Sunny skies this week should help the Morton thinclads show a marked improvement as they travel to Hereford Saturday to run in the Hereford Relays. About 18 boys will make the trip.

Morton's seventh, eighth, and ninth grades will participate in the Idalou Junior High Relays Friday afternoon at Idalou.

The Denver City Mustangs rolled up 6 points to outdistance second-place Sudan who scored 82. Eunice scored 44, Sudan, 34, and Morton, 31. Other teams participating included Tahoka, Jal, Tatum, Seagraves, O'Donnell, Shallowater, and Southland.

Morton showed strength in the distance events. In the 880-yard run, Jackie Watts and Dennis Clayton captured second and third place, and Eddie Lewis, seventh. Watts turned in a time of 2:09.3. In the mile, Morton's Mike Dubberly tied for third and Keith Embry captured fifth. The mile relay team placed sixth with a team composed of Bryant and Eddie Lewis, George Pritchett, and Willie Holland.

Morton's David Carrasco paced Indian sprinters by capturing fifth in the 440-yard dash.

Pritchett led Morton's broad jumpers with a leap of 18 feet, 9 1/2 inches, and placed sixth in the meet. Pritchett took fourth in the high jump with a 5 feet-six inch effort. Willie Holland captured sixth place with a jump of 5-4.

Coach White emphasized that his boys were pointing toward the district meet scheduled for April 11. Idalou and Denver City shape up as favorites, but the Indians hope to be able to show that they can overcome a late start and give the Mustangs and Wildcats some real competition.

Women monarchs of the past had nothing on today's women when it came to bathing. The fastidious and great 17th Century Queen Elizabeth could bathe only once a month due to the scarceness of soap. Empress Josephine caused quite a stir among the French when the news escaped that she took a bath every day. Before this, bathing was indulged in only by cranks or upon the advice of a physician.

Good tooth care starts even before a baby's birth, continues with good diet, cleanliness, regular visits to the dentist, and use of fluorides. These four guidelines are recommended for baby's dental care.

Teeth are formed before birth; therefore, ample calcium, phosphorus, and vitamins should be in mother's diet during pregnancy. Plenty of citrus fruits, cheese, and milk should be eaten.

After birth baby's diet counts, too. A child needs plenty of milk, eggs, fruit, vegetables, meat, and as little extra sugar as possible.

Cleanliness is the second part of the child's program. Research has discovered that a baby who falls asleep with a bottle in his mouth is likely to develop more cavities than other children. Even before the baby's first teeth have been cut, a mother should wipe the inside of his mouth gently with a piece of gauze after he has eaten. This removes any milk or other food from his gums and tongue.

When a baby's first teeth appear, his mother can begin to clean them regularly with a washcloth. When he is about eighteen months old she can start using a soft tooth brush. Toothpaste or powder is not necessary at this time.

Regular visits to the dentist should begin when the child is between two and one half and three years old, before any repair or remedial treatment is likely to be necessary.

The use of fluorides is the fourth part of a dental care program. Presently, fluoridation of community water is considered to be the least expensive and most effective way to prevent tooth decay.

Comments on Conservation

By Wayne Wilcox

The youth of the Cochran Soil and Water Conservation District have really been in the "lime light" lately. Probably one of life's hardest lessons is the fact that you can't always be a winner. This applies to showing livestock as well as to playing basketball. Learning from losing is important.

Speaking of what's important, ask any parent and he will soon tell you that

Oriental arrangements viewed by Garden Club

"Arranging in the Oriental Manner" was the program for the LeFleur Garden Club at their meeting in the home of Mrs. J. L. Thomas March 12.

Mrs. Don Samford discussed the Nageire style, she said this style developed from the Ikebana, the term usually associated with Japanese flower arrangements, and that all arrangements have a religious influence. They are constructed around three main lines, Heaven, Man, and Earth. The Heaven line always the longest or strongest, Man the next longest with earth the shorter. The Nageire style is known as the "thrown in" style, in arranged in tall vases or baskets. Mrs. Samford displayed several Nageire arrangements.

The Maribana style was discussed by the kids and grandkids are very important. He would get no argument out of our department. Actually that is what conservation is all about. The natural resources taken care of will take care of the generations of tomorrow. True, many mistakes have been made in the past. For example, land not suited for cultivation has been plowed. It now blows and produces little or nothing. In many cases it is destroying good land that joins it. Effort should be put forth in getting a grass cover back on this land. Now is a good time to make a start in covering up this mistake — the neighbors and future generations will appreciate it.

Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins. This style is a naturalistic style, using flowers true to the season with many garden scenes in flat containers or shallow bowls often with water showing.

"What to do this month, now is the time to prepare the soil by deep cultivation, applying plant food, planting Glads and Dahlias, transplanting biennials and perennials and pruning roses" Mrs. Owen Eggers told the members.

The placement show that was to be held May 9 was changed to May 16. The show will be in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill.

The next meeting will be March 26 in the home of Mrs. Don Samford.

Those persons and firms which were inadvertently left out of our previous "Thank You" ad, published March 5, which listed the contributors, buyers, and members of the buyers pool who so very strongly supported the Cochran County Junior Fat Stock Show.

Your contributions were extremely helpful and are highly appreciated.

We know that you realize how complicated the problem is in keeping the hundreds of items straight in the heat and confusion of this event . . . but we are determined that each contribution will be duly recognized.

We would like to add special recognition to Woody Dickson, president of the board of Cochran County Livestock Improvement Association, for another job well done on the 1970 show.

We also wish to correct the listing of the Stock Show Superintendent. The superintendent was this year, as last, Bobby Neal — not Billy Weems as published.
