County redistricting work begins

Commissioners begin precinct head counts

Preliminary survey work is presently underway by members of the Cochran county commissioners court which will lead to a complete redistricting of the voting precincts in the county, Judge Glenn W. Thompson announced here last week.

The redistricting, which is in accordance with the "One Man One Vote" guidelines recently laid down by the United States Congress, is for the purpose of providing more evenly distributed population totals among the four precincts.

Precinct One, Mike Walden commissioner, presently contains approximately 70 percent of the population of the county. Precinct Two, which contains the City of Whiteface, has the second most numerous population, with Precincts Three (Bledsoe) and Precinct Four (northwest portion of the county) falling far behind in population and voting strength.

The present districting makes the work of the commissioners court unwieldy, especially in the distribution of funds, since each precinct by law shares equally in the funds available, Judge Thompson indicated. At presently divided, the precinct with the overwhelming population numbers and, hence the far greater maintenance costs, receives no more than the lesser populated precincts. Questioned about the method to be used in redistricting, Thompson said that details have not been worked out as yet but would be within a short period of time. He roughly outlined a plan that would use Morton as a nucleus and run district lines out from the city to the county borders. Each district would include a

TAKES STAND AGAINST ANY NEW TAXES—State Rep. Bill Clayton tells members of the House he believes $100 million dollars can be trimmed from the appropriations bill now being considered in Austin. Clayton attempted to amend the bill to reduce spending, and said he would vote against any bill that would call for new taxes this year.

Clayton says new taxes not necessary

The House appropriations bill can be reduced by $100 million dollars without materially impairing services to the State, Rep. Bill Clayton stated today.

After two full weeks of debate and the consideration of over 200 amendments, the bill is barely under the limit which would call for new taxes, Clayton said.

"We need to come up with a bill that leaves a cushion for emergency needs for the next two years," Clayton stated.

He added that he hoped the Senate-House conference committee would come up with substantial savings and reduce considerably the House version.

Clayton restated his stand to vote against any bill that would call for new taxes to be raised this year.

Sheriff, police cooperation nets burglar

A cooperative effort between the Cochran county sheriff's office and Morton city police cracked a burglary case last week that resulted in the recovery of an estimated $500 worth of loot.

A juvenile male was free on bond to his parents late Wednesday following his apprehension last week by sheriff's deputy Darrell Denny and city patrolman Ronne Henry following the burglary of Cox Auto Supply in which approximately $500 worth of electronics equipment was taken.

Following investigation and questioning by the two officers, the youth led them to the deserted house in which he had hidden the loot. All goods taken are believed to have been recovered.

In other law enforcement business, Arthur Ray Hightower, 21, of Morton was taken into custody in Levelland by the Hockley county sheriff's office on a lead furnished by Denny and Henry and charged with theft of a car belonging to D.D. Marshall of Whiteface.

The 1969 Chevrolet station wagon was alleged to have been stolen from Gwatney-Wellis service department where it was awaiting repairs.

Hightower was said to have been asleep in the car when apprehended.

"OLD GLORY" GOES UP ON LOYALTY DAY—Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of District Seven present arms as the flag is raised to dedicate the flagpole and monument to the dead of America's foreign wars at Great Plains Boys Ranch in ceremonies held Sunday afternoon. Larry Johnson of Levelland Post 4506 hoists the flag as Ron Stubblefield, Brownfield, steadies it on its way. A large group of representatives from posts throughout the High Plains were on hand for the ceremony. The inscription on the monument at the base of the flagpole which reads "We honor the dead by serving the living" exemplifies the creed and the objectives of the nation-wide Veterans of Foreign Wars organization. Merrill, director of the ad valorem tax division of the commission, will serve as secretary-member. He had been employed by the commission for 10 years.

Merrill was born in Pecan Gap and moved to Morton where he lived until 1963. He served two years in the Army from 1954 to 1956. He attended night

"TRANQUILITY" IS WHERE IT'S AT — The boys' quartet and the girls' choir joined together for some of the best highlights of the annual Morton Schools' "Indian Capers" performance presented in the County activities building Friday night. The show this year dropped the traditional skits and presented an all-musical program consisting of a large variety of numbers by both solo and musical groups. Shown above is the "Tranquility" chorus consisting of both male and female voices who contributed very much to the show. Left to right, first row, they are: Debbie Berggren, Sabrina Wells, Yavonna Vanstory, Donna Sanders, Sheryl McClung and Melody Crone. The male voices consisted of Gregg Bell, partially hidden behind Miss Vanstory; Jimmy Hargis, Phil Baker, behind Misses Sanders and McClung and Chip Sayers, extreme right. The production was once again a crowd pleaser for one and all of a packed-house audience.

