Band And Choir Have Varied Experiences

The Spearman High School Band and the Choir had some rather varied experiences over the weekend on their annual trips.

First the Spearman High School band was preparing to march in the parade at Canon City, Colorado, when a loud siren sounded. The time was 1 p.m. and the band was lined up in front of the prison in Canon City, most of the band members thought that this was the noon whistle.

However, shortly after the siren sounded, two men appeared on the top of the prison walls, and the sharp staccato sound of a machine gun, and the deep sound of a shot-gun filled the air. Instead of band music, hundreds of band kids watched two men die, as they fell from the high walls riddled with bullets. The two prisoners were both killed in the jailbreak, and it was quite a traumatic experience for the Spearman bandmen who witnessed the event.

The band went ahead to win 2nd place out of 60 bands in the marching concert.

Meanwhile, the Spearman Choir, all 82 of them had quite an experience on their trip to Six Flags Over Texas. Choir director Ed Howk said the bus that they took to Six Flags broke down just 10 miles south of Shamrock.

Wheeler County Deputy Sheriff George Hooten picked Choir Director Ed Howk up and carried him to Samnorwood, where they arranged to borrow a bus from Samnorwood to go on to Six Flags in Supt. Cunningham then took a bus to Samnorwood for them to use while Spearman had their bus borrowed.

Despite all of the problems over the weekend for the band and choir, all of the kids reported having an excellent time and their chaperons stated that this was the finest bunch of kids in the state of Texas.

Resolve To Keep Better Records

Boy Scout Troop 51 met Wednesday April 28 with Scoutmasters Harry Stumpf and Earl Goodheart. Seventeen boys were present. A trip to Lake Fryer was planned so that the boys may learn scouting skills. Advancements were worked on and games enjoyed.

Remember your resolution that you made a couple of weeks ago when you filed your tax return? You can also recall that you didn't keep good records after resolving to do it last year and the year before. Just about everybody will agree with you that going through a mess of stuff to make up your tax return is a mess. However, if you are going to keep good records this year you need to start now.

ANNUAL MOTHER-DAUGHTER TEA STAGED BY GIRL SCOUTS

Friday evening, April 30 Spearman Girl Scouts and their mothers gathered in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church for the annual mother daughter tea. The serving table was covered with a white hand crocheted lace over a yellow underlay. The centerpiece of yellow and white flowers decorated the table. Scouts alternated in serving cookies and punch as mothers arrived.

Mrs. George Rook opened the evening with Tammy Rook reading a poem "The Green Angel" in honor of all the leaders. Brownie Troop 14 and Brownie Troop 3 sang some songs. Junior Troop 28 displayed the puns they have been working on. Miss Edna LaDue and Mrs. Liz Martin of Guymon were guest speakers for the evening and presented a movie on Boiling Springs State Park near Woodward, Okla. where the girls will spend some time at camp this summer.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the "Mother of the Year" Awards to the Brownie and Junior Mother. The girls had submitted themes on why they thought that their mother should be "Mother of the Year" and these were judged accordingly. The Brownie Award was presented to Mrs. Darrell McCoy for her daughter Sabra's theme: which follows:

"I think my mother is the best mother in the world. Because she spans me when I need it. She lets me watch T.V. a lot. She lets me make cakes. She kisses me goodnight. She works hard to help us make a living. She cooks and washes clothes. She listens to me play piano. After work she plays games with me. She makes sure the beds are clean, so we won't get any germs. She teaches me what's right and what's wrong. Especially she loves me."

The Junior Award was presented to Mrs. Jack Moran for her daughter Jonell's theme:

"I think my mother should be mother of the year because she takes time from her house work to teach scouting. My mother washes and irons my clothes and keeps them very clean. My mother cooks delicious meals for me so that I will grow up to be a very healthy woman. When I do something wrong my mother doesn't just get the paddle and spank me, but she talks it over with me and tells me what I did wrong. My mother takes care of me better than any mother would when her child gets sick. My mother helps me with my homework, but yet makes me do it so that I will understand what she is teaching me. When I wake up in the morning and before I go to bed at night my mother says my prayers with me. My mother goes to church and takes me with her, and because she believes in God she makes me go to church class. My mother never goes places that I cannot go or that I cannot enjoy. My mother also takes me places on vacation. My mother goes to P-TA meetings because she wants to know what I learn in school. My mother works for my daddy and for the paper. My mother makes me some beautiful clothes. My mother spends much of her time teaching me the wrongs from the rights. My mother also spends much of her time teaching me why different things happen in life. My mother tries to look nice and she tries to keep the house clean so that when my friends come over I will be proud of my house but I will be exceptionally proud of my wonderful mother. I think with my mother's teaching I will grow up to be an intelligent woman. I love my mother and I thank God for giving her to me. I think my mother should be mother of the year because she is the best mother in the world."

