Democrats win big in county

Cochran county voters stuck to their Democratic leanings in Tuesday's general election, making a clean sweep of all candidates into the Democratic fold.

The county tally shows that voters on the local scene very closely paralleled those on the state level as they piled up Democrat majorities in very nearly the same percentages that were achieved state-wide. They did, however, give higher margins to the Democratic side in the races for Governor and U.S. Senator than was average over the state.

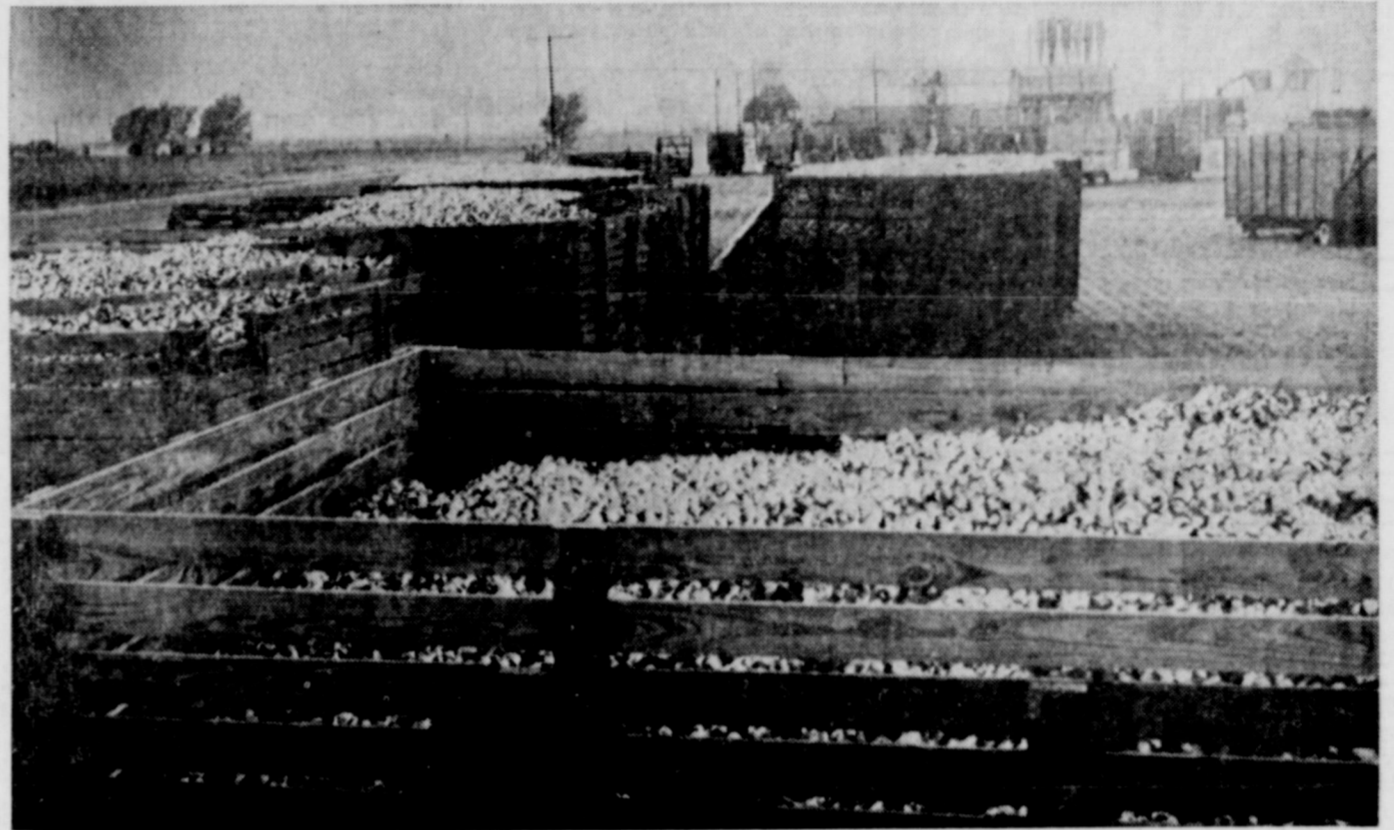

Preston Smith was returned for a second term as Governor by an overwhelming local majority of 763 to 284 over his Republican opponent Ralph Eggers. In the race for the Senate seat made vacant by the defeat of Ralph Yarborough by Lloyd Bentsen in the Democratic primary, the local vote was 659 for Bentsen to 380 for his GOP opponent George Bush.

