Light election turnout forecast

HAPPY HOMECOMING . . .

DR. WILLIAM DEAN of Cochran Memorial Hospital is shown above as he arrived back home Saturday from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where he underwent major surgery last week. Over 200 Morton citizens were on hand, accompanied by the MHS band, to greet their "favorite" doctor and friend and show their appreciation for the valuable service that he has performed for the community as their hospital physician. They had further cause to wish him well as his homecoming happened to coincide with his birthday. Morton Mayor Donnie Simpson has issued a formal proclamation designating October 25-31 as "Dr. Dean Week in Morton". With Dr. Dean are Mrs. Dean, left and his father, right. Between him and his father, in background, is Mrs. St. John, Mrs. Dean's mother who is visiting here from Alabama.

A light voter turnout is predicted here by county officials when Cochran county citizens troop to the polls Tuesday to vote for a large slate of candidates for federal, state, district and local offices. The voters will also be giving the ye or nay to seven amendments to the Texas constitution.

Only 19 absentee ballots had been cast by noon Wednesday during an absentee voting period that began on October 14 and continues through Friday, October 30.

Most of the absentee votes were cast in Precinct One which had recorded 16. Precinct Two claimed two votes and Precinct Three counted one.

Records in County and District Clerk Leslye Silvers office show a total of 2,066 persons eligible and qualified to vote in Cochran County. A breakdown shows 1,330 in Precinct One, 373 in Precinct Two, 193 in Precinct Three and 170 in Precinct Four.

On the local level, the general election lacks much of the fire that brought the Democratic primary elections held in May and June down to the wire in a blaze of anticipation and uncertainty. The apparent lack of interest is probably due to the fact that the local elections are all unopposed and the race for Governor appears to be grossly one-sided.

The one redeeming feature that might bring more than expected to the polls is the nip and tuck race between Republican George Bush and Democrat Lloyd Bentsen for the Senatorial seat made vacant by the defeat of Ralph Yarborough by Bentsen in the Democratic primary. Political observers see Bentsen and Bush running neck and neck at the present

Representative George Mahon

Farm bill okay in November probable, Mahon tells Lions

There are strong indications that the long-awaited new farm bill will be enacted into law by November 20. Nineteenth District Congressman George Mahon told a Lions Club luncheon audience in Morton Wednesday.

The new bill will, in all likelihood, incorporate the $55,000 limitation on price supports per crop, wheat and feed grain crop, he said. The $20,000 limitation contained in the Senate version of the bill which passed some months ago is the very worse thing that could happen to the farmer in the United States, the Congressman stated, and pointed out that this would keep the large operator out of production and cause a breakdown in programs throughout the agricultural field.

The $55,000 limitation per crop approved in the House version of the bill is something that both the large and small operator can live with and is sufficiently ample to assure a high level participation in the program.

A very rocky road ahead was pictured by Mahon for agriculture in general and cotton in particular. The rapid urbanization of the nation's population is swinging the voting balance heavily in favor of the cities and away from the rural areas.

Unless a great deal is done to educate the urban population on the fast growing plight of the farmer and rancher, a plight that will directly effect the cities themselves, then the prospects look dim, indeed, for progressive farm legislation in the future, he said.

Cotton must find new markets if it is to survive as a major agricultural crop, Mahon stated, and added that research is an important avenue in this direction. Steps are being taken and more will follow in the field of research through Congressional appropriations for the purpose and through the cotton checkoff program which contributes $1.00 per bale for market and product research, he added.

Based on past history, Cong. Mahon said he expects a light vote in the November 3, general election, but said this should not be. There are too many important issues facing the American people today for us not to make our influence felt at the polls.

He pointed out that in the presidential election year of 1968 approximately 75 percent of eligible Texans cast their ballot, but in the off year elections of 1966, only approximately 25 percent went to the polls. He urged all Texans who care about the future of their state to vote.

Rejuvenated Tribe tackles Olton

Morton fans will have an opportunity to see the Indians' rejuvenated offense kick up against the top passing team in the South Plains Friday night by traveling to Olton to see the Tribe square off against the once-defeated Mustangs. Game time for the conference 3-AA affair is 7:30 p.m.

The Indians put on their best offensive show of the season last week, racking up 26 points and over 300 yards offensively in losing by one slim point to Lockney. But last week's last quarter momentum, in which Morton scored two touchdowns in four minutes, is expected to carry over into this week's game. Freshman halfback Larry Thompson, in his first start of the season, racked up 108 yards in just eight carries in demonstrating that the traditionally-slow Indians have a little speed tucked away for the future years.