Say "Happy Mother's Day" the thoughtful way...

with a useful electric gift

When you give something electrical, you help make Mother's work lighter and living better the year around. Choose something to make her kitchen chores easier such as a food mixer, roaster, toaster or electric fry pan. Or select something for her personal use such as an electric hair dryer, hair set, or manicure set. Or give her help with the big jobs of homemaking with an electric dryer, dishwasher or range. Whatever you choose, it will be a lasting reminder of your thoughtfulness if it's electric.

The Rev. Williams has accepted a call as pastor of the Fellowship Baptist Church of Spearman. He is the former assistant pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland where he served for 2 years. Rev. Williams and his wife, Sheila, are graduates of the Baptist Bible College of Springfield, Missouri.

The Fellowship Baptist Church invites everyone to attend Rev. Williams' first service as pastor on May 16th. There will be dinner on the ground at noon to welcome the new pastor and family.

"Dear Editor,"

Letter to the Editor: Dear Sir:

I have read dozens of newspaper stories and "letters to the Editor" and not one have I seen which discussed Amendment One fairly or even objectively.

Amendment One was prepared by a group of citizens throughout the state even before our present legislature was elected. The Ethics Commission which would be so created would be appointed by the Judiciary over which legislators have absolutely no control.

The big lie which has been carried by all state papers in its "letters to the Editor" reflect this is a subterfuge for legislators to get a pay raise. The facts are salaries will be left as they are or adjusted only by the Ethics Commission. The legislature has only the power to accept or reject any change.

The truth of the matter is this plan has worked well in many states in giving a fine balance of representation in the legislature.

Finally, why have Texas resisted all efforts to raise legislators' salaries? The answer is simple. Obviously any effort on the part of us, as legislators, to campaign for a raise would be resented. As a result those who fall for the communist line "that all elected officials are bad", have their heyday.

TEXAS MEAT INSPECTION CERTIFIED EQUAL TO FEDERAL

COLLEGE STATION, April 29--The U.S. Department of Agriculture last week certified the Texas meat inspection program equal to the federal one, making the state responsible for inspecting its own intrastate meat slaughtering and processing plants.

The certification will affect 582 plants in the state under laws of the Texas Legislature and in agreement with the 1967 Wholesome Meat Act.

The 1967 law required all state plants to reach the federal requirements by December 1970 to retain their own state inspection. Surveys were made in the state by federal meat inspection officials and Texas didn't meet the federal standards.

Notice was then given in early February that federal inspectors would assume all inspection in the state's plants.

Later reviews indicated that Texas was enforcing inspection requirements at least equal to federal ones.

Texas meat inspection officials, directed by Dr. A. B. Rich, did an amazing job in bringing Texas standards up to federal levels according to Woodrow W. Bailey, Extension livestock and meats specialist.

Bailey added that Texas was far behind some of the other states in meat inspection when the Wholesome Meat Act was passed.

He also noted that state inspection officials had to hire and train about 600 new inspectors in less than one year.

Bailey explained that Texas meat inspectors will try to continue improving all phases of inspection and there will be no relaxation in requirements since Texas standards have been certified as equal to federal.

Half of the State's budget for meat inspection will come from matching federal funds, according to officials in the USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

West Virginia's meat inspection program was also certified equal to federal last week, bringing to 44 the number of states which have achieved "equal to" meat inspection status, Bailey noted.

"Grocer" Dates Back To 14th Century

COLLEGE STATION--Pepper and spice trading in 14th century England gave us our modern word "grocer", reports Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension specialist in consumer marketing.

After peppercorns made the 4000-mile trip from the mysterious East to London, they were bought and sold by the Guild of Peppers by the gross, similar to present day wholesale methods, she says.

Peddlers purchased pepper from the "Grossers", and in turn, sold to housewives at country-wide fairs honoring various saints.

In mid 14th century, the Guild of Peppers formed the Worshipful Company of Grocers, in order to increase love and unity among the peppers as well as creating binding rules for members.

According to Mrs. Clyatt, one of the rules read: "All merchandise shall be weighed fairly so that the weigher shall remove his hands therefrom."

Texas Legislature joined this week in urging that each of the 181 Senators and Representatives work for Amendment 3 in their home districts.

Amendment 3 would change the constitutional ceiling on public assistance payments--removing the adult aged, blind and disabled from any ceiling and placing a new $55 million ceiling on Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

"Lt. Governor Ben Barnes urges each Senator to work through his district leadership to interpret and enlist support for Amendment 3 in the May 18 election," said a statement from the coordinating committee of Texas Citizens for Welfare Reform.

"Speaker of the House Gus Mutscher urged this week that each Representative seek hometown support for Amendment 3 by interpreting the facts involved regarding Texas needy aged, blind, disabled and its dependent school age children."

Other support for No. 3 came from William Hobby, prominent Houston publisher and recent chairman of the Senate Interim Committee on Welfare Reform. "One of our conclusions was no one is on welfare in Texas by his own choice. He's on because he has desperate financial and medical needs beyond his capacity to provide. There is an emergency today in Texas that can be relieved if we pass Amendment 3 on May 18," Hobby said in a statement prepared for radio use throughout Texas.

