Massed Chorus of 50,000 Children at Dallas.

The greatest massed chorus the world has ever known will assemble in Dallas June 13, at 10 a. m. to sing Texas songs. The two nation-wide broadcasting systems will broadcast this program to all parts of the United States and the world. This Sing Song is a part of the Texas Centennial Celebration and has the full co-operation of the Centennial authorities. This massed orchestra is a culmination of a 3-year music program in the schools of the State. State Superintendent Woods has made arrangements with Texas Centennial authorities for complimentary general admission tickets to the fair grounds. Each ticket will have printed on it numbers and letters indicating the county and supervisory district from which the children come. Two adult identification tags will be issued for each group of 30 children. No child will be admitted free without this ticket. Tickets can be secured from county or city superintendent and must be secured before you leave your county or city. Children from the junior chorus [4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades] and the senior chorus [8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th grades] are eligible to receive tickets provided they know from memory both the music and words of the songs as recorded on the records. Due to the historical significance of the occasion, it is urged that each child preserve the identification tag as a souvenir. Other detailed information may be secured from your county or city superintendent.

The State highway patrol has pledged its utmost co-operation in seeing that all traffic problems are properly handled, and traffic patrolmen will be on duty on each cardinal highway entering the City of Dallas in order to assure the safety of the children. The police department of the City of Dallas will likewise assign groups of patrolmen for special police duty on this day. A number of companies from the regular army are permanently located. This group of men together with the special Centennial police will act as guards and guides for the children. First-aid stations with public health nurses in charge will be available to attend to any emergency that might develop.

The chorus will occupy the western two-thirds of the stadium. The directors stand will be placed on 30 yard line of the football field. The juniors will be seated on the southern half of the oval and the seniors on the northern half of the oval. Each section of the stadium will be numbered to correspond with the first section of the identification tag. In other words, children will be seated by state supervisory districts and counties. Directors will sit with the children through the program. A limited space to accommodate about 15,000 visitors other than the children's chorus will be available.

With the Virginia Cavalry.

In the summer of 1864, Capt. A. O. Dobyns and Larkin V. Edwards, who had been discharged from the infantry service as not physically able to stand the hard marches, organized in Floyd county, Va. a cavalry company of more than 100 men, of which A. O. Dobyns was captain, L. V. Edwards, first lieutenant; Aaron Kitterman, second lieutenant (the latter had lost an eye when a child and had not been in the army); Tazewell Helms (who had just reached military age) third lieutenant. A majority of the company were in their teens. Most of the men were from Floyd County, others from Patrick and Henry counties. The company went into camp for training at Locust Grove, in Floyd county on the 10th day of September, 1863, and in November reported to the commander of the regiment, [I think it was Lieut. Col. David Edmondson; Col. W. E. Peters being absent] near Abingdon, Va., and was mustered into the Confederate service as Co. G, of the 1st Virginia Cavalry. Maj. Stephen P. Halsey was the other field officer.

Gen. William E. Jones commanded the brigade, which saw much service during the fall winter and spring of 1863-4. It was at Knoxville, Tenn., when General Longstreet invested that town. General Jones was a very enterprising officer, often surprising and capturing large numbers of Yankee prisoners and stores. At Rogersville, Tenn. he captured more Yankees than he had men in his command.

About the 1st of June, 1864, General Jones was ordered to the Valley of Virginia. On the 4th of June he reported and took command at Piedmont, and was killed the next day at the battle of Piedmont.

When General Jones went to the valley Col. William E. Peters of the 21st Virginia, assumed command of the brigade under General McCausland, who commanded two brigades, and was ordered by General Breckinridge to take position in front of Hunter on his raid to Lynchburg, thus delaying him several days until Breckinridge could get to Lynchburg. Then Gen. Jubal A. Early arrived and assumed command of all forces, and we saw very active service in the Valley during the summer under Gen. Bradley T. Johnson as brigade commander, going into Maryland and investing Washington City. Later on we returned to the Valley of Virginia, and on the 22nd of September, 1864, I was captured at Fisher's Hill and taken to the Yankee prison at Point Lookout Md., where I remained until sometime in February, 1865, when I was exchanged with other disabled and sick Confederate soldiers at Richmond, was given a forty-day furlough, and went home. Before the end of my furlough, General Lee surrendered and the mighty drama was ended.

