Tribe opens grid warpath Friday

Hosting Plains rugged Cowboys

Friday night will see the moment of truth come to the Morton Indian gridmen and the entire community can make their judgements off their performance about what to expect for the coming season.

The Tribe will be taking on the rough, tough Plains Cowboys, who are in a habit of giving them a long evening — and sometimes a long journey home, even when they are playing in Indian Stadium.

The Pokes are rated in pre-season polls as fourth best in the state in the Class A ranks, and scouting reports compiled by head coach Roy Winters and his assistants tend to bear out this prediction.

Game films of the Cowboys in last year's regional playoffs shown at the Tuesday night Booster Club meeting, revealed some hard-nosed football players who can make it rough on any team near their class. Most of the players on that playoff team are returning this year with more experience, added size and knowhow and with undoubtedly a more hostile attitude.

Winters states flatly that the Tribe is ready for them and indicates much optimism concerning both this opening game and for the entire season ahead. He has repeatedly stated that he expects no team in District 3-AA to go undefeated, and if each one suffers only one defeat, and if we escape serious injury, the Indians have as good a change as any other to pick up all the district marbles.

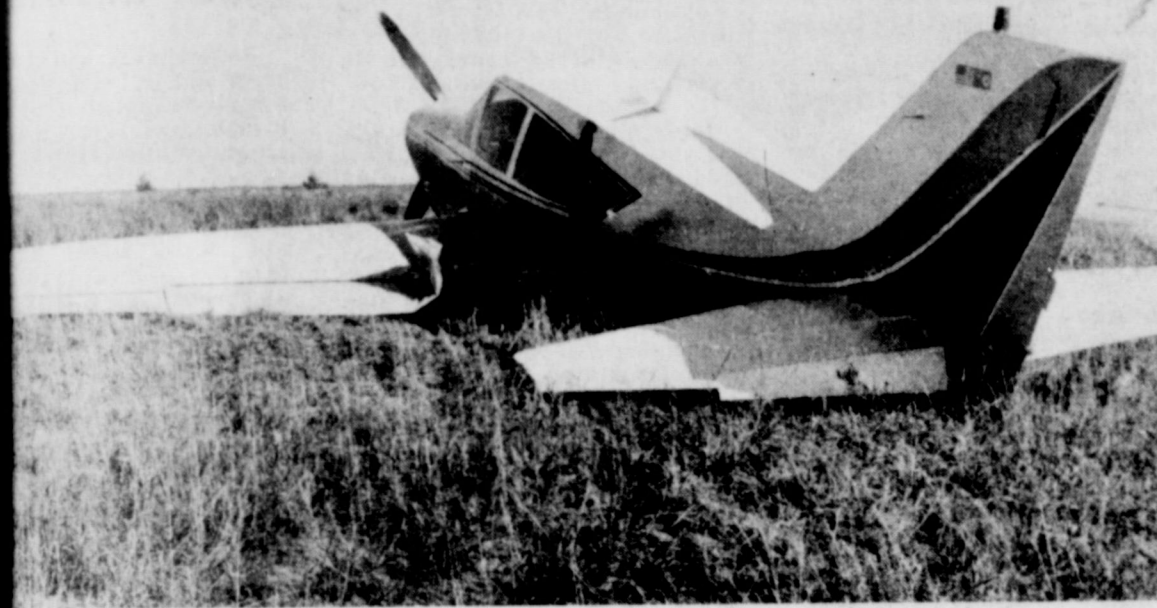

The coach describes overall team speed and the abilities and leadership of his ten seniors as the main assets of the Morton squad. He described team morale and attitude as the best he has ever encountered on the practice field — he has a strong feeling that they came to play this year — and urges the community to get behind them and give them all the support possible — then watch them respond.

"I expect us to improve considerably on our record of last year, which was a dismal four wins, five losses and one tie. We were 1-3 in district to take third place behind Friona, in second place with a 4-1 record and first place Littlefield, who went 5-0 in district play."