NT LEWIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, received a Physical Merit Award from Western College at Snyder in the college's 1972-73 graduation ceremony. Lewis is a 1972 graduate of Morton High and a freshman student at WT. He compiled an outstanding record while attending Morton and was a starter on the 1972-73 basketball team.

Ski Suits

It happened on the novice slope at a busy ski resort. Alice, a beginner, was "snowplowing" cautiously downhill when a wayward sled struck her from behind.

Painfully injured, she decided to claim damages from the resort management. She blamed her accident on the fact that the ski run and the sled run were located right next to each other, with no physical separation between them.

At the court hearing, the management pointed out that it had put up signs warning skidders to stay away from the skiers. But the court granted Alice's claim, saying:

"Sleds are not easily controlled, while novice skiers are notoriously unmovable. The location of these two runs made accidents not only possible but probable."
The growing popularity of skiing has focused new attention on the question of liability in case of injury. Generally speaking, as in the case above, the management is liable for accidents which it could have prevented by reasonable foresight.

SCHOOL LAW REVISIONS PONDERED—Governor Briscoe said is "optimistic" the Legislature can turn out a bill revising the present system of financing public schools.

Briscoe emphasized he would discourage the idea of a special session on the School Law Revision, and prefer to meet the issue this year if a method could be found to deter new taxes to foot the bill. Efforts are being made to "phase" the program over a six-year period to avoid an $812 million tax bill which contemplated revision would force in 1975.

APPOINTMENTS—Reps. L. Dale Hale of Corpus Christi, R.L. Val of Antonio, Joe Allen of Baytown, Dan Finnes of Fort Worth and Neil Caldwell of Angleton were named to the planning committee for the constitutional convention next year.

Governor Briscoe appointed Bessie Hutchinson of Texas as Fifth District Judge in Bowie to succeed the late Stuart Nunn of Texas.

Briscoe earlier reappointed Dennis Henley of Liberty to the Commission on Indian Affairs and named Wayne O'Connell of Lubbock to the West Texas State University board of regents.

PLANTING PLANS CONFUSED—Unseasonal weather has created problems with planting plans, State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reports.

White said planting is three to four weeks behind schedule, and wet, weather lingering into spring has created "peculiar situations." For example, noted, High Plains farmers are still harvesting their 1972 cotton crop, yet time for 1973 planting is at hand. White said White, assured excellent planting conditions, livestock, out and about crops.

SHORT SNORTS
Rep. Carl A. Parker of Port Aransas lists himself among possible candidates for speaker of the House in 1975.

The Governor has signed into law providing for optional personal liability auto insurance up to $2,500 per person and permitting right turns on red signals.

Highlights and Sidelights from your State Capitol

By—Bill Boykin
Texas Press Association

Legislators have a lot more left to do than they have done so far in almost four months.

Of the nearly 1,700 House bills and almost 1,000 Senate bills introduced, fewer than 100 actually have reached the Governor's desk.

If the 63rd Legislature accomplishes as much as the 62nd did numerically (more than 1,000 bills passed), about 99 per cent of the floor action must be capped in the brief period before the May 28 adjournment deadline.

Slow-moving debate in the House — where more than 200 amendments were offered — on the $9.7 billion appropriation bill fanned some speculation that a special session may be necessary to complete mandatory work.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who holds the key to calling such a session, has made clear he doesn't want one.

Senators banged through their $9.5 billion version of the state budget in an hour and 21 minutes.

In spite of the two weeks spent on the House spending bill, Speaker Price Daniel Jr. maintained "plenty of time" remains to consider other "must" legislation.

Daniel predicted House passage of these measures before May 28:

- Mass transit.
- Drug law reform.
- Bills to improve fiscal responsibility in government appropriations.
- Restoration of capital punishment.
- Penal code revision.
- Water district reform.
- Public school finance.
- Competitive insurance rating.

