Death Claims County's Oldest Native Resident

Mrs. Hazel Eliza Morton, 70, died Saturday night in Hansford Hospital. She was Hansford County's oldest native resident.

Mrs. Morton was born in a dugout at Old Hansford in 1892, to parents Mr. and Mrs. Mel Wright. She has been a life-long resident of the county. She graduated in 1911 at West Texas State College and taught schools at both McKibbin and Hansford for many years. In 1921 she married the late R. W. Morton.

During World War one, Mrs. Morton worked as a stenographer in the army hospital at Corpus Christi under Civil Service when this government agency was first organized. She was very active in civic work in the community, working with the library board and county historical society. She was a charter member of the Twentieth Century Club and a member of the Spearman Methodist Church.

Funeral rites were conducted from the First United Methodist Church at 2 p. m., Tuesday, December 7, with pastor, Rev. Wesley Daniel officiating. Burial was in Old Hansford Cemetery by Boxwell Brothers. Survivors include one son, Bob of Denver; three daughters Mrs. Betty Rutledge of Beaverton, Oregon; Mrs. Lois Lemons of Panhandle and Mrs. Lorene Powell of Amarillo; one sister Vashli McMurry of Victoria, Texas and four grandchildren.

The grand jury heard evidence concerning John Stewart and Larry Crawford, charged with forging checks on the Crane Roofing Company. The jury also took up the matter of Sonny Vann, charged with burglary of Wyatt's Station and theft of pickup belonging to Roy Gene Boyd.

Other evidence heard concerned John Ray Albertson, charged with theft of radios and equipment belonging to R. C. Thompson, a custom harvester from Oklahoma. Albertson is in custody of the Sheriff's office at Kalso, Washington, waiting extradition.

Members of the grand jury were Joel Stavlo, Bobby Wills, Mrs. James Stedje, Loyd Turner, Mrs. Gertrude Jones, Billy Mack Logsdon, Joe Reising, Mrs. Virginia Head, E. T. Rafferty, Leon Hobbs and Buena Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin attended the Saturday performance of the National Finals Rodeo at Oklahoma City.

Wettest November On Record

Spearman received its first major snowstorm of the season December 1 and 2 when Old Man Winter dumped an official eight inches over the entire Panhandle region.

The snow, which began falling Wednesday afternoon, continued through the night and for most of the day Thursday. There was no wind accompanying the storm, and the deep snowfall stacked up on every available surface. Fence posts, patio furniture and cars looked as if they had "inches of white fluffy frosting."

The no-drifting created fewer problems than do snowfalls which are swept along by stiff northerly winds. However, travel was at a minimum throughout the area. School buses did not run Thursday nor Friday, but city pupils attended regular classes. Schools were dismissed early both days.

Official weather observer Bill Haden measured 8 inches of snow, which melted out to 0.82 inches of moisture.

Little or no sun has shown here since the snow. Daytime temperatures since December 1 have hovered in the low 30's. Monday's high of 42 degrees has been the warmest, and much of the snow melted from city streets, but froze solid again as night-time temperatures plunged to a cold 14--the lowest of the season thus far. Huge, elongated icicles hang from every porch and rooftop, creating beautiful ice-palace pictures around the town.

Although the snow creates a great moisture bed for the already wet wheat, the additional moisture continues to multiply problems for farmers who have not yet harvested milo.

Heavy rains earlier had called a halt to the harvest, estimated at 80-90 percent complete. The snowfall moisture pushes even further into the future the time that combines can again roll.

Cattlemen with livestock on wheat pasture are experiencing weight loss on their animals due to snow-covered wheat and cold temperatures. No reports of cattle loss due to the storm have been received so far. Stockmen say they notice cattle are beginning to get sore feet from bogging around in the snow and ice, but evidently death loss is at a low minimum here.

Because of the abundance of lush wheat pasture, Hansford County probably has more cattle this year than in many years past.

The snow of the past week saw all the county road clearing equipment on duty 24-hours around the clock. Hansford County has some 700 miles of roads, and all these were kept open.