A relatively light turnout of 1,062 voters cast their ballots, according to as yet unofficial figures released by District/County Clerk Lessey Silvers' office. The count will not be official until the vote is canvassed by the Cochran County Commissioners Court. The court is expected to make the canvass as its regular monthly meeting Monday, November 9.

The ballots cast represent slightly over 50 percent of those eligible and qualified to vote in the county. The county clerk's office shows a total of 2,066 qualified voters.

In voting on the seven proposed amendments to the Texas constitution, a section of the ballot that appeared to receive much attention on the part of Cochran countians, only two were given approval. Proposed Amendment One, pertaining to the retirement and removal of judges, was approved by a vote of 560 to 320. Proposed Amendment Six, pertaining to an increase in the amount of homestead exemption, received a favorable vote of 504 to 376.

THE "JOLLY SEASON" . . .

CHRISTMAS IS WEEKS AWAY, but 'tis the season to be jolly, at least for the cotton farmer on the high Plains, as the gin yards begin to bulge with what is expected to be one of the best crops in recent years. The above scene is typical in the Cochran county area as the harvest gathers momentum and rounds into full swing in the next few days. Unusually early freezes caused an as yet undetermined amount of damage to what might have been a bumper crop under more favorable weather conditions. The above photo was made at Star Route Gin on the Dora highway.

ASTING THAT ALL-IMPORTANT VOTE . . .

MRS. AND MRS. ORVILLE TILGER were caught by the camera's eye as they exercised their democratic right to vote in the general election Tuesday. Unofficial tabulations released by the Cochran county clerk's office indicate that 1,062 out of a total 2,066 eligible in the county cast their ballots in the election. Lack of opposition to candidates on the local level has been credited by officials with the relatively light turnout.

Indians host Friona in quest of escape from district cellar

The Morton Indians will get the second to last chance of breaking out of the district 3-AA cellar as they host the Friona Chieftains Friday in the last home game of the season. Game time in Indian Stadium is 7:30 p.m.

Friona will be seeking to extend its domination over Morton teams that it has held for the past several years and will be trying to salvage a winning season in an otherwise disappointing year. The Chiefs are 4-4 for the year and stand 2-3 in district play. Friona blitzed Farwell and Bovina in the opening games, but were surprised by Muleshoe, 20-7. Olton bombed the Chieftains, 35-7, but the warriors bounced back to hand Dimmitt a 14-0 upset.

Then Friona lost to Abernathy and Floydada last week, but held the consolation of giving the Mean Green their second closest game of the season. Floydada had a tougher time than expected with the Chiefs, winning 28-0. The Whirlwinds bomb-

Christmas lighting contest announced

The Morton Area Chamber of Commerce has announced an ambitious Christmas lighting contest for downtown Morton for the coming yuletide season.

At a called meeting of the chamber board of governors Wednesday, plans for the glittering display were finalized and the announcement made by board president Bill Wells.

The competition this year will be for substantial cash prizes and a high level of participations by local clubs and organizations is expected, Wells said. Merchants wishing to enter the contest, or clubs wishing to select vacant buildings around the square for decoration are requested to

Fort Worth pastor opens preaching mission Sunday

Dr. Gaston Foote, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth, will be preaching at a Four Day Preaching Mission November 8 through November 11 at the First United Methodist Church in Morton.

Services are set for 7:30 p.m. each night except Tuesday when the service will begin at 7 p.m., to make way for an awards banquet at the High School Cafeteria which will begin at 8 p.m.

Dr. Foote has held pastorates in Amarillo, Little Rock, Arkansas, Montgomery, Alabama, Dayton, Ohio in addition to being at Fort Worth since 1952. He graduated from SMU in Dallas with a D.A. and B.D. degree. He earned his Ph.D. from Iliff School of Theology in Denver and was awarded the D.D. from Miami University Oxford, Ohio and the DD.L. from Texas Wesleyan in Fort Worth.

Dr. Foote is the author of six books and is an editorial writer for the Fort Worth Star Telegram. He has been a delegate to the General Conference of the United Methodist Church, a delegate to the World Methodist Conference and guest preacher with the U. S. Air Force. He was named the Distinguished Alumnus of SMU for 1966 and is past President of the Fort Worth Knife and Fork Club and a member of Rotary International and is past president of the Fort Worth Council of Churches.