However, just before the surrender the Yankee General Steubam made a raid through this section and I was again taken prisoner and carried along with his army on its way to North Carolina. But during the first night in Patrick county, side stepped in the darkness, and after the Yankees passed on, I went back home taking my horse with me.

When we first went into camp, messes of eight were formed and in ours were Floyd Dickinson, Esalus Harman, George D. Owen, Francis L. Slusher, William S. Sutphin, James T. Weaver, Samuel P. Weddle, and myself. We elected George Owen cook, George could make good biscuits, but was not an expert in making cornbread, so I generally baked that when we had corn meal. This mess stuck together to the last. George Owen was a pretty good forager as well as cook, and Jim Weaver was not only a good soldier, but an expert forager. If there was anything for man or beast along our line of march or near our camp, Jim would get his share and he always divided fairly with the rest of us. Of these eight men, only three are now left—S. P. Weddle and I, living in Floyd county, and Geo. Owen living in the State of Missouri. We were all young when we entered the service. We had good and brave officers in the company and regiment and brigade. Capt. Ogden was as true as steel at Crockett's Cove, Wythe County, Va., he saved the day by rushing his company on ahead of rest of the regiment and occupying a gap in the mountains and holding it until Major Halsey brought the regiment up, when the enemy was beaten back. A feat like that would have won a medal of honor in the late World War, no doubt.

Colonel Peters was as brave as the bravest. Major Halsey never failed us in a fight and did not seem to know what fear was. William E. Jones was a fine general and no doubt would have attained higher rank than a brigadier had he lived. Major Halsey still lives at his home in Lynchburg, Va., and the last time I met him he seemed serene in his old age, though I judged from his talk that he did not love the Yankees any better than during the war or in reconstruction times. Last, but not least, esteemed and loved by his men, was Bradley T. Johnson, the brave and dashing Marylander, who fought gallantly for freedom in Virginia fields, who survived the war and lived for many years in his adopted State, Virginia. On the 19th of September, 1864, at Winchester Gen. Johnson had two horses killed under him and was wounded slightly three times, but never left the field and was on his third horse when the battle ended.—N. J. Agnew, of Floyd, Va., in Confederate Veteran.

Texas Exposition 150 Per Cent Over Original Size Plan

Chrysler Contract Puts Dallas World's Fair on Top in Motor Exhibits

DALLAS, Texas—The Texas Centennial Exposition today turned the home stretch toward its June 6 opening, two and one-half times larger than its sponsors originally anticipated.

From $10,000,000 value, estimated when the project was begun, the first World's Fair of the Southwest, has grown into a $25,000,000 affair, the steel framework of its construction jobs stretching down mile after mile of parallel courses.

New Building Ordered

With the signing of the Chrysler Motor Corporation for a huge display space the Exposition boasts the largest motor exhibit ever shown at a World's Fair.

Originally the $400,000 Hall of Transportation was intended to house exhibits of both transportation and petroleum industries.

So large was the space taken by Chrysler, however, that Exposition officials were forced to hurriedly realign their plans and build a separate Hall of Petroleum.

Ford, with its own building, General Motors, with a huge, air-conditioned auditorium where changing shows of radio and stage stars will be presented in one-week engagements throughout the June 6-Nov. 29 Exposition period, and Chrysler with an elaborate participation in the making, will give Dallas a record-breaking representation of the motor industry.

Livestock Also Featured

Further, the big fair will boast the largest livestock show ever assembled.

Other exhibits keep the pace, with the city display space at a premium and officials assured of an exhibit "sell-out" long before the opening day.

The City of Dallas, the State of Texas and the Federal government are keeping step with their important Exposition building programs.

W. A. Webb, general manager of the Exposition who holds an international reputation for his railroad construction work, has announced every building will be completed by the June 6 opening date.

The spirit of the Old West will be recreated at every turn.

In a city as metropolitan as any in the nation, the frontier days will live again.