Morton fans were also pleasantly surprised last week to see Stan Coffman

Community choir sets Oratorio' rehearsals

First rehearsal of the Community Choir presentation, "The Christmas Oratorio" by Saint-Saens, will be held Sunday, November 1, at 2:30 p.m. in the High School Choir Room.

Rehearsals will be held each Sunday afternoon at the same time until the presentation.

Chandler, Morton High School Choir Director, will be in charge and Mrs. S. McCarty, local music teacher, will be the accompanist.

The Morton High School Choir and youth from the churches of the South Plains are urged to be present at this initial practice. The Oratorio will be presented during the month of December.

★ 'Jack O Lanterns'

The 5th and 6th grade Art classes will carve pumpkins for the public from 1 till 3 p.m. today and Friday.

Persons desiring this service may bring their pumpkins to Room 10 in the Junior High School Building and the art students will be happy to transform them into 'Jack O Lanterns'. No charge will be made.

DAVID MURRAH

If you are over 30, you're just old enough to remember the "good old days" when everybody came to town on Saturday night and spent the evening going to a show or just visiting.

Well, those days have just about returned once again to Morton. This fact was aptly demonstrated last Saturday night when an estimated 500 people packed into the county auditorium to listen to a variety of music, ranging from popular traditional country banged out on an accordion and washboard.

And the listeners are not a bunch of fogies either. Saturday's crowd at the country music show included a whole lot of young people and kids, and the oldies got as big a bang out of watching the elderly ladies strum out "Your My Sunshine" as did the moms and dads.

Sponsored by the Cochran County Country Music Association, the monthly show has attracted good crowds at each meeting, in spite of a multitude of conflicts. Many thought the show would be doomed at the first meeting back in February. But plans are underway for when it came up against the Morton Indians' big show in the regional basketball tournament. But at least 400 people were more dedicated to country music and helped get the monthly affair off to a good start. As the weeks rolled by, not even the All-America game in June or the Texas Tech-Texas fame September 26 in Lubbock deterrrd the enthusiasm for the show goers.

Last week's program attracted probably the largest crowd yet and the fans saw the best performance of the series. But plans are underway for even better shows in the future. The next one will be featured on November 28.

The upcoming December show has been set for December 19 and a gala Christ-

★ Immunization Clinic

An adult diphtheria immunization clinic will be held Saturday, October 31, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the meeting room at the court house.

Two shots will be required, one now and one December 5. There will be no specified charge, however, donations will be appreciated to help defray costs.

The clinic is being held by the L'allegro Study Club in cooperation with Cochran Memorial Hospital.

THEY COME A LONG WAY . . .

THE KAYE BROTHERS of Hobbs, New Mexico, have been traveling quite a distance to participate in the monthly country and western jamboree in Morton, and they make a very welcome addition to the entertainment fare when they participate. The four brothers, who have been playing together for approximately three years are, left to right, David, 11, Jim, 19, Bill, 15, and Jerry, 14. They can fairly pick those instruments.

Plains cotton harvest shows daily increase after rain interruption

South Plains cotton harvest operations were increasing daily last week until interrupted by the adverse weather, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The USDA Cotton Classing office at Lubbock was receiving samples from approximately 1500 bales daily before the rains halted all harvest operations.

However, harvest activities are now increasing daily and samples from 500 bales were received at the Lubbock office on Friday. Samples from 11,800 bales had been classed at the Lubbock office through Friday, compared to 9,400 at this date last year.

Most of the cotton has been harvested in Lynn, Dawson, and Garza counties but first bales have been harvested over the entire area. Most of this cotton was from early defoliated, dryland fields.

Palmer stated that the seasonal classing offices at Lamesa, Brownfield and Levelland began receiving samples for classification on Monday, October 26.

For the week ending Friday, October 23, the Lubbock office classed 69 percent in the White grades and 31 percent in the Light Spotted and Spotted grades. In the White grades, Middling made up 19 percent of the total classed and Strict Low Middling 40 percent. Middling Light Spotted was the predominant grade in the Light Spotted category with 14 percent and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted made up 10 percent.