The three week-day morning services will begin with a breakfast at 6:30 a.m. and preaching at 7:15 a.m., dismissing at 8 a.m. The men of the church will prepare the Monday breakfast, the women Tuesday and the youth on Wednesday.

"We feel everyone in the area will want to hear this distinguished minister and we extend a cordial welcome to all the people to attend the breakfasts, morning services and evening services," Rex Mauldin, pastor of the Morton Church, stated.

Area cotton gins are humming as harvest shifts to high gear

The cotton harvest continued to gain momentum in Hockley and Cochran counties during the past week as stripping operations increased, according to C. R. Wharton, in charge of the U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Levelland. This was reflected in the increase of cotton samples received at the Levelland classing office.

Samples from 2,500 bales were classed at the Levelland office during the week ending Friday, October 30th. This brought the total classed this season to 2,700. Through October 30th last year only 100 samples of the 1969 crop had been classed.

Quality has been very good on these early harvested bales. Strict Low Middling was the predominant grade at Levelland last week with 39 per cent of all cotton classed. Middling made up 11 per cent, Middling Light Spotted 10 per cent and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 13 per cent. Staple length averaged between 15/16 and 31/32. Forty-three per cent stapled 31/32 and longer.

Eighty-seven per cent of all cotton classed at the Levelland office last week had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9.

Virtually all of the cotton at Levelland last week had Pressley readings of 80,000 pounds and higher. Pressley is an indication of fiber strength and the most desirable Pressley reading is 80,000 pounds and above.

Early prices indicate a strong demand for Levelland area cotton.

Prices quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire range were: Middling 31/32 — 22.20, Middling See AREA COTTON, Page 6a

WHO'LL TRY HIS LUCK FIRST? . . .

JUST ONE TENTH OF A DOLLAR! So step right up folks. Such was the speel all over the hall as the annual Halloween carnival was reeled off in the country activities building Saturday night. Fifteen booths offering activities from fortune telling to dart throwing to apple bobbing to cake walking, and many others, did a land office business with a crowd estimated at 850 persons for the evening. Highlight of the festivities was the crowning of Miss Rita Spence as carnival queen. The valuable door prize was awarded to Bobby Avery after three drawings were held to determine a winner.

ASCS Farm News

By John W. Hall

Farm Acreage and Ownership reports to County ASCS Office. County ASCS Office, Chairman of the Cochran Key Committee, suggests that now is a good time for farmers to bring up farm records which are maintained by their County ASCS Office. Farm records are kept on farms participating in government programs administered by ASCS. A farmer who was in any program and who has bought, sold, leased, or otherwise acquired or disposed of farmland should visit his County Office to report the transactions. ASCS Committee Chairman commented that previous farm legislation is expected to be passed by Congress and new farm legislation when it comes in November. "Whatever farm programs we have, farmers will want to be sure their farm records are accurate and complete when the programs go into effect," Key said. County ASCS Offices are required to keep records on acreage of all farms where owners or operators participate in any ASC-administered program. These include programs for feed grain, when proportionate shares are in effect. In addition, ASCS-administered farm programs include price-support on several commodities such as soybeans and dry edible beans. The County ASC Committee Chairman said that if a farm is constituted differently now than it was when the farmer began program participation, and if he hasn't yet reported the change, he should

Mrs. Hunt honored with bridal shower

Mrs. Jackie Hunt, the former Sharon Louise Irwin of Morton, was honored at a wedding shower Saturday morning, October 31, in the home of Judge and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter. Co-hostesses were: Mesdames Inez Swicegood, Ray Tarlton, Charles McDermott, Elzie Brown, W. G. Freeland and J. N. Leavitt. Coffee was served from a table featuring a floral centerpiece of yellow and white mums and silver appointments. Mrs. Billy Smart of Lubbock presided at the coffee service and the honoree was assisted in opening gifts by Miss Zoellen Ledbetter, a student at Texas Tech. Special guests for the occasion were Mrs. James Raglin of Grandfalls, mother of the bride, and an aunt, Mrs. Thurl Lemons of Baileyboro. Other out of town guests were Mrs. Karen Dunn and Mrs. Phil Pharies of Lubbock; Mrs. W. C. Vanlandingham, Littlefield; and Miss Carol Ann Freeland of South Plains College at Levelland. After a brief visit in Morton Mrs. Hunt has returned to her home in Enterprise, Alabama where her husband is stationed at nearby Fort Rucker. The couple, former students of Morton High School and South Plains College in Levelland, were married recently when he returned home after serving 19 months in Vietnam with the U.S. Army.