During the day and night time hours, four army trucks equipped with snow plows were placed in action. These Army-surplus trucks recently purchased by the County, are equipped with 10-wheel drive power and "can really do the job" said county judge Johnnie Lee. Lee said the county was better prepared than ever for blizzards.

A great radio system, plus the army trucks, nine motor graders, four bulldozers and the emergency transportation vehicle--an Army "weasel"--makes for a pretty good fleet of snow-moving equipment.

The Weasel was not employed during the storm, but it is available if ever needed, the Judge and head of the county civil defense system said.

The Army Weasel is a great vehicle in the snow. These machines are available through Army surplus and four local cattlemen have purchased these for precautionary measure against the time when vehicles cannot get to stranded cattle. Joel Lackey, Dee Allen, Carl Archer, and O. C. Holt have ordered these machines which are due to arrive here next week.

Cattlemen remember back in February when the 18 inches of snow made it virtually impossible to get feed to cattle, either by horse or truck.

Weather men predict "more of the same" for the upcoming week-end. Total amount of moisture recorded during the month just past was a whopping 5.19 inches. Here at the newspaper office, weather moisture charts go back to the year 1880, and this is the wettest November on record. In fact, the only other five inch November measurement came in the year 1905 when 5.08 inches was recorded. November is always a "dry" month, with very little moisture ever recorded since 1880.

With November's 5.19 inches, the year's total moisture stood at 19.70 inches. The way things look now, this county might reach the average 21.53 inches by the end of the year.

December's weather chart follows:

Date	hi	lo	precip.
Dec. 1	33	30	.37
Dec. 2	31	26	.45
Dec. 3	30	23
Dec. 4	37	20
Dec. 5	33	26
Dec. 6	42	14

CITY STREET RECEIVES ALL-WEATHER TOPPING

The County Commissioners court agreed to work over this section of 7th street for the City of Spearman and workers completed the job last week before the snow fell. The extension of 7th street is located from highway 207 west to the paved county road which runs N & S in front of the Spearman animal clinic. County funds, equipment and labor were furnished and the road received a nine-inch topping of concrete to put this much-used road up in top shape and all-weather proof. "Kudos" to the commissioners for this job.

Lynxettes Win Tournament

The Spearman Lynxettes won the Friona Tourney over the weekend, rather easily. In fact, they waltzed thru the tourney, as if they were on a pair of ice skates, getting ready for the snowy weather outside.

In their championship game Saturday night, the girls won by a 56-48 count. Sheila Patterson lead all scoring with a 28 point barrage, hitting 12 of 16 free throws. Leann Shields-knight tallied 19 as she hit 3 of 9 free shots. Sharlyn Schell scored 9 points and had only one free shot and made it. The Lynxettes defeated Farwell in the first game and the Dimmitt girls in the second game by large scores. The Lynxettes had to play two games on Saturday because of the snow delaying the tournament. The Lynxettes were presented the championship trophy, along with a small one for each individual player, and Dean Weese was given a plaque for the winning coach.

While the Lynxettes were winning the tournament championship, the Lynx lost a hard fought battle for third place to Farwell 50-49. The Lynx had the lead in this game, but just couldn't hold the battling Steers back. The Lynx defeated Springslake in the opener 71-55 to advance to the second round playoff at 8:30 Friday night. They then met Friona for game No. 2 and lost to the Chiefs 53-39. After this game, they lost to Farwell in the consolation bracket 50-48 in a fine game. Ronnie Head led the Lynx in the Farwell game with 19 points and hit 3 of 6 free shots. Rickey Driscoll scored 15, and hit 5 of 8 free shots. Mike Floyd tallied 9, hitting 3 of 6 free shots. Ranch Schell hit 6 points, but missed 2 free shots. Jerry Davis hit 1 free shot out of 2. Spearman missed 12 of 24 free shots, which proved to be the difference in the game. Score by quarters: 1 2 3 4 Lynx 19 29 39 48 Farwell 11 24 35 50

Spearman's Lynx and Lynxette basketball teams will be playing this weekend in the Panhandle State College tournament at Goodwell.