Staple length averaged between 31/32 and 1-inch. During the week the Lubbock

Drennan represents county Fort Worth cancer meet

Drennan represented Cochran at the American Cancer Society's 15th Division Annual meeting held in Fort Worth October 21-22. Drennan is chairman of the Educational Committee of the Cochran County chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Over 15,000 Texans died of cancer; there were many unnecessary deaths. Cancer is the second largest killer in this state, but delegates were told the 70's bring many advances — possibly through research.

Drennan reported that the Society made progress in all program areas: Served cancer patients with cancer dressings, hospital equipment, gift items, and services. Presented educational programs to over 1,526,381 people in clubs, colleges and where they work.

Awarded cancer research grants totaling over $1,289,000.

"We are proud of these accomplishments," Drennan stated, "but we are concerned, because for every reason the American Cancer Society has to stay in business, we are a tremendous failure . . . so long as there is one hospital bed in use by a cancer patient, as long as one person smokes cigarettes. We are in business to go out of business, to eradicate cancer," he continued.

"We realize research can hasten the victory over cancer, but we have a larger responsibility here in Morton to increase the informational and educational program — to better serve cancer patients with all the Society and community has to offer." Drennan said, "We need people who care, people who will work now, we back in the lineup. Sidelined by broken finger several weeks ago, Coffman was used sparingly at quarterback against Lockney. Versatile signal caller Keith Embry shifted to the tight end position during Coffman's tenure Friday.

The Indians will need all the horses they can muster corral the Olton Mustangs. Paced by junior quarterback passing sensation Steve Stockdale, nephew of Morton band director John Stockdale and grandson of Mrs. Fred Stockdale, the Olton signal caller has led the Mustang squad to a fine 6-1 record, marred only by last week's 28-7 loss to mighty Floydada.

Olton's running game is one of the strongest in the area, thanks to the hard running of Keith Workman, a 195-pound sophomore fullback, who has enjoyed the benefit of Stockdale's option play. Workman has scored 78 points this season, second highest in the district. In one game Workman racked up over 300 yards rushing.

Weight-wise, the Mustangs have an advantage over the Indians, but the Olton defensive line lacks the size that Lockney had in its front wall. Tackle Jim Key, at 195 pounds, tops the Mustang line.

Olton will demonstrate a passing game not too much unlike that of Lockney of last week. Stockdale likes to sprint out behind his halfback and fullback and will throw to any open target. Morton scouts point that the versatile junior throws with "extreme accuracy."

Meanwhile the Tribe will be practically at full strength for the first time in several games. Several changes have been promised by Coach Ted Whillock in order to give the Tribe an more aggressive look.

Friday's game promises to be much better than comparative scores would indicate. The Mustangs, coming off their loss to Floydada, may be down. The Tribe, however, hoping to sustain its last quarter effort from last week, may just now be jelling into its most potent combination of the season. Morton fans should not sit this road trip out.

need to set our sights toward the extinction of our organization."

Later in the meeting four prominent Texas physicians presented cancer cases and discussed the treatment now being used, especially in rehabilitation of patients with certain types of cancer.

The delegates heard Doctor A. Hamblin Letton of Atlanta, Georgia, Chairman of the National Medical and Scientific Committee, stress the need for continuing volunteer leadership and control of the society's programs. Dr. Letton was the keynote speaker at the Annual Dinner.

Fourth column is for Independent candidates but none are designated on the Cochran County ballot. Fifth column is for write-in balloting. Proposed constitutional amendments also will be on the ballot.

Eight contested races, between Democrats and Republicans, will be on the Cochran County ballot will include:

Jamboree . . .

mas country music session is planned. A visit from Santa Claus and drawings for gifts will be a part of the big special.

Sitting among all those fans, one can't help but ask, why is everyone here? Well, maybe everybody is tired of "being where it's at" as portrayed by television, or maybe folks just want somewhere to go. But the most obvious answer is that everybody that attends the show knows that they are going to be entertained well, and that guarantee is provided by a local group with a multitude of talent, the Country Classics.

The Brownlow family, including Ed and Terri, that's mom and dad, and the two boys, Jerry and Randy, along with their drummer, Jackie Johnson, call themselves the Country Classics, and well-billed they are. Exhibiting top professional talent that rivals the best of anybody's show, the Country Classics are the spark-plug of the monthly affair.

Last week the group displayed the variety of their abilities by doing the old-time number, "Momma Don't Allow," and with each member of the group playing each of the different instruments, the entertainers featured guitar, banjo, mandolin, piano, drums, harmonica, bass guitar, and fiddle playing at its best.