Statewide organizations who have endorsed No. 3 and are working for its adoption include: The League of Women Voters of Texas, Texas AFL-CIO, Texas Division of the American Association of University Women, Texas Conference of Churches, Community Relations Council of the Jewish Welfare Federation, Christian Life Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Texas Association of Homes for the Aging, Texas United Community Services, Texas Catholic Conference, and the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

The TCWR said a number of Texas daily newspapers and Radio-TV stations are supporting No. 3 and urging voter support through their media facilities.

Price Asking Drouth Help For Farmers

Congressman Bob Price has dispatched letters to the Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary of Treasury, and Director of the Office of Management and Budget requesting them to lower interest rates immediately on agricultural loans. "There is an urgent need in the Texas Panhandle and other drouth stricken areas of the state and nation for low interest, long term credit for people in agriculture to escape bankruptcy," Price said in his letters. Price contacted the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Treasury with regard to Farmers Home Administration loan rates. "I have recently toured portions of Oklahoma and Texas with Secretary of Agriculture, Clifford Hardin, and Director George Lincoln of the Office of Emergency Preparedness. The devastating drouth damage is very evident." The 18th District congressman also urged the Administration officials to actively support his proposals which would allow Farmers Home Administration to insure operating loans made to farmers and ranchers by private lenders and increase the loan limitation per borrower from $35,000 to $50,000. "My bills would increase the amount of funds available for farm and ranch operating loans without requiring any expenditures of tax funds. If have urged the Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee to expediate this legislation because of the desperate needs for credit at the present time," Price said.

Also, Texas farmers are apprehensive that not enough moisture will fall for planting crops or to bring up crops "dry planted." In some places, it is already too late. Prior to April 12, over 60 counties had been recommended for designation as "disaster areas," which can bring federal relief; and all the 254 counties in Texas may qualify for that designation soon. Figures compiled in the Texas Department of Agriculture under Commissioner White's direction show that no section of the State has received more than 41 percent of normal rainfall in the months of November, December, January, February, and March. The extreme northern tier of counties in the Texas Panhandle had the 41 percent of average rainfall, while counties in the Southern High Plains nearby received only 11 percent of normal rainfall. Snow accounted for most of the moisture in the northern Counties. Extreme South Texas, where vegetable and citrus crops not irrigated have been endangered, has received about 20 percent or less of average rainfall, and in those counties, an average of less than an inch of rain has fallen during the first four months of 1971. In almost all sections of the state, rainfall for the past five months has been less than 25 percent of normal. Commissioner White said the Texas Department of Agriculture is working closely with other state agencies to assure appropriate drouth relief. Designation of a "disaster area" makes farmers and ranchers eligible for low-interest federal loans and possibly for emergency livestock feeds.

AUSTIN--The severest drouth in recent history--and one that gives indications it may become a history maker--has everyone concerned, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White commented in reviewing conditions over the State for the five months of November, December, January, February and March. "Cattlemen have been culling their herds for weeks, he said, while hoping for rains to bring up spring grasses so that it would not be necessary to feed the cattle remaining in their herds. That hope has been in vain through the first three months of 1971. Also, Texas farmers are apprehensive that not enough moisture will fall for planting crops or to bring up crops "dry planted." The extreme northern tier of counties in the Texas Panhandle had the 41 percent of average rainfall, while counties in the Southern High Plains nearby received only 11 percent of normal rainfall. Snow accounted for most of the moisture in the northern Counties. Extreme South Texas, where vegetable and citrus crops not irrigated have been endangered, has received about 20 percent or less of average rainfall, and in those counties, an average of less than an inch of rain has fallen during the first four months of 1971. In almost all sections of the state, rainfall for the past five months has been less than 25 percent of normal. Commissioner White said the Texas Department of Agriculture is working closely with other state agencies to assure appropriate drouth relief. Designation of a "disaster area" makes farmers and ranchers eligible for low-interest federal loans and possibly for emergency livestock feeds.

Drouth Covers All Of Texas

AUSTIN--The severest drouth in recent history--and one that gives indications it may become a history maker--has everyone concerned, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White commented in reviewing conditions over the State for the five months of November, December, January, February and March. "Cattlemen have been culling their herds for weeks, he said, while hoping for rains to bring up spring grasses so that it would not be necessary to feed the cattle remaining in their herds. That hope has been in vain through the first three months of 1971. Also, Texas farmers are apprehensive that not enough moisture will fall for planting crops or to bring up crops "dry planted." In some places, it is already too late. Prior to April 12, over 60 counties had been recommended for designation as "disaster areas," which can bring federal relief; and all the 254 counties in Texas may qualify for that designation soon. Figures compiled in the Texas Department of Agriculture under Commissioner White's direction show that no section of the State has received more than 41 percent of normal rainfall in the months of November, December, January, February, and March. Smith Proposes Aid For Small Town Growth

