Thugs get big haul of merchandise at Minnie's

Loot running well up into the thousands of dollars was harvested by an unknown number of burglars who entered Minnie's Fashion Shop in Morton Monday night or Tuesday morning.

According to Minnie's estimation, they were mighty discriminating thieves as they selected only the most fashionable and expensive garments that she had in the house. "They just about cleaned out the new fall line of coat and dress combinations and pants suits that we just recently received," Mrs. Childs, whose incomplete inventory Tuesday indicated upward of 150 garments missing, stated.

The only bright spot in an otherwise dark picture was the fact that the intruders walked right by a huge closet full of lay-away garments and several boxes of new fashions that had not yet been opened. "If they had gotten into my lay-aways, it would have taken me forever to get straightened out," Minnie said, and added "they could have walked away with those cartons of new clothes without even having to open them, thus cutting down on their transportation problems, but I guess they were too eager to get into the main store where they could see what they were getting."

Method of entry was the breaking of a window to the store room in the rear of the store and bending the small steel bars that were over it sufficiently to slip inside. Both the front and side doors of the shop showed evidence of attempted forcible entry without success.

No exact evaluation of the loss could be given by Mrs. Childs, but her preliminary estimate indicated a possible $4,500 figure.

Sheriff Hazel Hancock and Morton Police Chief Arthur Mason are cooperating in the investigation of the break-in and were in Lubbock Tuesday consulting with Texas Rangers who have handled similar cases in the local area recently.

Both male and female shoe tracks were in evidence in the unpaved alley behind the store and in the damp earth beside the building where the entry was made, indicating that the thieves brought their own consultants on women's fashions. And their experts obviously knew their business, as "they only took my best materials and styles and the top of our line of sports clothes, and didn't bother with any lesser items such as shoes or handbags," the shop owner concluded.

A group from the Baptist Student Union of Texas Tech University will be on hand Friday night to entertain high school students of the Morton area immediately following the football game. The program will be held at the Cochran County Activity Building, and is sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

All high school students are invited to attend.

Indians regroup for Farwell game

Morton's Indians have been in the process of regrouping their forces as they prepare to host the Farwell Steers in an 8 p.m. non-conference game Friday.

The Tribe, now 1-1 following last week's loss to Frenship, will feature a new starting quarterback and other changes in an effort to get back in the winning ways. Keith Embry will resume the starting duties as signal caller due to Stan Coffman being sidelined for the remainder of the season with a broken finger.

Embry, as a sophomore last year, played practically the entire season at quarterback and is no stranger to the position. In the second to last game of the season, Embry hit nine of 14 pass attempts for 129 yards against Tahoka and racked up 374 passing yards last year on 24 of 65 tries. He also garnered 283 yards on the ground in 125 carries.

Friday's game is the last non-district affair for the Indians. Next week, the Tribe host Abernathy in the first conference tilt. The clash will also mark Morton's Homecoming.

The Farwell Steers have had their troubles against the AA teams this season. Two of Morton's district opponents, Dimmitt and Friona, have both branded the Steers this year, but the Steers are still expected to be as strong as they were last season when they posted a 7-4 mark and took district championship honors.

Morton's fired-up Tribe dealt the Steers a 7-0 defeat last year in a major upset. "We've ever had," stated Farwell coach as far as the running game is concerned as we've ever had," stated Farwell coach Toby Booth before the season started.

The Steers' mentor told an Avalanche Journal reporter that Farwell would run the ball more this year "because we don't have any receivers in Stovall's category." Booth was referring to Dean Stovall, a three-time all-region selection.

Five offensive and five defensive starters return from last year's squad, but the Steers will still field an offensive unit composed entirely of juniors and seniors. Quarterback Gene Sheets and tailback Gary Erwin are considered top back men, and left end Larry Erwin, Gary's younger brother, is marked as the best Steer receiver.

Two sophomores will start on defense. See INDIANS, Page 4a

Frenship cashes in on Tribe miscues to take 49-0 victory

Last Friday's football fortunemaker presented a rather hard time to the Morton Indians as the Tribe visited the Tiger lair of Frenship High School and lost the ball, the game and their quarterback.

Perhaps the least loss was that of the game. Plagued by fumbles, bad breaks, and pass interference penalties, the Indians gave up precious yardage grudgingly, but were worn down by the big Tiger line as the Cats took advantage of every opportunity to claw their way to the 49-0 victory.

