CLARENCE OUSLEY TALKED OF ISSUES

Gave Reasons Why Ball Should Be Elected Governor.

North Texas Man Showed Fallacy of Ferguson's Land-Plank.

The text of the address was as follows:

"Before proceeding to discuss the issues of the contest for governor as I understand them I beg your indulgence for a personal word. I anticipate that my participation in this contest will provoke some sneers and the imputation of insincere motives because it happens that some weeks ago my name was used in connection with the race for governor. As President Wilson said a few days ago, 'I fancy it is as hard to do your duty when men are sneering as when they are shouting at you,' but I have tried thus far in life to observe the rule of doing my duty as I see it and let consequences take care of themselves, and I am too old now to change my habit. Of course, like all men, it pleases me to have people speak well of me and to think well of me, but I can not afford to think ill of myself in order that others may think well of me. Besides, I have been so accustomed to abuse and misrepresentation in North Texas for resisting state-wide prohibition, during the last few years that I hardly feel natural, but on the contrary, fear I am not doing my duty when people are not criticizing me. I am not going to abuse men who abuse me, but I take this occasion to say for their own good that some men who are now criticizing me ought to be ashamed of themselves. They have said heretofore when I was making great sacrifices in business and in my professional relations because I could not believe in the wisdom of state-wide prohibition that I was a very brave man, and now they are saying that I am an untrue man because I will not join them and Jim Ferguson in socializing the commonwealth and in building a brick wall around saloons and declaring that the state shall not encroach another foot or another minute upon the business of whiskey selling.

"I am making these personal remarks for two reasons. In the first place, I hope to disarm those who would divert attention from what I may say by talking about me, and in the next place I wish to resent, in behalf of another, a greater and better man than I am, the cruel and wicked expressions that have been made against him for pursuing the same course that I am pursuing in this contest. For almost half a century he has fought the battles of his country, first as a drummer boy in the Confederate army long before he reached his majority, and later as a citizen the battles of democracy in the state and in the nation, and he has done more for the welfare of the commonwealth than all the tribe of Ferguson though they multiply and replenish the earth to the crack of doom. You know, of course, that I am alluding to that grand old man, the noblest democrat of us all, R. M. Johnston. So much for that.

"I am supporting Thomas H. Ball and opposing James E. Ferguson in this contest for three principal reasons, which I beg your patience to discuss, and for other reasons which I will not tax you to even mention.

"I favor Ball and oppose Ferguson on the issue of legislation in regard to the liquor traffic. I do not agree with Colonel Ball on state-wide prohibition and I shall vote against submission as the most direct and expedient method of defeating prohibition, but the governor of this state has nothing to do with constitutional amendments. He can only vote in the primaries as you and I shall do. The people will decide this question in July, and if they decide it adversely to prohibition that will be the end of the agitation of state-wide prohibition for a long term of years. If on the other hand they decide for state-wide prohibition, the governor can do nothing more than to issue the proclamation as the legislature directs. Therefore, the question of state-wide prohibition, per se, is not an issue in this campaign, and the issue as to liquor reverts to the two lition made by Colonel Ball and Mr. Ferguson.

Colonel Ball says that if submission is defeated he will accept the verdict of the people in good faith as desiring the liquor traffic under regulations and then will favor such further regulations and restrictions as may reduce the confessed evils of the business as rapidly as possible. Mr. Ferguson says, on the other hand, that if he is elected governor he will veto any legislation relating to the liquor business. On this question Ferguson is the most devout standpatter that American politics has ever evolved. If he is an honest man and is elected governor of this state there can be no legislation in regard to the liquor traffic in whatever emergency may arise. If, perchance, the courts should nullify any of our local option laws because of constructive defects in the statutes, these defects could not be cured by legislation without a sufficient majority to override Ferguson's veto. If, perchance, the home rule act permitting cities to regulate their own affairs should prove unconstitutional and cities should be compelled to resort again to the legislature for special charters, no city in this state could so much as change its saloon limits without a two-thirds majority of the legislature to override Ferguson's veto. If the cities should ask for the privilege of closing saloons earlier than 9:30, as I believe my city of Fort Worth is today ready to do, the privilege could not be obtained so long as Ferguson is governor. The people of this state could not through their lawmakers cause an amendment to the Allison law whereby a man in dry territory could send to town for a bottle of wine for his sick wife, for that would be liquor legislation, and Ferguson would veto it.