AUSTIN, Tex.--Gov. Preston Smith has endorsed a series of legislative proposals which would aid Texas industrial development programs in both rural and metropolitan areas. Gov. Smith told business and legislative leaders at a Texas Industrial Commission gathering that he favored creation of a Rural Industrial Development Finance Authority to provide direct loans to aid non-profit foundations in attracting industry to rural Texas. The authority could operate as an arm of the Commission in aiding some 230 such foundations. "Today, 49 states, all but Texas, offer some type of industrial financing incentive to aid their communities in attracting the industrial expansion so necessary to our rural communities," Gov. Smith said. Legislation to allow banks and other financial institutions to pool funds in business development corporations for financing development projects and a bill allowing cities to issue tax-exempt bonds to finance local programs for attracting industry were also endorsed by the Governor. In recent months, Texas lost no less than 18 industries with a potential employment of 6,500 because of community inability to provide competitive financing, Gov. Smith said. "I urge the passage of each of these proposals," he said. "And I am confident that no other immediate action would be a better step toward achieving balanced growth in our Texas economy." Gov. Smith made the remarks at a Texas Industrial Commission luncheon honoring three outgoing members. Retiring from the Commission were Claude Brown of McCarney, I.F. Bay of Brownwood and M.M. (Mack) Stripling of Nacogdoches. Additions to the nine-member Commission include A.H. (Stormy) Shelton of Abilene, John B. Turner of Houston and Homer Lee Bryce of Henderson.

BIG CELEBRATION RODEO EVENTS DRAW RECORD NUMBER OF PERFORMERS

CROP REPORT FROM HIGH PLAINS STA.

Four varieties of wheat--Sturdy, Caddo, Scout and Blue Boy--will be harvested for grain from the 120 acres of wheat on the Steidle Research and Demonstration Farm operated by the High Plains Research Foundation.

In a report to a Board of Trustees meeting recently, Jim Valliant, Director of Research pointed out that the wheat had not been grazed by cattle because of the late planting date.

The research and demonstration farm which the Foundation obtained January 1, 1971 was established to implement studies on farmers' income expansion through and integrated livestock program.

Valliant pointed out that objectives of the livestock demonstration programs were to investigate winter grains program alone or with legumes and a study of pasture management systems including use of irrigation, fertilizer and controlled stocking rates.

Other studies will include summer forage crops in a pasture program evaluated from a management standpoint and to evaluate the different types of grass pastures and the profitability of supplementing pasture with different grain rations.

The 480-acre farm with three eight-inch irrigation wells is located eight miles east of Plainview on the Hale Floyd County line. Land not used in swine feeding programs and pasture for cattle and hogs will be used to produce crops in grain sorghum, soybeans and other field crops for livestock feed.

This summer about 40 acres will be used to grow Foundation HP-963 and Patterson varieties of soybeans. Land preparation already has begun for the planting of approximately 300 acres in grain sorghum.

Valliant said that much of this grain sorghum acreage will be in five and ten acre variety plots so producers and feeders can get an idea of what to expect from these different varieties under field conditions.

Presently lagoons and pens for 200 feeder pigs have been constructed and 204 head of teeders have been placed in a test comparing Triticale to grain sorghum as a feed ration base.

Already underway is the establishment of a sow operation and 15 gilts are now on pasture. It also is expected that studies will be conducted this summer on feeding pigs on temporary pastures.

Also underway is preparation for development of permanent winter and summer grass pastures and underground irrigation pipe on a cost-share basis through the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Valliant stressed that the Steidle Research and Demonstration Farm will be a working farm and like other operations would grow as it becomes able to stand on its own footings.

Income for the first quarter 1971 was 11 per cent higher than for the same period 1970.

John R. Hill Jr., president and chief executive officer of the diversified communications materials firm recorded income of $1,934,000 for the first three months of this year compared to $986,000 for the first quarter of last year.

Sales and revenues for the first quarter this year were $23,377,000, up 22 per cent over the $19,204,000 recorded in the first quarter of 1970.

Net income per share of common stock rose 8 per cent to 28 cents in the first quarter of last year. The average price of common shares rose from 3,740,000 to 3,769,000 in the first quarter.

Hill said the period ended marked one of the best first quarters in the company's 45-year history in sales and earnings.

"One of the contributing factors for the increases is the sales and production activity for the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport," Hill said.

Hill recently received a contract for an additional 20,000 cubic yards of concrete.

Junior Butler, S. C. A secretary, Wednesday signed up cowboys to participate in the big 3-day Rodeo, The Woodward, Okla. man said more riders would participate here than in past years. Rodeo events are set for 8:30 each evening, Thursday, Friday & Saturday at the Spearman arena.