Morton's lanky quarterback Stan Coffman suffered a broken finger after being dropped several times by the hard rushing Tiger linebackers. As he was moving back for a pass, he fractured a finger on his right hand against the shoulder pad of an opponent and is lost for the remainder of the season. A southpaw by nature, Coffman was treated at a Lub-

School enrollment reaches new high School District Superintendent Bob E. Travis said Morton schools enrollment has reached a total of 1,123 highlighted the regular board of education meeting held Monday night.

This total enrollment, which has set a modern record for the school system, includes Headstart, Kindergarten and Special Education pupils in addition to the regular twelve grades. Without these additional classes, which have been integrated into the school system for the first time this year, the total would probably be near that of last year, but still slightly higher.

In other business, the appointment of Mrs. Vera Bailey to the teaching staff for the year 1970-71 was approved.

The board agreed upon a new charge schedule for the mailing of transcripts for students. A charge of $1 for each transcript over and above one copy will be charged to the student and a charge of $1 will be levied on all transcripts mailed for students who have been graduated over one year.

Approval for the payment of bills for the month of August in the amount of $60,882.69 completed the board's business for the evening.

★ Jamboree Time

The September Country Western Jamboree will be held Saturday, September 26, in the Cochran County Activity Building beginning at 8 p.m.

Tommy Williams from Andrews will be Master of Ceremonies.

Groups and individuals expected to participate include Elvis Fleming, Edna Lee, Jimmy Waters, the Country Classics, the Morgan Rusk Band from Levelland, Blue Grass Drifters and the Lee Hadaway Band from Andrews.

CUPBOARD WAS BARE . . .

MRS. L. B. CHILDS, owner and manager of Minnie's Shop, claims no known relationship to Old Mother Hubbard, but she found their misfortunes were strikingly parallel when she opened the shop Tuesday morning as the bare display racks she is pointing to will attest. A thief, or thieves, broke in through a barred window sometime Monday night or Tuesday morning and carried away what is believed to be upward of 150 dresses and costume combinations. Preliminary estimates indicate the loss may go as high as several thousand dollars.

Bank deposits show Cochran Countians saving more money

Despite the current recession, the average Cochran County family is in better financial shape now than in most years.

The county has a larger nest egg of cash in bank accounts and in other forms of savings than normally.

This is due to the fact that local families have pulled in their horns somewhat during the past year — not spending up to the hilt.

They have also kept their credit in good shape, while increasing their savings by making regular payments on their installment debt.

For the Cochran County population as a whole, the amount of new money put into savings in the past fiscal year is estimated at $1,782,000.

This includes additions to bank accounts, shares in savings and loan associations, purchases of U. S. savings bonds and other liquid assets.

The accumulation represents a money hoard with a big potential. When the economy is pressed to release it, the local money will receive a powerful thrust toward the local.

The local estimate is based upon data gathered by the county at large, gathered by the Department of Commerce and others, upon the latest income distribution figures, covering each community.

The surveys indicate that the amount of savings by the average family is closely related to its income.

Among those with earnings of $3,500 or more, a little or nothing can be saved. They are barely able to keep going at all on their meager amount.

Even cotton sewing winners are selected contest Tuesday

Prizes in seven different categories were awarded to seamstresses and models as the annual Sew It With Cotton contest reeled off in the county activities building Tuesday night.

It was a gala evening as the mistress of ceremonies, Joan Weaver, put the motions through their paces with brief introductions between categories punctuated by entertainment from Bobby Hall and Paul Mauldin. The contest was judged by Karen Hayes, Gail O'Neal and Mrs. Nowel and Christine Polvado furnished piano accompaniment. Presentations of prizes was by Linda Griffith. Cotton materials used for stage decorations were furnished by the Chaparral of Morton.

The annual contest is under sponsorship of the Last Frontier Cotton Council. First place winners will be eligible to enter the district contest to be held in Dallas on October 3.

First and second place winners by categories include:

Convictions, sentences mark court session

A crowded docket was disposed of in the 121st District Court of Judge M. C. Ledbetter here Monday and Tuesday. Trials and pleas of guilty resulted in several sentences and some convictions upon which sentences will be passed October 5.