LETTERS BRANDED AS FALSE
Colorado, Tex., July 6, 1914.

To the Voters of the Sixteenth Congressional District:
My attention has been called to a circular dated "Sweetwater, June 30, 1914," and signed "Sweetwater Committee," which I am advised is being distributed for effect on the Congressional race in this district. This circular contains copies of two letters which purport to have been written me by Ed. W. Smith. I deny most positively and emphatically that I ever received the letters copied in said circular, and I do not believe such letters were ever written or addressed to me.

Moreover, I have made diligent inquiry and am unable to find this "Sweetwater Committee" or any one who will acknowledge himself to be a member thereof.

I submit that this method of campaign carried on under cover by persons who are too COWARDLY and DISREPUTABLE to let their identity be known, is unworthy of public consideration and deserves and will receive the severest condemnation. Yours very truly,

W. R. SMITH.

Referring to the above, I brand as false the charge that I ever wrote or addressed the letters to Congressman Smith which are copied in the above mentioned circular.

ED. W. SMITH.

Miss Williams took the oath of office Wednesday, but did not enter upon the duties of the office until Thursday. It is presumed that the young men of the city will hereafter have their mail directed to the general delivery for the present at least.

FOURTH OF JULY AT BALMORHEA

The people of Balmorhea acquitted themselves most royally at their Fourth of July celebration. It was evident that the citizens of Balmorhea and Toyah Valley all united as one family in preparing to feed the large crowd that assembled there on the fourth. The great supply of barbecued meats that was prepared and roasted in the very finest of style of all and of the known variety from the well known heifer to the baby beef and was mixed up with the fatted mutton and the mountain goat. After they had been fed there was many barrels of the most choicest roasted meats and many loaves of bread that had not been cut. Pies and cakes innumerable. A large crowd went from Pecos about 190 persons took passage on the train, while many went by the automobiles. The fourth of July will be long remembered by the people of Reeves county as a great day. Candidates were present in great numbers and were busy handshaking and speech-making and it was evident that each candidate that was on the ground had the advantage and was in the lead of his opponent.

Now about 5 p. m., the day being about spent, and it was most tragic time, the older people were soon aboard of the train for Pecos. The younger ones that wanted to trip the fantastic toe remained for the dance, a large platform having been previously arranged so as to accommodate all those that wanted to participate in the dance, of which there were a large crowd that remained and enjoyed the music and dancing until about 11 p. m., when they all went aboard of the train and was soon on their way for home.

CHIEF MANAGER.

It will be good news to Miss M. Mitchell's friends in Pecos to know that she has been made chief manager of the telegraph department of the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas at a good salary and goes on duty at 8 a. m. and off at 3 p. m.

MORE TROUBLE WITH MEXICANS

J. C. Weid phoned in to the sheriff Monday morning to come out to his farm at once, because two Mexicans had beat up a white man on his farm.

S. C. Vaughan, deputy sheriff, M. L. Roddy, constable, and Ed. Kiser, city marshal, all went out there and arrested the two Mexicans and brought them in and T. M. Ripple, the white man, that the Mexicans had had the fight with, also came in and filed a complaint against them for committing an aggravated assault on him by beating him up with a spade.

The Mexicans were placed under bond for their appearance at the next term of county court. Ben Farber signed the bonds with the Mexicans for their appearance at court and they were turned loose.

Will P. Brady took the trail of T. T. Garrard, his opponent, Wednesday and went in the direction of Toyah. The good people of Reeves county may look out for a hot time on the old trail from now until the 25th.

SAD ACCIDENT AND DEATH

Mr. H. C. Jones, a citizen of Pecos who has been operating an automobile garage in Pecos and was an owner of a farm about 18 or 19 miles southwest of Pecos City, had the sad misfortune of an accident while working with his gasoline pump engine out on his farm Wednesday evening at about 10 o'clock.

The engine was running and he was using a piece of one and a half inch gas pipe as a lever, prying at the engine, and it is presumed that the lever must have slipped and was caught in the flywheel in some way or another and the bar as it was thrown over struck Mr. Jones on the head, breaking the skull, knocking him down and it is evident that as he fell forward his left hand must have been caught in the machinery, as two of the fingers were torn off and all the flesh on the back of the left hand was stripped off also the forepart of the left arm was crushed. The bar was found about fifty feet from the engine and was bent in the shape of a hairpin.