The Spearman boys meet the Guymon B team Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the Panhandle State College field house. The winner of this game plays Goodwell HS Friday evening at 8:30 p. m. The loser of the Guymon-Spearman game will advance to the consolation championship Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m.

Any Spearman girls drew a first round bye and will meet the winner of the Forgan-Goodwell game Friday at 1 p. m. in the college gym. The winner of this game will play for the championship Saturday at 5 p. m., while the loser plays Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

In conjunction with the annual tournament, PSC will sponsor a free throw shooting tourney.

Any player eligible to represent his or her school, Junior or High school level, is eligible to enter this contest. Preliminaries in the free throw contest will start at 10:30 a. m., Saturday Dec. 11. The two finalists will meet during half time of the boys championship game Saturday. The winner will be presented with a trophy at the conclusion of the contest.

CHARLES GILLIAM COMPLETES FOUR YEARS WITH USAF

Charles Gilliam Jr. has completed his service with the U. S. Air Force. After having served four years, most of this time spent at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho, he received his discharge Friday, Dec. 4.

Charles Jr. said he has no immediate plans for the future, other than "just relax for a while and get used to being a civilian."

Fund Drive

At a 10:00 o'clock coffee held at the Cattleman's Steak House Tuesday December 7th, the Salvation Army started their once-a-year campaign for funds.

Mrs. Elsie Mathews, campaign chairman, has six teams of workers who will solicit businesses and selected individuals to help continue this worthy effort.

Among the workers include: Don Knox, Bob English, Virginia Head, Altha Townsend, Rosa Lee Butt, Doris Jean Wilmett, Jack McWhirter, R. L. McClellan, Robert Adamson, Pat Gates, Joe Dan Bryan, Earl Goodheart, Jerry Hayes, and Brian Jones.

Also Elva Lee Sheets, Dorothy Lusby, Johnnie Lee, Darce Foshee, Marty Garnett, Verna Gail Keim, Mary Alice Gibner, Elvonna Davis, Ray Phelps, Lois Gibner, Lucille Lewis, Dorothy Davis, Dixie Tracy and Helen Etter. During this past year, the Spearman Service Unit of The Salvation Army helped over one hundred people with food, groceries, rent, utilities and in one case helped to install a plumbing system for a widow whose plumbing stopped working.

If a man, woman or child needs food or clothing to keep them warm, they need the help NOW, they don't have the time to wait for channels to work through the red tape to provide them with this aid. The Salvation Army helps others to help themselves.

Please contribute generously when you are contacted by a volunteer worker.

Accident Sunday

A stray steer out on the highway 12 miles south on highway 207, caused a 2-car accident Sunday evening.

Investigating officers said one car traveling south, driven by Rita Tilson of larger first hit the calf, and another knocking it into the path of an on-coming car traveling north. This second vehicle was driven by Lindon Riger, a soldier stationed at Ft. Riley, Kansas.

Drivers of the autos were not injured. Officers said the steer belonged to Lloyd Buzzard.

Think About This

Sunday School Lesson for December 12, 1971

You've heard it all before. But have you ever thought about it?

Harry Reasoner has thought about it, and on CBS's "Sixty Minutes" (Dec. 16, 1969) he said this:

"There are three ways to take Christmas. Cynically, as a welcome boost for the economy. Graciously, the appropriate attitude for non-Christians wishing their Christian fellow-citizens all the joys to which their belief entitles them. Or reverently. If this is the anniversary of the appearance of the Lord of the universe in the form of a helpless baby, it is a very important day.

"I suspect that a good many Christians — the priests, and the ministers, and the men who have to arrange extra seating — sometimes resent Christmas, and the Christmas-and-Easter Christians they never see at any other time. In a lot of ways, for custodians and theologians, it would be more convenient if Christmas had never happened. But it did. This fantastic annual burst of buying and giving and near hysteria is based on a quiet event that Christians believe actually happened a long time ago.