Serapio Olivas was found guilty Monday on a charge of a car theft from the Gwatney-Wells Chevrolet-Oldsmobile used car lot last July 23. He is presently on four years probation for a conviction on a check law violation and remains in custody in the county jail. Judge Ledbetter will pass sentence on October 5.

John Henry Reed, of Brownfield, was found guilty in a jury trial Tuesday on a charge of passing a forged check. His sentence will also be passed on October 5.

Norval D. Frost received a two year probationary sentence on charges of violation of the check law. He is required to make restitution at the rate of $100 per month until the entire amount of $1,700 and court costs are paid in full.

Derwynne Brewer was arraigned Tuesday for theft by false pretext and his bond was set by the court at $500. He failed to post bond and remains in custody awaiting trial.

Lonnie Stroud pled guilty to three counts of forgery and passing a bad check. He remains in custody and sentence will be passed October 5.

THEY'VE GOT RHYTHM . . .

SWINGING OUT THIS YEAR at the head of the big MHS Indian band are four persons who contribute a great deal in making it one of the outstanding musical groups in West Texas high school circles. Garnett Taylor is in his second year of outstanding service as drum major. Twirlers, from left, are Mary Cadenhead, Vicki Hodges and Sherry Fred. The band, under direction of band master John Stockdale is looking forward to another successful year in area band competitions.

1971. You've changed.
We've changed.

Chevrolet

Worth seeing. Worth owning.
Worth waiting for.

Vega. Not just another little car, but one little car that does everything well. You get more room, more weight and more power than most little cars give you, yet the gas mileage is right in the same neighborhood with the best of them. Vegas come dressed up, too, not stripped to the bone so you have to add a lot to make them liveable. Drive one. You'll see.

Caprice. There's a double layer of steel in the roof, a steel guard beam in each door, power disc brakes up front, a new power ventilation system inside, a wheelbase two and one-half inches longer. You get the looks and comfort of a six- or seven-thousand-dollar car, but at Chevrolet prices. And that's the kind of change during these tight-money times that all of us can appreciate.

Vanishing tailgate. A big change in our big wagon. The window goes up into the roof, the Glide-Away tailgate vanishes beneath the floor. Out of sight. Out of your way for easy loading even in a closed garage or when you have a trailer hooked on.

See what we mean by putting you first? September 29 at your Chevrolet dealer's.

back hospital and is now supporting an unwieldy cast on his right hand.

The 49-0 score was not at all indicative of the difference in the two AA teams. Five costly fumbles yielded at least four easy touchdowns for the Tigers, but even then, the Tribe's defense made their hosts work for every yard. But Frenship never had too far to travel as they popped onto Morton fumbles at the Indians' 33, seven, eight, two, and twenty yard lines.

Friday's first quarter play gave no indication of the impending disaster. The Indians received the opening kickoff and began to move the ball against the heavier Tiger line. Coffman rolled for an eleven-yard pickup to the 24 on the second play of the game. Eddie Lewis plunged for another yard, and on fourth and one, the Tribe gambled and won as Terry Harvey banged out three for a big first down. But on the next play the ball skirted away from Kevin Kuehler and the Tigers took over at the 33.

However, the Indians' good defense rose up to put down the hosts' first drive. An eight-yard pass had given Frenship a first down at the Morton 24, but four plays netted only two yards as Haskell Lamar and Keith Embry brought down the Tigers' Clyde Strong for a one-yard loss at the 17.

Two plays netted only three yards, so on third down, Embry surprised everyone with a booming 45-yard quick-kick that drove the Tigers back to their own 35, fustiest the Tribe ever got to the Frenship goal line.

The Cats then picked up three first downs in pushing to the Morton 18, but a fourth down pass was incomplete as Harvey popped Frenship's Jake Rogans and caused the big Tiger end to drop the ball.

Morton began to drive as Harvey scrambled out to the 28 on an 11-yard scamper and picked up another yard as the first quarter expired. But then, it seemed that the change in ends of the field also changed the fate of the game. On the first play of the second period, Frenship's Mike Snowden picked off a Coffman pass at the Tiger 37.