Ten-Gallon Hats Epidemic

Ten-gallon hats are blooming on every corner. Service stations are garbing their attendants in the cowpuncher's regalia. Department stores are clothing their elevator girls in cowgirl uniforms similar to those of Exposition Rangelasses. Other stores are donating the big hats to their employees with instructions to wear them on all occasions.

Even the Exposition police will be in full Old West attire.

The Texas Rangers will have a camp on the Exposition Race Track, with a replica of an old Ranger bunkhouse as their headquarters.

Not a single detail has been overlooked by the Exposition chiefs in their efforts to make the Southwest's World's Fair the most colorful in history.

Texas Beauty

This is Georgia Carroll, 17-year-old Dallas high school girl, who won second place in the contest to select the Texas Centennial Exposition's "Bluebonnet Girl." She will have an important part in the June 6 ceremonies, when President Roosevelt visits Dallas to open the big World's Fair.

Working Girls' Vacations

It is said that 4,784 out of the 500,000 working girls in New York get vacations through churches, social organizations and societies.

Cowboy Rides to Convention:

which opens in Dallas June 6. "Yelp an" expects to reach Philadelphia, riding the burro "General Democracy," the entire 1535 miles in time for the June 23 opening of the convention.

Braniff Adds Dallas Flight

DALLAS, Texas—Braniff Airways has added an additional daylight flight, "The Centennial Flier," from Chicago to Dallas and return to care for the added travel already swelling ahead of the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition's June 6 opening. The flight has branch connections to San Antonio.

Biggest Midway Grows

DALLAS, Texas—Entertainment attractions already under contract for the Midway of the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens here June 6, will make it one of the most spectacular in Exposition history. W. A. Webb, general manager of the $25,000,000 World's Fair, announced today.

Pullman Car "City"

DALLAS, Texas—A city of Pullman cars capable of housing more than 500 persons will be set up here during the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens here June 6 and continues through November. The Texas & Pacific railroad will operate the Pullman hotel.

The coyote is a creature without a friend, an Ishmaelite whom men and animals have combined in despising, the ideal thief and vagabond of the animal world, this gray gaunt figure-head of the western world still survives, as much the owner of his empire as he was in the days when his ancestors looked with cock-eyed astonishment and staccato exclamations upon the expedition of Lewis and Clark feeling its way slowly across that trans-Mississippi wilderness whose future was then undreamed.—Outing Magazine.

Municipal Bankruptcy Act Held Invalid

FIVE justices of the United States Supreme court held invalid the municipal bankruptcy act of 1934, declaring it to be an unwarranted invasion of state sovereignty. Four justices dissented, these being Chief Justice Hughes and Justices Stone, Brandeis and Cardozo. The majority opinion was written by Justice James C. McReynolds. The case was brought by bondholders of a water improvement district in Texas.

The municipal bankruptcy act was designed to permit cities and other political subdivisions which found themselves in financial straits to effect a composition, with the approval of two-thirds of the bondholders or other creditors, whereby the indebtedness could be readjusted, scaled down, or, as Mr. Justice McReynolds put it, "repudiated."

Frank Lowden May Be Republican Nominee

FRANK O. LOWDEN of Illinois will be the choice of the Republican convention for President if he will accept the nomination.

That was the confident prediction of a political observer who is usually well informed and close to sources of national party news. He declared there was a steadily growing demand from many parts of the Union for the nomination of the former governor of Illinois, who always has been popular with farmers and other qualities of statesmanship are recognized generally throughout the country. Mr. Lowden is vigorous and hale, and he is always actively interested in the welfare of his state and nation, especially in the problems of the agriculturist.

Landon Has Large Block of Delegates

GOV. ALF LANDON captured nearly all the New Jersey delegates to the national convention, defeating Senator Borah about 4 to 1 in the popular vote. This victory gave the Kansan a total of more than 200 votes to start with at Cleveland, and his manager, John Hamilton, claimed he would have at least 300 of the 501 votes necessary to nominate and would win on the second or third ballot.