TO KEEP INDIAN SPIRIT UP. The above bevy of beauties will be on hand to keep up both Indian and fan spirits up at all athletic contests throughout the year. Here they are showing their style for the spectators at the scrimmage against the Farwell Steers Friday night. Clockwise from left, Julie Brown, Kathy Mason, Diana Kuehler, Deborah Hodge and head cheerleader Sabrina Wells.

Tragedy barely missed as airplane, pickup collide

A certain death was late Tuesday as an in the landing pattern by Airport struck a pickup truck on its low approach to the runway.

Griffith, flying a single Balanca Viking, was his landing approach path to north and was it in low in order to stop on the short when the pickup driven by Asencion was struck by the left landing gear the gear to collapse. The aircraft to the left and came to right side up 50 feet off the of the runway. There injuries. There reported to the

Tribune that as he was making his final landing approach, the setting sun blinded his view to the west and he did not see the

South Africans find America 'friendly' -- Texans 'most friendly'

South Africa has had some very interesting and interesting over the past months, but never any two reasonable and pleasant with Mr. and Mrs. Booth of South Africa

Booths, from the Province of South were here on a business and trip and were the here of Ray Griffith Equipment local John Deere Booth, who is an engineer and manager for a large his native land, is his tour with his of land preparation and irrigation in the states. semi-arid country is expecting to see on Plains was anything during his visit — he bright in the middle of rained rains we have experienced and the farmland was a sea of mud not conducive to easy inspection.

The estate on which Booth lives and works near the town of Triangle, Northern Province, is owned by Triangle Limited, a corporation-type company and consists of 250,000 acres. Of this, 50,000 is devoted to farm land and the rest to cattle ranching.

The main crops, Booth disclosed, are sugar cane, cotton, wheat and tobacco. Though they have some mechanized plowing and planting implements, most of the harvesting is done by hand, he stated. The cotton is picked by hand, the sugar cane is harvested by hand and the tobacco operation is mainly by hand also. "We do have some reapers for harvest of the wheat, he added.

In case you were wondering where they get the manpower, he pointed out that there are approximately 8,000 workers in residence on the estate. Together with dependents, this comprises a community of approximately 30,000 people living on the estate. (Shades of the Anti-Bellum South.)

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Booth and Ray Griffith

All workers are furnished free housing — brick and mortar buildings — free medical care, free schooling and free vocational agricultural training. The estate has its own schools and a hospital and clinic with three full time doctors and several nurses.

Three quarters of all the farm machinery in use in his province come from the United States and all the electronics and computer equipment is American made. All farm and ranch records are computerized by computers imported from the United States. Booth states that he never sees computer and like equipment from Britain, Germany, Japan or any other country than the United States.

The form of government in the Northern Province are bicameral, much the same as in the United States. They have Senators and lower house officers — the title to whom we failed to catch — and run their government much as we do. Their political subdivisions are considerably different from ours, however, with their cities approximating our counties as political units.

Booth comes from old British stock who first settled in South Africa in 1820. Mrs. Booth was born in Southern Iran with parents of mixed nationalities — her father being Scotch and her mother French. They are both staunch South Africans, as they will be glad to tell you.

One of the most interesting features of their homeland as described to the Tribune is the seasons and weather conditions. Of course their seasons are reversed from ours with Christmas coming at the hottest part — up to 109 degrees — of the summer and the very mild winter coming when Morton is sweltering in

City officials visit Mexico seeking pipe

Three of Morton's city fathers went on a fishing trip to Old Mexico last week. It is hastily added, however, that they were fishing for gasline pipe rather than for the sport fish normally sought on such a trip.

Mayor Marshall Leitzell, Mayor Pro-tem Jerry Schaeffer and City Utilities Director Maurice Lewallen traveled to Monterrey, Mexico where they had been led to believe they could find the 12-plus miles of gas pipe that is needed to replace the failing oldline that stretches between

Morton and where it connects with the El Paso Natural Gas

Cotton Council slates contest

The annual "Sew It With Cotton" contest, sponsored by the Last Frontier Cotton Council, has been slated for September 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the Cochran County Activity Building.

The style show and judging will coincide. Something new is being added this year — the refreshments will be made with cottonseed flour.