"It's a startling idea. My guess is that the whole story, that a virgin was selected by God to bear His Son as a way of showing His love — it's my guess that, in spite of the lip-service they've given to it, it's not an idea that has been popular with theologians. It's a somewhat illogical idea, and theologians love logic almost as much as they love God. It is so revolutionary a thought that it could come only from a God Who is beyond logic and beyond theology. It has a magnificent appeal.

"Almost nobody has seen God, and almost nobody has any real idea of what He is like. And the truth is that among men, the idea of seeing God and standing in the very bright light is not necessarily a very comfortable idea.

"But everybody has seen babies, and most people like them. If God wanted to be loved, as well as feared, He moved correctly here. If He wanted to know His people, as well as rule them, He moved correctly here. For a baby growing up learns all about people. If God wanted to be intimately a part of man, He moved correctly here. For the experience of birth and familyhood is our most intimate and precious experience.

"So, for Christians it is beyond logic. It is the story of the great innocence of God the Baby, God at the mercy of man. And it is a dramatic shot toward the truth, that, if it is not true, the Christians nothing is true.

"So all the bustle and putting of extra seats in churches is all right. For Christian is touched only a year, the touching is worth it. And maybe on a given Christmas, some quiet morning, the touch take. Because the one message of Christmas is the Christ story. When Christians begin again, at this time of year all its tender glory, they suffused with pride and and in a stroke of faith as fully and illogical — in the end of what they see about them as the story itself, with hope."

Harry Reasoner may or not be a Christian. But at he has contemplated the meaning of Christmas.

Judge To School

County Judge Johnnie Lee was in Austin two days last week attending a Vital Statistics school concerning birth and death records.

Judge Lee said the meeting was very informative, and county judges attending were informed of several new laws on birth records which had been passed by the last Legislature.

Judge Lee said the birth records "are probably our most important document anymore. Birth records could once be obtained by affidavit, but now must be "proved" before issuance.

In various parts of the nation, many aliens are becoming citizens by fraud, because midwives are allowed to file birth certificates. These, and many other important subjects were discussed at the school in Austin.

Betty Witcher spent last week in Oklahoma City helping care for the new grandson born to Mr. and Mrs. Rob Pendleton.

Spearman Has Interest In "Nutcracker Ballet"

One of the main roles in the scheduled production of the "Nutcracker" ballet, being presented by Tascosa High School, will be danced by Miss Vicki Morris, granddaughter of Mrs. B.J. Garnett of Spearman.

Vicki, a freshman at the Amarillo school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris. Mrs. Morris is the former Estella Garnett, a Spearman native.

The production of the famed Christmas ballet, is being directed by Neil Hess and his wife, Camille. Mr. Hess is well known for his choreography of the "TEXAS" musical which is produced during the summer months in Palo Duro Canyon. He is a dance instructor.

The ballet, scheduled for Thursday through Saturday in the THS auditorium in Amarillo, is being presented under the auspices of the Parent's Cultural Arts Committee, dedicated to the cultural enrichment of Amarillo. More than 200 young people are involved in the production.

Miss Vicki Morris will dance the role of the Snow Queen. A student of the Hesses, she has held scholarships with Nilda Talin at Southern Methodist University and worked for two summers at the American Dance Camp, where she received the Versatility Award. She also held a scholarship for summer study at San Francisco, and was offered the opportunity to return on winter and summer scholarships.

Several members of the Garnett families of Spearman plan to attend the Nutcracker production this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Shaull had as Thanksgiving holiday visitors their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hines of Ft. Stockton, Texas and granddaughter Linda Hines of Midland, joining them for Thanksgiving dinner were their daughter and husband, the Jr. Dunninghams of Waka.

Patients in Hansford Hospital are Edna Briley, Mareta Huse, Thelma Davis and W.E. Pettitt.

Dismissed were Tommy Messer, Lilly McBroom, Shelley Lair and daughter, Beulah Peverler, Diana Evans, Grace Patton, John McBroom, Carolyn Harris, Kelly Skates, Jack Whitson.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Pendleton are the parents of a son, Craig Alan, weight 7 lb. 9 oz., born November 23, at Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Pendleton is the former Mae Bell Witcher of Spearman. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pendleton of Amarillo. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Betty Witcher of Spearman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Witcher and Tina of Shawnee, Okla., entertained the Witcher family for Thanksgiving Day. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mason, Cheryl Ann and Raye Lynne of Enid, Okla., Rob Pendleton of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Betty Witcher of Spearman. Later in the day the family visited with Mae Bell Pendleton and Craig Alan at Mercy Hospital where the new son was born Nov. 23.