And, like the audience, the show is not all local folks. Last week's agenda included Marilyn Johnson and Teri Sue Newman of Levelland, the Senior Citizens Kitchen Band from Clovis, the Blue Grass Drifters from Andrews, and the Kaye Brothers from Hobbs.

But the local folks contributed their share to the entertainment. Last week, the Missing Links, a local pop band, and other individual acts, including Ralph Mason, Shelby Race, and former Morton resident Jimmy Waters provided the audience with good music.

Dutch LaRue of Muleshoe emceed Saturday's show.

By now you are asking, no doubt, if the show is that good, then it must cost a lot to get in. But that's the big surprise. Admission is free. All the talent, the miles traveled, and the preparation for the show is provided free by each group or individual who performs because of a love for music. And it's all for the benefit of the audience.

So next time you ask on a Saturday evening, what are all those cars doing down at the county auditorium? — you will know that a lot of people like good old country music. And they are getting their fair share at the Cochran County Country Music Jamboree. We suggest that you don't miss another.

Mahon . . .

fore the Congress was reviewed by the Congressman. One high point was the recent signing by President Nixon of a comprehensive new anti-crime bill that should be of great assistance in the current war on crime.

He expressed the opinion that the Congress had gone a little overboard on the huge education bill that was recently passed. There is room for savings in this area that were not heeded by Congressmen in an election year, was the impression given.

The recently passed welfare bill was described by Mahon as a monstrous thing that puts in the neighborhood of ten million more recipients on the welfare rolls, if there is any area where reform is indicated, this is certainly it, he stated.

A resolution backing President Nixon's efforts to end the war in Vietnam was passed by a huge majority in the House the Congressman said. In describing the devious and confusion of the American people concerning foreign affairs, Mahon said that totally conflicting views are taken by individuals in their attitude toward the Vietnam war and the Middle East conflict. Many Vietnam doves are Middle East hawks and vice versa. This presents a confusing picture to those charged with the responsibility of formulating foreign policy programs.

A profession of faith in the United States and its future in which he admonished the audience to think calmly and have confidence that America has overcome deeply troubled times before and certainly will again.

Mrs. Barker speaks to club on 'Take Time for Politics'

The L'Allegro Study Club met in the home of Mrs. James McClure Thursday, October 15.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Harold Drennan.

Mrs. H. B. Barker presented the program entitled "Take Time For Politics." This timely subject was in keeping with the year's theme "What Time Is It?" Mrs. Barker told the group that whatever your definition of politics it is very much a part of our everyday lives. It could be the Hospital in the community, or the school. Even the food served on your table and the medicines you take could be considered political. She then traced the history of the two party system of government stating that George Washington was the only President who was in fact the president of all the people. It was within his cabinet that the present two party system was conceived. She said that whatever party is in power is being kept close to the straight and narrow by the party not in power, and although we sometime tire of hearing about everything that is wrong in Washington or Austin or City Hall this is as it should be or we could no longer be a free and Democratic Republic. She closed her program by calling to attention the people who take no part in any political affairs. "They are the spectators. County by County and pound by pound there are more

"spectocrats" than all of the parties combined. Their battlecry is "Let George Do It," their motto is "safe and sound." They engage in forceful campaigns of neglect across the county. They had rather do nothing a thousand times than to make one mistake. They control the polls by not showing up to vote. Who would have ever dreamed that our country could be undermined by the things we did not do?" Mrs. Barker concluded.

At the conclusion of the program, club members voted to have a pop corn ball and fudge concession at the Halloween Carnival.

The budget for the club year was adopted which had added to it a $66.00 Youth Conference charge and $15.00 to be spent on the window display being kept up by the club.

Mrs. Van Greene announced that she had attended a meeting pertaining to ambulance service to the community and the Women's Clubs will be called on to help iron out the details for future ambulance service. Mrs. Onita Yeary was unanimously elected to club membership.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. E. O. Willingham, Mrs. Bud Thomas, Mrs. George Mundhenke, Mrs. Dean Nichols, Mrs. Al Mullinax, Mrs. Elwood Harris, Greene, Drennan and Barker.

Mrs. Benham reviews book for 1936 Club

Mrs. D. E. Benham reviewed the book "The New Year" by Pearl Buck at the meeting of the 1936 Study Club Wednesday, October 21.

The Club met in the home of Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter.