POWER ON THE RUN . . .

THE MORTON INDIANS, Seventh-grade-size, shown in white above, are displaying a sample of the stalwart defense that kept them from being scored upon until the fourth quarter of their fourth game. Here they are trapping a Littlefield Wildcat for a substantial loss en route to a 28-7 win over the 'Cats. The junior tribesmen have won four and lost none in their own grade bracket, but have been defeated twice by eighth grade teams. A well balanced ball club, the squad is equally strong on offense and defense. Play execution is remarkable for boys so young, reflecting very well on the work of their coaches.

Seventh grade turns out grid powerhouse

This football season, the Morton schools undertook their most ambitious football program in recent years, fielding five teams, ranging from seventh grade through varsity level. The theory being that the results of such a program would result in better-trained teams for the future, and it is already showing its brightest prospects — at the place where it will be the most beneficial in the long run — the seventh grade.

Last Tuesday night, the seventh graders roared to their fifth win of the season by trouncing Frenship, 29-7. The win broke a two-game losing streak that saw the Morton team give up its first touchdown of the season, and then only to an eighth grade team of a AAA school. Through its first four games the Morton defense was unscored upon.

Last week, the seventh grade bowed to Shallwater, a team that has lost only one game all season.

Rookie coach Mark Sullivan heads the seventh grade coaching duties, but he is quick to praise eighth grade coach Tommy Thomson for giving the boys a good background. Both coaches make it a point to play all the boys in each game.

The seventh grade lost its fine quarterback J. P. Cornish, by way of a broken wrist, but paced by the running of Eddie Mendez, Jimmy Morin, and Randy Coleman, the team bounced back to score the big win over Frenship. Eddie Dunn and John "Freight Train" Hodge led the defense.

High school coaches cite good attitude and spirit as major factors that have resulted from the expanded football program.

Working with over 120 boys, Morton's five coaches oftentimes find themselves spread pretty thin in administering five games a week; officiating in the junior high games, and keeping equipment together for their teams. In addition, scouting trips, film previews, and regular workouts all come extra. Needless to say, Morton football coaches are quite busy this year.

With all the hard work, though, they are steadily building for the future, and it is not hard to visualize what could come to pass in the traditionally weak Morton football program if it is possible to keep all or part of the 1970 Seventh grade squad together. Given four or five years at an early age, could spell some real live fireworks in the state football picture in future seasons.

Cryogenic freezing? It is using below minus 100 degrees F. temperatures. New techniques in this field may soon provide us with frozen lettuce and salad mixes, reports Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University. Hard to freeze foods such as tomato slices, melon and bananas are being experimented with now. Mushrooms, seafood and onion rings have been successfully cryogenically frozen.

ers visited in Muleshoe Saturday with Mrs. C. C. Snitker at the West Plains Hospital.

Donnie Clark, grandson of the J. O. Dane's, got burned Thursday while warming by a bathroom heater his clothes caught fire. He was a patient in the Morton Hospital till Saturday.

Mrs. Carl Henderson and baby daughter stayed several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Price after leaving the hospital. She is at home now in Enochs.

Fired-up Indians give Ponies good ride before falling 35-12

Olton's Steve Stockdale lived up to his adance billing quite well last week as he methodically tore apart Morton's pass defense and led the Mustangs to a 35-12 win over the scrappy Tribe.

But the Ponies had to come from behind to pick up their seventh win of the season as the Indians shoved the hosts all over the field throughout the first period. Morton put together a fairly good offensive game for the third week in a row, but its performance was outshined by the pinpoint passing of Stockdale.

The Olton quarterback hit 15 of 30 passes for 230 yards as he passed for three touchdowns and ran for another. Stockdale also converted all the extra points.

The Indians appeared on their way to giving Olton its second loss in a row as they took the opening kickoff and punched it to the Mustang two on good runs by Terry Harvey and Elton Patton, but the initial drive bogged down.

Then the Mustangs began to help the Indian cause by fumbling. An Olton miscue at the 35 gave the ball back to Morton, but four plays netted little. Morton's punt was then mishandled, and the Tribe got the ball at the Olton six, the first big break of the season for the usually luckless Tribe. Harvey banged to the two, and Eddie Lewis scored the TD on the next play with two minutes left in the opening period. M. C. Collins' attempted conversion fell short, but the Tribe led 6-0.

