Cochran County Fair Plans Finalized

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF SCHOOL SPIRIT-- The 1975 version of the Morton Indian Marching band is shown as it prepared for what each member hopes will be an eventful school year. MHS bands in past years have experienced considerable success and have won their share of honors in the UIL band program. This year's band, under direction of Mr. Burt Slater is expected to continue that tradition.

Pageant, Carnival Are New Features

Plans have been finalized, dates have been set and rules for exhibitors have been published for the Cochran County Fair, it was announced by fair association officials this week.

The fair, which will run October 2-3-4, will occupy a different site from that of last year. The County Commissioners Court recently purchased the old Morton Skating Rink building at 401 NW 1st Street. A carnival will be located on the fair grounds adjacent to the building all three days of the fair. "New Horizons" has been chosen as the theme for the fair which has added several new features this year and is expected to be bigger and better than any similar event ever held here.

A "Miss Cochran County Pageant" will be held in conjunction with the fair and the contestants entered so far were announced Tuesday. The pageant rules require that all entries be between the ages of 15-18, be a citizen of Cochran county, be sponsored by a business or other organization within the county and can never have been married.

Entries and their sponsors announced Tuesday included: Miss Linda Adams, daughter of COCHRAN COUNTY SHERIFF C. G. RICHARDS proudly observes the operation of the new communications system recently obtained through a grant by the Criminal Justice Council. It vastly increases the scope and rapidity of communications on the state-wide law enforcement net and can be patched in directly with officials in Washington, D.C. Operating the console is sheriff's dispatcher Lanita Woolam.

Hornets Put Bee On Tribe

A very aroused swarm of Tulia Hornets invaded Indian Stadium Friday night and were not satisfied to depart until they had stung the Tribe to the tune of a 22-0 victory.

On a cold, wet and thoroughly miserable night, both teams turned in a remarkably well-played performance, considering the conditions.

The Hornets took a quick 6-0 lead in the opening stanza on a 35-yard pass from quarterback Steve Brown to split end Joe Garza. The PAT was no good, however, and the teams went into the locker room at the half without scoring again.

Big plays by the Tulia unit, one coming in each of the final two stanzas, put the game out of reach for the host Indians, now 0-1-1.

In the third period, tailback Raymond Williams, who tallied 166 yards rushing for the night, rambled 78 yards for a score and a two-point conversion pass from Brown to Monty Cannon was good.

In the final period, fullback Cannon raced 80 yards for the game's last score and Williams ran over for the two-point conversion.

The tale of the tapes was vastly in favor of the Hornets as they ripped off 295 yards overland and

Checks Larger Than Normal

Of the billions of dollars that pour out of Washington each month in the form of social security checks, how much goes to residents of Cochran County? How do their checks compare in size with those going to people in other communities?

The comparatively large benefits now going to local beneficiaries indicates that their earnings, and therefore their contributions, were above

Homecoming Coffee

The Ex-Students Association will host an "after the ball game coffee" September 26 for all ex-students of Morton High School.

The coffee will be held in the school cafeteria and those attending will have an opportunity to visit. No business meeting is slated.

SURVEYING THE DAMAGE-- An unidentified fireman surveys the damage caused in the kitchen of the Gordon Crouch residence in a rural area of Hockley county. Morton Volunteer Firemen responded to the call and joined fire fighters from Levelland in bringing the blaze under control in a two-hour battle Tuesday night. Several thousands of dollars in damage was estimated to have been done to the modern farm house.

Hickox Tells Lions Club

Russia Implacable Enemy

Major Joseph Hickox, former Assistant United States Air Force Attache in Moscow, Russia, returned to the speakers platform at the Morton Lions Club luncheon Wednesday to finish a series of two lectures he presented there.

Last Wednesday Major Hickox spoke on life in Russia and related many of his own experiences during his two years of residence there. This week his subject matter was devoted to the military aspects of Soviet-American relations, the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, (SALT) Dente and the Russians' reliability on keeping their agreements.

Major Hickox sees no end to the arms race, with budgets climbing higher and higher until one or the other country decides it cannot afford the expenditures and drops by the wayside. If it is the United States that drops out, we are almost certainly going to get total Socialism thrust upon us. If it is Russia that is losing the race, Hickox believes that the United States will probably let them off the hook and continue to peacefully co-exist with them.