James A. Farley, postmaster general and also Democratic national chairman, told the Michigan Democratic convention he believed the Republican Presidential nominee will be "the governor of a typical prairie state" and that his election, if he won, would be a "perilous experiment." Farley criticized the man he did not name as devoid of experience in national affairs, and predicted that if he is the Republican standard bearer "even Kansas" will not be in the Roosevelt doubtful column.

Plan to Continue Rail Co-Ordinator's Office

THE office of transportation co-ordinator, held by Joseph B. Eastman, is due to expire on June 16, but Senator Wheeler of Montana had ready for introduction a resolution extending it for two years, and President Roosevelt was on record as approving some of its activities.

It was reported in Washington that railway management and labor, both of which have opposed some of Eastman's doings in the past, might unite in an effort to block extension of the office, but Eastman said he had heard "nothing substantial" on that line. Eastman announced last February he would exercise his powers to compel railroads in 11 cities to carry out terminal unifications as economy and efficiency moves. He withheld the orders at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, however, to permit rail management and labor to agree on some plan of protection for employees thrown out of work in such consolidations.

Bonus Baby Bonds Will Be Mailed June 15

ON JUNE 15 the bonus baby bonds will be mailed to 45,000 post offices from Washington and from the eleven federal reserve centers. Final plans for delivering the bonds to the veterans were announced by Postmaster General Farley, who predicted that payment on a great majority of them would be made within one week. Mail carriers have been given instructions to "go out of their way wherever necessary with a view to effecting delivery," Farley said. The bond packets must be delivered to the veteran in person, and not to another person or firm at the veteran's address.

"If it is impossible to locate the veteran to whom the bonds are addressed," Farley continued, "they will be held for 30 days at the post office of destination before being returned to the respective federal reserve centers and thence to the Treasury department." The bonds will be in $50 denominations with accompanying checks to cover the odd amounts. To collect cash, the veteran must have his bonds certified through his local post office. Post offices in 241 cities have been designated as paying centers for their districts, and 59 large city offices have been empowered to pay on bonds issued outside their own districts.

Congress Hopes It Can Adjourn June 6

DEMOCRATIC and Republican leaders in congress sought unitedly to get through the necessary business so that the law makers might adjourn on June 6. The house had finished its work and was waiting for the senate to act on the relief and tax measures. The committees had so revised those bills that it was thought opposition would be greatly lessened.

Senator Harrison's finance committee contrived a tax bill estimated to produce $620,000,000 in new permanent revenue, which is $6,000,000 more than the President asked for. Tentatively the committee agreed to levy a processing tax of one-half cent per pound on sugar, which would yield $66,000,000, and to retain a provision of the house bill designed to induce liquidation of corporations and bring in $33,000,000 in additional income taxes. There was a prospect of adding still another $40,000,000 to the permanent revenue by removing the existing $40,000 estate tax exemption on estates of $100,000 or more.

This would make a total of $666,000,000 in new permanent revenue, $46,000,000 more than that of the house bill, but the senate bill also included $100,000,000 in temporary revenue from the so-called "windfall" provision to confiscate unpaid and refunded processing taxes, and retained the $168,000,000 now produced by the excess profits and capital stock taxes.

Leon Blum Is the 'Idol of the French Reds'

LEON BLUM, elderly and rather fragile leader of the French Socialists, will soon be premier of his country, and he is going to have a hard time living up to the expectations of all the leftists, who are making a national hero of him. The other day hundreds of thousands of French reds and pinks marched behind Blum or stood cheering on the sidelines, and pictures of the leader were carried in the ranks or sold by hawkers in the crowds. This was on the occasion of the traditional memorial ceremony in Pere Lachaise cemetery for the Marxist martyrs of the Paris Commune in 1871.

M. Blum is said to be watching closely his publicity in the United States since his speech in which he intimated a desire to agree with Washington on the elimination of war debt discussions. He is hoping to be able to obtain loans from New York bankers. The Johnson law is naturally an insurmountable obstacle to France's obtaining any kind of credit in America, but as the Paris Midi pointed out Blum went out of his way to declare that France has not forgotten the war debt and fully expects to bring it up for discussion some time in the future.

Socialists Gain Control of Belgian Parliament

SOCIALISTS of Belgium, like those of France, won a considerable victory in the parliamentary elections, holding a larger number of seats than any other group. Emile Vandervelde, their seventy-year-old leader, was thus in position to succeed Paul Van Zeeland as premier.