While the work load appears staggering, Texas legislators are used to concentrating most of their floor action in the last month of their sessions.

CONSTITUTIONAL HEARINGS BEGIN—The Constitutional Revision Commission began the first of its three-months' series of hearings in the panhandle and Far West Texas.

Initial hearings were held in Amarillo, Lubbock, El Paso, Midland-Odessa and San Angelo before moving South to San Antonio. A total of 18 hearings will hear citizens' views on how the constitution should be revised.

Witnesses offered suggestions on everything from dipping cattle in cold water to legislative pay and the rights of individual citizens. Some told the Commission it should move cautiously in changing the constitution.

Further hearings are slated at Arlington, Texarkana, Tyler, Lufkin-Nacogdoches, Houston, Laredo, Corpus Christi, McAllen, Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange, Abilene, Wichita Falls, Waco and Austin between now and the end of June.

FEE, JURY BILLS PASSED—Higher hunting and fishing license fees and lower age limits for jury service are virtually assured.

The Senate passed amended bills authorizing both and returned them to the House where they originated. The hunting license will cost $5.25 instead of $3.35 and the fishing license $4.35 instead of $2.15. A combination license is available for $8.75. Out-of-state hunters visiting Texas may pay $37.50 for their licenses. A special, three-day, non-resident salt fishing license can be obtained for $1.25.

Under the new juror age legislation, 18-20-year-olds can serve on any Texas state court jury.

A bill to provide full maturity rights to the 18-20-year-olds finally passed the Senate and went to the House.

COURTS SPEAK—A Midland murder conviction was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals because portions of a confession referring to another crime were introduced at the trial.

A Dallas case involving obscene calls and acts was reversed by the same court because police "beef sheet," including matters not connected with the charge, was permitted in evidence.

A Corpus Christi lawyer convicted of professional misconduct won a new trial through a Supreme Court order, which upheld a 13th Court of Civil Appeals earlier finding.

In an Amarillo case, the Supreme Court held a public utility was not exempt from municipal zoning ordinances.

AG OPINIONS—Atty. Gen. John Hill held constitutional bills to require Legislative Budget Board to establish a system of audits of state agency programs (including biennial reports to the legislature) and to identify the cost of legislation through fiscal notes.

In other recent opinions, Hill found

Graveside rites were at 5:30 p.m. in the South Cemetery near Merkel with the Sibley Funeral Home in charge.

A native of Coleman County, Row died at 5:40 p.m. Thursday in Cochran Memorial Hospital following a short illness. He was a veteran of World War II, having served with the U.S. Air Force. He attended Texas Christian University and in 1949 graduated from Hardin-Simmons University.

He also had been football coach at Lampasas and Sundown where he decided to become a minister. He attended Texas Tech and H-SU while working on his master's degree and later attended Southwestern Theological Seminary. At the time of his death he was pastor of the South Baptist Church and taught in the South Independent School District.

Survivors include his wife, Pauline; three sons, Paul and Don, both of Lubbock, and David of the home; a daughter, Kay of the home; his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. M.O. school at Oklahoma City University from January 1967 to July 1970 to complete work on a business administration degree with a major in accounting. He had previously attended Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

One source said that Merrill's name had been suggested to the governor by senators. He joined the department in 1963 as an auditor after making the highest score on a merit system examination. One veteran senator said he was impressed that Merrill did not have a political sponsor.

He is the brother of Mrs. Amos Taylor of Morton, Mrs. Bernice Amyx of Fredrick, Okla. and Ted Merrill of Petersburg, both former Morton residents.

Advertising rates will remain the same, at least for the foreseeable future. The date of May 15 was set for the purpose of giving Tribune subscribers whose subscriptions will run out within the next few weeks the opportunity to renew at the old rates and thus save a small amount of the subscription price.

Morton Boy Scouts have been engaged by the Tribune to carry on an intensive subscription campaign between now and when the price rise is scheduled to become effective. They will try to contact every subscriber and potential subscriber in the county and given them the opportunity to take advantage of the present lower price.

Persons wishing to renew or subscribe before the deadline who are not contacted, are invited to renew by telephone or to drop by the newspaper office and take care of it in person.

All persons who are subscribing for someone out of the area, and all those who wish to renew from out of the area, are invited to renew by telephone or mail that is postmarked before midnight May 14.