Mr. Jones lived for about one and a half hours but never became conscious at any time. The skull over the left ear and in front of the left temple was broken and crushed in.

Mr. Web Courtney was the only person present, but he was not looking at Mr. Jones at the time of the accident and was standing some thirty feet away. He immediately phoned in for Dr. Camp, who went out in his car, but the unfortunate man was dead before he arrived.

The remains were brought in and delivered to the Pecos Mercantile Company's undertaking department Thursday morning at about 5 o'clock, where many friends passed in to view the remains as they lay in state. It was a sad sight to look upon. Many men after looking at the mangled and lifeless form turned away with sorrow and sadness, with expressions of sympathy for the family and relatives of the deceased.

Mr. Jones was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife to mourn his untimely death. The Times has been unable to learn anything concerning his own people. Mrs. Jones' people live at Lexington, Ky.

The remains will be shipped to Lexington, Ky., leaving on the early T. and P. train tomorrow morning. The body will be accompanied by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. R. S. Johnson will accompany Mrs. Jones as far as Sweetwater and Mrs. Boulah Wilson will meet them at Sweetwater and go with Mrs. Jones as far as St. Louis. Mrs. Jones' mother will join them at St. Louis and Mrs. Wilson will return home.

FORMULA FOR KALSOMINE.

A very good kalsomine can be made as follows: Soak one pound of white glue overnight; then dissolve it in boiling water and add twenty pounds of Paris white, diluting with water until the mixture is of the consistency of rich milk. By adding a little coloring this can be given any tint desired—Prussian blue, for blue; Indian yellow, two parts, and burnt senna, one part, for buff; burnt amber, for brown, etc.

Lime kalsomine, for a grade of work inferior in effect to that made of Paris white and glue, is made by taking six quarts of thick lime whitewash, made of the best lime, slacked in hot water; mix turpentine and linseed oil, each one-half pint, and stir in it while the wash is hot, and add one-half pound of powdered alum. Have the mixture thick enough to spread well with a kalsomine brush.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by the Pecos Drug Co. (Adv)

COMMERCIAL CLUB SCHOOL

The secretaries of commercial clubs, boards of trade and chambers of commerce of Texas are to meet at Mineral Wells July 13th to 17th and conduct a school of instruction. In this each secretary will in turn play the part of teacher and pupil. Fifty of the leading secretaries of the state will have places on the program, each one giving a brief outline of his experience on some particular phase of commercial organization work.

Prepared papers will be ruled out and every man to appear on the program has been instructed to cut out introductory remarks, and confine himself to a brief outline of methods proven successful." In discussing this feature, J. B. Carrington of San Antonio says: "The commercial secretary, by nature and training, is a booster. Every secretary who is worth killing, can prove that his town, his club and his methods are par excellent. ### A GUN THAT SHOOTS A LIFE LINE.

Although the New York fire department has many novel devices for life rescue work—among them scaling and extension ladders, life nets, smoke helmets, etc.—among the most interesting is the life line gun. From this gun, a line fitted with a plug or harpoon much the same as that used by the life savers of the sea and in the whaler's cannon, is fired. Because of the great accuracy and dependability required in this branch of the life saviors' work, an especially equipped .44 cal. Remington is used to fire the life line. At times, it is necessary to shoot this line into a window several stories from the ground or over the roofs of buildings. A very light carrier line is used, but to this line is attached a heavier line capable of carrying enormous weights. The heavy line is easily pulled up and made fast, when the well trained fireman is able to slide down with the rescued person.

ADDING FRUIT TO CEREALS.

Children often dislike cereal foods and as they are of great value in children's diets, they should be given freely to them. Often a child will relish the cereal if fruit is added to make it more attractive and palatable.

Wheat cereal is delicious if dates or figs are stirred into it before serving. Oatmeal tastes better if stewed raisins or prunes are served with it. We ought to use stewed raisins more than we do.

When raisins are to be used in puddings, pies or other desserts, boiling water should be poured over them, and after draining they should be looked over to see if all stones are removed. They may then be chopped or torn into quarters or cut with scissors. If used for cake, they should be washed in cold water and dried on a towel, stoned and torn into pieces.

THE CHURCHES AND THE UNIVERSITY.