The new party of Rexists, whose political emblem is a cardboard broom, symbolizing determination to "sweep bankers and politico-financiers out of office," recorded sensational successes, winning 21 seats, mainly at the expense of conservative Catholics.

Official standings, subject possibly to slight revision, gave: Socialists, 70; Catholics, 63; Liberals, 23; Rexists, 21; Flemish Nationals, 16; Communists, 9.

Norman Thomas Nominated by the Socialists

FOR the third time Norman Thomas is the Presidential nominee of the Socialist party. He was selected at the national convention in Cleveland, Ohio, and George Nelson of Wisconsin was put in second place on the ticket. There was a great demonstration after the vote, but it was not joined in by the right wing leaders from several eastern states who were angered by the seating of a leftist delegation from New York. The disaffected ones threatened to form another party. The convention flatly turned down a proposal from Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party, for a "united front" in the 1936 campaign.

Italy Celebrates Entry Into World War

ITALIANS celebrated the anniversary of their country's entrance into the World War with imposing ceremonies that included the promotion of more than half a million boys and girls in the organizations of young Fascists. Premier Mussolini presided over the "graduation," and after reviewing a great military parade, the Duce told the shouting crowds:

"The spectacle of the force of youth exhibited this morning on the anniversary of our intervention in the World War, the first phase of the Fascist revolution, has been magnificent and a warning at the same time. We are preparing the young armies of tomorrow for defense of the empire. Since they are animated by the Fascist spirit they will be invincible. This is the law of the revolution. This is the supreme will of the whole Italian people."

While his conqueror was thus engaged, Haile Selassie, deposed emperor of Ethiopia, was embarking at Haifa, Palestine, for England, on the British destroyer Capetown.

Dr. Townsend Disgusted With Inquiry

FOR two days Dr. Francis E. Townsend replied mildly to the questions of the house committee investigating the activities of the organization behind the old age pension movement which the doctor started. Then the Californian lost his patience suddenly, refused to answer any more "nonsensical" queries, spoke of "thickheaded congressmen," denounced the committee for its "unfriendly attitude" and asserted the administration was a "hostile force" behind the inquiry. He declared he would form a third party after the November elections.

Finally Doctor Townsend told the committee: "I am retiring from this sort of inquisition and I do not propose to come back except under arrest. And I do refuse absolutely to make any further statement regarding this movement to this committee."

Escorted by Gerald K. Smith, former adherent of Huey Long, and another man, the Californian fled from Washington to Baltimore. The committee decided to ask the house to cite him for contempt.

Russia Will Maintain Big Far Eastern Fleet

CONVERSATIONS between Great Britain and Russia now going on in London will have to do only with naval armaments in European waters, for the Soviet government has announced that it cannot consider limitation of its far eastern fleet while there is no similar agreement binding Japan. Speaking for the government, Karl Radek said in the newspaper Izvestia that the Soviet union has been striving to conclude a separate agreement with Japan, but thus far the efforts have been fruitless.

Japan Has New Leader in North China

JAPANESE penetration in North China is now being managed by a Buddhist scholar, Major General Matsumuro, who replaces Lieut. Gen. Kenji Dolhara. The new man will co-operate with the commander of the North China garrison in placing the thousands of reinforcements that have been arriving at Tientsin. According to the Chinese, one of Matsumuro's duties will be to prepare the way for a return to Peiping of Henry Pu-Yi, now Emperor Kang Teh of Manchukuo, to rec occupy China's dragon throne. They assert the Japanese plan to establish his rulership over all of North China and Manchukuo.

Austria Now Has Three National Leaders

BENITO MUSSOLINI advised Prince von Starbemberg of Austria not to start any domestic trouble because he was ousted from the cabinet by Chancellor Schuschnigg, and when the prince returned to Vienna the cabinet fixed things up neatly by decreeing that the country should have three premiers. Schuschnigg, the unofficial dictator, becomes national leader of the fatherland front; Eduard Baar von Barenfels, the new vice chancellor, is national commander of the front militia; and Starbemberg continues as sports leader and head of the Northern hood Protective association.