General rules for the contest may be obtained from Mrs. Bennie O'Brien, Star Rt. 2, Morton or any member of the Council. Mrs. O'Brien stressed that the contest is not to find the best seamstress but rather to show what can be done with cotton.

Categories include: Lollipop, ages 1 through 5; Sugar Plum and Little Esquire, ages 6 through 12;

September heat. Mild climate — it never allows farmers to get two full crops on the land. They plant cotton in April and May. They plant wheat in May and harvest it in October. The climate is comparable with the Plains here with 19-24 inches of rain a year.

Just prior to visiting Morton, the Booths paid a visit to a Lubbock resident whom they got to know when he traveled to South Africa to build the cotton gins for their estate and others in that area. They were steered from Lubbock to Morton by the John Deere Company as a comparable area to their own for study.

The interesting couple returned to Lubbock August 30, where they boarded a plane for Harlingen, the next leg of their pleasant journey.

pipeline near Whiteface, where gas for the city is drawn.

The city recently received a federal grant of approximately $160,000 for replacement of the line, but so far the lowest quote for that much pipe obtained in the United States is quoted at over $350,000, making the much-needed project out of reach.

Based on quotes and information obtained from a pipe manufacturer in Monterey, Mayor Leitzel expressed strong optimism that the needed pipe will be forthcoming in approximately six months at a price near half of that quoted for pipe obtained locally.

Net savings to the city, in this eventuality, was estimated by Leitzel at $100,000 and by Lewallen at $150,000. They all three agree that if this comes to pass, it will be their most successful fishing trip to date.

"The landing gear struck the steel hoist superstructure on the pickup, and if I had been a foot lower, or the pickup a split second slower, there would probably be two of us that wouldn't be here now," Griffith said.

"That runway definitely needs to be lengthened so that we don't have to approach so low to the south end," Griffith concluded.

Damage to the aircraft was estimated by Ray Griffith at between $1,500-$2,000.

Column No. 536

Gifted Aliens

Our immigration laws, which set quotas for entry into the United States, also provide loopholes for special situations. One of these loopholes allows preferential visas for aliens who have "exceptional ability in the sciences or the arts."

What does this mean? Take the case of a woman golfer, born in Australia, who applied not long ago for a preferential visa.

Was her ability "exceptional"? Yes, ruled the Immigration Service, because as a professional competitor she had won many major tournaments.

Was golf an "art"? Yes, ruled the Service, because it provided entertainment for millions of spectators.

Result: the visa was granted. By similar reasoning, a preferential visa was granted to a brilliant Japanese puppeteer and a spell-binding Australian lecturer.

But the standards of excellence under this provision are high indeed.

Another case involved a Korean singer who was part of a duet. She was able to point to some favorable reviews by critics, but none that singled her out as an individual performer.

The Immigration Service decided that while she was doubtless capable as a vocalist, she was not "exceptional" enough to qualify for a preferential visa.

Furthermore, the skill itself must be one that is difficult to master. At one time or another, an Italian broommaker, a Philippine auto mechanic, and an Italian hair stylist have all been turned down on the ground that their particular skill was too easily attainable.

As a commissioner explained in the broommaker case, he was not convinced that the services of the applicant "would be substantially beneficial to the national economy, cultural interest, or welfare of the United States."

PLAN ON ELECTRIC WATER HEATING
Magic link to all your hot water needs.
plan for improving your home should include electric water heating. It's clean, automatic and quiet. Since it's flameless and requires no flue, you can install it almost anywhere. The laundry, bath or any other place where much hot water is used is a perfect spot. Electric water heaters can be shorter and less heat will be lost in the tank. With this flexibility of installation, more than one water heater can be installed in different areas of the house — assuring hottest water everywhere it's needed. Undercounter models fit neatly in bath and kitchen, or a closet may be utilized. An electric water heater is wrapped completely with insulation to keep the inside hot and the outside cool. An electric water heater is another step on the road to carefree electric heating.

"Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fulness of joy."
PSALM 16:11

HERE IS THE PATH

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.
Luke 10:27

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose . . . and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny. The truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN — Sometimes you may want a television, stereo, movie projector, or other appliance for a particular occasion and not wish to buy it. Or maybe you want to try out such equipment before purchasing to make sure it's what you want.