Religious instruction is of course not permissible at any state school, but the various denominations, realizing that the University of Texas is a strategic point, have seen to it that their young people are well taken care of.

The Southern Presbyterian church maintains a theological seminary three blocks north of the university campus, their students taking some of their work at the university while getting their religious training at the denominational school. The Roman Catholic church has just completed a dormitory and club house which adjoins their chapel on the square to the southwest of the campus. The Methodist church, which has by far the largest number of followers among the student body, has a church building just to the north of the university, and is planning to spend one hundred thousand dollars on a dormitory and student headquarters; while the Baptists are considering a similar plan. Through the generosity and loyalty of one Texas woman, the student members of the Christian church are at present perhaps the best provided for. This woman, Mrs. M. M. Banks of Lockhart, gave forty thousand dollars to build and maintain a double building on a lot adjoining the university campus. Half of this building forms a residence for a trained Bible teacher who gives all of his time to work among the students, while the other half of the building is devoted to library, class room, etc. For many years the Episcopal church has maintained a dormitory for girls.

So favorably have the university authorities been impressed by the Bible courses offered by the various agencies that students taking regular instruction under certain competent teachers of these denominations are receiving credits toward their degrees, just as if the work were taken in the classrooms of the university. By this method, a goodly per cent of the young men and women students at the University of Texas are having regular instruction in Bible history, religious education and like subjects that it is impossible for the university itself to offer.

One and one-third times the amount of the Bible courses is given in Texas and New Mexico. Round trip trains to the principal points in the East, West and Northwest on sale daily.

AUTOLOADING SHOTGUNS

ANY way you look at it, the Autoloader is the highest development in modern shotgun design. It puts live loads at your disposal by merely pressing the trigger. It puts the recoil to useful work—to eject the empty and slip in the fresh shell. It saves the gunner's shoulder—rids his sport of annoyances—increases his shooting average.

Your danger is that in your enthusiasm over the autoloading principle, you may forget to insist on getting the finest embodiment of that principle—the Remington-UMC Autoloading Shotgun.

The peculiar advantages of the Remington-UMC are too many to detail here. What you want to do is to get one of the Remington-UMC dealers in this section to demonstrate them to you on the gun itself.

Community Co-Operation

COPYRIGHTED FARM AND RANCH-HOLLAND'S MAGAZINE

(M. M. Carrick, M. D.)
Many of you complain about the poor shopping facilities of your home town, but did it never occur to you that you are to a large measure responsible for this lack? Your local stores are dependent upon the patronage extended by you and other community consumers. If you and your neighbors send your orders away, how can you expect your stores to be up to the mark? No merchant can improve his business without the co-operation of his patrons. Furthermore, when you send your money out of town for goods, you are taking it away from your own community interests—your schools, churches, and public welfare. Every dollar you expend at home is an investment for your own good, and that of your families, as it helps to make up the financial integrity of a community.

You may argue that you spend so little money that your "mite" will not be missed, but let me assure you that you are mistaken. It is the little grains of sand that make the seashore—the little bolts that help to keep the skyscraper together. Your "little" is needed to build up the bulwarks of local commercial prosperity. Above all else, your merchants need your moral support, for without this they cannot succeed.

Let us get down to facts. Why do you trade away from home? Because you think you can do better, or you have an idea you cannot find what you want in your local stores. Very well. Have you inspected the stock of your merchant and found this to be true? If not, why not be fair enough to do so, and if you do not find what you want tell him so frankly and give him an opportunity to order for you. Possibly he will make a small commission on the sale. He is surely entitled to do so as much as the out-of-town man. But more than all else he will be grateful for your moral support.

Ask him if I am not right.

(R. V. Holland.)
This town is a good town. This community is a good community. However, there is room for growth and improvement, and, in the hands of we people who live in it, rest the destinies of this community as a whole, and of we individuals as a units.

We want this town and its trade territory to prosper and grow, and we want you to join us in working to this end. You will come in for your full share of whatever success we attain.

Let's undertake to make this community so attractive that people contemplating moving to this part of the state will be irresistibly drawn to it.

Let's start this good work with a firm resolve "not to send, or take, a dollar away from home that we can spend to good advantage here." If we take our money away it won't come back, if we keep it here it will surely circulate among us locally in a way that will benefit each and every one of us.