Gov. Lehman Won't Run for Re-Election

HERBERT H. LEHMAN announced suddenly in Albany that he would not be a candidate for a third term as governor of New York, saying: "I feel the time has come when I may ask release from the cares and responsibilities of the governorship." But leaders of the Democratic party, including President Roosevelt, National Chairman James A. Farley and Senators Wagner and Copeland undertook to persuade Mr. Lehman to run for re-election. They all agreed that his retirement would be a loss to the state and the party and that he should be "drafted."

The immediate political result of the governor's surprise action was that New York again became a doubtful state for the Presidential campaign, in the minds of many politicians.

STAR DUST Movie • Radio By VIRGINIA VALE

THAT new series of comedies that Patsy Kelly and Lyda Roberti are making promises to be very funny. Lyda was teamed with Patsy to replace Thelma Todd, you know. And the little Polish girl can be very, very amusing.

There's one drawback to the current picture, so far as the girls are concerned, and that's the presence of a lion in the cast. (Good old Keystone comedy stuff!) Not that the girls are afraid of him, despite Charles Hickford's experience with a lion some months ago. But lions—well, as a former comedy star explained, "You have to get so close to them, and practically all lions have halitosis!"

Don't be surprised if it rains and rains in your town when "One Rainy Afternoon" is shown in your town. That's the first picture made by Mary Pickford and Jesse Lasky, you remember. Mr. Lasky bet that it would rain when the picture was first shown in Hollywood. It did. So he traveled East for the first showing in New York, and again he bet that it would rain that day. And after days and days of bright sunshine, New York had four Grade A thunderstorms that day!

This week's bad news is that Freddie Bartholomew will probably be the hero when "Kim" is finally screened. If you've read the famous Kipling story you'll recall that Kim was a red haired, freckle faced youngster, a scrappy young brat—the last role in the world for the talented English kid!

If you like horror pictures you'll be crazy about "Dracula's Daughter," with Gloria Holden looking very beautiful in the title role, and Marguerite Churchill looking equally beautiful as the lovely victim. It begins to look as if the children who go to this one will some day be taking their own grandchildren to see "Dracula's Great-great-granddaughter."

The news about Dick Powell isn't too good; it's said that he will not be able to sing till two or three months from now. Which probably means that Rudy Vallee will take his place in "Stage Struck."

Marion Nixon has just had her tonsils out, which seems funny, because she's been in Hollywood for years and years. Usually having your tonsils out is one of the first things you do when you settle down in Hollywood. Your appendix is likely to be the next thing that leaves. And sinus trouble sometimes haunts you.

Joan Crawford seems to be taking her music pretty seriously. They do say that she's given up coffee, for the good of her voice. And she and Franchot Tone have been giving musicals and making quite a name for themselves in musical affairs on the Coast. Singing in the movies has experienced a steady progression from the days of the pioneer crooners to the opera prima donnas. Now a good voice is an asset like good looks and historic ability.

Those pictures made in Technicolor are causing not a little trouble for companies indulging in them. They're worth it, of course—but just listen to this!

Pioneer Pictures was ready to shoot the works on "Dancing Pirate." No effort was spared. Little things like special make-up, specially supervised, were just details. But—for two solid weeks they tried to get a group of full-color portraits of Steffi Duna, the feminine star, and couldn't, because she had a cold and a red nose, and color photography is so realistic that the nose couldn't be camouflaged with make-up because that would show, too.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . You'll hear Hoot Gibson crooning in "The Last Outlaw" . . . Along with Harry Carey and Henry B. Walthall . . . The Governor of New Mexico will appear in "The Texas Rangers" . . . Better see "The Case against Mrs. Ames" and figure out for yourself which two sensational news stories figure in the story . . . Remember Leatrice Joy? She had a voice test the other day; may return to pictures . . . Herbert Marshall will be costarred with Katherine Hepburn in "Portrait of a Rebel" . . . Anne Shirley says she won't marry till she's established a $50,000 annuity for her mother—and all because when Herbert Brenon wanted to adopt Anne and keep her out of pictures, her mother refused and kept her in Hollywood, trying to get in . . . Now Anne's starting in "Miss" and saving for that annuity!