Pictured above with Butler, is Eddie Stewart, rodeo chairman. Eddie said the following firms and business men were responsible for performance prizes and belt buckles: Clifton Cattle Co., Waymon Etheredge, Sparks Bros. Spraying Service, Cattleman's Cafe, Hansford Feeders, Douglas Dry Goods, Panhandle Veterinary Clinic, Spearman Drug, Wilmett Cattle Co., J. L. Brock Insurance, Cummings Refrigeration, B & B Sales, Pearl's Smorgasbord, M & M Grocery.

Ballots On Wheat Election Ready At Agent's Office

Wheat producers in Hansford County who desire to vote absentee in the upcoming wheat referendum and producer board election will be able to do so at the County Extension Office beginning April 27, according to County Agricultural Agent, Bert Adamson.

Ballots available to producers who want to vote absentee in the election will be available at the County Extension Office on May 11 at the courthouse in Spearman.

Mr. Adamson points out that the Texas Commissioner of Agriculture has certified the TWPA to hold such a referendum and election and that a two-thirds favorable vote will be required to enact the self-assessment program. If the program is approved, the nine-man producers board will have total authority for the collection, use and accounting of all funds and the implementation of programs designed to strengthen wheat growers income.

The agent states that the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's part in this wheat referendum is strictly educational. The issue is to be decided by Wheat Producers.

W.R. Murrell of Gruver, Hansford county leader of the Amarillo-based Texas Wheat Producers Association said today that "Individual farmers are showing an increasing interest in the forthcoming wheat referendum and producer board election as a step toward strengthening their income from wheat through stronger organized producer efforts."

Wheat farmers in 34 counties of Texas that normally produce 75% of the state's 50 million bushel wheat crop vote Tuesday, May 11 in a referendum and promotion referendum. If passed by 2/3 of the growers voting, an assessment of not more than 5 mills per bushel will be made at the first point of sale on all wheat marketed in the area. Proceeds from the program, if passed, will be invested in research in production and marketing, disease and insect control, and market development at home and abroad.

The referendum is being sponsored by the Texas Wheat Producers Association on certification by John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture under authority of the Texas Commodity Referendum Act of 1969, passed by the 61st Legislature.

Leo Witkowski, Hereford, President, Texas Wheat Producers Association, said that "wheat has been a declining crop in Texas the past few years from the standpoint of acreage planted, harvested and marketed." He pointed out that "This decline has been very costly in terms of loss in income, not only to the producer, but also to the elevator handling wheat, and to the entire agricultural economy dealing in servicing, financing, transporting, and supplying the wheat farmer. Passage of this wheat referendum would provide funds to initiate development projects which might help in reversing the decline in the wheat industry and increase producer income from wheat."

"Passage of the Wheat Producers Referendum in Texas is a must," according to State Representative Delwin Jones of Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Jones, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Texas House of Representatives, stated, "Those of us in state and national legislative bodies are really concerned about their problems. When insects, disease, and other problems need immediate attention, the legislature is usually willing to help solve them when farmers themselves show enough concern to help with the costs, such as could be done with passage of the wheat referendum."

Since passage of the 1969 Commodity Referendum Act, successfully led through the legislature by Representative Jones, producers of peanuts, turkeys, grain sorghum and soybeans have held referendums and voted self-assessments for research and promotion of their commodities.

Mr. Carl Dumker, President of Great Plains Wheat, Inc., which conducts market expansion programs abroad for U.S. wheat producers, recently reported that "we could hasten the acceptance of types, quality and purchase of wheat grown in the United States by many potential foreign users if we had a larger budget to work with--foreign market development is a lot harder today than it was even five years ago, so the American farmer will have to work harder through commodity groups like Texas Wheat Producers Association to get and keep his share of the expanding wheat markets around the world."

The percentage of the funds generated by the program, if passed, that will be directed toward insect and disease control, foreign and domestic market development and production of marketing research will be determined by a 9-man producer board elected on the same ballot as the assessment. Fourteen producers names, from as many counties in the Rolling Plains, South Plains and North Plains areas, will appear on the ballot from which the nine will be elected.

Voting will be conducted at the county courthouse in all 34 counties between 8:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m., Tuesday, May 11. In addition, absentee ballots may be obtained at the County Extension Agent's office in each of the designated counties between now and the May 11 deadline.

Names appearing on the ballot for selection of the 9-man board include: John Cogdell, Crowell (Foard); W. R. Moore, Jr., Munday (Knox); Dwight Hamilton, Olney (Young); Winston Wilson, Quanah (Hardeman); Kenneth Kendrick, Stratford (Sherman); Delbert Timmons, Perryton (Ochiltree); C. L. Edwards, Panhandle (Carson); Henry J. Hamly, Pampa (Gray); N. F.

ber. The bars will sell for a dollar each.

A State 4-H Center is badly needed since the Texas 4-H program does not own any type of training or camping facility. The proposed center is being developed by the Texas 4-H Foundation, and will cost approximately 1 million dollars. It will accommodate about 175 people. The center will be a focal point for camping-type programs, 4-H leader training, citizenship seminars, leadership training labs, international 4-H activities, project training and other Extension Service activities. When not in use by 4-H, the center will be available to other groups with educational purposes.