This is the first subscription price increase made by the Tribune in over a decade, while prices of other commodities, goods and services have climbed steadily upward. The rise is forced by several price increases in the many products and services such as mailing fees, news print price rises, labor costs and others that are necessary to the production of a newspaper.

Parents and interested persons to attend. The meeting is for the purpose of working out the schedule, setting the season length and appointing managers for the league teams.

It will be a six team league this year, with three teams from Morton, and one each from Whiteface, Sundown and Great Plains Boys Ranch. The Morton teams will be the Mets, Tigers and Indians; Whiteface the Cardinals; Sundown the Yankees and the Boys Ranch team still to be named.

The junior Babe Ruth League consists of players from 13-15 years of age, with the senior league consisting of players 16-19. Morton will again have one team in the senior league this year, Lewallen said.

Sponsors are still needed and any organization, club, individual or business firm is invited to contact the league if he wishes to act as a sponsor.

Other league officials besides Lewallen who were elected at a recent meeting include: Everett Bilbrey, vice-president; Bobbie Davidson, secretary-treasurer and Frank Davidson, head umpire.

Games will be played on the same schedule as last year with a double header being played each Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, Lewallen said. We hope to get the schedule worked out at this meeting so that we know who is going to be playing who on those evenings, he concluded.

All boys who wish to play Babe Ruth ball this year are asked to contact Lewallen at the city hall during working hours or at his home after 5 p.m. to sign up. All players signing up must have a birth certificate in their possession at the time of signing.

sufficient area within the city to bring its population up to equality with the other three.

Under such a plan, Precinct One would probably be comprised of the inner city alone. Precinct Two would receive a sufficient number of residences on the east side of Morton to make it equal. Precinct Three would receive a portion of the southwest area of the city and Precinct Four would receive sufficient population on the west and north sides of town to equalize it with the other three.

"We are now only in the preliminary stages, with all four commissioners making a head count of the population within their precincts," the Judge stated and added "It will probably take some time, with Walden, due to his greater population, having the hardest job."

Redistricting by the one man one vote law is left up to the local governmental agencies, and the county commissioners court has the power to redistrict at its own option. It is understood that the vote to redistrict was unanimous in the commissioners court here.

Outdoors in Texas

BY VERN SANFORD

Lots of bass fishermen consider trolling as a lazy man's method of angling. Well, I guess they are right. It's easy to troll, it's fun, you stir up enough breeze to keep cool and more often than not you catch fish (even with artificial bait).

But, the best luck we've had in trolling has been with live minnows and a minnow sock.

You may never have heard of a minnow sock. They are seldom seen in Texas. It's a Canadian invention, and very popular in the Provinces.

Anyway, I'm sure you've seen Japanese hand cuffs, and a minnow sock works on the same principle. For those who don't know—the Japanese handcuff is simply a wicker tube with a criss-cross weave. Trick is to insert the middle finger of one hand into one end of the wicker tube and the middle finger on the other hand into the other end of the tube. And that's it.

You're handcuffed then and there, my friend, because it's impossible to get your fingers out. The harder you pull the tighter they fit. A handcuff without keys. How's that for cleverness?

The minnow sock is not made of wicker but of nylon fishing line. You slip the head and body of the minnow into the sock—leaving the tail free to wiggle. Outside the sock is a hook, positioned alongside the live minnow. You simply tie your fishing line to the eye of the hook, add enough lead weight to the line to keep the bait down to the preferred depth—and a trolling you go.

Don't let the fact that "socks" are not available keep you from trolling. There's an even lazier way to catch fish. Simply rig up your gear as you would for casting the plastic worm, drive your boat into the wind over some likely area, then drop your bait down to the bottom, cut off your motor and let the wind blow you over the hot spot. You'll find that float fishing with the plastic worm often works when nothing else will.

It's easier on the angler, easier on the boat, easier on the motor and easier on the purse. But it gets hot as Hades in the summertime when the sun bears down.

However, the fish are cool. They're right down there on the bottom—away from that hot summer sun. So go after 'em!

Consumer Alert

By John L. Hill
Attorney General

The bill collection agent plays a necessary role in our society, since so much of our economy is based on credit transactions.

His purpose and the creditor's rights are well recognized in our laws and our courts.