Pleat, Tailor and Tuck Smart Silks

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

EVERY day in every way women who recognize the importance of selecting materials for the fashioning of their costumes that can be "put to the test and not found wanting," are turning to handsome dependable silks that are really and truly pure silk for the solution of their fabric problems.

The fact that a lavish amount of pleating, tucking, shirring and meticulous tailoring is involved in the styling of this season's smartest apparel is proving an added incentive to insist on silk of the better sort that may be relied upon to yield successfully to these varied and sometimes intricate manipulations.

Three outstandingly important fashion trends are presented in the illustration, each of which demonstrates the chic and charm of silk weaves in the current mode. For the perfectly stunning jacket suit the designer handles black and white printed silk crepe as tailor-perfect as if it were wool. The braid-bound edges of the jacket interpret a highly significant styling detail. As to the white organdy frill, it is a "last word" in accessory chic. Watch for these frilly-frilly effects; they are coming along at a fast and furious pace.

The other standing figure reveals Miss 1936 wearing a navy blue silk sheer with a pleated tunic, for you must know that the pleated tunic is a top-notch fashion for spring and summer. Men's wear buttons go marching down the front of the tunic pictured. Short puffed sleeves follow the latest dictate of the mode. Note that these are designed to give shoulder emphasis as all the newest fashions would have it. A tiny boutonniere and a yellow chamois belt stress the new vogue.

As to this matter of tunics, from all indications they are about to stampede the fashion picture. If in doubt, choose a tunic frock is timely advice, for it is to be tunics by day and tunics by night according to reports from style centers. Some tunics are straight and narrow while other tunics flare about the knees like a bell or a lampshade. Many evening frocks adopt pleated skirts with tunic tops.

Another big fashion feature is the blouse that is all-over pleated like the one shown in the picture. This blouse is of bright green pleated silk chiffon. It is worn with a black silk taffeta suit. Note the pleated frill about the throat. This is a favorite new neckline silhouette. And again please to observe that the sleeves are short and puffed in latest manner. The smartest flower turbans are topeavy in front. The one topping milady's prettily coiffed head is made of purple silk violets. Purple, green and black is the color scheme of this costume which goes to show how striking the new color alliances are this season.

The new and fashionable bolero costumes bring blouses into the very foreground of the fashion scene. With black bolero two-piece dresses or suits the outstanding color idea is to wear as bright a blouse as the new silk prints can afford or if not a print then let your blouse be of a high-color pleated silk sheer. Anyway, go the limit in matter of daring color for your blouse.

NEW COTTON LOOKS LIKE SILK OR WOOL

Cotton that looks like silk, cotton that looks like wool, cotton as sheer as the gauziest chiffons, cotton velvets, cotton tweeds and cotton laces—all these will march in the fabric parade.

Cord laces will be the tops in spring and summer swank, shown in tailored sports clothes for resort wear now and all-round use later.

Peasant weaves also are slated for high success in natural neutral tones, both in cotton and linen, with bright accessories.

Embroidery, which has been creeping back into the style picture, achieves rampant recognition in the new cotton fabrics. Embroidered surfaces are all over the place, both in soft, homespun type of cotton fabrics for sports wear, and in the organdies and mousselines for evening.

Dark Blue Is Gaining in Popularity for Summer

The increasing popularity of very dark blue (called midnight blue by certain houses and raven blue by others) is hailed with enthusiasm by those who find black too somber. Another characteristic is the growing influence of purplish tones which are affecting the new reds and the new blues, although not yet prevalent in decided purple or violene.

Gray, while not prominent as a plain color, has a strong influence over blues, giving them a slate-blue shade. This influence is seen also in greens, which have the appearance of reseda green and verdigris. A new shade which is strongly sponsored for summer is burnt straw or toast.

Make Gloves and Shoes Match, Is Paris Decree

Gloves and shoes are supposed to match one another these days. One Paris bootmaker shows pumps which are cut completely in half, one side being of suede and the other of kid-skin. These shoes can be obtained in almost any shade and are matched by gloves which are fashioned with backs of suede and palms of kidskin.