MANY stores offer "rental-purchase" plans to accommodate such customers. These plans allow consumers to rent items and apply any rental payments to the purchase price if they decide they want to keep the merchandise.

Some merchants aim their advertising at certain groups such as college students or persons in a lower income bracket. They may emphasize that credit ratings are unimportant, or that credit checks are not even necessary

Mortonites attend Lubbock cosmetic seminar

Mrs. Mike Liner and Mrs. Shirley Burk attended a Frances Denney Cosmetic Seminar August 27 at the Koko Palace in Lubbock.

Both ladies were schooled in the art of make-up and introduced to each product in the Frances Denney line. The importance of "clean up before you make-up" was stressed.

Area ladies are invited to come by Liner's Pharmacy and see this new line of cosmetics.

for such rental agreements. This can be reassuring to someone who has not yet established a credit record, or to someone who perhaps has a bad credit record.

INFORMATION from the Federal Trade Commission indicates that a few businesses offering rental-purchase plans with such "easy credit" terms actually do require past credit experience or a favorable credit rating contrary to their advertising. Some stores may require a person to produce credit cards, along with some identification such as a driver's license, before a rental-purchase contract can be completed.

A few stores that have been reported to promote such rental-purchase plans by advertising easy credit, low monthly payments, free delivery and service, and the right to apply rental payments to the purchase price tack on a large deposit charge.

When a consumer decides to enter into such an agreement the FTC notes that some of these merchants may assure the consumer that he will own the appliance after a certain number of payments, but that such stipulations are not included in the contract.

The agency also calls attention to the practice of some unscrupulous merchants who allow or even encourage consumers to miss payments, or to make late payments, early in the rental-purchase contract period. Then, when ownership of the merchandise is about to pass to the consumer, the merchant may point out a clause in the contract stating that payments cannot be late and repossess the merchandise.

OUR Consumer Protection attorneys recommend that consumers check several things before entering into a rental-purchase agreement:

1. If you know in advance that you want to buy an item instead of renting it, check several local stores for prices on the equipment. You may find that the price paid under a rental-purchase plan is considerably higher.

2. Do not be swayed by offers of easy credit.

3. If you decide to rent an item with the idea of trying it out and perhaps buying it, be sure that your contract states that rental payments can be applied to the purchase price.

located in Anton, serving all of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

The Bike Way Is the Safe Way For Millions Going Back to School

From kindergarten to graduate studies, millions of Americans are finding their way to school on a bicycle. The bike has become a viable means of transportation for students from coast to coast.

It is rather easy to understand why so many scholars of all ages are going by bike, when you get a glimpse at the remarkable statistics of recent bicycle growth provided by the Bicycle Institute of America.

Presently there are more than 100 million Americans riding bicycles. They are riding more than 70 million bicycles, clearly understandable, when you consider multiple usage in the family and bike rentals.

Perhaps the most important factor in going back-to-school on a bicycle is driving the bike in a safe manner. Recent accident data reveals that most bicycle-related injuries and fatalities are caused by failure to abide by the rules of the road, either by the cyclist or a motorist.

It is rather ironic that millions of American youngsters will be driving their bikes to school during this academic year but will be unable to get a course on bicycle safety in the classrooms.

Presently, some states have formalized bicycle safety education programs for their schools but most of the nation is far behind when it comes to this most important element. Bicycle related accidents can be prevented and bicycle safety education is probably the single most important factor in preventing accidents.

An integrated educational program from kindergarten through high school would help create the proper background for youngsters who don't understand that driving their bike is not only a play experience. Once a youngster crosses over a sidewalk or out of the driveway it's into the frantic world of traffic.

In traffic, the rules of the road are imperative. Abiding by these rules can make for safe, accident-free cycling. The following rules have been prepared by the Bicycle Institute of America in conjunction with the National Safety Council and the Cub Scouts of America:

SUGGESTED SAFE BIKE DRIVING RULES

1. Obey all applicable traffic regulations, signs, signals and markings.

Bicycles should be driven as safely as any road vehicle, and they are subject to the same rules of vehicular traffic, wherever they apply. A good "rule of thumb" is to avoid congested streets and use bikeways, lanes or paths where possible.