But the laws also recognize the fact that an over-zealous bill collector should not infringe on the rights of a debtor and the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's office works to enforce the prohibitions against harassment and false collection practices.

The average creditor and the average professional collection agent are interested only in getting debts settled. They work under the assumption that if a person gets behind in his payments, he has a good reason, and they try to find out the reason and work out a payment plan to suit the debtor's individual situation.

Some bona fide retail credit bureaus even offer debt counseling services, without charge, to help both the consumer and the merchants.

So, if an illness, job problem or some other personal crisis leads to a money problem and you have to delay bill payments, you should not hesitate to speak honestly about them to your creditors. You'll probably find them more than willing to help you work through that difficult time.

The prohibitions against deceptive debt collection practices are aimed at the unscrupulous few who would resort to misleading, and sometimes harmful, methods of collection.

These are well-defined in the Federal Trade Commission guidelines:

- 1) A debt collector cannot threaten that he is turning an account over to an attorney, unless he actually is doing so.
- 2) He cannot pretend to represent an independent collection agency, if he actually works for the creditor firm or its subsidiary.
- 3) He cannot state that the consumer's credit record will be adversely affected, or that his employer will be notified, unless those are true facts.
- 4) He cannot use stationery, letterhead or envelope designed to imply an official governmental association. (Under Texas state law, it is a misdemeanor to simulate legal process. So a collection notice designed to look like a court order is illegal.)
- 5) If he is trying to "skip trace" (locate a missing debtor) the creditor clearly indicate in his correspondence that that is his purpose. Some collectors have used such wild tactics as the F.T.C. clearly forbids. "In the business of a casting service, the motion picture or television industry." And one famous case involved a collector who had "letters mailed from Ireland, claiming that the person sought had won the Sweepstakes."

My Consumer Division has occasion to take legal action for these abuses.

Under common law, an individual bringing suit through a private attorney intentional infliction of emotional distress do not make obligations unless they are to meet the, and most people do not remember that there also are some who are financially irresponsible. I ignore a routine request for payment on a past-due account, the collector assume you are in the latter category.

So, make a determined effort to pay money misunderstandings. If an attempt to correct a mistake, or make for a payment, and still encounter deceptive practices outlined, do not hesitate to contact the Attorney General or your local district or county attorney.

USDA officials are in the process of considering views from interested parties concerning the 1973 Commodity Credit Corporation cotton loan program, including a proposal that the 50 point penalty on barks cotton be removed. The deadline for submitting comment is May 9 and decisions on the barks matter, premiums and discounts for quality variations and other loan details should be announced soon thereafter.

The only real controversy revolves around the barks issue. Producers across the belt are unanimous in support of eliminating the penalty. But certain members of the trade are voicing strong opposition.

Earlier this year officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, recommended that the 50 point penalty on barks cotton, which is now applied in addition to a reduction of one full grade, be dropped. It was pointed out that Agricultural Marketing Service study and other research work at Texas Tech University's Textile Research Center failed to justify the "double penalty" in terms of such cotton's loss of spinning and finishing performance.

Apparently based on the evidence presented by PCG, USDA in its Federal Register notice of April 9 said "...there is reason to conclude that the presence of extraneous matter doesn't affect the ultimate value of such cotton beyond that reflected in the grade reduction."

Those in the cotton trade who are objecting are basing their opposition primarily on the grounds that some cotton already has been contracted for

Fall 1973 delivery at prices based on points over loan value and that removal of the penalty now would be "changing the rules in the middle of the game."

Responding to the Federal Register invitation for comment, PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, in a letter to Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Administrator Kenneth Frick, said "In our opinion this argument won't hold water," and made the following statements in support of that opinion.

"(1) Both producers and buyers knew when contracts were signed that there might be, and likely would be, some differences between 1972 and 1973 loan values.

"(2) If the argument is followed to its logical conclusion, then (a) USDA would be barred from making ANY change in premiums and discounts for micronaire, staple or grade in the 1973 loan schedule, and (b) since some cotton is already contracted for 1974-75 deliveries, the same argument could be used to prevent a change for the next two years of not indefinitely.