RATINGS FOR DECEMBER MOVIES

Parents' Magazine - C-Children (8 to 12); Y-young people (13 to 17); A-adults (18 and over)

THE LIVING DESERT-(Reissue) Walt Disney's first feature length True Adventure brings the wild life of the American desert to our awe-struck attention. Extraordinary color photography. 1953 Special Merit Award. A & Y-Excellent, C-Possibly frightening.

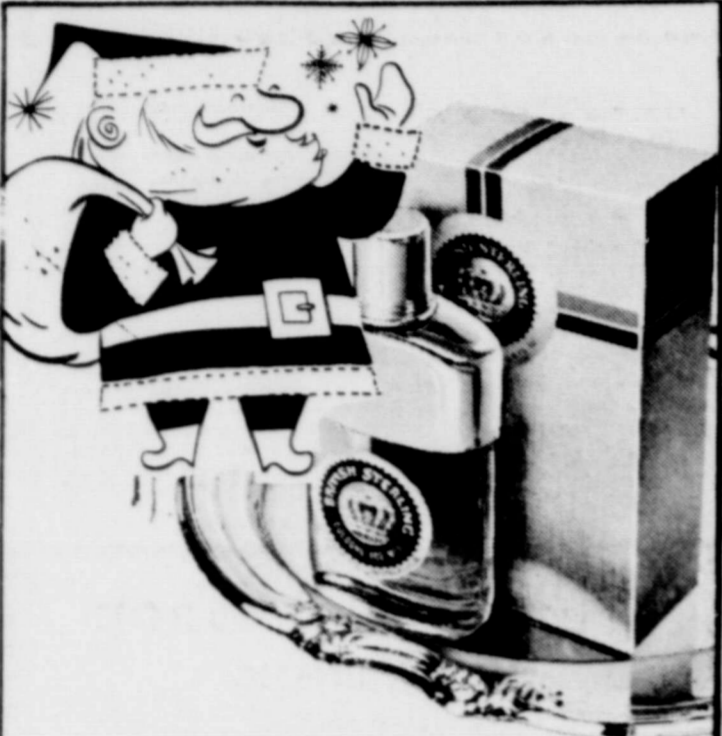

PLAZA SUITE-Enjoyable adaptation of Neil Simon's hit comedy consists of three one-act sketches which take place in New York's Plaza Hotel. A-Entertaining, Y-Mature, C-No.

LITTLE BIG MAN--One of the most interesting, original, and entertaining films to appear for some time. It is a tragic-comic history of Indian-white relations as recalled by a 121 year-old Cheyenne warrior, who tells of experiences during his life. The film is a devastating indictment of America's genocidal Indian policy. The acting is superior and the photography exquisite. A few tasteful sex scenes. A-Excellent, Y-Mature, C-No.

WILLARD--A rather tame horror movie, unless you have a strong aversion to rats, in which case it would be best to stay home anyway. Willard is a misunderstood young man whose neurotic mother nags him and whose mean boss berates him. For company he turns to the rats in his backyard. The movie is nicely played but, aside from two rat attacks, not scary enough for horror and too pointless for drama. A-Fair, Y-For over 16, C-No.

CATLOW--There is plenty of action and excitement in this western about a spirited, 'appy-go-lucky outlaw pursued by his good friend, Marshall Cowan, who has a warrant for Catlow's arrest. Their games of cat and mouse are fun to watch--especially when complications with dangerous run-ins with Indians, other outlaws, and the Mexican Army. A few tasteful sex scenes. A & Y-Good of kind, C-Mature.