"The New Year" is the story of the unwanted child of East and West, one of the pathetic half-American children left behind when the soldiers returned from lonely, dangerous duty abroad. Mrs. Benham told the club. "These children of the future, born before the world is ready for them and our responsibility toward them seem more real when presented in Miss Buck's fiction, than as statistics in the newspapers," Mrs. Benham concluded.

Guests at the meeting were: Mmes Elizabeth Greer, R. C. Strickland, Royal Berggren and members: Mmes Maurice Lewellan, Glenn Thompson, W. C. Benham, C. H. Silvers, L. F. Hargrove, B. H. The Most Important Election of Our Time!

We must keep a Senator in Washington who is responsible to the people of Texas. A Democrat who is free to support Administration policies when he thinks they're right but who can oppose them when he thinks they're wrong. Texas needs two Republican Senators like we need more inflation, higher unemployment, higher interest rates, tighter money, a higher cost of living. George Bush may be able to do more for the Republican Party. But Lloyd Bentsen, as a Democrat, can do more for the people of Texas. Lloyd Bentsen will be free to oppose Republican policies of tight money and high interest rates which have put 1,500,000 people out of work in the last 22 months without stopping inflation. Free to work for rural development through tax incentives for industries which locate in small towns. Free to work for welfare laws that will guarantee opportunities and protection for those who really need it rather than a minimum annual income without sufficient work incentives. Free to support legislation that controls criminals rather than guns. Your vote for Lloyd Bentsen Tuesday, November 3rd will help insure Texas' independence from Republican control.

Texas needs Democrat Lloyd Bentsen

garments and sportswear, requires special techniques for sewing, advises Mrs. Mary Harbin, county home demonstration agent.

A pattern with few seams makes it easier to manipulate the vinyl-type fabric. Raglan or kimono sleeves are easiest, but some of the crushed patents are soft and pliable enough to sew set-in sleeves.

The pattern should be altered to fit before the garment is cut. Seams cannot be let out without damage to the fabric.

When fastening the pattern to the fabric, place pins in seam allowances only or tape the pattern to the fabric. Cut with sharp shears.

Mark darts, seamlines and other construction details with chalk or a pencil on the wrong side of the fabric. Use a grease pencil when making markings on the right side. These can easily be wiped off.

A medium-sized machine needle and 10 to 12 stitches per inch are satisfactory for top stitching or crushed patents. A feed-dog of the machine prevents damage piece of tissue paper placed between the shiny or right side of the fabric and the to the fabric when stitching. The tissue paper can easily be torn away when stitching is completed.

Finger press seams and darts, unless the label on the bolt or roll of crushed patents states that the fabric can be pressed with steam or a warm iron.

Both zippers and buttonholes can be used on crushed patents. The centered application makes a flat zipper closing.

Hems can be top stitched or slip stitched in place to the backing of the fabric.

Follow the fabric manufacturer's care recommendations for cleaning. Some vinyl-like fabrics can be hand washed, while others need to be wiped clean with a damp cloth. If linings are used in the garment, they should require the same care as the outer fabric.

Comments on Conservation

BY WAYNE WILCOX

The Cochran Soil and Water Conservation District Annual Report has been published. The report includes some history of the district. It is interesting to note that the 1970 report is the 17th report made by the Cochran SWCD. It is also interesting to note landowners who served the district during these past years.

Some of these landowners are no longer living. Living or dead, those who have served the Cochran SWCD as directors or supervisors are as follows: D. A. Ramsey, W. W. Smith, Melvin Woodley, Max Bowers, J. W. Cunningham, D. E. Benham, Marvin Lasater, H. H. Rosson, M. A. Silvers, O. L. Castle, Hub Cadenhead, D. L. Tucker, J. L. Schooler, Ike Williams, Eddie Silhan, Geo. W. Burkett, H. B. Barker, Donald Ray Lackey, Ray O'Brien, Eugene Bentley, Loy Kern, Melvin Yarbrough and George Martin.

The time spent by these men in promoting conservation was and is time robbed from families and businesses. The pay for their time has consisted primarily of a feeling of satisfaction that comes from knowing that their efforts were and are for the betterment of mankind today and in years to come.

The leadership in conservation in years past has been concerned primarily with wind, water, plants and soils and their use and relationship with one another. Future leadership is going to need to concern itself with not only the use but the re-use of resources. The rights of man and the use of land will challenge conservation leadership even further.