Our merchants can serve us to as good or better advantage than those at a distance and they will reciprocate our patronage by patronizing us, and by co-operating with us in any movement undertaken for the upbuilding of this immediate section.

On the other hand, the mail order houses and distant city stores have no interest in this community beyond securing our trade, and cannot return our patronage.

Our local merchants desire and deserve our trade and it's up to us as good, loyal citizens to give it to them. They are heart and soul with us in the upbuilding of this locality, and they are our neighbors—get better acquainted with them and patronize them every time you can.

Are you going to put up any barriers? Have Green to order them.

Every day bargain day at Green's.

LETTER FROM W. R. SMITH

Colorado, Tex., July 3, 1914.
To the Voters of the Sixteenth Congressional District:

I am a candidate for re-election to Congress and hope to have your support and influence in the Democratic primary election to be held Saturday, July 25, 1914.

Since December, 1908, Congress has been in almost continuous session and I have had little time to spend in the district. I have been in Washington attending to the business of the people who elected me to Congress. In the little time that I shall have to make a campaign it will be utterly impossible for me to see all the people, hence this letter.

If I do not have the pleasure of seeing you between now and the primary election let this letter speak for me.

My long legislative experience, my acquaintance and cordial relations with the President, the members of his cabinet, and with the more than 500 senators and representatives in Congress give me, I believe, more power and influence than any new man could have.

In the discharge of my duties I have been faithful and have given the best service of which I am capable. I have worked in complete harmony with the President to carry out the great reforms for which the Democratic party stands. No threat of political defeat, no seductive lobbyist nor any other sinister influence has swerved or will swerve me one hair's breadth from my duty to the people.

For the confidence and generous support the people of the great 16th district have given me in the past I am profoundly grateful. My debt of gratitude to the people can never be amply repaid, but I have been true to every trust imposed in me and shall continue in that course to the end.

But one year of my service has been under Democratic rule, yet with the Republicans in complete control of every branch of the government, handicapped by them at every turn. I have secured larger benefits from the national government for the people of the 16th district than they had ever enjoyed before.

If my service has been satisfactory and you deem me worthy of it I shall be glad to have your active assistance in my campaign for re-election, and I hope you will come to my support Saturday, July 25, and also urge your friends to vote for me. Sincerely yours,

W. R. SMITH.

CARE OF ICE BOX.

Does your iceman sweep the sawdust off your cake of ice with a filthy broom? Does he handle the piece into your box? If so, then the chances are that some of the dirt from the broom or his hands stays on your ice. Therefore, you should thoroughly wash off the ice block before it is placed in the refrigerator, and it is for this reason particularly that you should not use the cracked ice directly in water or other articles of food. If often occurs even that the iceman drags a block of ice across the sidewalk, where it certainly collects the dirt from shoes, sputum or cigar ashes. Only thorough washing and care in using ice so contaminated will make it safe.

You can do your share to reduce this cost by following rules which will make your ice last longer, and by watching how you use it, wash it and handle it, so that you will reduce the danger of contagion to your family.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Reeves County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Andrew Moses by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 70th judicial district; to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Reeves county, Texas, to be held at the court house thereof, in Pecos, on the second Monday in July, A. D. 1914, the same being the 13th day of July, A. D. 1914, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 27th day of February, A. D. 1914, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 442, wherein W. C. Welborn is plaintiff and Andrew Moses is defendant, and the cause of action being alleged as follows: That on July 1, 1910, defendant purchased from plaintiff an undivided one-fourth interest in section 249, block 13, H. & G. N. R. R. Co. survey, Reeves county, Texas, paying part cash and agreeing to pay one-fourth of a note for $2,922.67, executed by plaintiff and one Carson, one McQueen and one Sbis, payable to W. S. Benson, March 1, 1912. That while said note was payable to W. S. Benson on its face, in fact plaintiff possessed an interest therein amounting to $417 due to plaintiff by Benson, as commission for the sale of said section of land. And it was agreed between plaintiff herein and Benson that plaintiff was to receive said sum when said note was paid March 1, 1912.

Plaintiff alleges that when said note came due defendant did not pay the full sum of said note to Benson, but stated to Benson that he had settled with plaintiff in regard to same and deducted said sum of $417.00 from said note, paying Benson the balance.

Plaintiff alleges that defendant has never at any time settled with him in re his interest in said note, nor paid him any part of same. Plaintiff prays for judgment against defendant for his debt, principal and interest and costs of suit, etc.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, on said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Pecos, Texas, this 23 day of June, 1914.