A comparison of weapons systems presented by the Major through a series of slides, indicates vast strides made by the USSR in the past five years which has put them equal or superior to us in weaponry including ICBMs, nuclear submarines with ICBM launch capabilities, combat aircraft, including bombers with intercontinental strike capabilities and in fighter-interceptor aircraft.

The USSR is now maintaining a standing armed force of 4.2 million and have recently reached a worldwide Naval capability. They pay their troops the equivalent of $5 per month, while the United States starts their troops at $350 per month plus vast other benefits. While we are over-spending in the soft areas, The Russians are drafting and paying their men very little and spending the extra money purchasing military hardware and technology.

Hickox contends that we are indirectly subsidizing the Soviet military by selling them grain at cut rate prices so that they can use the cash saved to build up their military might. He expresses the opinion that it is all right to sell them the grain as long as we make them pay through the nose for it and make them

Rural Accidents Light

The Texas Highway Patrol investigates six accidents on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of August, 1975, according to Sergeant H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and one person injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1975 shows a total of 30 accidents resulting in three persons killed and nine persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for August, 1975, shows a total of 596 accidents resulting in 16 persons killed and 292 persons injured as compared to August, 1974 with 542 accidents resulting in 30 persons killed and 314 persons injured. This was 54 more accidents, 14 less killed, and 22 less injured in 1975 at the same period of time.

Ethan Allen's Rash Actions Contributed To Defeat Of Colonists Invasion Of Canada

Ethan Allen is one of those shadowy figures of the American Revolution that we consider to be a patriot but about whom we know little and whose reputation is based on one incident. Allen was a flamboyant figure who led a group of Vermonters called "the Green Mountain Boys." This force had been able to surprise British forces at Fort Ticonderoga and capture the post easily. (See an earlier column in this series.)

During the attempted invasions of Canada in 1775 Allen again became the subject of public concern. Allen had been sent to Chambly with the objective of raising a force of Canadians to join the Americans in their invasion. Raising a force of about eighty Canadians and thirty Americans, his officers advised that he join the American army at once.

However, Allen's rashness and his desire for fame intervened. He decided instead to make a hurried and secret march on Montreal with the objective of surprising that city as he had Ticonderoga.

Instead, he was surprised himself before reaching Montreal by a mixed force of Englishmen, Canadians, and Indians. After a battle of almost two hours Allen surrendered himself and thirty-eight others. The rest of his force escaped into the woods.

Allen was chained in heavy leg-irons and shipped to England where he remained for the duration of the war. His hopes of glory were dashed.

His activity was a part of the larger invasion attempt of Canada; his defeat was a contributing factor in the overall American defeat.

While Americans were concerned about Canadians so too were the Spanish concerned about Frenchmen. John Peyton, the Virginian held in a Santa Fe jail, was brought a paper to sign. When his servant translated it and revealed that it was a confession of spying for the French, Peyton refused to sign it. They then were put in solitary confinement in complete darkness.

After seven days the jailor's daughter was secretly able to bring them some water and bread. Then the priest, Father Lopez, fearing for their lives, convinced the servant to sign the document in Peyton's name without his knowledge.

Thereafter, they were treated better although they were still prisoners. What their ultimate fate would be was still unknown.

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

Growing up

Look at your lanky, teen-age son! It's hard to believe that he once wore these shoes. It seems only yesterday that he was a baby, yet he himself is the best testimonial that the years have passed. Now he stands almost as tall as you. He is a fascinating maze of contradictions—on paper, lovable, stronger, more intelligent, more capable, more responsible. It takes patience to understand a teen-ager—patience, and a lot of love. Though he seems to be a child, he is almost "grown-up." You may not always be aware of it, but he still looks to you for many things. And he uses you as an example that he will, almost unconsciously, follow in many ways.

Are you setting a good example? How about church, for instance? If you haven't been going lately, start again next Sunday for your son's sake, as well as your own. And don't forget to take him with you!

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (S.J.R. NO. 11) SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present deduction of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans, organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

Of Agriculture
John C. Wells, Commissioner

Exports And Income... Prompt Payment In Effect... Poultry Production Shows Increase... Seed Hearing Sept. 26.