LEMANS--One of the most exciting annual car racing events--the 24 hours of LeMans--is used as the backdrop for an incredibly BORING and POINTLESS film about a driver who has never won a race. Steve McQueen parades around in a white outfit, looking sexy, says little and does less. When he's not driving his Porsche, he wanders through the parking lot, recalling an accident he had or else exchanging glances with the wife of another driver who haunts him for no apparent reason. There is a lot of engine noise in the background and many shots of the cars speeding around the track. Both race car enthusiasts and McQueen fans will be disappointed. A & Y-Poor, C-No.

Nobody Laughs At The Salvation Army

by Paul Harvey
If Madison Avenue's high octane purveyors of public relations could learn the Salvation Army's secret, and duplicate it, they'd have it made!
The Salvation Army has the worst public relations and the best relations with the public of any organization on earth.
On my desk is a sheaf of literature presuming to explain the Salvation Army's principles, purposes and projects. Much of it is so innocently amateurish the professional word merchants might laugh at it.
Except that nobody laughs at the Salvation Army.
An objective newsman, when he has exhausted the rest of his vocabulary and nothing adequately explains this phenomenon, is compelled to resort to that most unsophisticated of all words "Miracle."
When miners are trapped and rescuers converge on the pithead--while other charitable organizations are still "mobilizing their resources"--The Salvation Army, without fanfare and apparently from nowhere--is already on the scene with coffee and food for the rescue crews and Bibles for the bereaved who request them.
When war is won and done and the last shipload of soldiers comes home, there may be no bunting left draping the pier, no martial music, no civic reception, but there at the bottom of the gangplank is the boom, boom, boom of the one big bass drum and two horns and several smiles saying "No, You Were Not...Forgot!"
There's a hurricane on the Gulf Coast. The winds are still howling when the men and women of "The Army" move in, wade through snake infested slime to help the hurt, shelter the homeless and feed the hungry.
Intra-mural rivalries among emergency agencies are keen. Eager for the publicity which begets big contributions, some sometimes appear to concentrate more on advertising their efforts than on their efforts.
Yet none appears to resent the Salvation Army.
I've watched them with awe whenever and wherever my news beat had included a disaster area.
Overseas, militantly marching against the brothe's of Japan... or stubbornly demanding social legislation on half-a-hundred parliaments; or stateside, when unmarried parents had nowhere else to turn... and the homeless and the hungry had nowhere else to go... But so recent are these selfless sergeants to publicize their services that I did not know until recently that in my own home town, Chicago, the Salvation Army's hands of mercy serve somebody, night and day, every eleven seconds.
Good Samaritans, not just pointing the cross-but showing the way. An army of Christian soldiers, five million strong, anywhere quickly, on tiptoe.
If we are to know them by their fruits, you'll see a lot of stiff collars and poke bonnets when the roll is called up yonder.
But don't be surprised if you see others of the army hanging back...Loving the lost...Easing the anguish...braving the heat to bathe blistered feet at the front door of hell.

suited for interior landscaping.
For South Texas plants that may be used as living Christmas trees include the Podocarpus, Aleppo pine and Norfolk Island pine. Suggestions for Central Texas include the Deodar cedar, Arizona cypress, juniper, Podocarpus and Yaupon holly as well as many other holly varieties. If kept indoors, the Norfolk Island pine is very useful.
In North Texas the Colorado blue spruce, Scotch pine, Norway pine and a great variety of junipers make beautiful living Christmas trees.

State PTA Meet Shatters Old Image

The Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers has concluded its 62nd annual state convention and thoroughly shattered its old image of a cookie-baking bunch of school carnival sponsors.

The more than 3,000 Texas PTA delegates and their guests meeting in Dallas tackled issues like school financing and the property tax, prayer in the public schools, U.S. prisoners of war and the multi-sided busing situation in Texas.

Two resolutions passed by the group recommend support for constitutional amendments to prevent assignment of students to schools on the basis of race, creed or color and to preserve the neighborhood school concept.

A third resolution backed the majority of San Antonio school districts against the possibility of consolidation by the federal courts, Edgewood Independent School District, also in Bexar County, is seeking establishment of a county-wide taxing agency for school financing, charging that the present district system discriminates against low-income districts.