THE CHURCHES

Baptist.

Last Sunday was a muddy day, and following the 'Glorious Fourth' it was not expected everyone would go to church, yet there was a goodly number of Pecos people who went to church. Few people ever grow great Christian character except those who practice regular attendance at church services.

Next Sunday morning the service will be especially for the old folks. Let us try to make it a good day for them. Let all the young people and children come and see that our aged ones have a warm handshake and a smile of love. Old songs will be sung, and all the congregation asked to sing.

At night the pastor will preach on "Christian Rewards," or whether there will be degrees in Heaven. He thinks the Sunday school lesson of last Sunday was not well explained in the lesson helps. Will not all of God's children in Heaven share alike in the benefits, possessions and glories of that goodly land? Be on hand at all the services.

Methodist.

All the usual services of the church next Sunday. The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Our young people have been conducting the Wednesday night prayer meetings, to the profit and pleasure of the older members of the congregation. Next Wednesday evening Miss Mary Henry Woods will have charge of the prayer meeting services.

Church of Christ.

Do you enjoy good music? If so, you had better arrange to be at the church at 9:45 prompt Sunday morning. Good singing, accompanied by the Bible school orchestra, will be the feature of the opening exercises. Preaching at usual hour both morning and evening.

Do not forget the C. E. prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Get the church-going habit. It is good for the body as well as the soul. Leave off the cares of the week, forget the hot weather, and join in the worship of the God of all the earth.

This is an invitation to YOU to worship with us next Lord's day.

WILL MAKE PECOS THEIR FUTURE HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Reid of Fort Worth were here the forepart of the week on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sid Kyle and family.

Mr. Reid has just recently purchased the McElroy ranch near Pyote and they will make their home in Pecos.

The Pecos people are more than pleased to extend them a hearty welcome in which the Times gladly joins. We have not yet learned where they will live.

They went to Roswell, from which point they will go to California for a two months' visit and on their return will move to Pecos.

THE NEW CAFE NOW TOM'S PLACE.

W. T. Durr of Fort Stockton, who has bought the New Cafe, is having some improvements made and will try to furnish the people with the best of things to eat. We want all the old patrons to continue and invite the public in general. Tom's Place. Short orders. 27

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many kind neighbors and friends who so generously and promptly came to our aid with their assistance, consolation and flowers, during the short illness and death of our little son, Virgil, we extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks.

We miss little Virgil with his sunny smile and mischievous nature which we can never more see and enjoy, but rejoice that he has gone to that home where there can be no more earthly trials, and that in the hour of our loss none could have received more prompt and generous assistance and consolation than that given us.

CONDITION OF PECOS VALLEY APPLE CROP JULY 1

Roswell, N. M., July 6.—The orchards have had better attention this season than ever before, in the way of pruning, cultivation and spraying, and as a result the fruit is growing better, has very few worms and is hanging on the trees better.

The damage by hail was extremely severe in some sections, but this area was not large.

Our June report regarding the yield this season we think was about correct—600 cars will about cover the amount of the crop. So far as we have been able to learn, the crop of the United States will be a good average one with New Mexico running about 10 per cent above the general average.

Worms interfere with the growth of children. They become thin, pale and sickly. Get rid of these parasites at once if you would have healthy, happy, cheerful children.

WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE destroys worms and benefits the whole system. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by the Pecos Drug Company. (Advt.)

QUIT TAKING RISKY CALOMEL

Here is a vegetable tonic that is far better for you to take than the dangerous drug and poison called calomel. You never can tell when calomel is going to "get you." That's the worst thing about taking so uncertain and dangerous a drug for constipation and liver trouble. Calomel is liable to salivate you or "knock you out" for at least a day the very next time you try it.

The Pecos Drug Company have the mild vegetable remedy that successfully takes the place of calomel. This remedy is Dodson's Liver Tone, a very pleasant tasting liquid that gives quick but gentle relief from constipation, torpid or "lazy" liver.

Dodson's Liver Tone is fully guaranteed, and if you buy a large bottle for fifty cents and it does not entirely satisfy you, the drug store where you bought it will promptly give you your money back with a smile.

Dodson's is fine for both children and grown people. Same MONEY by buying your groceries and feed from Green's Grocery. 24-5