SWCD directors are looked to for this leadership in conservation on a local level as well as a national level. Have you offered a word of encouragement to your present directors of the Cochran SWCD?

MILO IS ABOUT CUT and COTTON PICKIN'S STARTED. Looks like a good many cows are finding their way to Cochran County maize fields. Additional income can be realized from grazing stubble fields. BUT, a good thing can be over done. Enough stubble needs to be left after grazing to hold the valuable top soil on the land.

Also, a productive soil has to be fed and kept in shape. Organic material from stubble can help fill this need. Cotton burs can also help fill the need for feeding and protecting the land. Future cutting and picking depends a lot on today's feeding and protecting.

Tribe falls in heartbreaker 7-26 to Lockney Longhorns

Morton Indians nearly pulled off one of the greatest comebacks of the year last night, and fell just one point shy — in reality, just one yard shy — of just that.

Following the visiting Lockney Longhorns by a 27-14 margin late in the game, the Indians appeared doomed to absorb their humiliating defeat at the hands of a team that had won just one game last year. And with half of the last quarter, a Lockney interception seem to have all hopes. But the Tribe did not let up. Behind the hard running of Kevin Embry, Keith Embry, Terry Harvey, freshman sensation Larry Thompson, the Indians punched out a quick 52-yard run in just five plays to cut the margin to 28-14 with four minutes left in the game. Embry banged for 15 yards for the tally, Thompson's run for the extras was stopped by the defense.

The Tribe's defense held the Horns off the field on four plays following a short kickoff, and from the Morton 37, the Indians needed only five plays again to do so in a thrilling way as the Horns rolled in for the score, a 28-14 covered 29 yards.

Embry's 55 seconds remained as the Tribe set up for the all-important extra points. The scoreboard read, 27-26, Lockney's lead on the attempt, a play that picked up many yards already that night, but the Lockney pursuit paid off, Thompson was dropped at the one yard line to squirm in for the go-ahead ney quarterback Tony Ford, who hit nine passes for 192 yards. The Longhorn passing game provided the difference in the game as the visitors took advantage of breaks and penalties to score.

The Horns scored their second TD just before the half after time had run out. A roughing-the-passer penalty gave the visitors one last chance, and Ford hit his receiver from 30 yards out. Morton led 14-13 at halftime.

Then in the second half, the visitors scored after Morton's Eddie Lewis tipped a Ford pass high in the air behind him in an attempt to intercept the ball, but Lockney's Bill Hill raced back, grabbed the ball, and scampered to the two. Two plays later, Lockney punched across the TD.

Good kickoff returns by the Tribe's Willie Holland kept Morton in good field position all night. Holland returned the opening kickoff to the Horn 20, and four plays later, Thompson rambled in from the 15. During the second quarter Lockney tied the game at 6-6, but following the Horn TD, Morton jumped back in front in less than a minute. Stan Coffman, making his first appearance in several games, hit Embry for a 24 yard pass to the Lockney 35. On the next play, Thompson scampered down the left sidelines untouched, helped by good downfield blocking. Embry's run for the extra points put the Tribe ahead 14-6 before the Horns came back to score just before the half.

Why Preston Smith ?

Preston Smith believes in working hard. For you. And that's why he's doing such a good job as Governor of Texas.

When Preston Smith entered public service, he didn't start by asking Texans to elect him Governor. That would have been foolish, because being Governor carries great responsibilities. And it demands the clear, steady judgement that comes only from experience.

Preston Smith had the good common sense to work his way up—gaining insight into how our state government functions.

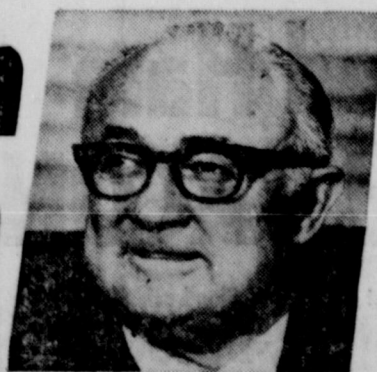

He served six years each—as State Representative . . . as State Senator . . . and as Lieutenant Governor. Only then, when he felt fully qualified, did he seek the Office of Governor.

Now, after two years he has expanded the duties of the Governor's Office to better serve all the people of our State.

Yes, Preston Smith believes in hard work. For 20 years, he's been working for Texas—doing a good job. You can help keep him as Governor. Vote. Vote for Preston Smith on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Preston Smith

is doing a good job. Let's keep him working for Texas.