While the 4-H'ers themselves make their contribution, a statewide development council composed of business leaders will help raise the balance of the funds.

Registration for the competition-the Official Major League Baseball Pitch, Hit and Throw Competition (PH&T) began in this area on April 8th.

Now in its second year,

PH&T is sponsored by Major League Baseball in conjunction with Phillips Petroleum Company and local Phillips 66 dealers.

Registration will continue through May 20 and local contests will be held in May, according to Everett Tracy, of Golden Spread Sales Co., the PH&T coordinator for Spearman.

Tracy said he expects that several hundred boys from this area will register for the competition.

Each boy competes with boys of his own age in three events--pitching for accuracy, hitting for distance and throwing for accuracy. Winners are determined on the basis of total scores.

Local winners will advance to district contests on June 5 (or 6) at Amarillo. Winners from there will go to division competition at a major league ballpark on a weekend in June.

The eight boys who will go to the All-Star Game to compete for four national championships--with four representing the National League and four the American League--will be picked from the highest scorers among the division winners.

The eight finalists, in addition to competing before the All-Star Game audience, will be the guests of the sponsors, with their parents, for the trip to Detroit and they'll all have box seats for the game. The boys also will meet many of the All-Star players, at the game and at a banquet in their honor the preceding evening.

Winners and runners-up at every level--including the local winners--will receive handsome plaques and jacket patches. At the division level, each participant from this area will compete in a junior-size baseball uniform loaned for the purpose.

They also will be feted at a banquet with major league stars and taken on a sightseeing tour.

May 1 Wedding Vows Exchanged By Miss Noreen Sutton, Mr. Dean Stokes

A three o'clock ceremony performed May 1 in the Spearman Apostolic Faith Church united in marriage Miss Noreen Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sutton of Spearman and Mr. Dean Stokes of Paducah. He is the son of Mrs. Jess Edwards of Paducah.

The Reverend James E. Wallis of Liberal, Kansas, read the double ring service before baskets of spring cut flowers and branched candelabra trimmed with greenery and white bows. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

Organist Eddie Gale Martin rendered traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. J. L. Brock who sang "With All My Love I Thee Endow", "Somewhere" and "Day of Golden Promise."

Miss Darleen Sutton served her sister as bridesmaid. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Jamie Creamer. Kellie Stokes and Desiree Stokes, daughters of the groom, served as candle-lighter and flower girl, respectively.

Mr. Jamie Creamer was Best Man. Omar Sutton, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Cousins of the bride, Robert Greever and Doug Elliott were ushers.

Bridal attendants were all dressed alike in floor length summer gowns of green and white dotted swiss over green nylon trimmed in green velvet. Each wore green and white hair and carried bouquets of yellow, white and pink roses tied with green ribbons. The flower girl and the candle-lighter wore white daisy corsages.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an old-fashioned wedding gown designed and made by her mother. The gown, fashioned from white dotted swiss, was trimmed at the neck, sleeve cuffs and hemline with imported eyelet lace. The floor length veil which extended into a chapel train, was held in place by a soft-brimmed hat trimmed in daisies and ribbons. She carried a white Bible topped with a cascade bouquet of red, white and pink roses laced with sea lavender static and babies breath and tied with old fashioned white lace streamers. She wore the traditional blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe, a gift from a cousin.

Mrs. Herbert Butt and Mrs. J.R. Keim hosted a reception honoring the couple immediately following the ceremony in the hospitality room at the First State Bank. The serving table was draped in a hand made linen cut work cloth and centered with a bouquet of daisies, roses and static in a crystal bowl. Crystal candelabra holding pink tapers flanked the centerpiece.

Mr. Joe Hendricks poured punch from the crystal punch service and Mrs. Charles Martin served the cake.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Dallas and points south, the bride was wearing an orchid and white pantsuit and a corsage lifted from her wedding bouquet. After May 11, they will be at home in Waka, Texas where the groom is employed as a building contractor.

The bride attended Panhandle A & M College and is a graduate of the International School of Hairdressing, Amarillo, Texas.

Out of town guests registered at the wedding by Edith Carson included Rev. and Mrs. James Wallis, Liberal, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Emery Elliott and family of Texhoma, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elliott from Hardesty, Okla.; Mrs. Glen Miller, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grandon of Phoenix, Ariz.

Kathy Innis Honored With Bridal Shower

Miss Kathy Innis, bride-elect of Mr. Steve Slater, both of Spearman, was honored with a bridal shower in the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank, Friday evening April 30.

The serving table was laid with a blue net cover trimmed with blue and white ribbon and centered with white daisies. Cheryl Montgomery and Charlotte Sims served the sherbet punch, cookies and mints.

Rhonda Sutton registered guests.

Corsages of white daisies were presented to Kathy; Mrs. Bill Innis, Mrs. Cecil Slater, and to Kathy's grandmother, Mrs. John Innis.