Texas agriculture producers continue to be in the spotlight in sales of farm commodities to overseas nations. Texas is a major provider of grains and cotton.

This fiscal year, U.S. agricultural exports are now expected to be at least as high as fiscal year 1975. The exports may in fact total $21.6 billion. That would not be far behind total farm income this year now estimated to be in the mid 20-billion dollar range.

Texas is the nation's leading producer of grain sorghum, and also supplies a major share of cotton exports. Sales of exports of cotton this fiscal year are expected to be about the same as a year ago, or around $1 billion.

Exports are important to both the general economy and agriculture economy. Sales of farm products overseas help to stabilize our dollar abroad as well as assisting in the deficiency of payments problem. Export sales are also the key to good farm prices at the domestic level.

Agricultural producers in this state and nation can and do produce more than we in this nation can consume. Wheat is a prime example. Our production of wheat this year is set at 141,000,000 bushels. The U.S. will consume only about a third of that total.

A BILL which will likely be signed by other states is now in effect in Texas. It is known as the prompt payment bill. It protects livestock producers by giving them greater assurance they will be paid for cattle they sell. Main provisions are:

Livestock sold for slaughter must be paid for by check, cash or transfer of funds on the day of transfer of possession occurs. The seller maintains a superior lien on animals sold for slaughter.

In the past, the seller of livestock has not had any protection which assures

Gov. Briscoe Proclaims Sept. 21-27 Highway Week

Governor Dolph Briscoe today signed an official memorandum proclaiming September 21-27 as Highway and Transportation Week in Texas.

By that action, Texas joins with the other 49 states in a national observance, the theme of which will be "Transportation, America's Lifelines."

"Transportation services and facilities are vital to the social and economic well-being of all citizens and their institutions in the State of Texas," the memorandum noted.

"Maintenance and development of transportation facilities we now possess and which we plan in the future provide the framework for our ultimate and continuing progress," it continued.

The governor noted that the new State Department of Highways and Public Transportation—a merger of two state agencies—faced "great challenges...for providing good transportation to the people of Texas."

"Highways and public transportation are essential elements of the transportation network which serves the needs of all the people," he said.

The 64th Legislature merged the Mass Transportation Commission and the Texas Highway Department to form a new agency charged with responsibility for developing a comprehensive total transportation program.

Governor Briscoe called on all citizens to "observe the week with appropriate recognition that Transportation, indeed, serves as America's Lifelines."

New GI Loan Policy Makes Vets Eligible Second Time

New GI loan policies that apply to all veterans with military service since the start of World War II make more than 20 million veterans eligible for the Veterans Administration guaranteed home loans.

Among them are more than four million veterans whose GI loans have been paid in full, VA Regional Director, Jack Coker, said today. Those who have never used their eligibility are still eligible even though they might payment in case of default by the packer. Previously, livestock producers have become "common creditors" and have been paid only after other claims were honored.

HERE'S ANOTHER AREA in which Texas ranks first in agriculture: number of farmland owners.

Of the 3,300,000 people who own land in the nation, there are 267,000 of them in Texas.

Texas also leads the nation in the number of nonfarm landowners.

And naturally, the average amount of land owned by individuals is higher in Texas than anywhere else in the nation. In Texas, the average amount of land owned per landowner is 548; elsewhere it's only 320 acres.

have been out of service more than 30 years. Also potentially eligible for new loans are those veterans with current loans outstanding. The only condition for restored eligibility is that the first loan be paid off and the home be disposed of.

In addition to broadened eligibility rules, new legislation approved by the President on December 31, 1974, raised the maximum portion of a loan VA is allowed to guarantee from $12,500 to $17,500 and made it easier to buy mobile homes and condominiums.

Changes affecting the purchase of mobile homes were - a provision for loans to purchase lots on which to place mobile home units already owned by veterans. - An increase in the maximum permissible loan amounts to $12,500 for a single-wide unit and $20,000 for a double-wide unit. - Liberalized rules for guaranteeing loans on used mobile homes.

Opportunities for purchasing one-family condominiums with VA guaranteed loans were broadened by deleting a former requirement that VA limit its loan guarantees for such units to developments in which Housing and Urban Development (HUD) had already insured loans.