2. Observe all local ordinances pertaining to bicycles.

Registration and licensing, inspections, driving on sidewalks, etc., may all be covered by local laws. It is your responsibility to know them and abide by them.

3. Keep right: drive with traffic, not against it. Drive single file.

Keep as close to the curb as practical. Most states require you to drive single file. When driving two abreast, a minor swerve could force you into traffic.

4. Watch out for drain grates, soft shoulders and other road surface hazards.

Be careful of loose sand or gravel, particularly at corners. Watch out for pot holes.

5. Watch out for car doors opening, or for cars pulling into traffic.

6. Don't carry passengers or packages that interfere with your vision or control.

A good rule is "one person, one bike," unless it's a tandem. Use baskets or luggage carriers for packages.

7. Never hitch a ride on a truck or other vehicle.

8. Be extremely careful at intersections, especially when making a left turn.

Most accidents happen at intersections. If traffic is heavy get off and walk your bike with pedestrian traffic.

9. Use hand signals to indicate turning or stopping.

Let the motorist know what you plan to do by giving the appropriate hand signals for turning left or right, or for stopping.

10. Protect yourself at night with the required red reflectors and lights.

Again, state laws vary. Most require a headlight, tail light or red rear reflectors for night cycling. Others require reflective pedals, additional side reflectors or other reflective material. If you are going to drive at night, use maximum protection.

11. Drive a safe bike. Have it inspected to insure good mechanical condition. Make sure your bike fits you. See to it that brakes, pedals, lights, reflectors, shifting mechanisms, sounding devices, tires, spokes, saddle, handlebars, and all nuts and bolts are checked regularly.

12. Drive your bike defensively; watch out for the other guy.

Observe the car in front of you, and the one in front of him. Leave yourself room and time to take defensive action.

Mason, Barrera will be on SPC tennis team

Two Morton students will be among the eight men and five women making up the 1974-75 tennis team at South Plains College, according to Larry Roberts, tennis coach and association professor in physical education.

The tennis program is new this fall after being discontinued several years ago. With the increase in facilities and personnel and a desire by Western Junior College Conference schools to offer a greater number of varsity sports for students, SPC began recruiting students for the tennis program last year.

"We have some fine, young players in this new program," Roberts said. The men will be competing against Amarillo College, Frank Phillips College, Western Texas College, Howard College and Odessa College this season. The women will play matches with Midland College, Odessa and Amarillo.

Included on the roster for the men's team are Allan Holliday of Seminole, Gary Swain of Fort Stockton, Henry Benitez of Lubbock High and Gary Owens of Levelland. Also playing for the Texans will be La Vaughn Dawson of El Paso-Irvin, Arturo Porras of El Paso High and Ralph Mason and David Barrera, both of Morton.

Competing for the women's team will be Janet and Jill Winstead, both of El Paso-Irvin, Debra Fields of Snyder, Toni Germany of Brownfield and Pam Knighten of Lubbock-Dunbar.

Mason and Barrera advanced to the state AA tennis semi-finals in 1970 representing Morton High School.

Any reputable merchant will be happy to have his promises written into the contract.

4. Note carefully if the rental-purchase contract requires that each payment on the merchandise be made by a certain date. If it does, be sure your payments arrive on time, or you may risk having the merchandise repossessed later.

5. And, finally, deal with merchants who have the reputation of providing good products or service at a fair price.

If you have a problem with a rental-purchase agreement or need other consumer information, contact our Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or your local Better Business Bureau.

American College Test set at SPC Saturday, Oct. 19

The American College Test, a college aptitude exam required by South Plains College, will be administered on Saturday, Oct. 19 at SPC.

The test will be given at 8 a.m. in Room 12 of the Science Building on the SPC campus. Test fee is $7.