Mrs. Innis and Mrs. Slater assisted Kathy with the opening of the shower gifts.

"YOU NAME IT"
by Billy Miller

We are going to have a real fine celebration this year, and I can't hardly wait until the big Parade starts in main street. Saturday is the main event, and of course, the parade and Queen contest will be equally as exciting. The theme of this year's celebration is "This Land of Ours." And, we have dug up some of the old files that we can use and are running all of the old features on how "This Land of Ours" really began in Hansford County, and surrounding area. Of course, the parade will be a local Spearman Rolling Mule Train and the Spearman High School Sweepstakes band. This will be the time that the Spearman band has performed in the parade in so many years, I don't remember the last time. In conjunction with our special celebration issue this week, I visited the "Adobe Walls" battleground site last Sunday evening. The Indians were our really first great Americans and the Cheyennes and Comanches who attacked the old Adobe Walls fort, were doing only what they thought was the right thing to do. They were fighting and dying for the land they so dearly loved. And, it is with pride that we salute these Indians, who were the first "lovers" of This Land of Ours. The Indian loved this land as much or more than the white man, and they loved the buffalo, the clear water fishing lakes, and the beautiful trees that abound in the area in and around Hansford County. There is much Indian country near Spearman, to the North, East and South. I have personally spent many happy hours roaming over the fields in this area hunting arrow heads. And, I have found many of them and it gives me a thrill to wonder which Indian made one of the arrow-heads that I had found. But, time and tide wait for no man and the Indian has long since been driven from this land his. And the white man with his wonderful ways has taken over. Recently we featured a story on an Indian skeleton that was un-earthed a few miles south of Spearman. This Indian skeleton, 700 years old, was the first corn farmer probably in this land of ours. And remember, it was the Indian who loved and raised maize in our country. The pioneers of our land, for the most part, were renegades, law-breakers, horse thieves, and about any other type of person you could describe "undesirable." Of course, some of our fore-fathers were Christian gentlemen and I think you will enjoy the historical features on the church's in our area. And, I especially enjoyed seeing the oldtime "Hells Angels" on their motorcycles in this paper. Also, read about the beginning of our Hansford Hospital.

8TH GRADE CLASS VOTES FOR TRIP

The Spearman Eighth Grade Class voted unanimously for a trip to Palo Duro Canyon instead of having the traditional banquet. The money for the trip was earned during the Spearman basketball tournament where the students and their mothers worked at the concession stand. With the money remaining the students hope to purchase a gift that will benefit junior high's educational needs. The students will leave Thursday, May 13, at 8:00 and return to Spearman around 5:00. Entertainment for the trip includes the sky lift, horse back riding, and the Sad Monkey Train. The students will be carrying sack lunches. Soft drinks will be furnished. The sponsors include Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Alford, Mr. McGee and Mr. Pearcy.

Mr. Bozeman is the son of Mr. G.L. Bozeman of Canyon, Texas, and Mrs. Winifred Bozeman of Perryton. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G.M. Cooper of Perryton. He is married to the former Patricia Chaffey, also a musician, who is from Phillips, West Va.

Pipe Organ Recital Sunday At Oslo Lutheran Church

A recital of organ music will be performed by George Bozeman, Jr. at the Oslo Lutheran Church, 3:00 p.m. Sunday, May 9th. The church is located in the Oslo community, six miles west, eleven miles north and one mile west of Gruver. Mr. Bozeman, a native of the Texas Panhandle, now lives in Andover, Massachusetts, and works for the Noack Organ Company, Inc., in Georgetown, Massachusetts. Other recitals to be presented in Texas are at St. James Episcopal Church in Taylor May 2, St. John's Episcopal Church in Marlin May 3, Good Shepherd Episcopal Church in Terrell May 4, and Matthews Memorial Presbyterian Church in Albany May 13. Earlier this year Mr. Bozeman played a recital at the Memorial Church of Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Music to be heard at Oslo Sunday will include works by J.S. Bach, Johann Pachelbel, Gaspard Corrette, Louis Vierne and Daniel Pinkham. Special effort will be made to give a glimpse of the broad scope of organ music styles in all of their variety. Several pieces based on familiar hymn tunes will be heard. George Bozeman, Jr. grew up in Tullia, Texas, where he began his musical studies with Mrs. W.R. Humphreys. He began playing the organ for the First Methodist Church in Tullia at the age of twelve and studied organ with Margaret Helny of Amarillo. His first organ recital was sponsored by the American Guild of Organists at Polk Street Methodist Church, in 1954. Later studies included four years at North Texas State University in Denton where he studied organ with Dr. Helen Hewitt, and a term as a Fulbright student at the Academy of Music in Vienna, Austria. Since 1959, Mr. Bozeman has been active as an organ builder working with Otto Hofmann of Austin, Joseph E. Blanton of Albany, Texas, and Robert L. Sipe, Inc., of Dallas. He has been employed by the Noack Organ Company since 1968. Mr. Bozeman has maintained, in addition to organ building and concertizing, a career as a church musician with posts at First Methodist Church, Tullia, First Presbyterian Church, Denton, Park Cities Baptist Church, Dallas, Matthews Memorial Presbyterian Church, Albany, First United Presbyterian Church, Breckenridge, and presently at First Congregational Church in Woburn, Massachusetts. He is a member of the Boston Organ Club, the Organ Historical Society, an associate member of the International Society of Organbuilders whose Congress he attended last October in Zurich, and is an editor of Art of the Organ, a quarterly journal for those with a serious interest in the organ. The organ of Oslo Lutheran Church is unique in many ways. It is the first organ with mechanical action (as opposed to electric action) to be installed in the Panhandle in modern days. It is also the only organ in the area that is self-contained in a handsome, furniture quality case, with polished tin front pipes. Perhaps its greatest distinction is the collection of pipes, made of mahogany, zinc, copper, and tin, imported from Holland and Germany, which have been painstakingly voiced for an unusually vivacious and authentic performance of great organ music. Also noteworthy are the acoustics of the church with its oak paneled ceiling and stone floor. The organ was built by Robert L. Sipe, Inc. of Dallas. Mr. Sipe's reputation for a continuing series of successes such as the Oslo organ became so well known that shortly after the completion of the Oslo project, his firm became a part of the nationally famous Aeolian-Skinner Organ Company of Boston, where he is now vice president. Sunday's performance on the Oslo organ will mark the first hearing of the instrument for the general public, with a guest organist. A free will offering will be received.