But the Tribe held one more time and forced Frenship to punt. At the Morton 20, Joe Rogans came crashing into the Tribe's backfield and forced a fumble. From the 17, a Tiger pass fell short, but on second down, the Indians were charged with pass interference at the one. On first down, Joe Rogans was stopped in his tracks, but Strong skirted over for the first Frenship score with nearly ten minutes left in the half. Jake Rogans booted the extra.

And then the floodgate opened. Five minutes later, Strong ran a punt into the end zone, but the performance was nullified by a clipping penalty. However, from the Indian 26, the Tigers used five bruising runs against the tiring Indian defense to pick up their second TD.

A minute later, Morton fumbled again at the seven, but the Tigers failed to drive the short yardage as M. C. Collins raked Joe Rogans at the one on fourth down. But, the Tigers salvaged two points as Coffman was brought down behind the goal as the Tribe was backed up against the line after their third defensive stand.

Morton's free kick following the two-point safety set the Tigers up at the Indians' 38, and Frenship punched out their third TD with seconds left in the half as Kim Morris hit an eight-yard strike to Jake Rogans. Frenship led, 22-0, at the half and the Indians had touched the ball only 17 times, and had fumbled on three of those occasions.

The second half brought no relief, although it first appeared things might be different. On the second play, Morton's Eddie Lewis picked off a Morris pass at the Morton ten, but on the Indians' first try, Coffman was dropped and injured, and the Tigers once again had to move only a few yards to score after recovering Morton's fourth fumble.

Later Frenship drove from the Morton 40, 42, and 20 yard lines for touchdowns, scoring their last thirty seconds deep into the final period. The Tigers scored all 49 points in just over a quarter and a half.

Morton's deepest offensive penetration came on the last play of the game as Kevin Kuehler banged for 20 yards on two plays to the Tiger 47, the only time in the contest the Tribe was able to move controlled the ball 21 times during the second half. Kuehler was the top rusher for Morton with 38 yards on eight tries.

for the visitors Friday. Scouting reports reveal that the Steers have not forgotten how to pass. Running a variable split-T offense, Farwell's running and passing game features tried and proven patterns that have been in use for years. If Farwell's offensive attack is similar to its past performances, then a wide-open game is on tap for Friday night in Indian Stadium. For the first time this young season, the Indians will outweigh an opponent in the line. The Steers will average about 153 pounds per man in the forward wall, some 40 pounds lighter on the average than the huge Frenship Tigers.

Morton's Terry Harvey moved past Embry in rushing honors this week as the talented halfback gained 32 yards on eight tries against Frenship. Harvey has gained 73 yards through two games. Kevin Kuehler is second in total yardage with 55 yards on 13 attempts.

hold, according to the figures, the general average was 7.9 percent and the amount saved in the year approximately $940 per household.

This compares with $720 per household elsewhere in the United States and with $630 in the State of Texas.

It added up to $1,782,000 in the year for the entire local population.

Senior citizens will speak out during community meetings

"Grassroots America" will do its part during the week of September 20-26 as Senior Citizens throughout the area speak out on their needs in community meetings.

All of this is part of the plan for White House Conference on Aging to be held in Washington, D.C., November-December 3, 1971. Minnie Bell, Extension specialist in family life education, reports.

"The 'speak outs,' actually small community White House Conferences on aging, will be in the form of community forums," Miss Bell said. "Forum moderators will note what is said, and afterwards, this information will make its way to Washington to help build the recommendations of the 1971 Conference."

As America moved into the decade of the 70's, Congress authorized the President to call a White House Conference on Aging, she explained, adding that the conference will be built on the results of the First White House Conference on Aging held in 1961 which led among many things to the enactment of the Older Americans Act and the setting up of a Federal Administration on Aging.

"Today, there are 55 states and territories with units on Aging," Miss Bell said. "In Texas, it is the Governor's Committee on Aging. Progress since 1961 Conference has been real, but 600,000 older Americans still face serious problems," she added.

Nearly all elderly persons are in a squeeze on their fixed incomes, noted, and advancing years cause problems in health, housing, employment and their retirement roles and activities.

The Community Forums in each of the nation offer an opportunity for older Americans to present their problems and needs. Miss Bell urges Senior citizens and all others concerned with the welfare to attend and participate in local forums.