Mrs. Shirley Foster, academic counselor at SPC, said that all students enrolled at SPC this fall who have not taken the test before are required to take the ACT exam on the October date. She also encouraged high school seniors who have not taken the test to take it at this time. "This is an ideal test date," she said.

Registration for the test is scheduled from Aug. 19 to Sept. 23 in the Office of Guidance and Counseling at SPC.

If you need more information, write to Don Melton, director of guidance and counseling, or Mrs. Shirley Foster, academic counselor, South Plains College, Levelland, Texas 79336, or call them at 894-4921.

HEALTH ON HEALTH

Don't overindulge in alcoholic drinks. On sultry days, keep the air circulating to help the evaporation of perspiration. Keep shaded windows open and use an electric fan.

Profuse perspiration helps cool the body, but it draws fluids and certain chemicals away. If you perspire freely, you may need extra water and salt. Drink water often throughout the day, one glass at a time. The amount of salt needed depends on who much you lose through perspiration. Office workers probably get enough in their food, but others doing heavy labor may need salt tablets periodically or a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt dissolved in a glass of water every hour.

Elderly people are prone to develop heat stroke. It may appear in them on hot days during such apparently mild activities as a walk. But they are not the only victims.

Heat cramps usually involve the abdominal muscles or the limbs. Loss of chemicals in profuse perspiration precedes the cramps. The condition may be associated with heat exhaustion. Heat cramps usually respond better to firm pressure than to vigorous kneading.

Remember, the aging, the very young, alcoholics and people with heart trouble are easily affected by sun and heat.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

"We are urging the Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA) to abandon its proposal for extensive safety devices on existing farm machinery and to adopt a more reasonable compliance data for requirements on new machinery," says Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and Secretary of the Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organizations (TACPO).

MR. AND MRS. JIMMY PIERCE of Lubbock announce the marriage of their daughter, Renay, to Paul Huff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer O. Huff, Jr. of Maple. The couple was married August 30 in the home of the bride's parents. Both are graduates of Coronado High School in Lubbock and are employed with Texas Instruments.

A STATEMENT prepared by PCG on behalf of TACPO for presentation at OSHA hearings in Oklahoma City on September 4, cites a Texas Agricultural Extension Service study which concluded that the "retrofit" requirements in OSHA's farm machinery safety proposals are "economically unfeasible and impractical."

The statement, to be presented by W.W. Hart, Executive Vice President of the South Texas Cotton & Grain Association of Victoria, says that to require farm operators, especially the small ones, to bring old equipment up to OSHA proposals would cause a severe financial burden.

An example was made of four different types of cotton strippers. The "unfeasible and impractical" label was used in connection with the complexity of bringing an eight-year old, two-row cotton stripper into compliance. It was pointed out that the 1966 model stripper had all gears, belts and chains on the outside and that OSHA-proposed shielding might well cost more than the original value of the machine.

IT WAS estimated that to "OSHA-ize" a 1962 model stripper of another make would cost around $500.00 and require over 28 hours of design, construction and installation time.

Extension Service agricultural engineers studied two different makes of 1974-model strippers and came up with $316.00 and $264.00 as the respective costs to bring them in line with OSHA proposals.

TACPO also commented on some of the proposals for requirements on new machinery manufactured after OSHA regulations become effective, emphasizing that a high percentage of farm machinery operation is done by farm operators and their families. This gives farmers, as machinery operators, a direct interest and concern that the final regulations be effective in improving safety, and as farm operators an interest and concern that the regulations be economically feasible and practical, the TACPO statement says.

REGARDING a reasonable compliance date, TACPO called attention to correspondence from the Farm and Industrial Equipment Institute which states that under normal conditions most manufacturers need at least a year to make changes in design and production, and went on to say, "Current material shortages are such that even more lead time will be required under present conditions."

OSHA's proposal calls for protective devices on all machinery manufactured after January 1, 1975. TACPO pointed out that "Even if the regulations were final today less than five months would remain for manufacturers to redesign and retool their plants..."

TACPO recommended that an effective date for an agricultural machinery guarding standard should not be earlier than January 1, 1976, "and a firm date should be set only after ascertaining the ability of machinery manufacturers to comply without undue hardship."