Another resolution approved by delegates also supports the local school district concept, as opposed to state control. A proposed amendment stressing quality education in integrated neighborhood schools was defeated.

The group voted to write Hanoi in support of U.S. prisoners of war, to back a constitutional change putting "freedom to pray" back in the public schools, to study the federal court system and to seek designation of a postage stamp commemorating the 75th anniversary of the National PTA.

Breaking tradition, Texas PTA President Mrs. Jean Harris of Aqua Dulce moved to the floor of the convention hall for a face-to-face dialogue with delegates. Using interpreters with bi-lingual PTA's, pairing local PTA's in bi-racial teams, putting high school students in office in PTSA's and details of PTA operation were among the problems hashed out in the exchange.

The group heard an array of distinguished speakers including Dr. John W. McFarland, dean of the School of Education, University of Texas at El Paso; Dr. Bernice M. Moore of the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health, UT Austin; Dr. W.C. Newberry, director of secondary education, Southwest Texas State University; Lt. Col. O.H. Entwistle Jr.

of Vienna, Va., representative of the National PTA, and Dr. Andrew Holt, president emeritus, University of Tennessee.

"The PTA has kept itself flexible," Mrs. Harris told the group. "Without innovation, she said, the PTA would be dead, "because we'd be useless to our children, our schools and to our communities."

GIVE LIVING PLANT FOR CHRISTMAS

COLLEGE STATION--Consider using a living Christmas tree this year. Since everyone seems to be more ecology minded these days, what would be more fitting than a tree that could be used in the home for the holiday season and then moved to the yard or patio as a permanent fixture.

While the traditional Christmas tree is usually a conifer of some type, many broadleaved plants also make very attractive Christmas decorations, contends Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The female Yaupon holly makes a very attractive Christmas tree with its bright red berries and small dark-green leaves. Regardless of the type of plant you select, be sure it is adapted for the area or is

DAY TO PLAY IN CHARLIE BROWN MUSICAL SHOW

PLAINVIEW--Randy Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Day, 711 Townsend, has been selected as a member of the orchestra for "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," to be presented at Wayland Baptist College Dec. 4 and 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Haral Memorial Auditorium.

Day is a 1970 graduate of Spearman High School. He is a sophomore education major at Wayland.

Added to the schedule of productions of Wayland Theatre this season is "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," which will be presented in Haral Memorial Auditorium on Dec. 4 and 11 at 7:30 p.m. The Broadway musical comedy directed by Robert Bowers, instructor in speech and theatre, is presented as a benefit for the speech department. Taken from the comic strip, "Peanuts," the popular show is designed to appeal to children of all ages, from six to 80. Author of the play is John Gordan.

Employing clever lighting, action revolves around a free, stylized set and the actors are costumed in colorful children's clothing. Some 34 musical numbers and interludes are included in the show. The hit Broadway show was just recently released to limited areas in the United States.

Coming to life on the Wayland stage as the unforgettable Charlie Brown will be Stan Hickerson, freshman from Lorenzo. His "thorn in the flesh" Lucy, will be played by Debbie Schuster, freshman from Muleshoe. The other female lead, Patty, will be portrayed by Jonna Dale, senior from Denver, Colo., a familiar face to Wayland Theatre fans.

Charlie Brown's friends, Linus and Schroeder, will be played by Gerald Brooks, sophomore from Glen Burnie, Md., and Paul Aday, sophomore from Vine Grove, Ky., respectively. The two will play the roles complete with blanket and piano.

Music for the show will be provided by a combo consisting of Amy Lyons, freshman from Honolulu, Hawaii, on piano, Leslie Haberer, freshman from Plainview, on drums, Randy Day, sophomore from Spearman, on mouth organ, and Phil Poff, sophomore from Farmington, N.M., on xylophone.

SELECT A LIVE CHRISTMAS TREE

COLLEGE STATION--Having trouble with your Christmas shopping? Why not give a living plant that can be enjoyed throughout 1972 and that will increase in value and beauty as time rolls on, suggests Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

Select good quality trees, shrubs or house plants from your local florist, nursery or garden center as gifts for your gardening friends.