Are there still people around who recall the great government cattle shooting episode during the summer of 1934? For use in a serious research of Texas weather, the Associate Professor at Texas Tech is trying to learn everything possible about the drought and depression of the 1930's and he is especially interested in the cattle-destroying episode. Oral accounts and photographs of this would be most welcome. If you can help at all, please let me know.

NO MATTER HOW compulsively Americans spend money, it's not likely they will be able to deplete the government's supply. Printers in the treasury at Washington daily combine 40,000 pounds of paper with two and a half tons of ink to produce $50 million in currency.

I suppose this much money is printed daily to replace some of those old bills which are unfit for circulation, what with all this "air pollution" talk going around these days, someone raised the question as to what Uncle Sam would do with all this unusable currency to keep it from going up in smoke. The law states that unfit currency must be destroyed only by incineration. With all this money to burn, the treasurer is studying new methods of destroying the annual $9 billion worth of torn and tattered paper money. You'll never guess what they came up with.

They found a pulverization process which reduces the unfit currency to an unrecognizable pulp. Hopefully, the residue might be recycled for industrial use--including insulating material. Just think of the secure feeling you would have of living in a home which could be padded with millions of dollars.

REMEMBER SEVERAL years ago when Jesse Davis, John Bishop and others in this city were receiving letters from an unidentified person who signed these clever epistles "Gus Goosegrease?" Postmarked from various places, no one could ever guess who the sender was. Well, a few weeks ago Ray Robertson received a long letter from Mal Gunter, a former Spearman resident. Mal was talking over old times and past experiences while working with his friend Billy Brandt here in Spearman and mentioned that Billy Brandt was the writer of all the Goosegrease letters. He would send them to Mal, and Mal would mail them back to Spearman to the addressee. The mystery has been solved.

A NEW PERMANENT press has been developed for cotton fabrics... and I am looking forward to it. I hope it has better features than the process we now have. I get so aggravated when I press with an iron that is a little too hot. Something "sticky" rolls up in little balls all over the fabric, and if you get a crease just a little "off", it is just too bad. Another bad feature about our current permanent press fabric is that you can never let a hem out, the crease is there for good. The new process called "Ameriset" involves a vapor treatment applied to finished garments in a gas chamber. The treatment takes about 20 minutes. The uniqueness of the process is that fabrics aren't treated with chemicals or resins. Instead, garments are treated after the fabric has been cut, sewn, and pressed. As a result, all the findings--thread, pockets and trimmings--are treated at the same time, taking on all the permanent press characteristics of the fabric. The new system can be used by homemakers as well as by industry. Necessary equipment can be installed in neighborhood laundries to service the vast home sewer market. Another major advantage of the "Ameriset" process is that the vapor treatment can be applied by local retailers after a garment has been altered and pressed.

The permanent press garments currently marketed are almost impossible to alter since shape and creases are already built into the garment before it reaches the store. This new process will let your garment retain permanent press characteristics through a minimum of 20 machine washings and tumble dryings. And, the process is equally applicable to wovens and knits, as shrinkage is virtually non-existent.

So, all you sewers need now is a gas chamber and you'll have it made. Permanent. We live in an age of constant change. I suppose just about the time we get used to this new process, they'll come up with something even better.

I am sure to enjoy the garments treated with this new process. I certainly won't ever make a garment to be treated, for they've never made a sewing machine yet that I could use. I'm waiting for the engineers to come up with a dish rag that won't wear out.