"(3) Even if you assume that merchants would be unfairly treated on contracted cotton in 1973, only about 59,600 bales on the Plains (10 year average of 14.9 per cent barks) times the estimated 400,000 bales contracted) would be affected, while the alternative is to penalize producers, certainly more unfairly, on 298,000 bales (14.9 percent of an expected 2 million bale crop)."

Johnson's letter concluded by saying "I think you will agree that the objections to your proposal are far outweighed by the merit of the proposal itself and by the necessity for correcting a long-standing inequity in the loan program. We greatly appreciate your understanding of the basic issue in this matter, and again we urge you not to abandon your efforts to give producers a 'fair deal' and a stronger support price for their cotton."

'People in Texas' topic at club meet

Mrs. Glenn Thompson spoke on the people in Texas and their effect on the great state of Texas at the April meeting of the 1936 Study Club. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Lessie Silvers.

Mrs. Thompson stated that people of many backgrounds helped in building the great state of Texas. She told the members that the people came from Europe, Africa, Mexico, Spain and from the South, northwest and midwest of the United States. Some of the facts concerning the people were: During World War II, 36 Texans were given the highest military award, the Congressional Medal of Honor and the two most decorated soldiers were Texans, Lt. Audie Murphy and Commander Samuel D. Dealey; 450 Texas women served overseas as nurses and Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston was a colonel in command of the Women's Army Corps during World War I. Texas A&M furnished more officers than any other school.

In the business meeting members voted to donate $25 to the Special Education Olympic Meet to be held in Houston. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read two letters of appreciation, one from Mrs. Faye Rampley, President of the Caprock District TFWC and one from Mrs. Lou Fry. Both letters thanked the club for hosting the poolside reception at the District meeting held in Lubbock.

Others attending the meeting were: Mmes. Neal Rose, Iva Williams, Gehrome Holloway, Hume Russell, James Price, Joe Nicewarner, Bill Sayers and W.C. Benham.

Mrs. Thompson concluded the program with a brief history of Cochran County and its people. She stated that the first child born of a Republic of Texas marriage was C.C. Slaughter and at one time he owned 246,669 acres of land in Cochran and Hockley counties. She concluded by saying "Jennie B. Dennis holds the record for having lived in Cochran County the longest. She was born here".

MISS GLORIETTA E. GRAY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Gray, is a candidate for a B.S. Degree in Elementary Education, with specialties in Language Arts and Public School Music, from West Texas State University. Convocations will be held May 12 at 4:30 p.m. in Amarillo Civic Center.

Miss Gray is a 1970 graduate of Morton High School. She is a member of Mu Phi Sorority, an honor sorority for music students, Baptist Student Union and College Students Teacher's Assn.

"Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fulness of joy."
 PSALM 16:11

HERE IS THE PATH

shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength, as thyself.

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose—and therefore will not force His love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving His neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long survive and the freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

ASCS news

BY JOHN W. HALL, CED

Producers signing up for set-aside acreage under the feed grain and wheat programs may elect to use their set-aside land for livestock forage or for approved alternate crops, with a reduction in program payments, reports Danny Key, chairman of the Cochran ASCS county committee.

A full understanding of provisions governing set-aside land is essential, Mr. Key said, advising producers to check with the ASCS county office about any details they are not sure of. Basic provisions governing all set-aside acreage is that it must be land suitable for crop production with a potential equal to the average productivity of the farm.

"This provision on the quality of set-aside land applies across the board—whether the farmer plans to hay or graze the set-aside, plant an alternate crop on it or keep it idle."

"If the set-aside acreage is found to be of lower average productivity than the average of cropland on the farm, then the program payments will be based on the potential yield of the set-aside land and not on the established yield for the farm," the ASCS committee chairman warned.

"Producers should also know there is a minimum size and width rule for areas designated as set-aside. Generally, a set-aside area which is less than an entire field must be at least five acres in size, with a minimum width of 132 feet.

"This is a general rule, and some exceptions have been stipulated," the ASCS committee chairman said. Full details are available at the ASCS county office.

A set-aside inspection and measurement service is available at the ASCS county office. This service can insure a producer that his designated set-aside is acceptable and in compliance with program requirements.

Turning to the provision, new for 1973, which permits haying and grazing on set-aside acreage, Mr. Key said the single most important item for a producer to remember is that the ASCS county office must be notified before haying or grazing is begun on set-aside acreage.