Evergreen plants of potted house plants make very attractive gift items, especially if the base is wrapped with Christmas paper and tied with a colorful ribbon, says Janne. Some of the ornamental plants that will make attractive gifts include: Yaupon, Possumhaw, Burford Holly, American Holly, Juniper, Deodar Cedar, Pyracantha, Pittosporum, Nandina and Japanese Yew.

For plants to be used in the home, Janne suggests the following: Poinsettia, Azalea, Camellia, Jerusalem Cherry, Christmas Pepper and Chrysanthemum, as well as the multitude of foliage plants that are available.

Be sure to select a plant that is adapted to the area in which it will be grown, he adds. In case of inclement weather, the recipient of the plant should know to keep it in a cool place where the oil ball or container will not become too dry until it can be placed in its permanent location.

For that distant relative or friend that is interested in gardening, how about a useful gardening tool or a copy of a good garden book for a Christmas gift, proposes Janne. There is something available for every gardening interest.

While you are selecting gift items, why not choose a plant for your own home? A living Christmas tree can provide enjoyment the entire year, assures the horticulturist.

be far behind. This is still the favorite candy of all time. Most of you are familiar with it and make it for the holidays, but for those of you who wanted it, here it is: Call your friend to come over and help you make it, you'll find this team effort works best for the pouring and stirring, 6 c. sugar, 2 c. cream, 1/4 tsp. soda, 1 stick margarine, 1 t. vanilla, 2 lb. broken pecans, Brown 2 c. sugar in heavy iron skillet, slowly until it is a light brown color. Soon as you have the sugar started to heat, put the remaining 4 c. sugar, cream & butter over a low heat to cook slowly while you are melting sugar in skillet. Soon as sugar is melted, begin pouring it into kettle of boiling cream & sugar. The real secret of mixing these ingredients is to pour a very fine stream from the skillet. Continue cooking & stirring mixture until it forms a firm ball when dropped into cold water. After this test, add soda, stirring vigorously until it foams up. Let mixture cool 20 minutes, then add vanilla and beat until mixture is thick and of a dull appearance. Add pecans, turn into pans. Makes about 6 lbs. of the most delicious candy you ever ate.

7TH GRADERS ARE ONE OF TOP TEAMS

Coach Truelove and his 7th grade terrors who were the only undefeated football team in the area this year, have been impressive in the first basketball outings thus far. In fact, the terrors broke a 11-11 half-time tie Monday night at Lynx gym, and ran off from Stinnett, winning the game, 30-18.

Members of Truelove's 7th grade shock troops include: Ricky Morris, Butch Reed, Bo Dearmond, Scott DeWitt, David Oakes, Jeff Hohertz, David Lesley, Raymond Porter, Kevin Bynum, Tony Salinas, Mark Cunningham, Brent Biles, Manager for the 7th graders are Kent Hargis, Lonnie Clemmons and Alan Uptergrove.

For real enjoyment, come out and watch this fine 7th grade in action. Check the schedule in this week's paper for their next game.

8TH GRADE TEAM READY FOR ACTION

Coach Drummond's 8th grade basketball team continues their winning ways in basketball as well in football. In fact, Drummond's basketball team may be even better than the football team, although they have to be mighty good, as the eighth graders won the first football game.

Getting the drum for Drummond is probably the biggest basketball team in the school system, that is the most boys. Drummond's roster consists of 20 boys, and they are about 6 suits for their basketball officials are getting for the 6 boys in the future.

Coach Drummond's team consists of the following boys: Collier, Jeff Beedy, Reg Robertson, Roger Jones, Fox, Paul Comegys, Roy David Dear, Leon Haggins, Jimmie Jackson, Billy Gales, Gale Thompson, Calhoun, Steve Donnell, Shields, Bobby Fanning, Wynne, Daryl West, David Byers, Bernard Byers, Bobby Byers. Manager for Drummond's Drummers is Ronny Byers.

For real excitement, watch the eighth grade team in action at the local high school.