STATE Capital NEWS

By YERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Tex. — Auto insurance company spokesmen have called for an "absolute minimum" 11.7 per cent profit allowance after taxes.

Industry representatives told the State Board of Insurance at a two-day hearing that they must have that margin to stay afloat and serve car owners.

At the same time, they told the Board it should consider all sources of insurance company earnings in arriving at rates. Meeting was to hear testimony as to whether company investment income should be included in the auto premium rate base.

Further hearing in November will determine what actual rate recommendations will be. Apparently, no rate change will go into effect before next January.

Industry recommendations — including consideration of all income and fixed allowance for a fair rate of return — would add up to a 6.5 per cent increase in the auto premium rate for most motorists, experts estimated.

Under industry recommendations, future rate inadequacies would be the "sole responsibility of the (state) regulators if they fail to recognize a proper rate of return," spokesmen said.

Expert witnesses told the Board that state-regulated utilities, which have far less risk of loss than casualty insurance companies, are permitted higher profits.

Others said that casualty insurance companies are among those that have the lowest rates of return of any major industry.

Unimpressed, Texas AFL-CIO President H. S. (Hank) Brown promised the biggest fight "since the Battle of the Alamo" if the Board agrees to another rate increase.

COURTS SPEAK — Texas Court of Criminal Appeals held that a Houston judge was not disqualified from presiding at the trial of a man whom he prosecuted (as a district attorney) 10 years earlier on another charge.

State Supreme Court set arguments for December 2 over whether a Dallas firm's contracts giving dealers exclusive territories for breath sweeteners is a violation of anti-trust laws.

Also set for December 2 were arguments over losses covered by "vandalism and malicious mischief" provisions in insurance policies.

Still another December 2 argument is scheduled in an Austin case involving whether death of a motorist was solely due to an auto accident or whether chronic illnesses contributed. Son of the deceased man would collect $20,000 in insurance if the accident was ruled to be the sole cause of his death.

AG OPINIONS — A county may pay overtime subject to budget and maximum salary laws and may pay for accumulated vacation time in line with contracts, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

Public junior college districts are classified a political subdivisions of the state for the purpose of elective coverage of employees under unemployment insurance.

State employees under the classification system may be reclassified downward without change in duty assignment, without mandatory pay rate reduction not to exceed "step 7" of lower pay group.

Central Education Agency has authority to contract with private firms to set up and operate experimental diagnostic programs for language-handicapped children.

Harris County Commissioners Court has the mandatory ministerial duty to approve and pay budgetary expenses allotted for the county purchasing agent and fixed by board of judges.

Wife of Waller County road administrator may be employed in the county road and bridge department.

BOND LIMIT RAISE URGED — Interim study committee has called on the 62nd Legislature to expedite submission of a constitutional amendment to remove the four-per-cent interest ceiling on Water Development Bonds.

Texas Water Resources Study Committee, in a special report, emphasized that the Water Development Board has authorization to sell $100 million in bonds to make loans to local governments for water improvements, but the interest limit makes the bonds unmarketable.

Inability to sell at prevailing high interest rates is blocking construction of dams, reservoirs and treatment facilities in all parts of the state, said the committee.

Members pledged to offer later recommendations for providing financial assistance to cities and towns to help them get adequate facilities and attract federal matching funds.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT SOARS — There are 427,472 students in Texas public and private junior and senior institutions of higher education this fall. It's a new high!

Percentage of enrollment growth was 8.34 per cent over 1969 when enrollment reached 398,102. Texas growth rate is well above the national average of 4.5 per cent. Figures are preliminary.

Public junior college enrollment jump was phenomenal — 16.26 per cent — totaling 112,219. Public senior college and university headcount increased 5.65 per cent to 240,597. Private senior colleges and universities also gained — 4.61 per cent — to 67,810. Only the private junior colleges showed a drop. They were off 24.87 per cent, to 6,846.

BOUNDARY SOUGHT — Attorney general Martin and former Gov. Price Daniel will tour the Sabine-Neches area this week (Oct. 30) looking over territory involved in Texas-Louisiana boundary dispute.

Louisiana claims the western shore of the Sabine River and Lake as part of the Louisiana Purchase. Texas claims jurisdiction to the middle of the river and lake. Outcome of the lawsuit is seen as a major significance to the Sabine-Neches area. Official party will cruise the Sabine from Orange to Sabine-Neches Waterway to Port Arthur.