The conserving use requirement continues for set-aside land even though the land is used for grazing or haying. This means that crops ineligible for grazing or haying include soybeans, grain sorghums, corn, sweet sorghums for silage, and matured small grain.

Producers may sublet grazing, haying, or silage rights on their farms' set-aside acreage, but this does not relieve them of payment reductions or responsibility for following program requirements.

Also by taking a reduction payment, producers may grow and follow crops on set-aside land: castor beans, crumbe, guar, mustard seed, plantago ovata, safflower, sesame, and sunflower.

Payment reduction for grazing, haying, cutting silage, or growing these alternate crops will be 30 percent of the average payment rate per acre of set-aside under the basic feed grain plan, whether the set-aside is under the feed grain or the wheat program.

In summary, the ASCS committee chairman said that he would remind farmers that the set-aside land must be average quality cropland for the farm, that the ASCS county office must be notified before the set-aside is grazed, hayed, or cut for silage, and that if they choose to use set-aside for these purposes or approved alternate crops that they also accept a payment reduction.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

Is polio licked? Certainly not. The providential Salk and Sabine vaccines have had great success in immunizing against the dread disease. But the three viruses that cause paralytic polio are still with us. All persons not immunized against polio, especially pre-school children, are still vulnerable to polio attack and should immediately receive the polio vaccines.

MONEY SPENT AWAY FROM HOME DOES NOT HELP PAY TAXES IN OUR COMMUNITY AND YOU MAKE UP THE DIFFERENCE!

Money spent away from home does not help the economy of our community. It is estimated that one-third of every dollar spent in a community helps pay for the running expenses and growing of that community. It helps to pay for schools, streets, police and fire protection, churches, charities and all the normal activities of community life. So, when you spend it away from home, you help someone else's community. That costs you on and when community income is less... guess who pays the difference. WE DON'T like paying your taxes twice! It makes sense to shop at home whenever possible...and build our own community!

Comments On Conservation

By Roy L. McClung, Jr.

During the last half of May, some 24,000 Texas farmers will receive a crop acreage questionnaire from Charles E. Caudill, Agricultural Statistician in Charge of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin, Texas.

This information will be the basis for determining the planted acreage for the State of Texas and for each county. There are 254 counties in Texas, and reports are needed from many farmers so that each county will be well represented. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

The Texas Legislature has provided a program of estimates for each county. Texas covers such a wide area that State totals alone do not provide adequate information for the agricultural industry—agriculture. This is a cooperative effort of USDA's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

With delays in land preparation and spring planting due to wet and cool weather, some producers may rush into planting without applying fertilizer. Of course, they are considering sidedressing their crops after they are up to a stand.

How effective is sidedressing?
Nitrogen—If applied within 30 days after planting results are generally satisfactory. However, plants should not be allowed to become stunted due to lack of nutrient.

Phosphorus—on low phosphorus soils, sidedressing does not give the early growth response or yield increases compared with application at or before planting. Phosphorus should be readily available in the seeding root zone, so the time gained by rapid planting may be lost by delayed seedling growth.

Potassium—Sidedressing within 30 days after planting generally gives acceptable results, except in soils that are extremely deficient in the nutrient.

Zinc—Comparisons between preplant and sidedressing applications are limited, but sidedressing within 30 days after planting deficient in the nutrient.

The key item in sidedressing crops is the level of plant nutrients already in the soil, as determined by a soil test. Sidedressing fertilizer within 30 days after planting is generally satisfactory except in soils low in phosphorus.

Junior club hosts installation dinner

The Emlea Smith Junior Study Club met April 26 in the home of Mrs. Earl Polvado for the annual installation dinner. The social committee served as hostesses.

Mrs. Lois St. Clair served as Installing Officer. She used a ceremony in verse from which offered special 'vitamins' to each officer as an aid in performing her official duties. As a favor, each officer was presented with a large 'vitamin' capsule.

Following the installation ceremony the meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Ray O'Brien. She presented her theme for the new year as "Take Time."

Projects for the following year were discussed and voted on. New projects for the year include increased aid to Boys Ranch, a project involving Morton's Senior Citizens, and a welcoming tea for new teachers and other newcomers to Morton.

The resignation of Mrs. Mike O'Brien was read and accepted. Mrs. Ken Hanlin was welcomed as a new member.