But Stockdale needed only a minute and a half and five plays to put the Mustangs in front to stay as he passed to Louis Ray for an four-yard pass and then kicked the extra point.

Fumbles and punts exchanged the ball between the two teams during the second quarter before Stockdale hit fullback Keith Workman for a 12-yard TD. The Mustangs held a 14-6 lead while the Stockdale brothers, Fred and John, displayed their respective bands from Olton and Morton during the intermission.

The third quarter was virtually a repeat of the first. The Indians capitalized on another Olton fumble on the first play of the second half and then drove the ball to the Mustang seven before running out of steam. Then midway in the period, Olton scored its third TD on a two-yard run by Workman.

The Indians pounced on Olton's third fumble after a pony back mishandled a Collins' punt, and Stan Coffman scored from the four to narrow the margin to 21-12.

But from that point, the Mustangs just added icing to their Homecoming cake at the expense of the Indians. Stockdale ran 26 yards and passed for 11 more to Mike Parsons to add two touchdowns to Olton's total. Meanwhile, the Indians could not sustain a drive during the fourth period and sank deeper into the district cellar along with winless Littlefield.

Terry Harvey led Morton rushing with 62 yards on 19 carries. Keith Embry and Kein Kuehler had 42 yards each. Kuehler carried nine times, Embry 15.

Indians...

ed the Morton Indians, 54-0, earlier in the season.

Morton will enter Friday's game at less than full strength as injuries sustained in last week's game took a toll. Injured against Olton were Eddie Lewis and Steve Crockett, and Crockett will miss the Frio-na game. Injured Stan Coffman has returned to active play and appeared in last week's game to connect for a 22-yard pass and scored one touchdown.

Terry Harvey continues to lead Indian rushing statistics by adding 62 yards to his growing total. The senior halfback has rushed for 396 yards on 85 carries through eight games.

In Morton's former home, district 4-AA, the Denver City Mustangs are up to their old ways, winning and doing it big. The Ponies bombed the Freship Tigers last week, 32-7, to gain sweet revenge for a similar loss to the same team a year before. Denver City needs only one more win to insure its twelfth district title in fourteen years. Meanwhile Floydada has to face only Littlefield before taking on the only possible challenger left in the district, the surprising Abernathy Antelopes, on the last day of the season.

Thus far, the Whirlwinds have hardly the most interest, and which surprisingly passed state-wide, pertaining to repeal of the law against open saloons in Texas, was snowed under in Cochran county by a 283-678 margin. On the state-wide level this amendment was nip and tuck down to the wire with most late TV election return watchers going to bed with the assurance that it had been defeated. However, the late returns coming in from the urban areas of the state carried it over the top.

In the lieutenant governors race, between incumbent Democrat Ben Barnes and his GOP challenger Byron Fullerton, Barnes took 788 local votes to Fullerton's 212.

Voting in other contests on the ballot indicated that Cochran county had a small hard core of 150-175 who are voting Republican. Democrats still possess a huge margin of victory, however.

Results of the only other contests on the ballot were:

For attorney general, Democrat Crawford Martin 863; Republican Edward M. Yturri, 150.

For state comptroller, Democrat Robert S. Calvert, 835; Republican S. L. Abbott, 162.

For state treasurer, Democrat Jesse James, 854; Republican Robert F. Koennecke, 155.

For land commissioner, Democrat Bob Armstrong, 824; Republican Harry Trippe, 162.

For agriculture commissioner, Democrat John White, 826; Republican Daniel C. Heath, 171.

U. S. Congressman George Mahon, representing Cochran county, was unopposed on the ballot and received 830 votes.

In ten other ballot listings of unopposed state, district and county candidates, each candidate polled votes ranging from 798 to 858.

On the county level, the unopposed candidates and their votes included:

County judge, Glenn W. Thompson, 839; County and district clerk, R. J. (Bob) Vinson, 843; county treasurer, Bill Crone, 858; Justice of the Peace, Precinct One, Joe Gipson, 502; justice of the peace Precinct Two, Roy Tilley, 129; justice of the peace Precinct Two, Lulu Knox, 67 (write-in); county commissioner Precinct Four, U. F. Wells, 79 and county commissioner Precinct Two, E. J. McKissack, 191.