PASS EASEMENT ACCEPTED — Parks and Wildlife Commission voted 2-1 to accept a 400-foot easement for the $3 million Corpus Christi water exchange (fish) pass across Mustang Island.

Commission also accepted from Mrs. Sam E. Wilson Jr. of Corpus Christi the gift of 130.5 acres of land on the island to provide fishermen access to the pass from the north.

Meanwhile, at a budget hearing, the Commission directed its staff to ask the Legislature for more general appropriations and to rely less on income from hunting and fishing fees to finance operations.

Actual contract for the pass will be delayed pending a permit from the U. S. Corps of Engineers and formal approval by the State Building Commission and the governor.

SHORT SNORTS — First moon visitors — Apollo 11 astronauts — received Texas medals of valor in ceremonies at the capitol.

Attorney general warns that mail-order cigarettes may cost more after state tax stamps are paid by the purchaser.

Stream polluters should have to pay the cost of restocking fish, Parks-Wildlife Commission Chairman Pearce Johnson told a Senate committee.

Mrs. Ima Smith, Texas' first lady, received two truckloads of "Ima Smith" chrysanthemums as a birthday gift.

State bank charter is being sought at White Oak in Gregg County.

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System approved the controversial plan to divide University of Texas School of Arts and Sciences into three schools with divisions.

Texas Public Employees' Association is waging a get-out-the-vote campaign.

A new era for Texas forestry in the decade of the '70's is seen by the UT Bureau of Business Research.

LEARNING INDIAN CULTURE...

DIANS! Indians have invaded the fifth grade rooms of Mrs. Benham, Mrs. ... and Mrs. Ross at Morton elementary school. Each year, in order to intro- ... United States history to the fifth-grader, a study of the four principal groups ... U.S. Indians is made: the Pueblo, Northwest Pacific, Northeastern Woodland, ... of the Plains. The Indians were on the North American continent 20,000 years ... and are met again and again in U.S. history. They played an important part ... the colonization of America, French and Indian War, and the westward movement of the American settler. Each fifth grade room reviews films from the library, makes dioramas of each Indian group, totem poles, and other pro- jects during the study. There is great rivalry among the groups working on the dioramas to see which can depict his particular group best. The art department, under Mrs. Evelyn Seagler, works with the fifth grade teachers directing the mak- ing of spirit masks worn by the Northeastern Indian, sand painting done by the Pueblo, and various other Indian crafts.

Mrs. Arant guest speaker for LeFleur Garden Club

Mrs. Harold Arant of Levelland spoke to the LeFleur Garden Club on "Miniature Gardens" Thursday, October 22.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Don Samford.

Mrs. Arant told members of the advantages of the miniature gardens those being a feeling of privacy, space that is limited can be converted into a lovely garden, less labor, time and cost. She suggested hedges being used but said vines are also good as these let the air circulate, making interesting patterns and provide a quick background for statuary. She also suggested that evergreen, at least some, be planted, also berried and fruited plants so as to have year round color.

Mrs. Olin Darland, president, conducted the business meeting and announced the club would have a booth at the Boutique to be held in the County Activity Building November 21. The club will also have a Fishing Booth at the Halloween Carnival Friday, October 30.

Members voted to contribute $5.00 to the Special Education class for refreshments and to help decorate the square for the Christmas season in cooperation with other clubs and civic leaders.

Mrs. Darland announced the District Zone Meeting would be held in Littlefield November 6. The National Council Calendars were distributed to members.

Those attending were: Mmes E. R. Fincher, Darland, J. L. Thomas, L. Z. Scoggins, Roy Hill, Mrs. Arant and the hostess.

VOTE NO ON 3 ON NOVEMBER

Amendment 3 is one of numerous proposals to amend the Texas Constitution which will be on the November general election ballot.

This amendment would permit tax assessment of ranch, farm, and forest lands "baed upon the capability of such lands to support the raising of livestock and/or to produce farm and forest crops."

- This could almost destroy the tax base of many school districts.
- It would drastically alter the present principle of taxation based on market value.
- Special treatment would be given one group of taxpayers, and the door would be open to other exceptions.
- Those whose land is producing, and those who own homes and businesses, would have to pay higher taxes to make up for revenue lost under this amendment.
- Amendment 3 would not be good for education or for the citizens of Texas.