PRINT COATS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A plain coat topping a print frock is not news but a print coat topping a plain frock is latest news from fashion town. The model pictured typifies the new mode. In this instance the redingote is of black and white print linen over a black linen dress. The short sleeves proclaim a popular vogue for the summer. Bright silk print coats with monotone silk dresses, also jackets of gay floral silks that contrast plain skirts will be made a big feature during the coming months.

Book Buttons

Book buttons lend a "highbrow" air to several new mid-season frocks. They are tiny, closed volumes of black enamel whose leaves are edged with gold.

Say Boundary Dispute Caused Trojan War; Helen a Myth

Debunkers now tell us that the Trojan war was probably the result of a boundary dispute, and was not caused by the abduction of Helen, the beautiful wife of King Menelaus, by Paris, and that Helen was a myth. Still, Helen's story must have happened somewhere; it's too good a story just to be made up, even by a war office propagandist.

Christoval 25 Years Ago.

The following local items are copied from the Observer dated in 1912:

A fine cow belonging to R. B. Welch ate a quantity of frosted sweet potatoes last Saturday and died from effects.

The long eared "mocking birds" that have been waking everyone in town at 5 a. m. have departed.

A circular addressed to the Christoval Truck Growers' Association has been received from Chas. W. Holman associate editor of Farm and Ranch, asking for the Association's cooperation in sales methods of products. Dr. B. T. Welch, president of our Association, gave the desired information concerning our organization and we expect to soon hear plans of the older and more experienced truck growers' associations.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jacobs was painfully hurt about the face Wednesday by a fall from their surrey. The horse attempted to run away, made a short turn, throwing the child out.

We saw a picture of the train robbers who were killed by an express messenger near Sander son recently. The picture shows a man on each side of the dead bandits holding them in a standing position. It was a gruesome sight, and should be a lesson to all boys who see it.

There has been rumors of a "wild man" being seen around in the woods near town last week—some claiming to have seen him—but Constable Lewis Farrits says he has thoroughly searched the surrounding country, and he is satisfied if there was one, he has gone elsewhere. Dr. Gowen reports the arrival of a little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilkinson, Sunday, 21st.

J. H. Flemister, who kept the stage stand here in the 90s, died April 11 at the Confederate Home in Austin. His stage stand was located on the Anson property opposite Lanier's drug store.

Rev. W. B. Holland and family departed Tuesday for Henrietta, their new home.

Willie DeLong and Myrtle Smith, little daughters of Mrs. Daisy DeLong and John H. Smith caught a 4 pound black bass in irrigation ditch last Saturday with their hands. The water had become low in the ditch, as farmers were irrigating at the time. The children are proud of their catch.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapple, Monday, May 6, a girl. Dr. Gowen reports mother and babe doing nicely.

The case of the State vs. Dr. J. B. Salmon, charged with the killing of Dr. L. A. McCord, at this place March 30, 1911, came up for trial in Coleman, April 29 and the jury found him guilty and his punishment was assessed at 14 years in the penitentiary.

A. N. Gailey has traded property here for a business lot in Fort Stockton.

T. L. Hamm caught the large steelhead Wednesday that was ever taken out of the South Concho according to old timers. It balanced the scales at the 4-pound notch.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harris and Harry Chapple, Jr. left Eastland Sunday for Pike's Peak and other points in Colorado, and to visit relatives at Belin, N. M., and expect to be away 10 or 15 days.

Mrs. W. N. Cagle departed Wednesday for Pueblo, Colo., where she will remain with her husband two months.

Harry M. Williams, long time ranchman of this section, but of Waco, passed away Tuesday morning in a Temple sanitarium where he had been since February. He leaves besides a widow, two sons and two daughters; Robert and Holvey Williams of Waco, Miss Corrinne Williams of Waco and Mrs. Evie Strong of Beaumont, Texas. He was a brother of the late Lee Williams of Christoval.

Mrs. Daisy Loyd and daughter, Mrs. Park Stovall, and little Shirley, arrived yesterday afternoon from Italy to join the Van Horn reunion camp on the river near Mineral Wells crossing.