ASCS Farm News

By John W. Hall

Farmers of Cochran County have elected a total of 25 ASCS Community Committee members and Alternates in a mail election conducted earlier this month, according to Danny Key, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

ASCs community committees assist the County ASCS Committee in administering farm programs in Cochran County, such as wheat and cotton acreage allotments, feed grain bases and agricultural conservation cost-sharing programs. They also help local producers informed of farm program provisions and regulations.

In addition, the just-elected ASC committee and its subcommittees have an important responsibility in the near future in filling vacancies on the County ASC Committee and determining the chairman and vice-chairman for the coming year, Mr. Key said.

The new ASC community committees will convene September 25, 9:00 A.M. at the County Activity Building in a meeting open to the public. They will elect one County Committeeman to serve a three-year term and two alternates to serve one-year terms. After the vacancies are filled, the community committeemen will determine which of the three regular members of the County ASC Committee will be Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

Each of the 25 ASC community committees are made up of three members and two alternates, who serve for a one-year period. The committee in each ASC community who received the largest number of votes is the Committee chairman. Second highest is vice-chairman; third is regular committee member; fourth and fifth in the number of votes received are first and second alternates.

Seventh graders top Ralls, Frenship; eighth graders lose two tilts

Morton's seventh grade romped to a 22-0 win last week to open the season in fine fashion, but the eighth grade dropped a 24-14 decision, thus giving the Indian teams a split with the host Ralls Jackrabbits in games played Thursday.

Eddie Mendy paced seventh scoring in the shutout victory by scoring on a 40-yard jaunt and running for four extra points.

Morton's J. P. Cornish scored first for the Indians with a 30-yard gallop in the opening quarter. L. V. Hall scored the final tally in the third with a 25-yard sprint. John Hodges paced Morton's shutout defense.

Jimmy Hargis got in on both eighth grade touchdowns in the second game. The first was a 30-yard play to Gilbert Ramos and the second came on a 25-yard sweep around end. Tony Soliz scored the extras after the second TD. Charles Christian and Soliz were defensive standouts.

The seventh grade continued to roll down the winning path as they romped to a 30-0 win over the Frenship Tigers Tuesday afternoon. For the second straight time, however, the eighth graders went down to defeat by a score of 36-14.

Texas Tech farm, ranch law institute brings good response

"good response" is reported for the Farm and Ranch Law Institute to be held by the Texas Tech University School of Law Sept. 26.

Associate Dean Justin C. Smith of the School said the response was broad-based with ranchers as well as attorneys, trust officers, accountants, property managers and others in ranch related industries among those expected to attend.

"The principal thrust of the institute," Smith said, "will be the presentation of practical information in a field which is rapidly changing. Witness the dramatic mechanization of farms in this area in the past 20 years and the tremendous growth in the feedlot industry in West Texas in the last 10 years."

Dr. J. Wayland Bennett, associate vice president for Academic Affairs at Texas Tech University, will be the luncheon speaker. Dr. Bennett was named to his present post last summer after serving seven years as associate dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences and the preceding seven years as chairman of the Department of Agriculture Economics.

The institute will start at 8:30 a.m. and conclude about 4 p.m. (in time for participants to attend the Texas Tech-Texas football game in Jones Stadium).

Topics to be discussed and the speakers include: Leases, George W. McCleskey of Nelson, McCleskey, Harriger & Brazill; Partnerships & Corporations, David Hughes of Evans, Pharr, Trout & Jones; Farm and Ranch Tax Problems, W. Ray Phillips, professor, Texas Tech University School of Law; Estate Planning & Administration, W. Reed Quilliam, professor, School of Law; Feedlot Organization and Incorporation, James Milam of Crenshaw, Dupree & Milam, and Sam Aldredge, attorney, Farwell, Tex.; and Financing Cattle Transactions, Don Workman, vice president, First National Bank, Lubbock.

Registration for the institute still is open, and inquiries should be addressed to the School of Law at Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

Ambitious education program to highlight CAC second year

The Cochran County Community Action Center begins its second year of operation next month after having completed a highly successful year in which nearly 170 people were given instructional and training help.

Staffed with volunteer help, the center provided tutoring and instruction for school children, in drivers' training, adult basic education, sewing, typing, auto mechanics, welding, and other areas.

In addition, ten clinics were held at the center for the purpose of inoculating children for disease prevention. Over 700 shots were administered.

Under the direction of its 21-member board, the CAC is beginning its second year of operation with full programs of instruction planned in order to help the area help themselves. Last week 27 people enrolled in the basic education classes, over twice as many as last year's figure. These classes will meet on Monday and Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. at Morton High School.

Several committees, under the direction of volunteer workers, are making plans for the new year. Mrs. Pat Trejo heads the Sewing committee, Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter is the new chairman of the Tutoring Committee, Mrs. Kathryn Joyce now is leader of the Housing committee, Mrs. Lucille Wynn is chairman of the Clothing room committee, and Mrs. Deryl Bennett is chairman of the Health committee.

The board of directors, composed of local government leaders, interested citizens, and representatives of economically disadvantaged people, rely heavily on volunteer help, and last year, more than 55 adults and young people assisted in the center's work. Some thirty junior high and high school students assisted in tutoring elementary children at the center. Drivers' training classes, taught in Spanish and English by Rudolf Luna and

West Texas landowner receive 945 pronghorn harvesting permits

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials have issued permits to landowners in the Permian Basin and Trans-Pecos areas for the harvesting of approximately 945 buck pronghorns during the nine-day season beginning Oct. 3.

Regional Wildlife Supervisor Jack Parsons said the final number of permits is subject to slight revision at a later time.

A total of 829 of the permits was issued in seven counties of the Trans-Pecos, with Brewster and Presidio Counties getting the major share, at 259 and 349, respectively.

In the Permian Basin area the county permit distribution is as follows: Borden, 58; Garza, 13; Glasscock, seven; Howard, three; Irion, 10; Midland, 13; Mitchell, six; Reagan, four, and Sterling, two.

Extremely dry conditions prevailed in the Trans-Pecos during the past winter and spring which resulted in a slight population decline of mature pronghorns. However, a good fawn crop and welcome summer rains have bolstered the herd.

Charley Ellis, reached 43 people. Mrs. Bill Woods, Mrs. J. H. Rhyne, Mrs. Robert Taylor, and Mrs. W. C. Benham instructed sewing classes with an enrollment of ten. O. L. Tilger and Mrs. Dorothy Barker instructed the typing class. Tom Rowden and Santos Gonzales taught auto mechanics and welding.

Several Morton school teachers assisted in teaching the graduate equivalency diploma classes, including Richard Houston, Jeff Townsend, David Murrah, Dennis Howell, Mrs. W. G. Freeland, and Mrs. Benham. Also teaching school-related work included Mrs. Ledbetter, Mrs. Crowder, Mrs. Ira Williams, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Silvers, Miss Lovett, and Mrs. Evelyn Seagler.

The CAC is an outgrowth of programs devised by the U. S. government's Office of Economic Opportunity. Begun in 1964, the OEO is encouraging community groups to strengthen their own city's capacity for coordinating poverty-related programs and to provide a broader range of programs for economically disadvantaged peoples.

The CAC and other like groups across the nation are attempting to strike at the causes of poverty. Involvement of disaffected their lives and utilizing citizens of the local community for instructional purposes is a step toward the major goal of the OEO and the CAC — helping people help themselves.

Texas DOA releases feasibility booklet on hog marketing

A new booklet, "The Feasibility of Commercial Hog Marketing in Texas," is available to producers and investors considering expanding or entering a feeder-pig and finished-hog marketing program on a commercial scale.

John C. White, commissioner of the Texas Department of Agriculture, said that the information was developed to assist in an orderly expansion of the state's swine industry which pumps about $50 million annually into the Texas economy.

White indicated that strong hog prices the past two years, the fact that Texas is a "hog-deficit" state, and increased interest in agribusiness investment are prime factors in current demand for swine marketing feasibility information.

The study was completed for the Texas Department of Agriculture by Bill Nelson, Amarillo, and Dr. Charles M. Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture at West Texas State University, Canyon.

The study points out that opportunity exists for hog marketing operations to be established (1) on a part-time basis by individuals in farming, business or industry with year-round spare time, (2) one-man operator basis on farms with year-round excess labor, or (3) as a commercial enterprise organized for profit to specific inputs of capital, labor and professional management.

It is this last category toward which this booklet is directed.

Ben Baisdon, director of Marketing for the Texas Department of Agriculture, said that copies of the multi-colored, 12-page booklet are available free on request to the department in Austin.
